From the N. H. Gazette.

XXXVITH CONGRESS.—The first session of the 36th Congress commences on Monday next, and it is possible we may be able to spread before our readers, in the next Gazette, the annual Message of President Buchanan, though it is not improbable that the organization of the House may be delayed some days. The Message will not be delivered until after the organization is complete. Neither party have a majority in the House, and no election of Speaker can be made except by the adoption of a plurality rule, or a combination between some two or more of the various divisions. A majority of the whole House is 119 members.—The Democrats have 93 members, the Brown Republicans 113, Anti-Lecompton Democrats 8, and South Americans 23. It is said that Mr. Douglas has advised his friends to participate in the Democratic caucus, and should they act harmoniously together, the Democrats will have 101 votes, lack-18 votes of a majority, while the Republicans want 6 votes. The balance of power thus remains with the South Americans. That this class of members, since the raid of Brown and his fanatical crew into Virginia, will act with the Republicans in the organization of the House, we think highly improbable. It is said that a few of them may, while refusing to vote for the Republican candidate, substantially play into their hands by voting for a plurality rule, in which case the Browns will secure the organization, as was the case when N. P. Banks was elected Speaker. At present the chances are decidedly in favor of the Democratic side of the House.

Speaking of the candidates, the Washington States and Union says:

"Bocock and Grow will almost certainly be the opposing candidates for the Speakership. The former enjoys the unbounded confidence of the Democracy throughout the whole Union. The latter, we presume, is as much the favorite of the Black Republicans as he was two years ago.

We believe it is probable to elect Bocock, in view of his superior qualifications for the post, and the high estimation in which he is universally held for his great elevation of character and suavity of manners. He would be, unquestionably, as impartial and popular a presiding officer as ever was chosen by a deliberative assembly. Contrasted with Grow, the difference in fitness is so overpoweringly striking, that none but the darkest shades of Black Republican members could reconcile it to their consciences to vote against him."

Of the numerous persons spoken of for Clerk the name of the Clerk of the last House, Mr. Allen, is the most prominent on the Democratic side, and Mr. Schouler of the Boston Atlas and Bee, on the Republican. It is said that Forney of the Philadelphia Press is also urging his claims to the office, and is asking Republican assistance to secure the honor. Should he be successful, it seems to us he would forfeit his right to the countenance and support of Democrats, with which party he still pretends to act. By another week we shall be able to state exactly the state of feeling of the numerous divisions which are known to exist among the members.

PORTSMOUTH CAPITAL IN BOSTON. — The Channing street end of the block on Federal street has been built by William Sheafe, Esq., of Portsmouth, N. H., a name honored for its wealth and influence in that city, who a year since removed to Boston, with large capital, and has devoted it to improvements. The new "Washington Building" adjacent to the Marlboro' Hotel, opposite the head of Franklin street, is also his. This structure may be pointed to as a model of architectual beauty, than which none is more graceful or more substantially built in Boston. The material composing it is new, and this adds to the attraction. No other building in Boston is formed of the same. The stone is called the Cumberland Bay sandstone, and is brought from New Brunswick. It was all wrought out in the quarries, and came together without a mistake being made in preparation or quanity.

The building is five stories high, he rooms lofty and large, and adapted for offices, artists' rooms, or for schools, and are very desirable. It is a fortunate thing for our city that gentlemen of Mr. Sheafe's liberal views should come to reside with us, and his efforts are entitled to the notice that shall assure him of their appreciation, we are pleased to mention his name in connection with improvements that add so much to the appearance and valuation of Boston.—Saturday Evening Ga

GREAT STOCK OF WINTER CLOTHING.—J. W. Smith & Co. corners Dock Square and Elm street, Boston, are closing out their entire stock of Winter Clothing, at the lowest possible prices for cash. An opportunity is now offered to secure the very best Ready-made Clothing ever manufactured.—The stock embraces every description of garments, such as Overcoats, Business Coats, Pants, Vests, &c. of the latest styles and best materials, all made in a superior manner.

METHODIST DEDICATION.—The new Chapel in Daniel street is to be dedicated next Tuesday P. M. at 2 o'clock, with appropriate services. Sermon by Rev. D. P. Leavitt, and dedicatory prayer by Rev. J. Hall. The entire expense of building, fitting up and laying walk has been a little over $1400.

We are requested to say that Rev. C. W. Denison, (of Boston,) will preach at the Temple tomorrow forenoon; and in the evening will preach at the same place in behalf of seamen.

The new U. S. Steamer Mohican is expected to sail from our Navy Yard this day, Saturday, at noon, on a trial trip to New York—thence for the coast of Africa.

The overhauling of the corvette Cumberland, the flag-ship of the African squadron, has just been completed at Portsmouth, N. H. Her armament is being prepared at Brooklyn, where she will probably be fitted out next spring. She is spoken of as booked for the next China squadron.—Washington States & Union.

☞ The new U. S. gun boat Narragansett has proved a complete failure, both as a sailing vessel and as a propeller. It was impossible to get seven knots out of the craft, and she drifted to leeward like a log.

Hon. John R. Reding, was on Tuesday chosen Mayor of Portsmouth by 28 majority. He is a strong Democratic partisan but has some excellent qualities for the office. Men who manage well their own affairs, are apt to take good care of those of the public.—N. H. Statesman.

MOTHERS,

In presenting you with DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL, we desire to state its superiority over every nostrum that nurse or quack has heretofore offered you.

First—It is the preparation of a regular physician, who is well qualified from much experience in infantile complaints to prescribe for them.—Secondly—It is entirely free from paregoric or opiate of any kind, and consequently relieves by removing the suffering of your child, instead of deadening its sensibilities. Thirdly—It is put up with great care, as a comparison of it with any other article for infantile complaints will show; the very roots from which it is distilled being dug from the forests under the direction of Dr. Eaton, many of them by his own hands. Fourthly—it is perfectly harmless and cannot injure the most delicate infant, and is a certain cure and relief in all the following cases, which is its chief merit over every other preparation.

FOR ALL COMPLAINTS ATTENDING TEETHING; such as DYSENTERY, COLIC, &c.; also, for softening the gums and relieving pain. For regulating the bowels it is unequalled. For Cold in the Head it is a sure relief. For CROUP, the most fatal and trying of diseases, it can be relied on with perfect confidence and being a powerful anti-spasmodic in all cases of convulsions or fits, we earnestly recommend you to loose no time in procuring it—Lastly—it costs so much more than other preparations of the kind, that we cannot afford such long advertisements as can those whose whole expense is their advertising; for the same reason, it commends itself as the most reliable to all mothers. In all cases, the directions wrapped around each bottle, must be strictly followed. Price, 25 cents per bottle.

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA,

A compound remedy in which we have labored to produce the most effectual alterative that can be made. It is a concentrated extract of Pars Sarsaparilla, of combined with other substances of still greater alterative power as to afford an effective antidote for the diseases Sarsaparilla is reputed to cure. It is believed that such a remedy is wanted by those who suffer from Strumous complaints, and that one which will a complish their cure must be of immense service to this class of our afflicted fellow citizens. How completely this compound will do it, has been proven by experiment on many of the worst cases to be found in the following complaints:—

SCROFULA AND SCROFULOUS COMPLAINTS, ERUPTIONS AND ERUPTIVE DISEASES, ULCERS, PIMPLES, BLOTCHES, TUMORS, SALT RHEUM, SCALD HEAD, SYPHILIS AND SYPHILITIC AFFECTIONS, MERCURIAL DISEASE, DROPSY, NEURALGIA OR TIC DOULOUREUX, DEBILITY, DYSPEPSIA AND INDIGESTION, ERYSIPELAS, ROSE OR ST. ANTHONY'S FIRE, and indeed the whole class of complaints arising from IMPURITY OF THE BLOOD.

This compound will be found a great promoter of health, when taken in the spring, to expel the foul humors which fester in the blood at that season of the year. By the timely expulsion of them many rankling disorders are nipped in the bud.—Multitudes can, by the aid of this remedy, spare themselves from the endurance of foul eruptions and ulcerous sores, through which the system will strive to rid itself of corruptions, if not assisted to do this through the natural channels of the body by an alterative medicine. Cleanse out the vitiated blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in pimples, eruptions or sores;—cleanse it when you find it is obstructed or sluggish in the veins; cleanse it whenever it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Even where no particular disorder is felt, purifying the blood betters health, and live live longer, for cleansing the blood. Keep the blood healthy, and all is well; but with this pabulum of life disordered, there can be no lasting health. Sooner or later something must go wrong, and the great machinery of life is disordered or overthrown.

Sarsaparilla has, and deserves much, the reputation of accomplishing these ends. But the world has been egregiously deceived by preparations of it, partly because the drug alone has not all the virtue that is claimed for it, but more because many preparations, pretending to be concentrated extracts of it contain but little of the virtue of Sarsaparilla, or anything else.

During late years the public have been misled by large bottles, pretending to give a quart of Extract of Sarparilla for one dollar. Most of these have been frauds upon the sick, for they not only contained little, if any, Sarsaparilla, but often no curative properties whatever. Hence bitter and painful disappointment has followed the use of the various extracts of Sarsaparilla which flood the market, until the name itself is justly cspised, and has become synonymous with imposition and cheat. Still we call this compound Sarsaparilla, and intend to supply such a remedy as shall rescue the name from the load of obloquy which rests upon it. And we think we have grounds for believing it has virtues which are irresistible by the ordinary run of the diseases it is intended to cure. In order to secure their complete eradication from the system, the remedy should be judiciously taken according to directions on the bottle.

AMERICAN & FOREIGN PATENTS.

R. H. EDDY, Solicitor of Patents,
Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington,
76 STATE, OPPOSITE KILBY ST., BOSTON.

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions,—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate. The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

I have no hesitation in assuring inventors they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHAS. MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

BOSTON, February 8, 1858.

Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that one is now pending, such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges. JOHN TAGGART.

From Sept 17, 1857, to June 17, 1858, the subscriber, in the course of his large practice, made on TWICE rejected applications, SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in HIS FAVOR, by the Commissioner of Patents.

DR. J. B. HUGHES,

Knowing that there are at this moment thousands of persons in the surrounding towns, suffering from the ill effects of Mercury, administered by unskilful practitioners, and that many are rendering their lives to the insidious inroads of certain dangerous maladies, who will suffer from the reluctance to make known their complaints and consult a physician, he would state that all of his medicines will be sent by express or otherwise, to all who may order them, provided the true description of the disease be sent by letter and directed as above.

Full and explicit directions will accompany every package, and the most inviolable secrecy preserved.

DR. HUGHES can with safety say during the last year of his practice in Boston, more than three hundred cases of disease which have been improperly treated by empyrics have come under his care, and more than three-fourths of this number are inscribed upon his books as perfect cures.

Patients treated by letter by addressing Dr. Hughes, post paid, and medicines sent all over the country, carefully concealed from scrutinizing friends.

Be particular in finding Dr. Hughes. Do not be lured from the right path, or be persuaded to try experiments with false and fictitious remedies at the expense of destroying what is the great pillar of life, a healthy constitution.

This medicine can only be obtained at the Office of Dr. HUGHES, 13 Howard street, Boston.

DR. J. B. HUGHES UNIVERSAL FEMALE RENOVATING PILLS. These pills are unrivalled in efficacy and superior virtue in regulating all female irregularities. Their action is specific and certain, producing relief in a short space of time. They are acknowledged to be the best in use.

The Dr. cautions the public to beware of impositions that are being practiced by advertising a spurious article under some spurious or impose name. They are entirely useless, having been got up by miserable pretenders who are entirely ignorant of the efficacy of medicines.

All who are in pursuit of the genuine article had better call on the Dr. at his office, where they will be sure of getting the genuine—the only place in Boston where the genuine is for sale.

These pills can be sent to any part of the country with directions. Remember the number—13 Howard street, Boston.

P. S.—The best of accommodations furnished with kind and attentive nurses if they wish, at a reasonable rate. j2 ly

☞ The women of Williamsburg, Ohio, have abated a liquor "nuisance" in that town, in a summary manner. They smashed every jug, cask and keg, tore up the beer furnaces, smashed the kettles, and carried the malt and hops into the street.

It is complained of Shakespeare that he unnecessarily murdered Hamlet. But the Dane has been amply avenged; a great many Hamlets have murdered Shakspeare.

THE NEWS-LETTER FOR SALE.—Samuel Hall, publisher of the Exeter News Letter, advertises his establishment for sale.

An architect proposes to build a "Bachelor Hall," which will differ from most houses in having no Eves.

☞ Hon. N. B. Bryant writes to his friends, that he shall probably return with his family to this State by the first of March.

☞ Christmas is coming and it is feared that it will lead to the complication in the affairs of Turkey.

As there is no House of Lords in America, a Yankee is justified in bragging about his "Peerless Country."

MOTHERS,
In presenting you with DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL, we desire to state its superiority over every nostrum that nurse or quack has heretofore offered you.
First—It is the preparation of a regular physician, who is well qualified from much experience in infantile complaints to prescribe for them.—Secondly—It is entirely free from paregoric or opiate of any kind, and consequently relieves by removing the suffering of your child, instead of deadening its sensibilities. Thirdly—It is put up with great care, as a comparison of it with any other article for infantile complaints will show: the very roots from which it is distilled being dug from the forests under the direction of Dr. Eaton, many of them by his own hands. Fourthly—It is perfectly harmless and cannot injure the most delicate infant, and is a certain cure and relief in all the following cases, which is its chief merit over every other preparation.
FOR ALL COMPLAINTS ATTENDING TEETHING; such as DYSENTERY, COLIC, &c.; also, for softening the gums and relieving pain. For regulating the bowels it is unequalled. For Cold in the Head it is a sure relief. For CROUP, the most fatal and trying of diseases, it can be relied on with perfect confidence; and being a powerful anti-spasmodic in all cases of convulsions or fits, we earnestly recommend you to loose no time in procuring it—Lastly—it costs so much more than other preparations of the kind, that we cannot afford such long advertisements as can those whose whole expense is their advertising; for the same reason, it commends itself as the most reliable to all mothers. In all cases, the directions wrapped around each bottle, must be strictly followed. Price, 25 cents per bottle.
Sold by CHURCH & DUPONT, Druggists, No. 35 Maiden Lane, New York.
And by all respectable Druggists throughout the country.
In Portsmouth by W. H. PRESTON.

BLOOD FOOD.
Dr. Bronson, having been so far reduced by consumption, as to be considered beyond all hope of recovery by the most eminent physicians of his profession, and also by himself—a regular physician of twenty years' practice—as a last resort, conceived the idea of ANALYZING THE BLOOD, and supplying the subject of physiology to the more immediate consumer, and effect a cure. The result has been the production of the article of the blood upon the health and strength of the sick, which has proved so far beyond all hope or expectation, as to be considered a discovery of the most decided merit. Within six months after its introduction, over 3000 consumptives were effectually cured by it. If you have any complaint of a consumptive tendency, or any humor whatever, one or two bottles will be sure to invigorate, and bring it into lively motion, and in the most invertebrate cases of the more immediate consumptive tendency, a few bottles will be found to be a complete cure. If your Liver is torpid or diseased in any manner whatever, one or two bottles will be sure to invigorate, and bring it into lively motion, and in the most invertebrate cases of the more immediate consumptive tendency, a few bottles will be found to be a complete cure. MONDAY, DEC. 5, 1859.

A LAST INTERVIEW.

The "associated press" are publishing the following account of the last interview of John Brown and his wife, as telegraphed from Charlestown, Dec. 2. It is plain, from this account, that the Virginia authorities have never yet understood the character of the prisoner, as they had the idea he might poison himself, thinking him afraid to meet the shame of hanging.

The interview between Brown and his wife lasted from 4 to 8 o'clock in the evening, when Gen. Taliaferro informed them that she must depart to the Ferry. The information was rather of a practical character—with regard to herself and chidlren, and the arrangement and settlement of business affairs. They seemed considerably affected when they first met, and Mrs. Brown was, for a few moments, quite overcome, but Brown was as firm as a rock, and she soon recovered her composure.

There was an impression that the prisoner might possibly be furnished with a weapon or strychnine by his wife, and before the interview her person was searched by the wife of the jailor.

A strict watch was kept over them during the time they were together. At the time of separation they both seemed to be fully self-possessed, and the parting, especially on his part, exhibited a composure that was surprising.

She rather repelled all attempts to express sympathy with her under her affliction. She resented the idea that he had done anything to deserve death or taint his name with dishonor, and declared that the ignominious character of the punishment that was about to be inflicted upon him, was as cruel as it was unjust. She regarded him as a martyr in a righteous cause, and was proud to be the wife of such a man.

Capt. Avis, the jailer, and Gen. Taliaferro were present, and Captain Brown urged that his wife be allowed to remain with him all night. To this the General refused assent, allowing them but four hours. On first meeting they kissed and affectionately embraced, and Mrs. Brown shed a few tears, but immediately checked her feelings. At the close they shook hands, but did not embrace, and as they parted he said—"God bless you and the children."—Mrs. Brown replied—"God have mercy on you."

After discussing family matters they proceeded to business. He desired his property to pass entirely into her possession, for the benefit of his younger children. He requested her to remain at North Elba, New York, on her farm, where she now resides. One of his sons was directed to take a tombstone or monument that marks the grave of his father at North Elba, and have his name, age, and the manner of his death, together with the cause for which he had suffered, cut upon it. He directs that it shall remain at North Elba as long as his family resides there.

The death of his two sons was spoken of, and Mrs. Brown remarked that she had made some efforts, whilst at Harper's Ferry, for the recovery of their bodies. Captain Brown suggested that it would be best to take his body, with the bodies of his four sons, and get a pile of pine logs, and burn them altogether; that it would be much better and less expensive to thus gather up all their ashes together, and take them to their final resting place. Sheriff Campbell told him that this would not be permitted within the State, and Mrs. Brown objected to the proposition altogether.

The prisoner said that he contemplated his death with composure and calmness. It would undoubtedly be pleasant to live longer, but, as it was the will of God he should close his career, he was content. It was doubtless best that he should be thus legally murdered, for the good of the cause, and he was prepared to submit to his fate without a murmur. Mrs. Brown, becoming depressed at these remarks, he bid her cheer up, telling her that his spirit would soon be with her again, and that they would be reunited in Heaven.

With regard to the execution, he said that he desired no religious ceremonies, either in the jail or on the scaffold, from Ministers who consent to or approve of the enslavement of their fellow creatures; that he would prefer rather to be accompanied to the scaffold by a dozen slave children and a good old slave mother, with their appeal to God for blessings on his soul, than all the eloquence of the whole clergy of the Commonwealth combined.

BURNHAM—of extensive notoriety—completed his twenty-five days in the Suffolk jail on Saturday. His next appearance will be before the Supreme Court to answer to an indictment charging him with selling adulterated liquors.

☞ By the will of the late Deacon Anderson of Windham, the N. H. Missionary and N. H. Bible societies will each receive $500 from his estate, within two years from his decease.

☞ The agent of the associated press says that John Brown before leaving his cell to be hung, bid adieu to all his fellow-prisoners, and was very affectionate to all except Cook. He charged Cook with having deceived and misled him in relation to the support he was to receive from the slaves. He was led to believe that they were ripe for insurrection, and had found that his representations were false. Cook denied the charge, but made little reply.

The prisoner proceeded to the door, apparently calm and cheerful, whilst an open wagon, with a pine box in which was a fine oak coffin, was waiting for him.

He spoke to several persons he recognized, and, walking down the steps, took a seat on the coffin box along with the jailor. He looked with interest on the fine military display, but made no remark.

Pickets were stationed, and the citizens kept back at the point of the bayonet from taking any position but that assigned them.

Through the determined persistence of Dr. Rawlings, of Frank Leslie's, the order excluding the Press, was partially rescinded, and they were assigned a position near the Major General's staff.

The prisoner walked up the steps firmly, and was the first man on the gallows.—Avis and Sheriff Campbell stood by his side, and after shaking hands and bidding an affectionate adieu, he thanked them for their kindness.

☞ We might fill our columns with accounts of sympathy and mourning meetings, bell tollings, and the like for John Brown, his family, and the slave power, on Friday.

The Boston Post informs us, that on Friday evening at Tremont Temple, a meeting was held to commemorate the death of Brown, and to express sympathy for the family of the deceased. The hall was crowded to its utmost capacity at an early hour, a very large proportion of the audience being colored persons, and hundreds—probably thousands—were turned from the doors unable to obtain admission. Most were doubtless there through "sympathy," but many were there through curiosity alone.

On the other hand, the Post says:—

The impromptu gathering at the Tremont House, was worthy of the best days of Boston. It was determined by those who are among our most eminent merchants and citizens, with eager unanimity, to invite the patriotism of Massachusetts to assemble in this city at an early day, &c.

The design of this early day meeting is to pass resolutions like those of five and twenty years ago, when "gentlemen of property and standing" stultified themselves by knuckling to the slave power. But the times have changed since then, and men too.

The Post also informs us, that at New Bedford, the sympathy was "manifested by the exhibition of a negro, said to be a fugitive slave, who stands upon the balcony of Liberty Hall ringing a tea bell. This bell was cast from a piece of the old bell, melted when old Liberty Hall was burned."

A very appropriate observance, we should say.

In Concord, Mass., there was a great prayer meeting.

In New York city, Rev. Dr. Cheever had a great meeting in his church, and there was another in one of the colored churches.

THE ENGLISH PRESS.—One of our English papers, pronounced by a competent judge "the best British paper out of London," in an editorial article on the trial of John Brown, says of the prisoner:

"He was a negro, and he had dared to raise his hand against white men, his oppressors, and the oppressors of his race in that 'land of liberty.' This was enough."

MR. SEWARD.—New York, Dec. 3.—The Times' Paris correspondent writes, under date of Nov. 17: Mr. Seward arrived here five days ago from his trip to Jerusalem and the Holy Land, and is in good health and spirits. He indignantly denies ever having even heard of the projected insurrection at Harper's Ferry, and although he half recollects having received a call from a man known as Col. Forbes, there was no mention made of such attempt at insurrection. Col. Forbes asked for means for another object, which he refused, and that was all he ever saw of the individual in question. Mr. Seward goes home in the Arago in December.

☞ Lydia Maria Child is to write the life of John Brown, on behalf of his family. That by James Redpath, will be out first.

John Brown and Gov. Wise are said to have been brother Masons. The grip the Goveanor gave his brother on Friday, was not a brotherly one by any means.—Ex.

NEW HAVEN, 2d.—ARREST FOR NEGRO STEALING.—News has just reached here of the arrest in Philapelphia, of George W. Bishop of this city, for man-stealing. Bishop was in the employ of a respectable horse-dealer.

He went South with some horses, enticed a negro from New York to go with him and sold the lad in Alabama. He came back here with well-lined pockets and started again for the South. On his return he was taken by the police of Philadelphia, where he awaits his trial.

☞ The Claremont Eagle says of Mrs. Bishop: "Besides reading admirably, she is a superb woman—well worth the price of admission to look at for an hour."

FASHIONABLE WOMEN.—Fashion kills more women than toil and sorrow. Obedience to fashion is a greater transgression of the law of woman's nature, a greater injury to her physical and mental constitution, than the hardships of poverty and neglect. The slave woman in her task will live and grow old, and see two or three generations of her mistresses fade and pass away. The washer-woman, with scarce a ray of hope to cheer her in her toils, will live to see her fashionable sisters all die around her. The kitchen maid is hearty and strong, when her lady has to be nursed like a baby.

It is a sad truth that fashion-pampered women are almost worthless for all the good ends of life. They have but little force of character; They have still less power of moral will, and quite as little of physical energy. They live for no great ends. They are only doll-forms in the hands of milliners and servants, to be dressed and fed to order. They dress nobody, they feed nobody, they bless nobody. and save noboby. They write no books; They set no rich examples of virtue and womanly life.

If they rear children, servants do all save to conceive and give them birth. And when reared, what are they? What do they amount to, but weaker scions of the old stock? Who ever heard of a fashionable woman's child exhibiting any virtue and power of mind for which it became eminent? Read the biographies of our great and good men and women. Not one of them had a fashionable mother. They nearly all sprung from strong-minded women, who had about as little to do with fashion as with the changing clouds.

THE UNCERTAINTY OF SHOWMEN.—It is stated that the profits of the play called "Our American Cousin," during a run of one hundred and sixty nights in New York, amounted to more than forty thousand dollars; while the great French tragedian Rachel only realized from her engagement at the Boston Theatre $376, while by it the Theatre lost $354.

☞ Adelina Patti, the incomparably beautiful little musical elf, who sang or rather warbled at a concert given in Portsmouth by Strakosch, a few years since,—when a mere child,—is creating a great excitement among the opera-goers in New York—as well she may.

☞ Mrs. Kemble is "reading" in Boston. Within an hour of the time the office was opened, all the season tickets were sold, and hundreds of applicants were disappointed.

☞ A large picture in the last number of Punch relates to the war talk between France and England. It is very good. On a headland overlooking the channel, sits the British lion, looking sharp and determined; on the other shore stands Louis Napoleon, having in his hand a diminutive barking toy-dog, which he is thrusting in the face of his truculent neighbor, meanwhile vigorously plying the barking apparatus. The picture is significantly inscribed "Bow-Wow!"

SCENE AT A STREET CORNER—In front of a poster.—Seedy looking loafer with suspicious looking nose, reads—

Loquiter—"Hic, I take it I'm one of 'em physicians—and as I've got a—hic—diploma in my pocket in the shape of a sixpence, I guess I'll practice a little.—Bangor Whig.

☞ The port of Chicago is in danger.—The mouth of the river is already filling up with sand, and now the pier into the lake, which serves as a partial protectiou to the harbor, is declared to be in danger of being washed away by the first gale. The Board of Trade are moving to repair the pier at private expense, and appeal to Congress for the erection of a new one.

DEATH AMONG THE TROUT.—A correspondent of the Farmington Chronicle, writing from Phillips, Me., states that large numbers of trout are lying dead and dying in the streams of that region. A similar occurrence took place in 1825—it being then attributed to the effect upon the waters of the smoke from the great fires in the woods.

DEATH OF ONE OF THE WOMEN OF THE REVOLUTION.—Died on Tuesday evening last at the residence of her son, Wm. H. Dole, in Orrington, Me., Matilda Dole, aged 96. She was one of the few remaining widows of revolutionary soldiers, and had received a pension under the act of 1836.

AIMING HIGH.—The Unitarian Society of San Francisco have invited the Rev. Dr. Bellows of New York, and Rev. T. S. King of Boston, to go to California for two or three years, and preach for them. They offer large pecuniary inducements, but both calls were declined several months ago.—Transcript.

Catarrhal Cough.
This insidious and annoying symptom, so difficult to treat, depends on a subacute inflammation of the air-passages, which is apt to end in chronic ulceration and a form of consumption. The mucous membrane of the air-passages is peculiarly susceptible to the healing influences of the PERUVIAN SYRUP, as the testimonials of some of our first citizens show.

Dr. Hostetter's Bitters have received the warmest encomiums from the press and people throughout the Union. As a valuable tonic for the cure of Dyspepsia, Flatulence, Constipation and general nervous debility, it cannot be approached. Every day new cases of its great effect are chronicled through our public journals. There is nothing equal to the enjoyment, to that which the afflicted experience when using this valuable specific. Its mild tone, its sure and vigorous action upon a disordered stomach, and the cleansing of the entire human body should recommend it to all classes of our community. All that will be necessary to convince the skeptical of its healthy effects, is to purchase a bottle and be convinced.
Sold by druggists and dealers generally, everywhere.

Among the restoratives which Nature has supplied to relieve the afflictions of humanity there is no more favorite one for a certain class of diseases than the "medicinal gum" of the Wild Cherry Tree; but however valuable it is, its power to heal, to soothe, to relieve, and to cure, is enhanced ten-fold by scientific and judicious combination with other ingredients, in themselves of equal worth. This happy mingling exists in that

HOME TESTIMONY.
BOSTON, April 18, 1852.
Mr. Seth W. Fowle,—Dear Sir:—Your invaluable medicine, I can truly say, has literally snatched me from the grave. Last July I was attacked by a sudden cold, which resulted in a very severe Cough, with violent pains in the side and chest. I became so much reduced, that my friends frankly told me that I must die. At this crisis, I heard of Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, and immediately sent for a bottle. The effect produced was indeed wonderful. My physician, one of the most respectable in Boston, who had previously told me that a cure was hopeless, came in, and I informed him what I had taken. He examined the Balsam, and advised me to continue the use of it, since which time I have continued to improve daily; and the same physician who had given me up, told me, a few days since, that I might yet live many years. Respectfully,
MARY ROWE.
We can cheerfully testify to the truth of the above statement, Mrs. Rowe having been an inmate of our family. WILLIAM DENNETT,

LECTURE AT THE TEMPLE.— Rev. C. T. Dennison, of Boston, editor and proprietor of the newspaper called "The Sea," devoted to the cause of seamen—will lecture at the Temple, this (Monday) evening, Dec. 5, on "The Wonders of the Tropics" illustrated by descriptions of the Gulf Stream, scenery, climate, productions, &c. Mr. Dennison was formerly U. S. Consul in the West Indies, where he enjoyed good opportunities of making himself familiarly acquainted with many matters of interest appertaining to our country. He has delivered this lecture in several cities to large audiences. Admission 10 cents. The net proceeds will be applied to the gratuitous circulation of "The Sea."

☞ We publish on the fourth page this evening, a well-timed and richly-merited notice of Mr. Thomas S. Nowell's new Shoe Manufactory—copied from the Journal.—It is undoubtedly the finest building of the kind in the State; and is no less an ornament to the city, than an evidence of the public spirit, energy, enterprise and good taste of the proprietor—who has certainly proved himself one of the most important and valuable of our citizens. All who are interested in the welfare of Portsmouth, must wish Mr. Nowell the richest success, in this enlarging of his facilities for business.

☞ The closing lesson and private exhibition of Mr. Sam'l Lamprey's Dancing and Waltzing Academy, at Rechab Hall, last week, was an occasion of great interest to the fine large class which has been in attendance, and to the numerous friends and guests present. The Hall was filled, and all were gratified and delighted with the exercises. Among other new and fashionable dances, the beautiful schottische quadrilles elicited especial admiration.

Mr. Lamprey's long residence among us, and the success of the numerous pupils which have been under his tuition, among which have always been found representatives of the most genteel families in the city—have proved him both a talented and faithful teacher, and a trustworthy and reliable business gentleman.

We understand that Mr. L. will commence a new term of his Dancing Academy early in the Spring.

GOV. WISE HUNG.—On Saturday morning, daylight disclosed that the sapient executive of the Old Dominion, was swinging from a large tree in front of the Academy; that is, an effigy, dressed in drab pants, and a military coat and cap like those of the old city greys, was hung there by the neck, on Friday night. It might not have been recognized, but for the label, "Gov. Wise;"—and though the affair made considerable talk, we did not hear of any arrests—save those of attention. The image was not taken down till about noon, when some boys removed it.

☞ The U. S. steam propeller "Mohican," (gunboat,) Capt. Godon, sailed on Saturday, at noon, from the Portsmouth, N. H., Naval Station, for New York and the African Coast.

Commander, S. Godon.
Lieuts., T. H. Patterson, J. P. Jones, J. W. Dunnington.
Purser, C. Abbott.
Passed Asst. Surgeon, C. F. Fahs.
Master, A. F. Crossman.
Chief Engineer, T. Shock.
Passed Midshipmen, F. Blake, H. Todd, H. Miller.
1st Ass't Engineer, A. Kiersted; 3d do., G. W. Rogers, James Atkins, Edward Farmer, R. H. Felch.
Captain's Clerk, C. F. Lowd.
Purser's Clerk, W. Hennessey.

☞ The Portland, Saco and Portsmouth Railroad has declared a dividend of 3 per cent. payable Dec. 1st, to the holders of stock on the 1st inst.

☞ On Wednesday a funeral procession was passing along the highway, near the railway track in Bridgeport, Conn., as the Boston express train was passing, when the horse drawing the hearse became frightened, threw the driver from his seat, upset the hearse and emptied it of its contents.

☞ The inventor has just obtained a patent for a glass coffin. Bodies placed in these coffins may be preserved in their natural state for all time to come, and when placed in vaults can always be accessible to the gaze of those who are left behind.

☞ The Classical Academy at Williamston, N. Y., with library and apparatus, was burned on the 22d inst. The fire was occasioned by the furnace pipes. The school was about opening under the instruction of C. S. Burnham of Maine.

☞ Mr. Jonathan Woods, formerly of Wilmington, Mass., committed suicide by hanging himself to the limb of a tree in the vicinity of Windham, N. H., last week. He is reported to have been a man of industrious habits, and no reason is given for the rash act.

☞ What more beautiful and acceptable present, than a year's subscription to the Cosmopolitan Art Association? See advertisement in another column; and the splendid Engravings at Mr. Cobb's Music Store.

☞ Congress will assemble in Washington this day, at noon. There are many speculations as to organizing the House, but they are not worth reprinting.

The Washington correspondent of the N. Y. Times says that it is understood that Secretary Thompson will recommend to Congress the establishment of martial law over Utah, as the only means of crushing out the terrible murders and assassinations constantly occurring in that territory.

It is said the President's Message will be shorter than the last. It will doubtless discuss the slavery question, with John Brown for a text.

The session of Congress will be exciting,—as much so, perhaps, as any one recently.

☞ Godey's Lady's Book for January, 1860, is more brilliant than ever. It is now beginning its thirtieth year. The January number contains three steel engravings—one is the Light of Home: one colored fashion-plate, containing five figures—a bride amongst them. The title page contains five separate engravings. In all there are seventy-nine engravings, of which twenty are full page engravings,—and 70 literary articles. One copy, one year $3; two copies, $5; three copies $6; five copies and one to the getter-up of the club $10; Godey's Lady's Book and Arthur's Home Magazine both one year $3.50; Godey's Lady's Book and Harper's Magazine both one year $4.50.

☞ Geo. W. Pettes, Esq., of Boston, is to read his beautiful and popular Poem, "The Silver Lining," at the Lyceum, next Tuesday evening.

Rev. J. G. Adams, of Worcester, one of the most talented and eloquent of the absent sons of Portsmouth, is to lecture, on Monday Evening, Dec. 12th. Of his subject we are not informed.

"Grace Greenwood," of Philadelphia, is to deliver her celebrated lecture on "The Heroic in Common Life," on Tuesday Evening, Dec. 13th.

There will probably be good music at each of these entertainments; and it is the design of the managers to close the Course with a grand Concert, if possible.

Tickets for the rest of the Course, only 50 cents; for each evening, 25 cents.

MR. GEORGE W. PETTES, who resides in Boston, the Post says, "is well known as a gentleman of culture and talent; and the praises of the Press are undoubtedly justly bestowed. We notice that all the papers speak highly of his Poem":

His song was entitled "The Silver Lining," and he wove into a rich and beautiful fabric the sunny, perhaps we ought to say the silver, hues of life. Shunning the sombre and gloomy, he aimed to entertain and cheer, and inspire a lively desire for the beautiful, the lovely, the true, the holy and everlasting.

In glancing at the frivolities and evils of life, he applied the knife of satire and ridicule, cunningly sharpened on the wheel of verse, with decided effect; while he gracefully and impressively praised the noble and the good.

The managers of the Lyceum have procured a splendid new seven-octave Piano-Forte, which is to be placed in the Temple, for use at the remaining Lyceum lectures, and at other concerts, &c. This instrument is from the celebrated manufactory of Hallet, Davis & Co., and contains their famous "new scale" arrangement—and it is believed, is not excelled by any similar instrument in this city or elsewhere. Owing to the press of orders for these new style Pianos, it has been difficult to procure one; and it is not certain that this will be completed in season for Mr. Pettes' lecture this week, though it is to be hoped it may.

☞ Any person subscribing for the Daily or Weekly Chronicle for the year 1860, (and paying in advance of course,) will be furnished with the paper for the rest of this year, gratis. Daily $4 per year;—Weekly only $1.

GOVERNOR'S GUARDS.—All the equestrian patriots interested in the establishment of this corps in New Hampshire, will remember that the second meeting, for organization, &c., is appointed for Thursday afternoon, Dec. 8th, at 2 o'clock, at the Council Chamber in Concord. To arrive there in season, it is necessary for all who go from this region to start the day previous, as the cars run up only in the afternoon.

☞ Gen. Geo. Stark of Nashua, and A. H. Bellows, Esq., of Concord, were in New York last week, examining the uniforms of different mounted companies, with reference to the selection of one for the Governor's Horse Guards, recently organized in New Hampshire. They received many hospitable attentions from military officials.

HOW TO PRESERVE BEAUTY.—Nothing is more becoming to a man or woman than a beautiful luxuriant head of hair, and a woman's beauty is certainly incomplete without a fair complexion, and he or she who neglects these great and important adornments of nature must expect to suffer the mortification of premature baldness and a wrinkled face and a sallow skin. Nothing is necessary to preserve these essential attractions but the use of Prof. Wood's Restorative.—Louisville Times.

☞ There are two widows of revolutionary soldiers now living in Newburyport, viz: Mrs. Daniel Silloway, aged 91, and Mrs. Anna Harris, who will be 90 on the first day of May next.

STOVE STORE REMOVED.

URIAH BLAISDELL
Has removed his Stove and Furnishing Establishment one door north, to the spacious and convenient store
Nos. 43 & 45 Market Street, where he is receiving and arranging a large and valuable Stock of
STOVES, TIN WARE, &c.,
Which he offers for sale at wholesale and retail, at very low prices. He has a great variety of the best and most popular Stoves, among which are:

1. The Stewart Cook Stove, with the latest improvements. This is an air-tight Cook Stove, for Wood or Coal; it has moveable coverings, which can confine the heat in the stove, or let it out into the room; has a reservoir of hot water 10 or 20 gallons, and a tin closet beneath;—a top cover, which is a great institution for baking, and will keep a coal fire all night; it has a Dutch Oven for roasting in front of the Stove;—and it is every way a most convenient and durable Stove. There are 4 sizes.

The following recommendation of Stewart's Stove, is from an eminent engineer, and must be satisfactory to all who wish to understand the value of this excellent Stove:

Portsmouth, N. H., Nov. 5, 1859.
Mr. Blaisdell:—Seven years ago I moved to this city, and sold, before I came, a "Stewart's Air Tight Cooking Stove," which I had used about five years. During that time no repairs or expense had been made upon it. Since I have been here I have tried the various Cooking Stoves in use, and I think for economy and durability the "Stewart" excels them all. I wish you would take away the Stove I now have from my house, and set up one of Stewart's as soon as you can. Your ob't servant,
B. F. CHANDLER.

2. Boston & Maine Cook Stove;
3. White Mountain;
4. Empire State;
5. Enterprise;
6. Exchange;
7. Dining Room Cook Stoves, and others.

GOV. WISE IN 1842.

A regular contributor to the Boston Pilot, the Irish organ of the Romish Church, says:

I am afraid our and Mr. Donnelly's friend, Gov. Wise, has got a shot between wind and water, which, if not quickly plugged, may lower his Presidential aspirations. (If you don't like the figure, I can't help it.) And the shot, funnily enough, has been fired by a feminine Quaker of the Abolitionist persuasion. I don't know whether Mrs. Lydia Maria Child meant it, but she has dug up a little passage in one of the chivalric governor's speeches in Congress, which very decidedly needs explanation; and that it may be made without unnecessary delay, I propose to transfer the little missive to the columns of the Pilot. Gov. Wise said in 1842:

"Once set before the people of the Great Valley the conquest of the rich Mexican Provinces, and you might as well attempt to stop the wind. This government might send its troops, but they would run over them like a herd of buffalo. Let the work but once begin, and I do not know that this House would hold me very long. Give me five millions of dollars and I would undertake to do it myself. Although I do not know how to set a single squadron in the field, I could find men to do it. Slavery should pour itself abroad without restraint, and find no limit but in the Southern Ocean. The Camanches should no longer hold the richest mines of Mexico. Every golden image which had received the profanation of a false worship, should soon be melted down into good American eagles. I would cause as much gold to cross the Rio del Norte as the mules of Mexico could carry; aye, and I would make a better use of it, too, than any lazy, bigoted priesthood under heaven."

It may be that Governor Wise has repented of this. It may that he has made a full and thorough retraction. If he has, it should be brought forth. But I need not say that no man ought, and I trust that no man ever can, sit in the Presidential chair of the United States, with the last two sentences of the above quotation on his record. Give him all the honor that is his due for the anti-Know-nothing campaign in Virginia; but it is not enough. Nothing but an entire and sincere retraction will answer.

For the Portsmouth Journal.

PIERCE TO BE RE-NOMINATED FOR THE PRESIDENCY.

Mr. Editor,—You and I have seen an end to the attempts of the Democratic papers and party leaders, to make political capital out of what has recently transpired at Harper's Ferry, in Virginia. Every intelligent man in the whole country now will admit, that the outbreak at Harper's Ferry is but one of many results to be the inevitable effects whose cause was the repeal of the Missouri Compromise. We have seen only the beginning of a series of startling catastrophies whose end is far along in the future. John Brown will be executed on Friday, Dec. 2d, but the influence of his late movement will not cease to agitate every part of the Slave States, just so long as slavery shall disgrace this otherwise glorious Republic; and never will the time arrive when Ex-President Pierce and Senator Stephen A. Douglas will not be considered the real authors of all the pro-slavery troubles in Kansas, and all the natural results of those troubles far down in the future. No excitement, touching slavery, would ever have been known in Kansas, had the Missouri Compromise never been repealed; and its repeal would never have been known, but for the struggle between Pierce and Douglas for that term of the Presidency, which, unfortunately for the country, James Buchanan is now filling. Each of those northern men was playing for southern support, as they are now playing for the next Presidential term,—one openly, under the banner of "popular sovereignty," and the other with his friends playing the same game that was successful in 1852. The first will fail, but the other may succeed in April at Charleston, S. C. but not in November in the whole country. The one goes openly into the contest for the nomination, to be beaten and thrown aside; the other is to be nowhere until Douglas, Wise, Dickinson, Seymour, Hunter, Breckinridge, and all other open candidates, shall have been used up, and then the man to be successful will be revealed, and the South will come to his support in great unanimity, and then it will be seen why Caleb Cushing, B. F. Butler, B. F. Hallet, Josiah Minot and others like them were sent to Charleston, S. C. in April, 1860. But the reader will say, Josiah Minot has not been chosen a delegate to the convention,—true, but he will be chosen at the convention to be in this city next Wednesday; as he is a part, and a very important part, of the plan of operations. He is a shrewd, adroit, and skillful wire-puller, and must be there and will be there, and Pierce's nomination is not only probable, but almost certain. Well, "sufficient unto the day is the evil thereof," and, mark me, the "IRREPRESSIBLE CONFLICT," has commenced, never to end while slavery shall blacken the Southern horizon of this Republic, and one of the authors of that conflict, will, in November next, feel the effects of his powerful agency in the repeal of a Compromise from whose ashes sprung into life an "irrepressible conflict," whose last chain shall be the breaking of the last link in slavery's chains, that shall ever be witnessed upon the blood-stained soil of North America.

Please give this article a place in your good paper, that time may test its predictions, although you may not fully approve its tone. A. B. L.

SHOE MANUFACTURE IN PORTSMOUTH.

Every branch of manufactures introduced into our city brings with it employment for more or less hands, and a consequent growth of population and business. Hence he who introduces a new department of industry is (unless it be a pernicious one) a public benefactor and deserving of commendation and encouragement.

In the present stagnant state of the Massachusetts shoe trade, it is surprising to many that there should spring up all at once, in the midst of our business thoroughfares, one of the neatest and most extensive buildings for shoe manufacture to be found anywhere hereabouts. But so it is; and the best judges pronounce the enterprise destined to succeed.

We refer to the elegant three-story building opposite the new custom house in this city, of a style dissimilar to that of any other in Portsmouth, just finished in a workman like manner by the contractors, Messrs. Prindle & Perry, young men just entering into business here.

The size of the building is 28 by 52 ft. fronting on State street. On the first story (12 ft. high) is the counting room and the cutting department, where all the soles, uppers and linings are prepared for the workmen. Contingent to this is the sole-leather department in the basement. The entire second story (9 ft. high) is occupied as a salesroom, for the display of goods and samples. The third story (8 ft.) is divided into the sewing-machine room, where twelve machines are to be used, and a room for a general stock and findings department, which will be opened for wholesale trade only. The building is heated throughout by a furnace, and lighted by gas. Lynn will hardly find a match for the manufactory in appearance, spaciousness and convenience. The establishment has been opened this week.

The progress of the enterprising proprietor, Mr. Thomas S. Nowell, during the past eight years, is no small assurance that the manufacture of shoes has become an institution here. He is a young man of less than thirty years, whose energy has carried him through all difficulties, not the least of which was the financial crisis of 1857-8, and established him, with a good credit both here and in Boston and a good name among his customers, upon a very sure road to wealth. From a small beginning, his business has rapidly increased here, until his sales for the past year have amounted to nearly fifty thousand dollars, double that of the year previous, though the dealers in Lynn, Haverhill, &c. suffered during the same time a great depression in business.

This increasing business has rendered more ample accommodations necessary. The new establishment is arranged for the manufacture of six thousand pairs of shoes weekly. This amount of business will probably ere long be done here. At present about 2000 pairs are manufacutred weekly, which gives employment for 125 to 150 persons.

The style of shoes manufactured is that known as "first class." They have always met with a ready sale—nearly all those whose custom is obtained increasing yearly the amount of their purchases. The business is strictly wholesale.—Goods are sold to the retail shoe dealers, but no single pairs are sold at the factory.

Mr. Nowell's trade has been mostly in New England, which has spared him many of the losses consequent upon Southern and Western trade.—He has for some years supplied, to a considerable extent, the Portsmouth dealers, whose liberality, and that of our banks, has done much towards enabling him to carry on the business, and spoken well for a portion of our capitalists and business men.

The old establishment, on McDonough street, is to be converted into a wholesale manufactory of men's and boys' boots and shoes. This also is a new branch of business in Portsmouth, and will give employment to another class of workmen.

We imagine that Portsmouth offers as good an opportunity for manufacturing as any other place. The first quality of goods can be made here as reasonably as anywhere in the vicinity; and first quality workmen abound. We hope, therefore, that manufacturers will, now that the business has commenced here, turn their attention this way, and that other like establishments may be opened here. Buyers will find Portsmouth easy of access either from Boston, Concord, or Portland; and there seems to be no reason why part of the trade which has fallen so liberally into the lap of Massachusetts, may not be turned into a channel from which Portsmouth people will realize a benefit.—We certainly ought to derive much more trade from the country than we do.

Brown in Kansas.—We make the following extract from a private letter from Ex-Gov. Robinson of Kansas to a friend in Portsmouth:

I am really surprised to see such an immense parade in the public press in reference to the difficulties at Harper's Ferry. I was very indignant at Brown when I first heard it, and remarked to some friends that the Democrats would use it to our disadvantage. But I had no idea, not the remotest, that the Country would be thus excited, and that every sheet would team with partizan and inflammatory articles. I knew Brown well—as well as any man in Kansas; and though we had a certain respect for Brown's indomitable courage, yet we had no confidence whatever in his judgment or politics. We knew him to be a very radical abolitionist, and every man in Kansas who knows him best, thinks him a monomaniac. I would so state had I been under oath more than a year ago. Fortunately Brown has claimed no connection with the Republican party, and we never have paid the least attention to him, as you will see by our record. He never, to my knowledge, has ever been a Delegate to any political convention whatever—has never received any nomination for any position, and has invariably been treated as though he belonged to some distinct organization, or was insane—both of which, in my mind, are substantially true. I expect every day to see letters with my name attached come to light from that Old Carpet Bag, for I remember of writing him an answer to two or three of his wild and visionary projects. I see my friend Conway, our nominee for Congress, is in for it, but he has "nailed the lie to the counter" in a manly letter. On the whole, I think this matter will hurt us very little indeed, and do the Democrats no good. As Mr. Lincoln says, "I do not believe the Democrats can cross the river of their difficulties at Harper's Ferry." Far from it.—They are used up. Their organization is literally dissolving beneath their unholy feet.

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA,

A compound remedy in which we have labored to produce the most effectual alterative that can be made. It is a concentrated extract of Pars Sarsaparilla, of combined with other substances of still greater alterative power as to afford an effective antidote for the diseases Sarsaparilla is reputed to cure. It is believed that such a remedy is wanted by those who suffer from Strumous complaints, and that one which will a complish their cure must be of immense service to this large class of our afflicted fellow citizens. How completely this compound will do it, has been proven by experiment on many of the worst cases to be found in the following complaints:—

Scrofula and Scrofulous Complaints, Eruptions and Eruptive Diseases, Ulcers, Pimples, Blotches, Tumors, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Syphilis and Syphilitic Affections, Mercurial Disease, Dropsy, Neuralgia or Tic Douloureux, Debility, Dyspepsia and Indigestion, Erysipelas, Rose or St. Anthony's Fire, and indeed the whole class of complaints arising from Impurity of the Blood.

This compound will be found a great promoter of health, when taken in the spring, to expel the foul humors which fester in the blood at that season of the year. By the timely expulsion of them many rankling disorders are nipped in the bud.—Multitudes can, by the aid of this remedy, spare themselves from the endurance of foul eruptions and ulcerous sores, through which the system will strive to rid itself of corruptions, if not assisted to do this through the natural channels of the body by an alterative medicine. Cleanse out the vitiated blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in pimples, eruptions or sores;—cleanse it when you find it is obstructed or sluggish in the veins; cleanse it whenever it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Even where no particular disorder is felt, people enjoy better health, and live live longer, for cleansing the blood. Keep the blood healthy, and all is well; but with the pabulum of life disordered, there can be no lasting health. Sooner or later some organ must go wrong, and the great machinery of life is disordered or overthrown.

Sarsaparilla has, and deserves much, the reputation of accomplishing these ends. But the world has been egregiously deceived by preparations of it, partly because the drug alone has not all the virtue that is claimed for it, but more because many preparations, pretending to be concentrated extracts of it contain but little of the virtue of Sarsaparilla, or anything else.

During late years the public have been misled by large bottles, pretending to give a quart of Extract of Sarparilla for one dollar. Most of these have been frauds upon the sick, for they not only contain little, if any, Sarsaparilla, but often no curative properties whatever. Ance bitter and painful disappointment has followed the use of the various extracts of Sarsaparilla which flood the market, until the name itself is justly cspised, and has become synonymous with imposition and cheat. Still we call this compound Sarsaparilla, and intend to supply such a remedy as shall rescue the name from the load of obloquy which rests upon it. And we think we have grounds for believing it has virtues which are irresistible by the ordinary run of the diseases it is intended to cure. In order to secure their complete eradication from the system, the remedy should be judiciously taken according to directions on the bottle.

AMERICAN & FOREIGN PATENTS.

R. H. EDDY, Solicitor of Patents,

Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under date of 1857.

76 STATE, OPPOSITE KILBY ST., BOSTON.

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions,—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the validity of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate. The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

I have no hesitation in assuring inventors they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHAS. MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

Boston, February 8, 1858.

Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that one is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges. JOHN TAGGART.

From Sept 17, 1857, to June 17, 1858, the subscriber, in the course of his large practice, made on TWICE rejected applications, SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents.

Boston, Jan. 1, 1859. R. H. EDDY.

DR. J. B. HUGHES,

Knowing that there are at this moment thousands of persons in the surrounding towns, suffering and rendering their lives to the insidious inroads of certain dangerous maladies, who still suffer from the reluctance to make known their complaints and consult a physician, he would state that some of his medicines will be sent by express or otherwise, to all who may order them, provided a true description of the disease be sent by letter and directed as above.

Full and explicit directions will accompany every package, and the most inviolable secrecy preserved.

DR. HUGHES can with safety say during the last year of his practice in Boston, more than three hundred cases of disease which have been improperly treated by empyrics have come under his care and more than three-fourths of this number are described upon his books as perfect cures.

Patients treated by letter by addressing Dr. Hughes, post paid, and medicines sent all over the country, carefully concealed from scrutinizing friends.

Be particular in finding Dr. Hughes. Do not be lured from the right path, or be persuaded to try experiments with false and fictitious remedies, at the expense of destroying what is the great pillar of life, a healthy constitution.

This medicine can only be obtained at the Office of Dr. HUGHES, 13 Howard street, Boston.

DR. J. B. HUGHES UNIVERSAL FEMALE RENOVATING PILLS. These pills are universally lauded in efficacy and superior virtue in regulating all female irregularities. Their action is specific and certain, producing relief in a short space of time. They are acknowledged to be the best in use.

The Dr. cautions the public to beware of impositions that are being practiced by advertising spurious article under some spurious or fictitious name. They are entirely useless, having been got up by miserable pretenders who are entirely ignorant of the efficacy of medicines.

All who are in pursuit of the genuine article had better call on the Dr. at his office, where they will be sure of getting the genuine—the only place in Boston where the genuine is for sale.

These pills can be sent to any part of the country with directions. Remember the number—13 Howard street, Boston.

P. S.—The best of accommodations furnished with kind and attentive nurses if they wish, at a reasonable rate. j3 d1y

MOTHERS.
In presenting you with DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL, we desire to state its superiority over every nostrum that nurse or quack has heretofore offered you.
First—It is the preparation of a regular physician, who is well qualified from much experience in infantile complaints to prescribe for them.—Secondly—It is entirely free from paregoric or opiate of any kind, and consequently relieves by removing the suffering of your child, instead of deadening its sensibilities. Thirdly—It is put up with great care, as a comparison of it with any other article for infantile complaints will show: the very roots from which it is distilled being dug from the forests under the direction of Dr. Eaton, many of them by his own hands. Fourthly—It is perfectly harmless and cannot injure the most delicate infant, and is a certain cure and relief in all the following cases, which is its chief merit over every other preparation.
FOR ALL COMPLAINTS ATTENDING TEETHING; such as DYSENTERY, COLIC, &c.; also, for softening the gums and relieving pain. For regulating the bowels it is unequalled. For Cold in the Head it is a sure relief. For CROUP, the most fatal and trying of diseases, it can be relied on with perfect confidence; and being a powerful anti-spasmodic in all cases of convulsions or fits, we earnestly recommend you to loose no time in procuring it—Lastly—it costs so much more than other preparations of the kind, that we cannot afford such long advertisements as can those whose whole expense is their advertising; for the same reason, it commends itself as the most reliable to all mothers. In all cases, the directions wrapped around each bottle, must be strictly followed. Price, 25 cents per bottle.
Sold by CHURCH & DUPONT, Druggists, No. 35 Maiden Lane, New York.
And by all respectable Druggists throughout the country. In Portsmouth by W. R. PRESTON.

BLOOD FOOD.
Dr. Bronson, having been so far reduced by consumption, as to be considered beyond all hope of recovery in twenty years' practice—as a last resort, and also by himself—a regular physician of Boston, was restored to perfect health. 3000 cures in six months after his introduction, over 2000 cures were effectually cured by it. If you are suffering from Nervous Debility, or your constitution is shattered by the "BLOOD FOOD," or you are suffering from Nervous Debility, or your constitution is shattered, Dyspepsia of Dyspepsia, Costiveness, Dullness, Dizziness, Cough, Cold, Headache, Depletion of Spirits, Loss of Appetite, or Pain in the Side, look no time in procuring a bottle of the "BLOOD FOOD." It will be found to be the most invigorating and efficient and natural preparation ever offered to the public. Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

TUESDAY, DEC. 6, 1859.

There were twelve hundred thousand votes cast for Mr. Buchanan in the free states—a large body for the Abolitionists to subdue before they can conquer the slave states. —Boston Post.

Surely, says Uncle Toby, there must be more crazy men left, though they have hung one. The idea of subduing and conquering, are suitable only to such men as take up arms,—like Brown—not to men who take up ballots to elect an officer, as a President! These 1200,000 voters who expressed their preference and cast their votes for Mr. Buchanan, did not all mean to vote for slavery—nor were they all filled with the insane idea that they were conquering or subduing any body. Some of them, no doubt many of them, believed they were saving the Union, for they had been told that somebody would split it right in two, if anybody dared elect Fremont.

Some voted for their bread and butter—some too, who would gladly have voted the other way,—and these, wouldn't they be brave men to conquer and subdue somebody.

This reminds Uncle T. of a terrible howl that was set up when Banks was like to be chosen Speaker of the House—the Union was going to be blown up with a fearful noise, if he was elected. Well: he was chosen; but the earthquake was not so loud as the howl, nothing was split, and the country was only jarred a very little, barely enough to sour a few pans of milk.

There is a howl of the same kind now,—and it will probably amount to about as much.

WISCASSET, Me., Dec. 3.

Dear Chronicle:—It is a gratification to the writer hereof to resume his pen, which whilom was dedicated to your service as an occasional correspondent from the Old Bay State; and hoping this manifest desire to renew old acquaintance is pardonable, permit me to express the pleasure I recently experienced, after a long deprivation of your visits, in once again beholding your genial phiz hereaway.

We remember with what ecstasy we received the first number of the Daily Chronicle, years ago, before we were constituted one of the absent sons, and you may rest assured the pleasure was no less heartfelt, when a kind friend in P. forwarded to us lately a modern issue of the same publication, bearing the same interesting features that characterized it in the days of yore, and, aside from having attained a wondrous growth for its years, looking fresh as ever. * * * * Wiscasset, the town in which your correspondent is at present domiciled, is a seaport place of some two or three thousand inhabitants. From Bath on the Kennebec, to Rockland on the Penobscot, a distance of about forty miles, the travel is all performed by means of the old fashioned stage coach, the towns of Wiscasset, Damariscotta, Waldoboro', Warren and Thomaston being situated on the route. The business in times past has been ship building, but within a few years that branch has undergone a most disastrous depression, and the town now remains in a state of dormant inactivity, apparently awaiting the revival of the shipping interest. Many ships have been built in Portsmouth for parties here: and one in process of completion at one of your ship yards, has recently been purchased by some of our citizens.

The ship Judah Touro, built some twelve or fourteen years ago in Portsmouth, is now lying in our port, having lately arrived from Liverpool with a cargo of salt. She is commanded by Capt. Hanscom of your city.

In the town beyond us—Damariscotta—are several Portsmouth boys:—and in this connection, we must ask if there is a place on this habitable globe where one or more representatives of old Portsmouth, may not be found? At any rate, we know of none.

The Lincoln County buildings are all located in Wiscasset, as is also the Custom House for this district, and being the centre of the county, the conventions and mass meetings are all held here. COURT ST.

*[Our correspondent will pardon us for keeping from the public eye, the good opinion he here expresses more particularly of the Chronicle—his kind remarks, though never so grateful to us, being of no more value to the general reader, than the mutual good opinions entertained and enjoyed among friends in general. Thanks for his compliments, however; and we shall think of his suggestion as to publishing Uncle Toby's "Recollections of Old Acquaintance" in a book.]—Jr. Ed. Chron.

☞ The Cape Ann Advertiser of the 2d inst. contains a recapitulation of the loss of Gloucester seamen and fishermen for 1859. It appears from this account, that five vessels belonging to that port have been lost during the present year, with all on board. Many officers and sailors belonging to the place have been lost in vessels sailing from other ports, so that the total number of Gloucester seamen and fishermen who have been lost the present year amounts to seventy.

GERRIT SMITH's bodily and mental condition are hopefully improving.

HONG KONG, CHINA, Sept. 29.

Dear Chronicle:—It is now some time since you or your readers have been troubled by me; so I think I may venture on trying my hand at writing once more, in the hope that I may please some and injure none. My last letter was from Australia, as you probably know already. Since writing that I have been taking a sail, and now find myself in the land of the Celestials. Having nothing else to tell, I will let you know how I came to get so far from home, and give you a few incidents of the passage from Melbourne.

In the first place, I shipped, in an American ship, with an American Captain, American officers, and one American seaman.—The rest of her crew I found to be English, Irish, Scotch, Welch, Swedish, Norwegian and German—a pretty good assortment for one ship to carry. I believe this is a pretty fair American crew, as but few natives are to be found before the mast in ships on long voyages. They all hail for Yankees, and are down as such on the ship's papers—and they hurrah for Jackson, which makes it all right.

We left Port Phillip Head, Australia, June 25th, and had fine weather for a month or more, after which we had wind and rain to our heart's content, (or discontent,) till we reached the Straits of Sunda, where it disappeared in a typhoon, which split our main-topsail, carried off our foresail, and sprung our main-top-gallant-mast, but did us no further damage. Luckily for us the wind was off shore, or we should have had a hard job in getting clear of the land. We knocked about for a week, and then got in August 22d, after a passage of 58 days.

On the 4th of July, one of the sailors dressed himself in a swallow-tailed coat, beaver hat, and standing collar, and led the crew in procession to the quarter-deck, where he made the Captain a speech, the sum and substance of which was, that the crew wished to have a bottle of rum, to preserve the Union and nourish the American eagle. The captain gave them some brandy, and a German Jew, a passenger, gave them brandy and porter, which was taken on the forecastle head, and drunk with speeches, (and such speeches,) songs and sentiments. The celebration was ended by some of the patriots falling down, and the rest crawling off to their bunks or anywhere else more convenient. Next day they took the sense of the meeting, and agreed unanimously that they had a jolly time, and celebrated American Independence in a proper manner and with a proper spirit.

On the 12th of July we saw a large water-spout, about a half-mile distant. It made a great noise, and succeeded in frightening me a little. I thought the distance between us sufficiently small for all purposes of observation or amusement. It disappeared in a rain storm, and we saw no more of it—though another was in sight the next day, at a more pleasant distance. I had seen a number of them before, but never so near—and I have no desire for a closer acquaintance with them, however interesting they may be to philosophers.

We let go our anchor at ten o'clock A. M., and that night four of the sailors went ashore in a sampan, (an ill-looking Chinese boat, with a big rudder,) and came off most gloriously tipsy, after having had a good fight and lost their jackets.

Hong Kong is situated at and on the base of a mountain, running up its sides and a short mile along its base. The streets that run parallel with the bay are paved with stone, and are pretty good; but the ones leading from the harbor up the mountain side are continuous flights of stone steps, down which the water runs in torrents during rains. No wheel-carriages are to be seen in the place, and I have seen but two horses, mounted at the time by two very jolly sailors, one of whom kept falling off—for exercise I suppose. The only beasts of burden are Chinamen, and they manage to carry loads that would lacerate a Christian's conscience and break his back. Two of them will trot along faster than I care to walk, with a palanquin containing a heavy man. Their hats look like overgrown mushrooms, and the cut of their nether garments is scandalous.

The women are ugly beyond belief, and the men say they have no souls. They burn a great many joss-sticks and papers, however, and frequently blow the bad joss up altogether, with fire-crackers. All those I have seen are great cheats, and lie by rote. They have but one redeeming feature,—they are very small,—not much more than half the size of American women.—They bring from fifty to three or four hundred dollars each, which is more than all the wives in China are worth in my opinion. I suppose you will gather from this hat I am not very deeply enamored of Celestial beauty. ICE.

☞ A new volunteer company at Alexandria, Va., styled the "Home Guard," organized on account of the "irrepressible conflict," numbers nearly one hundred men, more than half of whom are over fifty years of age, some of them worth from $100,000 to near half a million of dollars.

PUNISHMENT OF MARINES FOR DESERTION.—Three of the marines at Philadelphia Navy Yard are now undergoing punishment for desertion, they having been tried and sentenced by a court-martial. The deserters, after being kept for a time on bread and water, two are required to wear the chain and ball for sixty days; the other to carry a knapsack, filled with large shot, strapped to his back for thirty days. By the sentence, they are required to walk with one of the sentries, near the barracks, twelve hours out of the twenty-four—two hours on and two hours off.

CENSUS OF 1860.—The Census that is to be taken next year ought to be made more minute, full and accurate than any previous census. The government might learn something from the English in this matter. The entire census of Great Britain was taken in 1851, in a single day, and the reports were collected, compared and publised by the government within three months. This was accomplished by the division of the whole country into districts so small that a man could collect the statistics of a district in less than a day. The number of these districts was over 39,000, and the blanks previously prepared by the government weighed 52 tons. In classification and arrangement we might also copy from the English with advantage.—Herald.

☞ In Manchester, on Friday, as a bell was tolling for John Brown, Mayor Harrington appeared among the sympathisers in the belfry, and ordered them to desist. Mr. Jas. B. Shaw, brother of the Agt. of the Amoskeag Co., refused to leave; when the Mayor dropped him through the scuttle by the most convenient mode—and the bell didn't ring any more.

CHARLESTOWN, VA., Dec. 4.—Six companies of the Richmond and Wheeling military have been ordered home, and about one-fourth of the members of the other companies have obtained furloughs for ten days to return before the 16th, to attend the other executions. A military force will thus be kept up, and martial law be enforced throughout the county. The excitement has greatly abated, though there is a great feeling of insecurity in the rural districts.

The weather is cold and wet and the military are suffering greatly on picket guard, and in their uncomfortable quarters.

☞ Smith, Eddy & Co. and Wm. L. Baker, jewelry manufacturers, of Warren, R. I., have failed—their debts amounting to $250,000. After their workmen, the firm have named a bank and a gentlemen in Fall River as preferred creditors—the laws of Rhode Island giving failing parties their choice.

☞ Peterson's Magazine for January is a capital number—not to be eclipsed by any of its price—only $2 per year. It is full of attractions for the ladies, and indeed for all. The engraving, "Blind Man's Buff," is a gem in its way. We will furnish it to our subscribers for $1.50.

☞ On Friday, Dec. 2, as we learn from the News Letter, a girl 10 years old, named Eastman, was killed by her brother, who accidentally shot her through the body with a gun, at Seabrook. She lived but a few hours.

Catarrhal Cough.

This insidious and annoying symptom, so difficult to treat, depends on a subacute inflammation of the air-passages, which is apt to end in chronic ulceration and a form of consumption. The mucous membrane of the air-passages is peculiarly susceptible to the healing influences of the PERUVIAN SYRUP, as the testimonials of some of our first citizens show.

Dr. Hostetter's Bitters have received the warmest encomiums from the press and people throughout the Union. As a valuable tonic for the cure of Dyspepsia, Flatulence, Constipation and general nervous debility, it cannot be approached. Every day new cases of its great effect are chronicled through our public journals. There is nothing equal to the enjoyment, to that which the afflicted experience when using this valuable specific. Its mild tone, its sure and vigorous action upon a disordered stomach, and the cleansing of the entire human body should recommend it to all classes of our community. All that will be necessary to convince the skeptical of its healthy effects, is to purchase a bottle and be convinced.

Sold by druggists and dealers generally, everywhere.

Among the restoratives which Nature has supplied to relieve the afflictions of humanity there is no more favorite one for a certain class of diseases than the "medicinal gum" of the Wild Cherry Tree; but however valuable it is, its power to heal, to soothe, to relieve, and to cure, is enhanced ten-fold by scientific and judicious combination with other ingredients, in themselves of equal worth. This happy mingling exists in that "Combination and a form indeed"
Of medicine known as
Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry,
Whose value in curing Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Whooping Cough, Croup, Asthma, Pulmonary Affection and Incipient Consumption, is inestimable.

HOME TESTIMONY.

BOSTON, April 18, 1852.
No. 48 Union St.
Mr. Seth W. Fowle,—Dear Sir:—Your invaluable medicine, I can truly say, has literally snatched me from the grave. Last July I was attacked by a sudden cold, which resulted in a very severe Cough, with violent pains in the side and chest. I became so much reduced, that my friends frankly told me that I must die. At this crisis, I heard of Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, and immediately sent for a bottle. The effect produced was indeed wonderful. My physician, one of the most respectable in Boston, who had previously told me that a cure was hopeless, came in, and I informed him what I had taken. He examined the Balsam, and advised me to continue the use of it, since which time I have continued to improve daily; and the same physician who had given me up, told me, a few days since, that I might yet live many years.
Respectfully, MARY ROWE.
We can cheerfully testify to the truth of the above statement, Mrs. Rowe having been an inmate of our family. WILLIAM DENNETT.
MARTHA DENNETT.

Prepared by S. W. FOWLE & CO., BOSTON. and for sale by Wm. R. Preston, David Kimball, Nathan P. Thacher, J. H. Thacher, and B. Hutchings, Portsmouth; J. P. Packer, Greenland; and dealers everywhere. spnot 4wd&w

☞ Mrs. Winslow. an experienced nurse and female physician, has a Soothing Syrup for children teething, which greatly facilitates the process of teething by softening the gums, reducing all inflamation—will allay all pain, and it is sure to regulate the bowels. Local Items.

☞ The snow-storm of Sunday thinned churches to a considerable degree; nevertheless there were enough worshippers to claim the promise—"Wheresoever two or three of you" are gathered in the Saviour's name, there he is, to hear and bless.

We have about six inches of snow here, tolerably level, just enough for good sleighing if the weather should be favorable.

☞ We are sorry to learn that the wife of Rev. Jonathan Hall, of this city, fell over a flight of stairs at their residence, on Sunday morning — breaking her collar-bone, and otherwise severely bruising her.

Mr. Odams also broke his collar-bone, when he was thrown from his wagon, a few days since—but is doing well.

☞ Should the new hall Piano arrive from Boston in season for the Lyceum tonight, the performance will commence promptly at quarter past 7.

NUISANCES. — Messrs. Editors: — For one, I have no doubt that the Mayor, who has by charter, all the powers of Sheriff, in keeping peace,—has the power to abate nuisances; and if a tolling bell be a nuisance, to stop it, and get the police and people to help. So of guns, drums, and yells and bonfires—and so of groggeries, and dens of rascals, out of which many other nuisances grow. I wish they would use up some of these. I do not wish them to stop the little boys from sliding on their sleds on the sidewalk, though I do go into the street to give them a chance.

In a word, I wish they would use their power to break up bad things, not those technically unlawful merely. ***

☞ From "The Sea," the seaman's paper of Rev. C. W. Dennison, we extract a portion of his notice of a recent visit to this Naval Station. :—

There is a force of five hundred men now at the Portsmouth Yard.

There are now on the stocks the ship of the line Alabama, and steamer Franklin.—The former one of the old class vessels, the latter new, and of superior model and construction.

Lying at the docks are the frigates Sante and Constitution, both of which have been put in complete repair. They can be made ready for sea at short warning.

The razee sloop Cumberland is being thorougly repaired, and fitted for sea.—This has always been a popular vessel.

The sloop Dale is in ordinary. Her condition is such as to warrant the most careful attention of the Department.

The new steamer Mohican, Capt. Godon, recently built here, has just gone to sea.—We must bespeak for this elegant vessel the admiration of our countrymen. She is of the same class with the Narragansett and Iroquois. Her arrangements, when complete, cannot fail to give satisfaction.

There is a small chapel in the yard, but no chaplain. Religious services are performed every sabbath by Rev. Dr. Burroughs, formerly Rector of the Episcopal Church at Portsmouth, who kindly volunteers to come over to the Island for the purpose.

☞ We are indebted to the publishers, Messrs. Oliver Ditson & Co., Boston, for a copy of a new and beautiful piece of sacred music, entitled, "Father, thy paternal care;" a quartet and chorale, with soprano, tenor and bass solos,—as sung by the choir of the Stone Church, Portsmouth. Poetry by Rev. Dr. Bowring: music by Prof. O. J. Shaw, of Utica, N. Y. It is very appropriately dedicated to Rev. A. P. Peabody, D. D., who has always evinced the deepest interest in the improvement of sacred music, and spared no effort to promote it.

☞ The Republican papers of New Hampshire had better call a caucus, to see what day their State Convention is to be held at Concord. We have before us the Ballot, which says Tuesday, Jan. 3; the News Letter, which says Tuesday, Jan. 8; and the Keene Sentinel, which says Tuesday, Jan. 10.

Now Jan. 3 and 10 are Tuesdays—but of course Jan. 8 cannot be Tuesday also.—We think the Independent Democrat began the notice with Tuesday, Jan. 3—and that the Portsmouth Journal had Jan. 3.

☞ The High street Congregational Church, Providence, R. I., will observe the anniversary of their founding as a memorial day, on Wednesday, Dec. 21. The installation of their pastor elect, Rev. Lyman Whiting, will be united with the observance.

☞ The quickest run to Smyrna ever made from Boston, has just been accomplished by the bark Bounding Billow, Capt. Small, in twenty-seven days.

If you are fond of pure vexation, and dire procrastination, you're just in a situation to enjoy a case at law.

☞ Nearly complete returns from Minnesota make the Republican majority for Governor 3353, and that on joint ballot in the Legislature 45.

CONGRESS.

Congress assembled in Washington yesterday. 231 members were present. A postscript of the Traveller has the following dispatch:

From present appearances the South Americans will finally concentrate on Botelier, of Harper's Ferry district, Va., and Briggs and Carter of N. Y. will go with them, and the Democrats will adopt the plurality rule, and unite with the Americans for Botelier. If so, he will be elected. Briggs and Carter were elected to Congress by Republican votes.

☞ The anti-Brown indignation meeting in Boston is to be held in Faneuil Hall on Thursday morning; and the Courier of Monday evening says Everett and Cushing will certainly speak on the occasion, and ex-President Pierce and others are invited.

☞ Mr. Everett is to continue to contribute to the columns of the New York Ledger after the completion of the Mount Vernon Papers. Compensation not announced. He does not write this time for the benefit of Mt. Vernon Fund.

☞ Look out for counterfeit bills of two dollars, on the State Bank, Augusta, altered from the genuine plate of some broken bank. On the bottom are the words "Stockholders individually liable," which are not on the genuine bill.

FUN AT HOME.—Don't be afraid of a little fun at home, good people; Don't shut up your houses lest the sun should fade your carpets; and your hearts, lest a hearty laugh should shake down some of the musty old cobwebs there!

☞ Andrew J. McCarty, a member of the New York Common Council, has been indicted for the murder of Patrick Cosgrove, last New Year's eve.

☞ Ned Price is preparing to open an academy for physical training for gentlemen, in Boston.

☞ Geo. W. Pettes, Esq., of Boston, is to read his beautiful and popular Poem, "The Silver Lining," at the Lyceum, this Tuesday evening.

The Post says, "he is well known as a gentleman of culture and talent; and the praises of the Press are undoubtedly justly bestowed. We notice that all the papers speak highly of his Poem":

His song was entitled "The Silver Lining," and he wove into a rich and beautiful fabric the sunny, perhaps we ought to say the silver, hues of life. Shunning the sombre and gloomy, he aimed to entertain and cheer, and inspire a lively desire for the beautiful, the lovely, the true, the holy and everlasting.

In glancing at the frivolities and evils of life, he applied the knife of satire and ridicule, cunningly sharpened on the wheel of verse, with decided effect; while he gracefully and impressively praised the noble and the good.

Rev. J. G. Adams, of Worcester, one of the most talented and eloquent of the absent sons of Portsmouth, is to lecture, on Monday Evening, Dec. 12th. Of his subject we are not informed.

"Grace Greenwood," of Philadelphia, is to deliver her celebrated lecture on "The Heroic in Common Life," on Tuesday Evening, Dec. 13th.

There will probably be good music at each of these entertainments; and it is the design of the managers to close the Course with a grand Concert, if possible.

Tickets for the rest of the Course, only 50 cents; for each evening, 25 cents.

☞ What more beautiful and acceptable present, than a year's subscription to the Cosmopolitan Art Association? See advertisement in another column; and the splendid Engravings at Mr. Cobb's Music Store.

STOVE STORE REMOVED.

URIAH BLAISDELL

Has removed his Stove and Furnishing Establishment one door north, to the spacious and convenient store

Nos. 43 & 45 Market Street,

where he is receiving and arranging a large and valuable Stock of

STOVES, TIN WARE, &c.,

Which he offers for sale at wholesale and retail, at very low prices. He has a great variety of the best and most popular Stoves, among which are:

1. The Stewart Cook Stove, with the latest improvements. This is an air-tight Cook Stove, for Wood or Coal; it has moveable coverings, which can confine the heat in the stove, or let it out into the room; has a reservoir of hot water 10 or 20 gallons, and a tin closet beneath;—a top cover, which is a great institution for baking, and will keep a coal fire all night; it has a Dutch Oven for roasting in front of the Stove;—and it is every way a most convenient and durable Stove. There are 4 sizes.

The following recommendation of Stewart's Stove, is from an eminent engineer, and must be satisfactory to all who wish to understand the value of this excellent Stove:

Portsmouth, N. H., Nov. 5, 1859.

Mr. Blaisdell:—Seven years ago I moved to this city, and sold, before I came, a "Stewart's Air Tight Cooking Stove," which I had used about five years. During that time no repairs or expense had been made upon it. Since I have been here I have tried the various Cooking Stoves in use, and I think for economy and durability the "Stewart" excels them all. I wish you would take away the Stove I now have from my house, and set up one of Stewart's as soon as you can. Your ob't servant,

B. F. CHANDLER.

2. Boston & Maine Cook Stove;
3. White Mountain;
4. Empire State;
5. Enterprise;
6. Exchange;
7. Dining Room Cook Stoves, and others.

PARLOR STOVES.

SEAVEY'S COAL AND GAS BURNER, superseding everything else of the kind, as a parlor Coal Stove.

THE MAGEE COAL STOVE, highly recommended and esteemed by many.

CAST IRON PARLOR STOVES, with and without ovens.

SHEET IRON PARLOR STOVES, with and without ovens, of a variety of patterns.

OFFICE AND COUNTING ROOM STOVES.

BOX STOVES, for Schools, Halls and Churches

FARMER'S BOILERS, from 15 to 46 gallons each.

Also, FUNNEL, KITCHEN FURNITURE, TIN WARE AND FARMING TOOLS.

All these, and many other articles, too numerous to mention, will be sold at great bargains.

Funnel made, and Stoves and Funnel put up, to order, in the best manner.

Fousel's Pabulum Vitæ.

☞ THE GREAT FRENCH REMEDY possesses extraordinary properties for the speedy and permanent cure of CONSUMPTION, BRONCHITIS, COUGHS, COLDS, and all PULMONARY DISEASE.

This celebrated specific is now universally acknowledged to be infinitely superior to all other preparations for the cure of Pulmonary Disease, both from its innocent nature and most astonishing curative properties; it being the only remedy known that will arrest the development of Tubercles in the Lungs or restore the vital functions of the pulmonary organs to their normal condition. Its invaluable properties have obtained for it the highest recommendation and praise from some of the most eminent physicians and chemists in the country: while the best and surest proofs of its merits are afforded by the numerous testimonials of its great efficacy in conquering disease, which are constantly received from our most respectable citizens. Invalids in all stages of pulmonary disease should not fail to give it a trial, as it can be administered to the most delicate and feeble with perfect safety and certain relief; and we herewith insert a few testimonials for their encouragement, selected from hundreds of like import.

Certificate of Dr. A. A. HAYES, in reference to the unequalled virtues of this great discovery.

This preparation, by chemical analysis, was proved to be free from opium, or any of its compounds; nor were any of the alkaloids present. It does not contain any mercurial or mineral substance, but consists wholly of volatile, diffusible agents, which afford vapors freely at a moderate temperature. Most of the substances present are officinally used in alleviating pulmonary disease; but the device by which they are combined is new and original, and adapts the compound to inhalation, or other modes of administration.

Respectfully,
A. A. HAYES, M. D., State Assayer.

16 Boylston St., Boston, Dec. 1857.

In the Boston Transcript of December 11, 1858, the editor says:—

"We have seen a letter from an eminent physician of this city, in which he says:—'I have used Fousel's Pabulum Vitæ in several cases of Bronchial disease, and in some with great benefit. I know of no remedy equal to it for children, where a minute dose is essential; or for adults of irritable stomachs, or having a tendency to reject ordinary medicines given for coughs, etc. I shall continue to use it in my practice.'"

Testimonial from the Sisters of Charity, of the St. Vincent's Orphan Asylum, in Boston.

BOSTON, July 31, 1858.

To Mr. F. LAFORME, Agent:

"The Sisters are happy to state that, having used Fousel's Pabulum Vitæ, they have found it efficacious in several instances, for bad coughs and colds. Signed by the SISTERS OF CHARITY.

Testimonial from a well-known Apothecary's Clerk.

BOSTON, March 10, 1859.

J. F. LAFORME, Esq.:

Dear Sir—I had been suffering for a considerable length of time from a severe cough, and had in vain had recourse to nearly all the remedies in use. My cough began to give me much uneasiness from its serious effects on my system, when three days' use of Fousel's Pabulum Vitæ restored me to complete health. The medicine being new in this market, I had recourse to it last; but I can now confidently recommend it as the best medicine I know of. Yours, truly,

CHAS. H. FOSTER.

At Fred Brown's, Washington, corner State St.

In the Boston Post, Sept. 24, 1858, the editor says:

"An extraordinary cure of Consumption has recently come to our knowledge, effected through the instrumentality of Fousel's Pabulum Vitæ; the evidence of which is in the handwriting of the subject, Mr. Wm. P. Brigham, No. 130 Albany st., in this city. It seems that for eighteen months he had been exhibiting all the usual symptoms of Consumption, and that after having had recourse to the skill of various physicians, without benefit, he had to abandon his business and be confined to his house. Hearing of Fousel's Pabulum Vitæ, and of several remarkable cures effected by it, in cases as desperate as his own, he concluded to try it as a forlorn hope. The result has been most happy—he has now entirely recovered, and is engaged in his usual pursuits. It is such well authenticated cases as this that we take pleasure in laying before our readers, since, by so doing, many valuable lives may be saved, and much good effected.

It is sold at the low price of 50 cents, and $1.00 per bottle, thus placing it within the reach of all classes. F. J. LAFORME, sole Agent, Boston. M. S. BURR & CO., General Agents, No. 26 Tremont street, Museum Building, Boston, and for sale by all druggists. Circulars with testimonials of its efficacy can be had of the Agents novl7ly

FOR STATESMEN, JUDGES, CLERGYMEN.

Ladies and Gentlemen, in all parts of the world testify to the efficacy of Prof. O. J. Wood's Hair Restorative, and gentlemen of the Press are unanimous in its praise. A few testimonials only can be here given; see circular for more, and it will be impossible for you to doubt.

47 Wall Street, New York, Dec. 20, 1858.

GENTLEMEN:—Your note of the 15th inst., has been received, saying that you had heard that I had been benefitted by the use of Wood's Hair Restorative, and requesting my certificate of the fact if I had no objection to give it.

I award it to you cheerfully, because I think it due. My age is about 50 years; the color of my hair auburn, and inclined to curl. Some five or six years since it began to turn gray, and the scalp on the crown of my head to lose its sensibility and dandruff to form upon it. Each of these disagreeabilities increased with time, and about four months since a fourth was added to them, by hair falling off the top of my head and threatening to make me bald.

In this unpleasant predicament, I was induced to try Wood's Hair Restorative, mainly to arrest the falling off of my hair, for I had really no expectation that gray hair could ever be restored to its original color except from dyes. I was, however, greatly surprised to find after the use of two bottles only, that not only was the falling of arrested, but the color was restored to the gray hairs and sensibility to the scalp, and dandruff ceased to form on my head, very much to the gratification of my wife, at whose solicitation I was induced to try it.

For this, among the many obligations I owe to her sex, I strongly recommend all husbands who value the admiration of their wives to profit by my example, and use it if growing gray or getting bald. Very Respectfully,
BENJ. A. LAVENDER.
To O. J. Wood & Co., 471 Broadway, N. Y.

Sizmaston, Ala., July 20th, 1859.

To Prof. O. J. Wood: Dear Sir: Your "Hair Restorative" has done my hair so much good since I commenced the use of it, that I wish to make known to the PUBLIC its effects on the hair, which are great. A man or woman may be nearly deprived of hair, and by a resort to your "Hair Restorative," the hair will return more beautiful than ever; at least this is my experience. Believe it all! Yours truly,
WM. H. KENEDY.

P. S.—You can publish the above if you like.—By publishing in our Southern papers you will get more patronage south. I see several of your certificates in the Mobile Mercury, a strong Southern paper. W. H. K.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.

Professor O. J. Wood:—Dear Sir:—Having had the misfortune to lose the best portion of my hair, from the effects of the yellow fever, in New Orleans in 1851, I was induced to make a trial of your preparation, and found it to be the very thing needed. My hair is now thick and glossy, and no words can express my obligations to you in giving to the afflicted such a treasure.
FINLEY JOHNSON.

The Restorative is put up in bottles of three sizes, viz: large, medium, and small; the small holds half a pint, and retails for one dollar per bottle; the medium holds at least twenty per cent. more in proportion than the small, retails for two dollars per bottle; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent. more in proportion, and retails for $3 a bottle.

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA,

A compound remedy in which we have labored to produce the most effectual alterative that can be made. It is a concentrated extract of Pure Sarsaparilla, of combined with other substances of still greater alterative power as to afford an effective antidote for the diseases Sarsaparilla is reputed to cure. It is believed that such a remedy is wanted by those who suffer from Strumous complaints, and that one which will a complish their cure must be of immense service to this large class of our afflicted fellow citizens. How completely this compound will do it, has been proven by experiment on many of the worst cases to be found in the following complaints:—

SCROFULA AND SCROFULOUS COMPLAINTS, ERUPTIONS AND ERUPTIVE DISEASES, ULCERS, PIMPLES, BLOTCHES, TUMORS, SALT RHEUM, SCALD HEAD, SYPHILIS AND SYPHILITIC AFFECTIONS, MERCURIAL DISEASE, DROPSY, NEURALGIA OR TIC DOULOUREUX, DEBILITY, DYSPEPSIA AND INDIGESTION, ERYSIPELAS, ROSE OR ST. ANTHONY'S FIRE, and indeed the whole class of complaints arising from IMPURITY OF THE BLOOD.

This compound will be found a great promoter of health, when taken in the spring, to expel the foul humors which fester in the blood at that season of the year. By the timely expulsion of them many rankling disorders are nipped in the bud.—Multitudes can, by the aid of this remedy, spare themselves from the endurance of foul eruptions and ulcerous sores, through which the system will strive to rid itself of corruptions, if not assisted to do this through the natural channels of the body by an alterative medicine. Cleanse out the vitiated blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in pimples, eruptions or sores;—cleanse it when you find it is obstructed or sluggish in the veins; cleanse it whenever it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Even where no particular disorder is felt, people enjoy better health, and live live longer, for cleansing the blood. Keep the blood healthy, and all is well; but with the stream of life disordered, there can be no lasting health. Sooner or later something must go wrong, and the great machinery of life is disordered or overthrown.

Sarsaparilla has, and deserves much, the reputation of accomplishing great ends. But the world has been egregiously deceived by preparations of it, partly because the drug alone has not all the vigue that is claimed for it, but more because many preparations, pretending to be concentrated extracts of it contain but little of the virtue of Sarsaparilla, or anything else.

During late years the public have been misled by large bottles, pretending to give a quart of Extract of Sarparilla for one dollar. Most of these have been frauds upon the sick, for they not only contain little, if any, Sarsaparilla, but often no curative properties whatever. Acute bitter and painful disappointment has followed the use of the various extracts of Sarsaparilla which flood the market, until the name of Sarsaparilla stinks, and has become synonymous with imposition and cheat. Still we call this compound Sarsaparilla, and intend to apply such a remedy as shall rescue the name from the load of obloquy which rests upon it. And we think we have grounds for believing it has virtues which are irresistible by the ordinary run of the diseases it is intended to cure. In order to secure their complete eradication from the system, the remedy should be judiciously taken according to directions on the bottle.

DR. J. C. AYER & CO.,
LOWELL, MASS.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral

Has won for itself such a renown for the cure of every variety of Throat and Lung Complaint, that it is entirely unnecessary for us to recount the evidence of its virtues, wherever it has been employed. As it has long been in constant use throughout this section, we need not do more than assure the people its quality is kept up to the best it ever has been, and that it may be relied on to do for their relief all it has ever been found to do.

They are sugar-coated, so that the most sensitive can take them pleasantly, and they are the best aperient in the world for all the purposes of a family physic.

AMERICAN & FOREIGN PATENTS.

R. H. EDDY, Solicitor of Patents,
Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, APPOINTMENT of 1837, 76 STATE, OPPOSITE KILBY ST, BOSTON.

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Research made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions,—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through its connexions have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate. The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him t. accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

I have no hesitation in assuring inventors they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHAS. MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

BOSTON, February 8, 1858.

Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that one is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges. JOHN TAGGART.

From Sept 17, 1857, to June 17, 1858, the subscriber, in the course of his large practice, made on twenty rejected applications, SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in HIS FAVOR, by the Commissioner of Patents.

DR. J. B. HUGHES,

Knowing that there are at this moment thousands of persons in the surrounding towns, surrendering their lives to the insidious inroads of certain dangerous maladies, who still suffer from the reluctance to make known their complaints and consult a physician, he would state that any of his medicines will be sent by express or otherwise, to all who may order them, provided the true description of the disease be sent by letter and directed as above.

Full and explicit directions will accompany every package, and the most inviolable secrecy preserved.

DR. HUGHES can with safety say during the last year of his practice in Boston, more than three hundred cases of disease which have been improperly treated by empyrics have come under his care, and more than three-fourths of this number are inscribed upon his books as perfect cures.

Patients treated by letter by addressing Dr. Hughes, post paid, and medicines sent all over the country, carefully concealed from scrutinizing friends.

Be particular in finding Dr. Hughes. Do not be lured from the right path, or be persuaded to try experiments with false and fictitious remedies at the expense of destroying what is the great pillar of life, a healthy constitution.

This medicine can only be obtained at the Office of Dr. HUGHES, 13 Howard street, Boston.

DR. J. B. HUGHES UNIVERSAL FEMALE RENOVATING PILLS. These pills are unrivalled in efficacy and superior virtue in regulating all female irregularities. Their action is specific and certain, producing relief in a short space of time. They are acknowledged to be the best in use.

The Dr. cautions the public to beware of impositions that are being practiced by advertising a spurious article under some spurious or fictitious name. They are entirely useless, having been got up by miserable pretenders who are entirely ignorant of the efficacy of medicines.

All who are in pursuit of the genuine article, had better call on the Dr. at his office, where they will be sure of getting the genuine—the only place in Boston where the genuine is for sale.

These pills can be sent to any part of the country with directions. Remember the number—13 Howard street, Boston.

P. S.—The best of accommodations furnished, with kind and attentive nurses if they wish, at a reasonable rate. j2 dly

MOTHERS,
In presenting you with DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL, we desire to state its superiority over every nostrum that nurse or quack has heretofore offered you.
First—It is the preparation of a regular physician, who is well qualified from much experience in infantile complaints to prescribe for them.—Second—It is entirely free from paregoric or opiate of any kind, and consequently relieves by removing the suffering of your child, instead of deadening its sensibilities. Thirdly—It is put up with great care, as a comparison of it with any other article for infantile complaints will show: the very roots from which it is distilled being dug from the forests under the direction of Dr. Eaton, many of them by his own hands. Fourthly—it is perfectly harmless and cannot injure the most delicate infant, and is a certain cure and relief in all the following cases, which is its chief merit over every other preparation.
FOR ALL COMPLAINTS ATTENDING TEETHING; such as DYSENTERY, COLIC, &c.; also, for softening the gums and relieving pain. For regulating the bowels it is unequalled. For Cold in the Head it is a sure relief. For CROUP, the most fatal and trying of diseases, it can be relied on with perfect confidence; and, being a powerful anti-spasmodic in all cases of convulsions or fits, we earnestly recommend you to loose no time in procuring it—Lastly—it costs so much more than other preparations of the kind, that we cannot afford such long advertisements as can those whose whole expense is their advertising; for the same reason, it commends itself as the most reliable to all mothers. In all cases, the directions wrapped around each bottle, must be strictly followed. Price, 25 cents per bottle.
Sold by CHURCH & DUPONT, Druggists, No. 35 Maiden Lane, New York.
And by all respectable Druggists throughout the country. In Portsmouth by W. R. PRESTON.

BLOOD FOOD.
DR. BRISTOW, having been so far reduced by consumption, as to be considered beyond all hope of recovery by the most eminent of the medical profession, and also by himself—a regular physician of twenty years' practice—as a last resort, tried the idea of ANALYZING THE BLOOD, and applying the subject of philology, connected with the action of the Lungs, to the more immediate connection, and effect of the state of the blood upon the health and system. The result has been the production of this Blood Food, as the use of which, Dr. Bristow has been enabled to perform more than any complaints of a consumptive tendency, sufficiently cured by it. If you are suffering from Nervous Debility, or your Liver of appetite, or pain in the side, lose no time in procuring a bottle of the "BLOOD FOOD." If you are suffering from Nervous Debility, or your Cough, Cold, Shortness of Breath, or any other complaints of a consumptive tendency, sufficiently cured by it.

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

WEDNESDAY, DEC. 7, 1859.

☞ In Congress, at Washington, Dec. 5 at noon, the Senate was called to order by the Vice President.

Forty-eight Senators were present. John C. Ten Eyck of New Jersey, and Henry P. Hann of California appeared and were qualified.

The absentees were Messrs. Benjamin, Clay, Crittenden, Davis, Douglas, Fitch Fitzpatrick, Hammond, Johnson of Ark., Polk, Sebastian, Seward, Toombs.

Mr. Mason of Va. submitted a resolution, which he would call up Tuesday, for the appointment of a committee to inquire into the fact attending the late invasion and seizure of the armory and arsenal at Harper's Ferry, &c., &c.

Mr. Trumbull of Ill. gave notice that when the resolution came up, he should move to amend by extending the inquiry to the seizure of the arsenal at Franklin, Mo.

Mr. Gwin gave notice of a Pacific Railroad bill.

The House was densely crowded. 231 members answered to their names. The House then proceeded to the election of a Speaker, viva voce.

Mr. Houston nominated Mr. Sherman of Ohio.

Mr. Adrian nominated Mr. Davis of Indiana.

Mr. Haskin nominated Mr. Hickman of Pennsylvania.

Mr. Stevens nominated Mr. Grow of Pennsylvania.

Mr. Briggs nominated Mr. Bocock of Virginia.

The following is the first ballot:

Sherman	66
Bocock	86
Grow	43
Boreler	14
Davis	2
Phelps	1
Gilmer	3
Nelson	5
Corwin	1
Adrian	1
Hill	1
Hickman	1
Pennington	1
Haskin	2
H. F. Clark	1

Mr. Grow declined. Mr. Clark of Missouri moved a resolution that no man was fit for Speaker, who recommended Helper's Impending Crisis, whereupon a slavery debate sprung up, which lasted through the sitting.

[Uncle Toby remembers the talk, in Congress and out, several years ago, about the finality they were putting to all excitement about slavery. No doubt some of the speakers believed what they said—but there is no finality, and there can be none, in any compromise between Good and Evil, Right and Wrong. The one must overcome and destroy the other; and therfore it is that all such compromises must be temporary, because they are concessions to the wrong, never to the right.

The Missouri Compromise, so called, was simply the giving Missouri up to slavery, on the mere enactment that it should go no farther north than a certain line,—which enactment was repealed the moment the slave power was strong enough to do it, by the aid of traitors from the North!

And here is the question again to be met, and it will keep coming, till despotism or liberty prevails.]

☞ The Boston Atlas of Tuesday morning says "a funeral in memory of John Brown is to take place in that city on Thursday. The services will be held in Music Hall. It is expected that the remains of the deceased hero and patriot will reach the city to-morrow. Wendell Phillips will probably pronouce the eulogy. A lot has been purchased at Mount Auburn for the remains, and is in preparation for the interment. The exercises at Music Hall will occur at the same time as the meeting at Faneuil Hall. The two gatherings will present a marked contrast."

On the arrival of the body in New York it was deposited at the depot in Warren street. Afterwards several persons were admitted to the room, the lid of the coffin was removed, exposing to view the face and breast. The features would have been instantly recognized as those of John Brown, by any one who had seen his photograph. They were not in the least distorted, and wore a calm expression as of one asleep. The lids were closed naturally, and there was a slight bruise perceptible on the side of the right eye. The body was dressed in the clothes in which it was executed.

BALTIMORE, Dec. 3.—Brown's body passed through this city to-day, en route for Albany.

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 3.—The body of John Brown left here at 2 o'clock this afternoon for New York.

ANOTHER MONOMANIA.—The Washington States and Union has an editorial on the organization of the new House of Representatives, in which it says that it believes that every member of Congress representing a district in a slaveholding State, will go to the House when it meets, with an inflexible determination, as far as his vote can prevent such an occurrence, not to surrender its organization to the "black republicans," even though it should never be organized again.

HONG KONG, CHINA, Sept. 29.

Concluded.

One half of my second day ashore at Hong Kong was spent in ascending the mountain at the back of the city, and scrambling down again. From the summit I got an extended view, which, though not remarkable for beauty or grandeur, amply repaid for the trouble. When I reached the edge of the city, on my return, I was both heated and tired, and accordingly laid down in the shade of a verandah, to rest myself. I believe that wherever a sailor goes he is considered to have a right to lie down on the sidewalk, provided he is willing to run the risk of being arrested; but here he may lie in the middle of the street, and no policeman will either "molest or make him afraid." So I enjoyed my stony couch very well, till a Chinaman came up with a basket slung to his neck, containing what I thought mere tomatoes, a fruit I most cordially detest. I had my choice of two methods to get rid of him—frighten him away, or buy some of his stock; and, as a peaceable man, I chose the latter alternative, and received a hat-full for sixpence. I took up one and admired its rich color for a time, and finally sank my teeth through the skin, and was most agreeably surprised to find that it contained, instead of the truly astonishing flavor of that most villainous of all vegetable productions, the tomato, a most delicious pulp, not unlike in taste to a rich plum. I ate all I had purchased, and moved on, with very benevolent feelings towards all Chinamen. I was told the name of the fruit, but have forgotten it; and if I had not I could n't write it, so it makes no difference—'tis excellent eating, whatever its name.

Next I went to the joss-house, a building of stone, with numerous apartments and courts, where I saw plenty of butchering and cooking going on, and a dozen or more of the most disgusting and impossible creations that ever man saw or imagined.—These were the Chinese gods, and I think if Christians could see them they would soon do away with the old-fashioned picture of Satan, which represents him with hoof, horns and tail—as I am certain a joss looks much more like him. I soon left the joss-house, and don't think I shall visit it again.

Rum-shops are thicker here than in any other place I have ever been in, and the very natural consequence is, that nearly all the seamen who go on shore get drunk as quick as possible; and not unfrequently have a little fighting, to vary the amusements. The liquor is of the sort known as "kill-me-quick," and is altogether too cheap—the best brandy going for 75 cts. per bottle. A man who gets tipsy one day, wants two days to get over his headache, and a cask of it would destroy a regiment of soldiers. Being a strictly temperate man myself, I don't care if the rum-sellers do distribute turpentine or vitriol.

Last Sabbath I attended divine service, at the bethel of Rev. J. C. Beecher, Henry Ward Beecher's brother. A number of ladies were present, and some fifty or sixty seamen. The singing was fair, the sermon good, and the congregation attentive. Mr. Beecher is a first-rate sailors' missionary, for he goes on board ships, talks the captains into giving their men boats to convey them to the bethel, and not only that, but he goes into the fo'castle, invites the seamen, personally, to attend—and, as he is a retired sailor himself, he knows just how to take them. He has a good library, which is open to seamen at all times, and our crew avail themselves of it most liberally.—I have got B. P. Shillaber's "Rhymes with Reason and without," and it seems like an old acquaintance—and I think I shall read it, now, as I have spoiled paper enough.

ICE.

FROM EUROPE, via Paris, Nov. 19.—The Constitutionnel confirms the statement which appeared in the Patrie, viz:—that the Ami de Religion would be prosecuted from publishing the letter alleged to be from the King of Sardinia to the Emperor of the French, relating to the Regency of Prince Carigan.

The departure of the Spanish troops for Morocco has been delayed, as Marshal O'Donnell will not consent to their leaving before the collection of war materials has been completed which will be very shortly.

Gen. Garibaldi has tendered his resignation to the King of Sardinia, and is not to return again to Central Italy.

☞ The strife about the city election in New York is warm. The N. Y. Tribune is devoted to small paragraphs and Opdyke. It asks—Who is George Opdyke? and answers—A man in the fulness of his physical and intellectual strength. Who is William F. Havemeyer? A man 70 years old—not active enough for Mayor. Who is Fernando Wood? An ex-grog-shop keeper; and winds up with: Men of New York! vote accordingly.

☞ The term of Gov. Wise expires the first Monday in January. He has disposed of his estate in Accomac, and will locate himself permanently near Richmond.—Hon. John Letcher will enter upon his duties as Governor of Virginia on the first Monday of January.

U. S. STEAM SLOOP MOHICAN.

This beautiful vessel, which sailed from our harbor on her trial trip, on Saturday, 3d inst., is one of seven similar vessels, for the building of which Congress made appropriations in 1858. We visited the vessel Saturday forenoon, and as the boat in which we crossed the river drew near, we could not help admiring her symmetrical proportions and beautiful appearance externally, and heartily agreed with the old salt who rowed our boat across, when he remarked that she was "handsome as a pictur, and if she didn't get through the water fast, then he was mistaken." Her shape is such as to convince any one that she must be a superior vessel in her sailing and other qualities.

Those officers with whom we conversed in regard to her apparent sailing qualities, and one of the old ship-builders on this river, were of the opinion that she reflected great credit upon the skill of Naval Constructor William L. Hanscom, now at the Charlestown navy yard, under whose superintendence she was built.

The general dimensions of the vessel, as we got them from one of the officers, are: Extreme length 232 ft. 4 in.; extreme breadth of beam 33 ft.; depth of hold 16 ft. Draft of water (ready for sea) 13 ft. Length of well from screw 7 ft., breadth 6 ft. Her plain sails cover an area of 9500 square feet.

We were informed that the engine and propelling machinery were wholly of New England manufacture, being made by Messrs. Woodward & Beach, the contractors, of Hartford, Conn. It is a direct acting engine, having two cylinders 54 inches in diameter, and 30 inch stroke; diameter of the piston rods (two in each cylinder) 4 1-2 inches. There is connected with it a Pierson condenser, intended to make fresh water from salt, containing about 4000 brass tubes 4 ft. 9 in. long, 5-8 in. in diameter; total superficial surface of the tubes 3500 feet; the whole condenser weighing about fifteen tons.

The crank shaft is about 16 feet long, 11 inches in diameter, forged in one piece with cranks at right angles, and weighs five tons. The main shaft connects with the crank shaft and is about 60 feet long, in three sections; the couplings are forged upon the shafts. These shafts were forged by Dearborn, Robinson & Co. of Boston, are splendid specimens of forging; they are made of the best American iron, are of superior workmanship, and reflect much credit upon the manufacturers. The after section of the shaft is fitted with seven collars which are intended to take the thrust of the screw; also a roller-bearing of novel and peculiar construction, designed by Wm. Wright of Hartford, working without the slightest noise.

There is a dynanometer connected with the shaft, to weigh the amount of pressure at the end thrust of the screw. The available power of the engine to move the ship is determined by a steam pressure gauge, and can be discerned at a glance.

The propeller has two blades 12 1-2 feet in diameter, 19 feet pitch, weighs 4 1-2 tons, and is made of gun metal; it is so arranged as to be hoisted out, when the vessel is under sail alone.

The boilers are Daniel B. Martin's patent, vertical and multitubular, one having six and the other seven furnaces; there is also a donkey boiler connected with the rest of six furnaces, to be used in connection with the other boilers or separately.—In these boilers there are 4480 two inch seamless brass tubes, manufactured by the American Tube Company. One of the boilers is 24 ft. 7 in. wide with seven furnaces, one 21 ft. 1 in. wide, with 6 furnaces; the donkey boiler is 3 ft. 5 in. wide—all of them 10 ft. 1 in. long and 10 feet high.—There is also a fresh water condensing apparatus for manufacturing fresh water.

The handsome combined steam gauge, connected with a counter and clock, all in one dial, manufactured by E. G. Allen of Boston, particularly attracted our attention; it shows the pressure of steam, the time, and the number of revolutions of the engine.

There were 55 tons of gun metal composition and copper used in the construction of the engine. The contract price of the engine was $125,000, and we should judge from what we saw that it was a superior machine.

We have never been on board a vessel whose whole shape and arrangements were more pleasing to the eye and substantial in appearance.

A list of her officers was given in our edition of Monday; and we are indebted to several of them for their polite and kind attention during our visit to the vessel.

The Mohican carries the following armament and ammunition:

Two 11 inch pivot guns, Dahlgreen's; four 32 lb. 42 cwt. guns; one Howitzer, 421 lbs.; 9772 lbs. Powder.

For 11 inch guns, 250 11 inch shells, 16 stands 11 inch grape; for 32 lb. guns, 80 32 lb. shells, 320 32 lb. solid shot, 32 stands 32 lb. grape; for Howitzer, 54 12 lb. shrapnel, 18 12 lb. shell, 2 tons 12 lb. canister.

Catarrhal Cough.

This insidious and annoying symptom, so difficult to treat, depends on a subacute inflammation of the air-passages, which is apt to end in chronic ulceration and a form of consumption. The mucous membrane of the air-passages is peculiarly susceptible to the healing influences of the PERUVIAN SYRUP, as the testimonials of some of our first citizens show.

Dr. Hostetter's Bitters have received the warmest encomiums from the press and people throughout the Union. As a valuable tonic for the cure of Dyspepsia, Flatulence, Constipation and general nervous debility, it cannot be approached. Every day new cases of its great effect are chronicled through our public journals. There is nothing equal to the enjoyment, to that which the afflicted experience when using this valuable specific. Its mild tone, its sure and vigorous action upon a disordered stomach, and the cleansing of the entire human body should recommend it to all classes of our community. All that will be necessary to convince the skeptical of its healthy effects, is to purchase a bottle and be convinced.

Sold by druggists and dealers generally, everywhere.

Among the restoratives which Nature has supplied to relieve the afflictions of humanity there is no more favorite one for a certain class of diseases than the "medicinal gum" of the Wild Cherry Tree; but however valuable it is, its power to heal, to soothe, to relieve, and to cure, is enhanced ten-fold by scientific and judicious combination with other ingredients, in themselves of equal worth. This happy mingling exists in that

"Combination and a form indeed"
Of medicine known as
Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry,
Whose value in curing Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Whooping Cough, Croup, Asthma, Pulmonary Affection and Incipient Consumption, is inestimable.

HOME TESTIMONY.

BOSTON, April 18, 1852.
No. 48 Union St.

Mr. Seth W. Fowle,—Dear Sir:—Your invaluable medicine, I can truly say, has literally snatched me from the grave. Last July I was attacked by a sudden cold, which resulted in a very severe Cough, with violent pains in the side and chest. I became so much reduced, that my friends frankly told me that I must die. At this crisis, I heard of Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, and immediately sent for a bottle. The effect produced was indeed wonderful. My physician, one of the most respectable in Boston, who had previously told me that a cure was hopeless, came in, and I informed him what I had taken. He examined the Balsam, and advised me to continue the use of it, since which time I have continued to improve daily; and the same physician who had given me up, told me, a few days since, that I might yet live many years.

Respectfully,
MARY ROWE.

We can cheerfully testify to the truth of the above statement, Mrs. Rowe having been an inmate of our family. WILLIAM DENNETT,
MARTHA DENNETT.

None genuine unless signed I. BUTTS on the wrapper.

Prepared by S. W. FOWLE & CO., BOSTON, and for sale by Wm. R. Preston, David Kimball, Nathan P. Thacher, J. H. Thacher, and B. Hutchings, Portsmouth; J. P. Packer, Greenland; and dealers everywhere. spnot 4wd&w

Local Items.

☞ On Saturday night, or as early as two or three o'clock on Sunday morning, in the snow storm, the schooner Clio of Salem, bound to that port from Calais, Me., went ashore on Rye beach, and became a total wreck. One man was drowned: the remaining three were taken off and saved by people from the shore.

Another schooner, whose name we have not learnt, was in danger of going ashore near the above, but rode out the gale by cutting away both masts. She was towed to Cape Ann, on Tuesday, by two schooners which came out of our lower harbor.

☞ The new U. S. steam propeller Mohican, which left this port on Saturday P. M., passed safely through the storm of that night, and put into Provincetown, Mass. on Sunday.

☞ The new Vestry of the State St. Methodist Society, on Daniel street, was dedicated, with the usual appropriate services, on Tuesday afternoon; and despite the storm, the audience crowded the house.

☞ An advertisement of Mr. Loring's Readings, will be seen in the appropriate column. Good, natural reading, is a rare accomplishment; and to listen to it, a delight. We have no knowledge of the gentleman announced for to-night, but the Maine papers are loud in his praise. The Oxford Democrat says he is "a gentleman finely educated, and has besides a large share of talent and elocutionary skill." The Lewiston Falls Journal says he is "a graduate of Bowdoin College, and a young man of rare elocutionary powers. His recitations and readings are admirable, and cannot fail to receive the approbation of an intelligent public."

The tickets are but 15 cents, so it won't cost much to try him, at any rate; and one would think that in the present, and indeed the usual sad scarcity of literary entertainments here,—such an exhibition as this might pick up an audience almost any night.

☞ The lecture Poem read before the Lyceum Tuesday evening, by George W. Pettes, Esq., might serve indeed as a "silver lining" to many a weary and sad cloud of every day experience. It was just about the pattern, we thought, for the occasion—fun, philosophy and sentiment, judiciously mixed, and served up in attractive shape. The Poem was finely conceived, neatly written, and well delivered.

That piano did not arrive from Boston in season, as was hoped. It was sent to the depot in Boston on Monday, but was not forwarded to Portsmouth till Tuesday at midnight. It will certainly be played at the next lecture; and at all the remaining lectures.

☞ We are glad to see that some of the young men of this city are organizing a Skating Club, the better to prepare for and enjoy the fine skating we are all hoping for, this winter. This is a most exhilarating and beneficiai exercise, for ladies as well as gentlemen; and we hope the call for a meeting of those interested, (see advertisement in "Special Notice" column,) will be largely attended, and no pains spared to ensure us clear ice, wherever practicable, after we once get it.

☞ It is well known that vessels sailing from some ports in slaveholding States, must first be searched to see that no slaves are concealed, and pay $5 for the privilege; and in default of being so searched, are liable to a fine of $500 and costs. A correspondent writes that a schooner now on the way to this port, after waiting twenty-four hours in a Southern port, sailed; and was overhauled, and condemned to pay $500 and more, for not waiting till our Southern masters got ready to board him. Our correspondent wants the Union to be dissolved, if the South says so.

☞ Subscribers to the New York Cosmopolitan Art Association (of which see advertisement of "Sixth Annual Announcement," in another column,) receive for their $3 subscription, the excellent quarterly Art Magazine for one year, and a splendid engraving of "Shakespeare and his Friends," or the "Village Blacksmith," or "Manifest Destiny," or "Saturday Night," as they may select. The three last-named are the premiums of former years.

Each subscriber also receives a numbered receipt or ticket, which entitles him to a chance in the distribution of six hundred rich paintings, statues, &c., on the 20th of January.

On the payment of $10, any person will receive the four superb engravings above named, with the four Magazines and certificates. For $15, six copies of the present year.

Two of the engravings may be seen at Mr. Cobb's Music Store.

☞ In Dover, Dec. 2, one of the worthiest citizens, John Lord, drowned himself in the river near Log Hill Spring (so called.) He had been for some time suffering with insanity. He was about 35 years of age, and leaves a wife and child.

DIED.

In Newburyport, Mrs. Priscilla Robinson, formerly of Boxford, aged 95.

PURE LIQUORS
—FOR—FAMILY
—AND—
MEDICINAL PURPOSES!

NO species of deception and fraud should receive stronger public condemnation than that of imposing upon the sick with

Adulterated and Poisonous Liquors!

The market is flooded with these adulterated poisons. They have found their way into every State, City, Town and Village in the country, and are carrying incurable insanity to the victims of these terrible agents.

In consequence of the startling developments in regard to

STATE AGENCY LIQUORS,

and the almost universal distrust which now prevails, and to the end that confidence may be restored, we come before the public, pledging our reputation to supply

UNADULTERATED LIQUORS
EXPRESSLY FOR
MEDICINAL PURPOSES.

In asking the confidence of those who have been so outrageously imposed upon by the POISONOUS COMPOUNDS or "LICENSED POLITICAL CHEATS," we would refer to our antecedents for the past eighty years, and we trust that our established reputation abundantly vindicates our claims to public confidence.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

"The Bininger's, 338 Broadway, have a very high reputation to sustain, as the oldest and best house in New York."—Home Journal.

"The house of A. M. Bininger & Co., No. 338 Broadway, has sustained, for a period of eighty years, a reputation that may well be envied."—N. Y. Evening Post.

"The name of A. M. Bininger & Co. is a guarantee of the exact and literal truth of whatever they represent."—N. Y. Com. Advertiser.

"The importing house of A. M. Bininger & Co., No. 338 Broadway, is conducted upon principles of integrity, fairness, and the highest honor."—N. Y Evening Express.

To Druggists, Town Agents and Physicians,

desirous of purchasing liquors of undoubted purity, we would say that our House has made a specialty of selling PURE, UNADULTERATED LIQUORS for Medicinal purposes, and we claim that they are superior to anything now before the public.

With these assurances on our part, we name a few of our bottled goods, which are now freely prescribed by the faculty

BININGER'S
GENUINE COGNAC BRANDY.

The infamous practice of adultering Brandies having become so common that a genuine article is the exception, it is of vital importance to those requiring it for family use, and invalids, that it should be of undoubted purity and efficacy. With a view to meeting the popular demand for a reliable Brandy in its natural state, free from alcoholic flavor and impurities, and fully appreciating the fact that it is often recommended by the Medical Faculty as a sustaining stimulant, when all other remedies fail, we are now bottling and selling at reasonable rates a Brandy of our own importation, from one of the most responsible houses in France, and known as "Bininger's Genuine Cognac Brandy." It is mild, delicate and fruity, and is designed to be always uniform in quality and character.

OLD LONDON DOCK GIN

has been a favorite with the Profession for many years. For all cases of Gravel it will certainly work a cure, and if taken as a preventive, will remove all possible sediment. It is invaluable to females in diseases peculiar to their sex, and in cases of tendency to Phthisis or Consumption, will often ward off that fell disease.

BININGER'S
OLD KENTUCKY BOURBON.

Being distilled in 1848, and manufactured expressly for us with great care, it can be relied upon as a strictly pure stimulant, and peculiarly effective for the treatment of Lung Complaints, Dyspepsia, Derangement of the Stomach, Nervousness, &c.

BININGER'S
HEIDELBERG BRANNTWEIN.

Since its introduction into this country it has received the professional endorsement of our eminent physicians, for the effective treatment of Dyspepsia, Gravel, Rheumatism, Dropsy, Bladder Complaints, Suppression of the Menses, Nervousness, Derangement of the Stomach, General Debility, etc.

BININGER'S
OLD DOMINION WHEAT TONIC.
For Family and Medicinal Use.

This article has received the highest encomiums from eminent medical authorities as possessing qualities that are absolutely PAYKENING; this desideratum renders it invaluable to those who are suffering from Consumption, Lung Complaints, Bronchitis, Impaired Strength, Lack of Vital Energy, &c.

☞ All the above articles are put up in Quart Bottles, in iron bound cases of one and two dozen each.

Orders from the country will receive prompt attention. Circulars, containing a list of articles and prices, forwarded to those desiring them.

STOVE STORE REMOVED.

URIAH BLAISDELL

Has removed his Stove and Furnishing Establishment one door north, to the spacious and convenient store

Nos. 43 & 45 Market Street,

where he is receiving and arranging a large and valuable Stock of

STOVES, TIN WARE, &c.,

Which he offers for sale at wholesale and retail, at very low prices. He has a great variety of the best and most popular Stoves, among which are:

1. The Stewart Cook Stove, with the latest improvements. This is an air-tight Cook Stove, for Wood or Coal; it has moveable coverings, which can confine the heat in the stove, or let it out into the room; has a reservoir of hot water 10 or 20 gallons, and a tin closet beneath;—a top cover, which is a great institution for baking, and will keep a coal fire all night; it has a Dutch Oven for roasting in front of the Stove;—and it is every way a most convenient and durable Stove. There are 4 sizes.

The following recommendation of Stewart's Stove, is from an eminent engineer, and must be satisfactory to all who wish to understand the value of this excellent Stove:

Portsmouth, N. H., Nov. 5, 1859.

Mr. Blaisdell:—Seven years ago I moved to this city, and sold, before I came, a "Stewart's Air Tight Cooking Stove," which I had used about five years. During that time no repairs or expense had been made upon it. Since I have been here I have tried the various Cooking Stoves in use, and I think for economy and durability the "Stewart" excels them all. I wish you would take away the Stove I now have from my house, and set up one of Stewart's as soon as you can. Your ob't servant,
B. F. CHANDLER.

2. Boston & Maine Cook Stove;
3. White Mountain;
4. Empire State;
5. Enterprise;
6. Exchange;
7. Dining Room Cook Stoves, and others.

Fousel's Pabulum Vitæ.

☞ THE GREAT FRENCH REMEDY possesses extraordinary properties for the speedy and permanent cure of CONSUMPTION, BRONCHITIS, COUGHS, COLDS, and all PULMONARY DISEASE.

This celebrated specific is now universally acknowledged to be infinitely superior to all other preparations for the cure of Pulmonary Disease, both from its innocent nature and most astonishing curative properties; it being the only remedy known that will arrest the development of Tubercles in the Lungs or restore the vital functions of the pulmonary organs to their normal condition. Its invaluable properties have obtained for it the highest recommendation and praise from some of the most eminent physicians and chemists in the country; while the best and surest proofs of its merits are afforded by the numerous testimonials of its great efficacy in conquering disease, which are constantly received from our most respectable citizens. Invalids in all stages of pulmonary disease should not fail to give it a trial, as it can be administered to the most delicate and feeble with perfect safety and certain relief; and we herewith insert a few testimonials for their encouragement, selected from hundreds of like import.

Certificate of Dr. A. A. HAYES, in reference to the unequalled virtues of this great discovery.

This preparation, by chemical analysis, was proved to be free from opium, or any of its compounds; nor were any of the alkaloids present. It does not contain any mercurial or mineral substance, but consists wholly of volatile, diffusible agents, which afford vapors freely at a moderate temperature. Most of the substances present are officinally used in alleviating pulmonary disease; but the device by which they are combined is new and original, and adapts the compound to inhalation, or other modes of administration.

Respectfully,
A. A. HAYES, M. D., State Assayer.
16 Boylston St., Boston, Dec. 1857.

In the Boston Transcript of December 11, 1858, the editor says:—

"We have seen a letter from an eminent physician of this city, in which he says:—'I have used Fousel's Pabulum Vitæ in several cases of Bronchial disease, and in some with great benefit. I know of no remedy equal to it for children, where a minute dose is essential; or for adults of irritable stomachs, or having a tendency to reject ordinary medicines given for coughs, etc. I shall continue to use it in my practice.'"

Testimonial from the Sisters of Charity, of the St. Vincent's Orphan Asylum, in Boston.
BOSTON, July 31, 1858.

To Mr. F. LAFORME, Agent:

"The Sisters are happy to state that, having used Fousel's Pabulum Vitæ, they have found it efficacious in several instances, for bad coughs and colds. Signed by the SISTERS OF CHARITY.

Testimonial from a well-known Apothecary's Clerk.
BOSTON, March 10, 1859.

J. F. LAFORME, Esq.:

Dear Sir—I had been suffering for a considerable length of time from a severe cough, and had in vain had recourse to nearly all the remedies in use My cough began to give me much uneasiness from its serious effects on my system, when three days' use of Fousel's Pabulum Vitæ restored me to complete health. The medicine being new in this market, I had recourse to it last; but I can now confidently recommend it as the best medicine I know of. Yours, truly,
CHAS. H. FOSTER.

At Fred Brown's, Washington, corner State St.

In the Boston Post, Sept. 24, 1858, the editor says:

"An extraordinary cure of Consumption has recently come to our knowledge, effected through the instrumentality of Fousel's Pabulum Vitæ; the evidence of which is in the handwriting of the subject, Mr. Wm. F. Brigham, No. 130 Albany st., in this city. It seems that for eighteen months he had been exhibiting all the usual symptoms of Consumption, and that after having had recourse to the skill of various physicians, without benefit, he had to abandon his business and be confined to his house. Hearing of Fousel's Pabulum Vitæ, and of several remarkable cures effected by it, in cases as desperate as his own, he concluded to try it as a forlorn hope. The result has been most happy—he has now entirely recovered, and is engaged in his usual pursuits. It is such well authenticated cases as this that we take pleasure in laying before our readers, since, by so doing, many valuable lives may be saved, and much good effected.

It is sold at the low price of 50 cents, and $1.00 per bottle, thus placing it within the reach of all classes. F. LAFORME, sole Agent, Boston. M. S. BURR & CO., General Agents, No. 26 Tremont street, Museum Building, Boston, and for sale by all druggists. Circulars with testimonials of its efficacy can be had of the Agents novly

WORTHY OF
Universal Confidence and Patronage.

FOR STATESMEN, JUDGES, CLERGYMEN.

Ladies and Gentlemen, in all parts of the world testify to the efficacy of Prof. O. J. Wood's Hair Restorative, and gentlemen of the Press are unanimous in its praise. A few testimonials only can be here given; see circular for more, and it will be impossible for you to doubt.

47 Wall Street, New York, Dec. 20, 1858.

GENTLEMEN:—Your note of the 15th inst., has been received, saying that you had heard that I had been benefitted by the use of Wood's Hair Restorative, and requesting my certificate of the fact if I had no objection to give it.

I award it to you cheerfully, because I think it due. My age is about 50 years; the color of my hair auburn, and inclined to curl. Some five or six years since it began to turn gray, and the scalp on the crown of my head to lose its sensibility and dandruff to form upon it. Each of these disagreeabilities increased with time, and about four months since a fourth was added to them, by hair falling off the top of my head and threatening to make me bald.

In this unpleasant predicament, I was induced to try Wood's Hair Restorative, mainly to arrest the falling off of my hair, for I had really no expectation that gray hair could ever be restored to its original color except from eve. I was, however, greatly surprised to find after the use of two bottles only, that not only was the falling off arrested, but the color was restored to the gray hairs and sensibility to the scalp, and dandruff ceased to form on my head, very much to the gratification of my wife, at whose solicitation I was induced to try it.

For this, among the many obligations I owe to her sex, I strongly recommend all husbands who value the admiration of their wives to profit by my example, and use it if growing gray or getting bald. Very Respectfully,
BENJ. A. LAVENDER.

To O. J. Wood & Co., 444 Broadway, N. Y.

Siamston, Ala., July 20th, 1859.

To Prof. O. J. Wood: Dear Sir: Your "Hair Restorative" has done my hair so much good since I commenced the use of it, that I wish to make known to the PUBLIC its effects on the hair, which are great. A man or woman may be nearly deprived of hair, and by a resort to your "Hair Restorative," the hair will return more beautiful than ever; at least this is my experience. Believe it all! Yours truly,
WM. H. KENEDY.

P. S.—You can publish the above if you like.—By publishing in our Southern papers you will get more patronage south. I see several of your certificates in the Mobile Mercury, a strong Southern paper. W. H. K.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.

Professor O. J. Wood:—Dear Sir:—Having had the misfortune to lose the best portion of my hair, from the effects of the yellow fever, in New Orleans in 1853, I was induced to make a trial of your preparation, and found it to be the very thing needed. My hair is now thick and glossy, and no words can express my obligations to you in giving to the afflicted such a treasure.
FLEMING JOHNSON.

The Restorative is put up in bottles of three sizes, viz: large, medium, and small; the small holds half a pint, and retails for one dollar per bottle; the medium holds at least twenty per cent. more in proportion than the small, retails for two dollars per bottle; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent. more in proportion, and retails for $3 a bottle.

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA,

A compound remedy in which we have labored to produce the most effectual alterative that can be made. It is a concentrated extract of Para Sarsaparilla, of combined with other substances of still greater alterative power as to afford an effective antidote for the diseases Sarsaparilla is reputed to cure. It is believed that such a remedy is wanted by those who suffer from Strumous complaints, and that one which will a complish their cure must be of immense service to this large class of our afflicted fellow creatures. How completely this compound will do it, has been proven by experiment on many of the worst cases to be found in the following complaints:—

SCROFULA AND SCROFULOUS COMPLAINTS, ERUPTIONS AND ERUPTIVE DISEASES, ULCERS, PIMPLES, BLOTCHES, TUMORS, SALT RHEUM, SCALD HEAD, SYPHILIS AND SYPHILITIC AFFECTIONS, MERCURIAL DISEASE, DROPSY, NEURALGIA OR TIC DOULOUREUX, DEBILITY, DYSPEPSIA AND INDIGESTION, ERYSIPELAS, ROSE OR ST. ANTHONY'S FIRE, and indeed the whole class of complaints arising from IMPURITY OF THE BLOOD.

This compound will be found a great promoter of health, when taken in the spring, to expel the foul humors which fester in the blood at that season of the year. By the timely expulsion of them many rankling disorders are nipped in the bud.—Multitudes can, by the aid of this remedy, spare themselves from the endurance of foul eruptions and ulcerous sores, through which the system will strive to rid itself of corruptions, if not assisted to do this through the natural channels of the body by an alterative medicine. Cleanse out the vitiated blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in pimples, eruptions or sores;—cleanse it when you find it is obstructed or sluggish in the veins; cleanse it whenever it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Even where no particular disorder is felt, people enjoy better health, and live live longer, for cleansing the blood. Keep the blood healthy, and all is well; but with this pabulum of life disordered, there can be no lasting health. Sooner or later something must go wrong, and the great machinery of life is disordered or overthrown.

Sarsaparilla has, and deserves much, the reputation of accomplishing these ends. But the world has been egregiously deceived by preparations of it, partly because the drug alone has not all the virtue that is claimed for it, but more because many preparations, pretending to be concentrated extracts of it contain but little of the virtue of Sarsaparilla, or anything else.

During late years the public have been misled by large bottles, pretending to give a quart of Extract of Sarsaparilla for one dollar. Most of these have been frauds upon the sick, for they not only contain little, if any, Sarsaparilla, but often no curative properties whatever. Acnce bitter and painful disappointment has followed the use of the various compounds of Sarsaparilla which flood the market, until the name itself is justly despised, and has become synonymous with imposition and cheat. Still we call this compound Sarsaparilla, and intend to supply such a remedy as shall rescue the name from the load of scorn which rests upon it. And we think we have grounds for believing it has virtues which are irresistible by the ordinary run of the diseases it is intended to cure. In order to secure their complete eradication from the system, the remedy should be judiciously taken according to directions on the bottle.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral

Has won for itself such a renown for the cure of every variety of Throat and Lung Complaint, that it is entirely unnecessary for us to recount the evidence of its virtues, wherever it has been employed. As it has now been in constant use throughout this section, we need not do more than assure the people its quality is kept up to the best it ever has been, and that it may be relied on to do for their relief all it has ever been found to do.

AMERICAN & FOREIGN PATENTS.

R. H. EDDY, Solicitor of Patents,
Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under act of 1837.
76 STATE, OPPOSITE KILBY ST., BOSTON.

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France, and other Foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions,—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not unsurpassed by any other, in, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate. The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

I have no hesitation in assuring inventors they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHAS. MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

BOSTON, February 8, 1858.

Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that one is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges. JOHN TAGGART.

From Sept. 17, 1857, to June 17, 1858, the subscriber, in the course of his large practice, made on TWICE rejected applications, SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in HIS FAVOR, by the Commissioner of Patents.
Boston, Jan. 1, 1859. R. H. EDDY.

MRS. WINSLOW,

An experienced Nurse and Female Physician, presents to the attention of Mothers, her

SOOTHING SYRUP,
For Children Teething.

Which greatly facilitates the process of teething by softening the gums, reducing all inflammation—will allay ALL PAIN and spasmodic action, and is

SURE TO REGULATE THE BOWELS.

Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves, and

RELIEF AND HEALTH TO YOUR INFANTS.

We have put up and sold this article for over ten years, and can say, in confidence and truth, of it, what we have never been able to say of any other medicine,—NEVER HAS IT FAILED, IN A SINGLE INSTANCE, TO EFFECT A CURE, when timely used. Nor did we know an instance of dissatisfaction by any one who tried it, but all are delighted with its operations, and commendation of its marvellous virtues. We speak, in this matter, "what we do know," after ten years experience, and pledge our reputation for the fulfilment of what we here declare. In almost every instance where the infant is suffering from pain and exhaustion, relief will be found in fifteen or twenty minutes after the syrup is administered.

This valuable preparation is the prescription of one of the MOST SKILLFUL NURSES EXPERIENCED and in New England and has been used with never-failing success, in THOUSANDS OF CASES.

It not only relieves the child from pain, but invigorates the stomach and bowels, corrects acidity, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. It will almost instantly relieve GRIPING IN THE BOWELS, AND WIND COLIC, and overcome convulsions, which, if not speedily remedied, end in death. We believe it the BEST and surest REMEDY IN THE WORLD IN all cases of DYSENTERY AND DIARRHŒA IN CHILDREN, whether it arises from teething, or from any other cause. We would say to every mother who has a child suffering from the painful effects of any of the foregoing complaints—Do not let your prejudices of others, stand between your suffering child and the relief that will be SURE—yes, ABSOLUTELY SURE to follow the use of this medicine, if timely used. Full directions for using, will accompany each bottle. None genuine unless the fac-simile of CURTIS & PERKINS, New York, is on the outside wrapper. Sold by Druggists throughout the world. Principal Office, No. 13 Cedar st. New York

Price only 25 cents per bottle.

DYE YOUR HAIR AND WHISKERS

By using Hutchins' Liquid HAIR DYE, you can color Red or Gray Hair to a beautiful Brown or Black. This is the best article in use. A lady says it is cheaper to use it than to buy caps to cover her head with.

DR. J. B. HUGHES.

Knowing that there are at this moment thousands of persons in the surrounding towns, who rendering their lives to the insidious inroads of certain dangerous maladies, who still suffer from the reluctance to make known their complaints and consult a physician, he would state that all of his medicines will be sent by express or otherwise, to all who may order them, provided the true description of the disease be sent by letter and directed as above.

Full and explicit directions will accompany every package, and the most inviolable secrecy preserved.

DR. HUGHES can with safety say during the last year of his practice in Boston, more than five hundred cases of disease which have been imperfectly treated by empyrics have come under his care and more than three-fourths of this number were inscribed upon his books as perfect cures.

Patients treated by letter by addressing Dr. Hughes, post paid, and medicines sent all over the country, carefully concealed from scrutinizing friends.

Be particular in finding Dr. Hughes. Do not be lured from the right path, or be persuaded to make experiments with false and fictitious remedies at the expense of destroying what is the great prize of life, a healthy constitution.

This medicine can only be obtained at the office of Dr. HUGHES, 13 Howard street, Boston.

DR. J. B. HUGHES UNIVERSAL FEMALE RENOVATING PILLS. These pills are unrivalled in efficacy and superior virtue in regulating the female irregularities. Their action is specific and certain, producing relief in a short space of time. They are acknowledged to be the best in use.

The Dr. cautions the public to beware of impositions that are being practiced by advertising a spurious article under some spurious or fictitious name. They are entirely useless, having been got up by miserable pretenders who are entirely ignorant of the efficacy of medicines.

All who are in pursuit of the genuine article, who had better call on the Dr. at his office, where they will be sure of getting the genuine—the only place in Boston where the genuine is for sale.

These pills can be sent to any part of the country with directions. Remember the number—13 Howard street, Boston.

P. S.—The best of accommodations furnished with kind and attentive nurses if they wish, at a reasonable rate. 2d dly

MOTHERS,
In presenting you with DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL, we desire to state its superiority over every nostrum that nurse or quack has heretofore offered you.
First—It is the preparation of a regular physician, who is well qualified from much experience in infantile complaints to prescribe for them.—Second—It is entirely free from paregoric or opiate of any kind, and consequently relieves by removing the suffering of your child, instead of deadening its sensibilities. Thirdly—It is put up with great care, as a comparison of it with any other article for infantile complaints will show: the very roots from which it is distilled being dug from the forests under the direction of Dr. Eaton, many of them by his own hands. Fourthly—it is perfectly harmless and cannot injure the most delicate infant, and is a certain cure and relief in all the following cases, which is its chief merit over every other preparation.
FOR ALL COMPLAINTS ATTENDING TEETHING; such as DYSENTERY, COLIC, &c.; also, for softening the gums and relieving pain. For regulating the bowels it is unequalled. For Cold in the Head it is a sure relief. For CROUP, the most fatal and trying of diseases, it can be relied on with perfect confidence; and being a powerful anti-spasmodic in all cases of convulsions or fits, we earnestly recommend you to loose no time in procuring it.—Lastly—it costs so much more than other preparations of the kind, that we cannot afford such long advertisements as can those whose whole expense is their advertising; for the same reason, it commends itself as the most reliable to all mothers. In all cases, the directions wrapped around each bottle, must be strictly followed. Price, 25 cents per bottle.

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

THURSDAY, DEC. 8, 1859.

☞ In Congress, Tuesday, Dec. 6, both Houses were occupied all day long in such an old-fashioned discussion of slavery, as we used to have here at the North about twenty years ago. At that time, in Congress, there was something that used to be called the gag-law, which forbade the discussion or reading of a petition; but now, in the Senate, the debate was brought on by Mr. Mason of Virginia, and in the House by Mr. Clark of Missouri. In the House, towards the close of the day, Mr. Washburn of Ill., moved to lay the whole subject on the table. Negatived by a tie vote.

Without taking a ballot for Speaker, or action on Mr. Clark's resolution, the House adjourned.

☞ We have now before us, an auction catalogue handbill, of 100 slaves, which were sold by auction in New Orleans, Nov. 22, with the prices they brought, and the description of their persons and characters.

Ten of them sold for $18,000 in one lot. In this lot were five brothers, aged 24, 22, 18, 16, and 12 years. One of them is said to be "very active and likely, No. 1 field hand and fiddler." Another of the same ten is a mulatto, "apt with tools, No. 1 teamster and field hand;" another, "aged 20, large and very likely, one of the best women in market."

A lot of six, "all orphans," varying from 10 to 13 years, sold for $1300; and they are marked, "likely and intelligent—stout and intelligent, &c."—and the last one, "black, aged 13 years, has fine intellectual developments." Then it is said of these ten, and six, and five more, making 21, "The above are all from our plantation; finer and better subjects cannot be seen. Nearly all raised by the present owner, and fully guaranteed—sold for no fault whatever."

John, black, 26 years, is called "No. 1 man; first rate plantation blacksmith, warranted to give satisfaction." He sold for $2200.

Amanda, black, 17 years, "very likely, good washer and ironer," brought $1500.

Others, were "good house servant,—good cook, washer and ironer—good brick burner and moulder—No. 1 man, and good driver," &c. &c.

Jack, aged 22, No. 1 subject and field hand; his wife Sylvie aged 20, a superior cook, washer and ironer; and their child Andrew Jackson, aged two years, sold together for $3350.

These, and such as these, 125 in number, sold for, say in round numbers, $140,000.

And men and women of such qualities and powers, of body and mind—are they to be always bought and sold, as a matter of right or power, by men and women no better than themselves,—and this in a land where the words liberty and rights are used?

Somebody gave a howl, last winter, because Uncle Toby quoted Judge Taney's language about the negroes having no rights which white men were bound to respect.

Will the same body, who then tried to whitewash Judge Taney, and to blackwash Uncle Toby, be so good as to get up another howl of the same sort over this account of sales, and just tell us what rights belong to "the best women in the market!"

☞ The legacies of the late Baron de Goldsmidt, the Jewish millionaire, of London, were as singular as they were liberal. Exclusive of the immense sums bequeathed to Hebrew charities, he left over $1,000,000 to various objects, among others the following:—To decayed members of the London Stock Exchange, over 60 years of age, $100,000; to widows of members, $100,000; to poor Quakers, $25,000; to the sons of poor Quakers, to apprentice them to various trades, $25,000; to the poor of all denominations in Brighton, the place of his residence, $50,000; to the porters and policemen on the London and Brighton Railway, to purchase for each porter 6 lbs. of roast beef and plum pudding on every New Year's Day, the interest of $100,000; to Peter Thompson, of Brighton, who had cut his hair for forty-five years, $2500; to each of his clerks, six in number, who had been in his employ fifteen years, $15,000.

☞ Dr. John Green, of Worcester, has presented to that city his library, now in the possession of the Lyceum and Library Association, for a public library; and the Lyceum and Library Association have generously made the same disposal of their collection. The library of Dr. Green contains about 7000 volumes, selected with great care, and at a cost of about $12,000. That of the Association contains 4500 volumes.

☞ The value of railroads is not in the dividends they pay to stockholders, but in the convenience for travel and the transportation of merchandise, by which they add value to lands, build up cities, and bring together and bind together countries that were otherwise distant, and people who were otherwise strangers.

A man's own good breeding is the best security against other people's ill manners.

☞ At Manchester, as we learn from the American, on Sunday night, at twenty minutes before twelve, an alarm of fire was given, which proved to be the buildings of Mr. John Campbell, two and a half miles above the city. The fire began in one of the barns and spread rapidly. Both barns, a neat two-story house, all the out-buildings, two horses, three oxen, one cow, 200 bushels of rye, and 100 tons of hay were destroyed. Mr. and Mrs. Campbell were absent. Most of the house furniture is saved. Loss $4000; insurance $1500. It is supposed the fire caught from the light carried by the teamsters into the barn about nine o'clock. The fire broke out at 11 o'clock.

THE SHANNON AND CHESAPEAKE.—The British admiralty recently decided to break up the frigate Shannon, which, it will be recollected, captured the Chesapeake in Boston Bay, during the last war with this country. But a song-writer saved the ship, as O. W. Holmes once saved the Constitution. One of the London rhymers, on reading the admiralty order to break up the Shannon, addressed a patriotic poem to the powers that be, the effect of which is, that the captor of the Chesapeake will not be blotted from the Navy Register. She has just been detailed as a sort of practice ship for young marines at Liverpool, and will be carefully attended to.

☞ Rev. Geo. Trask, of Fitchburg, Ms., has commenced the publication of an "Anti-Tobacco Journal,"—quarterly, three copies sent for $1 per year. He says:

"Ten years ago I was a victim of Tobacco,—a tremulous, haggard clergyman on the verge of the grave. I relinquished the poison; God smiled upon me, and I have been a robust and active man ever since.

Believing then, as I now do, that Tobacco is as great a curse as can be named, I gave myself to battling it without compromise.

I shall not deal in any superficial way with this enormous evil, but shall show that the raising, selling and using of tobacco, is a sin against God, and a mighty obstacle to the conversion of men, and the salvation of the world."

☞ The "Ladies' American Magazine," published by Henry White, New York, at $2 per year, commences a new volume in January. Original illustrations and colored fashion plates, new stories by eminent American authors, wit, anecdote, humor, literature and amusements, hints on domestic matters, &c. will be made features in the future numbers.

☞ A mucilage of squash seeds, it is said, will expel tape worms. The Traveller says that from a lady near Boston, at least one thousand feet of tape worm has been voided by taking the new preparation. One hundred feet have on several occasions been expelled, after taking a dose. From an inspection of portions preserved in alcohol, it seems probable that several worms of uncommon length, have existed in the intestinal tube at the same time.

☞ There are, on an average, nine thousand pianos manufactured every year in the United States, their production giving employment constantly to one thousand nine hundred persons, and costing over two millions of dollars. We ought to be a musical people.

SECRETARY COBB'S ESTIMATES.—Secretary Cobb's estimates for the next fiscal year are a fraction over $45,000,000, and the estimated expenditures are $53,000,000. This covers the $8,000,000 standing appropriations.

☞ A leading publisher of Paris, M. Paulin, died on Nov. 4. His great fortune originated in a successful style of cheap literature. In less than ten years he is reported to have gained more than a million of francs, or $200,000.

HARTFORD, Dec. 6.—Hammer & Forbes' powder mill, in East Hartford, about five miles from this city, containing two tons of powder, was blown up about three o'clock this afternoon. Two workmen, John McGrath and Samuel Smith were instantly killed. The shock of the explosion was quite severe here.

☞ Fourteen youths, implicated in the late plot in Turkey, were, without trial, tied up in sacks, with a 30-pound shot at their feet, and quietly thrown into the Bosphorus.

Passing down street one day, we noticed at the door of a dealer, a barrel of flour having represented upon the head, the jack and ace of hearts, and the jack of diamonds, indicating to the euchre player that that brand couldn't be beat.—Belfast Jour.

☞ Colt ought to do something handsome for John Brown's family. Within a month over 10,000 pistols have been sold at Baltimore to go into Virginia.

Victor Hugo, who never wrote a profitless word, says, "A great man is like the sun—never more beautiful than when he touches the earth, at his rising and at his setting."

☞ The wealth of Wm. B. Astor is variously estimated between fifteen and twenty million dollars.

Not long since, a gentleman, asked by his wife to procure for her a copy of "Household Words," called at a bookstore and inquired for the Caudle Lectures.

Have nothing in the house too good for the sun or yourself to shine on.

A present ought to be beautiful, but need it be useless? We think not.

JOHN G. WHITTIER.—At a Brown meeting in Haverhill, Mass., the following letter from Mr. Whittier was read:

Dear Friend—Thy note inviting me to attend a meeting in my native town, for the relief of the family of John Brown, I have just received.

It is not in my power to attend the meeting. My sympathies have been strongly nerved for the mistaken but very brave man, whom Virginia ought to be brave and magnanimous enough to spare. His family should not be allowed to suffer for the lack of our timely aid.

Praying for the speedy coming of the day when, with every evil plant which our Heavenly Father hath not planted, slavery shall be rooted up; and trusting that at your meeting nothing may be said in anger or impatience, but that calmness and Christian moderation may be found perfectly consistent with fidelity to the cause of freedom and humanity, I am, very truly, thy friend.

REV. T. S. KING ON JOHN BROWN.—"Brown failed in the attack upon Harper's Ferry, as he should; but his demeanor, from the time he was struck in the face with a sabre until he paid the forfeit of his life, presented such a picture of virile godliness that the speaker avowed that he entertained a strange respect for his character. Since Socrates there is no account of a march to death with blood so cool and step so firm. His letters, during his incarceration, are as remarkable as Franklin's, and have all the unction and godly fervor of Latimer's."

☞ The Olney, Ill., Times, of Nov. 25, informs us that a day or two before an Irishman of dark complexion, straight black hair, black whiskers and moustache, with the characteristic Irish brogue, was arrested and taken to Olney on the charge of being a fugitive slave. The Times says:

In conversation with him, he informed us that he was a native of Ireland, and had been twelve years in America, and the last year had been at Chicago. Hon. M. O'Kean was present, and gave it as his opinion that he was an Irishman of inferior intelligence.

We endeavored to prevail upon his captors to release him, when they, in a very decisive manner, gave us to understand that when they received the reward that they claimed was offered for his apprehension, they would do so. Seeing their determination to run him off, a petition was drawn up, praying the Hon. A. Kitchell for a writ of habeas corpus, which was duly served, but up to the present writing has not been returned.

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 6.—Extensive preparations are being made here for the union demonstration to-morrow by a mass meeting, irrespective of party. Cannon are to be fired and flags displayed throughout the day on the shipping and public buildings.—Much enthusiasm is displayed, and the demonstration promises to be general.

We suppose this to be an anti-Brown indignation meeting, and that the enthusiasm must be kindled in favor of Gov. Wise, because he saved the Union by hanging the prisoner.

ONE DAY'S COURTSHIP.—Last week a millionaire, named Scott, purchased a small pocket-book at a stationer's in Brompton.—He was served by a young lady of great personal attractions. So smitten was this Mr. Scott with her beauty, that understanding that she was single, he then and there made his fair enslaver an offer of his hand and heart. The sequel is to be found in the marriages announced as having taken place at a church of some Puseyite notoriety in the neighborhood, last Wednesday, when the pretty shop woman stepped into a carriage, and £30,000 a year, after a courtship of only one day.—London paper.

☞ At Louisville, a German bored a hole in the street gas-pipe, and ran a small pipe from it to his residence. It is not known how long he has had the benefit of the gas. The case is not a felony.

SAVANNAH, Dec. 2.—Mr. Fish, a shoe-dealer, and a resident of this city for several years, but born in Massachusetts, has been tarred and feathered for expressing abolition sentiments.

☞ The Great Eastern steamship has been closed against visitors, and stowed away for the winter. Like the man with the elephant, the company hardly know what to do with her.

A new sewing machine, to collect rents, mend manners, and repair family breaches, is much needed.

Catarrhal Cough.

This insidious and annoying symptom, so difficult to treat, depends on a subacute inflammation of the air-passages, which is apt to end in chronic ulceration and a form of consumption. The mucous membrane of the air-passages is peculiarly susceptible to the healing influences of the PERUVIAN SYRUP, as the testimonials of some of our first citizens show.

Dr. Hostetter's Bitters have received the warmest encomiums from the press and people throughout the Union. As a valuable tonic for the cure of Dyspepsia, Flatulence, Constipation and general nervous debility, it cannot be approached. Every day new cases of its great effect are chronicled through our public journals. There is nothing equal to the enjoyment, to that which the afflicted experience when using this valuable specific. Its mild tone, its sure and vigorous action upon a disordered stomach, and the cleansing of the entire human body should recommend it to all classes of our community. All that will be necessary to convince the skeptical of its healthy effects, is to purchase a bottle and be convinced.

Sold by druggists and dealers generally, everywhere.

Among the restoratives which Nature has supplied to relieve the afflictions of humanity there is no more favorite one for a certain class of diseases than the "medicinal gum" of the Wild Cherry Tree; but however valuable it is, its power to heal, to soothe, to relieve, and to cure, is enhanced ten-fold by scientific and judicious combination with other ingredients, in themselves of equal worth. This happy mingling exists in that

HOME TESTIMONY.

BOSTON, April 16, 1852.
No. 48 Union St.

Mr. Seth W. Fowle,—Dear Sir:—Your invaluable medicine, I can truly say, has literally snatched me from the grave. Last July I was attacked by a sudden cold, which resulted in a very severe Cough, with violent pains in the side and chest. I became so much reduced, that my friends frankly told me that I must die. At this crisis, I heard of Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, and immediately sent for a bottle. The effect produced was indeed wonderful. My physician, one of the most respectable in Boston, who had previously told me that a cure was hopeless, came in, and I informed him what I had taken. He examined the Balsam, and advised me to continue the use of it, since which time I have continued to improve daily; and the same physician who had given me up, told me, a few days since, that I might yet live many years.

Respectfully, MARY ROWE.

We can cheerfully testify to the truth of the above statement, Mrs. Rowe having been an inmate of our family.

☞ A regular meeting of the Board of Engineers was held at the residence of the Chief Engineer, on Tuesday evening last,—J. G. Hadley in the chair.

Certificates of sundry persons were revoked, and others appointed in Engine Cos. No. 3 and 6.

Committee on reporting a system of alarms for fires, asked for further time.

The Chief Engineer reported, that the Mayor and Aldermen had inspected the houses and apparatus, and expressed themselves highly pleased with its present condition.

The subject of the well in Warren street was referred to the Chief Engineer and Engineer Main.

After the regular business of the evening had been attended to, the Board of Engineers, together with the Foremen of the several engine companies, and ex-Engineers Cotton, Norton and Akerman, sat down to a bountiful supper prepared by the Chief Engineer. After satisfying the inner man, speeches and sentiments were made and given, pertinent to the occasion; and the company separated at an early hour, well pleased with the proceedings of the evening.

REP.

WARREN STREET.—Messrs. Editors:—Will you call attention to the width of this street. A couple of stakes are put down on the corners of the Custom House and Post Office lot; and if the United States are to have their fence built on a line with these stakes, then that part of the street will be four feet narrower than the rest of it;—making an unsightly jog, of no use to any body. If our Mayor and Aldermen should make a statement of the case to the proper department at Washington, the matter could easily be arranged, as the general government have no use for those four feet of land, and their own premises would be all the better for widening the street.

A. B.

☞ We are asked to say that if citizens having occasion to be out early in the morning, or when it is snowing, will have the kindness to walk on the outer side of the walk, and not near the fences or buildings, it will be much easier running the snow ploughs, and make them more efficient.

☞ N. K. Raynes, Esq., formerly of Portsmouth, now living in Texas, has been appointed Postmaster at Twin Sisters, Blanco County, Texas.

In Raymond, on Saturday evening, Nov. 19, Mrs. Olive Bachelder, wife of Mr. Dan'l Bachelder, met with an accident which terminated her life Her husband was out till about 8 o'clock, and on returning, found, as appeared, that in attempting to go down cellar she had fallen and struck her head with great force against the wall. She was alive and lived in an insensible state about half an hour, when death closed the scene Her age was 29. She left a child of some two years, which was sleeping when the event occurred.—News-Letter.

☞ In Raymond, an unoccupied house, formerly occupied by Mr. Stephen Heath, was burned on the night of Nov. 16th. Beyond doubt the work of an incendiary.

☞ The store of Prescott & Co. at Candia depot, was broken into in the night not long ago and a few articles stolen.

On the evening of Thanksgiving day, Mrs. Josephine King of Alstead drowned herself in a pond near Paper Mill Village. She spent the day with her husband at his father's, and while her husband was getting his team to return home, she left the house, saying that she wished to call at her father's on the way. Immediately pursuit was made, but without success until 3 o'clock the next morning, when her bonnet was found upon the shore of the pond, over two miles from the house from which she went, and her body was soon after recovered.—She had been married but about three months, and no cause is known for her act.—Concord Patriot.

☞ The Washington correspondent of the N. Y. Tribune says that Mr. Brown, the Democratic member from Kentucky, who is constitutionally disqualified, on account of his youth, from being a member of the House, will vote on the organization, but not after the Speaker's election, as he cannot take the oath.

☞ The Webster Statue Fair Com. met on Saturday, in Boston, to close up their affairs. There appeared to be remaining in the hands of the Treasurer a balance of $6,500, which was placed in the hands of the Executive Committee as a perpetual trust fund, the proceeds whereof are to be devoted to keeping in repair the house of Mr. Webster at Marshfield.

Many institutions are improperly called semi-naries, for they do not half teach anything.

Always be quite as careful, in your business transactions, of taking credit as of giving it.

We understand that the fears entertained by the friends of Hon. Jeremiah S. Young, of this city, of insanity, have been confirmed. Within the past day or two the symptoms have been such as to leave no doubt as to almost entire aberration. He will probably be conveyed to the Asylum at Somerville for treatment. His insanity is pronounced by medical gentlemen to be the result of a disease known as "softening of the brain."—Fall River News.

Rev. Dr. Chickering of the High street church, and Rev. Mr. Moore of the Union church, exchanged pulpits on Sabbath morning last. When the latter was about half through with his discourse, at the High street church, he suddenly stopped and remarked that the sermon had cost him a great deal of labor; but as it did not seem to interest the audience, and as many of them were asleep, he would proceed with it no longer. He then closed the meeting with a prayer and benediction.—Portland Argus.

☞ Wm. A. Dickinson, of Rochester, a brakeman on the Central Railroad, fell from the train on Sunday, and was torn in pieces by the cars running over him. He was 22 years of age.

☞ Saco Beach, an Indian of the Penobscot tribe, was frozen to death on Sunday night in Cape Elizabeth, Me. He had been drunk on Sunday.

☞ The election for Mayor in New York, resulted in the choice of Fernando Wood, by about 2,000 plurality. The vote was large and the contest severe. Mr. Wood was the candidate of the groggeries.

Don't repress the buoyant spirits of your chidren; half an hour of merriment round the lamp and firelight of home, blots out the remembrance of many a care and annoyance during the day.

Young people must have fun and relaxation somewhere; if they do not find it at their own hearthstones, it will be sought in other, and perhaps less profitable places.

☞ Mr. Lemuel Hubbard, keeper of the Wiscasset House, had one of his eyes gored out by a cow a few days ago.

A pound of Indian meal usually costs less than half the price of a pound of flour, while it contains about the same amount of nutriment.—Am. Ag.

It is an old saying that Time waits for no man; but the fair sex would have us believe that he is gallant enough to wait for the ladies.

☞ The N. Y. Times says a large mass of the working men of the city now go to their daily labor armed, as if Indians were lying in wait at every corner, and there was no such thing as law or police in the city.

The highest happiness can have no other foundation than the deepest wisdom; the happiest fool is only as happy as he knows how to be.

☞ Subscribers to the New York Cosmopolitan Art Association (of which see advertisement of "Sixth Annual Announcement," in another column,) receive for their $3 subscription, the excellent quarterly Art Magazine for one year, and a splendid engraving of "Shakespeare and his Friends," or the "Village Blacksmith," or "Manifest Destiny," or "Saturday Night," as they may select. The three last-named are the premiums of former years.

Each subscriber also receives a numbered receipt or ticket, which entitles him to a chance in the distribution of six hundred rich paintings, statues, &c., on the 30th of January.

On the payment of $10, any person will receive the four superb engravings above named, with the four Magazines and certificates. For $15, six copies of the present year.

Two of the engravings may be seen at Mr. Cobb's Music Store.

PURE LIQUORS FOR MEDICINAL PURPOSES.—The old and reliable house of A. M. Bininger & Co., No. 338 Broadway, New York, (established in 1778,) make a specialty of supplying Physicians and Druggists with PURE, UNADULTERATED LIQUORS. Their advertisement enumerates several articles, the most important of which, is, we think, "BININGER'S GENUINE COGNAC BRANDY." Brandy, in its pure state, is an invaluable medicine, and no family should be without it. There are frequently cases where it is almost indispensable, and we should always feel more safe to know that we had at hand, for cases of emergency, a bottle of pure, unadulterated brandy. In recommending A. M. Bininger & Co. and their imported liquors to public confidence, we copy the following powerful endorsement from the Boston Post:—

A. M. BININGER & CO.'S PURE, UNADULTERATED LIQUORS.—In consequence of the spurious compounds palmed upon the community, this reliable firm have introduced their PURE, UNADULATED LIQUORS, put up expressly for medicinal purposes. The difficulty of procuring liquors pure and unadulterated, has been pretty clearly demonstrated by the recent investigations of the State Agency, and we are glad to learn that there are houses in whose statements implicit reliance may be had. Their business reputation, established and maintained by an experience of upwards of eighty years, is a sufficient guarantee that their articles may be relied upon in every respect. We know that their "OLD LONDON DOCK GIN" is a valuable remedial agent, very highly recommended by the Faculty—that their "OLD KENTUCKY BOURBON" may be relied upon as a strictly pure stimulant—that their "HEIDELBURG BRANNTWEIN" as a restorer and invigorator of the energies of the human system, is unsurpassed; and that their "OLD DOMINION WHEAT TONIC" is invaluable to those who are suffering from lung complaints, bronchitis, and all diseases which, in their incipient stages, require only a generous diet, and an invigorating, nourishing stimulant. We heartily commend these preparations to public confidence. They are for sale by all prominent druggists, grocers and town agents.

STOVE STORE REMOVED.

URIAH BLAISDELL

Has removed his Stove and Furnishing Establishment one door north, to the spacious and convenient store

Nos. 43 & 45 Market Street,

where he is receiving and arranging a large and valuable Stock of

STOVES, TIN WARE, &c.,

Which he offers for sale at wholesale and retail, at very low prices. He has a great variety of the best and most popular Stoves, among which are:

1. The Stewart Cook Stove, with the latest improvements. This is an air-tight Cook Stove, for Wood or Coal; it has moveable coverings, which can confine the heat in the stove, or let it out into the room; has a reservoir of hot water 10 or 20 gallons, and a tin closet beneath;—a top cover, which is a great institution for baking, and will keep a coal fire all night; it has a Dutch Oven for roasting in front of the Stove;—and it is every way a most convenient and durable Stove. There are 4 sizes.

The following recommendation of Stewart's Stove, is from an eminent engineer, and must be satisfactory to all who wish to understand the value of this excellent Stove:

Portsmouth, N. H., Nov. 5, 1859.
Mr. Blaisdell:—Seven years ago I moved to this city, and sold, before I came, a "Stewart's Air Tight Cooking Stove," which I had used about five years. During that time no repairs or expense had been made upon it. Since I have been here I have tried the various Cooking Stoves in use, and I think for economy and durability the "Stewart" excels them all. I wish you would take away the Stove I now have from my house, and set up one of Stewart's as soon as you can. Your ob't servant,
B. F. CHANDLER.

2. Boston & Maine Cook Stove;
3. White Mountain;
4. Empire State;
5. Enterprise;
6. Exchange;
7. Dining Room Cook Stoves, and others.

Morning Chronicle.

☞ Municipal elections took place in New Bedford, Lawrence and Springfield, Mass., on Monday. In the first, Taber, "Independent," was elected over the Citizen's candidate; in the second, Saunders, Citizens', is elected over Rollins, Republican.—In Springfield, David L. Harris, Republican, is elected over the Democratic candidate by 300 or 400 majority, carrying all the Republican Aldermen and 14 of the 18 Common Councilmen. This is the first Republican Mayor in that city for three years.

INTERESTING POSTAL DECISION.—Postmaster General Holt has recently decided an interesting and novel question. A husband who had been separated from his wife, demanded that his village postmaster should deliver her letters to him, and threatened a suit at law if his demand was not complied with. The wife, on the other hand, forbade the delivery of her letters to the husband. In these circumstances, the postmaster appealed to Mr. Holt for instructions. That gentleman pronounces the claim advanced by the husband too preposterous to be seriously refuted—indeed, he says it is abhorrent to law, as it is to the christian civilization of the age—and he directs the postmaster to deliver the letters to the wife.—Boston Journal.

☞ "He that by the plow would thrive, himself must either hold or drive," is not true in all cases, as the Rev. James Peeler, of Tallahassee, Fla., has invented a plow, of which he has sold the patent right in twelve States, realizing therefor $251,000, and has given away of this sum, $200,000 for church purpose.

It should be as much a matter of duty and of conscience to insist on out-door exercise, and in-door social recreation, as upon any of the regular exercises of the school-room. School studies should be confined absolutely toseh ol hours.

☞ In Raymond, an unoccupied house, formerly occupied by Mr. Stephen Heath, was burned on the night of Nov. 16th—beyond doubt the work of an incendiary.

THE ONLY PREPARATION
WORTHY OF
Universal Confidence and Patronage.
FOR STATESMEN, JUDGES, CLERGYMEN.

Ladies and Gentlemen, in all parts of the world testify to the efficacy of Prof. O. J. Wood's Hair Restorative, and gentlemen of the Press are unanimous in its praise. A few testimonials only can be here given; see circular for more, and it will be impossible for you to doubt.

47 Wall Street, New York, Dec. 20, 1858.

GENTLEMEN:—Your note of the 15th inst., has been received, saying that you had heard that I had been benefitted by the use of Wood's Hair Restorative, and requesting my certificate of the fact if I had no objection to give it.

I award it to you cheerfully, because I think it due. My age is about 50 years; the color of my hair auburn, and inclined to curl. Some five or six years since it began to turn gray, and the scalp on the crown of my head to lose its sensibility and dandruff to form upon it. Each of these disagreeabilities increased with time, and about four months since a fourth was added to them, by hair falling off the top of my head and threatening to make me bald.

In this unpleasant predicament, I was induced to try Wood's Hair Restorative, mainly to arrest the falling off of my hair, for I had really no expectation that gray hair could ever be restored to its original color except from dyes. I was, however, greatly surprised to find after the use of two bottles only, that not only was the falling off arrested, but the color was restored to the gray hairs and sensibility to the scalp, and dandruff ceased to form on my head, very much to the gratification of my wife, at whose solicitation I was induced to try it.

For this, among the many obligations I owe to her sex, I strongly recommend all husbands who value the admiration of their wives to profit by my example, and use it if growing gray or getting bald. Very Respectfully,
BENJ. A. LAVENDER.

To O. J. Wood & Co., 444 Broadway, N. Y.

Sizmaston, Ala., July 20th, 1859.

To Prof. O. J. Wood: Dear Sir: Your "Hair Restorative" has done my hair so much good since I commenced the use of it, that I wish to make known to the PUBLIC its effects on the hair, which are great. A man or woman may be nearly deprived of hair, and by a resort to your "Hair Restorative," the hair will return more beautiful than ever; at least this is my experience. Believe it all! Yours truly,
WM. H. KENEDY.

P. S.—You can publish the above if you like.—By publishing in our Southern papers you will get more patronage south. I see several of your certificates in the Mobile Mercury, a strong Southern paper. W. H. K.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.

Professor O. J. Wood:—Dear Sir:—Having had the misfortune to lose the best portion of my hair, from the effects of the yellow fever, in New Orleans in 1851, I was induced to make a trial of your preparation, and found it to be the very thing needed. My hair is now thick and glossy, and no words can express my obligations to you in giving to the afflicted such a treasure.
FINIS JOHNSON.

The Restorative is put up in bottles of three sizes, viz: large, medium, and small; the small holds half a pint, and retails for one dollar per bottle; the medium holds at least twenty per cent. more in proportion than the small, retails for two dollars per bottle; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent. more in proportion, and retails for $3 a bottle.

A compound remedy in which we have labored to produce the most effectual alterative that can be made. It is a concentrated extract of Para Sarsaparilla, of combined with other substances of still greater alterative power as to afford an effective antidote for the diseases Sarsaparilla is reputed to cure. It is believed that such a remedy is wanted by those who suffer from Strumous complaints, and that one which will a complish their cure must be of immense service to this large class of our afflicted fellow citizens. How complete this compound will do it, has been proven by experiment on many of the worst cases to be found in the following complaints:—

SCROFULA AND SCROFULOUS COMPLAINTS, ERUPTIONS AND ERUPTIVE DISEASES, ULCERS, PIMPLES, BLOTCHES, TUMORS, SALT RHEUMM, SCALD HEAD, SYPHILIS AND SYPHILITIC AFFECTIONS, MERCURIAL DISEASE, DROPSY, NEURALGIA OR TIC DOULOUREUX, DEBILITY, DYSPEPSIA AND INDIGESTION, ERYSIPELAS, ROSE OR ST. ANTHONY'S FIRE, and indeed the whole class of complaints arising from IMPURITY OF THE BLOOD.

This compound will be found a great promoter of health, when taken in the spring, to expel the foul humors which fester in the blood at that season of the year. By the timely expulsion of them many rankling disorders are nipped in the bud.—Multitudes can, by the aid of this remedy, spare themselves from the endurance of foul eruptions and ulcerous sores, through which the system will strive to rid itself of corruptions, if not assisted to do this through the natural channels of the body by an alterative medicine. Cleanse out the vitiated blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in pimples, eruptions or sores;—cleanse it when you find it is obstructed or sluggish in the veins; cleanse it whenever it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Even where no particular disorder is felt, people enjoy better health, and live live longer, for cleansing the blood. Keep the blood healthy, and all will go well with this pabulum of life disordered, there can be no lastlug ealth. Sooner or later something must go wrong, and the great machinery of life is disordered or overthrown.

Sarsaparilla has, and deserves much, the reputation of accomplishing these ends. But the world has been egregiously deceived by preparations of it, partly because the drug alone has not all the virtue that is claimed for it, but more because many preparations, pretending to be concentrated extracts of it' contain but little of the virtue of Sarsaparilla, or anything else.

During late years the public have been misled by large bottles, pretending to give a quart of Extract of Sarsparilla for one dollar. Most of these have been frauds upon the sick, for they not only contain little, if any, Sarsaparilla, but often no curative properties whatever. Aence bitter and painful disappointment has followed the use of the various extracts of Sarsaparilla which flood the market, until tne name itself is justlyd espised, and has become synonymous with imposition and cheat. Still we call this compound Sarsaparilla, and intend to supply such a remedy as shall rescue the name from the load of obloquy which rests upon it. And we think we have grounds for believing it has virtues which are irresistible by the ordinary run of the diseases it is intended to cure. In order to secure their complete eradication from the system, the remedy should be judiciously taken according to directions on the bottle.

AMERICAN & FOREIGN PATENTS.

R. H. EDDY, Solicitor of Patents,
Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under act of 1837.
76 STATE, OPPOSITE KILBY ST., BOSTON.

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions,—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate. The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, afford full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

I have no hesitation in assuring inventors they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHAS. MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

BOSTON, February 8, 1858.

Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that one is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges. JOHN TAGGART.

From Sept 17, 1857, to June 17, 1858, the subscriber, in the course of his large practice, made on my rejected applications, SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in HIS FAVOR, by the Commissioner of Patents.
Boston, Jan. 1, 1859. R. H. EDDY.

MRS. WINSLOW,

An experienced Nurse and Female Physician, presents to the attention of Mothers, her

SOOTHING SYRUP,

For Children Teething.

Which greatly facilitates the process of teething by softening the gums, reducing all inflammation—will allay ALL PAIN and spasmodic action, and is

SURE TO REGULATE THE BOWELS.

Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves, and

RELIEF AND HEALTH TO YOUR INFANTS.

We have put up and sold this article for over ten years, and can say, in confidence and truth, of it, what we have never been able to say of any other medicine, never been able to say —NEVER HAS IT FAILED, IN A SINGLE INSTANCE, to effect a CURE, when timely used.New-instance of dissatisfaction did we know an instance of dissatisfaction did we know of it. On the contrary, all are delighted with its operations, and recomendation of its marvelous virtues. We speak, in this case, what we do know, after ten years experience, and pledge our reputation for the fulfilment of what we here declare. In almost every instance where the infant is suffering from pain and exhaustion, relief will be found in fifteen or twenty minutes after the syrup is administered.

This valuable preparation is the prescription of one of the MOST EXPERIENCED and SKILLFUL NURSES in New England and has been used with never-failing success, in THOUSANDS OF CASES.

It not only relieves the child from pain, but invigorates the stomach and bowels, corrects acidity, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. It will almost instantly relieve GRIPING IN THE BOWELS, AND WIND COLIC.

and overcome convulsions, which, if not speedily relieved, end in death. We believe it to be the BEST and surest remedy in the world, in all cases of DYSENTERY AND DIARRHŒA IN CHILDREN, whether it arises from teething, or from any other cause. We would say to every mother who has a child suffering from any of the foregoing complaints—Do not let your own prejudices, or the prejudices of others, stand between your suffering child and the SURE relief that is ABSOLUTELY SURE to follow the use of this medicine, if timely used. Full directions for using will accompany each bottle. None genuine unless the fac-simile of CURTIS & PERKINS, New York, is on the outside wrapper. Sold by Druggists throughout the world. Principal Office, No. 13 Cedar st. New York. Price only 25 cents per bottle.

DYE YOUR HAIR AND WHISKERS

DR. J. B. HUGHES,

Knowing that there are at this moment thousands of persons in the surrounding towns, suffering their lives to the insidious inroads of certain dangerous maladies, who still suffer from the reluctance to make known their complaints and consult a physician, he would state that any of his medicines will be sent by express or otherwise, to all who may order them, provided the true description of the disease be sent by letter and directed as above.

Full and explicit directions will accompany every package, and the most inviolable secrecy preserved.

DR. HUGHES can with safety say during the last year of his practice in Boston, more than three hundred cases of disease which have been improperly treated by empyrics have come under his care, and more than three-fourths of this number are inscribed upon his books as perfect cures.

Patients treated by letter by addressing Dr. Hughes, post paid, and medicines sent all over the country, carefully concealed from scrutinizing friends.

Be particular in finding Dr. Hughes. Do not be lured from the right path, or be persuaded to try experiments with false and fictitious remedies at the expense of destroying what is the great pillar of life, a healthy constitution.

This medicine can only be obtained at the Office of Dr. HUGHES, 13 Howard street, Boston.

DR. J. B. HUGHES UNIVERSAL FEMALE RENOVATING PILLS. These pills are unrivalled in efficacy and superior virtue in regulating all female irregularities. Their action is specific and certain, producing relief in a short space of time. They are acknowledged to be the best in use.

The Dr. cautions the public to beware of impositions that are being practiced by advertising a spurious article under some spurious or fictitious name. They are entirely useless, having been got up by miserable pretenders who are entirely ignorant of the efficacy of medicines.

All who are in pursuit of the genuine article, who had better call on the Dr. at his office, where they will be sure of getting the genuine—the only place in Boston where the genuine is for sale.

These pills can be sent to any part of the country with directions. Remember the number—13 Howard street, Boston.

P. S.—The best of accommodations furnished, with kind and attentive nurses if they wish, at a reasonable rate. j2 d1y

MOTHERS,
In presenting you with DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL, we desire to state its superiority over every nostrum that nurse or quack has heretofore offered you.
First—It is the preparation of a regular physician, who is well qualified from much experience in infantile complaints to prescribe for them.—Secondly—It is entirely free from paregoric or opiate of any kind, and consequently relieves by removing the suffering of your child, instead of deadening its sensibilities. Thirdly—It is put up with great care, as a comparison of it with any other article for infantile complaints will show: the very roots from which it is distilled being dug from the forests under the direction of Dr. Eaton, many of them by his own hands. Fourthly—it is perfectly harmless and cannot injure the most delicate infant, and is a certain cure and relief in all the following cases, which is its chief merit over every other preparation.
FOR ALL COMPLAINTS ATTENDING TEETHING: such as DYSENTERY, COLIC, &c.; also, for softening the gums and relieving pain. For regulating the bowels it is unequalled. For Cold in the Head it is a sure relief. For CROUP, the most fatal and trying of diseases, it can be relied on with perfect confidence; and being a powerful anti-spasmodic in all cases of convulsions or fits, we earnestly recommend you to loose no time in procuring it—Lastly—it costs so much more than other preparations of the kind, that we cannot afford such long advertisements as can those whose whole expence is their advertising; for the same reason, it commends itself as the most reliable to all mothers. In all cases, the directions wrapped around each bottle, must be strictly followed. Price, 25 cents per bottle.
Sold by CHURCH & DUPONT, Druggists, No. 35 Maiden Lane, New York.
And by all respectable Druggists throughout the country.
In Portsmouth by W. R. PRESTON.

BLOOD FOOD.
Dr. Bronson, having been so far rewarded by consumption, as to be considered beyond all hope of recovery by the most eminent Medical Professors, and also by himself—a regular physician of twenty years' practice—as a last resort, discovered the idea of ANALYZING THE BLOOD, and applying the subject of physiology to the state of the blood upon the health and system. The result has been the production of this article, which was introduced to public notice, over 500 consumptives were effectually cured by it. If you have any complaints of a consumptive tendency, or any of the following, Cough, Cold, Hoarseness, Difficulty of Breathing, Night Sweats, Pain in the Side, Loss of Appetite, or Flesh in the Side, Loss of Blood, Pimples on the Face, Pain between the Shoulder Blades, Weakness, Lassitude, Nervousness, Fever, Hectic Flush, Dry Cough, Difficulty of Breathing, Night Sweats, Pain in the Side, Loss of Appetite, or Flesh

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

FRIDAY, DEC. 9, 1859.

HINTON AND DOYLE.

In last Saturday's Daily Chronicle we published a letter purporting to come from Mahala Doyle, a widow in Tennessee, directed to John Brown in prison—charging him with killing her husband and two sons in Kansas—stating that he spared the life of another of her sons, John Doyle, then a boy of 18, in compliance with her begging his life—and then states the desire of that son, whose life was thus granted, for the hanging of Brown, who spared it.

The Charlestown dispatch, whence we copied the letter, said it was to be read to prisoner; and some papers spoke of the Doyles, who were killed, as peaceable, harmless settlers in Kansas, who were slain without provocation.

We gave the letter as a part of the history of the case, without comment on its spirit; and we offer no comment on that, now. But we have just seen the other side of the Doyle story, given with great plainness of speech by R. J. Hinton, who was the Boston Traveller's correspondent during four years of the troubles there, and who is as well posted in the matter as any man can be.

He states, more at length than we can copy, that the documents relied upon to prove that Brown killed the Doyles, though inserted in the Kansas Committee's report to Congress, "were not taken before the full session of that body, but were concocted at Westport, Missouri, by Gen. Whitfield and Mr. Oliver, the pro-slavery member of the Commission, who abundantly proved during the investigation his desire to make out a good case against the free State men;—and that the statements made in those affidavits are entirely different from those first made by the women when they arrived at Westport after the killing at Pottawatomie Creek." And very clearly shows that they are not to be relied on. He then says:

One of the actors in that affair, now dead, gave me, in the summer of '56, a description of it, the causes of the deed, and the manner in which it was done; and from that statement, which has been verified by all the inquiries that have been made since, there is no hesitation on my part in declaring that Capt. John Brown was not at the scene, nor a participator in the righteous act by which five ruffians were sent to their account.

It is inferred in your article that Doyle was a peaceable citizen, though a pro-slavery man. Let me say that in Kansas no one presumes to make such a statement.—He not only was a pro-slavery man, but a ruffian of the most malignant stamp. All of those killed were members of an active gang of ruffians, who made their head-quarters in that vicinity.

Doyle was engaged with others in a fiendish attempt to outrage the person of Capt. Brown's daughter, (the wife of Thompson, who, while a prisoner in the hands of the chivalry of Virginia, was so brutally butchered,) and of his daughter-in-law, the wife of one of Brown's sons.

Wilkinson was a member of that body of usurpers which, under the name of a Legislature, passed a code of laws that have since become a byword and a hiss among the nations, for barbarity and tyranny. He came to Kansas a professed free State man, tried to get the nomination from that party, and, failing in that, took position with the Border Ruffians. At Shawnee Mission, he, with another of the same sort, one Chapman, was universally despised by the Missourians, who made use of them as fit tools for our enslavement. Every member of that usurping body deserved death at the hands of an outraged people. Wilkinson was a leading member of the same gang with Doyle and Sherman.

Another point is inferred in your article, and that is that the Pottawatomie homicides were the first acts of the kind, and that therefore the doers of the deed were the aggressors. Turn back to history. Wilkinson, Doyle and the others were killed on the night of the 24th of May, 1856. Three days before the city of Lawrence had been sacked by Buford's Ruffians. Five months before 2000 Missourians lay around that place, thirsting for the blood of the people. For months the Territory had been in a state of civil war. Dow of Hickory Point, Collins of Doniphan, R. P. Brown of Easton, Jones of the Wakamsa, Robert Barber and Stewart of Lawrence, had all of them been assassinated by the men with whom Doyle and Wilkinson acted.

These men had, in conjunction with others, stolen John Brown's cattle and those of his sons and neighbors, and otherwise injured the anti-slavery people of that settlement. At the same time these men were engaged in a conspiracy to drive out the Browns, Partridges and others on the creek, and their own sudden death alone prevented it from being carried out. The stories of mutilating the bodies are false, an invention probably of the editor of the Herald of Freedom, who endeavors to out-do Virginia in attempts to blacken the character of the Cromwellian soul which yesterday returned unto its God.

In closing let me say that John Brown told me he was not a participator in the Pottawatomie homicides. John Brown was incapable of uttering a falsehood. I would take his word against the oaths of a million of Doyles.

ROCKINGHAM FAIR.

At the Annual Meeting of the Rockingham County Agricultural Society, with this singular designation, last week, considerable interest in the prosperity of the society was manifested by those present.

Several statements as to the mode of culture, from cultivators who entered crops for premiums, were read. The Committee on Crops in their report say they "consider the statements of Messrs. Noyes of Exeter and Sanborn of Hampton Falls to be models of their kind; and while the results in all are to be commended, yet the statements in some of them might be improved."

Daniel F. Hayes, who was awarded the premium at the late Fair for the best acre of Spring Wheat, presented the following statement:—

Exeter, Nov. 28, 1859.

To the Committee on Grain Crops—Gentlemen:—I entered one acre of Spring Wheat for premium. From one measured acre I raised twenty-seven and a half bushels of Wheat. The soil is a gravelly loam. It was planted the previous year with corn, and dressed with 16 cords of barn-yard and hog manure, spread over, and plowed under, 8 inches deep. The first week in April of the present year I plowed the land once, harrowed, and sowed 1 1-2 bushels of wheat to the acre without dressing. I prepared my wheat for sowing by first washing it thoroughly, and then rolling it in air-slacked lime until it was dry.

Expense of Cultivation.

Plowing 1 acre	$4,00
Harrowing and sowing	2,50
Reaping and gathering	3,00
Threshing and cleaning	3,00
1½ bushels seed wheat	2,62
Interest on 1 acre land	6,00
Manure the previous year	6,00
	$27,12

Value of Crop.

27½ bushels wheat at $1.75	$48,12
Straw	5,00
	$53,12
Expenses deducted	27,12
Net profit	$26,00

I affirm the foregoing statement to be true and correct, according to the best of my knowledge and belief.

DANIEL F. HAYES.

Rufus C. Sanborn of Hampton Falls, awarded the premium on Corn, states the particulars of its culture as follows:—

To the Committee on Grain Crops—Gentlemen:—The land on which my corn grew measures one hundred and sixty-six rods.—This piece of land was broken up in 1854 with the Michigan plow, eleven inches deep, and well manured, and planted with corn. Product 98 bushels of shelled corn. In 1855 it was again well manured, and planted with Chenango potatoes; product 274 bushels; 1856 the land was in rye, product 32 1-2 bushels; 1857 '8 the land was down to grass and cut about two tons of hay each year, mostly herds-grass. The land was again broken up the 14th of May eight inches deep, and eleven cords of green manure from the barn cellar were turned under, and then thoroughly harrowed; the piece was then furrowed three feet apart, and marked crosswise the same, and five cords of hog compost were put in the hill and covered with soil, and then dropped from seven to nine kernels of the improved King Philip corn in the hill; the corn was planted from the 16th to the 20th of May, it came up well, and was thinned to four stalks the second time hoeing; it was hoed twice in June, and cultivated three times, hoed once in July, and once in August.—Stalks were cut the 7th and 8th of September; harvested the last of September and first of October. Edmund Pearson assisted me to harvest and measure the corn, and also the land on which the corn grew. The product was one hundred and sixty-two and one-half baskets of ears, one hundred and thirty-nine and one-half baskets of large, and twenty-three baskets of small corn, which was remarkably sound for the season. November 11th we shelled two baskets of the large corn, which averaged nineteen quarts each, and one basket of the small, which shelled seventeen and one-half quarts; making 95 bushels and 13 quarts of shelled corn.

Expense of Cultivation.

Plowing and harrowing	$4,50
Hauling and spreading manure	6,00
Planting	3,00
Hoeing and cultivating	11,00
Cutting stalks, harvesting and husking	7,00
Manure 16 cords, at $3,50 per cord	56,00
Seed	50
Interest on land	6,00
Expense, including all the manure	$94,50

Value of Crop.

95 bush. and 13 qts. at $1 per bushel	$95,40
Corn Fodder	12,00
Two-thirds manure unspent	37,33
	$144,73
Deduct expenses including manure	94,50
Net profit	$50,23

All of which is respectfully submitted.

RUFUS C. SANBORN.

James H. Butler of Nottingham took the premium on Oats, and gave the following brief statement:—

To the Committee on Crops:—I raised from 2 3-4 acres of ground the present year 147 1-2 bushels oats. Soil, deep clay loam. Plowed about 9 inches deep with Michigan plow. No manure this year. Last year planted with corn and well manured; the year previous planted with potatoes; then sward land. The oats were cradled and threshed by a machine and measured up from the same as above.

JAMES H. BUTLER.

Exeter, Sept. 22, 1859.

John L. Folsom of West Epping, took the premium on Rye, states his process of culture thus:—

I sowed 6 3-8 bushels rye between the 25th of Oct. and 4th of Nov. 1858, inclusive, on about as many acres of burnt land, and harvested 177 bushels. About 5-6 of the ground there was an old growth of wood cut, the remainder was covered with small bush pines before cutting. The land was situated on a high hill, and considerable of it was very dry and gravelly, and some parts of it of rather a loamy soil.

JOHN L. FOLSOM.

West Epping, Sept. 22, 1859.

N. P. Cram of Hampton Falls, who received the premium on Barley, gives the following statement:—

To the Committee on Crops for 1859:—Relative to the Barley I entered for a premium I state that what I called an acre, R. C. Sanborn has since measured and decided it to contain one acre and five rods. I measured the barley and there was 47 1-2 bushels from the piece. In 1857 a crop of corn, top dressed, about 20 loads; 1858 a crop of potatoes, about 15 loads, manure plowed under; this year seeded to grass without manure; This piece of ground was managed in my usual way, and as I did not expect to enter any crop for premium I cannot be very definite as to the loads of manure.

Fousel's Pabulum Vitæ.

☞ THE GREAT FRENCH REMEDY possesses extraordinary properties for the speedy and permanent cure of CONSUMPTION, BRONCHITIS, COUGHS, COLDS, and all PULMONARY DISEASE.

This celebrated specific is now universally acknowledged to be infinitely superior to all other preparations for the cure of Pulmonary Disease, both from its innocent nature and most astonishing curative properties; it being the only remedy known that will arrest the development of Tubercles in the Lungs or restore the vital functions of the pulmonary organs to their normal condition. Its invaluable properties have obtained for it the highest recommendation and praise from some of the most eminent physicians and chemists in the country: while the best and surest proofs of its merits are afforded by the numerous testimonials of its great efficacy in conquering disease, which are constantly received from our most respectable citizens. Invalids in all stages of pulmonary disease should not fail to give it a trial, as it can be administered to the most delicate and feeble with perfect safety and certain relief; and we herewith insert a few testimonials for their encouragement, selected from hundreds of like import.

Certificate of Dr. A. A. HAYES, in reference to the unequalled virtues of this great discovery.

This preparation, by chemical analysis, was proved to be free from opium, or any of its compounds; nor were any of the alkaloids present. It does not contain any mercurial or mineral substance, but consists wholly of volatile, diffusible agents, which afford vapors freely at a moderate temperature. Most of the substances present are officinally used in alleviating pulmonary disease; but the device by which they are combined is new and original, and adapts the compound to inhalation, or other modes of administration.

Respectfully,
A. A. HAYES, M. D., State Assayer.

16 Boylston St., Boston, Dec. 1857.

In the Boston Transcript of December 11, 1858, the editor says:—

"We have seen a letter from an eminent physician of this city, in which he says:—'I have used Fousel's Pabulum Vitæ in several cases of Bronchial disease, and in some with great benefit. I know of no remedy equal to it for children, where a minute dose is essential; or for adults of irritable stomachs, or having a tendency to reject ordinary medicines given for coughs, etc. I shall continue to use it in my practice.'"

Testimonial from the Sisters of Charity, of the St. Vincent's Orphan Asylum, in Boston.

BOSTON, July 31, 1858.

To Mr. F. LAPORME, Agent:

"The Sisters are happy to state that, having used Fousel's Pabulum Vitæ, they have found it efficacious in several instances, for bad coughs and colds. Signed by the SISTERS OF CHARITY.

Testimonial from a well-known Apothecary's Clerk.

BOSTON, March 10, 1859.

J. F. LAPORME, Esq.:

Dear Sir—I had been suffering for a considerable length of time from a severe cough, and had in vain had recourse to nearly all the remedies in use My cough began to give me such uneasiness from its serious effects on my system, when three days' use of Fousel's Pabulum Vitæ restored me to complete health. The medicine being new in this market, I had recourse to it last; but I can now confidently recommend it as the best medicine I know of. Yours, truly,

CHAS. H. FOSTER.

At Fred Brown's, Washington, corner State St.

In the Boston Post, Sept. 24, 1858, the editor says:

"An extraordinary cure of Consumption has recently come to our knowledge, effected through the instrumentality of Fousel's Pabulum Vitæ; the evidence of which is in the hand writing of the subject, Mr. Wm. P. Brigham, No. 130 Albany st., in this city. It seems that for eighteen months he had been exhibiting all the usual symptoms of Consumption, and that after having had recourse to the skill of various physicians, without benefit, he had to abandon his business and be confined to his house. Hearing of Fousel's Pabulum Vitæ, and of several remarkable cures effected by it, in cases as desperate as his own, he concluded to try it as a forlorn hope. The result has been most happy—he has now entirely recovered, and is engaged in his usual pursuits. It is such well authenticated cases as this that we take pleasure in laying before our readers, since, by so doing, many valuable lives may be saved, and much good effected.

It is sold at the low price of 50 cents, and $1.00 per bottle, thus placing it within the reach of all classes. F. J. LAPORME, sole Agent, Boston. M. S. BURR & CO., General Agents, No. 26 Tremont street, Museum Building, Boston, and for sale by all druggists. Circulars with testimonials of its efficacy can be had of the Agents novtly

Catarrhal Cough.

This insidious and annoying symptom, so difficult to treat, depends on a subacute inflammation of the air-passages, which is apt to end in chronic ulceration and a form of consumption. The mucous membrane of the air-passages is peculiarly susceptible to the healing influences of the PERUVIAN SYRUP, as the testimonials of some of our first citizens show.

Dr. Hostetter's Bitters have received the warmest encomiums from the press and people throughout the Union. As a valuable tonic for the cure of Dyspepsia, Flatulence, Constipation and general nervous debility, it cannot be approached. Every day new cases of its great effect are chronicled through our public journals. There is nothing equal to the enjoyment, to that which the afflicted experience when using this valuable specific. Its mild tone, its sure and vigorous action upon a disordered stomach, and the cleansing of the entire human body should recommend it to all classes of our community. All that will be necessary to convince the skeptical of its healthy effects, is to purchase a bottle and be convinced.

Sold by druggists and dealers generally, everywhere.

Among the restoratives which Nature has supplied to relieve the afflictions of humanity there is no more favorite one for a certain class of diseases than the "medicinal gum" of the Wild Cherry Tree; but however valuable it is, its power to heal, to soothe, to relieve, and to cure, is enhanced ten-fold by scientific and judicious combination with other ingredients, in themselves of equal worth. This happy mingling exists in that

HOME TESTIMONY.

BOSTON, April 18, 1852.
No. 48 Union St.

Mr. Seth W. Fowle,—Dear Sir:—Your invaluable medicine, I can truly say, has literally snatched me from the grave. Last July I was attacked by a sudden cold, which resulted in a very severe Cough, with violent pains in the side and chest. I became so much reduced, that my friends frankly told me that I must die. At this crisis, I heard of Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, and immediately sent for a bottle. The effect produced was indeed wonderful. My physician, one of the most respectable in Boston, who had previously told me that a cure was hopeless, came in, and I informed him what I had taken. He examined the Balsam, and advised me to continue the use of it, since which time I have continued to improve daily; and the same physician who had given me up, told me, a few days since, that I might yet live many years.

Respectfully, MARY ROWE.

We can cheerfully testify to the truth of the above statement, Mrs. Rowe having been an inmate of our family. WILLIAM DENNETT, MARTHA DENNETT.

CHARLESTON CONVENTION.—At the Convention of the Democrats of Rockingham Councillor District, held in this city. Hon. John S. Wells of Exeter, and Josiah Minot, Esq., of Concord, were elected delegates to the Demotracic National Convention, to be held at Charleston.

THE LYCEUM.

Rev. J. G. Adams, of Worcester, one of the most talented and eloquent of the absent sons of Portsmouth, is to lecture, on Monday Evening, Dec. 12th.

"Grace Greenwood," of Philadelphia, is to deliver her celebrated lecture on "The Heroic in Common Life," on Tuesday Evening, Dec. 13th.

Tickets for the rest of the Course, only 50 cents; for each evening, 25 cents.

A splendid new seven-octave Piano-Forte, from Hallet, Davis & Co., Boston, has been placed in the Temple; and good playing will be provided at the remaining lectures.

☞ The entertainment of Readings by Mr. C. P. Loring, who was advertised at the Temple, Wednesday evening, was not very largely attended—so he just favored the audience with a few good pieces, and adjourned to some more favorable occasion in the future—when he will appear before our citizens again, accompanied by Mr. Farrington, vocalist. These young men belong in Maine; and their joint musical and literary entertainments are well received there. If rightly carried out, the plan would seem to be a good one.

☞ We are indebted to Mr. Meinerth, for an accurate ambrotype reflection of the floral decorations of his windows—a perfect copy of all save the colors, which must be seen to be appreciated. He certainly has the prettiest windows we know of—the result of no little care, skill and good taste.

☞ The Board of Aldermen have issued proposals for the erection of a two-story school-house, corner of Cabot and State streets.

☞ Rev. John LeBosquet has removed from Greenfield to Newington, where he has engaged as a stated supply. Mr. LeBouquet has labored in Greenfield about ten years, as the acting pastor of the Congregational Church.

☞ In Congress, Wednesday, Dec. 7, both houses kept up their discussion of slavery. In the Senate, besides this, Mr. Clay of Alabama gave notice of his intention to introduce a bill to repeal the fishing bounties act.

In the House the debate was quite lively. Messrs. Kellogg, McClernand, Morris, Garnett, Lamar, Nelson and Pryor took part in it.

The most spicy part was between Nelson (South American) and Pryor (admin.) After several tart sayings on both sides—

Mr. Nelson said there was a remark of Mr. Pryor in which he agreed. It was made by him as an editor of a paper in Washington. It did good service in the contest in Tennessee.

Voices—What was it?

Mr. Nelson—"From the highways and by ways of the government, there comes up an insufferable stench!" (Excessive laughter.) In this sentiment he agreed. (Renewed scenes of laughter.) He thought Mr. Pryor, in uttering the remark, talked like a man of sense.

Mr. Pryor inquired of Mr. Nelson whether he, as a representative of a Southern constituency, in the event of the election of a Black Republican President, would vote to remain in the Union.

Mr. Nelson spoke only for himself. Much as he would deprecate such an event, yet he did not believe the election of a Black Republican President would be of itself a cause for dissolution, for they ought to wait and see whether he would do anything injurious to the rights of the South. (Applause.) Mr. Nelson repelled as a foul calumny the charge that he had any political association with the Republicans.

Mr. Pryor re-affirmed what he had said of Mr. N., namely—that Mr. N. was, whether willfully or not, virtually intimately in alliance with the Republicans or Opposition.

Mr. Nelson replied that he was responsible to his constituents for his sentiments. As Mr. Pryor had said Southern members would not permit Mr. Sherman, if elected, to take the Speaker's chair, he wished to know whether Mr. Pryor meant they would resort to violence?

Mr. Pryor.—Certainly not, but to legitimate parliamentary opposition.

Mr. Nelson—Of course there could be no opposition to that.

[So it seems that the bluster made by Mr. Pryor, and others like him, is only to be taken in a Pickwickian sense. He had said, in a previous part of the debate:

"The Representatives of the South will never consent that the creature and champion of the Republican party (meaning Sherman) shall take possession of the Speaker's chair."

And now he explains by saying they would resort to legitimate parliamentary opposition only,—no violence. A great improvement, certainly.]—Eds.

The House then proceeded to vote for Speaker.

Whole number of votes, 231; necessary for a choice, 116; Sherman had 107; Boteler, 88; Gilmer, 22; Scattering, 14.

☞ Brotherly love is the corner stone of true religion.

☞ The great Union Meeting of Massachusetts was held in Faneuil Hall, Boston, Thursday forenoon,—ex-Gov. Lincoln was President, with about 100 Vice Presidents, and eight Secretaries. Rev. Dr. Blagden offered prayer, an item of which was—

We pray for Thy blessing upon the whole country, especially upon the southern section of it.

Gov. Lincoln then made a speech in which he denounced John Brown, said he desired the removal of slavery from the whole land, and that there was not one pro-slavery man in that vast assembly, "in the opprobrious sense.

Mr. George Lunt offered a few remarks, and introduced ten resolutions, which were loudly applauded.

Mr. Everett made a very eloquent speech on the Union, its great dangers, Harper's Ferry, and St. Domingo.

Hon. Caleb Cushing made a speech about the law of the case.

Ex-President Pierce sent a letter which was read, saying it was "impossible" for him to attend,—and giving, we are happy to say, the following pleasing assurance:—

I repeat that the aspect of affairs, dark as it confessedly is, still is not disheartening.

☞ By the Persia, we have Liverpool dates to Nov. 26,—reporting a general disarmament proposed by Napoleon; that the English Army is to be increased, by 11 regiments.

A fearful storm at the Cape of Good Hope, had just been reported, in which ten first class vessels were wrecked, some of them very valuable.

☞ The Postmaster General says the people of Virginia may not only forbid the introduction and dissemination of incendiary documents within their borders, but if they are brought there in the mails, they may, by appropriate legal proceedings, have them destroyed. They have the same right to extinguish firebrands thus impiously hurled in their midst, that a man has to pluck the burning fuse from a bombshell which is about to explode at his feet.

No woman can be a lady who would wound or mortify another. No matter how beautiful, how refined, how cultivated she may be, she is in reality coarse, and the innate vulgarity of her nature manifests itself here.

Uniformly kind, courteous, and polite treatment of all persons, is one mark of a gentleman.

STOVE STORE REMOVED.

URIAH BLAISDELL

Has removed his Stove and Furnishing Establishment one door north, to the spacious and convenient store

Nos. 43 & 45 Market Street,

where he is receiving and arranging a large and valuable Stock of

STOVES, TIN WARE, &c.,

Which he offers for sale at wholesale and retail, at very low prices. He has a great variety of the best and most popular Stoves, among which are:

1. The Stewart Cook Stove, with the latest improvements. This is an air-tight Cook Stove, for Wood or Coal; it has moveable coverings, which can confine the heat in the stove, or let it out into the room; has a reservoir of hot water 10 or 20 gallons, and a tin closet beneath;—A top cover, which is a great institution for baking, and will keep a coal fire all night; it has a Dutch Oven for roasting in front of the Stove;—and it is every way a most convenient and durable Stove. There are 4 sizes.

The following recommendation of Stewart's Stove, is from an eminent engineer, and must be satisfactory to all who wish to understand the value of this excellent Stove:

Portsmouth, N. H., Nov. 5, 1859.

Mr. Blaisdell:—Seven years ago I moved to this city, and sold, before I came, a "Stewart's Air Tight Cooking Stove," which I had used about five years. During that time no repairs or expense had been made upon it. Since I have been here I have tried the various Cooking Stoves in use, and I think for economy and durability the "Stewart" excels them all. I wish you would take away the Stove I now have from my house, and set up one of Stewart's as soon as you can. Your ob't servant,
B. F. CHANDLER.

2. Boston & Maine Cook Stove;

4. Empire State;
5. Enterprise;

7. Dining Room Cook Stoves, and others.

THE ONLY PREPARATION

WORTHY OF

Universal Confidence and Patronage.

FOR STATESMEN, JUDGES, CLERGYMEN, Ladies and Gentlemen, in all parts of the world testify to the efficacy of Prof. O. J. Wood's Hair Restorative, and gentlemen of the Press are unanimous in its praise. A few testimonials only can be here given; see circular for more, and it will be impossible for you to doubt.

47 Wall Street, New York, Dec. 20, 1858.

GENTLEMEN:—Your note of the 15th inst., has been received, saying that you had heard that I had been benefitted by the use of Wood's Hair Restorative, and requesting my certificate of the fact. If I had no objection to give it.

I award it to you cheerfully, because I think it due. My age is about 50 years; the color of my hair auburn, and inclined to curl. Some five or six years since it began to turn gray, and the scalp on the crown of my head to lose its sensibility and dandruff to form upon it. Each of these disagreeabilities increased with time, and about four months since a fourth was added to them, by hair falling off the top of my head and threatening to make me bald.

In this unpleasant predicament, I was induced to try Wood's Hair Restorative, mainly to arrest the falling off of my hair, for I had really no expectation that gray hair could ever be restored to its original color except from dyes. I was, however, greatly surprised to find after the use of two bottles only, that not only was the falling off arrested, but the color was restored to the gray hairs and sensibility to the scalp, and dandruff ceased to form on my head, very much to the gratification of my wife, at whose solicitation I was induced to try it.

For this, among the many obligations I owe to her sex, I strongly recommend all husbands who value the admiration of their wives to profit by my example, and use it if growing gray or getting bald. Very Respectfully,

BENJ. A. LAVENDER.

To O. J. Wood & Co., 444 Broadway, N. Y.

Slamaston, Ala., July 20th, 1859.

To Prof. O. J. Wood: Dear Sir: Your "Hair Restorative" has done my hair so much good since I commenced the use of it, that I wish to make known to the PUBLIC its effects on the hair, which are great. A man or woman may be nearly deprived of hair, and by a resort to your "Hair Restorative," the hair will return more beautiful than ever; at least this is my experience. Believe it all. Yours truly,

WM. H. KENEDY.

P. S.—You can publish the above if you like.—By publishing in our Southern papers you will get more patronage south. I see several of your certificates in the Mobile Mercury, a strong Southern paper. W. H. K.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.

Professor O. J. Wood:—Dear Sir:—Having had the misfortune to lose the best portion of my hair, from the effects of the yellow fever, in New Orleans in 1851, I was induced to make a trial of your preparation, and found it to be the very thing needed. My hair is now thick and glossy, and no words can express my obligations to you in giving to the afflicted such a treasure.

BARLEY JOHNSON.

The Restorative is put up in bottles of three sizes, viz: large, medium, and small; the small holds half a pint, and retails for one dollar per bottle; the medium holds at least twenty per cent. more in proportion than the small, retails for two dollars per bottle; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent. more in proportion, and retails for $3 a bottle.

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA,

A compound remedy in which we have labored to produce the most effectual alterative that can be made. It is a concentrated extract of Para Sarsaparilla, of combined with other substances of still greater alterative power as to afford an effective antidote for the diseases Sarsaparilla is reputed to cure. It is believed that such a remedy is wanted by those who suffer from Strumous complaints, and that one which will a complish their cure must be of immense service to this large class of our afflicted fellow citizens. How completely this compound will do it, has been proven by experiment on many of the worst cases to be found in the following complaints:—

SCROFULA AND SCROFULOUS COMPLAINTS, ERUPTIONS AND ERUPTIVE DISEASES, ULCERS, PIMPLES, BLOTCHES, TUMORS, SALT RHEUM, SCALD HEAD, SYPHILIS AND SYPHILITIC AFFECTIONS, MERCURIAL DISEASE, DROPSY, NEURALGIA OR TIC DOULOUREUX, DEBILITY, DYSPEPSIA AND INDIGESTION, ERYSIPELAS, ROSE OR ST. ANTHONY'S FIRE, and indeed the whole class of complaints arising from IMPURITY OF THE BLOOD.

This compound will be found a great promoter of health, when taken in the spring, to expel the foul humors which fester in the blood at that season of the year. By the timely expulsion of them many rankling disorders are nipped in the bud.—Multitudes can, by the aid of this remedy, spare themselves from the endurance of foul eruptions and ulcerous sores, through which the system will strive to rid itself of corruptions, if not assisted to do this through the natural channels of the body by an alterative medicine. Cleanse out the vitiated blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in pimples, eruptions or sores;—cleanse it when you find it is obstructed or sluggish in the veins; cleanse it whenever it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Even where no particular disorder is felt, people enjoy better health, and live live longer, for cleansing the blood. Keep the blood healthy, and all is well; but with this pabulum of life disordered, there can be no lasting health. Sooner or later something must go wrong, and the great machinery of life is disordered or overthrown.

Sarsaparilla has, and deserves much, the reputation of accomplishing these ends. But the world has been egregiously deceived by preparations of it, partly because the drug alone has not all the virtue that is claimed for it, but more because many preparations, pretending to be concentrated extracts of it contain but little of the virtue of Sarsaparilla, or anything else.

During late years the public have been misled by large bottles, pretending to give a quart of Extract of Sarparilla for one dollar. Most of these have been frauds upon the sick, for they not only contain little, if any, Sarsaparilla, but often no curative properties whatever. Acres bitter and painful disappointment has followed the use of the various extracts of Sarsaparilla which flood the market, until the name itself is justly cspised, and has become synonymous with imposition and cheat. Still we call this compound Sarsaparilla, and intend to supply such a remedy as shall rescue the name from the load of obloquy which rests upon it. And we think we have grounds for believing it has virtues which are recognizable by the ordinary run of the diseases it is intended to cure. In order to secure their complete eradication from the system, the remedy should be judiciously taken according to directions on the bottle.

AMERICAN & FOREIGN PATENTS.

R. H. EDDY, Solicitor of Patents,

Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under date of 1837.

76 STATE, OPPOSITE KILBY ST., BOSTON.

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignaments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions,—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate. The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

I have no hesitation in assuring inventors they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHAS. MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

BOSTON, February 8, 1858.

Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that one is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges. JOHN TAGGART.

From Sept 17, 1857, to June 17, 1858, the subscriber, in the course of his large practice, made over TWICE rejected applications, SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in HIS FAVOR, by the Commissioner of Patents.

Boston, Jan. 1, 1859. R. H. EDDY.

MRS. WINSLOW,

An experienced Nurse and Female Physician, presents to the attention of Mothers, her

SOOTHING SYRUP,

For Children Teething.

Which greatly facilitates the process of teething by softening the gums, reducing all inflammation—will allay ALL PAIN and spasmodic action, and is

SURE TO REGULATE THE BOWELS.

Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves, and

RELIEF AND HEALTH TO YOUR INFANTS.

We have put up and sold this article for over ten years, and can say, in confidence and truth, of it, what we have never been able to say of any other medicine, NEVER HAS IT FAILED, IN A SINGLE INSTANCE, to EFFECT A CURE, when timely used. Never did we know an instance of dissatisfaction by any one who used it. On the contrary, all are delighted with its operation, and speak in terms of highest commendation of its many virtues. We speak, in this case, of what we do know, after ten years experience, and pledge our reputation for the fulfilment of what we here declare. In almost every instance where the infant is suffering from pain and exhaustion, relief will be found in fifteen or twenty minutes after the syrup is administered.

This valuable preparation is the prescription of one of the MOST EXPERIENCED and SKILLFUL NURSES in New England and has been used with THOUSANDS OF CASES.

It not only relieves the child from pain, but invigorates the stomach and bowels, corrects acidity, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. It will almost STOP IN THE GRIPING IN THE BOWELS, AND WIND COLIC, and overcome convulsions, which, if not speedily remedied, end in death. We believe it the BEST and SUREST REMEDY IN THE WORLD in all cases of DYSENTERY AND DIARRHEA IN CHILDREN, whether it arises from teething, or from any other cause. We would say to every mother who has a child suffering from any of the foregoing complaints—Do not let your own prejudices, or the prejudices of others, stand between your suffering child and the relief that will be SURE—yes, sure, to follow the use of this medicine, if timely used. Full directions for using will accompany each bottle. None genuine unless the fac-simile of CURTIS & PERKINS, New York, is on the outside wrapper. Sold by Druggists throughout the world. Principal Office, No. 13 Cedar st. New York

Price only 25 cents per bottle.

MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP.

MOTHERS,
In presenting you with DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL, we desire to state its superiority over every nostrum that nurse or quack has heretofore offered you.
First—It is the preparation of a regular physician, who is well qualified from much experience in infantile complaints to prescribe for them.—Secondly—It is entirely free from paregoric or opiate of any kind, and consequently relieves by removing the suffering of your child, instead of deadening its sensibilities. Thirdly—It is put up with great care, as a comparison of it with any other article for infantile complaints will show: the very roots from which it is distilled being dug from the forests under the direction of Dr. Eaton, many of them by his own hands. Fourthly—it is perfectly harmless and cannot injure the most delicate infant, and is a certain cure and relief in all the following cases, which is its chief merit over every other preparation.
FOR ALL COMPLAINTS ATTENDING TEETHING; such as DYSENTERY, COLIC, &c.; also, for softening the gums and relieving pain. For regulating the bowels it is unequalled. For Cold in the Head it is a sure relief. For CROUP, the most fatal and trying of diseases, it can be relied on with perfect confidence; and being a powerful antispasmodic in all cases of convulsions or fits, we earnestly recommend you to loose no time in procuring it—Lastly—it costs so much more than other preparations of the kind, that we cannot afford such long advertisements as can those whose whole expense is their advertising; for the same reason, it commends itself as the most reliable to all mothers. In all cases, the directions wrapped around each bottle, must be strictly followed. Price, 25 cents per bottle.
Sold by CHURCH & DUPONT, Druggists, No. 35 Maiden Lane, New York.
And by all respectable Druggists throughout the country.
In Portsmouth by W. R. PRESTON.

BLOOD FOOD.
Dr. Bronson, having been so far rewarded by consumption, as to be considered beyond all hope of recovery by the most eminent of the medical profession, and also by himself—a result beyond all hope of twenty years' practice—as a last resort, conceived the idea of ANALYZING THE BLOOD, and applying the subject of physiology to the more immediate connection, and effect of the skin of the blood upon the health and system. The result has been the production of this Blood Food, from the use of which, Dr. Bronson was restored to perfect health. Within six months after its introduction, over 2000 consumptives were effectually cured by it. If you have any complaint of a consumptive tendency, Cough, Cold, Headache, Palpitation of the Heart, Loss of Appetite, a Pain in the Side, lose no time in procuring a bottle of the "BLOOD FOOD." If you are suffering from Nervous Debility, or your sleep is broken and disturbed, if your spirits are in the Depressed, the patient can here find the most efficient and speedy relief. A benefit is always experienced after taking only one bottle. In Male or Female Complaints or Weaknesses, the sufferer after trying other remedies in vain, may rest assured that a certain cure will result from the use of two or three bottles. The "BLOOD FOOD" is offered to the public with the Utmost Confidence as an effectual remedy in all cases of Emphysema, Salt Rheum, Scrofula, and other like complaints. Pale and Sickly children and adults are immediately benefited by its use. It gives strength to the body, improves the complexion, and imparts a healthy color and color and beauty to the skin. Physicians of all schools are using it with wonderful success. Prepared children and adults are immediately benefited by the use of two or three bottles. The "BLOOD FOOD" is offered to the public with the Utmost Confidence as an effectual remedy in all cases of Emphysema, Salt Rheum, Scrofula, and other like complaints. Pale and Sickly children and adults

SATURDAY, DEC. 10, 1859.

THE SOUTH CAROLINA RESOLUTIONS. The resolutions introduced in the Legislature of South Carolina, by Mr. Hammond, assumed that John Brown was instigated and countenanced by the leaders of the Republican party, who were fully cognizant of his plans to excite a servile insurrection in the States of Virginia and Maryland;—that such was the unprotected condition of those border States, that Brown and his party were able to capture a town of two thousand inhabitants, and hold it for two days; that, although the law may be executed against the prisoners, stronger bodies may renew like attempts, and, therefore, the Southern States ought to call a convention for the purpose of providing means for garrisoning and fortifying the vulnerable points of the border States. It is also declared that the value of the Union to the South is scarcely an atom in the scale against the perpetual maintenance of African slavery.—Boston Courier.

The careful attention of every reader is invited, says Uncle Toby, to the last sentence of the above quotation, for the fairness of which we have the Boston Courier as a voucher.

Let every Union-loving and Union-saving democrat and republican—every whig, (if any,) consider who and what they are, who are clamoring for disunion.

Not a few fanatics, not a black or brown republican legislature—but Mr. Hammond offers these resolutions in the legislature of South Carolina, where all are classed as democrats. He offers them without rebuke—and declares that the value of the Union to the South is scarce an atom unless it secures perpetual African slave labor!

Is not this going one notch beyond the irrepressible conflict? And is it not letting the Union slide and giving it a shove?

Very queerly indeed, the above item was cut from the same Boston Courier which contained 1400 signatures to the call for a Union-saving convention in Boston.

Uncle Toby believes both these items will do good—for out of discussion comes light.

☞ When the sky falls, we shall catch larks. Yes, sure enough; but—will the sky ever fall? Probably not.

Uncle Toby was put in mind of this "old saw" by reading a letter from Washington city, published in a New Hampshire paper, designed to frighten somebody, in which the writer says:

Suppose the three million slaves of the South could be liberated to-morrow. What would become of them? Thrown out of employment at home, they would become vagabonds and wanderers on the earth.—The South would drive them away from their plantations.

Here are two skies to fall before we catch a lark: the first is improbable, the second is unlikely; both together are absurd. These 3,000,000 human chattels are not likely to be freed to-morrow, nor the next day—and if they were, their labor would all be wanted, as it is now, and more of it. But the writer goes on with more bugbears of the same sort—and says:

"They would be precipitated on New York and New England—they would become paupers and tenants of alms houses or penitentiaries, and at last have to be supported by the North,—they would be of both sexes and of various colors, from blacks to nearly white mulattoes. Amalgamation would follow, and in another generation what would be the character and complexion of a large part of the population of New England?"

This is somewhat abridged, but it gives the main features of the black lark we are to catch when the sky falls. The reader must not laugh; but just read what follows:

"Under this state of affairs the Union would be dissolved, with a Northern and Southern Confederacy threatening each other."

Under what state of affairs? asks Uncle Toby. The letter writer surely must be crazy, if he thinks the Union would be dissolved after the slaves were all freed. The threat from the slave power always has been, and is now,—We will dissolve if you do not protect, uphold and encourage slavery! If the patriarchal institution were all gone, and the black sheep all driven off to New England, we don't see what the fight would be about, or what would produce dissolution.

The letter writer, in his zeal against liberty, has mixed up his ideas and contradicted one part of his letter by the other.

☞ We see in the Boston Courier, a letter from the Miss Foulke, who, in the tavern at Charlestown, Va., for a while defended the prisoner Thompson, who was afterwards dragged out and murdered by Hunter, Chambers and others.

The only new thing that she states, is, that the prisoner, Thompson, was not only unarmed and defenceless, but had his hands tied behind him. In this condition the shiverly took him by the throat, dragged him out of doors, killed him and threw his body into the river—and they go, not only unhung, but unpunished and unrebuked.

A fortune, won in a day, is lost in a day; but won slowly and slowly compacted, it seems so acquire from the hand that won it, the property of endurance.

☞ A special dispatch to the Traveller, dated Washington Dec. 8, says:—

Thirty-two gentlemen, agents of New York and Boston houses, arrived here to-day from the South, and report the feeling of indignation so great against Northerners, that they were compelled to return and abandon their business. These gentlemen have been known for years as traders in the South. They also report that Northerners of long residence in the South have been disfigured and driven from their homes.

Eleven business men who were on their way South, returned last night, after having reached a station in Virginia, being turned back by a Vigilance Committee.—They say the feeling in six of the States through which they have passed is very intense against the North, and against the continuance of the Union.

In the Savannah News are the particulars of the tarring and feathering of Mr. Sewall H. Fisk, a shoe dealer in that city, but a native of Massachusetts. Mr. Fisk was called out of his store at about midnight Friday night, and gagged before he could make either noise or resistance. He was then placed in a carriage and driven a short distance from the city, where he was stripped and covered with tar and feathers from head to foot, his hair having been cropped close to his head. In this plight he was left to find his way back to his residence as best he might. The charges against Mr. Fisk were that "he generally expressed abolition sentiments," and that on the previous Sunday evening he had read to negroes in his store. These charges Mr. Fisk denied. The News adds:—

"Mr. Fisk, it is but justice to say, visited his native State a few years ago, where, in a public meeting, he defended the institution of slavery, and brought upon himself the censure of his relatives, as well as the animadversion of the papers in Holliston, where he made his speech."

From this it would appear that the insane men of Savannah have bedaubed one of their own kind—a most unnecessary ceremony. Probably they had taken too much whiskey to tell friends from foes.

☞ Ex-President Pierce says, most truly, in his letter to the Brown Union meeting:

I deny, in the name of all that is most sacred and precious in our inheritance, that there is an element of "irrepressible conflict" between the Southern and Northern members of this confederation. The doctrine was as unsound and untrue as it is fearful.

Amen! says Uncle Toby—so be it. But what a man of straw Brother Pierce sets up, and how manfully he knocks it down.—Not a living soul that we know of, in the so-called free States, has ever spoken of such a conflict between States or Territories. Senator Seward has spoken of the irrepressible and universal conflict between systems of free and slave labor—which every sane man must see to be quite another affair.

HORSE KILLED BY A HOG.—Mr. J. J. Van Wyck, a farmer, residing near Fishkill, turned a valuable horse into a lot in which a large hog was penned. During the day the hog managed to break out of the pen, and was observed by several of the neighbors to follow the horse wherever it went. Nothing more was thought of the matter until the next morning, when the horse was found dead in the lot, with nearly all the flesh torn from the head and neck.—It is supposed that the hog followed the nobler animal until it lay down, when the attack was made. A large wound was found in the horse's side, bearing evidence of the assailant's voracity. The hog was afterwards killed, and when dressed it weighed 240 pounds.

ALMOST DROWNED.—Several young ladies and gentlemen who were skating last Saturday, on Horse Shoe Pond, in Concord, N. H., fell through the ice into deep water and narrowly escaped drowning.—Mr. Price, a student of the Biblical Institute, in the excitement of the moment, plunged into the water to rescue them, but he was soon chilled and exhausted, and came near being drowned. His fellow students rescued him. The party consisted of Misses Bellows, Miss Shackford, and Messrs. Gilmore, Smart and Chandler.—Through the exertions of Harrison A. Roby they were all finally rescued.

☞ Nature proves the fallacy of polygamy, as allowed among the Mahommedans, Mormons and Pagans, by not producing a surplus of females; but on the other hand, since males are more exposed to death and their average life is not so long, by giving to the world more male than female children. The great father of the human race gives children in pairs, and makes no provision for either polygamy or celibacy.

CURE FOR A FELON.—Mr. Joseph Mills, of Bloomfield, recommends to those afflicted with a felon, to do the sore up in a cloth and keep it constantly wet with the tincture of lobelia, made very strong. If taken in season, Mr. Mills warants a cure in forty-eight hours.

☞ The great Union Meeting in Boston, wound up with three cheers for Virginia.—Rev. Nehemiah Adams, D. D. was on the platform.

☞ A grocer in a neighboring city says that a lady recently applied to him for a pound of oblong tea.

☞ Thursday, Dec. 8, in Congress, was spent in the usual discussion of slavery by both houses. The Senate adjourned to Monday, and the House to Friday. There was no balloting for Speaker,—and no motion was made in either house, except the motion to adjourn.

☞ A Portland merchant told one of his assistants, a youth from the country, to clean out the stove, and coming down next morning found the funnel down and things generally lying around loose. Upon inquiring if he had cleaned out the stove, the confident reply was, "Yes, I've cleared it out, stones and all." He had actually torn out the lining!

DOLLIE DUTTON NOT DEAD.—New York, Dec. 8.—The paragraph in the Boston papers relative to the death of little Dollie Dutton is entirely unfounded. She has not been unwell one moment, and was never in better health than now, and gave a levee to a large audience at Brooklyn this afternoon.

RELIC OF THE PAST.—At Neponset Village, Dorchester, is still standing and in good repair, a house built in 1650—one of the most ancient landmarks of Pilgrim handicraft. From it a brave girl drove away a Narragansett Indian by throwing live coals upon him, and was rewarded by the State with a silver bracelet.

☞ The French now adulterate their wine with plaster. The plaster is not of the strengthening sort, however.

☞ There are now 43 chaplains in our army and navy, of whom 28 are Episcopalians, 6 Presbyterians, 5 Methodists, 4 Congregationalists.

NEW YORK, Dec. 8.—A man named Henry Wells was arrested here, to-day, on suspicion of having been concerned in the murder, last spring, of Burrill Arnold, at Centreville.

It is estimated that over one thousand tons of tobacco are annually squirted over the face of creation, and twenty tons of ivory are worn out chewing the weed every seven years.

A surly bachelor remarks that the ladies' fashions, for the ensuing season, show a persistent determination, in the dear creatures, to crawl out of their dresses through the upper part.

DIED.

In this city, Dec. 9th, Mrs. ABIGAIL SWEETSER, aged 78, widow of Mr. Benj. C. Sweetser;—a woman greatly beloved and esteemed by all knew her.

In calling the attention of the public to my list of Magazines and Newspapers, I would caution all against subscribing for Magazines, Newspapers, or other works, through irresponsible and transient persons, or travelling agents; for in nine cases out of ten you will be swindled and cheated.

If you wish to take any Magazine or newspaper, subscribe of some responsible agent in town. Hundreds of dollars are lost every year by subscribing for works of strangers and travelling agents, and by being induced to subscribe by the thousands of contrivances to cheat the public—such as Art Unions, Premiums, Cosmopolitan Art Associations, and various humbugs to gull the unwary. Keep clear of these, and pay your money to those whom you know to be responsible. Catarrhal Cough.

This insidious and annoying symptom, so difficult to treat, depends on a subacute inflammation of the air-passages, which is apt to end in chronic ulceration and a form of consumption. The mucous membrane of the air-passages is peculiarly susceptible to the healing influences of the PERUVIAN SYRUP, as the testimonials of some of our first citizens show.

Dr. Hostetter's Bitters have received the warmest encomiums from the press and people throughout the Union. As a valuable tonic for the cure of Dyspepsia, Flatulence, Constipation and general nervous debility, it cannot be approached. Every day new cases of its great effect are chronicled through our public journals. There is nothing equal to the enjoyment, to that which the afflicted experience when using this valuable specific. Its mild tone, its sure and vigorous action upon a disordered stomach, and the cleansing of the entire human body should recommend it to all classes of our community. All that will be necessary to convince the skeptical of its healthy effects, is to purchase a bottle and be convinced.

Sold by druggists and dealers generally, everywhere.

Among the restoratives which Nature has supplied to relieve the afflictions of humanity there is no more favorite one for a certain class of diseases than the "medicinal gum" of the Wild Cherry Tree; but however valunble it is, its power to heal, to soothe, to relieve, and to cure, is enhanced ten-fold by scientific and judicious combination with other ingredients, in themselves of equal worth. This happy mingling exists in that

"Combination and a form indeed"

Of medicine known as

Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry,

Whose value in curing Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Whooping Cough, Croup, Asthma, Pulmonary Affection and Incipient Consumption, is inestimable.

HOME TESTIMONY.

BOSTON, April 18, 1852.
No. 48 Union St.

Mr. Seth W. Fowle,—Dear Sir:—Your invaluable medicine, I can truly say, has literally snatched me from the grave. Last July I was attacked by a sudden cold, which resulted in a very severe Cough, with violent pains in the side and chest. I became so much reduced, that my friends frankly told me that I must die. At this crisis, I heard of Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, and immediately sent for a bottle. The effect produced was indeed wonderful. My physician, one of the most respectable in Boston, who had previously told me that a cure was hopeless, came in, and I informed him what I had taken. He examined the Balsam, and advised me to continue the use of it, since which time I have continued to improve daily; and the same physician who had given me up, told me, a few days since, that I might yet live many years.

Respectfully, MARY ROWE.

We can cheerfully testify to the truth of the above statement, Mrs. Rowe having been an inmate of our family. WILLIAM DENNETT, MARTHA DENNETT.

None genuine unless signed I. BUTTS on the wrapper.

Prepared by S. W. FOWLE & CO., BOSTON. and for sale by Wm. E. Preston, David Kimball, Nathan P. Thacher, J. H. Thacher, and B. Hutchings, Portsmouth; J. P. Packer, Greenland; and dealers everywhere. spnot 4wd&w

PURE LIQUORS

—FOR—

FAMILY

—AND—

MEDICINAL PURPOSES!

NO species of deception and fraud should receive stronger public condemnation than that imposing upon the sick with

Adulterated and Poisonous Liquors!

The market is flooded with these adulterated poisons. They have found their way into every State, City, Town and Village in the country, and are carrying incurable insanity to the victims of these terrible agents.

In consequence of the startling developments in regard to

STATE AGENCY LIQUORS,

and the almost universal distrust which now prevails, and to the end that confidence may be restored, we come before the public, pledging our reputation to supply

UNADULTERATED LIQUORS

EXPRESSLY FOR

MEDICINAL PURPOSES.

In asking the confidence of those who have been so outrageously imposed upon by the POISONOUS COMPOUNDS of "LICENSED POLITICAL CHEATS," we would refer to our antecedents for the past eighty years, and we trust that our established reputation abundantly vindicates our claims to public confidence.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

"The Bininger, 338 Broadway, have a very high reputation to sustain, as the oldest and best house in New York."—Home Journal.

"The house of A. M. Bininger & Co., No. 338 Broadway, has sustained, for a period of eighty years, a reputation that may well be envied."—N. Y. Evening Post.

"The name of A. M. Bininger & Co. is a guarantee of the exact and literal truth of whatever they represent."—N. Y. Com. Advertiser.

"The importing house of A. M. Bininger & Co., No. 338 Broadway, is conducted upon principles of integrity, fairness, and the highest honor."—N. Y Evening Express.

To Druggists, Town Agents and Physicians,

desirous of purchasing liquors of undoubted purity, we would say that our House has made a specialty of selling PURE, UNADULTERATED LIQUORS for Medicinal purposes, and we claim that they are superior to anything now before the public.

With these assurances on our part, we name a few of our bottled goods, which are now freely prescribed by the faculty

BININGER'S

GENUINE COGNAC BRANDY.

The infamous practice of adultering Brandies having become so common that a genuine article is the exception, it is of vital importance to those requiring it for family use, and invalids, that it should be of undoubted purity and efficacy. With a view to meeting the popular demand for a reliable Brandy in its natural state, free from alcoholic flavor and impurities, and fully appreciating the fact that it is often recommended by the Medical Faculty as a sustaining stimulant, when all other remedies fail, we are now bottling and selling at reasonable rates a Brandy of our own importation, from one of the most responsible houses in France, and known as "Bininger's Genuine Cognac Brandy." It is mild, delicate and fruity, and is designed to be always uniform in quality and character.

BININGER'S

OLD LONDON DOCK GIN

has been a favorite with the Profession for many years. For all cases of Gravel it will certainly work a cure, and if taken as a preventive, will remove all possible sediment. It is invaluable to females in diseases peculiar to their sex, and in cases of tendency to Phthisis or Consumption it will often ward off that fatal disease.

BININGER'S

OLD KENTUCKY BOURBON.

Being distilled in 1848, and manufactured expressly for us with great care, it can be relied upon as a strictly pure stimulant, and peculiarly effective for the treatment of Lung Complaints, Dyspepsia, Derangement of the Stomach, Nervousness, &c.

BININGER'S

HEIDELBERG BRANNTWEIN.

Since its introduction into this country it has received the professional endorsement of our eminent physicians, for the effective treatment of Dyspepsia, Gravel, Rheumatism, Dropsy, Bladder Complaints, Suppression of the Menses, Nervousness, Derangement of the Stomach, General Debility, etc.

BININGER'S

OLD DOMINION WHEAT TONIC

For Family and Medicinal Use.

This article has received the highest encomiums from eminent medical authorities as possessing qualities that are absolutely FATTENING; this desideratum renders it invaluable to those who are suffering from Consumption, Lung Complaints, Bronchitis, Impaired Strength, Lack of Vital Energy, &c.

☞ All the above articles are put up in Quart Bottles, in iron bound cases of one and two dozen each.

Orders from the country will receive prompt attention. Circulars, containing a list of articles and prices, forwarded to those desiring them.

DEATHS IN PORTSMOUTH.—The bill of mortality in this city, for November, was unusually large, as follows—according to the record of the Superintendent of the City Hearse.

Males seven—aged 2 months, 7 months, 9 years, 28, 41, 42, 49.

Females ten—aged 3 mos., 15 mos., 9 years, 18, 37, 45, 50, 57, 78, 81.

Total number for the month, seventeen.

☞ At the Democratic Counsellor Convention held in this city on Wednesday, Albert Blaisdell Esq. was renominated for Counsellor, but declined, and Hon. James H. Butler of Nottingham was nominated in his room.

Hon. John S. Wells having declined the honor of being a delegate to the Charleston Convention, Hon. Daniel Marcy was elected in his stead.

☞ Rev. John G. Adams will preach at the Universalist Church to-morrow.

☞ A dispatch from Washington says the first Comptroller of the Treasury has refused to approve the allowance to Missouri of $450,000, as a per centage on land sales. This fund was looked to for the means wherewith to pay the interest shortly due on Missouri Bonds.

In consequence of the delay in organizing the House, the Post Office certificates were offered in New York on Tuesday at 94 cents on the dollar.

HONOR TO GOV. WISE.—Honor is certainly due to him for one of the most delicate and courteous letters ever written by a public executioner to a woman about to be widowed by his official act. It is his letter to Mrs. Mary A. Brown, and is dated at Richmond, Nov. 27. He says:—

Believe me, madam, that I sadly thank you for your trust in my feelings as a man. Your situation touches those feelings deeply. Sympathising as I do with your affliction, you shall have the exertion of my authority and personal influence to assist you in gathering up the bones of your sons and your husband in Virginia, for decent and tender interment among their kindred.

I am happy, madam, that you seem to have the wisdom and virtue to appreciate my position of duty. Would to God that public considerations could avert his doom, for the Omniscient knows that I take not the slightest pleasure in the execution of any whom the laws condemn. May He have mercy on the erring and the afflicted. Enclosed is an order to Major General Wm. B. Taliaferro, in command at Charlestown, Va., to deliver to your order the mortal remains of your husband when all shall be over, to be delivered to your agent at Harper's Ferry, and if you attend the reception in person, to guard you sacredly in your solemn mission.

With tenderness and truth, I am very respectfully, your humble servant,

HENRY A. WISE.

☞ The Washington Star says that Daniel E. Sickles appeared in his seat in the House Hall on Monday. On his re-appearance there he was warmly greeted by the Sergeant-at-Arms of the House. "Messrs. Montgomery, Cox, and another whose countenances we did not recognize, had conversed with him ere we left the hall, at the termination of the first ballot for Speaker." A correspondent of the Press tells a different story. He says:

Sickles was not present when his name was called, but entered before the roll was gotten through. He walked placidly round the centre row of seats, and dropped into a seat on the third bench. He looks well, and has grown his beard so as to make a tolerably effective disguise. He was the only solitary man in that large assemblage. He was not spoken to.

☞ Archibald Graham, an intoxicated man, fell down a flight of stairs in Brooklyn, N. Y., on Wednesday night, and fractured his skull so that he expired shortly after. One of his daughters was so intoxicated as to be unable to realize the frightful scene.

An Irish news-carrier (says the Builder) who sometimes courts the Muses, has given an idea of the church building taste of the people of America in the following lines, which contain more truth than poetry:—

They puts up a front to the street,
Like ould Westminster Abbey;
But then they thinks to chate the Lord,
And builds the back part shabby.

☞ Caleb Jones, station master at Thornton's Ferry, N. H., died in his bed Wednesday morning, very suddenly. He was apparently well when he retired Tuesday night. His age was 50 years.

Adhesiveness is a large element of success. Genius has glue on his feet, and will hold on a marble slab. Out of a pine log a Yankee will whittle a Judgeship, a seat in Congress, a mission to England.—The first part of economy is to do your peculiar work; the second, to do it by a system.

An English cockney, at the Falls of Niagara, when asked how he liked the Falls, replied: "They're 'ansome—quite so—but they don't hanswer my expectations; because I got thoroughly vetted, and lost me 'at. I'll prefer to look at 'em in an hingraving of 'ot weather, and hin the 'ouse."

An Irishman, on enlisting, was asked by the recruiting officer, "When you get into a fire, Paddy, will you fight or run?"—"Upon my faith," replied Pat, with a comical look of his countenance, "I'll be afther doing proper honor, as the majority of ye does!"

HOW TO ACQUIRE VIGOR OF STYLE.—A reverend critic told a literary friend that his style wanted that vigor which might be acquired by running the pen through every other word. The editor of the Christian Inquirer recently expressed the same thought in this form: "We do not remember reading a book, sermon or poem, for ten years, that would not have been materially improved by cutting out one half the nouns, three-quarters of the adjectives, and all the adverbs."

GOOD COMPANY.—Intercourse with persons of decided virtue and excellence is of great importance in the formation of a good character. The force of example is powerful. We are creatures of imitation, and by a necessary influence, our habits and tempers are very much formed on the model with those with whom we familiarly associate.

☞ We learn by the Persia that Mrs. Garrick, wife to the nephew of the great actor, died at Sunderland a few days ago, having been an actress 65 years. She is the last of the name connected with the stage.

We are to-day—and that is all we see and all we know, though hope and faith point out a future. To-morrow we fall down and die; and the third day the busy world tramps by as though we had never lived—we are really forgotten.

THE VIRGINIA PRISONERS.—Richmond, Va., Dec. 7.—The Legislature has unanimously passed resolutions approving of the sentence of Cook and the other prisoners, and refusing all interference in their behalf.

"Well, farmer, you told us your place was a good place for hunting; now we've tramped it for three hours and found no game." "Just so. I calculate, as a general thing, the less game there is, the more hunting you have."

In Seville, Medina Co., Ohio, the young ladies have formed an Anti-Tobacco Society. They have pledged themselves to have nothing to do with any young gentleman who smokes.

If you want to ruin your sons, let them think that all mirth and social enjoyment must be left on the threshold without, when they come home at night. When once a home is regarded as only a place to eat, drink, and sleep in, the work is begun that ends in gambling houses and reckless degradation.

A friend suggests that the cow at Charlestown, Va., was killed by the sentry because she had two powder horns on her head, and because she had been tail-bearing among the negroes.

☞ The Buffalo Republic challenges Dr. Windship, the strong man, to come to that city and try his strength with a good deal of the butter sold there.

GREAT PLACE FOR EDITORS.—An exchange says: "It takes three editors to start a paper in New Orleans: one to get killed in a duel; another to die of yellow fever, and the third to write an obituary on the defunct two.

☞ The statistics of the oyster inspector of Virginia show that about twenty million bushels of the bivalves were taken from the Virginia waters the past year.

NEW YORK, Dec. 9. — Mrs. Fernando Wood died this morning.

Hon. Theodore Sedgwick, U. S. District Attorney for the Southern District of this State, died last night at the house of his mother, in Stockbridge, Mass.

☞ Nathan Richardson of Boston, died in Paris on the 19th ult., of consumption.—Mr. Richardson was well known in musical circles as a music composer and publisher.

APPETITE.—A relish bestowed upon the poorer classes, that they may like what they eat; while it is seldom enjoyed by the rich, because they may eat what they like.

STOVE STORE REMOVED.

URIAH BLAISDELL

Has removed his Stove and Furnishing Establishment one door north, to the spacious and convenient store

Nos. 43 & 45 Market Street,

where he is receiving and arranging a large and valuable Stock of

STOVES, TIN WARE, &c.,

Which he offers for sale at wholesale and retail, at very low prices. He has a great variety of the best and most popular Stoves, among which are:

1. The Stewart Cook Stove, with the latest improvements. This is an air-tight Cook Stove, for Wood or Coal; it has moveable coverings, which can confine the heat in the stove, or let it out into the room; has a reservoir of hot water 10 or 20 gallons, and a tin closet beneath;—a top cover, which is a great institution for baking, and will keep a coal fire all night; it has a Dutch Oven for roasting in front of the Stove;—and it is every way a most convenient and durable Stove. There are 4 sizes.

The following recommendation of Stewart's Stove, is from an eminent engineer, and must be satisfactory to all who wish to understand the value of this excellent Stove:

Portsmouth, N. H., Nov. 5, 1859.

Mr. Blaisdell:—Seven years ago I moved to this city, and sold, before I came, a "Stewart's Air Tight Cooking Stove," which I had used about five years. During that time no repairs or expense had been made upon it. Since I have been here I have tried the various Cooking Stoves in use, and I think for economy and durability the "Stewart" excels them all. I wish you would take away the Stove I now have from my house, and set up one of Stewart's as soon as you can. Your ob't servant,

B. F. CHANDLER.

2. Boston & Maine Cook Stove;
3. White Mountain;
4. Empire State;
5. Enterprise;

From the N. H. Gazette.

THE CAUCUS IN WARD ONE.—The Democrats of Ward 1 rallied at their caucus held last Monday evening, to choose delegates to the Councillor Convention, and administered a merited rebuke to the handful of mischief makers who were the cause of their defeat at the late election. The delegates were chosen by ballot, and the full attendance and decisive character of the vote showed that the cause of the defeat was well understood, and that its patriotic authors were properly appreciated, their ticket for delegates receiving 13 votes only, while 46 were cast for the ticket chosen.

As we have before said, Ward 1 would have been handsomely carried by the Democrats at the city election, but for the selfish and mischievous designs of these men in slyly getting the organization of the party into their hands, and then managing with a view to procure for themselves future rewards under the general government, rather than to promote the success of the party. Now that the motives of the two or three ringleaders in this movement are well understood and they have been properly rebuked, we believe their power for harm in the future will be materially abridged, and have no doubt that the ward will be triumphantly redeemed another year.

THE COUNCILLOR CONVENTION.—The Democrats of the Rockingham Councillor District held their Convention in this city on Wednesday last, pursuant to announcement. Although the weather was unfavorable the Convention was largely attended, and its proceedings were harmonious.—Hon. Albert Blaisdell having declined a re-nomination for Councillor, Judge Butler, of Nottingham, was nominated for that office; and Hon. John S. Wells, of Exeter, and Judge Minot, of Concord, were chosen delegates to attend the Charleston Convention, and Hon. Daniel Marcy, of this city, and Lewis W. Clark, Esq., of Pittsfield, substitutes.

Alvah Wood, Esq., of Exeter, moved the adoption of the famous Alton resolves as an amendment to the regular resolutions, supporting his motion with a speech, and calling for the yeas and nays. The chairman of the Committee on Resolutions, Hon. George W. Kittredge, of New Market and one or two others, briefly opposed the amendment, when the Alton trash was decisively rejected 17 only voting in its favor.

THE GOVERNORS HORSE GUARDS.—The adjourned meeting of this Corporation occurred on Thursday last, and was fully attended. Reports were offered by the several committees appointed at the last meeting. A regimental organization was recommended, and for a uniform that of the French Huzzars was adopted. The Constitution and By-Laws, offered by Dr. Fuller of Portsmouth, Chairman of the Committee, were read and ordered to be printed for the use of the corps. The interest in the enterprise is plainly on the increase, as is evinced by the fact that about seventy-five new members were enrolled at the meeting of Thursday. The meeting for choice of officers will occur at the City Hall in Concord, on the second Wednesday in January, at 11 o'clock, A. M., at which time a large attendence is anticipated.

Messrs. Brown, Taggard & Chase of Boston, announce the publication of a volume by Dr. Hayes, entitled "An Artio Boat Journey in the Autumn of 1855." This will be a most interesting addition to the story of circumpolar experiences.—It contains the history of an attempt, in open boats, by eight persons, setting out from the brig "Advance," (then in her winter quarters at Rensselaer Harbor) to reach Upernavikni, North-Greenland, the most northern outpost of civilization.

The second lecture of the course this winter before the Young Men's Christian Association, will be given on Sunday evening at the Chapel on State street, by Rev. Mr. Hitchcock, at 7 o'clock.

THE ONLY PREPARATION
WORTHY OF
Universal Confidence and Patronage.

FOR STATESMEN, JUDGES, CLERGYMEN.

Ladies and Gentlemen, in all parts of the world testify to the efficacy of Prof. O. J. Wood's Hair Restorative, and gentlemen of the Press are unanimous in its praise. A few testimonials only can be here given; see circular for more, and it will be impossible for you to doubt.

47 Wall Street, New York, Dec. 20, 1858.

GENTLEMEN:—Your note of the 15th inst., has been received, saying that you had heard that I had been benefitted by the use of Wood's Hair Restorative, and requesting my certificate of the fact if I had no objection to give it.

I award it to you cheerfully, because I think it due. My age is about 50 years; the color of my hair auburn, and inclined to curl. Some five or six years since it began to turn gray, and the scalp on the crown of my head to lose its sensibility and dandruff to form upon it. Each of these disagreeabilities increased with time, and about four months since a fourth was added to them, by hair falling off the top of my head and threatening to make me bald.

In this unpleasant predicament, I was induced to try Wood's Hair Restorative, mainly to arrest the falling off of my hair, for I had really no expectation that gray hair could ever be restored to its original color except from dyes. I was, however, greatly surprised to find after the use of two bottles only, that not only was the falling off arrested, but the color was restored to the gray hairs and sensibility to the scalp, and dandruff ceased to form on my head, very much to the gratification of my wife, at whose solicitation I was induced to try it.

For this, among the many obligations I owe to her sex, I strongly recommend all husbands who value the admiration of their wives to profit by my example, and use it if growing gray or getting bald. Very Respectfully,

BENJ. A. LEAVENDER.

To O. J. Wood & Co., 444 Broadway, N. Y.

Shmaston, Ala., July 20th, 1859.

To Prof. O. J. Wood: Dear Sir: Your "Hair Restorative" has done my hair so much good since I commenced the use of it, that I wish to make known to the PUBLIC its effects on the hair, which are great. A man or woman may be nearly deprived of hair, and by a resort to your "Hair Restorative," the hair will return more beautiful than ever; at least this is my experience. Believe it all! Yours truly,

WM. H. KENEDY.

P. S.—You can publish the above if you like.—By publishing in our Southern papers you will get more patronage south. I see several of your certificates in the Mobile Mercury, a strong Southern paper. W. H. K.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.

Professor O. J. Wood:—Dear Sir:—Having had the misfortune to lose the best portion of my hair, from the effects of the yellow fever, in New Orleans in 1851, I was induced to make a trial of your preparation, and found it to be the very thing needed. My hair is now thick and glossy, and no words can express my obligations to you in giving to the afflicted such a treasure.

FINLEY JOHNSON.

The Restorative is put up in bottles of three sizes, viz: large, medium, and small; the small holds half a pint, and retails for one dollar per bottle; the medium holds at least twenty per cent. more in proportion than the small, retails for two dollars per bottle; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent. more in proportion, and retails for $8 a bottle.

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA,

A compound remedy in which we have labored to produce the most effectual alterative that can be made. It is a concentrated extract of Pars Sarsaparilla, of combined with other substances of still greater alterative power as to afford an effective antidote for the diseases Sarsaparilla is reputed to cure. It is believed that such a remedy is wanted by those who suffer from Strumous complaints, and that one which will a complish their cure must be of immense service to this large class of our afflicted fellow citizens. How completely this compound will do it, has been proven by experiment on many of the worst cases to be found in the following complaints:—

SCROFULA AND SCROFULOUS COMPLAINTS, ERUPTIONS AND ERUPTIVE DISEASES, ULCERS, PIMPLES, BLOTCHES, TUMORS, SALT RHEUM, SCALD HEAD, SYPHILIS AND SYPHILITIC AFFECTIONS, MERCURIAL DISEASE, DROPSY, NEURALGIA OR TIC DOULOUREUX, DEBILITY, DYSPEPSIA AND INDIGESTION, ERYSIPELAS, ROSE OR ST. ANTHONY'S FIRE, and indeed the whole class of complaints arising from IMPURITY OF THE BLOOD.

This compound will be found a great promoter of health, when taken in the spring, to expel the foul humors which fester in the blood at that season of the year. By the timely expulsion of them many rankling disorders are nipped in the bud.—Multitudes can, by the aid of this remedy, spare themselves from the endurance of foul eruptions and ulcerous sores, through which the system will strive to rid itself of corruptions, if not assisted to do this through the natural channels of the body by an alterative medicine. Cleanse out the vitiated blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in pimples, eruptions or sores;—cleanse it when you find it is obstructed or sluggish in the veins; cleanse it whenever it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Even where no particular disorder is felt, many will feel better health, and live live longer, for cleansing the blood. Keep the blood healthy, and all is well; but with this pabulum of life disordered, there can be no lasting health. Sooner or later something must go wrong, and the great machinery of life is disordered or overthrown.

Sarsaparilla has, and deserves much, the reputation of accomplishing these ends. But the world has been egregiously deceived by preparations of it, partly because the drug alone has not all the virtue that is claimed for it, but more because many preparations, pretending to be concentrated extracts of it' contain but little of the virtue of Sarsaparilla, or anything else.

During late years the public have been misled by large bottles, pretending to give a quart of Extract of Sarparilla for one dollar. Most of these have been frauds upon the sick, for they not only contain little, if any, Sarsaparilla, but often no curative properties whatever. Acute bitter and painful disappointment has followed the use of the various extracts of Sarsaparilla which flood the market, until the name itself is justlyd espised, and has become synonymous with humbug and cheat. Still we call this compound Sarsaparilla, and intend to supply such a remedy as shall rescue the name from the load of obloquy which rests upon it. And we think we have grounds for believing it has virtues which will prove irresistible by the ordinary run of the diseases it is intended to cure. In order to secure their complete eradication from the system, the remedy should be judiciously taken according to directions on the bottle.

PREPARED BY
DR. J. C. AYER & CO.,
LOWELL, MASS.

AMERICAN & FOREIGN PATENTS.

R. H. EDDY, Solicitor of Patents,

Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the act of 1837.

76 STATE, OPPOSITE KILBY ST., BOSTON.

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions,—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate. The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

I have no hesitation in assuring inventors they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHAS. MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

BOSTON, February 8, 1858.

Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that one is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges. JOHN TAGGART.

From Sept 17, 1857, to June 17, 1858, the subscriber, in the course of his large practice, made on TWICE rejected applications, SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in HIS FAVOR, by the Commissioner of Patents.

Boston, Jan. 1, 1859. R. H. EDDY.

MRS. WINSLOW,

An experienced Nurse and Female Physician, presents to the attention of Mothers, her

SOOTHING SYRUP,

For Children Teething.

Which greatly facilitates the process of teething by softening the gums, reducing all inflammation—will allay ALL PAIN and spasmodic action, and is

SURE TO REGULATE THE BOWELS.

Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves, and

RELIEF AND HEALTH TO YOUR INFANTS.

We have put up and sold this article for over ten years, and can say, in confidence and truth, of it, that we have never been able to say of any other medicine, NEVER HAS IT FAILED, IN A SINGLE INSTANCE, TO EFFECT A CURE, when timely used. Never did we know an instance of dissatisfaction by any one who tried it, but on the contrary, all are delighted with its operation, and some of the highest in terms of commendation of its medicinal virtues. We speak, in this matter, "what we do know," and pledge our reputation for the fulfilment of what we here declare. In almost every instance where the infant is suffering from pain and exhaustion, relief will be found in fifteen or twenty minutes after the syrup is administered.

This valuable preparation is the prescription of one of the MOST EXPERIENCED and SKILLFUL NURSES in New England and has been used with never-failing success, in THOUSANDS OF CASES.

It not only relieves the child from pain, but invigorates the stomach and bowels, corrects, acidity, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. It will almost instantly relieve and overcome convulsions, which, if not speedily remedied, end in death. We believe there is no other such sure and safe remedy in all cases of DYSENTERY AND DIARRHŒA IN CHILDREN, whether it arises from teething, or from any other cause. We would say to every mother who has a child suffering from any of the foregoing complaints—Do not let your own prejudices, or the prejudices of others, stand between your suffering child and the relief that will ABSOLUTELY SURE to follow the use of this medicine, if timely used. Full directions for using will accompany each bottle. None genuine unless the fac-simile of CURTIS & PERKINS, New York, is on the outside wrapper. Sold by Druggists throughout the World. Principal Office, No. 13 Cedar st. New York

GRIPING IN THE BOWELS, AND WIND COLIC.

Price only 25 cents per bottle.

DYE YOUR HAIR AND WHISKERS

By using Hutchins' Liquid HAIR DYE, you can color Red or Gray Hair to a beautiful Brown or Black. This is the best article in use. A lady says it is cheaper to use it than to buy caps to cover her head with.

DR. J. B. HUGHES,

Knowing that there are at this moment thousands of persons in the surrounding towns, suffering their lives to the insidious inroads of certain dangerous maladies, who still suffer from the reluctance to make known their complaints and consult a physician, he would state that some of his medicines will be sent by express or otherwise, to all who may order them, provided a true description of the disease be sent by letter and directed as above.

Full and explicit directions will accompany every package, and the most inviolable secrecy preserved.

DR. HUGHES can with safety say during the last year of his practice in Boston, more than three hundred cases of disease which have been improperly treated by empyrics have come under his care and more than three-fourths of this number were inscribed upon his books as perfect cures.

Patients treated by letter by addressing Dr. Hughes, post paid, and medicines sent all over the country, carefully concealed from scrutiny of friends.

Be particular in finding Dr. Hughes. Do not be lured from the right path, or be persuaded to try experiments with false and fictitious remedies at the expense of destroying what is the great prize of life, a healthy constitution.

This medicine can only be obtained at the Office of Dr. HUGHES, 13 Howard street, Boston.

DR. J. B. HUGHES UNIVERSAL FEMALE RENOVATING PILLS. These pills are unrivalled in efficacy and superior virtue in regulating female irregularities. Their action is specific and certain, producing relief in a short space of time. They are acknowledged to be the best in use.

The Dr. cautions the public to beware of imitations that are being practiced by adventurers, spurious article under some spurious or fictitious name. They are entirely useless, having been got up by miserable pretenders who are entirely ignorant of the efficacy of medicines.

All who are in pursuit of the genuine article had better call on the Dr. at his office, where they will be sure of getting the genuine—the only place in Boston where the genuine is for sale.

These pills can be sent to any part of the country with directions. Remember the number, 13 Howard street, Boston.

P. S.—The best of accommodations furnished with kind and attentive nurses if they wish, at a reasonable rate. 12 d

LAW. — Existence of creatures, says Blackstone, depends upon obedience to God's laws as developed in Nature. He adds that all human laws depend upon the law of nature and the law of revelation.—Civil law is the natural result of mutual dependence, and social relations. Municipal law is the "rule of civil conduct prescribed by the supreme power of the State." "The only true and natural foundations of society are the wants and the fears of individuals." It is the right and duty for the supreme power to make laws,—commanding what is right and prohibiting what is wrong.

Punishment is never intended as an equivalent for crime and its evil result, but to deter men from introducing that greater degree of inconvenience which would result tromthat act which law prohibits.

At the Brown sympathy prayer meeting held in the church of the Puritans, in New York, the brethren and sisters were somewhat astonished, after hearing portions of scriptures read by Dr. Cheever, and while engaged in a gentle discussion, at a shrill voice which said—"I believe a great deal in bone and muscle," and the owner, a lady, proceeded to tell the fable of Hercules and the wagoner, in which the latter was advised to put his shoulder to the wheel and then call upon the gods to help him. She wanted to see the ministers and old men do the praying, but the young men ought to fight. She wouldn't have been afraid to head an army herself to help rescue John Brown. He should never have been hung. Prolonged applause followed this outburst, but it was rebuked by Dr Cheever, who thought these manifestations were inappropriate to the deep solemnity that prevailed the meeting. She was too practical altogether.—Boston Post.

LOUISVILEE ITEMS.—We hope the members of the Democratic party will direct their attention to the state of affairs in the North. The raid of Brown has opened to us the certainty that there is a large body North whose hostility to this section of the Union is deadly. His sympathizers number many, from the white-cravated hypocrite in the pulpit to the kennel politician of the doggery.—Louisville Democrat.

Nonsense, old friend and neighbor!—Leave such sentiments to the crack-brained editors of the Richmond Enquirer, and let us look the truth right in the face. There is nobody in the North, worthy of consideration, that is deadly hostile to this section of the Union. There are a few misguided enthusiasts in the North, as there are hot-headed zealots in the South, who make all the alarm and fuss; beyond this, there is as much brotherly feeling and cordiality of affection between the free and slave States, as there ever has been since the formation of the Constitution, and we verily believe, more fraternity of interest. — Louisville Journal.

HORRIBLE, THOUGH TRUE.—I have been thinking how terrible it must be to see anybody one cared for, drunk; the honest eye dull and meaningless; the wise lips jabbering foolishness; the whole face and figure, instead of being what one likes to look at, takes pleasure to see in the same room even—growing ugly, irrational, disgusting—more like a beast than a man.—Yet some women have to bear it, have to speak kindly to their husbands, hide their brutishness, and keep them from making worse fools of themselves than they can help. I have seen it done, not merely by working-men's wives, but lady-wives in drawing-rooms. I think, if I were married, and I saw my husband the least overcome by wine, not "drunk" it may be, but just excited silly, otherwise than his natural self, it would nearly drive me wild. Less on my account, than his. To see him sink—not for a great crime, but a contemptible, cowardly bit of sensualism—from the height where my love had placed him; to have to take care of him, to pity him—ay, and I might pity him, but I think the full glory and passion of my love would die out, then and there, for ever.—Life for a Life.

CHEERFUL MUSIC.—The poet Carpani once asked his friend Haydn how it happened that his church music was always of an animating, cheering and a gay description. To this, Haydn's answer was:

"I cannot make it otherwise, I write according to the thoughts which I feel. When I think upon God, my heart is so full of joy that the notes dance and leap, as it were, from my pen; and since God has given me a cheerful heart, it will easily be forgiven me that I serve him with a cheerful spirit."

An unmarried miserable on the Wansbeck is suspected of having written the following pithy poem on the ladies:—

Lazy, if tall,
Cross-grained, if small;
If handsome, vain,
Shocking, if plain.

"Are you still boarding, my friend?"—"No, I'm keeping house—I'm above board."

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

MONDAY, DEC. 12, 1859.

☞ Some readers would like to know what the United States Senators are disputing about. In a few words it is this:

Senator Mason, of Virginia, offered a resolution of inquiry into the capture of the U. S. arsenal at Harper's Ferry. Every one knows this was done by John Brown and his men, in their unsuccessful attack on slavery.

Now, on the other hand, Mr. Trumbull, of Illinois, offers an amendment, also to inquire into the capture of the U. S. arsenal at Liberty, Mo., by the border ruffians, in their unsuccessful attack on Freedom in Kansas. The particulars of this case were briefly as follows, according to the statement of Capt. Leonard, from whom they seized the arsenal:

On the 4th of December, 1855, Capt. Leonard received a call from Judge T. V. Thompson at the United States arsenal at Liberty, which town is situated near the Missouri river, on the western border of the State, within a few miles of Kansas. While showing his visitor through the arsenal, he observed a number of men outside, but was forcibly stopped when he undertook to ascertain what they wanted. The Judge and others then said there were troubles in Kansas, and they wanted arms. He indignantly refused them, which, however, had no effect. The mob proceeded to break open the inside doors, and took out three six-pounders, some swords, pistols, rifles and ammunition, powder, balls, &c., as much as they wanted. Capt. Leonard was forcibly confined in one of the rooms during this time. Six or eight days afterwards the guns were returned, but there were deficiencies in the number of rifles, swords and pistols and artillery harness restored.

That is, they brought back what they pleased, when they pleased, and kept the rest; but then this was for slavery, while the other was against it, which makes all the difference in the world.

A New Candidate.—Dear Uncle Toby: "A word fitly spoken, how good it is!" I was forcibly reminded of this excellent saying, on reading the proceedings of the House of Representatives, at Washington, Dec. 7. The still small voice of conscientious patriotism and common sense, heard in the lull of furious, senseless debate, is delightful as the sight of "apples of gold" through the meshes of "network of silver."

All honor to Mr. Nelson of Tenn. I know nothing of his antecedents, but be they what they may, (most probably good,) he has evidently come to Congress with the right mind and feeling, to do his duty, his whole duty as a legislator for the country, the whole country—not as a partizan, not as the gamecock of his constituents—but with spirit manly, good sense clear, good temper manifest, admirable, good-natured self-possession, and thus far the Webster redivivus of the present Congress. The Union demands just such men at this portentous crisis. And should the mere wranglers for party, both North and South, hereafter find it difficult to fix upon a satisfactory candidate for the Presidency, let them turn in their perplexity to the name of Nelson—a personage who exhibits the true (not Washington, but) Gen. Washington stamp of character, and who seems to my mind designated by Providence as the fit man for his successor. A Recluse Looker on.

☞ A secret Democratic committee is said to be at the bottom of the agitation in the House of Representatives, with the design of uniting the Southern opposition with the Administration men. The Democratic letter-writers admit the existence of this committee. It must have been somewhat troubled at the skirmish between Nelson and Pryor.

☞ Hickling, Swan & Brewer, of Boston, the enterprising publishers of Worcester's Great Dictionary, have an advertisement of that work, including the names of subscribers, which occupies the entire outside (14 columns in small type) of the Boston Courier of Friday evening—and also 7 columns of the Saturday evening's paper.

It has some of the highest recommendations; among them, one from Prof. Hoyt, formerly of Exeter, and one from Edward Everett. And it is doubtless one of the best works, in a department where perfection is impossible.

☞ Gentleman George, as Barrett, the actor, once manager of the Broadway and other theatres, used to be called, is living in Philadelphia, with four or five children, in a state of destitution.

☞ The entire Republican State ticket in Kansas is elected by over 3000 majority.

Helderman, Democrat, for Congress, runs ahead of his ticket so far.

☞ The new volume of the Atlantic Monthly will contain a romance by Dr. Holmes, called "The Professor's Story."

An exchange says—"The women ought to take a pledge not to kiss a man who uses tobacco—it would soon break up the practice."

From Hayti.—We learn from the New York Post that the corps Legislatif have decreed the establishment at Port au Prince, with branches at Cape Haytien, Cayes, Gonaives, Jeranie, Jaemel and Port au Paix, of a bank, with a capital of five million dollars, and privilege of increasing this capital. The bank will be under government control, the officers to be named by the President, and the loans to be made only to agriculturalists and others interested in the tillage of the soil. The bank is intended expressly for the benefit of this class.

The President has decreed that all public works, the expense of which shall exceed two millions of dollars, national money, shall be referred to the people at an election.

The Feuille de Commerce gives a rather doleful picture of Hayti morals, and says the police should be charged with the suppression of the public obscenity, both of words and actions, that disgrace the streets.

Lotteries have been established with the permission of the government. The drawing of the "Grand Lottery of Divine Providence" took place Nov. 3d, at Jacmel. An insurance company had been started under the same irreverent title of "The Divine Providence Insurance Company."

☞ The U. S. Senate was not in session on Friday, Dec. 9. The Democratic Senators were in conference, to arrange the standing committees. They will be nearly the same as last session, and will have to be voted on by the Senate.

In the House, there was a cross-grained debate between Messrs. Kellogg, Logan, Clark of Mo., Clark of N. Y., Haskin and others.

Mr. Logan addressed a few remarks to the anti-Lecompton Democrats, urging them to act with the Democratic party, and let past issues be buried in oblivion.

Mr. Clark (N. Y.)—Will the gentleman inform me whether he approves the territorial policy of the administration?

Mr. Logan—I repeat, let past issues be buried in oblivion. You know the position taken by Mr. Douglas in Illinois, and you know he was triumphantly elected. That is enough.

Mr. Clark: Woul dthe Democratic nominee for Speaker so organize, that Kansas shall be admitted without restrictions?

Mr. Logan—I never asked him that question. It never entered my mind. I have entire confidence in the Democratic nominee. Mr. Logan said he was about 28 years old, and had lived long enough to discover that the Democratic party never does wrong. (Laughter.) He had never known the Democratic party, in National Convention, to endorse a platform that was not consistent with his views. Having that confidence, he would not anticipate what they might do, but say that he would vote for the nominee of that Convention any how.

Mr. Haskin—I will not. I will ask another question: Does the gentleman believe that the Territorial Legislature of Kansas could exclude slavery or abolish it?

Mr. Logan—I profess to be a Democrat, neither Lecompton nor anti-Lecompton. As I have said, I have buried all old party issues. I claim to be a Democrat. I am for Stephen A. Douglas for President of the United States, first, last and all the time.

Mr. Haskin said—I came here as an independent man, with no collar round my neck. If the Republicans put themselves on the popular sovereignty doctrine, which believes in opposing the infamous extravagance and gross corruption of this administration, I would sooner co-operate with them than with those who go with the gentlemen from the South in supporting a fraudulent Constitution, for the purpose of bringing a slave State into the Union.

Mr. Stanton of Ohio obtained the floor, but was willing to yield it if the House desired to vote for the election of a Speaker, provided he could subsequently have the floor.

Mr. Winslow, with that view, moved that the House now proceed to the election of Speaker. Agreed to.

The result was: Whole number of votes, 231; Necessary to a choice, 116; Mr. Sherman, 110; Mr. Bocock, 88; Mr. Gilmer, 20; Scattering, 13.

Mr. Hickman of Pa. offered a resolution for the adoption of the plurality rule, which was declared out of order.

Mr. Winslow moved an adjournment till Monday, negatived by 25 majority.

A motion was made to adjourn till Saturday, and defeated by the same vote.

Mr. Hickman again attempted to offer his resolution, when, at 20 minutes past 4, the House adjourned.

☞ A Washington dispatch, of Nov. 9, says:—

Mr. Hickman, in the House, will again endeavor to-morrow to press the adoption of the plurality rule to effect the election of a Speaker, but at this stage of the proceedings there does not seem any prospect of its adoption, as the opponents of Mr. Sherman will vigorously resist its introduction.

Some damage was done to Brown's Hotel to-night, owing to a defective fire-flue. At one time the entire building was considered to be in imminent danger. Great excitement prevailed among members of Congress, and other guests, the larger part of whom had their baggage removed, but afterwards returned to their quarters.

☞ A singular bankruptcy case is being heard in the District Court at Newcastle, Eng. A bankrupt, while passing through the court, received the sum of £400 as compensation for injuries received on the railway. This sum the assignees claim, but the bankrupt conceives that he is entitled to it as private property. The Commissioner has reserved his judgement.

To resort to drunkenness to ease a troubled mind, is like attempting to cure melancholy with madness.

Among the very large number of Newspapers that I furnish, I will call particular attention to but two—THE NEW YORK LEDGER—a paper that excels all others in enterprise and ability—The Hon. Edward Everett will continue to write for the Ledger, together with all the best talent in the world. THE NEW YORK TRIBUNE, the best paper in the world, for the news.

In calling the attention of the public to my list of Magazines and Newspapers, I would caution all against subscribing for Magazines, Newspapers, or other works, through irresponsible and transient persons, or travelling agents; for in nine cases out of ten you will be swindled and cheated.

If you wish to take any Magazine or newspaper, subscribe of some responsible agent in town. Hundreds of dollars are lost every year by subscribing for works of strangers and travelling agents, and by being induced to subscribe by the thousands of contrivances to cheat the public—such as Art Unions, Premiums, Cosmopolitan Art Associations, and various humbugs to gull the unwary. Keep clear of these, and pay your money to those whom you know to be responsible. The subscriber has been in the business fifteen years, and will guarantee to furnish any publication as cheap as can be obtained.

Catarrhal Cough.

This insidious and annoying symptom, so difficult to treat, depends on a subacute inflammation of the air-passages, which is apt to end in chronic ulceration and a form of consumption. The mucous membrane of the air-passages is peculiarly susceptible to the healing influences of the PERUVIAN SYRUP, as the testimonials of some of our first citizens show.

Dr. Hostetter's Bitters have received the warmest encomiums from the press and people throughout the Union. As a valuable tonic for the cure of Dyspepsia, Flatulence, Constipation and general nervous debility, it cannot be approached. Every day new cases of its great effect are chronicled through our public journals. There is nothing equal to the enjoyment, to that which the afflicted experience when using this valuable specific. Its mild tone, its sure and vigorous action upon a disordered stomach, and the cleansing of the entire human body should recommend it to all classes of our community. All that will be necessary to convince the skeptical of its healthy effects, is to purchase a bottle and be convinced.

Sold by druggists and dealers generally, everywhere.

Among the restoratives which Nature has supplied to relieve the afflictions of humanity there is no more favorite one for a certain class of diseases than the "medicinal gum" of the Wild Cherry Tree; but however valuable it is, its power to heal, to soothe, to relieve, and to cure, is enhanced ten-fold by scientific and judicious combination with other ingredients, in themselves of equal worth. This happy mingling exists in that

Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry,

Whose value in curing Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Whooping Cough, Croup, Asthma, Pulmonary Affection and Incipient Consumption, is inestimable.

HOME TESTIMONY.

Boston, April 18, 1852.
No. 48 Union St.

Mr. Seth W. Fowle,—Dear Sir:—Your invaluable medicine, I can truly say, has literally snatched me from the grave. Last July I was attacked by a sudden cold, which resulted in a very severe Cough, with violent pains in the side and chest. I became so much reduced, that my friends frankly told me that I must die. At this crisis, I heard of Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, and immediately sent for a bottle. The effect produced was indeed wonderful. My physician, one of the most respectable in Boston, who had previously told me that a cure was hopeless, came in, and I informed him what I had taken. He examined the Balsam, and advised me to continue the use of it, since which time I have continued to improve daily; and the same physician who had given me up, told me, a few days since, that I might yet live many years.

Respectfully, MARY ROWE.

We can cheerfully testify to the truth of the above statement, Mrs. Rowe having been an inmate of our family. WILLIAM DENNETT.

PURE LIQUORS
—FOR—FAMILY
—AND—
MEDICINAL PURPOSES!

NO species of deception and fraud should receive stronger public condemnation than that imposing upon the sick with

Adulterated and Poisonous Liquors!

The market is flooded with these adulterated poisons. They have found their way into every State, City, Town and Village in the country, and are carrying incurable insanity to the victims of these terrible agents.

In consequence of the startling developments in regard to

STATE AGENCY LIQUORS,

and the almost universal distrust which now prevails, and to the end that confidence may be restored, we come before the public, pledging our reputation to supply

UNADULTERATED LIQUORS
EXPRESSLY FOR
MEDICINAL PURPOSES.

In asking the confidence of those who have been so outrageously imposed upon by the POISONOUS COMPOUNDS of "LICENSED POLITICAL CHEATS," we would refer to our antecedents for the past eighty years, and we trust that our established reputation abundantly vindicates our claims to public confidence.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

"The Bininger, 338 Broadway, have a very high reputation to sustain, as the oldest and best house in New York."—Home Journal.

"The house of A. M. Bininger & Co., No. 338 Broadway, has sustained, for a period of eight years, a reputation that may well be envied."—N. Y. Evening Post.

"The name of A. M. Bininger & Co. is a guarantee of the exact and literal truth of whatever they represent."—N. Y. Com. Advertiser.

"The importing house of A. M. Bininger & Co., No. 338 Broadway, is conducted upon principles of integrity, fairness, and the highest honor."—N. Y. Evening Express.

To Druggists, Town Agents and Physicians,

desirous of purchasing liquors of undoubted purity, we would say that our House has made a specialty of selling PURE, UNADULTERATED liquors for Medicinal purposes, and we claim that they are superior to anything now before the public.

With these assurances on our part, we name a few of our bottled goods, which are now freely prescribed by the faculty

BININGER'S
GENUINE COGNAC BRANDY.

The infamous practice of adultering Brandies having become so common that a genuine article is the exception, it is of vital importance to those requiring it for family use, and invalids, that they should be of undoubted purity and efficacy. With a view to meeting the popular demand for a reliable Brandy in its natural state, free from alcoholic flavor and impurities, and fully appreciating the fact that it is often recommended by the Medical Faculty as a sustaining stimulant, when all other remedies fail, we are now bottling and selling at reasonable rates a Brandy of our own importation, from one of the most respectable houses in France, and known as "Bininger's Genuine Cognac Brandy." It is mild, delicate and fruity, and is designed to be always uniform in quality and character.

BININGER'S
OLD LONDON DOCK GIN

has been a favorite with the Profession for many years. For all cases of Gravel it will certainly work a cure, and if taken as a preventive, will remove all possible sediment. It is invaluable in females in diseases peculiar to their sex, and in cases of tendency to Phthisis or Consumption will often ward off that fell disease.

BININGER'S
OLD KENTUCKY BOURBON.

Being distilled in 1848, and manufactured expressly for us with great care, it can be relied upon as a strictly pure stimulant, and peculiarly effective for the treatment of Lung Complaints, Dyspepsia, Derangement of the Stomach, Nervousness, &c.

BININGER'S
HEIDELBERG BRANNTWEIN.

Since its introduction into this country it has received the professional endorsement of our eminent physicians, for the effective treatment of Dyspepsia, Gravel, Rheumatism, Dropsy, Bladder Complaints, Suppression of the Menses, Nervousness, Derangement of the Stomach, General Debility, etc.

BININGER'S
OLD DOMINION WHEAT TONIC

For Family and Medicinal Use.

This article has received the highest encomiums from eminent medical authorities as possessing qualities that are absolutely PATTERNS; the Schiedam renders it invaluable to those who are suffering from Consumption, Lung Complaints, Bronchitis, Impaired Strength, Lack of Vital Energy, &c.

IMPROVED STREETS.—Messrs. Editors: I would suggest to the new City Government, shortly to be organized, the propriety and wisdom of having but one Street and Road Commissioner, who shall devote his whole time to the business, and be paid proper wages for it, say $600 per annum. This change, if made so as to operate this year, must be made before that officer is chosen.

Then, let the City Council make, besides the usual assessment for repairs of streets and roads,—an appropriation of $2000 or $3000 for grading and paving streets, (like Deer street and part of Pleasant street,) beginning with the worst and most travelled streets,—and in this way we might spend our highway tax economically and to good purpose. HOMO.

THE LYCEUM.

Rev. J. G. Adams, of Worcester, one of the most talented and eloquent of the absent sons of Portsmouth, is to lecture, this Monday Evening, Dec. 12th.

"Grace Greenwood," of Philadelphia, is to deliver her celebrated lecture on "The Heroic in Common Life," on Tuesday Evening, Dec. 13th.

Tickets for the rest of the Course, only 50 cents; for each evening, 25 cents.

A splendid new seven-octave Piano-Forte, from Hallet, Davis & Co., Boston, has been placed in the Temple; and good playing will be provided at the remaining lectures.

☞ The man who was drowned from schooner Clio, on Rye Beach, was named Wm. Bradford. His age was 19, and he belonged to Calais, Me.

NEW YORK, Dec. 10. — A meeting to raise money for the relief of the families of John Brown and his dead sons, will be held at the Cooper Institute on Thursday evening next. Ralph Waldo Emerson, Wendell Phillips and Rev. Dr. Cheever will be among the speakers.

The call for the meeting of citizens to express sympathies of New York with the people of the South, and to attest the popular devotion to the Union, was issued last evening. The place and time are still undetermined.

Fears are entertained in Canada for the permanency of the Canadian line of steamers to Liverpool, in consequence of the loss of the Indian, which vessel was uninsured. The Canadians are using means to obtain a subsidy from government like that accorded the Cunarders, without which it is feared the enterprise will be abandoned.

☞ The funeral of John Brown took place at North Elba on Thursday. The body was borne from his house by six of his neighbors to a rock near by, under the shadow of which he had directed it to be laid. Religious services were previously had at the house, in which Rev. Mr. Young of Burlington, Vt. officiated. Remarks were made by J. M. McKim of Philadelphia, and Wendell Phillips.

AFRAID OF A REPUBLICAN PRESIDENT.—Charleston, Dec. 8.—A joint committee of the Mississippi Legislature have reported a resolution to the effect that if a Republican President of the United States be elected, the Governor be requested to convene the Legislature, provided other Southern States adopt similar measures, with a view of self protection.

☞ Fowler & Wells, publishers, New York, have sent us a copy of the "Mechanics and Inventors' Pocket Almanac for 1860"—a very neat and useful manual, especially for inventors.

FROM PIKE'S PEAK.—St. Louis, Dec. 9. The Pike's Peak express of the 2d, has reached Leavenworth, with $800 worth of gold dust, and a large mail. Severe weather had set in. Mining had generally been abandoned for the season. Heavy snow storms had occurred on the plains.

MURDER IN NORFOLK, VA.—Norfolk, Va., Dec. 9.—Virginius Leonard, aged 11 years, son of Mr. Leonard, editor of the Argus, of this city, was found murdered to-night, in a room at the National Hotel. He had received a deep stab in the neck. The excitement caused by this event is very great. No arrests have yet been made.

TROPHY. — The Detroit Tribune says that an elderly man, named Jeremiah Rogers, was found dead in a field near the village of Coldwater, Mich., on Sunday, the 18th ult. The verdict of the coroner's jury was, "Death from whisky and exposure."

"I do not say every smoker or chewer is a blackguard; but show me a blackguard and I will show you a lover of tobacco, and I will show you two white blackbirds."—Horace Greeley.

☞ Schooner New York, and packet Davis, with lumber, for Newburyport, went ashore on Plum Island during the storm of Sunday, Dec. 6.

DECLINE OF FEMALE CONVERSATION. An English writer declares that the women of our day do not "converse," and sensibly attributes it to the multiplicity of studies and the evening confinement to books.

☞ The John Brown fund has already reached nearly $2000. His family will probably get from various sources at least $10,000. A writer in the N. Y. Tribune suggests a $2000 monument to the memory of Brown.

A disagreeable old bachelor says the reason why Adam was put to sleep before the creation of Eve from his rib, lay in the fact that if he had been awake he never would have consented to any such outrage upon his future peace.

CHECK-REINS.—A check-rein is made to keep a horse's head off the ground, and unless we wish to have our horse cut his fodder as he travels, or at the first corner he stops, we shall continue to use it. It need not be foolishly short, or cruelly tight; but of some reasonable length, it is quite convenient, going or standing, to keep the beast's head where it rightly belongs.—Country Gentleman.

We copy the above to show its absurdity. The writer can know nothing of either horses or harness, or he would know that good ones do not require a check-rein; they will carry their heads high enough, and much more gracefully without either a check-rein, or a martingale, which is equally foolish. These appendages have long ago been abandoned in other countries, and we hope will soon be in this.—Spirit of the Times.

YOUNG MEN of America! arbiters of human rights, and the hope of your country and liberty;—by the sentiment of humanity, and the promptings of ambition! by all that is loved in hope and all that is feared in retribution, let us persuade you to drop the wine cup from that yet firm right hand, and in its stead take the pen of truth and inscribe your names among the noble band of Templars. You cannot possible gain anything, by refusing to join us; and you may lose all. If you will only follow the promptings of your own judgement—your own conviction, we are contented. Soon we will meet you in the Temple. —Temperance Banner.

REFORM SCHOOL FARM.—Here are the figures of the crops raised on the farm at the Reform School in Manchester:—658 bushels of corn; 700 of potatoes; 80 of carrots; 75 of turnips; 15 of white beans; 500 heads of cabbage; 40 bushels of beets, and 30 tons of hay.

ABSURDITIES. — To attempt to borrow money on the plea of extreme poverty.—To make your servants tell lies for you, and afterwards be angry because they tell lies for themselves.—To tell your own secrets, and believe other people will keep them.—To render a man a service voluntarily, and expect him to be grateful for it.

☞ At an exhibition of wild beasts in Tuam, Eng., an elephant put his trunk into the pocket of one of the bystanders and abstracted a small account book contained therein. Before a rescue could be effected he dropped it into his capacious jaws and had it instantly swallowed.

Itinerant teachers, peddlers, drummers, &c., are so numerous in Frederick County, Md., that the people fear a second Harper's Ferry affair, and have set a watch over the barracks, where 700 stands of arms are deposited, lest they should be broken into or taken possession of.

☞ The Republican Senators at Washington have had a caucus for regular organization, at which they agreed to go in a body for Senator Mason's resolution. Mr. Hale of New Hampshire was elected permanent Chairman, and Dixon of Connecticut, Secretary.

It is a poetic peculiarity of watch-making (at Waltham at least,) that the more delicate fingering of woman is found to work best at it. Of the large number of persons employed in the factory, more than half, if I observed rightly, were of the sisterhood left idle by the sewing machine—a happy compensation of Providence! Gradually, in this way, probably, the in-door employments of all trades and vocations that do not require muscular strength, will be given over to woman.—N. P. Willis.

CONTENT.

My conscience is my crown,
Contented thoughts my rest;
My heart is happy in itself,
My bliss is in my breast.
Enough I reckon wealth,
A mean the surest lot;
That lies too high for base contempt,
Too low for envy's shot.
—Robert Southwell.

With all the intellectual training of the day, there never was a greater dearth of intellectual conversation.

STOVE STORE REMOVED.

URIAH BLAISDELL

Has removed his Stove and Furnishing Establishment one door north, to the epacious and convenient store

Nos. 43 & 45 Market Street,

where he is receiving and arranging a large and valuable Stock of

STOVES, TIN WARE, &c.,

Which he offers for sale at wholesale and retail, at very low prices. He has a great variety of the best and most popular Stoves, among which are:

1. The Stewart Cook Stove, with the latest improvements. This is an air-tight Cook Stove, for Wood or Coal; it has moveable coverings, which can confine the heat in the stove, or let it out into the room; has a reservoir of hot water 10 or 20 gallons, and a tin closet beneath;—a top cover, which is a great institution for baking, and will keep a coal fire all night; it has a Dutch Oven for roasting in front of the Stove;—and it is every way a most convenient and durable Stove. There are 4 sizes.

The following recommendation of Stewart's Stove, is from an eminent engineer, and must be satisfactory to all who wish to understand the value of this excellent Stove:

Portsmouth, N. H., Nov. 5, 1859.

Mr. Blaisdell:—Seven years ago I moved to this city, and sold, before I came, a "Stewart's Air Tight Cooking Stove," which I had used about five years. During that time no repairs or expense had been made upon it. Since I have been here I have tried the various Cooking Stoves in use, and I think for economy and durability the "Stewart" excels them all. I wish you would take away the Stove I now have from my house, and set up one of Stewart's as soon as you can. Your ob't servant,

B. F. CHANDLER.

2. Boston & Maine Cook Stove;
3. White Mountain;
4. Empire State;
5. Enterprise;

DEDICATION.—The new and neat Chapel of the First Methodist Episcopal Society in Portsmouth, located in Daniel street, was dedicated on Tuesday afternoon last. The house was crowded. The invocation was by Rev. Mr. Medbery. The reading of the scriptures by Rev. Mr. Guernsey, of Greenland. After prayer by Rev. Mr. Hall, the following original dedicatory ode was sung:

Jehovah! Great I Am! to thee
This house we dedicate;
To thy disciples may it be
God's house and heaven's gate.
Within these walls, O deign to show
The wonders of thy love;
Grant us a foretaste here below
Of richer joys above.
Come with thy faithful children, Lord,
Who for thy worship meet:
Here may the contrite sinner mourn,
And bow at Jesus' feet.
Within these consecrated walls
May thine own Spirit dwell;
And songs of praise, from new-born souls,
The heavenly anthems swell.

The sermon, by Rev. Mr. Leavitt, was historical and very interesting. The venerable Rev. John Adams, of Greenland, made some closing remarks, pertinent to the occasion. There were good musical performances interspersed, under the direction of Mr. G. Parkinson, chorister of the Society.

The house is about 38 feet square—15 feet story, with seats for between 250 and 300. The whole expenses about $1480—ground rent $60 a year. Messrs. John Trundy, Wm. F. Laighton and John H. Bailey, building committee.

Mr. Brewster,—I notice in your last Journal an advertisement by order of the Mayor and Aldermen for sealed proposals until the 15th inst. for building a School House on Cabot street at the place where the old school house now stands, the contractor to have the old building, &c.

The appearance of this notice within three weeks of the time when the entire board, with a single exception, retire from office, must strike the minds of others as it did my own, as singular.—Would it not have been quite as well for them after having been sorely exercised up n this Cabot street school house all the year till now, without accomplishing anything, quietly to leave the whole thing to their successors, and not disquiet the closing hours of their public life with proposals of very questionable legality?

It may not be amiss for all whose attention may be called to this advertisement, to know that there are two sets of plans and specifications in the Mayor's office for this Cabot st. school house, one adopted by the Common Council, and another by the Mayor and Aldermen, but no one adopted by a concurrent vote of both boards as provided in the City charter, sec. 15. Another fact, well to be known, is that the vote to build a school house passed by the Common Council has an express proviso that said house when completed shall not exceed in cost the sum of forty-five hundred dollars, which sum has been appropriated and raised. And another fact which may properly be known, is, that the Common Council have never voted to sell, give, or bargain away, in any manner, the old brick school house, or remove it. If any one supposes that the Mayor and Alderman have the power or right thus to dispose of city property as they indicate in their advertisement, I would recommend that he should read the 20th sec. of the city charter.

Another consideration may be added here, viz. the advertisement now, for proposals to build a school house, which must be built under the next City Government, has such a look of an attempt to forestall their actions in this regard, that unless the action taken by the present Mayor and Aldermen were clearly in the right, and authorized by the city charter, any contracts they may make, we think would stand a good chance to be set aside. PERSISTENCE.

CITY ACCOUNTS.—All who have any demands against the City should bear in mind that the financial year closes with the present month, and that such accounts as are connected with the present year should be presented forthwith, or they may have to await some months before they are adjusted.

For many years, the library which was collected by our beloved townsmen the late John W. Foster, was kept in the avenue to our prison.—Those books have been used up. The City Missionary has kept the jail supplied with bibles, but there is a scarcity of other books, which it is only necessary to state to the public to have the want supplied. Books sent to the City Missionary for this purpose, or left at the store of Mr. J. B. Adams, will be put within the reach of the Prisoners.

MR. PETTES'S POEM.—We have rarely listened with more gratification to a poetical production of one hour and a quarter's length, than to the "Silver Lining" of George W. Pettes, Esq. of Boston, delivered at our Lyceum on Tuesday evening. The production abounded in brilliant images, genuine wit and pungent satire. That silver lining was not always visible,—there were some clouds of obscurity intervening, but now and then the cloud would for a time show us its bright side, and then we were left to enjoy the effects of its influence, as mounted on his Pegasus he passed on and took us along, now over a flowery pathway of spring, anon directing our attention to the diamond crystals spread in winter's cold track. And then he not only draws our attention to the Northern Lights, but by his glowing description awakens in us a new idea of their beauty, long familiar though they may have been to our vision. The poetic idea of a broad church far excelled the conception of the builders of the Great Eastern: a church broad enough to reach across the Atlantic—its length not known!

We hope at some future time the 'silver-lining' of the poet's presence will again cheer a Portsmouth audience.

PATRIOTIC.—Clergymen took occasion, very generally, on Thanksgiving day, to speak on matters pertaining to the present state of the country; and some of them uttered truly patriotic statements. We subjoin an extract from the address on patriotism, delivered by Rev. Dr. Hawks, of Calvary Church, N. Y. Its sentiments will find an echo in every patriotic htart. Let the revilers of their country and its institutions read and ponder upon the rebuke which he administers to them—let all good citizens read and take courage to do their duty in this trying crisis of their country's history:

"Are there none who openly condemn the Constitution of their country—none who, by the exercise of a corruption that scarcely has shame enough to keep itself out of sight, pervert it from its plain declarations and legitimate interpretations? Are there none who have been willing and ready to convert executive powers into judicial, and legislative into executive? And how speak some men now of that Union, of which our fathers (taught by revolutionary experience) thought so much? They had purchased it for their children with their blood; and that blood flowed from Northern and Southern veins alike; it made one common pool on the battle-field; they knew that upon union alone depended a strong, proud, national existence. Do all their sons adhere to this opinion of their fathers; or, do they trample on their memories and despise their wisdom? Let facts answer. What means the angry and insulting language of portions of the press both North and South toward each other?—Why do flippant sneers and taunting insinuations, and insidious affectations of candor and false assertions and vulgar vituperation, form so much of the editorial staple of certain prints? Is it thought to show skill of fence in intellectual gladiatorship? Whether it be quite as clever writing as its authors suppose may perhaps admit of doubt; but grant that it is, the sober American who has no personal vanity of authorship involved, may well ask whether it is patriotic or wise, thus to furnish fuel to the flame of mutual exasperation already burning, alas! too brightly; or to sacrifice the interests and happiness of our country to the gratification of some author's wish to attain celebrity as the writer of insulting sneers and trenchant irony. Our country is surely worth more to us than the gratification of the personal vanity of any man, and while it is cheerfully conceded that the press should be free, and may often furnish information and instruction to the public mind, yet it would be hard to show any lawful power it possesses to assume over it dictation or control. The mode of saying may be often more offensive than that which is said; and there is a mode which does not conduce to union, because its tendency is to destroy fraternal feeling. If any American citizen wishes to be without a country that can command the respect of the civilized world, let him contribute his aid to dissolve the Union of these United States. In the fulfillment of his unpatriotic purposes he will find his punishment, for he will have ruined himself. He will be crushed and bruised under the edifice he has assisted to undermine. Our country is exempted (at least for the present) from the intense convulsions of revolution,—how long it may be before opposing hosts may be marshaled on the field of carnage depends, under God, on the calmness, the courage, the prudence and the patriotism of the wise, the thoughtful and the good men of all the parties of the Union, who love their country better than they do any party, and who have the sense to appreciate its value to the world and to themselves."

The splendid ship Sierra Nevada, now loading at Boston for San Francisco, we learn, was sold for $40,000; she cost $105,000, and still rates A 1. She is 1942 tons register. Is built of the best New Hampshire oak, is copper fastened and through treenailed—has three decks, Howes' rig, and has been recently coppered. Mr Edward Mott Robinson, of New Bedford, bought her. The price paid for such a splendid ship ought to be a warning to those who are building upon speculation.—Boston Post.

NO REPUDIATION ALLOWED.—George W. Dobbin recovered a verdict for $7,000 in the United States Circuit Court at Pittsburgh, on Monday, against Alleghany county, Pa, for interest on bonds issued to the Pittsburgh and Connellsville and Pittsburgh and Steubenville Railroad Companies.—Like verdicts were entered in six other similar cases.

Mount Vesuvius is still blazing away. Resina and Portica are now thought to be in danger.

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA,

A compound remedy in which we have labored to produce the most effectual alterative that can be made. It is a concentrated extract of Para Sarsaparilla, of combined with other substances of still greater alterative power as to afford an effective antidote for the diseases Sarsaparilla is reputed to cure. It is believed that such a remedy is wanted by those who suffer from Strumous complaints, and that one which will a complish their cure must be of immense service to this large class of our afflicted fellow citizens. How completely this compound will do it, has been proven by experiment on many of the worst cases to be found in the following complaints:—

SCROFULA AND SCROFULOUS COMPLAINTS, ERUPTIONS AND ERUPTIVE DISEASES, ULCERS, PIMPLES, BLOTCHES, TUMORS, SALT RHEUM, SCALD HEAD, SYPHILIS AND SYPHILITIC AFFECTIONS, MERCURIAL DISEASE, DROPSY, NEURALGIA OR TIC DOULOUREUX, DEBILITY, DYSPEPSIA AND INDIGESTION, ERYSIPELAS, ROSE OR ST. ANTHONY'S FIRE, and indeed the whole class of complaints arising from IMPURITY OF THE BLOOD.

This compound will be found a great promoter of health, when taken in the spring, to expel the foul humors which fester in the blood at that season of the year. By the timely expulsion of them many rankling disorders are nipped in the bud.—Multitudes can, by the aid of this remedy, spare themselves from the endurance of foul eruptions and ulcerous sores, through which the system will strive to rid itself of corruptions, if not assisted to do this through the natural channels of the body by an alterative medicine. Cleanse out the vitiated blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in pimples, eruptions or sores;—cleanse it when you find it is obstructed or sluggish in the veins; cleanse it whenever it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Even where no particular disorder is felt, people enjoy better health, and live live longer, for cleansing the blood. Keep the blood healthy, and all is well; but with the pabulum of life disordered, there can be no lasting health. Sooner or later something must go wrong, and the great machinery of life is disordered or overthrown.

Sarsaparilla has, and deserves much, the reputation of accomplishing these ends. But the world has been egregiously deceived by preparations of it, partly because the drug alone has not all the virtue that is claimed for it, but more because many preparations, pretending to be concentrated extracts of it contain but little of the virtue of Sarsaparilla, or anything else.

During late years the public have been misled by large bottles, pretending to give a quart of Extract of Sarparilla for one dollar. Most of these have been frauds upon the sick, for they not only contain little, if any, Sarsaparilla, but often no curative properties whatever. Aence bitter and painful disappointment has followed the use of the various extracts of Sarsaparilla which flood the market, until the article itself is justlyd espised, and has become synonymous with the term humbug and cheat. Still we call this compound Sarsaparilla, and intend to supply such a remedy as shall rescue the name from the load of obloquy which rests upon it. And we think we have grounds for believing it has virtues which are irresistible by the ordinary run of the diseases it is intended to cure. In order to secure their complete eradication from the system, the remedy should be judiciously taken according to directions on the bottle.

PREPARED BY
DR. J. C. AYER & CO.,
LOWELL, MASS.

PRICE, $1 PER BOTTLE; SIX BOTTLES FOR $5.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral

Has won for itself such a renown for the cure of every variety of Throat and Lung Complaint, that it is entirely unnecessary for us to recount the evidence of its virtues, wherever it has been employed. As it has long been in constant use throughout this section, we need not do more tean assure the people its quality is kept up to the best it ever has been, and that it may be relied on to do for their relief all it has ever been found to do.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills,

Costiveness, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Indigestion Dysentery, Foul Stomach, Erysipelas, Headache, Piles, Rheumatism, Eruptions and Skin Diseases, Liver Complaint, Dropsy, Tetter, Tumors and Salt Rheum, Worms, Gout, Neuralgia, as a dinner Pill, and for Purifying the blood.

They are sugar-coated, so that the most sensitive can take them pleasantly, and they are the best aperient in the world for all the purposes of a family physic.

Price, 25 cents per box; five boxes for $1.

Great numbers of Clergymen, Physicians, Statesmen and eminent personages, have lent their names to certify the unparalleled usefulness of these remedies, but our space here will not permit the insertion of them. The Agent below named furnishes gratis our American Almanac, in which they are given; with also full descriptions of the above complaints, and the treatment that should be followed for their cure.

Do not be put off by unprincipled dealers with other preparations they make more profit on.—Demand AYER'S, and take no other. The sick wan the best aid there is for them, and they should have it.

MRS. WINSLOW,

An experienced Nurse and Female Physician, presents to the attention of Mothers, her

SOOTHING SYRUP,
For Children Teething.

Which greatly facilitates the process of teething by softening the gums, reducing all inflammation—will allay ALL PAIN and spasmodic action, and is

SURE TO REGULATE THE BOWELS.

Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves, and

RELIEF AND HEALTH TO YOUR INFANTS.

We have put up and sold this article for over ten years, and can say, in confidence and truth, of it, what we have never been able to say of any other medicine,—NEVER HAS IT FAILED, IN A SINGLE INSTANCE, to EFFECT A CURE, when timely used. Never did we know an instance of dissatisfaction by any one who used it. On the contrary, all are delighted with it. We speak in strong terms of its great and unequalled efficacy and medical virtues. We speak, in this matter, what we do know, after ten years experience, and pledge our reputation for the fulfilment of what we here declare. In almost every instance where the infant is suffering from pain and exhaustion, relief will be found in fifteen or twenty minutes after the syrup is administered.

This valuable preparation is the prescription of one of the MOST EXPERIENCED and SKILLFUL NURSES in New England and has been used with never-failing success, in THOUSANDS OF CASES.

It not only relieves the child from pain, but invigorates the stomach and bowels, corrects acidity, and gives tone to the whole system. It will almost instantly relieve GRIPING IN THE BOWELS, AND WIND COLIC.

and overcome convulsions, which, if not speedily remedied, end in death. We believe it the BEST and surest REMEDY IN THE WORLD in all cases of DYSENTERY AND DIARRHEA IN CHILDREN, whether it arises from teething, or from any other cause. We would say to every mother who has a child suffering from any of the foregoing complaints—Do not let your own prejudices, or the prejudices of others, stand between your suffering child and the relief that will be SURE—yes, ABSOLUTELY SURE to follow the use of this medicine, if timely used. Full directions for using will accompany each bottle. None genuine unless the fac-simile of CURTIS & PERKINS, New York, is on the outside wrapper. Sold by Druggists throughout the world. Principal Office, No. 13 Cedar st. New York. Price only 25 cents per bottle.

DR. J. B. HUGHES,

Knowing that there are at this moment thousands of persons in the surrounding towns, surrendering their lives to the insidious inroads of certain dangerous maladies, who still suffer from the reluctance to make known their complaints, and consult a physician, he would state that any of his medicines will be sent by express or otherwise, to all who may order them, provided the true description of the disease be sent by letter and directed as above.

Full and explicit directions will accompany every package, and the most inviolable secresy preserved.

DR. HUGHES can with safety say during the last year of his practice in Boston, more than three hundred cases of disease which have been improperly treated by empyrics have come under his care, and more than three-fourths of this number are inscribed upon his books as perfect cures.

Patients treated by letter by addressing Dr. Hughes, post paid, and medicines sent all over the country, carefully concealed from scrutinizing friends.

Be particular in finding Dr. Hughes. Do not be lured from the right path, or be persuaded to try experiments with false and fictitious remedies at the expense of destroying what is the great pillar of life, a healthy constitution.

This medicine can only be obtained at the Office of Dr. HUGHES, 13 Howard street, Boston.

DR. J. B. HUGHES UNIVERSAL FEMALE RENOVATING PILLS. These pills are universally lauded in efficacy and superior virtue in regulating all female irregularities. Their action is specific and certain, producing relief in a short space of time. They are acknowledged to be the best in use.

The Dr. cautions the public to beware of impositions that are being practiced by advertising a spurious article under some spurious or fictitious name. They are entirely useless, having been got up by miserable pretenders who are entirely ignorant of the efficacy of medicines.

All who are in pursuit of the genuine article, had better call on the Dr. at his office, where they will be sure of getting the genuine—the only place in Boston where the genuine is for sale.

These pills can be sent to any part of the country with directions. Remember the number—13 Howard street, Boston.

P. S.—The best of accommodations furnished, with kind and attentive nurses if they wish, at a reasonable rate. 3 dly

A GAME DINNER.

Shortly after the war with Great Britain, an aristocratic English gentleman built a fine residence in the vicinity of Fort George on the Niagara frontier, and in accordance with the old country ideas of exclusiveness, he inclosed his grounds with a high tight fence.

Among the American soldiers was a kind of a queer chap, who stuttered terribly, and was very fond of hunting and who was always getting into some sort of mischief. One day he took a small boat and crossed over to the Canadian shore for a hunt. He wandered over several miles in the rear of Fort George without any game, and on his return seeing a crow on a tree within the inclosure of the aristocratic Englishman, he scaled the high fence, fired, and brought down his game. The Colonel witnessed the transaction, and advanced while our soldier was loading. He was very angry, but seeing the Yankee standing coolly with a loaded gun in his hand, he gulped down his passion for the moment, and merely asked him if he killed the crow. The soldier replied that he did.

"I am sorry," said the Colonel, "for he was a pet. By the way, that's a very pretty gun—will you be so kind as to let me look at it?"

The soldier complied with the request.—The Englisman took the gun, stepped back a few paces, took deliberate aim, and then broke forth in a tirade of abuse, concluding with an order to stoop down and take a bite of the crow, or he would blow his brains out. The soldier explained, apologized, and entreated. It was no use.

There was shoot in the Englisman's eye—there was no help for it—and the stuttering soldier stooped down and took a bit of crow, but swallow it he could not. Up came his breakfast—his dinner before—and it really appeared that he would throw up his toe-nails. The Englisman gloated on the misery of his victim, and smiled complacently at every additional heave.—When he got through vomiting and wiped his eyes, the colonel handed him his gun with the remark:—

"Now you rascal, that will teach you how to poach on a gentleman's inclosure."

The Yankee took his gun, and the colonel might have seen the devil in his eye if he had looked close. Stepping back he took deliberate aim at the heart of his host, and ordered him immediately to finish the crow. Angry expostulations, prayers and intreates were useless things. There was shoot in the American's eye then, as there had been in the English eye before There was no help at hand, and he took a bite of the crow. One bite was enough to send all the good dinners he had eaten lately, on the same journey with the garrison fare of the soldier; and while the Englishman was in an agony of sickness, Jonathan escaped to the other shore.

The next morning early, the commander of Fort Niagara was sitting in his quarters, when Col. ——— was announced.

"Sir," said the colonel, "I come to demand the punishment of one of your men, who yesterday entered my premises and committed a great outrage."

"We have five hundred men here, and i would be difficult for me to know who it is you mean," said the American officer.

The Englisman described him as a long, dangling, stuttering, stoop-shouldered devil.

"Ah! I know who you mean," said the officer, "he is always getting into mischief. Orderly, call Tom."

In a few moments Tom entered and stood all attention, as straight as his natural build would allow, while not a trace of emotion was visible in his countenance.

"Tom," said the officer, "do you know this gentleman?"

"Ye-ye-ye-es, sir."

"Where did you ever see him before?"

"I-I-I," said Tom, stuttering awfully, but retaining the grave expression natural to his face, "I di-di-di dined with him yesterday."

We believe Tom was not punished.

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

TUESDAY, DEC. 13, 1859.

NEWSPAPERS IN MAINE.—There are now published in Maine 5 daily papers; 2 tri-weeklies and 50 weeklies, making 58 in all. Of the whole number 16 are, or profess to be, Democratic; the remaining 42, with one exception, the Christian Mirror, are either Black Republican, or manifest from time to time, decided Brown Republican proclivities.—Bangor Union.

The Bangor Union is one of those which profess to be democratic, and the figures, as given by it, suggest these questions; viz.

Why is this disparity of numbers? Do not the Democrats read papers?

Are there no religious or literary, or farmer's papers, which do not take sides with black or brown?

We answer, that there is a large class of people in both parties who do read papers; there is also another large class who do not read them; and of this latter class, two-thirds belong to the democratic party.

As to the religious, literary, and miscellaneous papers, we do not see many of them from Maine,—but we are willing to take the Union's word for it, that they are anti-slavery in their leanings,—this being exactly what its assertions amount to.

We are obliged to infer then, either that democrats do not take such papers in numbers sufficient to control them in these matters, or else that anti-slavery sentiments are spreading over all parties in Maine.

It is, at all events, a remarkable fact, that while the republicans in Maine have about 10 or 12,000 majority only, they should have and maintain more than two-thirds of the papers.

HELPER'S BOOK.—Most readers of the debate in the House of Representatives, know that there has been some noise made about Helper's Crisis, and that Union loving men in the House have been warned not to vote for any man for Speaker, who recommended this book.

We have had the book for some time; and after a cursory examination had put it on the shelf as a book of reference. The great noise has induced us to take it down and look at it more carefully. It is full of strong facts, instructive tables, and authentic quotations. In short it is a terrible book to all who are afraid to look bad things full in the face,—but there is not a bit of disunion nor secession in it. So far from it, he says:—

"Our Motto is, The Abolition of Slavery, and the perpetuation of the American Union!"

Every voter would do well to get the book and read it for himself.

☞ Not many days ago, there came news from Washington, that "a dozen or more merchants travelling southward on business, were compelled to return in consequence of the excited feeling against northern men which exists throughout some of the southern states."

The Gloucester Telegraph remarks:

It occurred to us upon reading the announcement, that these northern men might possibly have been engaged in endeavoring to collect the money due to them from southern merchants, which would be sufficient explanation of the feeling against them. Certainly their business was not to sell goods, for we venture to express our belief that the south will condescend to take all the goods the north will sell upon credit.

SOUTH CAROLINA.—A dispatch from Columbia, S. C., states that in the Senate of that State on Tuesday, Mr. Rhett introduced a resolution declaring that this General Assembly deem it inexpedient for the people of South Carolina to enter into any caucus or convention with the people of the Northern States for the nomination of of candidates for the Presidency and Vice Presidency of these United States.

The Charleston Courier says that the Committee on Federal Relations in the Legislature of South Carolina on Wednesday, recommended the passage of resolutions reaffirming the position of the State, as expressed in the Convention of 1852, declaring her right to secede from the Federal Union, and that the people should make common cause with those of Virginia, and be prepared to sustain her in her vindication of the institutions of the South. The minority of the Committee report resolutions that the frontier States especially, and the Southern States generally may rely upon the aid of South Carolina in vindication of their rights, in or out of the Union, and that the military contingent fund be increased $200,000. The debate would take place next day.

☞ Fun, says Hall's Journal of Health, is worth more than physic, and whoever invents or discovers a new source of supply, deserves the name of a public benefactor; and whoever can write an article the most laughter-promoting and at the same time harmless, is worthy of our gratitude and respect.

If a wine-bibber is properly called a Bacchanalian, is not an inveterate smoker a tobacco-nalian?

A MARYLAND OPINION.

The following article from a late number of the Baltimore Patriot will be read with interest at the present time. The Patriot is one of the oldest and most conservative, as well as influential journals in Maryland, which has been for many years under the control of a direct descendant of President Monroe. The sentiments uttered are those of a majority of the intellectual men of the Southern States. The Patriot knows the sentiments of the South; its interest, pecuniary and political, its social relations, are Southern. No paper is better able to comprehend the position of the great political parties of this country, as at present divided; its sentiments therefore will, as they ought, strike home with peculiar emphasis:

We perceive that the Locofoco Dough-Faces in Boston, New York and Philadelphia propose holding meetings for the purpose of appeasing the wrath of Locofoco disunionists at the South, at the recent exhibitions of foolish sentimentalism for John Brown, by a handful, here and there, of Abolition disunionists in those cities.

If there is any character in the world that we have any contempt for, it is the dirt-eating Dough-Face of the free States. He has no real regard whatever for the South and its institutions, and yet, under the pretense of sympathy with them, he will proclaim himself our friend, keeping his eyes steadily all the while upon the pecuniary benefit to be derived therefrom.

He will do anything that Southern fire-eaters require of him, even to licking the very dust off their shoes; and though these partizans are perfectly aware of his hypocrisy, yet, strange to say, they affect to be gratified by the exhibition. Why is this? Because they hope to get his vote. This is the sum and substance of the whole operation, and, what is more, its real object. The Locofocos of the South demand the sacrifice, and the Locofocos of the North are ready to make it.

We all know that not a single resolution will be adopted at these forthcoming meetings, not one word spoken by any of their Dough-Face orators, that will express their real sentiments; and so far as the American party of Maryland are concerned, they want none of this make-believe sympathy.

Indeed they want no sympathy at all from anybody. They are a power in the State, not a "balance of power" party, and though they were cheated at the late election out of the majority in the counties, they mean to get it back next fall, without so so much as saying to the Locofocos, "By your leave." They are not to be deceived about the real sentiments of the people of the free States, and they don't want any Northern or Western man to eat dirt to please them. They don't ask any such degradation. What they want is the vote of the Northern and Western Opposition, by whatever name they call themselves, for a conservative Presidential ticket next fall.

As to slavery in Maryland, they can take care of that themselves, and as they hold opinions about that institution contrary to those entertained by people in the free States, they don't require of those people, as a prelude to a political union in the next Presidential election, the surrender of their manhood, or the profession of a lie on their lips about slavery. That's Locofoco tactics.

Away then, with the proposed doughface meetings in the three Eastern cities! The Americans of Maryland want no such exhibition of degradation to sustain them in maintaining the institution of slavery in this State. They ask no odds of any free State on this subject. They sustain slave labor, because it is their will so to do, and for no other reason. They seek no excuse for this exercise of their independent will.

So long as the American party have a voice in public affairs in Maryland, and can control her public action, no power can force her to leave the Union of these States, because the Northern and Western people choose to dislike slavery. They may talk against it till doomsday, and Maryland, will not care; but whenever any John Brown shall attempt an inroad into her borders, she is amply able to take care not only of herself and her slaves, but also her invaders, and that, too, not a la Wise.

Nor do the Americans of Maryland care what the locofoco disunionists of the South, or any of their fraternizers, say or think about them. She is in a position that enables her to say to both North and South:—hands off, stand back!—and what is more, she has the means and ability to enforce her will, without surrendering her reserved rights to the Federal Union. As Decatur said in relation to Baltimore city, "She gives graves to her invaders, and monuments to her defenders!"

So far as the American party of Maryland are concerned, then, the Northern Dough-Faces who are going to play the Pharisee and the fool to the South, may as well save their breath and their hypocrisy. We all know the value of their profession. They cannot make Maryland a Locofoco State next fall, do what they may, and we want no Dough Face votes, when the contest comes, for the candidates whom we shall support. We want the votes of American freemen, whether North, South, East or West, whose opposition to Locofocoism is as firm and unrelenting as ours is. We want nothing to do with Dough-Face sentiment.

The American party of Maryland know what they themselves think about slavery, and they are willing that the people of other States shall have their opinions about it too. They do not hold that a differece of opinion, on this or any other subject, is sufficient to keep the opponents of Locofocoism apart in the great struggle of next fall. Indeed they believe the expulsion of the Locofoco party from power, will be sure to result in excluding the question of slavery from politics entirely.

The incense, therefore, to burned this week on Locofoco altars in Boston, New York and Philadelphia, will not be a sweet smelling odor in the nostrils of Maryland Americans. They prefer the open hostility of enemies to the hypocrisy of such friends; but Maryland knows no enemies, North, South, East or West, except the Disunionists, and Abolition Locofocos, and them she is ready to war against to the death, whether here at home in our own city, or State, or in other States.

Catarrhal Cough.

This insidious and annoying symptom, so difficult to treat, depends on a subacute inflammation of the air-passages, which is apt to end in chronic ulceration and a form of consumption, The mucous membrane of the air-passages is peculiarly susceptible to the healing influences of the PERUVIAN SYRUP, as the testimonials of some of our first citizens show.

Dr. Hostetter's Bitters have received the warmest encomiums from the press and people throughout the Union. As a valuable tonic for the cure of Dyspepsia, Flatulence, Constipation and general nervous debility, it cannot be approached. Every day new cases of its great efficacy are chronicled through our public journals. There is nothing equal to the enjoyment, to that which the afflicted experience when using this valuable specific. Its mild tone, its sure and vigorous action upon a disordered stomach, and the cleansing of the entire human body should recommend it to all classes of our community. All that will be necessary to convince the skeptical of its healthy effects, is to purchase a bottle and be convinced.

Sold by druggists and dealers generally, everywhere.

Among the restoratives which Nature has supplied to relieve the afflictions of humanity there is no more favorite one for a certain class of diseases than the "medicinal gum" of the Wild Cherry Tree; but however valuable it is, its power to heal, to soothe, to relieve, and to cure, is enhanced ten-fold by scientific and judicious combination with other ingredients, in themselves of equal worth. This happy mingling exists in that

Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry,

Whose value in curing Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Whooping Cough, Croup, Asthma, Pulmonary Affection and Incipient Consumption, is inestimable.

HOME TESTIMONY.

BOSTON, April 18, 1852.
No. 48 Union St.

Mr. Seth W. Fowle,—Dear Sir:—Your invaluable medicine, I can truly say, has literally snatched me from the grave. Last July I was attacked by a sudden cold, which resulted in a very severe Cough, with violent pains in the side and chest. I became so much reduced, that my friends frankly told me that I must die. At this crisis, I heard of Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, and immediately sent for a bottle. The effect produced was indeed wonderful. My physician, one of the most respectable in Boston, who had previously told me that a cure was hopeless, came in, and I informed him what I had taken. He examined the Balsam, and advised me to continue the use of it, since which time I have continued to improve daily; and the same physician who had given me up, told me, a few days since, that I might yet live many years.

Respectfully, MARY ROWE.

We can cheerfully testify to the truth of the above statement, Mrs. Rowe having been an inmate of our family. WILLIAM DENNETT.

In calling the attention of the public to my list of Magazines and Newspapers, I would caution all against subscribing for Magazines, Newspapers, or other works, through irresponsible and transient persons, or travelling agents; for in nine cases out of ten you will be swindled and cheated.

If you wish to take any Magazine or newspaper, subscribe of some responsible agent in town. Hundreds of dollars are lost every year by subscribing for works of strangers and travelling agents, and by being induced to subscribe by the thousands of contrivances to cheat the public such as Art Unions, Premiums, Cosmopolitan Art Associations, and various humbugs to gull the unwary. Keep clear of these, and pay your money to those whom you know to be responsible. The subscriber has been in the business ten years, and will guarantee to furnish any publication as cheap as can be obtained.

Local Items.

☞ The entertainment offered at the Lyceum to-night, would seem to be one of the most attractive and enjoyable ever provided for any audience, in Portsmouth or elsewhere.

The name of "Grace Greenwood" has long been a household word in all parts of our country, her writings having been familiar to and eagerly read by all the people, for years. But this season is her first appearance as a lecturer in New England; and all hearers agree in awarding her an equally high position in the lecture-room as she had gained as authoress. Wherever she has appeared, the greatest desire to see and hear her are manifested; and all go away more than ever delighted with her.

In Boston, says the Journal, "Tremont Temple was crowded to its utmost extent—those familiar with her writings wishing to judge for themselves whether she is as entertaining as a speaker as she has been as a writer; and others were attracted by a curiosity to see the woman who has added so many gems to the literature of America."

There will also be performances on the Piano before and after the Lecture,—commencing at quarter past seven.

☞ Rev. John G. Adams, who lectured at the Lyceum on Monday evening, was well received as a Son of Portsmouth who has earned an enviable reputation for truthful and earnest speech, uttered with manly dignity and Christian courtesy.

His theme was The Newspaper, a title warranting the audience in anticipating large instruction and not small amusement. And no hearer failed to discover valuable fact and amusing fancy. The lecture, in its delivery, was one of the best, for distinctness of enunciation and force and accuracy of emphasis. It evinced much study and research, and was filled with instructive history and valuable reflection.

Mr. B. J. Lang, of Boston, performed several of his most brilliant piano pieces, in his usual neat and finished style,—to the great gratification of the appreciative audience. Mr. Lang is taking very high rank with the masters of the piano, and his evident close study and severe practice are well rewarded by the constant progress in his art, which is so apparent every time he is heard here. He now occupies the distinguished position of organist and pianist to the Boston Handel and Haydn Society.

The piano-forte, used on this occasion for the first time, is a new and superb 7-octave instrument, fitted up by Hallett, Davis & Co., of Boston, expressly for hall use—is very powerful, yet of delicious tone and prompt and easy action. It has almost equal power and fullness of tone with a grand piano, yet is much more convenient in size, shape, weight; more beautiful, and much less expensive. Hallett, Davis & Co. have sold many fine instruments in this city; and are always striving to improve, what would seem to be already good enough.—Mr. Lang pronounces this a capital instrument,as must also every judge of such matters who hears it.

It will be seen by the advertisement, that Mr. Lang is to preside at this splendtd instrument again to-night; and to all who appreciate pianos and piano-playing, this entertainment alone will richly repay for a season's ticket and aitendance. Music at a quarter past 7.

CHARLESTON CONVENTION.—The delegates to this body, chosen by the convention of the Democratic party in Rockingham, are:—John S. Wells, primary; Daniel Marcy, substitute: Josiah Minot, primary; Lewis W. Clarke, substitute. Mr. Wells did not decline.

FROM CALIFORNIA — OVERLAND.—St. Louis, Dec. 10.—The overland mail with San Francisco dates of the 14th ult., arrived to-day. Advices from Honolulu state that Richard H. Dana had had an audience of King Ramehameka.

J. H. Sleeper of Boston, editor of the Advertiser, and John Ladd of Portsmouth, N. H., both died at Honolulu in the house of the latter, within a few hours of each other. Mr. Ladd was an old resident merchant of the place.

King Ramehameka had resigned his throne to his son the prince of Hawai. The dedication took place on the 3d Oct., when he immediately returned to Sohaina.

SHIPWRECK AND LOSS OF LIFE.—Hyannis, Dec. 11.—Capt. Edwards, of the U S. schooner Active, reports the loss of a lumber-loaded brig last evening. She was seen anchored off the Handkerchief yesterday afternoon, where she dragged on to the Shoal in the night and went to pieces. The capain and crew are supposed to be lost.—It is not known where she was from or bound to, but was probably from some eastward-port, bound west.

U. S. surveying steamer Fennimore Cooper has been wrecked in the harbor of Kanagawa, Japan. All hands were saved, but the vessel would be a total loss.

☞ The incendiary who has burnt much of Geo P. Burnham's property lately, turns out to be his own master carpenter, named Burns. He is in Cambridge jail.

☞ Cummins and Ragan, rival railroad contractors, had a street fight in Bowling Green, Ky., which resulted in the death of both parties, on the 30th ult.

☞ The first week of the 37th Congress has passed away in debates on Slavery, and the House of Representatives in that time failed to elect a Speaker. On Saturday, Dec. 10, in the House, Messrs. Kellogg and Logan apologized for their foolishness the day before.

Mr. Hickman,(anti-Lecompton democrat) defined his position, and Mr. Smith of Virginia almost defined his, and there was a very well conducted debate between the two.

Mr. Smith said:—

He would not undertake to say if any particular man should be elected President he would immediately favor a dissolution of the Union. "Sufficient for the day is the evil thereof." He maintained that the House had no right to let a minority organize it. It is well known that certain members intend to go over to Mr. Sherman whenever it is necessary. Let them do it like men, and let their constituents settle the question.

Mr. Curry (of Ala.) made a speech, acquitting the Republican party of all complicity with the Harper's Ferry case.

The debate was continued at great length when, at a quarter to 3 o'clock, the House adjourned till Monday, by a vote of 112 to 108.

A Washington dispatch of Sunday says,

According to the opinions of prominent Congressmen, it is not probable that the election of a Speaker will be effected to-morrow. Indeed, no idea can be formed as to how long the debate in the House will be extended. Calculations continue to be made by members outside of the Republican ranks, as to the best means of uniting the Democrats, Southern Opposition, and such anti-Lecompton Democrats as have not voted for Mr. Bocock. Up to this evening they have not come to a satisfactory arrangement of the figures.

LIFE OF JOHN BROWN.—A biography of this remarkable man is to be published at once, for the benefit of his family. The author is James Redpath, so prominent in Kansas annals, an intimate personal friend of Capt. Brown, and a spirited and graphic writer. He is probably better adapted for the task than any other person in the country. This work will be published by Thayer & Eldridge, of Boston, and will be an elegant 12 mo. volume of 400 pages, with engravings, and will also contain a fine steel portrait of Brown. An agent is now circulating it in this section.

☞ Mr. B. H. Noyes, who has been mentioned in connection with the swindling case at Newburyport, publishes a card in the Newburyport Herald, denying all criminal intention, and hinting that his arrest was made for a political purpose, connected with the Boston municipal election.

☞ In Boston, on Monday, Mayor Lincoln was re-elected.

GROVER & BAKER'S

Celebrated Family Sewing Machines.

NEW STYLES. — PRICES FROM $50 TO $125.

HEMMERS, $5 EXTRA.

OVER THIRTY THOUSAND IN USE

These Machines sew from two spools, as purchased from the store, requiring no rewinding of thread, and finishing each seam by their own operation, without recourse to the hand needle, as is required by other machines. On account of their simplicity, durability, ease of management, and adaptation to all varieties of family sewing, they execute either heavy or fine work with equal facility, and without special adjustment.

THE NEW MACHINES INTRODUCED BY THE GROVER & BAKER

SEWING MACHINE COMPANY

Are of elegant finish, and their operation is rapid and very quiet. The EASE with which they can be managed is a distinguishable feature, and the stitch is the strongest, handsomest, and most elastic of any made.

What is specially claimed for the "GROVER & BAKER" machine is—

That it makes a stronger and handsomer seam than is made by hand or by any other machine.

That it makes a more elastic seam, which will withstand the tests of wear, and washing and ironing, better than that made by any other machine.

That the speed at which it can be used is higher than any other, and the power required to operate it is less than that required by any other machine.

That it is nearly noiseless in its operation.

That its construction is more simple,and its liability to disarrangement less than any other.

That it can be quicker learned, more easily kept in order, got ready for use, and changed from one quality or grade of work, than any other.

Its applicability to the entire range of Family Sewing—from the finest and most delicate texture to the heavier and coarser fabrics.

That it uses thread or silk from the origina spools—no re-winding—no shuttles or bobbins to fill.

That it finishes its work and fastens the end of every seam; each stitch is independent of its neighbor.

Is there a husband, father or brother, who will permit the drudgery of hand-sewing in his family, when a GROVER & BAKER Machine will do it better, more expeditiously, and cheaper than can possibly be done by hand?

TESTIMONIALS.

PORTSMOUTH, April 12, 1859.

Having tested the merits of the various popular Sewing Machines, in the manufacture of our Capes and Raglans, we unhesitatingly recommend the Grover & Baker, as far superior to all others. ALLEN & FAINE.

PORTSMOUTH, July 16, 1859.

STOVE STORE REMOVED.

URIAH BLAISDELL

Has removed his Stove and Furnishing Establishment one door north, to the spacious and convenient store

Nos. 43 & 45 Market Street,

where he is receiving and arranging a large and valuable Stock of

STOVES, TIN WARE, &c.,

Which he offers for sale at wholesale and retail, at very low prices. He has a great variety of the best and most popular Stoves, among which are:

1. The Stewart Cook Stove, with the latest improvements. This is an air-tight Cook Stove, for Wood or Coal; it has moveable coverings, which can combine the heat in the stove, or let it out into the room; has a reservoir of hot water 10 or 20 gallons, and a tin closet beneath;—a top cover, which is a great institution for baking, and will keep a cool fire all night; it has a Dutch Oven for roasting in front of the Stove;—and it is every way a most convenient and durable Stove. There are 4 sizes.

The following recommendation of Stewart's Stove, is from an eminent engineer, and must be satisfactory to all who wish to understand the value of this excellent Stove:

Portsmouth, N. H., Nov. 5, 1859.

Mr. Blaisdell:—Seven years ago I moved to this city, and sold, before I came, a "Stewart's Air Tight Cooking Stove," which I had used about five years. During that time no repairs or expense had been made upon it. Since I have been here I have tried the various Cooking Stoves in use, and I think for economy and durability the "Stewart" excels them all. I wish you would take away the Stove I now have from my house, and set up one of Stewart's as soon as you can. Your ob't servant,

B. F. CHANDLER.

2. Boston & Maine Cook Stove;

Fousel's Pabulum Vitæ.

☞ THE GREAT FRENCH REMEDY possesses extraordinary properties for the speedy and permanent cure of CONSUMPTION, BRONCHITIS, COUGHS, COLDS, and all PULMONARY DISEASE.

This celebrated specific is now universally acknowledged to be infinitely superior to all other preparations for the cure of Pulmonary Disease, both from its innocent nature and most astonishing curative properties; it being the only remedy known that will arrest the development of Tubercles in the Lungs or restore the vital functions of the pulmonary organs to their normal condition. Its invaluable properties have obtained for it the highest recommendation and praise from some of the most eminent physicians and chemists in the country: while the best and most proofs of its merits are afforded by the numerous testimonials of its great efficacy in conquering disease, which are constantly received from our most respectable citizens. Invalids in all stages of pulmonary disease should not fail to give it a trial, as it can be administered to the most delicate and feeble with perfect safety and certain relief; and we herewith insert a few testimonials for their encouragement, selected from hundreds of like import.

Certificate of Dr. A. A. HAYES, in reference to the unequalled virtues of this great discovery.

This preparation, by chemical analysis, was proved to be free from opium, or any of its compounds; nor were any of the alkaloids present. It does not contain any mercurial or mineral substance, but consists wholly of volatile, diffusible agents, which afford vapors freely at a moderate temperature. Most of the substances present are officinally used in alleviating pulmonary disease; but the device by which they are combined is new and original, and adapts the compound to inhalation, or other modes of administration.

Respectfully,

A. A. HAYES, M. D., State Assayer.

16 Boylston St., Boston, Dec. 1857.

In the Boston Transcript of December 11, 1858, the editor says:—

"We have seen a letter from an eminent physician of this city, in which he says:—'I have used Fousel's Pabulum Vitæ in several cases of Bronchial disease, and in some with great benefit. I know of no remedy equal to it for children, where a minute dose is essential; or for adults of irritable stomachs, or having a tendency to reject ordinary medicines given for coughs, etc. I shall continue to use it in my practice.'"

Testimonial from the Sisters of Charity, of the St. Vincent's Orphan Asylum, in Boston.

BOSTON, July 31, 1858.

To Mr. F. LAFORME, Agent:

"The Sisters are happy to state that, having used Fousel's Pabulum Vitæ, they have found it efficacious in several instances, for bad coughs and colds. Signed by the SISTERS OF CHARITY.

Testimonial from a well-known Apothecary's Clerk.

BOSTON, March 10, 1859.

J. F. LAFORME, Esq.:

Dear Sir—I had been suffering for a considerable length of time from a severe cough, and had in vain had recourse to nearly all the remedies in use My cough began to give me much uneasiness from its serious effects on my system, when three days' use of Fousel's Pabulum Vitæ restored me to complete health. The medicine being new in this market, I had recourse to it last; but I can now confidently recommend it as the best medicine I know of. Yours, truly,

CHAS. H. FOSTER.

At Fred Brown's, Washington, corner State St.

In the Boston Post, Sept. 24, 1858, the editor says:

"An extraordinary cure of Consumption has recently come to our knowledge, effected through the instrumentality of Fousel's Pabulum Vitæ; the evidence of which is in the handwriting of the subject, Mr. Wm. P. Brigham, No. 130 Albany st., in this city. It seems that for eighteen months he had been exhibiting all the usual symptoms of Consumption, and that after having had recourse to the skill of various physicians, without benefit, he had to abandon his business and be confined to his house. Hearing of Fousel's Pabulum Vitæ, and of several remarkable cures effected by it, in cases as desperate as his own, he concluded to try it as a forlorn hope. The result has been most happy—he has now entirely recovered, and is engaged in his usual pursuits. It is such well authenticated cases as this that we take pleasure in laying before our readers, since, by so doing, many valuable lives may be saved, and much good effected.

It is sold at the low price of 50 cents, and $1.00 per bottle, thus placing it within the reach of all classes. F. J. LAFORME, sole Agent, Boston. M. S. BURR & CO., General Agents, No. 28 Tremont street, Museum Building, Boston, and for sale by all druggists. Circulars with testimonials of its efficacy can be had of the Agents nov7ly

WORTHY OF

Universal Confidence and Patronage.

FOR STATESMEN, JUDGES, CLERGYMEN.

Ladies and Gentlemen, in all parts of the world testify to the efficacy of Prof. O. J. Wood's Hair Restorative, and gentlemen of the Frees are unanimous in its praise. A few testimonials only can be here given; see circular for more, and it will be impossible for you to doubt.

47 Wall Street, New York, Dec. 20, 1858.

GENTLEMEN:—Your note of the 15th inst., has been received, saying that you had heard that I had been benefitted by the use of Wood's Hair Restorative, and requesting my certificate of the fact if I had no objection to give it.

I award it to you cheerfully, because I think it due. My age is about 50 years; the color of my hair auburn, and inclined to curl. Some five or six years since it began to turn gray, and the scalp on the crown of my head to lose its sensibility and dandruff to form upon it. Each of these disagreeabilities increased with time, and about four months since a fourth was added to them, by hair falling off the top of my head and threatening to make me bald.

In this unpleasant predicament, I was induced to try Wood's Hair Restorative, mainly to arrest the falling off of my hair, for I had really no expectation that gray hair could ever be restored to its original color except from dyes. I was, however, greatly surprised to find after the use of two bottles only, that not only was the falling off arrested, but the color was restored to the gray hairs and sensibility to the scalp, and dandruff ceased to form on my head, very much to the gratification of my wife, at whose solicitation I was induced to try it.

For this, among the many obligations I owe to her sex, I strongly recommend all husbands who value the admiration of their wives to profit by my example, and use it if growing gray or getting bald. Very Respectfully,

BENJ. A. LAVENDER.

To O. J. Wood & Co., 444 Broadway, N. Y.

Siamaston, Ala., July 20th, 1859.

To Prof. O. J. Wood: Dear Sir: Your "Hair Restorative" has done my hair so much good since I commenced the use of it, that I wish to make known to the PUBLIC its effects on the hair, which are great. A man or woman may be nearly deprived of hair, and by a resort to your "Hair Restorative," the hair will return more beautiful than ever; at least this is my experience. Believe it all! Yours truly,

WM. H. KENEDY.

P. S.—You can publish the above if you like.—By publishing in our Southern papers you will get more patronage soon. I see several of your certificates in the Mobile Mercury, a strong Southern paper. W. H. K.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.

Professor O. J. Wood:—Dear Sir:—Having had the misfortune to lose the best portion of my hair, from the effects of the yellow fever, in New Orleans in 1851, I was induced to make a trial of your preparation, and found it to be the very thing needed. My hair is now thick and glossy, and no words can express my obligations to you in giving to the afflicted such a treasure.

FINLEY JOHNSON.

The Restorative is put up in bottles of three sizes, viz: large, medium, and small; the small holds half a pint, and retails for one dollar per bottle; the medium holds at least twenty per cent. more in proportion than the small, retails for two dollars per bottle; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent. more in proportion, and retails for $3 a bottle.

Morning Chronicle.

A SUNNY SIDE VIEW OF MORMONISM. A Salt Lake City correspondent of the Rochester Democrat writes:—

"I am domiciled with President H. C. Kimball. I have dined with six or seven of his wives, and children without number.—He tells me he has thirty-seven sons, and I forget the number of daughters; and a happier family I never saw in my life. All speak pleasantly and kindly to each other, and all appear happy, and better order I never saw prevail in any family. He has a school expressly for his young children, and I have no doubt is able to provide amply for all of them; and his people appear to have the most unbounded confidence in him, and President Young.

I think Brigham Young's establishment is on a larger scale than H. C. Kimball's. I cannot tell which has the most wives. Each has a school for his own children; each provides well for his own household.

I believe the whole Mormon race as happy and contented a people as I ever saw.—I have seen the lion, the lamb and the leopard lie down together, and a young child with them. I have seen, at least, six as happy wives as I ever saw, all belonging to one man, in one household, and upholding the doctrine of polygamy; all speaking kindly and affectionately to each, calling each other Sister Vilate, Sister Sarah, Sister Adela, &c., and better order, tidiness and kindness I never saw in any household.

H. C. Kimball just called me from the table to go about twenty rods to see two of his wives and children, in one little house—children, not three weeks difference in their ages, happy, neat and contented. Both received him affectionately.

In their religion they appear as devoted and sincere as any sect I have ever met with, except they do not pray for any of the good blessings on the President of the United States, or their persecutors, but to confound them; they do not pray for good blessings to their enemies.

Kimball and Young have greatly improved in their worldly affairs, but I do not see that it inflates them much. They are the same plain, simple, honest people they ever were, nowise ostentations. They may use sophistry with others, but none with me. I never was treated more kindly or hospitably. They do not even profess to love their enemies, or easily forgive them. I think they are worth $500,000 each, some think more.

ARTICLES OF DIET. — The useful articles of diet are numerous, and the commonest we have. As to the quantity required, the prize-fighter, who requires most, has thirty-six ounces per day, besides the innutritious portion which everybody swallows at every meal. For women, twenty ounces may suffice, though a larger allowance is better. Healthy working men ought to have from twenty-five to thirty ounces. The greatest amount of nourishment of both kinds is contained in flour, meat, potatoes and peas; milk, cheese, rice, and other grains, and sugar; while tea, coffee, and cocoa are of great value in their way.

Such are the materials; but they may be so treated in the cooking as to waste what is most valuable, and to preserve what is of the least consequence. It is possible to manage the making of a stew, so as to wash away the best qualities of the meat, and leave the vegetables hard, and drain away the thickening, causing a predominant taste of smoke and salt. When Miss Nightingale and her assistants undertook to cook in the Eastern Hospitals, they made a pint of thick arrowroot from one ounce of the powder, while in the general kitchen it took two ounces to make a pint of thin arrowroot.

It was the proper boiling of the water that made the difference here. Again, two ounces of rice were saved on every four puddings, when the nurse made the puddings. Such incidents show that it is not enough to have the best materials for nourishment; they must be husbanded in the preparation. It seems probable that, by sensible conduct all around, everybody might command enough of the best material for food; and it is certain that a very small proportion of the wives of Englishmen know how to do justice to the food they buy.—Harriet Martineau in Once a Week.

STOVES AND FURNACES.

FRANK JONES,

61 MARKET ST., PORTSMOUTH,

Having received a part of his Winter Stock of

The Combination Stove and Range.

One of the greatest inventions of the age, for Cooking purposes,—made expressly for large families, boarding houses, hotels, &c.; or wherever a great amount of Cooking is required in the shortest possible time, it having 3 large ovens, 6 boiler holes and separate apartments for baking, broiling, frying or roasting, requiring no more fuel than any ordinary Cooking Stove. It is warranted to give entire satisfaction in every particular in point of economy, convenience, or ease of management; as we believe it to be far ahead of anything of the kind yet introduced into this market. We therefore ask an examination of the "Combination Stove & Range," feeling confident that it supersedes all others for which it is intended, and will be sold at a very low price.

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA,

A compound remedy in which we have labored to produce the most effectual alterative that can be made. It is a concentrated extract of Para Sarsaparilla, of combined with other substances of still greater alterative power as to afford an effective antidote for the diseases Sarsaparilla is reputed to cure. It is believed that such a remedy is wanted by those who suffer from Strumous complaints, and that one which will a complish their cure must be of immense service to this large class of our afflicted fellow citizens. How completely this compound will do it, has been proven by experiment on many of the worst cases to be found in the following complaints:—

SCROFULA AND SCROFULOUS COMPLAINTS, ERUPTIONS AND ERUPTIVE DISEASES, ULCERS, PIMPLES, BLOTCHES, TUMORS, SALT RHEUM, SCALD HEAD, SYPHILIS AND SYPHILITIC AFFECTIONS, MERCURIAL DISEASE, DROPSY, NEURALGIA OR TIC DOULOUREUX, DEBILITY, DYSPEPSIA AND INDIGESTION, ERYSIPELAS, ROSE OR ST. ANTHONY'S FIRE, and indeed the whole class of complaints arising from IMPURITY OF THE BLOOD.

This compound will be found a great promoter of health, when taken in the spring, to expel the foul humors which fester in the blood at that season of the year. By the timely expulsion of them many rankling disorders are nipped in the bud.—Multitudes can, by the aid of this remedy, spare themselves from the endurance of foul eruptions and ulcerous sores, through which the system will strive to rid itself of corruptions, if not assisted to do this through the natural channels of the body by an alterative medicine. Cleanse out the vitiated blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in pimples, eruptions or sores;—cleanse it when you find it is obstructed or sluggish in the veins; cleanse it whenever it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Even where no particular disorder is felt, people enjoy better health, and live live longer, for cleansing the blood. Keep the blood healthy, and all is well; but with this pabulum of life disordered, there can be no lasting health. Sooner or later something must go wrong, and the great machinery of life is disordered or overthrown.

Sarsaparilla has, and deserves much, the reputation of accomplishing these ends. But the world has been egregiously deceived by preparations of it, partly because the drug alone has not all the virtue that is claimed for it, but more because many preparations, pretending to be concentrated extracts of it contain but little of the virtue of Sarsaparilla, or anything else.

During late years the public have been misled by large bottles, pretending to give a quart of Extract of Sarparilla for one dollar. Most of these have been frauds upon the sick, for they not only contain little, if any, Sarsaparilla, but often no curative properties whatever. Aence bitter and painful disappointment has followed the use of the various extracts of Sarsaparilla which flood the market, until the name itself is justly cepised, and has become synonymous with imposition and cheat. Still we call this compound Sarsaparilla, and intend to supply such a remedy as shall rescue the name from the load of obloquy which rests upon it. And we think we have grounds for believing it has virtues which are irresistible by the ordinary run of the diseases it is intended to cure. In order to secure their complete eradication from the system, the remedy should be judiciously taken according to directions on the bottle.

MRS. WINSLOW,

An experienced Nurse and Female Physician, presents to the attention of Mothers, her

SOOTHING SYRUP,

For Children Teething.

Which greatly facilitates the process of teething by softening the gums, reducing all inflammation—will allay ALL PAIN and spasmodic action, and is

SURE TO REGULATE THE BOWELS.

Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves, and

RELIEF AND HEALTH TO YOUR INFANTS.

We have put up and sold this article for over ten years, and can say, in confidence and truth, of it, what we have never been able to say of any other medicine, —NEVER HAS IT FAILED, IN A SINGLE INSTANCE, to EFFECT A CURE, when timely used. Never did we know an instance of dissatisfaction by any one who used it. On the contrary, all are delighted and speak in terms of highest encomendation of its medical effects and medical virtues. We speak, in this matter, "what we do know," after ten years experience, and pledge our reputation for the fulfilment of what we here declare. In almost every instance where the infant is suffering from pain and exhaustion, relief will be found in fifteen or twenty minutes after the syrup is administered.

This valuable preparation is the prescription of one of the MOST SKILLFUL NURSES EXPERIENCED and in New England and has been used with never-failing success, in THOUSANDS OF CASES.

It not only relieves the child from pain, but invigorates the stomach and bowels, corrects acidity, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. It will almost instantly relieve and overcome convulsions, which, if not speedily remedied, end in death. We believe it the best and surest remedy in all cases of DYSENTERY AND DIARRHŒA IN CHILDREN, whether it arises from teething, or from any other cause. We would say to every mother who has a child suffering from any of the foregoing complaints—Do not let your prejudices, or the prejudices of others, stand between your suffering child and the relief that will be SURE—yes, ABSOLUTELY SURE to follow the use of this medicine, if timely used. Full directions for using will accompany each bottle. None genuine unless the fac-simile of CURTIS & PERKINS, New York, is on the outside wrapper. Sold by Druggists throughout the world. DR. J. B. HUGHES,

GRIPING IN THE BOWELS, AND WIND COLIC.

Knowing that there are at this moment thousands of persons in the surrounding towns, suffering their lives to the insiduous inroads of certain dangerous maladies, who still suffer from the reluctance to make known their complaints and consult a physician, he would state that all of his medicines will be sent by express or otherwise, to all who may order them, provided the true description of the disease be sent by letter and directions as above.

Full and explicit directions will accompany every package, and the most inviolable secrecy preserved.

DR. HUGHES can with safety say during the last year of his practice in Boston, more than three hundred cases of disease which have been improperly treated by empyrics have come under his care, and more than three-fourths of this number are inscribed upon his books as perfect cures.

Patients treated by letter by addressing Dr. Hughes, post paid, and medicines sent all over the country, carefully concealed from scrutinizing friends.

Be particular in finding Dr. Hughes. Do not be lured from the right path, or be persuaded to try experiments with false and fictitious reedies at the expense of destroying what is the grat pillar of life, a healthy constitution.

This medicine can only be obtained at the Office of Dr. HUGHES, 13 Howard street, Boston.

DR. J. B. HUGHES UNIVERSAL FEMALE RENOVATING PILLS. These pills are unrivalled in efficacy and superior virtue in regulating all female irregularities. Their action is specific and certain, producing relief in a short space of time. They are acknowledged to be the best in use.

The Dr. cautions the public to beware of impositions that are being practiced by advertising a spurious article under some spurious or fictitious name. They are entirely useless, being been got up by miserable pretenders who are entirely ignorant of the efficacy of medicines.

All who are in pursuit of the genine article, had better call on the Dr. at his office where they will be sure of getting the genuine—the only place in Boston where the genuine is for sale.

These pills can be sent to any part of the country with directions. Remember the number—13 Howard street, Boston.

P. S.—The best of accommodations furnished, with kind and attentive nurses if they wish, at a reasonable rate. j2 dly

PARDON OF BRISTOL BILL.—The correspondent of the Traveller, at Windsor, Vt., under date of Dec. 8, thus announces the pardon of that once famous criminal, "Bristol Bill:"

The people of our usually quiet village were surprised several days since by seeing the noted Bristol Bill, alias Wm. Waberton, promenading the streets, and learned that while at work at his "shaving jack," on the morning of the 5th inst., he was surprised with a pardon bearing Gov. Hall's signature.

NOT PROVED.—There was quite an excitement in Peterborough last week from suspicion that Mrs. Lydia Marshall wife of Harvey J. Marshall had been poisoned by her husband. She died suddenly, and the marriage of Mr. Marshall three weeks after to the nurse of Mrs. Marshall led to the suspicion. The feeling also was increased by the circumstance that her relatives were not informed of her death till after her burial. An investigation made by the physicians of the town found no evidence of foul play.—Manchester Mirror.

☞ The old meeting-house in Wilton, N. H., which was over one hundred years old, and has long been used as a town-house, was burned down last Thursday night.—There had been a concert there in the evening. The fire took in the attic, and is supposed to have been set.

☞ The Charlestown (Massachusetts) Advertiser says:—

Last week, Friday, a lot of sailor chaps who had just arrived in Boston, and hearing that John Brown was to be hung in Charlestown, came over to this city to witness the execution, on the hurricane deck of an omnibus. John took their fares and tho't the execution would be likely to take place somewhere in the upper part of the city.

The Douai journals relate an extraordinary instance of ignorance in a village near that town. A physician called a few days ago to prescribe for the sick child of a peasant woman, and ordered a warm bath.—"What is a bath?" said she. "Heat some water in your pot on the fire, and put the child into it. A few minutes later a neighbor entered, and found that the woman had put the child into the pot with the water, and had placed the little creature on the fire, which she was diligently stirring up! Of course the neighbor rescued the child from the horrible fate with which it was threatened.

☞ The proprietors of the Thirteenth Congregational Church, (Unitarian,) corner of Harrison avenue and Beach street, Boston, have voted to appoint a committee with full power to sell all the real and personal property of the corporation. This looks like dissolution. Mr. Coolidge was their minister, until his change of denomination.

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

WEDNESDAY, DEC. 14, 1859.

MORE ABOUT THE SOLDIERS.

Our second visit to the "stamping ground" of the Governor's Horse Guards, was made under rather unfavorable circumstances. In the first place, the meeting was called at an early hour in the afternoon of Thursday, and as no morning train runs upon the Concord road, we found it necessary to leave home on the afternoon of Wednesday, and the reflection that we should not be able to return till noon of Friday annoyed us slightly. Then again, it rained—rained stupendously, "first a sprinkle, then a shower, till the air was filled with moisture," and the streets were rendered almost impassable.—However we had enlisted "for the campaign," and for a "bowld soger bye" to beat retreat before a trifling skirmish of the elements, would be an offence worthy of a court martial; so we shouldered our umbrella, a la militaire, and took up our line of march for the railroad station, which we reached after much marching and countermarching, and some very showy evolutions through the unfathomable slosh of Bridge street.

The two passenger cars were crowded with a very respectable company of men—the leaders in the democratic Israel of this Councillor district, who had given a day to their country for the purpose of nominating a candidate for Councillor, and choosing delegates to a convention of President-makers. They wore the air of men who fully understood their whole duty, and were conscious that they had done it to a demonstration. Politics was the all-absorbing theme of conversation, and before the departure of the train, at every stopping place, and particularly at the "Junction,"—where we had ample time to rest preparatory to a renewal of our journey,—some voices would arise in eager discussion of "Square Wood's resolutions," and kindred topics.

We overheard some persons uttering rebellious and seditious words while we waited at the Junction—on account of our half-hour's delay at that point. The trains on the B. & M. road were delayed by the storm, and our humble "smelt train," as they wickedly called it, had to bear the blame. To us, whose sympathies were with the road, because of our safe conveyance thus far, it seemed as if Providedce had sent a storm on this day of a "full fare," to render the connecting trains late, and thus call down the anathemas of thoughtless men upon a much reviled institution. We could not add our voice to that of the disparaging multitude. It is not so very long since it was considered a pretty hard day's work to make the journey to Concord in an old-fashioned stage-coach—that we have forgotten it. Then, a half hour at every village, for change of horses or the assorting of the mail, was quietly endured, because the era of rapid travelling had not dawned upon us. Now, a three hours' ride in a comfortable car took us safely to our journey's end. We looked upon the two pictures, and were satisfied. Besides we were upon a road so well managed that an accident is a thing unheard of—in charge of the most considerate and gentlemanly of Conductors, Mr. George Noyes, and aiding, to the extent of the price of one ticket at least, an enterprise which requires all the economy, all the shrewdness, and all the unequalled tact of Mr. Gilmore, the New Hampshire railroad king, to make it a moderately paying property. So, like a true optimist and a good soldier, we were content.

We reached the capitol at an early hour of the evening, and passed the remaining hours, till bed-time, among old friends and new, at the always excellent "Phenix."—The next morning we encountered "a nipping and an eager air," as we sallied forth in quest of our old friend, Edson C. Eastman, Esq., the bookseller and publisher of Concord. His fast horse was in readiness, and we accepted an invitation to take a bird's-eye view of the city, from a hill in its rear. Thus passed an hour pleasantly. By this time the first train from Nashua and Manchester had arrived, bringing a crowd of recruits. Members of the different committees searched out their confederates, and closeted themselves to give the final touch to their reports.

At the appointed hour the company assembled at the Council Chambar, and was called to order by the Secretary, A. H. Bellows, Esq., in the absence of Col. John H. George. Col. E. H. Rollins was placed in the chair, and the report of the Committee on Organization was made by the chairman, Col. Gage of Nashua. A regimental organization was proposed, to be officered by a Colonel, Lt. Col., Major, 1st and 2d Lts., and numerous other ranks and titles. It was recommended to divide the corps into six companies, but this was afterwards modified so as to leave the number of companies optional with the corps. It is probable that it will be divided into four, on the occasion of the first public parade, in June next. The Committee on Armory reported in favor of a room in the City Hall building, and the matter was again referred to them for further consideration. Messrs. Stark of Nashua and Bellows of Concord, of the Committee on Uniform, stated in detail the result of their visit to New York, and after giving an estimate of the cost of various styles of uniform, recommended the adoption of a dress similar to that of the French Huzzars, which consists of a close fitting jacket of dark blue cloth, largely ornamented with orange-colored braid, or gold lace—loose pantaloons of the same color, decorated with an orange stripe, a lamb-skin cap or shako without visor, an extra jacket suspended from the left shoulder, and a large cloak of heavy cloth for cold or stormy weather—the saddles of the army-regulation variety, with a large housing or saddle-cloth of crimson, with gilded bridle ornaments, stirrups, &c. A colored drawing of the uniform was exhibited, together with specimens of the cloth recommended for the fabrication of the several articles of apparel and ornament. The effect was at once striking and beautiful, and it seemed to be the general opinion that a better selection could hardly have been made. Mr. Bellows was directed to procure a uniform of the description recommended, previous to the next meeting of the corps, at which time he will appear in the full costume of a "Governor's Horse Guard."

The expense of the entire outfit was estimated to be sixty-seven dollars, but as the State is in duty bound to furnish its soldiers with certain equipments, it is expected that this sum will be lowered about twelve dollars, leaving the actual outlay fifty-five dollars. The uniforms of the officers will probably be more elaborately decorated, and thus more costly, according to rank.

The report of the Committee which was appointed to draft a Constitution and By-Laws for the government of the corps, was read by the chairman, Dr. Fuller of Portsmouth. It was evident that considerable care had been taken by the Committee to consult at once the best interests of the corps, the members in or near the capitol, and those remote from the central point of action. One article of the by-laws excited quite a spirited discussion. It was as follows:

"Any member who shall loan his uniform, or any part thereof, to any person not a member of the corps, shall pay a fine of ten dollars."

Some Concord gentlemen desired this section to be so modified as to allow substitutes to be furnished in case a member should find it for his interest to absent himself from the annual parade in June. An amendment empowering the commanding officer to admit substitutes at his discretion, was accordingly passed, afterwards reconsidered, and the matter was finally left to the decision of a committee composed of a few of the principal officers. A few other trifling alterations were fixed upon, and the somewhat lengthy document was ordered to be printed. One feature of the by-laws struck us as being particularly equitable and just. It is embodied in Sections 2 and 3 of the Article on "Fines and Penalties," which are as follows:

"Sec. 2. As many members of the corps reside at points remote from the Capitol of the State, and as each member is bound by all honorable rules to answer all due notifications which may emanate from the commanding officer, it is hereby declared that no fines for absence shall be exacted, except it be in case of absence from the annual parade in June, as hereinafter specified.

"Sec. 3. Any member who shall be absent from the annual parade in June shall pay a fine of ten dollars; which fine may however be remitted by the commanding officer on satisfactory proof to him given, of physical inability to be present, or that his non-appearance was caused by family affliction."

We can readily foresee the utter impossibility of obtaining anything like a fair representation of the distant members, at the frequent business meetings or casual parades of the corps, either from non-reception of the notifications, absence from home, or business engagements, but no such excuse for non-attendance upon the annual June parade can hold good, as this, the principal parade of the year, is a fixed fact, impossible to be forgotten, and not to be lightly avoided, as chiefly to this end has the organization been effected.

The by-laws also provide for a class of members, who, while desirous of aiding the corps and being reckoned as members, still decline active duty, and refuse to don the military trappings and mount the foaming steed. Benefactors of this class may unite themselves with the corps, attend all dinners and other festivities, on payment of the fee of five dollars annually. It is to be hoped that a goodly number of the solid men of the state will, under this rule, contribute their names, their influence, and their funds in support of the enterprise. It appeals, especially to those gentlemen, who feel that their "training days" are over, but whose zeal in military matters has not abated with their increasing years.

Before the close of the meeting, some seventy-five new members were enrolled, making the whole number about one hundred and thirty. Among the new members were Hon. Daniel Marcy and Clement March, Esq., of this city. One clergyman, the Rev. M. W. Willis, pastor of the Unitarian Church at Nashua, was enlisted, and as the Constitution provides for a Chaplain, it is probable that this gentleman will be elected to this position.

Col. Henry O. Kent of Lancaster presented a copy of "McLellan's Report" of the commission to the Crimea, also "Cavalry Tactics," in two volumes, and other valuable documents, all of which had been forwarded from the War Department, for the use of the corps.

The meeting adjourned till evening, when matters of interest were discussed, and at 9 o'clock an adjournment was made to the second Wednesday in January next, at which time the election of all the officers, military and civil, will take place. As this will be the last strictly business meeting of the corps for the space of one year, and as matters of much importance will then come up for final action, it is hoped that all who take an interest in the enterprise will be present on this occasion.

Shipwreck—Men Lost.—The Newburyport Herald says that on Friday evening a piece of a wreck with five bodies fastened to it, came ashore on Salisbury Beach, supposed to belong to a coal-vessel wrecked in the last storm. We have no information beyond the fact of the loss. The vessel to which the men belonged, undoubtedly went ashore where the men hoped to be rescued, and to retain their hold lashed themselves to the piece that floated them to the shore.

Catarrhal Cough.
This insidious and annoying symptom, so difficult to treat, depends on a subacute inflammation of the air-passages, which is apt to end in chronic ulceration and a form of consumption. The mucous membrane of the air-passages is peculiarly susceptible to the healing influences of the PERUVIAN SYRUP, as the testimonials of some of our first citizens show.

Dr. Hostetter's Bitters have received the warmest encomiums from the press and people throughout the Union. As a valuable tonic for the cure of Dyspepsia, Flatulence, Constipation and general nervous debility, it cannot be approached. Every day new cases of its great effect are chronicled through our public journals. There is nothing equal to the enjoyment, to that which the afflicted experience when using this valuable specific. Its mild tone, its sure and vigorous action upon a disordered stomach, and the cleansing of the entire human body should recommend it to all classes of our community. All that will be necessary to convince the skeptical of its healthy effects, is to purchase a bottle and be convinced.
Sold by druggists and dealers generally, everywhere.

Among the restoratives which Nature has supplied to relieve the afflictions of humanity there is no more favorite one for a certain class of diseases than the "medicinal gum" of the Wild Cherry Tree; but however valuable it is, its power to heal, to soothe, to relieve, and to cure, is enhanced ten-fold by scientific and judicious combination with other ingredients, in themselves of equal worth. This happy mingling exists in that

Whose value in curing Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Whooping Cough, Croup, Asthma, Pulmonary Affection and Incipient Consumption, is inestimable.
HOME TESTIMONY.
Boston, April 18, 1852.
No. 48 Union St.
Mr. Seth W. Fowle,—Dear Sir:—Your invaluable medicine, I can truly say, has literally snatched me from the grave. Last July I was attacked by a sudden cold, which resulted in a very severe Cough, with violent pains in the side and chest. I became so much reduced, that my friends frankly told me that I must die. At this crisis, I heard of Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, and immediately sent for a bottle. The effect produced was indeed wonderful. My physician, one of the most respectable in Boston, who had previously told me that a cure was hopeless, came in, and I informed him what I had taken. He examined the Balsam, and advised me to continue the use of it, since which time I have continued to improve daily; and the same physician who had given me up, told me, a few days since, that I might yet live many years.
Respectfully, MARY ROWE.
We can cheerfully testify to the truth of the above statement, Mrs. Rowe having been an inmate of our family. WILLIAM DENNETT, MARTHA DENNETT.

ALMOST A FIRE.—About sunrise, Tuesday morning, a slight alarm of fire was raised at the South End; the Old South bell was rung a little, and an engine or two tumbled out. But soon the usual quiet was restored—and it appeared, that the roof of Mr. Drake's new iron foundry, on Mechanic street, had caught fire, but was extinguished before the engines could get there. A stove-pipe ran out through the roof, and it is thought that the flames caught from sparks of the fire made in this stove early in the morning.

☞ The alarm of fire on Tuesday night, was occasioned by the discovery of fire in a coal-shed on Long wharf. Fortunately, the watchmen saw it before it had made much progress, and with the prompt assistance of the engines, it was speedily extinguished.

☞ Last Sunday, at the close of the afternoon service held in the Middle street Baptist Church, Dr. Lamson received a formal dismissal as Pastor of that society.—There are now three societies in this city without settled ministers: the Orthodox, Christian, and Baptist, to which Dr. Lamson belonged.

Elder Moses Howe is to supply the pulpit and act as pastor of the Christian Society for the present.

THE LYCEUM.—The largest audience of the season was in attendance last evening, to see and hear "Grace Greenwood," and enjoy Mr. Lang's piano-playing. After half an hour of his exquisite fingering of that fine piano—from which he brought out yet other new beauties and qualities of tone, and in which he shew still greater excellencies—the lady speaker was introduced to the audience by Rev. Dr. Peabody, in a few remarks—he having previous acquaintance with her. The managers of the Lyceum have preferred to dispense with the usual formal verbal introduction of speakers already known to the audience, and to let the lecturers do all the talking themselves; but in courtesy to a lady, deemed it advisable to depart from their rule in this instance.

The subject of the lecture is well expressed by its title, "The Heroic in Common Life;" and the aim was to show that there is much of real heroism exhibited in every-day experiences around us, of which the world knows not and heeds not. The discourse was finely written, neatly delivered, and of course, well received. We intend to publish an abstract to-morrow—though it might perhaps seem useless, since all interested in it were there to hear, or should have been.

CALIFORNIA NEWS.—St. Louis, Dec. 12.—The overland mail with San Francisco dates of the 15th ult. arrived last night.

The steamer Northerner, was several days overdue from Puget Sound, but it was presumed Gen. Scott had detained her.

The tax on goods owned abroad and sold by San Francisco commission merchants had been decided to be unconstitutional.

Twenty thousand francs worth of diamonds recently smuggled into San Francisco had been forfeited to the Goverment.

In the case of Boggs vs. the Merced Mining Company, involving the title to Col. Fremont's estate and the exclusive right to the minerals contained therein, the Supreme Court have decided that the charge of fraud in the survey is not substantiated, and argue that if there had been fraud it would not invalidate the patent. The Court only partially met the point as to the ownership of the minerals, but substantially give the gold as well as the land to Col. Fremont, and clearly decide that private tracts of land are not open to the public to search for minerals.

Accounts from Carson Valley say that the election on the 12th ult, for a delegate to Congress from the Nevada Territory, resulted, as far as heard from, in the unanimous election of John J. Musser.

THE ROCKPORT CASE.—The Rockport case, for entering a shop and destroying liquors on July 8, 1856, was heard at Salem, before Judge Rockwell, in the Superior Court.

The first verdict having been set aside, in consequence of the charge of Judge Shaw, affirming the right of the public to enter and abate a liquor shop as a public nuisance, the case was again presented to the jury, and occupied the Court on Thursday and Friday.

The defendants undertook to show that they had committed no trespass, and the jury, after being out eighteen hours, returned a verdict for defendants.

So the women who smashed the bottles, and broke up the groggery, "go unwhipt of justice," and their husbands also. Well: we always thought justice would not whip them very hard, (says Uncle Toby;) but then we did not know but the bar and bench might soft soap the jury, and so let injustice whip them severely. It is no uncommon thing to see justice violated under legal forms.

☞ Richard Realf, supposed to be John Brown's Secretary of State, who was arrested at the South, has been discharged from custody for want of evidence on which to find a charge against him.

☞ Our advertising friends are filling us up just now. We owe an apology to some, perhaps, for delaying their favors.

☞ The navigation upon the Connecticut River is closed for thes eason.

☞ In Congress, Monday, Dec, 12, both Senate and House debated politico-slavery.

In the Senate, a resolution was adopted, appointing a Committee to wait on the President and inform him that the Senate was ready to receive communications, in order that he may have an opportunity to send nominations and Executive business previous to the organization of the House.

It was resolved to proceed with the election of Chaplain on Thursday next.

FRANKFORT, KY., Dec. 12.—The Legislature to-day elected Hon. John C. Breckinridge U. S. Senator from this State, in place of Hon. John J. Crittenden, by 29 majority on joint ballot.

Thus he is Vice President and Senator—the first case of the kind, we think. Who can tell whether this will affect the chances of Mr. Douglas or Mr. Anybody else, for nomination at Charleston, or for election?

NEW YORK, Dec. 13.—Special dispatches from Washington state that the Secretary of the Treasury refuses to pay members mileage and salary, though appropriated, on the ground that no evidence of membership exists till a Speaker's certificate is furnished.

There is a rumor that a distinguished Senator and Representative from a Southern State have determined to settle a dispute of long standing by a duel.

The Southern Democrats are beginning to discuss the claims of candidates for the Charleston nomination.

Gen. Jos. Lane, of Oregon, is a favorite with many.

TRIAL FOR MURDER.—Chicago, Dec. 12.—Henry Jumperts, who has been on trial for the last twenty days for the murder of Sophia Werner, whose remains were found in a barrel at the Hudson River Railroad depot in New York, in the Spring of 1858, was acquitted to-day.

PHYSICAL COURAGE.—It is a foolish delusion to suppose, that as the world grows pacific, the demand for physical courage passes away. It is only that its applications become nobler. In barbarous ages, men fight against men and animals, and need, like Achilles, to be fed on the marrow of wild beasts. As time elapses, the savage animals are extirpated, the savage men are civilized; but Nature acting through science, commerce, society, is still creating new exigencies of peril, and evoking new types of Courage to meet them. Grace Darling at her oars, Kane in his open boat, Stephenson testing his safety-lamp in the terrible pit—what were the trophies of Miltiades to these?

Physical courage is not, therefore, a thing to be so easily set aside. Nor is it, as reformers appear sometimes to assume, a mere corollary from moral courage, and ultimately, to be merged in that. Moral courage is rare enough, no doubt—probably the rarer quality of the two, as it is the nobler; bnt they are things diverse, and not necessarially united. There have been men, and still are such, leaders in their age in moral courage, and yet physically timid. This is not as it should be. God placed man at the head of the visible universe, and if he is to be thrown from his control, daunted by a bullet, or wild horse, or a flash of lightning, or lee shore, then man is dishonored, and the order of the universe deranged. No matter what the occasion of the terror is, a mouse or a martyrdom, fear dethrones us. "He that lives in fear of death," said Cæsar, "every moment feels its tortures. I will die but once."

STOVE STORE REMOVED.

URIAH BLAISDELL

Has removed his Stove and Furnishing Establishment one door north, to the spacious and convenient store

Nos. 43 & 45 Market Street,

where he is receiving and arranging a large and valuable Stock of

STOVES, TIN WARE, &c.,

Which he offers for sale at wholesale and retail, at very low prices. He has a great variety of the best and most popular Stoves, among which are:

1. The Stewart Cook Stove, with the latest improvements. This is an air-tight Cook Stove, for Wood or Coal; it has moveable coverings which can confine the heat in the stove, or let it out into the room; has a reservoir of hot water 10 or 20 gallons, and a tin closet beneath;—a top cover, which is a great institution for baking, and will keep a coal fire all night; it has a Dutch Oven for roasting in front of the Stove;—and it is every way a most convenient and durable Stove. There are 4 sizes.

The following recommendation of Stewart's Stove, is from an eminent engineer, and must be satisfactory to all who wish to understand the value of this excellent Stove:

Portsmouth, N. H., Nov. 5, 1859.

Mr. Blaisdell:—Seven years ago I moved to this city, and sold, before I came, a "Stewart's Air Tight Cooking Stove," which I had used about five years. During that time no repairs or expense had been made upon it. Since I have been here I have tried the various Cooking Stoves in use, and I think for economy and durability the "Stewart" excels them all. I wish you would take away the Stove I now have from my house, and set up one of Stewart's as soon as you can. Your ob't servant,

B. F. CHANDLER.

2. Boston & Maine Cook Stove;
3. White Mountain;
4. Empire State;
5. Enterprise;
6. Exchange;
7. Dining Room Cook Stoves, and others.

THE ONLY PREPARATION
WORTHY OF
Universal Confidence and Patronage.

FOR STATESMEN, JUDGES, CLERGYMEN.

Ladies and Gentlemen, in all parts of the world testify to the efficacy of Prof. O. J. Wood's Hair Restorative, and gentlemen of the Frees are unanimous in its praise. A few testimonials only can be here given; see circular for more, and it will be impossible for you to doubt.

47 Wall Street, New York, Dec. 20, 1858.

GENTLEMEN:—Your note of the 15th inst., has been received, saying that you had heard that I had been benefitted by the use of Wood's Hair Restorative, and requesting my certificate of the fact if I had no objection to give it.

I award it to you cheerfully, because I think it due. My age is about 50 years; the color of my hair auburn, and inclined to curl. Some five or six years since it began to turn gray, and the scalp on the crown of my head to lose its sensibility and dandruff to form upon it. Each of these disagreeabilities increased with time, and about four months since a fourth was added to them, by hair falling off the top of my head and threatening to make me bald.

In this unpleasant predicament, I was induced to try Wood's Hair Restorative, mainly to arrest the falling off of my hair, for I had really no expectation that gray hair could ever be restored to its original color except from dyes. I was, however, greatly surprised to find after the use of two bottles only, that not only was the falling off arrested, but the color was restored to the gray hairs and sensibility to the scalp, and dandruff ceased to form on my head, very much to the gratification of my wife, at whose solicitation I was induced to try it.

For this, among the many obligations I owe to her sex, I strongly recommend all husbands who value the admiration of their wives to profit by my example, and use it if growing gray or getting bald. Very Respectfully,

BENJ. A. LAVENDER.

To O. J. Wood & Co, 444 Broadway, N. Y.

Siamaston, Ala., July 20th, 1589.

To Prof. O. J. Wood: Dear Sir: Your "Hair Restorative" has done my hair so much good since I commenced the use of it, that I wish to make known to the PUBLIC its effects on the hair, which are great. A man or woman may be nearly deprived of hair, and by a resort to your "Hair Restorative," the hair will return more beautiful than ever; at least this is my experience. Believe it all! Yours truly,

W. H. K. KENEDY.

P. S.—You can publish the above if you like.—By publishing in our Southern papers you will get more patronage south. I see several of your certificates in the Mobile Mercury, a strong Southern paper. W. H. K.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.

Professor O. J. Wood:—Dear Sir:—Having had the misfortune to lose the best portion of my hair, from the effects of the yellow fever, in New Orleans in 1851, I was induced to make a trial of your preparation, and found it to be the very thing needed. My hair is now thick and glossy, and no words can express my obligations to you in giving to the afflicted such a treasure.

FINLEY JOHNSON.

The Restorative is put up in bottles of three sizes, viz: large, medium, and small; the small holds half a pint, and retails for one dollar per bottle; the medium holds at least twenty per cent. more in proportion than the small, retails for two dollars per bottle; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent. more in proportion, and retails for $3 a bottle.

☞ The Portland Advertiser expresses much pleasure in the use of the new City Hall, and says:—

We think that if any of the croakers, political or financial, who have doubted the necessity of constructing a new City Hall, have attended the two lectures of the Mercantile Library Association, they must have been satisfied that even with our present number of inhabitants, such a hall was needed. To see sixteen to seventeen hundred persons comfortably seated, and all where they could both see and hear distinctly, was a sight alone worth the low price of the ticket this season.

The only objection we heard made to the hall, was by a young lady, who "appeared out" with her new winter bonnet, and who objected to a seat under the chandelier, because she thought the tallow from the candles might spoil her new bonnet! No doubt she watched their drippings through the evening, and we suppose at the close of the lecture found as a reason why the candles had not lessened in length, that they were made of glass and lit by gas.

NEW YORK, Dec. 10.—A baggage train on the Northern Railroad of New Jersey, ran into a milk wagon this morning, when near Piermont. The wagon contained two boys, both of whom were fatally injured.

Captain E. I. Farnum, late commander of the slave yacht Wanderer, was arrested to-day on a requisition from Savannah and taken to that city. He is charged with having forcibly detained a number of negroes on board the Wanderer last May.

Patrick Honeyman died in this city, today, from injuries received a few days ago in a match fight with Patrick Fannam, who had charged him with passing counterfeit coin. Honeyman was the recent candidate for Alderman from the 14th Ward.

BLOOD FOOD.

Dr. Bronson, having been so far reduced by consumption, as to be considered beyond all hope of recovery by the most eminent of the medical profession, and also by himself—a regular physician of twenty years' practice—as a last resort, conceived the idea of ANALYZING THE BLOOD, and applying the subject of physiology to the more immediate connection, and effect of the state of the blood upon the health and system. The result has been the production of this "BLOOD FOOD," from the use of which, Dr. Bronson was restored to perfect health. Within six months after its introduction, over 2000 consumptives were effectually cured by it. If you have any complaints of a consumptive tendency, Cough, Cold, Headache, Palpitation of the Heart, Loss of Appetite, or Pain in the Side, lose no time in procuring a bottle of the "BLOOD FOOD." If you are suffering from Nervous Debility, or your sleep is broken and disturbed, if your Spirits are depressed or your organs relaxed, you will find in this an unfailing remedy, by commencing with ten drops. If your Liver is torpid or diseased in any manner whatever, one or two bottles will be sure to invigorate, and bring it into lively and healthful action. In the most inveterate cases of Dyspepsia, the patient can here find the most efficient and grateful relief. A benefit is always experienced after taking only one bottle. In Male or Female Complaints or Weaknesses, the sufferer, after trying other remedies in vain, may rest assured, that a certain cure will result from the use of two or three bottles. The "BLOOD FOOD" is effectual in all cases of Eruptions, Salt Rheum, Scrofulas, and other like complaints. Pale and emaciated children and adults are immediately benefitted by its use. It gives strength to the body, and color and beauty to the skin. Physicians of all schools are using it with wonderful success.

For full directions, see circulars. Price $1 per bottle.

AMERICAN & FOREIGN PATENTS.

R. H. EDDY, Solicitor of Patents,
Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the act of 1837.

76 STATE, OPPOSITE KILBY ST., BOSTON.

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions,—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate. The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

I have no hesitation in assuring inventors they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHAS. MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

BOSTON, February 8, 1858.

Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that one is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges. JOHN TAGGART.

From Sept 17, 1857, to June 17, 1858, the subscriber, in the course of his large practice, made on twenty rejected applications, SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in HIS FAVOR, by the Commissioner of Patents.

Boston, Jan. 1, 1859. R. H. EDDY.

with many others, for wood or coal, which will be sold at such prices as shall defy competition.

The Combination Stove and Range.

One of the greatest inventions of the age, for Cooking purposes,—made expressly for large families, boarding houses, hotels, &c.; or wherever a great amount of Cooking is required in the shortest possible time, it having 3 large ovens, 8 boiler holes and separate apartments for baking, broiling, frying or roasting, requiring no more fuel than any ordinary Cooking Stove. It is warranted to give entire satisfaction in every particular in point of economy, convenience, or ease of management; as we believe it to be far ahead of anything of the kind yet introduced into this market. We therefore ask an examination of the "Combination Stove & Range," feeling confident that it supersedes all others for which it is intended, and will be sold at a very low price.

THE MAGEE.

The Celebrated Magee Patent

Ventilating Parlor Stove,

All sizes—acknowledged by every one to be the BEST STOVE IN THE WORLD.

The fire can be kept through the entire season without once going out, giving the greatest amount of heat from the least fuel of any other Stove known.

The fire can be regulated to the mildest as well as the coldest weather, and at the same time perfectly ventilating the apartment in which they are used. We have sold hundreds of them the past year, and have testimonials of the highest order, acknowledging their superiority over every other Stove yet invented. To every one in search of the best Stove that can be found, we would say,

"Try the Magee."

These Furnaces work on the same principle as the Magee Stoves. They are simple and easily operated, requiring only about half the coal of any other Furnace—will keep fire the whole season, and are not liable to get out of order.

We would invite the attention of those interested to an examination of the MAGEE FURNACE, and at the same time refer them to a number of places in this city where we have erected them the past year; and in every instance have given perfect satisfaction.

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA,

A compound remedy in which we have labored to produce the most effectual alterative that can be made. It is a concentrated extract of Para Sarsaparilla, of combined with other substances of still greater alterative power as to afford an effective antidote for the diseases Sarsaparilla is repuated to cure. It is believed that such a remedy is wanted by those who suffer from Strumous complaints, and that one which will a complish their cure must be of immense service to this large class of our afflicted fellow citizens. How completely this compound will do it, has been proven by experiment on many of the worst cases to be found in the following complaints:—

SCROFULA AND SCROFULOUS COMPLAINTS, ERUPTIONS AND ERUPTIVE DISEASES, ULCERS, PIMPLES, BLOTCHES, TUMORS, SALT RHEUM, SCALD HEAD, SYPHILIS AND SYPHILITIC AFFECTIONS, MERCURIAL DISEASE, DROPSY, NEURALGIA OR TIC DOULOUREUX, DEBILITY, DYSPEPSIA AND INDIGESTION, ERYSIPELAS, ROSE OR ST. ANTHONY'S FIRE, and indeed the whole class of complaints arising from IMPURITY OF THE BLOOD.

This compound will be found a great promoter of health, when taken in the spring, to expel the foul humors which fester in the blood at that season of the year. By the timely expulsion of them many rankling disorders are nipped in the bud.—Multitudes can, by the aid of this remedy, spare themselves from the endurance of foul eruptions and ulcerous sores, through which the system will strive to rid itself of corruptions, if not assisted to do this through the natural channels of the body by an alterative medicine. Cleanse out the vitiated blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in pimples, eruptions or sores;—cleanse it when you find it is obstructed or sluggish in the veins; cleanse it whenever it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Even where no positive disorder is felt, many will enjoy better health, and live live longer, for cleansing the blood. Keep the blood healthy, and all is well; but with this pabulum of life disordered, there can be no lasting health. Sooner or later something must go wrong, and the great machinery of life is disordered or overthrown.

Sarsaparilla has, and deserves much, the reputation of accomplishing these ends. But the world has been egregiously deceived by preparations of it, partly because the drug alone has not all the virtue that is claimed for it, but more because many preparations, pretending to be concentrated extracts of it contain but little of the Virtue of Sarsaparilla, or anything else.

During late years the public have been misled by large bottles, pretending to give a quart of Extract of Sarparilla for one dollar. Most of these have been frauds upon the sick, for they not only contain little, if any, Sarsaparilla, but often no curative properties whatever. Hence bitter and painful disappointment has followed the use of the various extracts of Sarsaparilla which flood the market, until the name itself is justly despised, and has become synonymous with imposition and cheat. Still we call this compound Sarsaparilla, and intend to supply such a remedy as shall rescue the name from the load of obloquy which rests upon it. And we think we have grounds for believing it has virtues which are recognized by the ordinary run of the diseases it is intended to cure. In order to secure their complete eradication from the system, the remedy should be judiciously taken according to directions on the bottle.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral

Has won for itself such a renown for the cure of every variety of Throat and Lung Complaint, that it is entirely unnecessary for us to recount the evidence of its virtues, wherever it has been employed. As it has long been in constant use throughout this section, we need not do more than remind the people that quality is still the best it ever has been, and that it may be relied on to do for their relief all it has ever been found to do.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills.

Great numbers of Clergymen, Physicians, Statesmen and eminent personages, have left their names to certify to the wonderful usefulness of these remedies, but our space here will not permit the insertion of them. The Agent below named furnishes gratis our Ameritan Almanac, in which they are given; with also full descriptions of the above complaints, and the treatment that should be followed for their cure.

Do not be put off by unprincipled dealers with other preparations they make more profit on.—Demand AYER'S, and take no other. The sick want the best aid there is for them, and they should have it.

DR. J. B. HUGHES,

Knowing that there are at this moment thousands of persons in the surrounding towns, rendering their lives to the insidious inroads of certain dangerous maladies, who still suffer from the reluctance to make known their complaints and consult a physician, he would state that some of his medicines will be sent by express or otherwise, to all who may order them, provided the true description of the disease be sent by letter and directed as above.

Full and explicit directions will accompany every package, and the most inviolable secrecy preserved.

DR. HUGHES can with safety say during the last year of his practice in Boston, more than two hundred cases of disease which have been imperfectly treated by empyrics have come under his care and more than three-fourths of this number were inscribed upon his books as perfect cures.

Patients treated by letter by addressing Dr. Hughes, post paid, and medicines sent all over the country, carefully concealed from scrutinizing friends.

Be particular in finding Dr. Hughes. Do not be lured from the right path, or be persuaded to make experiments with false and fictitious remedies at the expense of destroying what is the great pillar of life, a healthy constitution.

This medicine can only be obtained at the Office of Dr. HUGHES, 13 Howard street, Boston.

DR. J. B. HUGHES UNIVERSAL FEMALE RENOVATING PILLS. These pills are universally led in efficacy and superior virtue in regulating female irregularities. Their action is specific and certain, producing relief in a short space of time. They are acknowledged to be the best in use.

The Dr. cautions the public to beware of impositions that are being practiced by advertising spurious article under some spurious or fictitious name. They are entirely useless, having been got up by miserable pretenders who are entirely ignorant of the efficacy of medicines.

All who are in pursuit of the genuine article had better call on the Dr. at his office, where they will be sure of getting the genuine—the only pills in Boston where the genuine is for sale.

These pills can be sent to any part of the country with directions. Remember the number—13 Howard street, Boston.

P. S.—The best of accommodations furnished with kind and attentive nurses if they wish, at reasonable rate. 2d

PURE LIQUORS
—FOR—FAMILY
—AND—
MEDICINAL PURPOSES!
NO species of deception and fraud should receive stronger public condemnation than that of imposing upon the sick with
Adulterated and Poisonous Liquors!
The market is flooded with these adulterated poisons. They have found their way into every State, City, Town and Village in the country, and are carrying incurable insanity to the victims of these terrible agents.
In consequence of the startling developments in regard to
STATE AGENCY LIQUORS,
and the almost universal distrust which now prevails, and to the end that confidence may be restored, we come before the public, pledging our reputation to supply
UNADULTERATED LIQUORS
EXPRESSLY FOR
MEDICINAL PURPOSES.
In asking the confidence of those who have been so outrageously imposed upon by the POISONOUS COMPOUNDS of "LICENSED POLITICAL CHEATS," we would refer to our antecedents for the past eighty years, and we trust that our established reputation abundantly vindicates our claims to public confidence.
OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.
"The Bininger, 338 Broadway, have a very high reputation to sustain, as the oldest and best house in New York."—Home Journal.
"The house of A. M. Bininger & Co., No. 338 Broadway, has sustained, for a period of eighty years, a reputation that may well be envied."—N. Y. Evening Post.
"The name of A. M. Bininger & Co. is a guarantee of the exact and literal truth of whatever they represent."—N. Y. Com. Advertiser.
"The importing house of A. M. Bininger & Co., No. 338 Broadway, is conducted upon principles of integrity, fairness, and the highest honor."—N. Y Evening Express.
To Druggists, Town Agents and Physicians,
desirous of purchasing liquors of undoubted purity, we would say that our House has made a specialty of selling PURE, UNADULTERATED LIQUORS for Medicinal purposes, and we claim that they are superior to anything now before the public.
With these assurances on our part, we name a few of our bottled goods, which are now freely prescribed by the faculty
BININGER'S
GENUINE COGNAC BRANDY.
The infamous practice of adultering Brandies having become so common that a genuine article is the exception, it is of vital importance to those requiring it for family use, and invalids, that it should be of undoubted purity and efficacy. With a view to meeting the popular demand for a reliable Brandy in its natural state, free from alcoholic flavor and impurities, and fully appreciating the fact that it is often recommended by the Medical Faculty as a sustaining stimulant, when all other remedies fail, we are now bottling and selling at reasonable rates a Brandy of our own importation, from one of the most responsible houses in France, and known as "Bininger's Genuine Cognac Brandy." It is mild, delicate and fruity, and is designed to be always uniform in quality and character.
BININGER'S
OLD LONDON DOCK GIN
has been a favorite with the Profession for many years. For all cases of Gravel it will certainly work a cure, and if taken as a preventive, will remove all possible sediment. It is invaluable to females in diseases peculiar to their sex, and in cases of tendency to Phthisis or Consumption, will often ward off that fell disease.
BININGER'S
OLD KENTUCKY BOURBON.
Being distilled in 1848, and manufactured expressly for us with great care, it can be relied upon as a strictly pure stimulant, and peculiarly effective for the treatment of Lung Complaints, Dyspepsia, Derangement of the Stomach, Nervousness, &c.
BININGER'S
HEIDELBERG BRANNTWEIN.
Since its introduction into this country it has received the professional endorsement of our eminent physicians, for the effective treatment of Dyspepsia, Gravel, Rheumatism, Dropsy, Bladder Complaints, Suppression of the Menses, Nervousness, Derangement of the Stomach, General Debility, etc.
BININGER'S
OLD DOMINION WHEAT TONIC.
For Family and Medicinal Use.
This article has received the highest encomiums from eminent medical authorities as possessing qualities that are absolutely BATTERING; this desideratum renders it invaluable to those who are suffering from Consumption, Lung Complaints, Bronchitis, Impaired Strength, Lack of Vital Energy, &c.
☞ All the above articles are put up in Quart Bottles, in iron bound cases of one and two dozen each.
Orders from the country will receive prompt attention. Circulars, containing a list of articles and prices, forwarded to those desiring them.

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

THURSDAY, DEC. 15, 1859.

☞ The Boston Post gives us the following anti-Beecher item.

Henry Ward Beecher went to Philadelphia to lecture, last week, and supposing that his audience were mainly of the abolition and union-hating stripe, he went out of his way to glorify John Brown, and to denounce those who had censured him. He was cut short, however, by one of the most violent storms of hisses which were ever aimed at a man who was defying public sentiment and insulting persons who came to a lecture which was avowedly only literary. The uproar for a time created considerable panic. Through the forbearance of those who execrated the sentiments of the speaker, he was allowed to proceed, after a suitable hissing, with his remarks.

Well: says Uncle Toby, this is a great and gratifying mark of improvement. Only about 20 years ago, in Philadelphia, when some people ventured to say something against slavery in an audience that did not come to a lecture avowedly literary, a mob dispersed the assembly, and burnt down Liberty Hall.

If they improve as fast for twenty years to come, as they have for the last twenty,—they may in 1879 or '80, be shouting on freedom's side.

☞ The Boston Courier has a Washington correspondent who says, deploringly,—

No organization, and nothing but debate of the Impending Crisis, the Irrepressible Conflict, and Harper's Ferry, at either end of the capitol!

Then he says, emphatically,—

It is vain for the Republicans to pretend that the Democracy as a party, or the South as a section, introduced the agitating subjects.

This is very important, if true. It happens, however, that Mr. Mason of Virginia, who is commonly called a democrat, introduced Harper's Ferry into the Senate, at the very first moment of its possible action. And Mr. Clark of Missouri, who is also called a Democrat, introduced the Impending Crisis into the House, as a test question, on which to crush out every contumacious democrat or South American, who could not or would not pronounce shibboleth with a full accent.

Both these are Southern men. If they do not speak for the party or the section,—who can?

But then, the same writer says, argumentatively,—

The necessity for noticing them at the outset was caused by the action of the Republicans in and out of Congress.

This is very true: out of Congress the black republicans had been acting "very naughty"—they had elected over 100 Representatives, and other heretics had chosen about 30 more. In Congress, if something had not been done, some notice taken of these alarming circumstances, a Speaker might have been chosen last week,—and they might possibly have chosen Sherman, a republican.

One more extract from the letter, shows how weary the writer is, of the dreadful suspense.

The fault for the non organization of the House rests exclusively with the Opposition. It is well known that the President desires and has all along desired an early organization without improper obstruction or unnecessary excitement. If John Sherman is, after all, to be the man of the majority of the House, the President is understood to be clearly of opinion that such a consummation (if it must come) should be done without delay,—leaving the responsibility with those who combine to elect him.

We have no doubt the president, and the creditors of the general government, ardently desire to see the wheels in motion.

And when the administration gets 86 or 88 votes, and the opposition (of all colors) gets 142, it is a very serious obstacle in the way of the machine.

"GRACE GREENWOOD'S" LECTURE

ON THE HEROIC IN COMMON LIFE.

She began by an allusion to the plague at Marseilles, in 1720, when 50,000 people perished; and the bent of the population was towards barbarism, and a moral chaos reigned. But side by side with the deeds of selfishness and cruelty, were noble examples of heroism. There was a grand example of humanity and devotion by the physicians, the priests headed by the bishop, the officers of the city, and eminent citizens, prominent among whom was the Chevalier Rose, a man of wealth and education, who founded a hospital for the sick, and maintained it at his own expense.

At first he devoted himself to attendance there, but after a time gave it up for a more terrible duty. There was such a dread among the citizens, that the dead were lef to decay in the streets, and he felt himself called to remove them and bury them in pits outside the city; and procuring carts, with drivers obtained by bribes, and assisted by slaves, he lifted the dead into the carts with his own delicate hands, till all were removed. "What," asked the speaker, "what was the charge of Balaklava to that?"

Reference was next made to the hospital at Scutari, and to the noblest woman of the time—Florence Nightingale—"to breathe whose name merely, did one good, as a prayer." Blessings had followed her, the wounded had looked upon her with devotion, and rude fighting men had kissed her shadow upon their pillows.

The Rose of France and the Nightingale of England, though separated by time, would be united to all eternity in the memory of those who love heroic deeds. There were many unsuspected Roses sweetening life's lowly places—there were many mute Nightingales of which the busy world takes no note, but whose melodious works sing in the ear of God. To these unsung heroes, and these inheritors of untold renown, it was just that we should pay the poor tribute of praise.

The fever which raged at Norfolk in 1855, spread a wild panic, and all fled, who could, save a few who had the courage to face the pestilence. Among those who remained to comfort the sick were most of the clergy—Protestant and Catholic. The ignorant shuffled off the mortal coil of sympathy, and died a thousand deaths in their fears. Here, as at Marseilles, were noble deeds, mostly by humble men—some of them slaves, who should have a little honor. In the hospitals the sick were in need of woman's help and consolation, but in all the Norfolk homes there was not one willing to lead in a work like this. The matrons that remained had enough to do to look after their own families, leaving the strangers to die in the hospitals.

In Norfolk, as in other cities, there were women whom society had cast out—victims of man's wrong—melancholy wrecks of womanhood on life's stormy sea;—there these Magdalens of Scripture came forth in their humanity—into the deeps of their forgotten souls had gone the cry of distress, and they came forth from their abodes of misery, and from their gilded houses of shame, and took their places by the side of the sick and dying, and the most righteous and pious dared not forbid them. Little dreamed the convalescent to whom they administered comfort, who they were. Month after month they remained, never shrinking from any office of mercy, however repulsive.

From time to time one and another fell at their post. And what a death—that of a martyr without a martyr's consolation—they were not yet saints, for saints are not made so speedily. As they passed away, others took their places, gladly striving to take hold upon this slender hope. Their work was not so much an expiation of their life of sin, as a resurrection of their old life of purity. They labored like heroines,—yea, like Christians,—risking and sacrificing their lives. Not one name is remembered, for the graves of such tell no tales.

But this is of no consequence, as they probably did not bear the names given them by their mothers, having laid them by with their purity; but their work should be remembered, as a rebuke of pharisecism, and to strengthen confidence in human nature—in woman's nature—even in her most depraved state.

The death of Dr. Kane was referred to, and he was praised as the man "who lived and did no harm." Among his humble associates in his great expedition were men who were equally resolute and firm, and who suffered as much as he, but the honors were not thus divided. They must be joined to the great body of unknown heroes.

Lady Franklin's trials and fortitude had won the sympathy of the world, and all were shareholders in her grief, if not in her hopes. In her last effort she had ventured all and triumphed, wresting from Nature the secret she had kept so well. But the wives of the seamen who perished with their leader, whatof them? Who has heard their voices of sorrow? In lowly cottages was hid their grief, which looked out from eyes that could not forget their old trick of watching. Their labors and sufferings show that the heroine who grandly does, is not greater than she who patiently endures.

The memory of the heroic conduct of Captain Herndon will not die—even the sea will talk grandly of him, like a murderer who repents and babbles in his sleep.—Akin to his devotion to duty was a case that occurred at the burning of a steamboat on a Western lake. A lady, who by means of a settee saved herself and two children, told her that once, while in the water, she saw an unknown man coming towards her, apparently nearly exhausted and desperate.—She bogged of him not to disturb her children, when he stopped, looked at them a moment, threw up his arms and went down with a groan of resignation. That act was grandly human.

People complain of the sordid character of the age, but there are as many heroes now as ever. The emigration to Kansas and California has shown them; the seamen on the coast are among them; the red-shirted firemen of the cities are not without their heroes, and can boast their martyrs.—Though rough and quarreling sometimes, it was better to hold the hose than to direct bombshells on women and children; better to run with the machine, than to lead the flying artillery in the cause of oppression.

There was a heroism in carrying on the reforms of the age, opposed by the world they would bless and the humanity they would redeem.

Among the unknown heroes, too, were the women who lead a dress reform; the men who set their feet on unholy passions; the woman who would die rather than injure a rival; the young man and the young woman who don't get married, that they may sustain and comfort their parents; the husband who never murmurs at the trouble caused by a sickly wife; the wife, who having a feeble husband, bears up more than her end of the yoke, seeing no affinities; the poor student struggling against temptation, and the delicate girl who nourishes her soul up and is always cheerful.

The trouble of the age is that we can honor and revere, but we can't imitate, can't see what work there is for us to do.

A fitting mention was made of Rosa Bonheur and Harriet Hosmer, but she was a greater heroine, said the lecturer, who made herself useful in cheerfully doing the common works of life.

She hoped the time would come when we should see things with annointed eyes, and acknowledge that the heroic in common life and common people was the salvation of the world.

To speak harshly to a person of sensibility is like striking a harpsichord with your fists.

Weak minds in disappointment, like beer in a thunderstorm, always turn sour.

Catarrhal Cough.

This insidious and annoying symptom, so difficult to treat, depends on a subacute inflammation of the air-passages, which is apt to end in chronic ulceration and a form of consumption. The mucous membrane of the air-passages is peculiarly susceptible to the healing influences of the PERUVIAN SYRUP, as the testimonials of some of our first citizens show.

Dr. Hostetter's Bitters have received the warmest encomiums from the press and people throughout the Union. As a valuable tonic for the cure of Dyspepsia, Flatulence, Constipation and general nervous debility, it cannot be approached. Every day new cases of its great effect are chronicled through our public journals. There is nothing equal to the enjoyment, to that which the afflicted experience when using this valuable specific. Its mild tone, its sure and vigorous action upon a disordered stomach, and the cleansing of the entire human body should recommend it to all classes of our community. All that will be necessary to convince the skeptical of its healthy effects, is to purchase a bottle and be convinced.

Sold by druggists and dealers generally, everywhere.

Among the restoratives which Nature has supplied to relieve the afflictions of humanity there is no more favorite one for a certain class of diseases than the "medicinal gum" of the Wild Cherry Tree; but however valuable it is, its power to heal, to soothe, to relieve, and to cure, is enhanced ten-fold by scientific and judicious combination with other ingredients, in themselves of equal worth. This happy mingling exists in that

HOME TESTIMONY.

BOSTON, April 18, 1852.
No. 48 Union St.

Mr. Seth W. Fowle,—Dear Sir:—Your invaluable medicine, I can truly say, literally snatched me from the grave. Last July I was attacked by a sudden cold, which resulted in a very severe Cough, with violent pains in the side and chest. I became so much reduced, that my friends frankly told me that I must die. At this crisis, I heard of Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, and immediately sent for a bottle. The effect produced was indeed wonderful. My physician, one of the most respectable in Boston, who had previously told me that a cure was hopeless, came in, and informed him what I had taken. He examined the Balsam, and advised me to continue the use of it, since which time I have continued to improve daily; and the same physician who had given me up, told me, a few days since, that I might yet live many years.

Respectfully, MARY ROWE.

We can cheerfully testify to the truth of the above statement, Mrs. Rowe having been an inmate of our family. WILLIAM DENNETT, ☞ Capt. Jas. Snow, of this city, who piloted the U. S. steamer Mohican from this port to New York, reports most favorably of the vessel,—for himself, Capt. Godon, and all the officers, engineers and seamen. The Mohican was built at this naval station, and this her trial trip, was made under peculiarly adverse circumstances—every thing entirely new, and all hands unacquainted with the vessel, the machinery, and each other.

There was a severe storm, the first night out, which carried away the jib-boom and brought sail down to the close reefs; and the whole passage was stormy and disagreeable. But the gallant little steamer behaved nobly, and proved herself as good a sea-boat as can be found afloat,—and worked to a charm, in every respect. On account of sea-sickness among the engineers and officers, she was run into Provincetown harbor, where she remained several days.—With steam and less than half sail, she made upwards of 12 knots an hour; and Capt. Snow thinks she can make 18.

We take pleasure in chronicling the entire and marked success of this Portsmouth-built ship—which is another testimony to the skill of our mechanics and the ability of Constructor Wm. L. Hanscom, under whose superintendence and according to whose model she was built. May she not prove "the last of the Mohicans" to be built here.

☞ Grace Greenwood's Lecture before the Lyceum on Tuesday evening, was an admirable production, both in respect to its spirit and its literary execution. Moreover, it was delivered so distinctly, deliberately, and with so much soul, as to commend itself to all who heard it.

The abstract of it which we publish today, from a Boston paper, gives but a faint idea of the excellent performance as a whole.

THE EXECUTION IN VIRGINIA.—Charlestown, Va., Dec. 13.—Extensive preparations are making for the approaching execution, Dec. 16. Nineteen companies of military are now on duty, and guards are stationed at every street, corner and cross-road.—Picket guards patrol the surrounding country, and six more companies are announced as on their way here. The citizens find difficulty in passing from one part of the town to another; they are brought to a halt and marched to the guard-house if unable to give the countersign.

Greene and Copeland will be hung at 11 o'clock in the morning, and Cook and Coppie at three in the afternoon. All these men are composed, and look calmly to their approaching doom. Their bodies will be given to their friends, if claimed.

The town is quiet and unexcited by rumors. Military discipline is kept up, however, as if it were encompassed by a besieging army. The people look forward with great pleasure to being exempt from military surveillance, and when the civil government is restored there will be quite a jubilee.—The people would willingly consent that Stevens and Hazlett should spend their days in the Penitentiary, rather than have another military siege at their execution.

THE PRISONER COPPIE. — Richmond, Va., Dec. 13.—A memorial has been presented in the Virginia Legislature, praying for a commutation of the sentence of Coppie.

THE KANSAS ELECTION, which took place, under the new constitution, last week, proved successful to the Republican ticket, by three thousand majority. Charles Robinson of Lawrence was elected governor, and Martin F. Conway, of Lawrence, member of Congress, the same as under the Topeka government, which is virtually revived, with the same constitution substantially, and the same leading officers. In this election, every county but Leavenworth, (where the government fort was located, and contractors, with thousands of men in their employ, make their headquarters,) had gone Republican, and thus the political character of the new state is settled. Two senators of the Republican stamp will be in their seats in Congress, before this session expires.

THE LAST OF THE FORREST DIVORCE CASE.—Alvin C. Bradley to whom this celebrated case was referred, has made a report which is final. It awards to Mrs. Forrest four thousand dollars per annum from the time of the trial to the end of her life, and compels Mr. Forrest to give bond and mortgage security for its prompt payment. What with counsel fees, costs, and incidental expenses, &c., the sum total to come out of the great tragedian's pockets will not be much less than a hundred thousand dollars The N. Y. Herald says that Mr. Forrest is worth at least half a million.

☞ The Boston Recorder intimates that Dr. Pomroy has long been troubled with a disease affecting his brain, causing apprehensions for his sanity. It is a charitable suggestion that his reported lapse from virtue may have had some connection with this.

☞ The snow storm of Wednesday began here at 2 P. M. In Boston about 12 M. At New Bedford snowing fast at 8 A. M.

NEW YORK, Dec. 13. Evening.—The announcement of the steamer United Kingdom being below was a mistake, the Mohican being taken for her.

CONGRESS.

In Congress, Tuesday, Dec. 13, the Senate took up Mr. Mason's resolution on Harper's Ferry, and the debate went on through the whole sitting.

Mr. Clay was confident that the election of a Republican President would necessarily result in a dissolution of the Union.

Mr. Gwin concurred in all that Mr. Clay said, and hoped the Republicans would not press a policy which could only end disastrously to the Union.

This is decidedly rich, for one party, which feels itself weak, to beg the stronger one, in a Republic, not to elect a man of their own choice, but to let the weaker minority choose their man, lest, forsooth, the weaker should rebel against the stronger.

Messrs. Hale and Wilson replied.

Mr. Wade has the floor for to-morrow.

In the House, the notorious Dan Sickles deemed it his "imperative duty" to make a speech, in which he said,

There was no instance where the Southern Courts had failed to take recognizance of or punish those engaged in the slave trade.

When the people of the North witness the inevitable result of the doctrines of the "irrepressible conflict," and the acts of fanatics and traitors invading peaceful homes and firesides, and creating alarm and death—when they find such are the consequences of giving ascendancy to a sectional party, they will sweep it out of existence as summarily as they would drive an enemy from their doors. He considered as a faithful sentinel, it was his duty to admonish the North!

As a citizen of New York, he would say that that State would be faithful to its past history, when it laid the foundations, deep as the mountains, of the Democratic party.

At the conclusion of his remarks, Mr. Sickles was applauded.

Mr. ADRAIN of New Jersey, (whom the compositors all over the land will call Mr. Adrian) made a decided anti-Lecompton, anti-Administration, independent speech.

No candidate of the Charleston Convention could receive the vote of New Jersey unless he agreed to the principle declared. No Democrat could be elected who stands on any other platform. Unless the South stand on this platform, so surely will the reins of government pass into the hands of the Opposition. They had been told that if a Black Republican was elected, it would be cause for a dissolution of the Union.—This was a treasonable sentiment. The people have a right to vote for whom they choose. If any attempt were made to dissolve the Union because of the election of Mr. Seward or any other man, he trusted there would be patriotism enough on the part of the people to put it down. They should wait and see what the conduct of such a President was, and then there would be time enough to consider the subject. But let the democracy take Mr. Douglas, and no Republican could be elected to the Presidential chair.

Mr. Burnett said:—Could he understand Mr. Adrain to say that he and his constituents would not vote for any candidate who does not hold that the people of a Territory may, by unfriendly legislation, exclude slavery therefrom?

Mr. Adrain said there was no doubt about the matter.

Mr. Burnett wished to know whether Mr. Adrain proposed going into the Charleston Convention.

Mr. Adrain replied that he should not be seen there.

Mr. Burnett asked whether he would support the nominee.

Mr. Adrain replied that he would if he stood on the principles he had declared.

Mr. McRae asked Mr. Adrain whether, if the Charleston Convention shall adopt the Cincinnati platform, he would support the nominee.

Mr. Adrain said he would not, nor would his constituents, unless the platform was interpreted to declare that the people of a Territory, like those of a State, have the right to decide the question of slavery for themselves.

Mr. Hickman said the North, in construing the Cincinnati platform, hold that the people, in a territorial condition, have the right to exclude slavery. The South construe it differently, that the people can exclude it only when they come to form a State Constitution. This was the issue between the North and South. He, as a Democrat, would vote for no man, not even for Mr. Douglas, without explanation.

The debate, which was spiey, interesting, and good-humored, was continued by Messrs. Etheridge, McRae and others. Mr. McRae avowed himself in favor of re-opening the slave trade. He, of course, votes for Mr. Bocock.

Mr. McRae has the floor for Wednesday.

☞ Major George B. Hill, of New York, received a letter on Monday, from Hon. Daniel E. Sickle, in which he says that his reception by his colleagues in Congress, at the present session, has been, if possible, more cordial than ever, with one or two insignificant exceptions.

☞ The South American Tract Society's binding and folding rooms, No. 6 Spruce street, New York city, were badly burnt on Tuesday morning—and when the firemen flooded the building to put it out, they made porridge of all the books and paper in the lower stories. Damage $75,000. Insured for $83,000.

STOVE STORE REMOVED.

URIAH BLAISDELL
Has removed his Stove and Furnishing Establishment one door north, to the spacious and convenient store
Nos. 43 & 45 Market Street,
where he is receiving and arranging a large and valuable Stock of
STOVES, TIN WARE, &c.,
Which he offers for sale at wholesale and retail, at very low prices. He has a great variety of the best and most popular Stoves, among which are:

1. The Stewart Cook Stove; with the latest improvements. This is an air-tight Cook Stove, for Wood or Coal; it has moveable coverings, which can confine the heat in the stove, or let it out into the room; has a reservoir of hot water 10 or 20 gallons, and a tin closet beneath;—a top cover, which is a great institution for baking, and will keep a coal fire all night; it has a Dutch Oven for roasting in front of the Stove;—and it is every way a most convenient and durable Stove. There are 4 sizes.

The following recommendation of Stewart's Stove, is from an eminent engineer, and must be satisfactory to all who wish to understand the value of this excellent Stove:

Portsmouth, N. H., Nov. 5, 1859.
Mr. Blaisdell:—Seven years ago I moved to this city, and sold, before I came, a "Stewart's Air Tight Cooking Stove," which I had used about five years. During that time no repairs or expense had been made upon it. Since I have been here I have tried the various Cooking Stoves in use, and I think for economy and durability the "Stewart" excels them all. I wish you would take away the Stove I now have from my house, and set up one of Stewart's as soon as you can. Your ob't servant,
B. F. CHANDLER.

2. Boston & Maine Cook Stove;
3. White Mountain;
4. Empire State;
5. Enterprise;
6. Exchange;
7. Dining Room Cook Stoves, and others.

Fousel's Pabulum Vitæ.

☞ THE GREAT FRENCH REMEDY possesses extraordinary properties for the speedy and permanent cure of CONSUMPTION, BRONCHITIS, CROUPS, COLDS, and all PULMONARY DISEASE.

This celebrated specific is now universally acknowledged to be infinitely superior to all other preparations for the cure of Pulmonary Disease, both from its innocent nature and most astonishing curative properties; it being the only remedy known that will arrest the development of Tubercles in the Lungs or restore the vital functions of the pulmonary organs to their normal condition. Its invaluable properties have obtained for it the highest recommendation and praise from some of the most eminent physicians and chemists in the country: while the best and surest proofs of its merits are afforded by the numerous testimonials of its great efficacy in conquering disease, which are constantly received from our most respectable citizens. Invalids in all stages of pulmonary disease should not fail to give it a trial, as it can be administered to the most delicate and feeble with perfect safety and certain relief; and we herewith insert a few testimonials for their encouragement, selected from hundreds of like import.

Certificate of Dr. A. A. HAYES, in reference to the unequalled virtues of this great discovery.

This preparation, by chemical analysis, was proved to be free from opium, or any of its compounds; nor were any of the alkaloids present. It does not contain any mercurial or mineral substance, but consists wholly of volatile, diffusible agents, which afford vapors freely at a moderate temperature. Most of the substances present are officinally used in alleviating pulmonary disease; but the device by which they are combined is new and original, and adapts the compound to inhalation, or other modes of administration.

Respectfully,
A. A. HAYES, M. D., State Assayer.
16 Boylston St., Boston, Dec. 1857.

In the Boston Transcript of December 11, 1858, the editor says:—]

"We have seen a letter from an eminent physician of this city, in which he says:—'I have used Fousel's Pabulum Vitæ in several cases of Bronchial disease, and in some with great benefit. I know of no remedy equal to it for children, where a minute dose is essential; or for adults of irritable stomachs, or having a tendency to reject ordinary medicines given for coughs, etc. I shall continue to use it in my practice.'"

Testimonial from the Sisters of Charity, of the St. Vincent's Orphan Asylum, in Boston.
BOSTON, July 31, 1858.
To Mr. F. LAFORME, Agent:
"The Sisters are happy to state that, having used Fousel's Pabulum Vitæ, they have found it efficacious in several instances, for bad coughs and colds. Signed by the SISTERS OF CHARITY.

Testimonial from a well-known Apothecary's Clerk.
BOSTON, March 10, 1859.
J. F. LAFORME, Esq.:
Dear Sir—I had been suffering for a considerable length of time from a severe cough, and had in vain had recourse to nearly all the remedies in use My cough began to give me much uneasiness from its serious effects on my system, when three days' use of Fousel's Pabulum Vitæ restored me to complete health. The medicine being new in this market, I had recourse to it last; but I can now confidently recommend it as the best medicine I know of. Yours, truly,
CHAS. H. FOSTER.

At Fred Brown's, Washington, corner State St.

In the Boston Post, Sept. 24, 1858, the editor says:

"An extraordinary cure of Consumption has recently come to our knowledge, effected through the instrumentality of Fousel's Pabulum Vitæ, the evidence of which is in the handwriting of the subject, Mr. Wm. P. Brigham, No. 130 Albany st., in this city. It seems that for eighteen months he had been exhibiting all the usual symptoms of Consumption, and that after having had recourse to the skill of various physicians, without benefit, he had to abandon his business and be confined to his house. Hearing of Fousel's Pabulum Vitæ, and of several remarkable cures effected by it, in cases as desperate as his own, he concluded to try it as a forlorn hope. The result has been most happy—he has now entirely recovered, and is engaged in his usual pursuits. It is such well authenticated cases as this that we take pleasure in laying before our readers, since, by so doing, many valuable lives may be saved, and much good effected.

It is sold at the low price of 50 cents, and $1.00 per bottle, thus placing it within the reach of all classes. F. J. LAFORME, sole Agent, Boston. M. S. BURR & CO., General Agents, No. 26 Tremont street, Museum Building, Boston, and for sale by all druggists. Circulars with testimonials of its efficacy can be had of the Agents. nov7ly

☞ In November, 1850, Erastus Salisbury was married at Liverpool, Ohio, to Helen Pritchard. The parties lived together about a year and a half, when the husband went to California. His wife waited anxiously for his return, but he came not, and she procured a divorce from him on the ground of neglect. This was a year since. A short time afterward he reappeared, a second courtship was commenced, and resulted in a re-marriage on Thanksgiving Day, at the same place where the nuptial bond was first tied nine years before.

"SLOW" CUSTOMERS are a nuisance to all traders who give credit, and almost any means seems fair to get rid of them and their accounts. A dry goods dealer in Manchester, N. H., who claims all the honesty and all the decency in the trade in that city, to a long and gassy advertisement in the Mirror, adds the following insinuation:

N. B.—David Ricker has not called yet to settle that small bill.

☞ The Bath Times, the freest spoken paper we know of, says:—

A friend wishes to know our opinion of the Mrs. Doyle in Kentucky, who wrote to John Brown, and wanted her son to put the rope around his neck.

The editor suggests, with great sincerity we think, and certainly in the use of "great plainness of speech:"—

We think she is a she devil, a perfect Jezebel, who has none of the true woman but the form, and compared with whose hellish, vengeful spirit, Brown,s was perfectly angelic.

It is warranted to give entire satisfaction in every particular in point of economy, convenience, or ease of management; as we believe it to be far ahead of anything of the kind yet introduced into this market. AYER'S SARSAPARILLA,

A compound remedy in which we have labored to produce the most effectual alterative that can be made. It is a concentrated extract of Pars Sarsaparilla, of combined with other substances of still greater alterative power as to afford an effective antidote for the diseases Sarsaparilla is reputed to cure. It is believed that such a remedy is wanted by those who suffer from Strumous complaints, and that one which will a complish their cure must be of immense service to this large class of our afflicted fellow citizens. How completely this compound will do it, has been proven by experiment on many of the worst cases to be found in the following complaints:—

SCROFULA AND SCROFULOUS COMPLAINTS, ERUPTIONS AND ERUPTIVE DISEASES, ULCERS, PIMPLES, BLOTCHES, TUMORS, SALT RHEUM, SCALD HEAD, SYPHILIS AND SYPHILITIC AFFECTIONS, MERCURIAL DISEASE, DROPSY, NEURALGIA OR THE DOULOUREUX, DEBILITY, DYSPEPSIA AND INDIGESTION, ERYSIPELAS, ROSE OR ST. ANTHONY'S FIRE, and indeed the whole class of complaints arising from IMPURITY OF THE BLOOD.

This compound will be found a great promoter of health, when taken in the spring, to expel the foul humors which fester in the blood at that season of the year. By the timely expulsion of them many rankling disorders are nipped in the bud.—Multitudes can, by the aid of this remedy, spare themselves from the endurance of foul eruptions and ulcerous sores, through which the system will strive to rid itself of corruptions, if not assisted to do this through the natural channels of the body by an alterative medicine. Cleanse out the vitiated blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in pimples, eruptions or sores;—cleanse it when you find it is obstructed or sluggish in the veins; cleanse it whenever it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Even when no particular disorder is felt, people enjoy better health, and live live longer, for cleansing the blood. Keep the blood healthy, and all is well; but with this pabulum of life disordered, there can be no lasting health. Sooner or later something must go wrong, and the great machinery of life is disordered or overthrown.

Sarsaparilla has, and deserves much, the reputation of accomplishing these ends. But the world has been egregiously deceived by preparations of it, partly because the drug alone has not all the virtue that is claimed for it, but more because many preparations, pretending to be concentrated extracts of it' contain but little of the virtue of Sarsaparilla, or anything else.

During late years the public have been misled by large bottles, pretending to give a quart of Extract of Sarparilla for one dollar. Most of these have been frauds upon the sick, for they not only contain little, if any, Sarsaparilla, but often no curative properties whatever. Aenee bitter and painful disappointment has followed the use of the various extracts of Sarsaparilla which flood the market, until the name itself is justly spoiled, and has become synonymous with imposition and cheat. Still we call this compound Sarsaparilla, and intend to supply such a remedy as shall rescue the name from the load of obloquy which rests upon it. And we think we have grounds for believing it has virtues which are irresistible by the ordinary run of the diseases it is intended to cure. In order to secure their complete eradication from the system, the remedy should be judiciously taken according to directions on the bottle.

DR. J. C. AYER & CO.,

DR. J. B. HUGHES,

Knowing that there are at this moment thousands of persons in the surrounding towns, surrendering their lives to the insidious inroads of certain dangerous maladies, who still suffer from the reluctance to make known their complaints and consult a physician, he would state that all of his medicines will be sent by express or otherwise, to all who may order them, provided the true description of the disease be sent by letter and directed as above.

Full and explicit directions will accompany every package, and the most inviolable secrecy preserved.

DR. HUGHES can with safety say during the last year of his practice in Boston, more than three hundred cases of disease which have been improperly treated by empyrics have come under his care, and more than three-fourths of this number are inscribed upon his books as perfect cures.

Patients treated by letter by addressing Dr. Hughes, post paid, and medicine sent all over the country, carefully concealed from scrutinizing friends.

Be particular in finding Dr. Hughes. Do not be lured from the right path, or be persuaded to try experiments with false and fictitious remedies at the expense of destroying what is the great pillar of life, a healthy constitution.

This medicine can only be obtained at the Office of Dr. HUGHES, 13 Howard street, Boston.

DR. J. B. HUGHES UNIVERSAL FEMALE RENOVATING PILLS. These pills are unrivalled in efficacy and superior virtue in regulating all female irregularities. Their action is specific and certain, producing relief in a short space of time. They are acknowledged to be the best in use.

The Dr. cautions the public to beware of impositions that are being practiced by advertising a spurious article under some spurious or fictitious name. They are entirely useless, having been got up by miserable pretenders who are entirely ignorant of the efficacy of medicines.

All who are in pursuit of the genuine article, had better call on the Dr. at his office, where they will be sure of getting the genuine—the only place in Boston where the genuine is for sale.

These pills can be sent to any part of the country with directions. Remember the number—13 Howard street, Boston.

P. S.—The best of accommodations furnished, with kind and attentive nurses if they wish, at a reasonable rate. jf dly

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA,
A compound remedy in which we have labored to produce the most effectual alterative that can be made. It is a concentrated extract of Para Sarsaparilla, of combined with other substances of still greater alterative power as to afford an effective antidote for the diseases Sarsaparilla is reputed to cure. It is believed that such a remedy is wanted by those who suffer from Strumous complaints, and that one which will accomplish their cure must be of immense service to this large class of our afflicted fellow citizens. How completely this compound will do it, has been proven by experiment on many of the worst cases to be found in the following complaints:—
SCROFULA AND SCROFULOUS COMPLAINTS, ERUPTIONS AND ERUPTIVE DISEASES, ULCERS, PIMPLES, BLOTCHES, TUMORS, SALT RHEUM, SCALD HEAD, SYPHILIS AND SYPHILITIC AFFECTIONS, MERCURIAL DISEASES, DROPSY, NEURALGIA OR TIC DOULOUREUX, DEBILITY, DYSPEPSIA AND INDIGESTION, ERYSIPELAS, ROSE OR ST. ANTHONY'S FIRE, and indeed the whole class of complaints arising from IMPURITY OF THE BLOOD.
This compound will be found a great promoter of health, when taken in the spring, to expel the foul humors which fester in the blood at that season of the year. By the timely expulsion of them many rankling disorders are nipped in the bud.—Multitudes can, by the aid of this remedy, spare themselves from the endurance of foul eruptions and ulcerous sores, through which the system will strive to rid itself of corruptions, if not assisted to do this through the natural channels of the body by an alterative medicine. Cleanse out the vitiated blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in pimples, eruptions or sores;—cleanse it when you find it is obstructed or sluggish in the veins; cleanse it whenever it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Even where no particular disorder is felt, people enjoy better health, and live live longer, for cleansing the blood. Keep the blood healthy, and all is well; but with this paladum of life disordered, there can be no lasting health. Sooner or later something must go wrong, and the great machinery of life is disordered or overthrown.
Sarsaparilla has, and deserves much, the reputation of accomplishing these ends. But the world has been egregiously deceived by preparations of it, partly because the drug alone has not all the virtue that is claimed for it, but more because many preparations, pretending to be concentrated extracts of it contain but little of the virtue of Sarsaparilla, or anything else.
During late years the public have been misled by large bottles, pretending to give a quart of Extract of Sarparilla for one dollar. Most of these have been frauds upon the sick, for they not only contain little, if any, Sarsaparilla, but often no curative properties whatever. Aence bitter and painful disappointment has followed the use of the various extracts of Sarsaparilla which flood the market, until the name itself is justly d espised, and has become synonymous with imposition and cheat. Still we call this compound Sarsaparilla, and intend to supply such a remedy as shall rescue the name from the load of obloquy which rests upon it. And we think we have grounds for believing it has virtues which are irresistible by the ordinary run of the diseases it is intended to cure. In order to secure their complete eradication from the system, the remedy should be judiciously taken according to directions on the bottle.

MINISTERS AND CHURCHES

IN NEWINGTON.

During the last two years and a half, the Piscataqua Association and the New Hampshire Missionary Society have made generous, persevering, and earnest efforts to establish orthodox congregational preaching in Newington; and a minister of that connection, Rev. John Le Bosquet, has just removed to that place.

In a recent visit to Newington, Oct. 30, Rev. William Clark, missionary agent, preached there to a good congregation on the Sabbath, and on Monday sent to the Congregational Journal two columns of his "Missionary Correspondence," which we have read with much interest, as we always do his letters of this kind.

This letter contains Sketches of the Religious History of Newington, past and present; and many of the statements therein are correct. But as Mr. Clark confessedly leaves some large blanks, which we can fill, and as he offers conjectures which are unsound, and falls into errors which we can correct by accurate statements and true dates, we deem it a duty both to him, as an old friend, and to the people there, who are no less our friends, to "set history right" in a few particulars.

And first, as to Meeting-Houses.—Mr. Clark states, truly, that the present "old meeting-house," belonging to the town, was built in 1713; but his conjecture, that "there was probably a meeting-house here before" that, is altogether groundless. This was the first. The reason he gives for the conjecture is, that "nearly 100 years had elapsed since the settlement of the town and vicinity." The people of the northern part of what is now Newington, however, went to meeting on Dover neck, where a meeting-house was built in 1635, and where meetings were kept up till 1720, when they had become too thin, by the formation of the meeting at Newington in 1713. The southerly portion of Newington, with Greenland, went to Portsmouth.

The Methodist meeting-house, Mr. Clark says, "probably had its origin" between 1810 and 1816. It was built, however, in 1834–5, and dedicated Feb. 17, '35.

Secondly, as to Churches.—The congregational church in Newington never became extinct, though Br. Clark says it "seems" to have done so. Mr. Smith did not form a church there, but members were added to it, in the time of his ministry and the revival there. The "aged female" of whom Mr. Clark speaks as the only remaining member of the church, has died since he wrote the letter—but one other remains, not very aged.

The Methodists have had a regular organization of classes there ever since 1809, and have sometimes had 70 members.

Thirdly, as to preachers and preaching. Br. Clark states, truly, that Rev. Joseph Adams was ordained in 1715, and died in 1783, aged 93; and that Rev. Joseph Langdon was ordained in 1785, and dismissed in 1810, after a pastorate of 25 years. And he adds—"The causes of Mr. L.'s dismission are unknown to the writer."

The causes were briefly these: Mr. Langdon, though a worthy man, a good farmer, a regular college graduate, and a regularly settled minister, was never a popular preacher; and his meeting-house, in the latter years of his ministry, was almost destitute of hearers. He was settled by the town, and his salary paid by a tax; this tax was grudged by a portion of the people.—He lived on a parsonage farm, which he improved; but some found fault with his management there.

This was not all. In the last eight years of his ministry in Newington, the neighboring town of Portsmouth had been shaken by the introduction of new sects and new preachers, to a greater degree than it has been in the fifty years since. All the old societies there were disturbed at the coming of the new men and new doctrines; and the one parish in Newington got its full share of shaking, and a little more.

When we name the new preachers who came here in those eight years, the reader will see how natural a thing it was that Mr. Langdon should be dismissed, and the old standing order in Newington subverted.

Elder Elias Smith, then a baptist preacher, came to Portsmouth in 1802, and a baptist meeting-house (now the Temple) was built for him in 1806. He preached in all the neighboring towns, including Newington, and his admirers and adherents, in religion and politics, might have been numbered by thousands. Several persons in Newington joined his church, and a considerable number of the people there at this day prefer the Christian Connexion to any other.

Martin Ruter, an eminent Methodist preacher, was appointed in 1807 as preacher to Portsmouth and Nottingham; and in 1808 Rev. George Pickering preached here part of the time: Mr. Pickering was a very controversial preacher, a great anti-Calvinist, and on the whole a very strong man.—By the preaching of these and other Methodists, a large class was gathered in Newington, and Methodist preaching was not a new thing there when Mr. Langdon left.

The Universalist Society in Portsmouth built a new house of worship in 1808, and Rev. Hosea Ballou was installed there in 1809. There was some Universalism in Newington before that time; there was more of that sentiment afterward; and it remains to this day, undiminished, probably increased.

"From Mr. Langdon's dismission in 1810, to 1826, a period of 16 years, (says Mr. Clark,) I cannot learn anything definite, respecting the ecclesistical history of the town."

He then supposes there might be preaching, "more or less, in that interval." The supposition is correct—and the preaching was more, not less, than before; and we have some definite data in the premises.

By a vote of the town, the meeting-house was assigned to the several religious sects, so many Sundays a year to each one, according to their professed number of legal voters, who classed themselves for the purpose.

For the congregational interest Rev. Mr. Langdon preached a few times, and after him Rev. Stephen Bailey, native of Greenland, preached for a season; but these efforts were not of long duration.

In June, 1809, Rev. Dan Pery, a Methodist minister, was appointed to Newington, and re-appointed in 1810—preaching elsewhere part of the time.

Following him came Rev. Jordan Rexford, an eminent minister of the same church, who preached in Newington regularly two years, and by a permanent exchange preached there a third year, kept the town school, and lived in the parsonage, where the writer of this article visited him before the close of the war. Most of the years from 1809 to '23, Methodist preachers were stationed there by conference. In '23 there was none: but in '24, and nearly every year after that till 1845, there was a regular stationed Methodist preacher.

Rev. James Nutter, a native of the town, a zealous local preacher among the Methodists and others, generally filled up the gaps in public worship, whenever they occurred.

Of Rev. Henry Smith's converts, in 1826, ten or twelve, as Mr. C. truly informs us, were gathered into the Congregational church. We add, that three times that number were gathered to the Methodists at the same time.

One more blank, and only one, remains to be filled; and as it is not only a blank, but an error, it can be filled and corrected at one and the same time,

After mentioning the several missions of Rev. Henry Smith, Bezaleel Smith, and Father Ward, Br. Clark supposes there were other preachers there, and then says:

"But for several years past, till recently, there has been but little preaching had here, of any denomination. * * * * Some three years back, the Piscataqua Association, through its members, commenced preaching to this people, then having no regular Sabbath public services in the town."

A simple statement of the facts in the case, is this,—

In June, 1843, the first Sabbath in that month, Rev. Tobias H. Miller, then of the Piscataqua Association, commenced preaching in the Old Meeting House, in Newington, and preached there regularly, for a little over a year. This was the first year's preaching in that house after the new pews were put in (1838,)—and the congregation was uniformly good throughout the year.

In June, 1843, Rev. Samuel Hoyt was stationed at Newington by the Methodist Conference, and preached in the Methodist meeting-house to a congregation as large as the other. There was entire friendship between the two ministers, remaining to this hour. A few times, when one house was shut, the other was crowded; and several times during the year, the two congregations could not have been seated in either of the houses.

Mr. Hoyt was re-appointed in 1844, and in '55 he located in Newington and left the Conference; having changed in doctrine somewhat—but he continued to preach there for nine years, formerly in the Methodist house, but more latterly in the old house. In 1853 he went to preach elsewhere, and the Methodist church was supplied by a local preacher; also in '54 and '55, the last preacher, Rev. Mr. Kendall, removing in the spring of '56.

One or two Sundays after his removal, in June 1856, Rev. Tobias H. Miller began to preach in the old church in Newington, and supplied the pulpit regularly for a year, till June, in '57,—when the Methodists began an effort to resume preaching in their house, he withdrew; but they not being immediately successful, he supplied half the time till the Piscataqua Mission began.

So that, instead of no preaching of any kind for years, they were rarely without preaching except at very short intervals, for a dozen years at least. The correction of these errors may show the Missionary Agent and Society, that the moral condition of Newington, of which they speak well, is not the result of neglect of public teaching, but in some measure of its improvement: and also show that the Congregation there does not consist of people who have never attended public worship before,—but of those who had done so from their youth.

UNGRATEFUL.—Gov. Wise's organ, the Richmond Enquirer, whose particular wish was quoted to get up the Faneuil Hall meeting, now says the mayoralty election in New York city "is worth more to the cause of conservatism than any meeting which can assemble, and all the resolutions that may be published." This preference of the success of such a man as Fernando Wood will not be very agreeable to the "solid men" who went to Faneuil Hall last Thursday.—The Charleston Courier says the influence of such a meeting amounts to almost nothing outside of those who participate in it. The Charleston Mercury treats it as a worthless anti-slavery device! It ridicules the conservatism of Winthrop and Everett, on the ground that they are "violent in opposition to slavery." Mr. Stewart, a Democratic member of Congress from Maryland, declares in his place that "the Union meetings of the North amount to nothing."

☞ The following inscriptions were sent by John Brown to his family, and read at his burial. They are primitive, simple, and significant; especially his own. "Executed," written down by a living man, to be inscribed on his own tomb, means that he looked death and hell full in the face, and then said "O death, where is thy sting? O hell, where is thy victory?"

To be inscribed on the old family monument at North Elba.

OLIVER BROWN, born ——, 1839, was killed at Harper's Ferry, Va., Nov. 17, 1859.

WATSON BROWN, born ——, 1835, was wounded at Harper's Ferry, Nov. 17, and died Nov. 19, 1859. (My wife can fill up the blank dates as above.)

JOHN BROWN, born May 9, 1800, was executed at Charlestown, Va., Dec. 2, 1859.

AN EXPENSIVE TOMB.—Some surprise having been expressed that the honor of burial in Wistminster Abbey was not accorded to the body of Brunel as well as that of his contemporary, Stephenson, the Dublin Post states that the "honor" cost £475, which sum was a trifle out of the fortune of Stephenson, but could not be spared out of the small inheritance of Mr. Brunel's family. Mr. Brunel left only $400,000. The destitution of his family must rival that of the Fifth avenue young ladies who have "nothing to wear."

We thank our friend at Boothbay for his kind words. He says, "how any person can find fault with the Times, as a family paper, I don't see." Neither do we. We intend to "keep step to the music of the Union;" and to please neither friend nor foe will we consent to stop one ear and then turn the other to the North or South. We shall rap the knuckles of Wrong wherever we find it, and to disunionists, fanatics, fire-eaters and intermeddlers, whether on this or the other side of Mason & Dixon's line, we shall show no quarter. If the people don't like such a course we can't help it. We shall pursue this course, however, if it drives off every subscriber, turns us out doors, and "kills every cow in the barn." But we don't believe it will do either.—Bath Times.

☞ Ferguson, recently hung in Utah, made a speech on the scaffold. He declared himself ready to die, but expressed his mortification that he had been tried and sentenced by a drunken Judge!

He confessed that he had become a drunkard himself, in a fit of discouragement because he could get no pay for a year's work,—and in a drunken delirium he committed the homicide for which he was hung. The scoundrel saint who withheld his pay, is guilty of his blood.

☞ Mr. Cilley, charged with the abduction of the daughter of Mr. Wetherell, of Dexter, Me., has been arrested in Illinois, by a Bangor officer. Cilley had the girl with him—and a requisition of the Governor of Maine upon the Governor of Illinois having been complied with, Cilley will be immediately brought back for trial.

☞ The Skowhegan Clarion learns that "an association of 'Adventists,' has leased the Low farm in Fairfield till Christ appears, and intend uniting in a 'community,' where, like the Shakers, they will have 'all things in common.' Several families have already arrived, and others are expected in the spring."

☞ The Washington correspondent of the N. Y. Herald says the Democrats have given notice that Mr. Hickman's plurality resolution shall not be voted on before the 1st of January at least, and until that is adopted it is clear that no Speaker can be elected.

☞ The adhesive properties of Upton's Steam Refined Liquid Glue are wonderful. This cleanly preparation is put up with such care, that any lady may use it without soiling her fingers, and yet may repair a valuable article in a few seconds which might otherwise have been considered worthless. See advertisement.

☞ The correspondent of the N. Y. Express (which strongly advocates the Union meeting in New York) says it is very apparent that Southern Democrats have no faith in the Union-saving meetings of the North. They are greatly excited, and think them only cloaks designed to cover the operations of the sectional men of the North.

NOT CURS THE VOWS.

BY BERNARD BARTON.

Not ours the vows of such as plight
Their troth in sunny weather,
While leaves are green and skies are bright,
To walk on flowers together.

But we have loved as those who tread
The thorny path of sorrow,
With clouds above, and cause to dread
Yet deeper gloom to-morrow.

That thorny path, those stormy skies,
Have drawn our spirits nearer;
And rendered us, by sorrow's ties,
Each to the other dearer.

Love, born in hours of joy and mirth,
With mirth and joy may perish;
That to which darker hours gave birth,
Still more and more we cherish.

It looks beyond the clouds of time,
And through death's shadowy portal;
Made by adversity sublime,
By faith and hope immortal.

MANCHESTER MUNICIPAL ELECTION. The vote was light. Hon. Edward W. Harrington, the present Mayor, was the Democratic and citizen's candidate for re-election, and Col. Bradbury P. Cilley was the Republican candidate. The vote stood: Harrington 1835, Cilley 1303. Majority for Harrington, 32.

☞ The citizens of Manchester, who had just re-elected Mayor Harrington, formed a procession that night, in spite of the cold, and marched to his house. On stopping at the residence of the Mayor, he came forward and made a few remarks, thanking them for their call, and saying they had achieved a victory which would be heralded from Maine to Georgia—it was a victory they might well be proud of, and the greatest victory ever achieved in Manchester.—He remarked that it was a victory as beneficial to the opposition as to those who had achieved it. Now Southern people can come here and buy our goods, and not feel that they were trading with fanatics.

The Mirror says this election "puts the seal of approbation upon Mayor Harrington for chucking down through the scuttle-hole a fanatic who attempted to toll the bell when John Brown was hung."

The Republicans, for other city officers, appear to have carried 6 or 7 of the 8 wards.

The American states that the Republicans have carried 7 of the wards, and elected the Board of Aldermen by 210 majority. Also that 80 names on the check list in Ward 5, are not on in the ward.

☞ Much dissatisfaction, it is said, exists among a portion of the Democratic Senators at the arrangement of the committees of that body. Several claimed that Douglas should be restored to the Chairmanship of the Territorial Committee—a boon which was refused.

An excellent communication headed "John Brown" we have respectfully declined. We believe our position on that subject is not equivocal. Having said all that we conceive to be necessary in relation to it, we prefer to let the old fellow sleep quietly in his grave.—Bath Times.

Catarrhal Cough.

This insidious and annoying symptom, so difficult to treat, depends on a subacute inflammation of the air-passages, which is apt to end in chronic ulceration and a form of consumption. The mucous membrane of the air-passages is peculiarly susceptible to the healing influences of the PERUVIAN SYRUP, as the testimonials of some of our first citizens show.

Dr. Hostetter's Bitters have received the warmest encomiums from the press and people throughout the Union. As a valuable tonic for the cure of Dyspepsia, Flatulence, Constipation and general nervous debility, it cannot be approached. Every day new cases of its great effect are chronicled through our public journals. There is nothing equal to the enjoyment, to that which the afflicted experience when using this valuable specific. Its mild tone, its sure and vigorous action upon a disordered stomach, and the cleansing of the entire human body should recommend it to all classes of our community. All that will be necessary to convince the skeptical of its healthy effects, is to purchase a bottle and be convinced.

Sold by druggists and dealers generally, everywhere.

Among the restoratives which Nature has supplied to relieve the afflictions of humanity there is no more favorite one for a certain class of diseases than the "medicinal gum" of the Wild Cherry Tree; but however valuable it is, its power to heal, to soothe, to relieve, and to cure, is enhanced ten-fold by scientific and judicious combination with other ingredients, in themselves of equal worth. This happy mingling exists in that

BOSTON, April 18, 1852.
No. 48 Union St.

Mr. Seth W. Fowle,—Dear Sir:—Your invaluable medicine, I can truly say, has literally snatched me from the grave. Last July I was attacked by a sudden cold, which resulted in a very severe Cough, with violent pains in the side and chest. I became so much reduced, that my friends frankly told me that I must die. At this crisis, I heard of Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, and immediately sent for a bottle. The effect produced was indeed wonderful. My physician, one of the most respectable in Boston, who had previously told me that a cure was hopeless, came in, and I informed him what I had taken. He examined the Balsam, and advised me to continue the use of it, since which time I have continued to improve daily; and the same physician who had given me up, told me, a few days since, that I might yet live many years.

Respectfully, MARY ROWE.

We can cheerfully testify to the truth of the above statement, Mrs. Rowe having been an inmate of our family. WILLIAM DENNETT.

A NOBLE DEED.—The Salem Register gives the following account of the gallant rescue of three of the crew of the schooner Clio, wrecked at Rye Beach, at which time one of the crew was lost, as we have already published.

"The three others were rescued by a young man named Woodbury N. Mace, of Rye, after the most heroic exertion, and under circumstances of such peril as warranted all around him in dissuading him from the exposure of his life. The wreck was about 900 feet from the shore with a heavy undertow rolling in. The three survivors were seen clinging to the trunk cabin, where they remained for several hours, in danger every moment of being washed off, and they could not have survived a half hour longer, as the part on which they were went to pieces shortly after ihey were taken off. Mr. Mace and others drove a mile and a half in a sleigh, and having procured a very light skiff, such as gunners use, Mr. M., against the remonstrance of those who saw the danger, put off alone, made two trips, and brought the three survivors safely to shore. They were taken much exhausted, to the house of Mr. Gilman C. Berry, who supplied them with clothing and food and paid them every attention necessary until they could take the cars for home. We trust that Mr. Mace's noble conduct will receive the notice of the Massachusetts Humane Society, as a case well deserving their action.'

☞ To-day, Friday Dec. 16, is execution day in Virginia. Friday has been the execution day, ever since Jesus was crucified between two thieves at Calvary. At Charlestown, Va., the two white men are to be hung this forenoon, and the two colored men in the afternoon, thus keeping up the distinction of color. All four of them belonged to John Brown's army of insurrection, and share his fate.

A Charlestown dispatch of the 14th says:

The town is filling up with strangers, to witness the executions. The system of excluding citizens adopted at John Brown's execution is not to be repeated.

Gov. Willard of Indiana, accompanied by Mrs. Crowley, of N. Y., sister of Cook, arrived yesterday and visited Cook. The interview with his sister was most affecting.

Later in the day Dr. Staunton and wife, of Ind., and Miss Hughes, arrived. Mrs. Staunton is a sister of Cook, Miss Hughes a cousin. They also visited the prisoner, presenting a scene of grief and anguish scarcely to be described.

Arrangements have been made to take the body of Cook to New York for interment. Coppie's body will be taken to his mother, at Springdal, Iowa.

The prisoners were quite cheerful this morning, and are now making religious preparations for death. Cook was much past down after parting with his sister, but is now perfectly calm and collected, awaiting his doom.

☞ The N. H. Patriot states that on Friday morning, seventeen well dressed young ladies were seen marching up Main street, in Concord, drawing a barrel of flour on a hand sled, walking in couples, and drawing by a rope, with the odd one for a leader. Upon inquiry it was ascertained that they were the girls employed in a tailoring establishment, whose proprietor had proposed to give a barrel of flour to a poor woman on condition that the girls should draw it to her in this manner—a proposition very readily accepted by the girls, and very handsomely performed.

☞ "Ion," of the Baltimore Sun, writes that in a few days hence the American National Committee will meet in Philadelphia to confer upon a nomination by that party for the Presidency. It is said that the American party, to increase their strength in Pennsylvania and New Jersey, will concentrate upon Gen. Cameron as their standard bearer, expecting the Republicans to take him.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 14.—The Congressional Delegations from New Jersey and Pennsylvania have signed a recommendation to the National Republican Committee, which will meet in New York on Wednesday next, to determine the time and place for holding the National Convention, urging that the call for that object shall specifically embrace the opposition and peoples party of those States and all others opposed to the present Democratic Administration.

The President's message is now revising in consequence of Gen. Scott's report concerning the settlement of the San Juan affair, to which the President had before only made a brief reference as being adjusted.—As a whole printed edition must be destroyed, several days will be required before the message can be sent to Congress.

☞ The Washington correspondent of the Philadelphia Ledger professes to learn from Democratic Senators that Kansas will not be admitted as a State at this session, with the boundaries proposed in her State Constitution. Political reasons are given for this position.

SAN JUAN.—It appears that Gen. Scott did not accomplish all that our Government sought for and required; the correspondence, however, between Gen. Scott and Gov. Douglas has resulted in restoring San Juan to the joint military companies of the two governments. Gov. Douglas proposed that it should be in the joint occupancy of the civil magistrates.

This was objected to by Gen. Scott, and after a long correspondence, a military occupancy was finally agreed upon. It consists of not more than 100 men on each side. With the exception of this number, all our troops have been withdrawn from the Island, and peace and good feeling are re established.

☞ A Sunday afternoon temperance meeting, held in the square of Tredegar, Wales, was attended by 10,000 persons.

☞ In Congress, Wednesday, Dec. 14, the Senate debated slavery, not only under the head of Harper's Ferry, but also of Helper's Crisis;—after this debate, the amendment of Mr. Trumbull, extending the inquiry to the seizure of the arsenal at Liberty, was rejected by yeas 22, nays 32.

Mr. Mason's resolution was then unanimously adopted—yeas 55.

This resolution is one of inquiry into the capture of Harper's Ferry Arsenal, by John Brown's army. A committee of five will be appointed by the chair;—they will report, and their report will be published

In the House, Mr. McRae, the advocate of reopening the slave trade, continued his speech, in which he reviewed the proceedings of the Union meeting at Boston, and reading from the Chairman's (Mr. Lincoln's) speech, said "he had expressed no sentiment which was not entertained by the Republican party."

This statement of McRae's is strictly correct,—and then he goes on to condemn the Boston Union Meeting in the following strain. He said

The resolutions adopted were not "glittering," but a string of gloomy generalities, and no one there attacked the anti-slavery sentiment. Mr. Everett made a speech. He was a great and good man, who never had sound sentiments on the slavery question, and who made a general patriotic address. There was nothing in it which assailed the anti-slavery movement in the right quarter. Gen. Cushing followed. We had a right to expect something from him. That gentleman commenced his speech by pronouncing a eulogy on Mr. Lincoln, when the latter had uttered anti-slavery sentiments.

Mr. Rae finished with dissolving the Union.

The House proceeded to vote for Speaker. Necessary to a choice, 114. Sherman, 108, Bocock, 86, Gilmer, 22, Scattering, 11.

Mr. Miles said they ought to show the country that they were endeavoring to elect a Speaker, and suggested that there be a vote every day, either at the opening or close of the session, or both.

Mr. Stanton replied that the Republicans had been ready the last three days to vote for Speaker or on resolutions pending, without a word of debate. (Applause.)

The debate went on, wholly among democrats, till half-past 5, when the House adjourned.

Fousel's Pabulum Vitæ.

☞ THE GREAT FRENCH REMEDY possesses extraordinary properties for the speedy and permanent cure of CONSUMPTION, BRONCHITIS, COUGHS, COLDS, and all PULMONARY DISEASE.

This celebrated specific is now universally acknowledged to be infinitely superior to all other preparations for the cure of Pulmonary Disease, both from its innocent nature and most astonishing curative properties; it being the only remedy known that will arrest the development of Tubercles in the Lungs or restore the vital functions of the pulmonary organs to their normal condition. Its invaluable properties have obtained for it the highest recommendation and praise from some of the most eminent physicians and chemists in the country: while the best and surest proofs of its merits are afforded by the numerous testimonials of its great efficacy in conquering disease, which are constantly received from our most respectable citizens. Invalids in all stages of pulmonary disease should not fail to give it a trial, as it can be administered to the most delicate and feeble with perfect safety and certain relief; and we herewith insert a few testimonials for their encouragement, selected from hundreds of like import.

Certificate of Dr. A. A. HAYES, in reference to the unequalled virtues of this great discovery.

This preparation, by chemical analysis, was proved to be free from opium, or any of its compounds; nor were any of the alkaloids present. It does not contain any mercurial or mineral substance, but consists wholly of volatile, diffusible agents, which afford vapors freely at a moderate temperature. Most of the substances present are officinally used in alleviating pulmonary disease; but the device by which they are combined is new and original, and adapts the compound to inhalation, or other modes of administration.

Respectfully,
A. A. HAYES, M. D., State Assayer.
16 Boylston St., Boston, Dec. 1857.

In the Boston Transcript of December 11, 1858, the editor says:—

"We have seen a letter from an eminent physician of this city, in which he says:—'I have used Fousel's Pabulum Vitæ in several cases of Bronchial disease, and in some with great benefit. I know of no remedy equal to it for children, where a minute dose is essential; or for adults of irritable stomachs, or having a tendency to reject ordinary medicines given for coughs, etc. I shall continue to use it in my practice.'"

Testimonial from the Sisters of Charity, of the St. Vincent's Orphan Asylum, in Boston.
BOSTON, July 31, 1858.

To Mr. F. LAFORME, Agent:

"The Sisters are happy to state that, having used Fousel's Pabulum Vitæ, they have found it efficacious in several instances, for bad coughs and colds. Signed by the SISTERS OF CHARITY.

Testimonial from a well-known Apothecary's Clerk.
BOSTON, March 10, 1859.

J. F. LAFORME, Esq.:

Dear SIR—I had been suffering for a considerable length of time from a severe cough, and had in vain had recourse to nearly all the remedies in use My cough began to give me much uneasiness from its serious effects on my system, when three days' use of Fousel's Pabulum Vitæ restored me to complete health. The medicine being new in this market, I had recourse to it last; but I can now confidently recommend it as the best medicine I know of. Yours, truly,
CHAS. H. FOSTER.

At Fred Brown's, Washington, corner State St.

In the Boston Post, Sept. 24, 1858, the editor says:

"An extraordinary cure of Consumption has recently come to our knowledge, effected through the instrumentality of Fousel's Pabulum Vitæ; the evidence of which is in the handwriting of the subject, Mr. Wm. P. Brigham, No. 130 Albany st., in this city. It seems that for eighteen months he had been exhibiting all the usual symptoms of Consumption, and that after having had recourse to the skill of various physicians, without benefit, he had to abandon his business and be confined to his house. Hearing of Fousel's Pabulum Vitæ, and of several remarkable cures effected by it, in cases as desperate as his own, he concluded to try it as a forlorn hope. The result has been most happy—he has now entirely recovered, and is engaged in his usual pursuits. It is such well authenticated cases as this that we take pleasure in laying before our readers, since, by so doing, many valuable lives may be saved, and much good effected.

It is sold at the low price of 50 cents, and $1.00 per bottle, thus placing it within the reach of all classes. F. J. LAFORME, sole Agent, Boston. M. S. BURR & CO., General Agents, No. 26 Tremont street, Museum Building, Boston, and for sale by all druggists. Circulars with testimonials of its efficacy can be had of the Agents novily

FRANK JONES,

61 MARKET ST., PORTSMOUTH,

Having received a part of his Winter Stock of

SUPERIOR COOKING STOVES,

would invite the attention of those about purchasing, to the largest and best selected stock of COOKING STOVES, of the most approved patterns and valuable kinds to be found in this market; among which may be found

THE CLIPPER, BOSTON & MAINE,

EMPIRE STATE, WHITE MOUNTAIN,

with many others, for wood or coal, which will be sold at such prices as shall defy competition.

The Combination Stove and Range.

One of the greatest inventions of the age, for Cooking purposes,—made expressly for large families, boarding houses, hotels, &c.; or wherever a great amount of Cooking is required in the shortest possible time, it having 3 large ovens, 6 boiler holes and separate apartments for baking, broiling, frying or roasting, requiring no more fuel than any ordinary Cooking Stove. It is warranted to give entire satisfaction in every particular in point of economy, convenience, or ease of management; as we believe it to be far ahead of anything of the kind yet introduced into this market. We therefore ask an examination of the "Combination Stove & Range," feeling confident that it supersedes all others for which it is intended, and will be sold at a very low price.

THE MAGEE.

The Calebrated Magee Patent

Ventilating Parlor Stove.

All sizes—acknowledged by every one to be the BEST STOVE IN THE WORLD.

The fire can be kept through the entire season without once going out, giving the greatest amount of heat from the least fuel of any other Stove known.

The heat can be regulated to the mildest as well as the coldest weather, and at the same time perfectly ventilating the apartment in which they are used. We have sold hundreds of them the past year, and have testimonials of the highest order, acknowledging their superiority over every other Stove yet invented. To every one in search of the best Stove that can be found, we would say,

"Try the Magee."

of the most approved kinds.

STORE, OFFICE & SHIP STOVES;

BOX AND CYLINDER do.

SHEET IRON STOVES, with and without ovens.

Parlor Cook Stoves.

New patterns this season—for wood or coal,—

warranted to be the best in the market, and will be sold at such prices as will convince every one that this is the place to buy cheap.

THE MAGEE FURNACES,

7 Sizes—Brick and Portable.

These Furnaces work on the same principle as the Magee Stoves. They are simple and easily operated, requiring only about half the coal of any other Furnace—will keep fire the whole season, and are not liable to get out of order.

We would invite the attention of those interested to an examination of the MAGEE FURNACE, and at the same time refer them to a number of places in this city where we have erected them the past year; and in every instance have given perfect satisfaction.

REPAIRING PEICES,

For most kinds of Cooking Stoves used in this market. Also,

Coal Fixtures and Fire Brick.

STOVE STORE REMOVED.

URIAH BLAISDELL

Has removed his Stove and Furnishing Establishment one door north, to the spacious and convenient store

Nos. 43 & 45 Market Street,

where he is receiving and arranging a large and valuable Stock of

STOVES, TIN WARE, &c.,

Which he offers for sale at wholesale and retail, at very low prices. He has a great variety of the best and most popular Stoves, among which are:

1. The Stewart Cook Stove, with the latest improvements. This is an air-tight Cook Stove, for Wood or Coal; it has moveable coverings, which can confine the heat in the stove, or let it out into the room; has a reservoir of hot water 10 or 20 gallons, and a tin closet beneath;—a top cover, which is a great institution for baking, and will keep a coal fire all night; it has a Dutch Oven for roasting in front of the Stove;—and it is every way a most convenient and durable Stove. There are 4 sizes.

The following recommendation of Stewart's Stove, is from an eminent engineer, and must be satisfactory to all who wish to understand the value of this excellent Stove:

Portsmouth, N. H., Nov. 5, 1859.

Mr. Blaisdell:—Seven years ago. I moved to this city, and sold, before I came, a "Stewart's Air Tight Cooking Stove," which I had used about five years. During that time no repairs or expense had been made upon it. Since I have been here I have tried the various Cooking Stoves in use, and I think for economy and durability the "Stewart" excels them all. I wish you would take away the Stove I now have from my house, and set up one of Stewart's as soon as you can. Your ob't servant,

B. F. CHANDLER.

2. Boston & Maine Cook Stove;

3. White Mountain;

4. Empire State;

5. Enterprise;

6. Exchange;

7. Dining Room Cook Stoves, and others.

BLOOD FOOD.

Dr. Bronson, having been so far reduced by consumption, as to be considered beyond all hope of recovery by the most eminent of the medical profession, and also by himself—a regular physician of twenty years' practice—as a last resort, conceived the idea of ANALYZING THE BLOOD, and applying the subject of phisiology to the more immediate connection, and effect of the state of the blood upon the health and system. The result has been the production of this "BLOOD FOOD," from the use of which, Dr. Bronson was restored to perfect health. Within six months after its introduction, over 2000 consumptives were effectually cured by it. If you have any complaints of a consumptive tendency, Cough, Cold, Headache, Palpitation of the Heart, Loss of Appetite, or Pain in the Side, lose no time in procuring a bottle of the "BLOOD FOOD." If you are suffering from Nervous Debility, or your sleep is broken and disturbed, if your Spirits are depressed or your organs relaxed, you will find in this an unfailing remedy, by commencing with ten drops. If your Liver is torpid or diseased in any manner whatever, one or two bottles will be sure to invigorate, and bring it into lively and healthful action. In the most inveterate cases of Dyspepsia, the patient can here find the most efficient and grateful relief. A benefit is always experienced after taking only one bottle. In Male or Female Complaints or Weakness, the sufferer, after trying other remidies in vain, may rest assured, that a certain cure will result from the use of two or three bottles. The "BLOOD FOOD" is effectual in all cases of Eruptions, Salt Rheum, Scrofula, and other like complaints. Pale and emaciated children and adults are immediately benefitted by its use. It gives strength to the body, and color and beauty to the skin. Physicians of all schools are using it with wonderful success.

For full directions, see circulars. Price $1 per bottle.

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA,
A compound remedy in which we have labored to produce the most effectual alterative that can be made. It is a concentrated extract of Para Sarsaparilla, of combined with other substances of still greater alterative power as to afford an effective antidote for the diseases Sarsaparilla is reputed to cure. It is believed that such a remedy is wanted by those who suffer from Strumous complaints, and that one which will a complish their cure must be of immense service to this large class of our afflicted fellow citizens. How completely this compound will do it, has been proven by experiment on many of the worst cases to be found in the following complaints:—
SCROFULA AND SCROFULOUS COMPLAINTS, ERUPTIONS AND ERUPTIVE DISEASES, ULCERS, PIMPLES, BLOTCHES, TUMORS, SALT RHEUM, SCALD HEAD, SYPHILIS AND SYPHILITIC AFFECTIONS, MERCURIAL DISEASE, DROPSY, NEURALGIA OR TIC DOULOUREUX, DEBILITY, DYSPEPSIA AND INDIGESTION, ERYSIPELAS, ROSE OR ST. ANTHONY'S FIRE, and indeed the whole class of complaints arising from IMPURITY OF THE BLOOD.
This compound will be found a great promoter of health, when taken in the spring, to expel the foul humors which fester in the blood at that season of the year. By the timely expulsion of them many rankling disorders are nipped in the bud.—Multitudes can, by the aid of this remedy, spare themselves from the endurance of foul eruptions and ulcerous sores, through which the system will strive to rid itself of corruptions, if not assisted to do this through the natural channels of the body by an alterative medicine. Cleanse out the vitiated blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in pimples, eruptions or sores;—cleanse it when you find it is obstructed or sluggish in the veins; cleanse it whenever it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Even where no particular disorder is felt, people enjoy better health, and live live longer, for cleansing the blood. Keep the blood healthy, and all is well; but with this pabulum of life disordered, there can be no lasting health. Sooner or later something must go wrong, and the great machinery of life is disordered or overthrown.
Sarsaparilla has, and deserves much, the reputation of accomplishing these ends. But the world has been egregiously deceived by preparations of it, partly because the drug alone has not all the virtue that is claimed for it, but more because many preparations, pretending to be concentrated extracts of it contain but little of the virtue of Sarsaparilla, or anything else.
During late years the public have been misled by large bottles, pretending to give a quart of Extract of Sarparilla for one dollar. Most of these have been frauds upon the sick, for they not only contain little, if any, Sarsaparilla, but often no curative properties whatever. Aence bitter and painful disappointment has followed the use of the various extracts of Sarsaparilla which flood the market, until the name itself is justly espised, and has become synonymous with imposition and cheat. Still we call this compound Sarsaparilla, and intend to supply such a remedy as shall rescue the name from the load of obloquy which rests upon it. And we think we have grounds for believing it has virtues which are irresistible by the ordinary run of the diseases it is intended to cure. In order to secure their complete eradication from the system, the remedy should be judiciously taken according to directions on the bottle.

As it has long been in constant use throughout this section, we need not do more tean assure the people its quality is kept up to the best it ever has been, and that it may be relied on to do for their relief all it has ever been found to do.

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

SATURDAY, DEC. 17, 1859.

Some people act as though they thought the Constitution required them to hate the republicans. Now we recognize the importance and duty of the fullest fraternal love for our friends of the South, a love which will respect all their rights and protect all their interests, but our love for them does not require that we should hate our neighbors and friends.—Bath Times.

That is right. Elections are not battles; political opponents should not be enemies. We can really have but one true interest, viz: to do right, and take the comfort of it. Differences of opinion there will be; parties there must be, while we elect rulers;—and these parties are formed, sometimes on an idea, at others on an object, and at others on a man. There may be rivalry;—there ought not to be enmity.

POLITENESS IN HAYTI.—Hayti has been aptly called the curly-headed France of the West; and with respect, to manners the definition is as just as it is witty. Politeness pervades every class of society in Hayti; it is as prominent in the cabins of the mornes as in the parlors of the cities.—Enter a retail store to purchase an orange or a bunch of fig bananas, and if you do not first salute the marchande, she will regard you as deficient in good manners.—So, also, when you leave; if you do as they do in Hayti, you must bid her good day.—Breechless boys call their comrades Monsieur. Country folks never meet without a courteous salutation. It is rude to ask any one a question in the street or in the road until you touch your hat and say, "Bon jour, Monsieur." Ladies kiss when they meet, so sometimes do the men—with men!

☞ In the U. S. Senate, Thursday, Dec. 15, the Vice President announced the Committee on Mr. Mason's resolution, adopted the day before, which consisted of Messrs. Mason, Davis, Collamer, Fitch and Doolittle, 3 democrats and 2 republicans.—Rev. Dr. Gurley was chosen Chaplain.

In the House, the debate about slavery went on as usual.

Mr. Pennington offered a resolution that till a choice be made for Speaker, the House will proceed to vote, at one, o'clock, three times, after which no further vote shall be taken. His object was that gentlemen should not be surprised by a vote in their absence, and that they could retire afterwards, satisfied that no further vote would be taken.

Mr Crawford, who had the floor, said that friends around him objected.

Mr. Clemens said, unless they adopt some such resolution, a vote might be sprung on them at any time, to the detriment of the Democrats, some of whom might be absent. The advantage might be taken, and would be justifiable by parliamentary tactics.

Mr. Crawford of Georgia, (an insane pro-slavery fanatic,) found fault with the Republican party because they propose, as he said:—

In their own language, "to put this government permanently on the side of freedom." They also propose to reorganize the Judiciary. Mr. Beecher said he would preach the same doctrine in Virginia as in Massachusetts, but why did he not come there and do it?

Mr. Kilgore—Because liberty of speech is denied in the South.

Mr. Crawford—We not only deny liberty of speech, but personal liberty to such men. He would be swung higher than Haman. It was the sentiment of every Democrat on this floor from Georgia, that they never would submit to the inauguration of a Black Republican President. (Applause and hisses.)

Mr. Kilgore—How do you propose to prevent it?

Mr. Crawford—That will be for us to determine. We do not propose to give our enemies information what we will do.

The House ballotted twice for Speaker; the first was for Sherman 110; Bocock 85; Gilmer 22; Scattering 9; Necessary to a choice, 114.

The second was the same, except that Gilmer had 18, and there were 13 scattering.

☞ A mob of 10,000 people in Philadelphia, Thursday evening, were addressed in the streets by two demagogues, and broke the windows of National Hall, where G. W. Curtis was addressing a small audience on the Aspects of the Slavery Question. The outside meeting was called on purpose to disturb the other, and, as the call runs, to "check hireling incendiaries from making further inflammatory addresses in our loyal city."

Several of the rioters were arrested by the police.

☞ An assembly of over 2000 persons met in New York city, Thursday evening, to tender their sympathies to the families of John Brown and his associates. Speeches were made by Rev. Dr. Cheever, Wendell Phillips and others, highly eulogistic of John Brown and his unsuccessful insurrection. The proceedings were very stormy, and at one time a riot seemed inevitable.—Dr. Cheever was obliged to cease speaking before he had half finished. Eventually a force of 75 policemen, and the eloquence of Mr. Phillips, succeeded in restoring a tolerable degree of order.

☞ A series of questions was addressed by letter by several members of the Legislature of Kentucky to the candidates of the U. S. Senatorship. As Mr. Breckinridge was elected, it is presumed that his answers were in the affirmative. The following was one of the questions:

Do you believe that Congress possesses the constitutional power to pass laws for the protection of the citizen in his property in the Territories, including property in African slaves; and if so, would you, as United States Senator, introduce and advocate the enactment of such laws as would give efficient remedies for the protection of all such property therein, should the Territorial Legislature fail to give the necessary remedies and protection thereto, or enact laws unfriendly to slave property.

SHEEP FOR TEXAS.—A barque, in a regular line of packets from Boston, for Galveston, Texas, this week took out 633 merino sheep, purchased in Vermont.—They were consigned to Americans in Texas, and are valued at upwards of $7000.—Wool growing in Texas has been found very profitable and is engaging much attention from Northern men.

HELPER'S BOOK on slavery that so alarms many members of Congress, is having a rapid sale at this time, and it will carry fresh truths to thousands of readers. The opposition to its circulation arises not from love of the Union, but of slavery, as this short extract will show—"Our motto is the abolition of slavery and perpetuation of the American Union." Neither of these measures seem to be popular at the South at this time.

A COINCIDENCE.—The Democratic National Committee have fixed upon the 23d of April, as the day upon which the Charleston Convention is to assemble. It is a singular coincidence that that should be the birth day of each of the leaders of the two great factions which are there to contest the management of the Democratic party. Mr. Buchanan was born April 23, 1791; Mr. Douglas was born April 23, 1813.

☞ There is to be an Old Dominion Society formed in New York. The Virginians propose to hold a social egg-nog reunion on Christmas day; and whenever they dine together in Society, "corn-bread," with "large hominy," and "bacon," are to form prominent articles of the feast, accompanied with good music, varied by the introduction of Virginia reels, good old cavalier fox-hunting choruses, and Washington's and Jefferson's marches.

☞ A Mrs. Cruzen, of Mahaska county, Iowa, undertook to starve herself to death some two or three months since. She persisted in her resolution until death came to her relief, sixty-eight days after she first refused nourishment. It is proved that, in the shape of liquids or solids, she never took two ounces of any nourishment whatever during all this time.

☞ The clerks in the St. Louis Post Office "struck" on Saturday last, because the office was not warmed, the Treasury Department at Washington refusing to authorise or furnish the necessary heating apparatus. The citizens had to wait twenty-four hours for their mail matter, in consequence, and would have been compelled to wait still longer, but for the fact that the postmaster took on himself the responsibility of putting up stoves.

GREAT BRITAIN.—Nothing is heard regarding the rumors of the proposed disarmament, beyond a general scouting of the idea, so far as England is concerned. The Times says:

Disarmament in France is a mere name. In England it is a serious reality. Let an official announcement be made that the Emperor of France has made a point of our disarming by sea and land, and let orders to that effect be sent to our dock-yards, recruiting stations, and Lord Lieutenants, and the only result would be that every man in England fit to be entrusted with fire-arms would be enrolled in a rifle club before Easter next. There would also be a change of Ministry the first week in February.

☞ One of the Fraternity Lectures, Boston, is to be delivered on the evening of Pilgrims' Day, Dec. 22, by Rev. Wm. R. Alger. Subject—"The Historic Purchase of Freedom." Wm. Lloyd Garrison is also announced to speak on "The Irrepressible Conflict and the Higher Law."

☞ The three pickpockets, George Williams, Wm. Burnside and James Byrnes, who stole about $1400 from Mr. Berry and Mr. Brown at the Norwich Bi-centennial, are now on trial. Burnside had a tame rat in court, which seemed very fond of him.—A woman in tears, said to be Byrnes' wife, was also in court.

☞ Twenty years ago the number of colored men in Canada West was 3400; now there are more than 40,000. In four months after the passage of the Fugitive Slave Law 10,000 poured into the country.

BEGINNING TO SEE AHEAD.—The Washington States and Union acknowledges that if Mr. Sherman is elected Speaker of the House, a Republican President will be elected next November. We think it very likely.—N. Y. Com. Adv.

THE ROPE-MAKER'S BOY.—It was one of the first days of spring, when a lady who had been watching by the bed-side of her sick mother for some weeks, went out to take a little exercise and enjoy the fresh air. After walking some distance she came to a rope-walk and entered. At the end of the building she saw a little boy turning a large wheel; she thought it too laborious for such a child, and as she came near she spoke to him:

"Who sent you to this place?"

"Nobody; I came here myself."

"Does your father know you are here?"

"I have no father."

"Are you paid for your labor?"

"Yes, I get nine pence a day."

"Do you like this work?"

"Well enough; but if I did not, I should do it, that I might get the money for my mother."

"How long do you work?"

"From nine till eleven in the morning, and from two till five in the afternoon."

"How old are you?"

"Almost nine."

"Do you never get tired of turning this great wheel?"

"Yes, sometimes."

"And what do you do then?"

"I take the other hand."

The lady gave him a piece of money.

"Is this for my mother?" he asked, looking pleased.

"No, it is for yourself."

"Thank you, ma'am," said the boy, and the lady bade him farewell.

She went home, instructed in true practical philosophy by the words and example of the little child. "The next time," she said to herself, "that duty seems hard to me, I will remember the child, and take the other hand."

ASTRONOMICAL PHENOMENA.—Soon after the Copernican system of astronomy began to be generally understood, an old Connecticut farmer went to his parson with the following inquiry:

"Dr. T., do you believe in the new story they tell about the earth moving around the sun?"

"Yes, certainly."

"Do you think it according to the Scriptures? If it is true, how could Joshua command the sun to stand still?"

"Umph," quoth the doctor, scratching his head. "Joshua commanded the sun to stand still, did he?"

"Yes."

"Well, it stood still, did it not?"

"Yes."

"Very well; did you ever hear that he set it a-going again?"

PHYSICAL TRAINING.—Woe to the class or the nation that has no manly physical training! Look at the manners, the morals, the faces of the young men of the shop keeping classes, if you wish to see the effect of utterly neglecting the physical development of man; of fancying that all the muscular activity he requires under the sun is to be able to stand behind a counter, or sit on a desk stool without tumbling off. Be sure, that ever since the days of the Persians of old, effeminacy, if not twin sister of our cowardice and dishonesty, has always gone hand in hand with them. To that utter neglect of any exercises which call out fortitude, patience, self dependence and daring, I attribute a great deal of the low sensuality, the conceited vulgarity, the utter want of a high sense of honor, which is increasing just now among the middle classes; from which the navigator, the engineer, the miner and the sailor are comparatively free.—Kingsley's Miscellainies.

☞ A card from Kingsbury, the Assistant Treasurer of the American Tract Society, states that the loss by fire on Tuesday will considerably exceed the insurance.—Public calls will of course be made for aid.

Curiosity is a thing that makes us look over other people's concerns, and overlook our own. Xenocrates, reprehending curiosity, said, "It is as rude to intrude into another man's house with your eyes as with your feet."

Help and give willingly, when you have anything, and think not the more of yourself; and if you have nothing, keep the cup or cold water always at hand, and think not the less of yourself.

Catarrhal Cough.

This insidious and annoying symptom, so difficult to treat, depends on a subacute inflammation of the air-passages, which is apt to end in chronic ulceration and a form of consumption. The mucous membrane of the air-passages is peculiarly susceptible to the healing influences of the PERUVIAN SYRUP, as the testimonials of some of our first citizens show.

Dr. Hostetter's Bitters have received the warmest encomiums from the press and people throughout the Union. As a valuable tonic for the cure of Dyspepsia, Flatulence, Constipation and general nervous debility, it cannot be approached. Every day new cases of its great effect are chronicled through our public journals. There is nothing equal to the enjoyment, to that which the afflicted experience when using this valuable specific. Its mild sone, its sure and vigorous action upon a disordered stomach, and the cleansing of the entire human body, should recommend it to all classes of our community. All that will be necessary to convince the skeptical of its healthy effects, is to purchase a bottle and be convinced.

Sold by druggists and dealers generally, everywhere.

Among the restoratives which Nature has supplied to relieve the afflictions of humanity there is no more favorite one for a certain class of diseases than the "medicinal gum" of the Wild Cherry Tree; but however valuable it is, its power to heal, to soothe, to relieve, and to cure, is enhanced ten-fold by scientific and judicious combination with other ingredients, in themselves of equal worth. This happy mingling exists in that

Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry,

Whose value in curing Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Whooping Cough, Croup, Asthma, Pulmonary Affection and Incipient Consumption, is inestimable.

HOME TESTIMONY.

BOSTON, April 18, 1852.
No. 48 Union St.

Mr. Seth W. Fowle,—Dear Sir:—Your invaluable medicine, I can truly say, has literally snatched me from the grave. Last July I was attacked by a sudden cold, which resulted in a very severe Cough, with violent pains in the side and chest. I became so much reduced, that my friends frankly told me that I must die. At this crisis, I heard of Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, and immediately sent for a bottle. The effect produced was indeed wonderful. My physician, one of the most respectable in Boston, who had previously told me that a cure was hopeless, came in, and I informed him what I had taken. He examined the Balsam, and advised me to continue the use of it, since which time I have continued to improve daily; and the same physician who had given me up, told me, a few days since, that I might yet live many years.

Respectfully, MARY ROWE.

We can cheerfully testify to the truth of the above statement, Mrs. Rowe having been an inmate of our family. WILLIAM DENNETT.

Among the very large number of Newspapers that I furnish, I will call particular attention to but two—THE NEW YORK LEDGER—a paper that excels all others in enterprise and ability. The Hon. Edward Everett will continue to write for the Ledger, together with all the best talent in the world. THE NEW YORK TRIBUNE, the best paper in the world, for the news.

In calling the attention of the public to my list of Magazines and Newspapers, I would caution all against subscribing for Magazines, Newspapers, or other works, through irresponsible and transient persons, or travelling agents; for in nine cases out of ten you will be swindled and cheated.

If you wish to take any Magazine or newspaper, subscribe of some responsible agent in town. Hundreds of dollars are lost every year by subscribing for works of strangers and travelling agents, and by being induced to subscribe by the thousands of contrivances to cheat the public, such as Art Unions, Premiums, Cosmopolitan Art Associations, and various humbugs to get the unwary. Keep clear of these, and pay your money to those whom you know to be responsible. The subscriber has been in the business fifteen years, and will guarantee to furnish all publications as cheap as can be obtained.

STREETS AND ROADS.

Editors of Chronicle:—In your daily of Monday last, I noticed an article in reference to the combination of the two offices of Street and Road Commissioner, so that by a little judicious management, a salary might be obtained sufficient to secure the services of a competent engineer to fill said combined offices. If this plan can be put in practice, it will be the means of producing a great and much needed improvement to the streets of this city of Portsmouth, and a lasting benefit to the travelling public. By such an arrangement, with a mere trifle of additional expense, we can have a suitable grade set throughout the city, so that all future cutting and filling shall correspond to that grade, and when once made be final, needing no "carting out" by a successor. With an established grade, the water (forming such nice little ponds as we are often obliged to wade through at many of the crossings,) might be carried to the river, or to either mill-pond—a great blessing to pedestrians surely. Some of the best places could be improved to some purpose, and the stagnant pools could find an outlet.

The amount yearly expended on the streets, applied systematically, would do far more than it has done. Let the incoming city government think of this. Let them consider what a trifle of additional expense will do, and after due consideration, should the case seem plausible, let us have the benefit of it. Let not party feeling influence this matter. "The greatest good of the greatest number" should be the rule. Still less should individual interest be allowed to operate, and the general benefit to the community be sacrificed to the convenience of a single person, or a party clique. The permanent benefits to be derived should never be made subordinate and subservient to temporary and personal quibbling.

A CITIZEN.

☞ Grace Greenwood lectured in Portland, Wednesday evening, and the new, spacious and splendid City Hall was full, despite the severe storm. She is to visit New England again in February, and will lecture in Portsmouth and Portland, if her other engagements will permit. Besides the "Heroic" Lecture, delivered here, she has others, the subjects of two of which are, "The Men and Women of Twenty Years Hence;" and "Joan of Arc."

☞ J. C. Cluer will lecture in the Temple to-morrow (Sunday) evening. "Little Susie" will read and recite, before and after the lecture. Admission five cents.

☞ A building is being erected in Peoria, Ill., which will cover three acres of land, all under one roof. It is intended for the manufacture of pottery ware, and, when fully completed and in operation, will constitute the largest establishment for that business in the world.

HANG 'EM.—The conservatives of the large Northern cities are about holding public meeting to express sympathy for the South. The opinion is quite prevalent here that the best thing that they can do to restore harmony, perpetuate the Union, and prevent a diversion of Southern trade, is to seize and hang a few such scoundrels as Giddings, Redpath, Wendell Phillips, Greeley, Weed, et id omne genus.—Richmond Whig.

☞ The prisoners in the Illinois state prison are being transferred from Alton to the new prison at Joliet. There are 661 convicts in all, of whom 132 have been farmers, 125 laborers, 3 teachers, 6 physicians, 1 lawyer, 5 bakers, and 1 professional thief.

A lazy fop, standing by his brother's work bench, while the latter was sharpening a chisel, said: "John, why do you work for your living? A fellow of your talents should not degrade himself by manual labor. I mean to get my living by my wits." "Well, then, you can work with duller tools than I can."

☞ In dresses, there is a system established at Compiegne, that seems "rushing the fashion." Four toilets a day are about the general requirement, though there are days when only three are necessary; the invitations are for eight days, and no lady is expected to be seen twice wearing the same gown.

A lady residing in Lansingburgh, N. Y., whose husband does business in Troy, had a cat, which took a violent fancy to her baby. The latter was seized with a violent attack of whooping cough a few weeks since, and the cat with her two kittens caught the disease from the child. The baby died, and the cat was for a long time inconsolable for the loss of her favorite, until at last she pined away and died of grief.

☞ The Traveller understands that a meeting is soon to be held to denounce everybody that attended one of the plays founded on "Uncle Tom's Cabin." Loyalty to slavery demands this expression of opinion. If all who have read the novel could be got together, that would be a mass meeting indeed!

One of the last stories told about a drunken man, wants confirmation. It is said that in staggering around he met with a large globe lamp with letters upon it. Mistaking it for the moon, he said, "Well, I'm stumped if somebody haint stuck an advertisement on the moon."

CHARLESTOWN, VA., Dec. 15.—The hotels and private houses here are all crowded. Strict surveillance is kept upon strangers. Those who come from curiosity, and are well vouched for on the question of our peculiar institutions, are allowed to remain.

Three Quaker friends of Coppic, with whom he lived in Ohio during his boyhood, visited him yesterday. They speak of him as having been a quiet and inoffensive youth. They will remain and take his body to his mother.

Gov. Willard's interview wish Cook, last evening, when delivering a message to the prisoner from his sister, Mrs. Willard, was very affecting. The Governor was strongly attached to the prisoner, and wept over him as if he were his own son. His lamentations could be heard throughout the whole building.

The prisoners are all calm and resigned, to-day, and engaged with seeming devotion in spiritual exercises under the direction of the Rev. N. G. North, a Presbyterian clergyman.

The gallows was re-erected this evening. The negroes will be hung between 11 and 12, and the whites between 12 and 1.

NEW YORK, Dec. 15.—Explosion and Loss of Life.—Goldsmith's cap factory in South Brooklyn was blown up this morning by a tremendous explosion of fulminating powder. One man killed.

Heavy Failure.—It is rumored that the extensive provision house of Van Brant & Watsons have failed to meet their engagements. They are largely engaged in pork packing, and the rumor consequently had a depressing effect on the pork market.—Their liabilities are upwards of $250,000.

NOT TO BE DISCONTINUED.—Montreal, Dec. 15.—The owners here, of the Canadian line of Steamers, state that the report which appeared in a New York paper, from its correspondent in Canada, relative to the discontinuance of the line, is entirely destitute of truth. On the contrary, a new steamship of increased power and speed, has just been launched in the Clyde, for the line, which will henceforward be more efficient than ever. The Indian was insured for £35,000 sterling.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15.—The Democratic Senators held a caucus this morning, further to consider the arrangement of the Standing Committees. Mr. Toombs is understood to have advocated the restoration of Mr. Douglas as chairman of the Committee on Territories, but no vote was taken on that point, as Mr. Toombs stood alone in the caucus entertaining that desire. Mr. Green will doubtless continue chairman of the committee. Messrs. Pugh and Douglass were not in the caucus.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 14.—The Senate in executive session to-day, confirmed the nomination of John Hart as Superintendent of Public Printing and that of Amasa J. Parker as Attorney for the Southern Distrtct of New York. Other nominations were also definitely acted on.

Mr. Stallwórth, Democrrtic Congressman from the Mobile (Ala.) District, is still prostrate at home from the effects of his recent severe illness.

ITALY.—Garibaldi has issued a proclamation, dated Genoa, Nov. 23, addressed to his comrades in Central Italy. He desires them not to let his temporary absence weaken their ardor in the holy cause they are engaged in; bids them remain at their posts, persevering in duties which can alone make the soldier. The truce, he says, will not last long. Old diplomacy seems little disposed to see things as they are. They ignore the fact that they have in you the making of a great nation, if you are free and independent, and seeds of revolution that will shake the world if your rights are unrecognized. Italians! do not lay down your arms. Citizens! let there be not one who does not prepare a weapon to meet, by force, to-morrow, what we are still striving to obtain by the hands of justice.

The Tuscan Moniteur publishes a decree accepting Garibaldi's resignation of his command of the Tuscan army, but maintaining him in his honorary rank.

The States of Central Italy have 50,000 men under arms.

British residents at Nice delivered a highly complimentary address to Garibaldi.

BROWNSVILLE, TEXAS.—Advices from Brownsville state that Cortinas has quartered the dead bodies of the Texan troops killed in the late skirmish, and suspended them from the saddles of his own men.—This had created the greatest excitement at San Antonio. The Mexicans were favoring Cortinas.

ATTEMPTED ESCAPE OF COOK AND COPPIE!—Baltimore, Dec. 16.—A special dispatch from Charlestown to the American says that Cook and Coppie attempted to escape last evening.

They had cut through the wall of the jail, and partially succeeded, when they were fired on by the sentinels. They were afterwards heavily ironed.

☞ The N. Y. Herald's Washington correspondent says the speeches of Haskin and Hickman, on Monday, created a sensation in the galleries and deep feeling on the floor, such as has not been manifested during the present discussion. The pluck exhibited by Hickman was approved by the most chivalrous of the Southerners.

☞ A few days since three men belonging to the Brockville and Ottaway Railway took a hand car and proceeded along the line, when they were run into by a train, and the whole killed.

☞ Nineteen thousand Americans are said to be enrolled for the invasion for Mexico. They ought to be warned by the fate of Mr. Brown, who did only what they purpose doing, but with better intentions.

THE

WORTHY OF
Universal Confidence and Patronage.
FOR STATESMEN, JUDGES, CLERGYMEN.
Ladies and Gentlemen, in all parts of the world testify to the efficacy of Prof. O. J. Wood's Hair Restorative, and gentlemen of the Frees are unanimous in its praise. A few testimonials only can be here given; see circular for more, and it will be impossible for you to doubt.

47 Wall Street, New York, Dec. 20, 1858.
GENTLEMEN:—Your note of the 16th inst., has been received, saying that you had heard that I had been benefitted by the use of Wood's Hair Restorative, and requesting my certificate of the fact if I had no objection to give it.

I award it to you cheerfully, because I think it due. My age is about 50 years; the color of my hair auburn, and inclined to curl. Some five or six years since it began to turn gray, and the scalp on the crown of my head to lose its sensibility and dandruff to form upon it. Each of these disagreeablities increased with time, and about four months since a fourth was added to them, by hair falling off the top of my head and threatening to make me bald.

In this unpleasant predicament, I was induced to try Wood's Hair Restorative, mainly to arrest the falling off of my hair, for I had really no expectation that gray hair could ever be restored to its original color except from dyes. I was, however, greatly surprised to find after the use of two bottles only, that not only was the falling off arrested, but the color was restored to the gray hairs and sensibility to the scalp, and dandruff ceased to form on my head, very much to the gratification of my wife, at whose solicitation I was induced to try it.

For this, among the many obligations I owe to her sex, I strongly recommend all husbands who value the admiration of their wives to profit by my example, and use it if growing gray or getting bald. Very Respectfully,
BENJ. A. LAVENDER.

To O. J. Wood & Co., 444 Broadway, N. Y.

Siamaston, Ala., July 20th, 1589.
To Prof. O. J. Wood: Dear sir: Your "Hair Restorative" has done my hair so much good since I commenced the use of it, that I wish to make known to the PUBLIC its effects on the hair, which are great. A man or woman may be nearly deprived of hair, and by a resort to your "Hair Restorative," the hair will return more beautiful than ever; at least this is my experience. Believe it all! Yours truly,
WM. H. KENEDY.

P. S.—You can publish the above if you like.—By publishing in our Southern papers you will get more patronage south. I see several of your certificates in the Mobile Mercury, a strong Southern paper. W. H. K.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.
Professsor O. J. Wood:—Dear Sir:—Having had the misfortune to lose the best portion of my hair, from the effects of the yellow fever, in New Orleans in 1851, I was induced to make a trial of your preparation, and found it to be the very thing needed. My hair is now thick and glossy, and no words can express my obligations to you in giving to the afflicted such a treasure.
FINLEY JOHNSON.

The Restorative is put up in bottles of three sizes, viz: large, medium, and small; the small holds half a pint, and retails for one dollar per bottle; the medium holds at least twenty per cent. more in proportion than the small, retails for two dollars per bottle; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent. more in proportion, and retails for $3 a bottle.

April to December—Pillow, Edmonds and Brewster.

The funds of this society are derived from the annual contribution of $1 from members, and by private donations. Its object is to assist the unfortunate poor, chiefly in the winter season. The society being without funds, having used all at their command to meet a final payment of expenses of the property bequeathed to the society, it is desirable to receive the subscription of the members at an early day—also such donations as the benevolent may feel disposed to bestow.

The receipts of the last year were from members and donors $303 96; from rents and interest $281 98—and in all $585 64. About 650 orders were given out for relief in the course of the year.

REPUBLICAN MEETING.

A Meeting of the several Wards will be holden at the COURT HOUSE, in Court street, on MONDAY EVENING, Dec. 19, 1859, for the following purposes; to choose Delegates to State, Councillor, Senatorial, and County Conventions, and to organize the several Wards for the ensuing Campaign.

JOSEPH D. PILLOW.
EDMUND M. BROWN.
WM. H ROLLINS.

Portsmouth, Dec. 10, 1859.

NEW SCHOOL HOUSE, CABOT STREET.—On Thursday last the eleven proposals were opened for building the new school house, varying from $7405 to $4100. The latter was from Mr. B. F. Webster, whose proposal was accepted.

From the N. H. Gazette.

UNION MEETING IN PORTSMOUTH.—At a recent preliminary meeting of citizens of Portsmouth, it was voted to call in this city a meeting of all Union loving citizens to express the sentiment of this community in favor of sustaining the Constitution and Union of these United States. This is right. It is fitting that old Portsmouth should speak in this dangerous crisis in the country's affairs. An Executive committee was appointed to make arrangements for such meeting which will be held on or about the 28th instant.

The call which we give below is being circulated in the city, and has received already several hundred signatures. We shall publish in our next issue the names of all who shall have signed the call up to that time. We trust that no effort will be spared to make the meeting worthy of the reputation of Portsmouth for unwavering devotion to the Constitution and laws of the land. The call is broad, as will be observed, and embraces every friend of the country, of whatever party, and we hope that the Republicans of this city will join with the Democrats in the demonstration, and record their voice against treason and murder—in favor of maintaining the equal rights of all sections of the country under the Constitution.

CALL.

In view of the recent events, that have agitated and alarmed the country, and of the excited public feeling, which endangers the continuance of our free institutions; we invite all good citizens of Portsmouth and of the State, who desire the maintenance of the Constitution and the Union, to meet with us at Jefferson Hall, at an early day, for the purpose of expressing the opinion of the community in the present crisis.

ABNER GREENLEAF, Chairman, } of Executive HORACE WEBSTER, Secretary, } Committee.

☞ Four more of the Harper's Ferry insurrectionists are to be executed to-day, (Friday,) at at Charlestown, Va. Green and Copeland were to be hung at 11 o'clock, A M., and Cook and Coppie at 3, P. M. A memorial has been presented to the Virginia Legislature for a commutation of the sentence of Coppie.

As in the case of old Brown himself, we feel little sympathy at the fate of these men. Our chief regret is, that the leading Black Republicans and abolitionists who stimulated and encouraged them in their treasonable and bloody foray, and who have done so much to excite and set in motion the "irrepressible conflict" between the North and South, are not to be swung with them. They would only receive their just deserts, and the country would be an immense gainer thereby in peace and repose.

STOVE STORE REMOVED.

URIAH BLAISDELL

Has removed his Stove and Furnishing Establishment one door north, to the spacious and convenient store

Nos. 43 & 45 Market Street,

where he is receiving and arranging a large and valuable Stock of

STOVES, TIN WARE, &c.,

Which he offers for sale at wholesale and retail, at very low prices. He has a great variety of the best and most popular Stoves, among which are:

1. The Stewart Cook Stove, with the latest improvements. This is an air-tight Cook Stove, for Wood or Coal; it has moveable coverings, which can confine the heat in the stove, or let it out into the room; has a reservoir of hot water 10 or 20 gallons, and a tin closet beneath;—a top cover, which is a great institution for baking, and will keep a coal fire all night; it has a Dutch Oven for roasting in front of the Stove;—and it is every way a most convenient and durable Stove. There are 4 sizes.

The following recommendation of Stewart's Stove, is from an eminent engineer, and must be satisfactory to all who wish to understand the value of this excellent Stove:

Portsmouth, N. H., Nov. 5, 1859.

Mr. Blaisdell:—Seven years ago I moved to this city, and sold, before I came, a "Stewart's Air Tight Cooking Stove," which I had used about five years. During that time no repairs or expense had been made upon it. Since I have been here I have tried the various Cooking Stoves in use, and I think for economy and durability the "Stewart" excels them all. I wish you would take away the Stove I now have from my house, and set up one of Stewart's as soon as you can. Your ob't servant,

B. F. CHANDLER.

2. Boston & Maine Cook Stove;
3. White Mountain;
4. Empire State;
5. Enterprise;
6. Exchange;
7. Dining Room Cook Stoves, and others.

BLOOD FOOD.

Dr. Bronson, having been so far reduced by consumption, as to be considered beyond all hope of recovery by the most eminent of the medical profession, and also by himself—a regular physician of twenty years' practice—as a last resort, conceived the idea of ANALYZING THE BLOOD, and applying the subject of phisiology to the more immediate connection, and effect of the state of the blood upon the health and system. The result has been the production of this "BLOOD FOOD," from the use of which, Dr. Bronson was restored to perfect health. Within six months after its introduction, over 2000 consumptives were effectually cured by it. If you have any complaints of a consumptive tendency. Cough, Cold, Headache, Palpitation of the Heart, Loss of Appetite, or Pain in the Side, lose no time in procuring a bottle of the "BLOOD FOOD." If you are suffering from Nervous Debility, or your sleep is broken and disturbed, if your Spirits are depressed or your organs relaxed, you will find in this an unfailing remedy, by commencing with ten drops. If your Liver is torpid or diseased in any manner whatever, one or two bottles will be sure to invigorate, and bring it into lively and healthful action. In the most inveterate cases of Dyspepsia, the patient can here find the most efficient and grateful relief. A benefit is always experienced after taking only one bottle. In Male or Female Complaints or Weaknesses, the sufferer, after trying other remedies in vain, may rest assured, that a certain cure will result from the use of two or three bottles. The "BLOOD FOOD" is effectual in all cases of Eruptions, Salt Rheum, Scrofulas, and other like complaints. Pale and emaciated children and adults are immediately benefitted by its use. It gives strength to the body, and color and beauty to the skin. Physicians of all schools are using it with wonderful success.

DR. J. B. HUGHES,

Knowing that there are at this moment thousands of persons in the surrounding towns, surrendering their lives to the insidious inroads of certain dangerous maladies, who still suffer from the delusion that to make known their complaints and consult a physician, he would state that any of his medicines will be sent by express or otherwise, to all who may order them, provided the true description of the disease be sent by letter and directed as above.

Full and explicit directions will accompany every package, and the most inviolable secresy preserved.

DR. HUGHES can with safety say during the last year of his practice in Boston, more than three hundred cases of disease which have been improperly treated by empyrics have come under his care, and more than three-fourths of this number are inscribed upon this books as perfect cures.

Patients treated by letter by addressing Dr. Hughes, post paid, and medicines sent all over the country, carefully concealed from scrutinizing friends.

Be particular in finding Dr. Hughes. Do not be lured from the right path, or be persuaded to try experiments with false and fictitious names at the expense of destroying what is the great pillar of life, a healthy constitution.

This medicine can only be obtained at the Office of Dr. HUGHES, 13 Howard street Boston.

DR. J. B. HUGHES UNIVERSAL FEMALE RENOVATING PILLS. These pills are unrivalled in efficacy and superior virtue in regulating all female irregularities. Their action is specific and certain, producing relief in a short space of time. They are acknowledged to be the best in use.

The Dr. cautions the public to beware of impositions that are being practiced by advertising spurious article under some spurious or fictitious name. They are entirely useless, having been got up by miserable pretenders who are entirely ignorant of the efficacy of medicine.

All who are in pursuit of the genuine article, had better call on the Dr. at his office, where they will be sure of getting the genuine—the only place in Boston where the genuine is for sale.

These pills can be sent to any part of the country with directions. Remember the number—13 Howard street, Boston.

P. S.—The best of accommodations furnished, with kind and attentive nurses if they wish, at a reasonable rate. jz dly

Morning Chronicle.

"BARBARISM AND CIVILIZATION, their comparative effects on the physical man," was the title of an admirable lecture—one of the famous Fraternity Course, in Boston, last week. It was full of fact and fancy, fun and philosophy. From a report in the Bee, we make an extract or two:

In conclusion, Mr. H. said he believed in the future of American health and strength, and there were two reasons why we should train it. The first was, that we live in a Democracy which puts manual labor as the natural foundation for all spiritual and mental attainment. Of course there were plenty who despised it, but he turned from them to that fine sayiug of the wisest English traveler we have ever had among us, Harriet Martineau, when she said that she should "always think of American civilization as the highest in the world, because every American, however learned, knows how to harness his own horse, if he is so lucky as to have one, and every woman, however accomplished, can make her own bed."

I hope, said Mr. H., it is true. Certainly, the American man who cannot harness his own horse does not deserve to ride it, and every woman who cannot make her own bed, ought to be smothered in it. (Laughter and applause.) In view of the grand moral and physical promise of complete and perfect development which these things hold out, one can well pass rejoicingly over the extravagances that accompany it, such as the Irish girl paying eight dollars for a bonnet, when her mistress bought one for only four; or the coachman who says, "If you are the man to ride in that carriage, I am the gentleman to drive you;" or, as in the case of the "help," at a fashionable watering place last summer, who astonished some of the boarders by calling out, "Girls, you musn't go through that dining-room; there is a young lady washing up the floor."—(Laughter.)

But there is another momentous reason for the physical training of America. If I were to speak of America as all civilized, you would reproach me with flattery. I read the other day a definition of barbarism in an old writer, that it was a condition of mankind in which cruel and unnatural acts were done, as that a father should sell his only child into slavery. Poor man! he lived in a monarchy, and he thought that was barbarism. He had never lived in America. Is that civilization where the most heroic woman in the Commonwealth goes into exile for life for teaching a child to read? Is that civilization, where the most heroic man who treads the soil of the State can find no place but a scaffold from which to teach to the people of that State his lessons of justice and of truth? (Applause.)

☞ The earnings of the "mudlarks" of London, who number from 500 to 600 boys and girls, are estimated at from £2000 to £3000 a year, that being the amount they receive for what they pick up.

Somebody says that a friend of his carries his sense of honor so far as to spend all his time in perfect idleness, because he does not like to take advantage of time.

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

MONDAY, DEC. 19, 1859.

THE DROUGHT OF 1858.—M. Barral has published in the Annales de Chimie his memoir on this subject, (read before the Academy at Paris,) in which he compares the observations made in 1858 with those for 140 years previous. He arrives at the following among other results: That the waters of the Seine had descended in 1858 to the lowest level known during the observations of 126 years; that the mean of the rainfall in Paris has been hardly inferior to the annual mean; but that, taking the mean of rainfall for France in general, the diminution of rain has been as 21 to 100 as the annual mean; and that the absence of snow during the winter of 1857-8 may be considered as the principal cause of the extraordinary lowering of the water in streams and rivers.

☞ A breach of promise case has been before the Superior Court, in Boston. The suit is brought by Miss Henrietta Richardson, of South Boston, against Jerome B. Carpenter, who is a carpenter by trade;—and $3000 damages were claimed. The plaintiff is a good-looking girl of 22, and the defendant is 40 years old and possessed of $10,000. He was a widower in 1858, when the promise is alleged to have been given, but has now a second wife, to the great injury of the inconsolable Henrietta. It appears from the evidence that he played the agreeable for her, and she was ready to consummate the match, when suddenly he broke from her and married another at once.

The case was given to the jury at noon on Thursday. The jury remained out all night, and were unable to agree. Eleven jurors were in favor of giving a verdict to the plaintiff, with damages from $1000 to $3000. The twelfth man would not yield to the obstinacy of the eleven, and the jury were discharged.

A NEW THEOLOGY.—In his message to the Legislature, Governor Magoffin, of Kentucky, after proving to his own satisfaction the rightfulness of slavery from the Old and New Testament, closes by laying down the following remarkable theological platform:—

"And may we and our prosterity, as the worthy descendants of the gallant heroes of the Revolution, both now and in the future, stand by the compact of the Constitution formed by their wisdom and concentrated by their blood, as the only hope of freemen in time and in eternity."

☞ Mr. William Swasey of Haverhill, and four others, started last week with a raft of oak timber for Newburyport, and when near Amesbury encountered a jam of ice. The raft, instead of forcing a passage through the ice, shot under, and in a twinkling not a stick was to be seen. Mr. Swasey was thrown into the water, but was rescued. The whole party had to crawl ashore, the ice not being strong enough to walk upon. The raft, valued at $600, was a total loss.

☞ In the Superior Court, Boston, the case of Rufus S. Bennett vs. E. T. Carr, was on trial. The plaintiff sued for rent of a part of a building at the corner of Commercial and Hanover streets. The defence set up was that the place was let to Carr for the purpose of keeping a liquor shop, which business being illegal, the defendant was not responsible for rent. This plea was effective, and the jury found a verdict for the defence.

☞ The Providence Post thinks it probable that at least two hundred ladies have had dresses and shawls ruined or injured in that city within the last three months by having lamp oil poured upon them while walking the streets. One lady had a shawl ruined that was worth $100. In some neighborhoods not a family has escaped these outrages.

☞ Capt. Kenney, of the Boston Lancers, killed himself on Thursday evening, at Cambridge, where he lived. He seems to have been a monomaniac on the subject of property, fearing he should come to poverty, though he was in good business, and enjoyed a good reputation. He was 38 years old, and leaves a widow, but no children.

☞ The Washington correspondent of the New York Herald says that threats are made by Southern gentlemen that twenty-five members will withdraw from the House if Mr. Sherman is elected; but nobody believes it.—Surely no one need to believe it; but if they should, how easily the House would go on without them.

☞ The Commander of the Brooklyn Navy Yard has got orders from the Department at Washington, to have the steam frigate Niagara housed over fo thwith. It is said by men who are thoroughly skilled in naval architecture that the Niagara is a failure as a man-of-war.

"Mother," said little Mary, "was that cow that invaded Virginia, like our cow, or was it one of the wild ones?" "Put that child to bed," said the Union-saving father.

THE EXECUTION.

The Charlestown, Va., dispatches of the 16th, contain long details of the attempt made by two of the prisoners to escape, of which we have already published a brief statement. This detail is worth more in Virginia than here.

At Charlestown, on the morning of Friday, the 16th, at 10 1-2 o'clock, Green and Copeland were prepared to go to the place of execution. The crowd was very great, at least five times as numerous as on the occasion of Brown's execution. The religious ceremonies were conducted by Rev. Mr. North and Rev. Mr. Waugh.

The prisoners were accompanied on the scaffold by Rev. Messrs. Waugh, North and Lehr, to whom they bade an affectionate farewell, and expressed the hope of meeting them in Heaven. The bodies were placed in poplar coffins and carried back to the jail. They will be interred on the spot where the gallows stands, though there is a party of medical students in Charlestown, who will probably not allow them to remain there long.

At a quarter of twelve notice was given to Cook and Coppie that one hour more was allowed them. Religious ceremonies were held in the cell. Since the failure of their attempt at escape, their assumed composure and apparent resignation had given way.

They were reserved and rather quiet, but joined in the religious exercises conducted by Messrs. North, Lehr and Waugh. After bidding farewell to the guards of the jail, they were helped into the wagon and took seats on their coffins. There appearance was rather that of hopeless despair than resignation, and they took but little notice of anything as the procession moved slowly to the field of death.

They ascended the scaffold with a determined firmness that was scarcely surpassed by Capt. Brown. After a prayer, they were executed, just before one o'clock. All that was said, after the rope was adjusted, was that Cook exclaimed, "Be quick—as quick as possible!" which was repeated by Coppie.

After hanging about thirty minutes, both bodies were taken down and placed in black walnut coffins, That of Cook was put in a poplar box, and directed to Ashbell P. Willard and Robert Crowley, 104 William street, New York, care of Adams' Express. Coppie's body was placed in similar box, to be forwarded to his mother in Iowa.

In the morning, before execution, the prisoners conversed on a variety of subjects. Cook said to a gentleman who addressed him, that he fully believed slavery to be a sin, and that it would be abolished in Virginia in less than ten years, and that by the people of Virginia. He was prepared to die in such a cause, and thought he had done nothing to regret so far as principle was concerned.

Coppie said that he feared the affair had not ended yet, that they had friends in the North who would not rest satisfied, he feared, till they had been avenged. He hoped, however, that the affair would end here forever.

☞ The Hartford Courant tells us the following story in relation to a Union-saving meeting which it was proposed to get up in that city:—

"The story goes about the town, (and we guess the story is correct, as it came to us pretty straight,) that a retired politician of this city, who has borne various offices, both State and National, and is known to be as truly patriotic and national, in the best sence of the word, as any man among us, was applied to yesterday to preside over the Union-Meeting that is to be held in the City Hall to-night. His answer was, 'I am pretty well advanced in years; if seventeen men can shake this Union to its centre, it is too far gone for me to save it; I believe I won't preside.'"

☞ Dan Sickles, in a letter, states that members of congress received him more cordially than ever:—but Perley, the well-informed correspondent of the Boston Journal, and other writers represent the case differently. Perley says of his speech:

His apology for the John Brown meetings in New York was elaborate, and his eulogiums of the Democratic party were profuse, but his speech was listened to in silence.

When he had concluded, there was a faint applause, led off by a few personal friends here and there, but on the whole, the speech made no mark.

☞ John P. Warren, of Willington, Conn., pleaded guilty to murder in the second degree—having drowned his wife in a brook—and was sentenced to the State Prison for life.

A friend says he has learned how to have a "time" on a cheap scale. He eats a liberal piece of mince pie and washes it down with a glass of ale, just before going to bed, and he is almost sure to sport with a span of night-mares all the rest of the night.—Bath Times.

SHIPS LOADING FOR EUROPE.—The New Orleans Crescent of Tuesday says that sixty-seven ships are loading for Liverpool; sixteen for Havre, and sixteen for other foreign ports.

A man can no more believe with another's faith, than he can satisfy his hunger by seeing another man eat.

☞ The proprietor of the Pennsylvania Inquirer, Philadelphia, Mr. Harding, has been forced into an assignment. It is understood to be the fruit of outside operations, paper mills and passenger railways, neither of which have turned up what they were expected to be.

The Inquirer is understood to be a very profitable concern, as well as the immense Bible factory, which Mr. Harding has carried on for many years, whose products have figured so conspicuously in the trade-sale catalogues. But their profits were unable to supply the draw of heavy outside operations.

Mr. Hardiug is now long past the meridian of life, but he has been one of the most active and enterprising men Philadelphia ever had.

☞ The Norfolk Day Book makes mention of a heroic little girl in that city who proved herself a worthy compeer for the famous Grace Darling. The story is this, and the name of Louisa Hudgings deserves a place on the page of history beside that of the noble maid of the Eddystone Lighthouse:—

"It appears that a few days ago, while the weather was quite cold and the wind blowing quite a gale, a small sail boat was seen approaching the Matthews shore.—When about one hundred yards off, a squall of wind capsized the frail bark, and one of the men was thrown headlong into the angry billows. This accident was witnessed by little Louisa M. Hudgings, who was at that moment watching the approaching boat from her father's window, when she saw the struggling form of a man in the water. She rushed hastily from the house to the shore; divested herself of her shoes and hose, and waded out to a canoe which was secured to a stake a short distance from the shore. This she hastily paddled to the relief of the drowning man, and reached him in time to save his life.—She then, with the assistance of the other man. succeeding in getting him into her boat, and paddled him safely to the shore. We understand that when she reached the shore and found herself sans bonnet, sans shoes and sans stocking, her maidenly modesty, which had been overcome by her heroism, returned, and she blushed scarlet to find herself in this predicament before two men. But she had no need to be ashamed; the deed was a noble one—worthy of a Spartan mother, and we take pleasure in chronicling it."

☞ The Boston Post of Thursday says:

"Ex-President Pierce left this city yesterday afternoon, accompanied by Mrs. Pierce, en route for New York, where early in January, they embark for Nassau, the capital of New Providence, one of the group of Bahama Islands. The island has been recommended by the highest medical authority in Boston as promising by its climate, and other surrroundings, benneficial results to the health of Mrs. Pierce, which is found cannot bear the severity of our winter in New England. General Pierce proposes to spend a few days in Hartford, in a visit to his friend ex-Governor Seymour of Connecticut."

Catarrhal Cough.

This insidious and annoying symptom, so difficult to treat, depends on a subacute inflammation of the air-passages, which is apt to end in chronic ulceration and a form of consumption. The mucous membrane of the air-passages is peculiarly susceptible to the healing influences of the PERUVIAN SYRUP, as the testimonials of some of our first citizens show.

Dr. Hostetter's Bitters have received the warmest encomiums from the press and people throughout the Union. As a valuable tonic for the cure of Dyspepsia, Flatulence, Constipation and general nervous debility, it cannot be approached. Every day new cases of its great effect are chronicled through our public journals. There is nothing equal to the enjoyment, to that which the afflicted experience when using this valuable specific. Its mild tone, its sure and vigorous action upon a disordered stomach, and the cleansing of the entire human body should recommend it to all classes of our community. All that will be necessary to convince the skeptical of its healthy effects, is to purchase a bottle and be convinced.

Sold by druggists and dealers generally, everywhere.

Among the restoratives which Nature has supplied to relieve the afflictions of humanity there is no more favorite one for a certain class of diseases than the "medicinal gum" of the Wild Cherry Tree; but however valuable it is, its power to heal, to soothe, to relieve, and to cure, is enhanced ten-fold by scientific and judicious combination with other ingredients, in themselves of equal worth. This happy mingling exists in that

HOME TESTIMONY.

BOSTON, April 18, 1852.
No. 48 Union St.

Mr. Seth W. Fowle,—Dear Sir:—Your invaluable medicine, I can truly say, has literally snatched me from the grave. Last July I was attacked by a sudden cold, which resulted in a very severe Cough, with violent pains in the side and chest. I became so much reduced, that my friends frankly told me that I must die. At this crisis, I heard of Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, and immediately sent for a bottle. The effect produced was indeed wonderful. My physician, one of the most respectable in Boston, who had previously told me that a cure was hopeless, came in, and I informed him what I had taken. He examined the Balsam, and advised me to continue the use of it, since which time I have continued to improve daily; and the same physician who had given me up, told me, a few days since, that I might yet live many years.

Respectfully, MARY ROWE.

We can cheerfully testify to the truth of the above statement, Mrs. Rowe having been an inmate of our family. WILLIAM DENNETT,

Prepared by S. W. FOWLE & CO., BOSTON, and for sale by Wm. R. Preston, David Kimball, Nathan P. Thacher, J. H. Thacher, and B. Hutchings, Portsmouth; J. P. Packer, Greenland; and dealers everywhere. spuot 4wd&w

Among the very large number of Newspapers that I furnish, I will call particular attention to but two—THE NEW YORK LEDGER—a paper that excels all others in enterprise and ability—The Hon. Edward Everett will continue to write for the Ledger, together with all the best talent in the world. THE NEW YORK TRIBUNE—the best paper in the world, for the news.

In calling the attention of the public to my list of Magazines and Newspapers, I would caution all against subscribing for Magazines, Newspapers, or other works, through irresponsible and transient persons, or travelling agents; for in nine cases out of ten you will be swindled and cheated.

If you wish to take any Magazine or newspaper, subscribe of some responsible agent in town. Hundreds of dollars are lost every year by subscribing for works of strangers and travelling agents, and by being induced to subscribe by the thousands of contrivances to cheat the public—such as Art Unions, Premiums, Cosmopolitan Art Associations, and various humbugs to gull the unwary. Keep clear of these, and pay your money to those whom you know to be responsible. The subscriber has been in the business fifteen years, and will guarantee to furnish any publication as cheap as can be obtained.

BUILDING BY CONTRACT. — For the erection of the proposed two-story wooden School House on Cabot street, there were eleven proposals, one of which was withdrawn before opening. The ten differed thus: $7405, $5575, $4892.55, $4875, $4499, $4397, $4380, $4275, $4211, $4100.

"Last takes all," in this case, of course; and this last and lowest is that of Benj. F. Webster—who will build the School House. He is one of the most active and enterprising young mechanics and business men in the city; and has ample facilities for doing work quick, cheap and well—as he has proved in various instances.

Speaking of contracts, we regret to learn that a couple of enterprising and worthy young carpenters, who have recently finished a large and handsome building, which is an ornament to our city, and also calculated to increase business here—were so unfortunate as to agree to do the work altogether too cheap—and consequently have lost by it, a sum which is to them no light matter.

☞ Justice to the pilot and officers of the U.S. Steamer Mohican, in her voyage from Portsmouth, N. H. to New York, induces us to say that the report given by the pilot, stated that the vessel put into Provincetown harbor, on account of severe weather, and the seasickness of some of the engineers and firemen; but that the officers were all competent and fit for duty, and at their posts throughout the voyage. Papers that have stated otherwise, should correct.

☞ In City Council, Thursday evening, Dec. 15, the usual Resolution was passed in concurrence, authorizing and instructing the Collector to notify all delinquent tax-payers on the 25th of December, that if their taxes are not paid within 14 days thereafter, with 20 cts. additional for said notification, he will distrain for the same according to law.

A concurrent Resolution was also passed requesting the Mayor to rigidly enforce the Ordinance requiring the sidewalks to be cleared of snow within eight hours after the cessation of its fall.

☞ Mr. J. W. Clark, as is well known, has for several years officiated as organist at the North Church, to the general acceptance and satisfaction of the congregation. A few weeks ago, he sent in his resignation.—which fact we stated, per request. This had not been acted on, but remained with the music committee, who procured a player in his place for a couple of Sabbaths. He last week requested leave to "withdraw his resignation,"—which was granted, and he resumed his old position yesterday—to the joy of many who have long admired his playing. We state this also, by request. The only "difference" is an odds of $50 in the salary—$250 or less?

☞ Rev. C. W. Dennison, of Boston, editor of the newspaper "The Sea," will Lecture at the Temple, Wednesday evening, Dec. 21, on "The Wonders of the Tropics," illustrated by descriptions of the Gulf Stream, scenery, climate, productions, &c.

Admission 10 cts.

☞ In Congress, on Friday, Dec. 16, the Senate was not in session.

In the House, on motion of Mr. Niblack, it was resolved that, till the election of Speaker, the Clerk of the last House be authorized to exercise the power of devolving on the Speaker, for preserving order in the galleries, and on the floor of the House for the time being, under the rules of the last House, and that the Sergeant-at-Arms, for the like purpose, be under the direction of the Clerk.

The usual debate on slavery was then carried on wholly by democrats.

Mr. Clemens wanted the House to vote for Speaker, objecting to gentlemen sitting there five hours to ventilate their rhetoric. He gave notice that he should retire from the Hall whenever he was physically disabled from attendance on the session. If he could not get a pair they would have to do without his vote.

The House proceeded to vote for Speaker.

Whole number, 227; Necessary to choice, 114; Sherman had 96; Bocock 86; Gilmer 36; Scattering 9.

Another vote was anxiously demanded.

Mr. Winslow suggested an adjournment till Monday.

Mr. Gilmer withdrew his name as a candidate, and returned his thanks to his friends who had complimented him by their votes, and he felt in no less degree complimented by the vote of gentlemen with whom he very much disagreed, politically.

He would nominate Mr. Boteler, and thought, from the indications and corresponding action on the Democratic side, that Mr. Boteler could be elected Speaker.

The House again voted, with the following result:

Sherman 111; Bocock 83; Boteler 25; Scattering 9. Adj.

A notice was read from the Clerk's desk, of a Democratic caucus, Friday night, in the Hall.

The dispatch to the Associated Press says:

The largely increased vote for Mr. Gilmer came from the anti-Lecompton democrats, and the New Jersey and Pennsylvania Republicans, elected on the People's ticket. It was intended to test the Democratic members, who had thus the ability to elect a Southern man as Speaker if they wished. Mr. Bocock's 86 votes added to Mr. Gilmer's 36 votes would have made 122, being eight more than enough to elect; but no democrat voted for Mr. Gilmer, and he at once withdrew his name. In the next vote, Mr. Sherman had one more vote than ever before, but still lacked four of an election.

The Republican members to-night are sanguine of success. They adhere to Mr. Sherman inflexibly.

A Democratic caucus was held at the Capitol, Friday night. 58 members attended, and three different resolutions offered, but none passed. The one which met with most favor was,

That the members of this Conference persist in the support of the Democratic nominee for Speaker, until his declination or a conference of the party shall determine otherwise.

No vote was taken, and the caucus adjourned.

Fousel's Pabulum Vitæ.

☞ THE GREAT FRENCH REMEDY possesses extraordinary properties for the speedy and permanent cure of CONSUMPTION, BRONCHITIS, COUGHS, COLDS, and all PULMONARY DISEASE.

This celebrated specific is now universally acknowledged to be infinitely superior to all other preparations for the cure of Pulmonary Disease, both from its innocent nature and most astonishing curative properties; it being the only remedy known that will arrest the development of Tubercles in the Lungs or restore the vital functions of the pulmonary organs to their normal condition. Its invaluable properties have obtained for it the highest recommendation and praise from some of the most eminent physicians and chemists in the country: while the best and surest proofs of its merits are afforded by the numerous testimonials of its great efficacy in conquering disease, which are constantly received from our most respectable citizens. Invalids in all stages of pulmonary disease should not fail to give it a trial, as it can be administered to the most delicate and feeble with perfect safety and certain relief; and we herewith insert a few testimonials for their encouragement, selected from hundreds of like import.

Certificate of Dr. A. A. HAYES, in reference to the unequalled virtues of this great discovery.

This preparation, by chemical analysis, was proved to be free from opium, or any of its compounds; nor were any of the alkaloids present. It does not contain any mercurial or mineral substance, but consists wholly of volatile, diffusible agents, which afford vapors freely at a moderate temperature. Most of the substances present are officinally used in alleviating pulmonary disease; but the device by which they are combined is new and original, and adapts the compound to inhalation, or other modes of administration.

Respectfully,
A. A. HAYES, M. D., State Assayer.
16 Boylston St., Boston, Dec. 1857.

In the Boston Transcript of December 11, 1858, the editor says:—

"We have seen a letter from an eminent physician of this city, in which he says:—'I have used Fousel's Pabulum Vitæ in several cases of Bronchial disease, and it has come with great benefit. I know of no remedy equal to it for children, where a minute dose is essential; or for adults of irritable stomachs, or having a tendency to reject ordinary medicines given for coughs, etc. I shall continue to use it in my practice.'"

Testimonial from the Sisters of Charity, of the St. Vincent's Orphan Asylum, of Boston.
BOSTON, July 31, 1858.

To Mr. F. LAFORME, Agent:

"The Sisters are happy to state that, having used Fousel's Pabulum Vitæ, they have found it efficacious in several instances, for bad coughs and colds. Signed by the SISTERS OF CHARITY.

Testimonial from a well-known Apothecary's Clerk.
BOSTON, March 10, 1859.

J. F. LAFORME, Esq.:

Dear Sir—I had been suffering for a considerable length of time from a severe cough, and had in vain had recourse to nearly all the remedies in use My cough began to give me much uneasiness from its serious effects on my system, when three days' use of Fousel's Pabulum Vitæ restored me to complete health. The medicine being new in this market, I had recourse to it last; but I can now confidently recommend it as the best medicine I know of. Yours, truly,
CHAS. H. FOSTER.

At Fred Brown's, Washington, corner State St.

In the Boston Post, Sept. 24, 1858, the editor says:

"An extraordinary cure of Consumption has recently come to our knowledge, effected through the instrumentality of Fousel's Pabulum Vitæ; the evidence of which is in the handwriting of the subject, Mr. Wm. P. Brigham, No. 130 Albany st., in this city. It seems that for eighteen months he had been exhibiting all the usual symptoms of Consumption, and that after having had recourse to the skill of various physicians, without benefit, he had to abandon his business and be confined to his house. Hearing of Fousel's Pabulum Vitæ, and of several remarkable cures effected by it, in cases as desperate as his own, he concluded to try it as a forlorn hope. The result has been most happy—he has now entirely recovered, and is engaged in his usual pursuits. It is such well authenticated cases as this that we take pleasure in laying before our readers, since, by so doing, many valuable lives may be saved, and much good effected.

It is sold at the low price of 50 cents, and $1.00 per bottle, thus placing it within the reach of all classes. F. J. LAFORME, sole Agent, Boston. M. S. BURR & CO., General Agents, No. 28 Tremont street, Museum Building, Boston, and for sale by all druggists. Circulars with testimonials of its efficacy can be had of the Agents novlly

From the Portsmouth Journal.

UNION MEETINGS.—WHO ARE THE DISUNIONISTS?

In an article headed "The Mutineers considered," in the Salem Gazette, there are presented many facts which should be kept in mind, especially by those who may think they belong to a democratic party, when in fact they belong to the Slaveocracy.

The entire tone and spirit that pervaded the speech of the Hon. Caleb Cushing, at Faneuil Hall, on Thursday, last week, are little calculated to inspire confidence or respect in the great bulk of the true Union-loving people. There was no mistaking the whole purport of the words of the ex-Attorney General. It was that the Republican ement must be checked in its advance against the present corrupt Democratic party, assuming that the Republicans were unmindful of their constitutional obligations to the slaveholding States. "A band of drunken mutineers has seized hold of the political opinion of this Commonwealth," said the speaker; though we will do him the justice to say that the concluding words of the sentence indicated his meaning to be that the ruling party in Massachusetts was controled by the abolitionists of the Garrison school, without acknowledging their doctrines. The whole tone of the address, is pervaded with the idea that Massachusetts is disloyal to the country, and that her present government and the organization which upholds it, should be overthrown in every capacity, State and national.

The country will not readily forget the fact that all the late causes which have produced apparant estrangement between the section, have been wantonly and defiantly furnished by the Democratic party. The Missouri Compromise was repealed by the Democratic party, under the administration of Franklin Pierce. That measure was for political purposes of Democratic leaders, and we defy any man to deny that that measure lies at the root of all our present agitation.

The slavery agitation and the disunion threats invariably proceed from the Democratic party. Without qualification, the Governor of South Carrolina threatens to secede from the Union with his State in case a Republican President is legally elected, and that, too, without waiting for an overt act of interference with any constitutional rights of the Slave States. That Governor, with treason on his lips, and treason in his heart, is a member of the Democratic party. Jefferson Davis has frequently talked of a dissolution of the Union in case of election of a man like Seward, who never uttered a word against the constitutional rights of the Slave States; and Jefferson Davis was Secretary of War under the Democratic administration of Franklin Pierce. The Governor of Virginia has talked in a similar vein, and considered the practicability of seizing upon the public property in case of the election of Fremont; and the Governor of Virginia is a member in good standing of the Democratic party. Who keep the performance of legitimate public business out of Congress for the purpose of agitating upon Slavery at the present moment?—Members of the Democratic party.

Where are disunion conventions openly held and treason against the Union defiantly advocated? In the Democratic States of the South, we answer. Are these allegations and enumerations of specific cases unfair? Do not the DEMOCRATIC PARTY of these States put forward as the Representatives, Senators and Governors, men who speak these sentiments in the halls of Congress and from their official posts? Did Massachusetts, on the other hand, ever elect a Garrison man or an abolitionist? Has any Free State, at this moment, in either the halls of Congress or the Gubernatorial chairs a man who either threatens or contemplates disunion, OR WHO COUNTENANCES THE LEAST INTERFERENCE WITH SLAVERY IN THE SOUTHERN STATES? NOT ONE.

From the N. H. Gazette.

The Position of the South.

All accounts from the South agree in representing that a most deplorable condition of distrust and ill-feeling animates the entire Southern mind against the people of the North, since old Brown's foray at Harper's Ferry. No confidence whatever is felt in anybody from the Northern States.

Now this condition of things at the South is but the natural, necessary and just consequence of the outrageous and persistent course of aggression upon Southern rights and institutions which has been pursued at the North for the past twenty-five years, and which has finally come to open and bold invasion of Southern soil, for the purpose of exciting insurrection, murder and devastation.

We say the people of the South have been guilty of no act to justify, in any degree, this infamous course toward them. They have never interfered in any manner with the rights and institutions of the North. They have simply and only demanded that their own rights under the Constitution should be respected. But this has been persistently denied them. Their slaves have been stolen and enticed away to the extent of thousands every year, and when they have sought to reclaim them in pursuance of a plain constitutional right, they have been resisted by the whole abolition Black Republican force in a manner to make the effort generally useless and fruitless. They have been stigmatized and anathematized by people, press and pulpit—laws have been passed at once violative of their rights and of the Constitution, and every manner of means employed to annoy, excite and harrass them; and finally the climax of wrong and aggression has been reached, in the sending of a bandit of cut-throats into their borders to re-enact the revolting scenes of St. Domingo, and spread death and desolation throughout the land.

That the time has come when this infamous warfare upon the South must cease or the Union must go down, needs no prophetic gift to discover.—Knaves and idiots may proclaim that there is no danger—that the South cannot be kicked out of the Union; but intelligent and sober men see and realize that the crisis is at hand and the danger imminent, which can only be averted by arresting at once the vile provoking cause. The signs of the times are not to be mistaken. The people of the South never before evinced such an earnest and settled determination. The abolition crusade against them must cease and their constitutional rights be respected, or a separation of the States will inevitably take place. With what power then is every patriotic citizen appealed to by the existing state of affairs, to arouse and exert himself to the extent of his abilities to crush out the fell spirit of abolitionism and thus avert the danger which so imminently threatens the peace and welfare of his country.

GERRITT SMITH.—It is announced that this worthy has nearly recovered from his insanity, and that his family hope to enjoy a Christmas reunion with him fully restored in mind and body. They doubtless will,—for we never regarded the old traitor's insanity as anything more than a "dodge" to escape the requisition of Gov. Wise. Now that the chief of the Harper's Ferry murderers have died with closed mouths, not divulging evidence, as there is little doubt they might have done, to convict him as an accomplice in their crimes, Smith's nerves become quieted and his sanity very naturally returns! There are many other murderous scamps—not by actual deed, for most of them have not the courage for that, but by aid and counsel—in the country, and some out of it, who will breathe freer when the hangmen has finished his work at Charlestown and the last of the convicted traitors have left the world without a confession.

A Christmas reunion—how many families in Virginia would have been denied this blessing had old Brown's foray, sympathised in and aided by Gerritt Smith, been successful! The mind shudders at the thought.

STOVE STORE REMOVED.

URIAH BLAISDELL

Has removed his Stove and Furnishing Establishment one door north, to the spacious and convenient store

Nos. 43 & 45 Market Street,

where he is receiving and arranging a large and valuable Stock of

STOVES, TIN WARE, &c.,

Which he offers for sale at wholesale and retail, at very low prices. He has a great variety of the best and most popular Stoves, among which are:

1. The Stewart Cook Stove, with the latest improvements. This is an air-tight Cook Stove, for Wood or Coal; it has moveable coverings, which can confine the heat in the stove, or let it out into the room; has a reservoir of hot water 10 or 20 gallons, and a tin closet beneath;—a top cover, which is a great institution for baking, and will keep a coal fire all night; it has a Dutch Oven for roasting in front of the Stove;—and it is every way a most convenient and durable Stove. There are 4 sizes.

The following recommendation of Stewart's Stove, is from an eminent engineer, and must be satisfactory to all who wish to understand the value of this excellent Stove:

Portsmouth, N. H., Nov. 5, 1859.

Mr. BlaisdeIl:—Seven years ago I moved to this city, and sold, before I came, a "Stewart's Air Tight Cooking Stove," which I had used about five years. During that time no repairs or expense had been made upon it. Since I have been here I have tried the various Cooking Stoves in use, and I think for economy and durability the "Stewart" excels them all. I wish you would take away the Stove I now have from my house, and set up one of Stewart's as soon as you can. Your ob't servant,

B. F. CHANDLER.

2. Boston & Maine Cook Stove;
3. White Mountain;
4. Empire State;
5. Enterprise;
6. Exchange;
7. Dining Room Cook Stoves, and others.

DR. J. B. HUGHES,
Knowing that there are at this moment thousands of persons in the surrounding towns, who rendering their lives to the insidious inroads of certain dangerous maladies, who still suffer from the reluctance to make known their complaints and consult a physician, he would state that some of his medicines will be sent by express or otherwise, to all who may order them, provided a true description of the disease be sent by letter and directed as above.
Full and explicit directions will accompany every package, and the most inviolable secrecy preserved.
DR. HUGHES can with safety say during the last year of his practice in Boston, more than three hundred cases of disease which have been improperly treated by empyrics have come under his care, and more than three-fourths of this number were inscribed upon his books as perfect cures.
Patients treated by letter by addressing Dr. Hughes, post paid, and medicines sent all over the country, carefully concealed from scrutinizing friends.
Be particular in finding Dr. Hughes. Do not be lured from the right path, or be persuaded to try experiments with false and fictitious remedies at the expense of destroying what is the great jewel of life, a healthy constitution.
This medicine can only be obtained at the Office of Dr. HUGHES, 13 Howard street, Boston.
DR. J. B. HUGHES UNIVERSAL FEMALE RENOVATING PILLS. These pills are unrivalled in efficacy and superior virtue in regulating female irregularities. Their action is specific and certain, producing relief in a short space of time. They are acknowledged to be the best in use.
The Dr. cautions the public to beware of numerous spurious articles under some spurious or fictitious name. They are entirely useless, having been got up by miserable pretenders who are entirely ignorant of the efficacy of medicines.
All who are in pursuit of the genuine article, had better call on the Dr. at his office, where they will be sure of getting the genuine—the only pills in Boston where the genuine is for sale.
These pills can be sent to any part of the country with directions. Remember the number—13 Howard street, Boston.
P. S.—The best of accommodations furnished with kind and attentive nurses if they wish, at reasonable rate. 32 d1y

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA,
A compound remedy in which we have labored to produce the most effectual alterative that can be made. It is a concentrated extract of Para Sarsaparilla, of combined with other substances of still greater alterative power as to afford an effective antidote for the disease Sarsaparilla is reputed to cure. It is believed that such a remedy is wanted by those who suffer from Strumous complaints, and that one which will a complish their cure must be of immense service to this large class of our afflicted fellow citizens. How completely this compound will do it, has been proven by experiment on many of the worst cases to be found in the following complaints:—
SCROFULA AND SCROFULOUS COMPLAINTS, ERYSIPELAS AND ERUPTIVE DISEASES, ULCERS, PIMPLES, BLOTCHES, TUMORS, SALT RHEUMM, SCALD HEAD, SYPHILIS AND SYPHILITIC AFFECTIONS, MERCURIAL DISEASE, DROPSY, NEURALGIA OR TIC DOULOUREUX, DEBILITY, DYSPEPSIA AND INDIGESTION, ERYSIPELAS, ROSE OR ST. ANTHONY'S FIRE, and indeed the whole class of complaints arising from IMPURITY OF THE BLOOD.
This compound will be found a great promoter of health, when taken in the spring, to expel the foul humors which fester in the blood at that season of the year. By the timely expulsion of them many rankling disorders are nipped in the bud.—Multitudes can, by the aid of this remedy, spare themselves from the endurance of foul eruptions and ulcerous sores, through which the system will strive to rid itself of corruptions, if not assisted to do this through the natural channels of the body by an alterative medicine. Cleanse out the vitiated blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in pimples, eruptions or sores;—cleanse it when you find it is obstructed or sluggish in the veins; cleanse it whenever it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Even where no particular disorder is felt, people enjoy better health, and live live longer, for cleansing the blood. Keep the blood healthy, and all is well; but with this pabulum of life disordered, there can be no lasting health. Sooner or later something must go wrong, and the great machinery of life is disordered or overthrown.
Sarsaparilla has, and deserves much, the reputation of accomplishing these ends. But the world has been egregiously deceived by preparations of it, partly because the drug alone has not all the virtue that is claimed for it, but more because many preparations, pretending to be concentrated extracts of it contain but little of the virtue of Sarsaparilla, or anything else.
During late years the public have been misled by large bottles, pretending to give a quart of Extract of Sarparilla for one dollar. Most of these have been frauds upon the sick, for they not only contain little, if any, Sarsaparilla, but often no curative properties whatever. Aence bitter and painful disappointment has followed the use of the various extracts of Sarsaparilla which flood the market, until the name itself is justly despised, and has become synonymous with imposition and cheat. Still we call this compound Sarsaparilla, and intend to supply such a remedy as shall rescue the name from the load of obloquy which rests upon it. And we think we have grounds for believing it has virtues which are irresistible by the ordinary run of the diseases it is intended to cure. In order to secure their complete eradication from the system, the remedy should be judiciously taken according to directions on the bottle.

As it has long been in constant use throughout this section, we need not do more tean assure the people its quality is kept up to the best it ever has been, and that it may be relied on to do for their relief all it has ever been found to do.

MRS. WINSLOW,
An experienced Nurse and Female Physician presents to the attention of Mothers, her
SOOTHING SYRUP,
For Children Teething.
Which greatly facilitates the process of teething by softening the gums, reducing all inflammation—will allay ALL PAIN and spasmodic action, and is
SURE TO REGULATE THE BOWELS.
Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves, and
RELIEF AND HEALTH TO YOUR INFANTS.
We have put up and sold this article for over ten years, and can say, in confidence and truth, of it, what we have never been able to say of any other medicine,—NEVER HAS IT FAILED, IN A SINGLE INSTANCE, TO EFFECT A CURE, when timely used. Never did we know an instance of dissatisfaction by any one who used it. On the contrary, all are delighted with its operations, and commendation of its marvellous virtues. We speak, in this matter, "what we do know," after many years' experience, and pledge our reputation for the fulfilment of what we here declare. In almost every instance where the infant is suffering from pain and exhaustion, relief will be found in fifteen or twenty minutes after the syrup is administered.
This valuable preparation is the prescription of one of the MOST SKILLFUL NURSES in New England and has been used with never-failing success, in THOUSANDS OF CASES.
It not only relieves the child from pain, but invigorates the stomach and bowels, corrects acidity, and gives tone to the entire system. It will almost instantly relieve GRIPING IN THE BOWELS, AND WIND COLIC, and overcome convulsions, which, if not speedily remedied, end in death. We believe this to be the BEST AND SURE REMEDY IN THE WORLD IN all cases of DYSENTERY AND DIARRHEA IN CHILDREN, whether it arises from teething, or from any other cause. We would say to every mother who has a child suffering from any of the foregoing complaints—Do not let your own prejudices, or the prejudices of others, stand between your suffering child and the relief that will be ABSOLUTELY SURE to follow the use of this medicine, if timely used. Full directions each bottle. None genuine unless the fac-simile of CURTIS & PERKINS, New York, is on the outside wrapper throughout the world. Sold by Druggists throughout the world. TUESDAY, DEC. 20, 1859.

CONSTITUTION AND UNION.

The "Call" for a meeting to save the Union if possible, by speeches and resolutions, which has just been published here, induced Uncle Toby to look over some files of newspapers printed in 1835, in which it appears that a Union Saving Meeting, or rather an Indignation Meeting was got up in Portsmouth, attended by men of both of the parties of that day.

Indignation at what? asks a youngster. Answer, The indignation was not aimed at the mob who robbed the post-office in Charleston, S. C. and burnt a few papers and letters; but at the abolitionists who sent the papers and letters through the mail.

And a large meeting of the principal people here, came together at that time, filling Jefferson Hall, and passed a column of preamble and resolutions,—of which very many of them were afterwards ashamed.

Of the five Chief Officers of that meeting, all men of high standing, only one remains in the land of the living,—and he will not be likely to join in the one now proposed to be holden.

Of the speakers on that occasion, only one now remains in this city to speak on the side of slavery at the present time, viz. Hon. Abner Greenleaf, who is also the only remaining one of the Committee on Resolutions, who would be likely to report them over again next week. And as he signs the call as Chairman, it is but reasonable that he should be the most conspicuous person in the coming assemblage,—the president, or the first Speaker, or, as he was before, the actual drawer of the resolutions.

He has always been a most consistent and persistent opponent of every anti-slavery movement, whether by writing, speech, or action.

The right of all our people, peaceably to assemble and discuss public affairs, whether slavery or anything else, we have always held sacred. But Uncle Toby also remembers, that when he was about to deliver an address on Civil and Constitutional liberty, on the 4th of July 1836, another large meeting was called to prevent him, and filled Jefferson Hall again. Of this meeting also, many members were speedily ashamed, as they saw that the right of discussion, or of assemblage, was no right at all, if only allowed on one side of a question.

And they saw also, that no man at the South, or anywhere else, whose opinion was worth a groat, would ever thank them for debasing themselves.

Their attachment to the Union, we dare say, was as great after this change of views, as it was before,—they did not believe, however, after their eyes were opened, in such a way of saving it.

At the present time, the members of congress from the South are daily spurning the incense offered to them by Lincoln, Everett, and Cushing, in Faneuil Hall, and counting it only as dung and dross.

Nevertheless, we say,—if the getters up of this meeting think the Union totters, and that they can steady it by a meeting, by all means let them do it,—and let no man disturb or molest. If they think they can get a few votes, or hold on to an office, by their zeal, very well; this is all lawful.

But the idea that Republicans should come into this meeting, as invited by one editorial,—and then the other idea that 'the leading Republicans' should be hung, in another editorial in the same paper,—these two together form a dish quite too rich for anything but Christmas.

Republicans who should go to that meeting as actors, would be expected to appear with ropes round their necks, caps over their eyes, and with their hands tied behind them.

It is not likely many of them will take a part in the exercises, or appear except as spectators.

If they should open their meeting with prayer, as they did in Faneuil Hall, almost any clergyman, we should think, might be willing to offer the prayer. And as quiet spectators, we can see no good reason why anybody might not attend; even though Senator Wilson was 'hauled over the coals' for listening to an Abolition talk; and tho' the N. H. Statesman thinks republicans had better not do so. We think differently: we say let republicans and everybody else that choose, hear Mr. Garrison's and Parker Pilsbury's arguments against slavery, and Mr. Cushing's and Mr. Greenleaf's arguments in its favor.

If it can't bear a free discussion, it must be a very bad thing;—and if the Union can't bear to have error tolerated while reason is left free to combat it,—then it must be a poor weak affair, not worth saving.

☞ There was a fire in the picker room of the Amoskeag New Mills at Manchester on Friday, but the damage was trifling. So much for sand and rocks in cotton.

☞ Judge Terry has been indicted, and placed under bonds of $10,000, for killing Senator Broderick in a duel in California.

☞ On Saturday, Dec. 17, the U. S. Senate was not in session.

In the House, Mr. Larabee made a speech on John Brown and the Republicans, intimating that he had been anti-Lecompton, but now he landed Mr. Buchanan, and thought the Democracy had no time to waste on past issues. When there are errors made by a party, the best way is not to join the opposition, but to stay inside the party, and let their voice be heard. He appealed to the South Americans and to the anti-Lecompton Democrats, to join in preventing the election of the Republican candidate for Speaker.

At the close of his speech, the House proceeded to the 9th ballot for Speaker.—Sherman had 111, Bocock 85, Boteler 23, scattering 9; necessary for a choice, 114.

Mr. Bouligny, of New York, nominated Mr. Briggs, of the same State, as a candidate for Speaker.

Another ballot was taken, the 10th, resulting as follows: Sherman 111, Bocock 84, Boteler 15, Briggs 9, scattering 9; necessary for a choice, 115.

The 11th ballot was then taken, and was exactly like the 10th.

On the result being declared, the House adjourned, at 20 minutes to 3 o'clock.

☞ A Washington letter of the 16th says:—

The President and all the Cabinet but one are very anxious to have the House organized and the message sent in, but they cannot manage the fire-eaters.

Clemens, of Va., who is still sick, but who comes to the House every day, has just given notice that he will every day insist on a vote. This announcement was received with great applause by the Republicans.

The presence of one of the Kentucky Representatives, heretofore ill at home, requires an additional vote to elect Mr. Sherman. In the two ballotings on Thursday, Messrs. Haskin, Hickman and Schwartz voted for Sherman.

☞ Thurlow Weed writes from Washington:—

"That Mr. Sherman will be Speaker, when a choice is effected, no one doubts.—And that Col. Forney will be Clerk, though even more strenuous efforts to defeat him will be made, I both hope and believe. For Sergeant-at-Arms, our friends intend to vote for Mr. Hoffman of Maryland, who lost his election for opposing the 'Lecompton' and 'English' swindles. This is naturally just and right."

☞ The Washington correspondent of the Philadelphia Enquirer says that a majority of the Democrats in the Federal House are in favor of re-opening the slave trade, and several of them have so declared themselves, and no one who acts with that organization dares deny that he is in favor of that piratical traffic.

More Africans Coming.—The Sea Coast (Miss.) Democrat learns from "good authority" that a cargo of African slaves is expected in ship Island Harbor the latter part of the present month. They will, if they arrive safe, be landed without any attempt at secrecy, the consignees trusting to the sentiment predominant in Mississippi, as well as to the necessity for increasing the number of laborers, for a triumphal acquittal, in the event of a government prosecution.

☞ At Natick, Mass., on Friday night, there was a large and spirited Union Meeting. The usual conservative resolutions were passed, after which the following, was adopted after a long and very exciting discussion:—

Resolved, That we are in favor of the exclusion of slavery from the new Territories, its abolition in the District of Columbia, the prohibition of the inter-State slave trade, and to put this government permanently on the side of freedom.

☞ A special train, comprising three locomotives and ten cars, containing about 500 invited passengers, passed over the Victoria Bridge at 1 o'clock on Saturday. On its return a collation was served up in the northern abutment of the bridge, which was covered for the occasion. Speeches were made by A. M. Ross, the engineer of the bridge, and others. The bridge is now fairly open to travel, and regular passenger trains commenced running over it Saturday morning. It is a great enterprise.

Arrest of Fifty-two Gamblers.—East Boston was thrown into something more than an ordinary sensation, Saturday evening, by the police of that ward making a descent upon a well-known gambling saloon on Maverick square, which had become a nuisance, and arresting fifty-two gamblers. The keeper's name is Fredrick Parkhurst.

☞ A meeting in Madison county, Ky., voted to remove the Rev. John G. Fee, an eminent anti-slavery minister, and as many of his associates 'as the peace and safety of society may require.' Mr. Fee was in Pennsylvania when heard of this movement, and was unable to reach his family before it would take effect upon them.

It is extraordinary how many defects we can see in a friend after we have quarrelled with him.

NEW PUBLICATIONS.

A Grand Book.—Such a book is the volume that now lies before us—

The White Hills: their Legends, Landscape and Poetry. By Thos. Starr King. With sixty Illustrations, engraved by Andrew, from Drawings by Wheelock. Published by Crosby, Nichols & Co., Boston; and for sale by J. H. Foster, Portsmouth,

It is an elegantly bound and gilded volume of over 400 pages, with beautiful typography and excellent paper, illustrated by views taken from selected points, so that every cut helps the description, as really as the description aids us in understanding the picture.

Of the style of the book little need be be said beyond the statement that it is in the author's best style. Mr. King is an enthusiast in his admiration of mountain scenery, and in his love of a sojourn in the midst of it; and in his ability to describe it well and truly, and at the same time in the most glowing poetry of unchecquered lines. he is unsurpassed, and we think unequalled.

His book will be equally valuable to two widely different classes of readers, viz., those who wish for a work to carry with them to the mountains to aid and guide them in their searches and their pleasures, and to those who wish to study mountain scenery without the fatigue of climbing, or the discomfort of an absence from home.

The publishers present this work to the public as being in every respect the most beautiful of its kind ever issued, and feel confident that this will be pronounced the most attractive, valuable and popular book of the season. It is a most superb gift for young or old; and will be of especial value to Mr. King's Portsmouth and New Hampshire friends and admirers. It should be in every family who can afford it.

Frank Wildeman's Adventures on Land and Water. By Frederick Gerstaecker. Translated and Revised by Lascelles Wraxall. With eight illustrations, printed in Oil Colors.

This is a finely printed tale of 312 pages, 12 mo.; a Robinson Crusoe sort of story, with as much of truth, and more of adventure. Published by Crosby, Nichols & Co., Boston. For sale by J. H. Foster, Portsmouth.

Holly and Misletoe. Many a little makes a Mickle.

Those are the titles of two volumes for the holidays; each volume containing half a dozen tales, an equal number of Engravings printed in Oil Colors, and about 250 pages of choice reading for youth—translated from the German by Trauermantel—published by Crosby & Nichols, Boston—and sold by J. H. Foster, Portsmouth.

We think no former year has been more prolific in good books of this class.

☞ The executors of the late Dea. Ezra W. Fletcher, of Whinsville, have paid over the following sums in accordance with his will: $2000 to the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions; $2000 to the Massachusetts Home Missionary Society; $500 to the Massachusetts Sabbath School Society; $500 to the American Bible Society; $500 to the American Education Society; $500 to the Seamen's Friend Society; and $500 to the American Sunday School Union.

A Yankee Girl.—By the last steamer from California, a young lady, who went from Bangor six or eight years ago, returned, and came to Maine by yesterday's train, leaving at Kendalls Mills to visit friends in Somerset county. When the great defaulting banker, Meigs, ran away from San Francisco, he had in possession about $1200 of this lady's money. He went to South America, as it is well known. When the lady got ready to come home, she proceeded first to the South American port where Meigs landed, but found he was residing three hundred miles up the country. Nothing daunted, she started off, found her man, recovered $400 of the money, and proceeded on her voyage home. —Bangor Courier 16th.

The "Helper" book, so extensively advertised in the Congressional proceedings, was written by a Southern man, was designed for Southern non-slaveholders, and its arrangements are drawn with a view to show the opponents of slavery who live in a slave state, how they should apply their efforts to abolish slavery. We don't see what Northern people have to do with it, or why they should be held to account for their opinion of its merits.—Bath Times.

Catarrhal Cough.

This insidious and annoying symptom, so difficult to treat, depends on a subacute inflammation of the air-passages, which is apt to end in chronic ulceration and a form of consumption. The mucous membrane of the air-passages is peculiarly susceptible to the healing influences of the PERUVIAN SYRUP, as the testimonials of some of our first citizens show.

Dr. Hostetter's Bitters have received the warmest encomiums from the press and people throughout the Union. As a valuable tonic for the cure of Dyspepsia, Flatulence, Constipation and general nervous debility, it cannot be approached. Every day new cases of its great effect are chronicled through our public journals. There is nothing equal to the enjoyment, to that which the afflicted experience when using this valuable specific. Its mild tone, its sure and vigorous action upon a disordered stomach, and the cleansing of the entire human body should recommend it to all classes of our community. All that will be necessary to convince the skeptical of its healthy effects, is to purchase a bottle and be convinced.

Sold by druggists and dealers generally, everywhere.

Among the restoratives which Nature has supplied to relieve the afflictions of humanity there is no more favorite one for a certain class of diseases than the "medicinal gum" of the Wild Cherry Tree; but however valuable it is, its power to heal, to soothe, to relieve, and to cure, is enhanced ten-fold by scientific and judicious combination with other ingredients, in themselves of equal worth. This happy mingling exists in that

"Combination and a form indeed"

Of medicine known as

Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry,

Whose value in curing Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Whooping Cough, Croup, Asthma, Pulmonary Affection and Incipient Consumption, is inestimable.

HOME TESTIMONY.

Boston, April 18, 1852.
No. 48 Union St.

Mr. Seth W. Fowle,—Dear Sir:—Your invaluable medicine, I can truly say, has literally snatched me from the grave. Last July I was attacked by a sudden cold, which resulted in a very severe Cough, with violent pains in the side and chest. I became so much reduced, that my friends frankly told me that I must die. At this crisis, I heard of Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, and immediately sent for a bottle. The effect produced was indeed wonderful. My physician, one of the most respectable in Boston, who had previously told me that a cure was hopeless, came in, and I informed him what I had taken. He examined the Balsam, and advised me to continue the use of it, since which time I have continued to improve daily; and the same physician who had given me up, told me, a few days since, that I might yet live many years.

Respectfully, MARY ROWE.

We can cheerfully testify to the truth of the above statement, Mrs. Rowe having been an inmate of our family. WILLIAM DENNETT, MARTHA DENNETT.

Among the very large number of Newspapers that I furnish, I will call particular attention to but two—THE NEW YORK LEDGER—a paper that excels all others in enterprise and ability. The Hon. Edward Everett will continue to write for the Ledger, together with all the best talent in the world. THE NEW YORK TRIBUNE, the best paper in the world, for the news.

In calling the attention of the public to my list of Magazines and Newspapers, I would caution all against subscribing for Magazines, Newspapers, or other works, through irresponsible and transient persons, or travelling agents; in nine cases out of ten you will be swindled or cheated.

If you wish to take any Magazine or newspaper, subscribe of some responsible agent in town. Hundreds of dollars are lost every year by subscribing for works of strangers and travelling agents, and by being induced to subscribe by thousands of contrivances to cheat the public, such as Art Unions, Premiums, Cosmopolitan Art Associations, and various humbugs to rob the unwary. Keep clear of these, and pay your money to those whom you know to be responsible. The subscriber has been in the business fifteen years, and will guarantee to furnish any publication as cheap as can be obtained.

☞ The substantial and well-fitted ship "Richard III," which cleared from this port for Charleston, S. C., Saturday, is 898 1-95 tons register, and owned by R. H. Tucker, Daniel Stone, P. Lennox & Son, William Caldwell and Capt. J. Edward Scott,—the last named gentleman commanding her. She was built by Messrs. Tobey & Littlefield, and is pronounced by the judges a superior vessel.

RIDICULOUS.—The resolution condemning John Brown and all others who prefer liberty to slavery—introduced in the Common Council on Thursday evening last, but not passed; and also the resolution sympathizing with Brown and his family, brought up at the Mercantile Library Association on Friday evening. Both were equally out of place, useless and foolish. Better "mind your own business."

☞ The Committees from the Engine, Hook & Ladder, and Hose Companies, to make nominations for a Chief Engineer and Assistants, are requested to meet at the house of Atlantic Engine Co. No. 6, this (Tuesday) evening, at 7 o'clock.

Per order.

☞ The Music Committee of the North Parish desire us to state that Mr. Clark did not withdraw his resignation, but returned to his old position as organist only at their especial request, and agreeably to the desire of the congregation generally; and on the restoration of his full salary—which we believe is the highest ever paid to an organist and chorister in this city.

☞ Rev. C. W. Dennison, of Boston, editor of the newspaper "The Sea," will Lecture at the Temple, Wednesday evening, Dec. 21, on "The Wonders of the Tropics," illustrated by descriptions of the Gulf Stream, scenery, climate, productions, &c.

Admission 10 cts.

☞ The Washington correspondent of the Charleston Courier, whose extreme Southern views are well known, says Sherman's election will not be deemed cause for a withdrawal of Southern members from the House; that the latter will not be for disunion in case of the election of Seward or Chase to the Presidency; but that "the most conservative of them will, in that event, recommend resistance to further aggressions, such as might be expected from the ascendency of the aggressive party."

WASHINGTON, Dec. 18.—The list of the Democratic portion of the Senate Committees were handed to Mr. Foot last evening. The Republicans will confer upon them to-morrow. The present disposition is to return the list, and let the majority fill up to suit themselves.

☞ On Friday night the steamer Gipsey, running between Portland and the Islands in the summer, was burnt at her moorings in Portland harbor. Loss $11,000; insurance $7000.

The daughter of Mr. Witherell, who was taken away by Rev. Mr. Cilley, arrived at Newport on Friday and was received by her father. Cilley himself, in passing thro' the Queen's dominions, concluded to stop awhile at Montreal!—Portland Adv.

☞ The body of John Brown was committed to the grave, at North Elba, on the 10th inst. The neighbors dug the grave, Rev. Mr. McKim read the funeral service, and a brief eulogy was pronounced by Wendell Phillips.

☞ An Old Dominion Society, composed of Virginians living in the city of New York, has been organized, and elected its officers. Gen. Scott and Governor Wise have been elected honorary members.

NUISANCE—Whatever is in itself more injurious to the general welfare than is compensated for by the amount of good it produces.

☞ Subscribers to the New York Cosmopolitan Art Association (of which see advertisement of "Sixth Annual Announcement," in another column,) receive for their $3 subscription, the excellent quarterly Art Magazine for one year, and a splendid engraving of "Shakespeare and his Friends," or the "Village Blacksmith," or "Manifest Destiny," or "Saturday Night," as they may select. The three last-named are the premiums of former years.

Each subscriber also receives a numbered receipt or ticket, which entitles him to a chance in the distribution of six hundred rich paintings, statues, &c., on the 20th of January.

On the payment of $10, any person will receive the four superb engravings above named, with the four Magazines and certificates. For $15, six copies of the present year.

Two of the engravings may be seen at Mr. Cobb's Music Store.

☞ The latest news from England is by the North American, at Portland, from Liverpool Dec. 7.

The London Times regrets to learn that after a full discussion by the Cabinet, it has been determined that Lord Palmerston shall not attend the Congress, as the Plenipotentiary of England. The original plan, however, is to be carried out, and Lord Cowley will attend to explain, and, as far as possible, enforce the views of his government.

Four merchants of Liverpool had taken upon themselves to write to the Emperor of the French, enquiring what were his intentions in reference to England. The Emperor replied, through his Secretary, Mocquard, and furnished the Paris journals with a copy of the letter. The action of the Liverpool merchants, in addressing themselves to the Emperor, was very generally censured and ridiculed in England, and the Daily News reminds persons who are ambitious of corresponding with foreign sovereigns, that such an act is a matter of which the Attorney General may take note in a way disagreeable to them. The Emperor's letter had a favorable effect upon the London exchange. Some journals intimate that the Liverpool merchants wrote this letter as a joke, and when under the influence of liquor, and were greatly surprised at receiving an answer.

Heavy gales had again visited the English coast. The ship Canton, from Calcutta for London, was wrecked on the Sussex coast, and only two seamen saved. The Maltese brig Marabita, from Marseilles for London, went ashore on the Isle of Wight, and eleven of the crew were drowned.—Schooner Sentinel from Caernaveron, was ashore near the same place, with little hope of saving the crew.

Lord Palmerston had endorsed the volunteer movement, so far as to join the Irish corps, which was being enrolled in London.

In the divorce case, brought by Mr. James M. Bell, a wealthy London merchant, against his wife, on the ground of adultery with the Marquis Anglesea, a verdict was given, dissolving the marriage, and saddling the Marquis with £10,000 damages.

The official report of the recent enquiry into the loss of the Royal Charter has been published. The report concludes by stating that, looking at all the circumstances of the case, it is one in which the loss of the ship can be charged to the master. Only $14,000 of the gold on board had, so far, been recovered.

MOROCCO.—A Madrid telegram of 6th says:—The loss of the Moors in the attack of the 30th Novemer was 500 killed, 1500 wounded, but no prisoners. Since commencing operations against the Moors the Spaniards have had 86 killed, 646 wounded and 73 captured.

The Gibraltar Chronicle of the 29th says:—Private letters from the Spanish camp in Africa represents the action of the 25th as more serious, and the loss of the Spanish army much more considerable than the published accounts. Three battalions were fearfully cut up in a hand to hand fight with the Moors.

In consequeuce of the destruction of the steamer Geneva by fire, the submarine cable, which was to have been placed across the Strait at Gibraltar had been destroyed.

THE TUSCAN COINAGE.—I hear from very good reliable sources that the Tuscan government had sent to the French mint an order for coining the new decimal coinage, which is presently to become the currency in Tuscany, and connect this country in its monetary arrangements with France, Piedmont, Switzerland, and Belgium. The Hotel de la Monnaie had accepted the order, but was prevented by Count Walewski, from executing it. The order has, therefore, been forwarded to the Royal Mint in London, which accepted and is now executing it, without any scruples oi its own or any hindrance from her Majesty's government.—Times Tuscan Correspondent.

THE ONLY PREPARATION
WORTHY OF
Universal Confidence and Patronage.

FOR STATESMEN, JUDGES, CLERGYMEN.

Ladies and Gentlemen, in all parts of the world testify to the efficacy of Prof. O. J. Wood's Hair Restorative, and gentlemen of the Frees are unanimous in its praise. A few testimonials only can be here given; see circular for more, and it will be impossible for you to doubt.

47 Wall Street, New York, Dec. 20, 1858.

GENTLEMEN:—Your note of the 15th inst., has been received, saying that you had heard that I had been benefitted by the use of Wood's Hair Restorative, and requesting my certificate of the fact if I had no objection to give it.

I award it to you cheerfully, because I think it due. My age is about 50 years; the color of my hair auburn, and inclined to curl. Some five or six years since it began to turn gray, and the scalp on the crown of my head to loss its sensibility and dandruff to form upon it. Each of these disagreeabilities increased with time, and about four months since a fourth was added to them, by hair falling off the top of my head and threatening to make me bald.

In this unpleasant predicament, I was induced to try Wood's Hair Restorative, mainly to arrest the falling off of my hair, for I had really no expectation that gray hair could ever be restored to its original color except from dyes. I was, however, greatly surprised to find after the use of two bottles only, that not only was the falling off arrested, but the color was restored to the gray hairs and sensibility to the scalp, and dandruff ceased to form on my head, very much to the gratification of my wife, at whose solicitation I was induced to try it.

For this, among the many obligations I owe to her sex, I strongly recommend all husbands who value the admiration of their wives to profit by my example, and use it if growing gray or getting bald. Very Respectfully,

BENJ. A. LAVENDER.

To O. J. Wood & Co., 444 Broadway, N. Y.

Siamaston, Ala., July 20th, 1859.

To Prof. O. J. Wood: Dear Sir: Your "Hair Restorative" has done my hair so much good since I commenced the use of it, that I wish to make known to the PUBLIC its effects on the hair, which are great. A man or woman may be nearly deprived of hair, and by a resort to your "Hair Restorative," the hair will return more beautiful than ever; at least this is my experience. Believe it all! Yours truly,

WM. H. KENEDY.

P. S.—You can publish the above if you like.—By publishing in our Southern papers you will get more patronage south. I see several of your certificates in the Mobile Mercury, a strong Southern paper. W. H. K.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.

Professsor O. J. Wood:—Dear Sir:—Having had the misfortune to lose the best portion of my hair, from the effects of the yellow fever, in New Orleans in 1851, I was induced to make a trial of your preparation, and found it to be the very thing needed. My hair is now thick and glossy, and no words can express my obligations to you in giving to the afflicted such a treasure.

FINLEY JOHNSON.

The Restorative is put up in bottles of three sizes, viz: large, medium, and small; the small holds half a pint, and retails for one dollar per bottle; the medium holds at least twenty per cent more in proportion than the small, retails for two dollars per bottle; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent. more in proportion, and retails for $3 a bottle.

PURE LIQUORS

—FOR—

FAMILY

—AND—

MEDICINAL PURPOSES!

NO species of deception and fraud should receive stronger public condemnation than that of imposing upon the sick with

Adulterated and Poisonous Liquors!

The market is flooded with these adulterated poisons. They have found their way into every State, City, Town and Village in the country, and are carrying incurable insanity to the victims of these terrible agents.

In consequence of the startling developments in regard to

STATE AGENCY LIQUORS,

and the almost universal distrust which now prevails, and to the end that confidence may be restored, we come before the public, pledging our reputation to supply

UNADULTERATED LIQUORS

EXPRESSLY FOR

MEDICINAL PURPOSES.

In asking the confidence of those who have been so outrageously imposed upon by the POISONOUS COMPOUNDS of "LICENSED POLITICAL CHEATS," we would refer to our antecedents for the past eighty years, and we trust that our established reputation abundantly vindicates our claims to public confidence.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

"The Bininger's, 338 Broadway, have a very high reputation to sustain, as the oldest and best house in New York."—Home Journal.

"The house of A. M. Bininger & Co., No. 338 Broadway, has sustained, for a period of eighty years, a reputation that may well be envied."—N. Y. Evening Post.

"The name of A. M. Bininger & Co. is a guarantee of the exact and literal truth of whatever they represent."—N. Y. Com. Advertiser.

"The importing house of A. M. Bininger & Co., No. 338 Broadway, is conducted upon principles of integrity, fairness, and the highest honor."—N. Y. Evening Express.

To Druggists, Town Agents and Physicians,

desirous of purchasing liquors of undoubted purity, we would say that our House has made a specialty of selling PURE, UNADULTERATED LIQUORS for Medicinal purposes, and we claim that they are superior to anything now before the public.

With these assurances on our part, we name a few of our bottled goods, which are now freely prescribed by the faculty.

BININGER'S

GENUINE COGNAC BRANDY.

The infamous practice of adultering Brandies having become so common that a genuine article is the exception, it is of vital importance to those requiring it for family use, and invalids, that it should be of undoubted purity and efficacy. With a view to meeting the popular demand for a reliable Brandy in its pure state, free from alcoholic flavor and impurities, and fully appreciating the fact that it is often recommended by the Medical Faculty as a sustaining stimulant, when all other remedies fail, we are now bottling and selling at reasonable rates a Brandy of our own importation, from one of the most responsible houses in France, and known as "Bininger's Genuine Cognac Brandy." It is mild, delicate and fruity, and is designed to be always uniform in quality and character.

BININGER'S

OLD LONDON DOCK GIN

has been a favorite with the Profession for many years. For all cases of Gravel it will certainly work a cure, and if taken as a preventive, will remove all possible sediment. It is invaluable to females in diseases peculiar to their sex, and in cases of tendency to Phthisis or Consumpton, will often ward off that fell disease.

BININGER'S

OLD KENTUCKY BOURBON.

Being distilled in 1848, and manufactured expressly for us with great care, it can be relied upon as a strictly pure stimulant, and peculiarly effective for the treatment of Lung Complaints, Dyspepsia, Derangement of the Stomach, Nervousness, &c.

BININGER'S

HEIDELBERG BRANNTWEIN.

Since its introduction into this country it has received the professional endorsement of our eminent physicians, for the effective treatment of Dyspepsia, Gravel, Rheumatism, Dropsy, Bladder Complaints, Suppression of the Menses, Nervousness, Derangement of the Stomach, General Debility, etc.

BININGER'S

OLD DOMINION WHEAT TONIC.

For Family and Medicinal Use.

This article has received the highest encomiums from eminent medical authorities as possessing qualities that are absolutely FATTENING; this desideratum renders it invaluable to those who are suffering from Consumption, Lung Complaints, Bronchitis, Impaired Strength, Lack of Vital Energy, &c.

All the above articles are put up in Quart Bottles, in iron bound cases of one and two dozen each.

Orders from the country will receive prompt attention. Circulars, containing a list of Articles and prices, forwarded to those desiring them.

STOVE STORE REMOVED.

URIAH BLAISDELL

Has removed his Stove and Furnishing Establishment one door north, to the spacious and convenient store

Nos. 43 & 45 Market Street,

where he is receiving and arranging a large and valuable Stock of

STOVES, TIN WARE, &c.,

Which he offers for sale at wholesale and retail, at very low prices. He has a great variety of the best and most popular Stoves, among which are:

1. The Stewart Cook Stove, with the latest improvements. This is an air-tight Cook Stove, for Wood or Coal; it has moveable coverings, which can confine the heat in the stove, or let it out into the room; has a reservoir of hot water 10 or 20 gallons, and a tin closet beneath;—a top cover, which is a great institution for baking, and will keep a coal fire all night; it has a Dutch Oven for roasting in front of the Stove;—and it is every way a most convenient and durable Stove. There are 4 sizes.

The following recommendation of Stewart's Stove, is from an eminent engineer, and must be satisfactory to all who wish to understand the value of this excellent Stove:

Portsmouth, N. H., Nov. 5, 1859.

Mr. Blaisdell:—Seven years ago I moved to this city, and sold, before I came, a "Stewart's Air Tight Cooking Stove," which I had used about five years. During that time no repairs or expense had been made upon it. Since I have been here I have tried the various Cooking Stoves in use, and I think for economy and durability the "Stewart" excels them all. I wish you would take away the Stove I now have from my house, and set up one of Stewart's as soon as you can. Your ob't servant,

B. F. CHANDLER.

2. Boston & Maine Cook Stove;
3. White Mountain;
4. Empire State;

DR. J. B. HUGHES,

Knowing that there are at this moment thousands of persons in the surrounding towns, who rendering their lives to the insidious inroads of certain dangerous maladies, who still suffer from the reluctance to make known their complaints and consult a physician, he would state that some of his medicines will be sent by express or otherwise, to all who may order them, provided the true description of the disease be sent by letter and directed as above.

Full and explicit directions will accompany every package, and the most inviolable secrecy preserved.

DR. HUGHES can with safety say during the last year of his practice in Boston, more than five hundred cases of disease which have been improperly treated by empyrics have come under his care, and more than three-fourths of this number were inscribed upon his books as perfect cures.

Patients treated by letter by addressing Dr. Hughes, post paid, and medicines sent all over the country, carefully concealed from scrutinizing friends.

Be particular in finding Dr. Hughes. Do not allured from the right path, or be persuaded to try experiments with false and fictitious remedies at the expense of destroying what is the great pillar of life, a healthy constitution.

This medicine can only be obtained at the Office of Dr. HUGHES, 13 Howard street, Boston.

DR. J. B. HUGHES UNIVERSAL FEMALE RENOVATING PILLS. These pills are unrivalled in efficacy and superior virtue in regulating all female irregularities. Their action is specific and certain, producing relief in a short space of time. They are acknowledged to be the best in use.

The Dr. cautions the public to beware of impositions that are being practiced by advertising a spurious article under some spurious or fictitious name. They are entirely useless, having been got up by miserable pretenders who are entirely ignorant of the efficacy of medicines.

All who are in pursuit of the genuine article, had better call on the Dr. at his office, where they will be sure of getting the genuine—the only pills in Boston where the genuine is for sale.

These pills can be sent to any part of the country with directions. Remember the number—13 Howard street, Boston.

P. S.—The best of accommodations furnished with kind and attentive nurses if they wish, at a reasonable rate. j2 dly

AMERICAN & FOREIGN PATENTS
R. H. EDDY, Solicitor of Patents,
Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the act of 1837.
76 STATE, OPPOSITE KILBY ST., BOSTON.

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to procure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions,—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate. The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

I have no hesitation in assuring inventors they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHAS. MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

BOSTON, February 8, 1858.

Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that one is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part tends me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges. JOHN TAGGART.

From Sept. 17, 1857, to June 17, 1858, the subscriber, in the course of his large practice, made on TWICE rejected applications, SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in HIS FAVOR, by the Commissioner of Patents.

Morning Chronicle.

WEDNESDAY, DEC. 21, 1859.

SHUT THEM OUT.—Proprietors of halls must give the cold shoulder to Abolition lecturers. A man who hissed Mr. G. W. Curtis, in Philadelphia, was arrested, and the magistrate at once acquited him, taking occasion to observe, in alluding to the character of the meeting, that if the hall had been destroyed, the owners could not have recovered from the city, as he had rented it after a full knowledge of the incendiary character of the address to be delivered there, and the excited state of the public mind on the subject.—Boston Post.

The magistrate is a Solomon, or at least a "Daniel come to Judgement."

Such discourses were shut out of Congress Hall long ago, by gag laws, &c. &c.—Now they discuss the whole thing, in both Houses, and don't do much else.

UNION MEETING.—New York, Dec. 19. The Union meeting to-night, at the Academy of Music, was a very large assemblage. It is estimated that, at one time, 30,000 people were present. Mayor Tiemann presided at the inside meeting, with a large number of Vice Presidents and Secretaries. Dr. Vermelyea opened the meeting with prayer.

Ex-Senator Beekman stated the object of the meeting. Letters were read from Frank Pierce, Daniel S. Dickinson, Fernando Wood, and Winfield Scott. The last named was greeted with cheers.—Speeches were made by Charles O'Connor, John A. Dix, and Washington Hunt.

The meetings outside were addressed by Coroner Connery, ex-Judge Dean and others.

Mr. O'Connor's remarks were to the purport that the South is not to be censured if it draws from this association.

J. W. Savage nominated Winfield Scott for President, and Sam Houston for Vice President at each of the outside meetings, and the nominations were carried amid the plaudits of the multitude.

The resolutions adopted were of a strong nature.

So it seems the meeting was a southern disunion meeting, so far as O'Connor's talk went, and not Union.

The spontaneous nomination of Scott and Houston must have been refreshing to those who called the meeting.

A MODEL WARD.—In Manchester, No. 5 is the Irish Ward, which at the late election gave not more than a dozen or twenty Republican votes, and between 300 and 400 for Mayor Harrington. An investigation has been called for by the city council; on which the American says:

The fact that last year's check list was posted in Ward Five this year, without any names stricken off, and also the fact that nearly four hundred votes were thrown in that Ward, where three hundred cannot be found by the canvasser, and not one hundred and fifty by the tax collector, all give a look of suspicion to the returns. It may be impossible to ferret out a single instance of illegal voting—yet the examination can do no harm. Let it be done thoroughly.

SCENES IN AN ENGLISH CHURCH.—The London correspondent of the New York Churchman gives interesting details of the outrages that yet take place at St. George's-in-the-East, London, and have already given that church a wide and unenviable notoriety. On Sunday, Nov. 30, the rioting was even greater than usual. In the Lord's Prayer the mob in the church yelled out in the most discordant tones. Not content with this, they took possession of the choir, and introduced dogs maddened with liquor, and kept them howling during the services, which were frequently hissed by the malcontents.

☞ Last Wednesday evening, Miss Lavinia Kent, in Roxbury, Mass., retiring for the night, took a candle in her hand, to read, and fell asleep while reading, and set her clothes on fire. Her sister, smelling smoke, went to her room, and found her on fire. After some difficulty the fire was extinguished, and she died on Thursday morning.

THE WAY IT IS DONE.—"Kansas work" is most shrewdly managed by those who wish to increase the population of the Territory, to bring it up to the requirements of the English bill. Its divorce laws exact only twenty days' residence before application, and some of the Judges are unriveting badly welded nuptial chains at the rate of a score or two daily. This idea of making a land of refuge for those who suffer from irrepressible marriage conflicts, ought to bring Kansas into the Union as a State of single blessedness.—Louisville Journal.

More than one Southern member of Congress has poked fun at our immense Union meetings. The truth is, the South is the place where such meetings are needed, where the Union has been menaced.—The chief influence of these immense demonstrations is to increase the excitement we wish to allay; by acting as though we thought the Union in absolute danger:—the fact is, the people have no idea of allowing the Southern fire-eaters or the northern fanatics to dissolve the Union. It is not so slightly put together as to be so easily dissolved.—Bath Times.

☞ In the Municipal Court, Portland, in the cases of liquors seized from Michael Donahue and John Hammond, some time since, the liquors were declared forfeited to the city, no person appearing to claim the same.

☞ The proceedings in both houses of Congress, on Monday, Dec. 18, were quite interesting, and some of them amusing. In the Senate, there was quite a warm debate between those democrats who favor Douglas, and those other democrats who beheaded him as chairman of the committee on territories. Mr. Pugh made a strong speech for Douglas, or rather against his foes,—and against the present usage in the Senate.

Mr. Pugh was soon going out of the Senate, and would, therefore, frankly declare that this usage was intolerably bad. It is a usage which has operated to give Senators from slaveholding states the chair of every single committee controlling the public business. The Senator from Illinois was the only exception, and he has been decapitated!!!

Senators Lane, Brown and others, all democrats, kept up the debate, which sounds very like a quarrel among themselves.

Mr. Brown was the last speaker.

Mr. Brown said he held that slaves were recognized as property under the Constitution.

Mr. Pugh—According to the law of the United States?

Mr. Brown—Does it not go further? Does not the Constitution itself recognize them as property in the broadest possible sense? Is there any other property you can pursue into any other State and capture it?

Slaves were property before the Constitution existed. Owners of slaves have the same right to take them to a territory that the owners of any other kind of property have. When the government fails to protect our property anywhere and everywhere it ought to be abolished. He asked nothing for his section, he would not accord to others, and closed by thanking the Republican benches for the polite attention they had given him. [Every seat on that side of the chamber was vacant.] Adj.

In the House, after the usual debate, and a call of the House, the 12th ballot was taken for Speaker.

Whole no. votes 230: nec. to choicce 116; Sherman had 112; Bocock 85; Boteler 21; Scattering 12.

Mr. Bocock said: during two weeks democratic friends had voted for him with a constancy which demanded his grateful acknowledgements. His belief was that his friends, by the use of his name might thus present a point around which the sound and conservative elements might rally. The hope had grown more and more dim, and was now entirely gone.

After a few more remarks, he withdrew his name.

Mr. Moore of Ala., nominated Mr. Boteler. The House voted again:

Whole number 230; nec. for choice 216; Sherman had 112; Boteler 29; Bocock 19; Miles Taylor 12; Phelps 19; scat. 42.

Several gentlemen wanted to adjourn, and others again to vote.

Amid considerable confusion, the House again voted as follows:

Whole number 226; nec. to choice 114; Sherman 110; Boteler 31; Barksdale 20; Bocock 12; Miles Taylor 9; scat. 46.

The House then adjourned.

The following is the scattering vote on the last ballot in House:

Davis (Ind.) 13; Phelps 6; Pegan 8; McClernand 4; Bouligny 2; Boligny, H. F. Clark, Winslow and McQueen, two each; Houston, Gilmer, Harris (of Md.) Etheridge, Pugh, Stevenson and McClay, 1 each.

☞ Many mail contractors are now in Washington, and propose holding a meeting in relation to their interests as connected with the Post Office Department. Unless appropriations be made before the 1st of January to meet the liabilities of the government for this service, a very large amount of its paper, it is said, will go to protest.

We saw, a week or two ago, walking down Main street, from the direction of the "President's office," a man accompanied by four ladies. An air of slight perturbation in the party, mingled with evident expressions of satisfaction and happiness, led us to inquire who they were? Some one present informed us that they were a party that had been up to President Young's office to be married, and that the four ladies had just been united in indissoluble bonds to the man accompanying them.—Utah paper.

☞ A large number of Mr. Crawford's (of Georgia) violent disunion speech have been ordered by the Republicans as a campaign document. Of Mr. Hickman's speech, 100,000 copies have been called for.

John Van Buren expected the office made vacant by the death of Mr. Sedgwick, but he didn't get it. President Buchanan deserves the thanks of the country for not appropriating such a wind bag to a post that can be properly filled only by a man.—Traveller.

☞ Gov. Chase has politely intimated to Gov. Wise that Ohio is not a portion of Virginia, a fact that the latter functionary seems to have forgotten.

Melancholy is another name for tough meat. We care not how imaginative a man may be, let him eat two pickled pig's feet, and he will feel as inanimate as a sack of coals. What we often think is mind, is half the time gristle.

☞ There have been two indictments found against Terry for killing Mr. Broderick. There will not be one conviction.

☞ The fire department of Hallowell, were called out at 6 o'clock on Tuesday morning for the purpose of extinguishing the aurora borealis—but we believe they did not succeed.—Portland Adv.

☞ A Southern paper announces the death of Washington Ervin! 'Such is fame.'

NEW PUBLICATIONS.

THE LITTLE PILGRIM, Edited by Grace Greenwood. As its name indicates, it is a monthly magazine especially for children, and it is most admirably conducted. To say that it is perhaps the best of the many magazines prepared for the young, is not saying too much. Great care is taken with its contents, and a better aim is kept in view than the mere temporary amusement of the little ones. The reading it furnishes does more than entertain them for the time being—much of it has a direct and salutary moral influence. Parents will find a subscription to it a most profitable investment. Only 50 cts. per year.

It will commence the new year with a new and original story by that unrivalled writer for children, Mary Howitt, called "The Holy Wells of Wyven;" also a Christmas story, called "The Spoiled Dinner," by Gail Hamilton; also a story by Grace Greenwood, called "A Little Hero," a true story, and one of the most remarkable instances of youthful heroism, she says, she ever heard of.

We will take charge of subscriptions, (at the Chronicle Office,) for a little girl who is getting up a club; or you can address Leander K. Lippincott, Philadelphia.

ART JOURNAL.—The December (quarterly) number of the Cosmopolitan Art Journal, a beautiful quarto of 68 pages, is embellished with a splendid steel engraving, and copious wood engravings illustrative of the works of art to be distributed by the Association in February next. Besides these, there is a large amount of reading matter. This periodical, with the splendid engraving of "Shakspeare and his friends," to which we have before alluded, and a free season ticket to the Association's gallery, are furnished to $3 subscribers. Frank W. Miller, Agent in Portsmouth.

AMERICAN STOCK JOURNAL.—We have the first number for 1860. Its contents recommend it to the attention of every farmer and stock-grower, as it is devoted to the improvement of domestic animals. It is published monthly at 25 Park Row, New York, at $1 per year; and each number contains 32 large octavo pages, handsomely illustrated. The engravings of the Improved Kentucky Sheep and other animals, in the number now before us, are well worth the subscription price. It is a capital publication.

We would invite attention to the advertisement of Leonard Scott & Co.'s reprints of Blackwood's Magazine and the British Reviews—on the fourth page. The set is as handsomely published in New York for $10, in as London for $31.

Scrofula, or King's Evil,

is a constitutional disease, a corruption of the blood, by which this fluid becomes vitiated, weak and poor. Being in the circulation it pervades the whole body, and may burst out in disease on any part of it. No organ is free from its attacks, nor is there one which it may not destroy. The scrofulous taint is variously caused by mercurial disease, low living, disordered or unhealthy food, impure air, filth and filthy habits, the depressing vices, and, above all, by the venereal infection. Whatever be its origin, it is hereditary in the constitution, descending "from parents to children unto the third and fourth generation;" indeed, it seems to be the rod of him who says, "I will visit the iniquities of the fathers upon their children.

Its effects commence by deposition from the blood of corrupt or ulcerous matter, which, in the lungs, liver, and internal organs, is termed tubercles; in the glands, swellings; and on the surface, eruptions or sores. This foul corruption, which genders in the blood, depresses the energies of life, so that scrofulous constitutions not only suffer from scrofulous complaints, but they have far less power to withstand the attacks of other diseases; consequently vast numbers perish by disorders which, although not scrofulous in their nature, are still rendered fatal by this taint in the system. Most of the consumption which decimates the human family has its origin directly in this scrofulous contamination; and many destructive diseases of the liver, kidneys, brain, and, indeed all of the organs, arise from or are aggravated by the same cause.

One quarter of all our people are scrofulous;—their persons are invaded by this lurking infection, and their health is undermined by it. To cleanse it from the system we must renovate the blood by an alterative medicine, and invigorate it by healthy food and exercise. Such a medicine we supply in the most effectual remedy which the medical skill of our times can devise for this everywhere prevailing and fatal malady. It is combined from the most active remedials that have been discovered for the expurgation of this foul disorder from the blood, and the rescue of the system from its destructive consequences. Hence it should be employed for the cure of not only scrofula, but also those other affections which arise from it, such as

AYER'S

Compound Extract of Sarsaparilla,

ERUPTIONS AND ERUPTIVE DISEASES, ULCERS, PIMPLES, BLOTCHES, TUMORS, SALT RHEUM, SCALD HEAD, SYPHILIS AND SYPHILITIC AFFECTIONS, MERCURIAL DISEASE, DROPSY, NEURALGIA OR TIC DOULOUREUX, DEBILITY, DYSPEPSIA AND INDIGESTION, ERYSIPELAS, ROSE OR ST. ANTHONY'S FIRE, and indeed the whole class of complaints arising from IMPURITY OF THE BLOOD. The popular belief in "impurity of the blood" is founded on truth, for scrofula is a degeneration of the blood. The particular purpose and virtue of this Sarsaparilla is to purify and regenerate this vital fluid, without which sound health is impossible in contaminated constitutions.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills,

FOR ALL THE PURPOSES OF A FAMILY PHYSIC, are so composed that disease within the range of their action can rarely withstand or evade them. Their penetrating properties search and cleanse, and invigorate every portion of the human organism, correcting its diseased action, and restoring its healthy vitalities. As a consequence of these properties, the invalid who is bowed down with pain or physical debility is astonished to find his health or energy restored by a remedy at once so simple and inviting.

Not only do they cure the every-day complaints of every body, but also many formidable and dangerous diseases. The agent below named is pleased to furnish gratis my American Almanac, containing certificates of their cures and directions for their use in the following complaints: Costiveness, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Dysentery, Foul Stomach, Erysipelas, Headache, Piles, Rheumatism, Eruptions and Skin Diseases, Liver Complaint, Dropsy, Tetter, Tumors, and Salt Rheum, Worms, Gout, Neuralgia, as a dinner Pill, and for Purifying the blood.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral

COUGHS, COLDS, INFLUENZA, HOARSENESS, CROUP, BRONCHITIS, INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION, and for the relief of Consumptive Patients in advanced stages of the disease.

So wide is the field of its usefulness and so numerous are the cases of its cures, that almost every section of country abounds in persons publicly known, who have been restored from alarming and even desperate diseases of the lungs by its use. When once tried, its superiority over every other medicine of its kind is too apparent to escape observation, and where its virtues are known, the public no longer hesitate what antidote to employ for the distressing and dangerous affections of the pulmonary organs that are incident to our climate. While many inferior remedies thrust upon the community have failed and been discarded, this has gained friends by every trial, conferred benefits on the afflicted they can never forget, and produced cures too numerous and too remarkable to be forgotten.

Catarrhal Cough.

This insidious and annoying symptom, so difficult to treat, depends on a subacute inflammation of the air-passages, which is apt to end in chronic ulceration and a form of consumption. The mucous membrane of the air-passages is peculiarly susceptible to the healing influences of the PERUVIAN SYRUP, as the testimonials of some of our first citizens show.

Dr. Hostetter's Bitters have received the warmest encomiums from the press and people throughout the Union. As a valuable tonic for the cure of Dyspepsia, Flatulence, Constipation and general nervous debility, it cannot be approached. Every day new cases of its great effect are chronicled through our public journals. There is nothing equal to the enjoyment, to that which the afflicted experience when using this valuable specific. Its mild tone, its sure and vigorous action upon a disordered stomach, and the cleansing of the entire human body should recommend it to all classes of our community. All that will be necessary to convince the skeptical of its healthy effects, is to purchase a bottle and be convinced.

Sold by druggists and dealers generally, everywhere.

Among the restoratives which Nature has supplied to relieve the afflictions of humanity there is no more favorite one for a certain class of diseases than the "medicinal gum" of the Wild Cherry Tree; but however valuable it is, its power to heal, to soothe, to relieve, and to cure, is enhanced ten-fold by scientific and judicious combination with other ingredients, in themselves of equal worth. This happy mingling exists in that

HOME TESTIMONY.

BOSTON, April 18, 1852. No. 48 Union St.

Mr. Seth W. Fowle,—Dear Sir:—Your invaluable medicine, I can truly say, has literally snatched me from the grave. Last July I was attacked by a sudden cold, which resulted in a very severe Cough, with violent pains in the side and chest. I became so much reduced, that my friends frankly told me that I must die. At this crisis, I heard of Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, and immediately sent for a bottle. The effect produced was indeed wonderful. My physician, one of the most respectable in Boston, who had previously told me that a cure was hopeless, came in, and I informed him what I had taken. He examined the Balsam, and advised me to continue the use of it, since which time I have continued to improve daily; and the same physician who had given me up, told me, a few days since, that I might yet live many years.

Respectfully, MARY ROWE.

We can cheerfully testify to the truth of the above statement, Mrs. Rowe having been an inmate of our family. WILLIAM DENNETT, MARTHA DENNETT.

FIVE MINUTES' TALK ON MORALS.—Messrs. Editors:—The statements lately made by the City Missionary, in relation to certain existing moral evils, and the inquiries made at the corners of our streets as to "what is to be the result?" and "what is to be done?" demand nothing less than a general public consideration.

Let the above questions be proposed in the time of a conflagration, and the answer would be that unless the fire was checked the city will be laid in ashes; we must apply the extreme antagonistic force, viz., water; and according to the skill and vigor with which it is applied, is our hope of success. Now the writer of this assumes the same is true in relation to moral evil, as in the conflagration: if scope is given to any wrong conduct, by its being countenanced by the example of the many and the indifference and inaction of the few, it will be very likely to grow and spread until it consumes both root and branch of all that is fair and good in the structure of government and society.

It is also held, that as in the conflagration, so in regard to moral evil, the correction is the extreme antagonistic force.—If drunkenness and other vices abound, it may be from the accumulated force of evils long indulged—but most likely from dereliction in duty of those whom God calls upon, and man looks up to, for precedent and example, for brotherly rebuke and counsel, and helpfulness in the way of virtue and happiness.

In order, however, that we may ascertain the nature of the evils that afflict us, and their remedies, we must take sufficient pains to gain a proper view of their compass and surroundings.

Is their origin inherent in the human constitution? or is it from engrafted stock? I cannot believe there is any insurmountable difficulty in thus tracing out evils in general;—there may be embarrassments arising from want of information in relation to certain facts. As regards, however, specific evils, the causes are often within the scope of a narrow vision, and bear fruits unmistakably indicative of the kind of seed that has been sown.

In regard to the two evils deprecated by our community generally, we can, without going back even a century, find favoring influences of a well defined nature sufficient for a ground work and field of operations, demanding all the counteracting efforts which this and perhaps several future generations will be able to bestow.

Take for example one of the two evils named, viz., drunkenness, (and the other evil is in a great measure a concomitant one); people not fifty years of age know enough of its causes and history to enable them to ascertain what corrections lie in their power.

The truth is pretty apparent that, with all the blessings that have come to us from our forefathers, they also practiced upon and transmitted to us, unrevised, a "plum-pudding diet." They stocked their cellars with an abundance of cider; their children sucked it with straws, and their servants and the wayfarers partook of it "by quarts;" the result of which in our day is, that there seems to be hardly a work which we, their children, have "put our hands to," without leaving the marks of a thick-brained stupidity, or of rash, headlong imprudence and extravagance; and another necessary result (the proper confidence being weakened or destroyed) is the making of "gold the hope and fine gold the confidence."

It seems not to need a great deal of the spirit of prophecy to enable one to foretell that this combination of three such evils, viz., intemperance, licentiousness and money-grasping, if unchecked and unabated, will result not only in an accumulation of moral evil, but also, by an inevitable necessity, in a more or less extensive amount of violence and "blood-letting."

The writer has thus made a preliminary five or ten minutes' discussion, and could wish that there were frequent opportunities of face-to-face converse with all to whom such subjects are of vital importance and should be held dear; but in the absence of such opportunities, would suggest that the columns of your paper afford the next best available facilities for influencing the public mind and eliciting such information as may serve as precedents and examples for those who need instruction and guidance. ☞ Almost every body—certainly all the young folks, expect or hope for presents, "about this time." Our advertising columns will tell where they can be bought to best advantage and in largest variety. Among the rest, we mention the extensive assortment of Mr. Shores, at his Congress Block bookstore. We copy on our fourth page, a notice from the Journal; and will only add, (and that solely for those who don't know him,) that we regard Mr. Shores as one of the most judicious and tasteful of buyers, and most liberal and reliable of dealers, in the city. His goods are always worth looking at, at any rate.

SANTA CLAUS' AGENCY.

The above motto at the top of the beautiful arch over the entrance to Mr. J. H. Head's Christmas Store, in Exchange Block, attracted our attention, and on entering we found it every way appropriate. The entire store, from floor to ceiling, was filled with Goods for Christmas and New Year's Presents; while Statuary, Paintings, Boquets and Flags were tastefully arranged about the walls making it appear like some fairy scene. Our attention was first attracted by a pyramid of Musical instruments, the height of which was about six feet, and containing everything in the musical line, from a Tin Trumpet to an exquisitely inlaid Guitar. Next, we observed a counter filled to overflowing with picture-books for the little ones; another counter was actually groaning under the weight of an endless variety of Toys; on the opposite side, arranged on tables and counters, was a choice collection of Books for young and old, Games, Paper Dolls, etc.; still farther on, the counter appeared as if some magic wand had been in requisition, so extensive was the collection of useful and ornamental articles. At the lower end of the Store, rich China Goods were displayed. One stand seemed to be fitted up as a furnishing department; on it were sets of China Furniture, Tools, &c. A Circular Table on which was displayed a miniature representation of a Christmas Tree, glistened with beautiful Bracelets and Necklaces.

Had we time, we would speak of many other attractions. But the reader will, on making a call at the Santa Claus Agency, Exchange Block, coincide with us that for display and decorations, Mr. Head bears off the palm.

☞ We are told that J. B. Adams, Esq., at his store in Congress Block, is distribuing a large and excellent stock of Watches and Jewelry, at auction in the evening, and private sale during the day,—for Presents, &c. See bills and advertisements.

From the Portsmouth Journal.

"CURIOSITY SHOP."—One of the most celebrated writers once wrote a large volume under this title,—from perhaps less material than might be found in visiting our bookstores when filled up for the Christmas and New Year's business. The full display at the window of Mr. SHORES's store on Congress street led us this week to take a look inside; and raising the "latch string" so hospitably hung out, we found such a display as is not to be met with at every season of the year. The the shelves of standard books, seemed to "stand" in mute surprise at the full tables, and shelves, and counters, all spread with the choicest products of the skill of this and foreign lands, and at the scene of little nude innocents dangling from lines extending in various directions. There was nothing disagreeable in the latter sight, for their playful countenances showed that they were in the height of enjoyment, and ready to make happy the one who may take them off.

On the wall of the western side is a very extensive and beautiful collection of Ambrotype sketches, taken from some of the most finished engravings—and being reduced, surpass the engraver's skill in beauty. They are a treat from which the eye does not readily turn, although on every side are spread out beautiful articles for gifts for the season, suitable for the child, the youth—the maid and the matron.

What more beautiful than these varied Parian imitations, ranging in value from $4 down to 25 cents. Even the noble Daniel Webster looks down in approbation upon this scene. Here too, are some choice travelling bags, and neat dressing cases, embracing more conveniences than we can enumerate. There is a table which is covered with no less than fifty different games—enough to afford a new one for every week evening for two months. On the table, near a pyramid of drums, are whole villages in boxes; horses, sleds, tops, and that curious novelty, the Gyroscope—which performs more pranks than philosophy can explain. Here too are birds of beautiful plumage—but it is useless to begin an enumeration, for these attractive little matters keep from our notice those elegant annuals, and illustrated children's books, which are the glory of the parlor and the joy of the nursery. Good morning, Mr. Shores.

Similar visits might be made to other stores, whose proprietors have arranged their display in very attractive forms.—We must refer to their advertisements.

STOVE STORE REMOVED.

URIAH BLAISDELL

Has removed his Stove and Furnishing Establishment one door north, to the spacious and convenient store

Nos. 43 & 45 Market Street,

where he is receiving and arranging a large and valuable Stock of

STOVES, TIN WARE, &c.,

Which he offers for sale at wholesale and retail, at very low prices. He has a great variety of the best and most popular Stoves, among which are:

1. The Stewart Cook Stove, with the latest improvements. This is an air-tight Cook Stove, for Wood or Coal; it has moveable coverings, which can confine the heat in the stove, or let it out into the room; has a reservoir of hot water 10 or 20 gallons, and a tin closet beneath;—a top cover, which is a great institution for baking, and will keep a coal fire all night; it has a Dutch Oven for roasting in front of the Stove;—and it is every way a most convenient and durable Stove. There are 4 sizes.

The following recommendation of Stewart's Stove, is from an eminent engineer, and must be satisfactory to all who wish to understand the value of this excellent Stove:

Portsmouth, N. H., Nov. 5, 1859.
Mr. Blaisdell:—Seven years ago I moved to this city, and sold, before I came, a "Stewart's Air Tight Cooking Stove," which I had used about five years. During that time no repairs or expense had been made upon it. Since I have been here I have tried the various Cooking Stoves in use, and I think for economy and durability the "Stewart" excels them all. I wish you would take away the Stove I now have from my house, and set up one of Stewart's as soon as you can. Your ob't servant,
B. F. CHANDLER.

2. Boston & Maine Cook Stove;
3. White Mountain;
4. Empire State;
5. Enterprise;
6. Exchange;
7. Dining Room Cook Stoves, and others.

BLOOD FOOD.

Dr. Bronson, having been so far reduced by consumption, as to be considered beyond all hope of recovery by the most eminent of the medical profession, and also by himself—a regular physician of twenty years' practice—as a last resort, conceived the idea of ANALYZING THE BLOOD, and applying the subject of physiology to the more immediate connection, and effect of the state of the blood upon the health and system. The result has been the production of this "BLOOD FOOD," from the use of which, Dr. Bronson was restored to perfect health. Within six months after its introduction, over 2000 consumptives were effectually cured by it. If you have any complaints of a consumptive tendency, Coughs, Colds, Hoarseness, Palpitations of the Heart, Loss of Appetite, or Pain in the Side, lose no time in procuring a bottle of the "BLOOD FOOD." If you are suffering from Nervous Debility, or your sleep is broken and disturbed, if your spirits are depressed or your organs relaxed, you will find in this an unfailing remedy, by commencing with ten drops. If your Liver is torpid or diseased in any manner whatever, one or two bottles will be sure to invigorate, and bring it into lively and healthful action. In the most inveterate cases of Dyspepsia, the patient can here find the most efficient and grateful relief. A benefit is always experienced after taking only one bottle. In Male or Female Complaints or Weakness, any sufferer, after trying other remidies in vain, may rest assured, that a certain cure will result from the use of two or three bottles. The "BLOOD FOOD" is effectual in all cases of Eruptions, Salt Rheum, Scrofulas, and other like complaints. Pale and emaciated children and adults are immediately benefitted by its use. It gives strength to the body, and color and beauty to the skin. Physicians of all schools are using it with wonderful success.

For full directions, see circulars. Price $1 per bottle.

Strictly followed. Price 25 cents per bottle. directions wrapped round each bottle, must be used by those whose whole system is but one mass of humors. In all cases, the relief for the same person is commensurate with the extent of the disease. Where expense is but a secondary consideration, we cannot afford such long advertisements as are those whose expenses are but little, therefore we cannot afford such long advertisements as are those who offer preparations of the kind, much more than other preparations of the kind, for we do not in truth in proclaiming it—Lady—it goes so loose to the bottom of the matter, that it will be found a powerful anti-spasmodic in all cases of coughing or pain, for relief in the head is a sure relief. For Cold in the Head it is a sure relief. For CROUP, the most fatal and trying of diseases, it can be relied on with perfect confidence; it relieves the most distressing cases, which is its chief merit over every other preparation.

FOR ALL COMPLAINTS ATTENDING TEETHING; such as DYSENTERY, COLIC, &c.; also, for softening the gums and relieving pain. For regulating the bowels it is unequalled. Mothers! Mothers! Mothers!

In presenting you with Dr. BATONS INFANTILE CORDIAL, we desire to make its superiority over every nostrum that now is the market obvious to the most careless observer.

DR. J. B. HUGHES,

Knowing that there are at this moment thousands of persons in the surrounding towns, suffering their lives to the insidious inroads of certain dangerous maladies, who still suffer from the reluctance to make known their complaints and consult a physician, he would state that all of his medicines will be sent by express or otherwise, to all who may order them, provided the true description of the disease be sent by letter and directed as above.

Full and explicit directions will accompany every package, and the most inviolable secresy preserved.

DR. HUGHES can with safety say during the last year of his practice in Boston, more than three hundred cases of disease which have been improperly treated by empyrics have come under his care, and more than three-fourths of this number are inscribed upon his books as perfect cures.

Patients treated by letter by addressing Dr. Hughes, post paid, and medicines sent all over the country, carefully concealed from scrutinizing friends.

Be particular in finding Dr. Hughes. Do not be lured from the right path, or be persuaded to try experiments with false and fictitious remedies at the expense of destroying what is the great pillar of life, a healthy constitution.

This medicine can only be obtained at the Office of Dr. HUGHES, 13 Howard street, Boston.

DR. J. B. HUGHES UNIVERSAL FEMALE RENOVATING PILLS. These pills are unrivalled in efficacy and superior virtue in regulating all female irregularities. Their action is specific and certain, producing relief in a short space of time. They are acknowledged to be the best in use.

The Dr. cautions the public to beware of impositions that are being practiced by advertising the spurious article under some spurious or fictitious name. They are entirely useless, having been got up by miserable pretenders who are entirely ignorant of the efficacy of medicines.

All who are in pursuit of the genuine article, had better call on the Dr. at his office, where they will be sure of getting the genuine—the only place in Boston where the genuine is for sale.

These pills can be sent to any part of the country with directions. Remember the number—13 Howard street, Boston.

P. S.—The best of accommodations furnished, with kind and attentive nurses if they wish, at a reasonable rate. jd 1y

Scrofula, or King's Evil,
is a constitutional disease, a corruption of the blood, by which this fluid becomes vitiated, weak and poor. Being in the circulation it pervades the whole body, and may burst out in disease on any part of it. No organ is free from its attacks, nor is there one which it may not destroy. The scrofulous taint is variously caused by mercurial disease, low living, disordered or unhealthy food, impure air, filth and filthy habits, the depressing vices, and, above all, by the venereal infection. Whatever be its origin, it is hereditary in the constitution, descending "from parents to children unto the third and fourth generation;" indeed, it seems to be the rod of him who says, "I will visit the iniquities of the fathers upon their children.
Its effects commence by deposition from the blood of corrupt or ulcerous matter, which, in the lungs, liver, and internal organs, is termed tubercles; in the glands, swellings; and on the surface, eruptions or sores. This foul corruption, which genders in the blood, depresses the energies of life, so that scrofulous constitutions not only suffer from scrofulous complaints, but they have far less power to withstand the attacks of other diseases; consequently vast numbers perish by disorders which, although not scrofulous in their nature, are still rendered fatal by this taint in the system. Most of the consumption which decimates the human family has its origin directly in this scrofulous contamination; and many destructive diseases of the liver, kidneys, brain, and, indeed all of the organs, arise from or are aggravated by the same cause.
One quarter of all our people are scrofulous;—their persons are invaded by this lurking infection, and their health is undermined by it. To cleanse it from the system we must renovate the blood by an alterative medicine, and invigorate it by healthy food and exercise. Such a medicine we supply in
Compound Extract of Sarsaparilla,
the most effectual remedy which the medical skill of our times can devise for this everywhere prevailing and fatal malady. It is combined from the most active remedials that have been discovered for the expurgation of this foul disorder from the blood, and the rescue of the system from its destructive consequences. Hence it should be employed for the cure of not only scrofula, but also those other affections which arise from it, such as
ERUPTIONS AND ERUPTIVE DISEASES, ULCERS, PIMPLES, BLOTCHES, TUMORS, SALT RHEUM, SCALD HEAD, SYPHILIS AND SYPHILITIC AFFECTIONS, MERCURIAL DISEASE, DROPSY, NEURALGIA OR TIC DOULOUREUX, DEBILITY, DYSPEPSIA AND INDIGESTION, ERYSIPELAS, ROSE OR ST. ANTHONY'S FIRE, and indeed the whole class of complaints arising from IMPURITY OF THE BLOOD. The popular belief in "impurity of the blood" is founded on truth, for scrofula is a degeneration of the blood. The particular purpose and virtue of this Sarsaparilla is to purify and regenerate this vital fluid, without which sound health is impossible in contaminated constitutions.
Ayer's Cathartic Pills.
FOR ALL THE PURPOSES OF A FAMILY PHYSIC, are so composed that disease within the range of their action can rarely withstand or evade them. Their penetrating properties search and cleanse, and invigorate every portion of the human organism, correcting its diseased action, and restoring its healthy vitalities. As a consequence of these properties, the invalid who is bowed down with pain or physical debility is astonished to find his health or energy restored by a remedy at once so simple and inviting.
Not only do they cure the every-day complaints of every body, but also many formidable and dangerous diseases. The agent below named is pleased to furnish gratis my American Almanac, containing certificates of their cures and directions for their use in the following complaints: Costiveness, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Dysentery, Foul Stomach, Erysipelas, Headache, Piles, Rheumatism, Eruptions and Skin Diseases, Liver Complaint, Dropsy, Tetter, Tumors and Salt Rheum, Worms, Gout, Neuralgia, as a diuner Pill, and for Purifying the blood.
Ayer's Cherry Pectoral
COUGHS, COLDS, INFLUENZA, HOARSENESS, CROUP, BRONCHITIS, INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION, and for the relief of Consumptive Patients in advanced stages of the disease.
So wide is the field of its usefulness and so numerous are the cases of its cures, that almost every section of country abounds in persons publicly known, who have been restored from alarming and even desperate diseases of the lungs by its use. When once tried, its superiority over every other medicine of its kind is too apparent to escape observation, and where its virtues are known, the public no longer hesitate what antidote to employ for the distressing and dangerous affections of the pulmonary organs that are incident to our climate. While many inferior remedies thrust upon the community have failed and been discarded, this has gained friends by every trial, conferred benefits on the afflicted they can never forget, and produced cures too numerous and too remarkable to be forgotten.

THURSDAY, DEC. 22, 1859.

STUPID DECISION.—A Washington dispatch says:

The Post Office Department states, for the information of editors, subscribers and postmasters, that the method of addressing newspapers to subscribers by attaching to each copy of the paper a printed slip containing, in addition to the name of the subscriber, the date when his subscription expires, and in some cases the amount due thereon, matter which forms no part of the address, and is neither a bill nor a receipt, is a violation of postal laws, and subjects each copy so addressed to letter postage.

This decision is eminently worthy of the donkey that made it. Such a slip is both a bill and a receipt. John McLean, if he were Postmaster General, would so decide, and let the papers pass.

NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 12, 1859.

"The sunny South!" Rather a mismomer, if we were to judge from the weather of the last ten or twelve days. Oh, how the darkies curled up, and the apple-women and cab-drivers looked colder than charity. Such weather does not often occur here; the large stalks of the banana are entirely broken down by it, and even the rose bushes are blighted, a circumstance not recollected by many of the Creoles to have happened before. Fires, furs and overcoats were in great demand, and even crinoline seemed less in the streets.

New Orleans is now in a whirl of business and pleasure. With two operas, two theatres, two circuses, two museums, innumerable balls, and all the smaller "shows," one need be at no loss where to spend an evening or money. Besides these means of amusement, which seem to thrive well, there are a great many billiard and bowling saloons, pistol galleries, &c., open day and night, seven days in the week.

The rigor of the weather is softened today, and, as a consequence, the ladies flock out and enliven the streets. A Northerner cannot but notice the lack of a "prevailing fashion in dress," not only among the male portion of the community, but also among the ladies—unless for every one to dress as he or she is pleased, may be called a fashion. I call it a good one.

I did think to make some notice of those natives of Portsmouth whom I have seen here, but find the list so extensive that I forbear the infliction. Portsmouth's sons may be found in every land, as her ships on every sea, and I hope the former may al-always stand as high in the estimation of their fellow men as the latter do in the commercial world.

The sugar crop shows a deficit of more than half, owing to wet spring, dry summer and early frosts; but the cotton crop is larger than ever before, and commands a good price.

The fires have become less frequent, but shootings, stabbings, &c., still continue about the same.

At the St. Charles Theatre, a few nights ago, there appeared on the stage, in the play of the "Hidden Hand," (dramatized from Mrs. Southworth's story in the N. Y. Ledger,) a little news-boy with one leg.—The same little fellow can be seen any day, on the stage of life, following his avocation as retailer of news, accompanied by a dog with only three legs. The canine tripod is in remarkably good condition, and never mistakes any biped of the genus homo for his master.

Though a little risky, it is worth while to take an occasional night-trip into the low streets bordering on the Levee. You may see how people can live, how many of them do live; find that, by comparison, your lot is not so bad it might be; see that mirth may be most uproarious where wretchedness is deepest; and form some idea of the manners and customs of St. Giles, so thoroughly studied by Dickens. ION.

☞ The St. Louis Republican says:

Great as was the meeting in Philadelphia, and eminent and revered as may be all the men who participated in it—equally great in numbers, and influential so far as men are concerned, as was the meeting in Boston, they will have accomplished no good unless those who participated in them will come out and declare that they will attach themselves to the Democratic party, as the only party that can beat the Black Republican party in 1860.

Is that it? Then it is the party that is in danger of dissolution, and not the Union. We think there may be some truth in it, says Uncle Toby.

CANADIAN EXECUTION.—The Montreal Gazette, in giving an account of the execution of a man named Beauregard, in that city, for the murder of a farmer, says that the attendant minister requested the spectators to pray for the condemned. The vast multitude, with few exceptions, knelt down and engaged in prayer, and for a time nothing could be heard but the hum of many voices praying for Beauregard's soul. The priest also exhorted the people present to take example by Beauregard's sad end, and not frequent the tavern; the tavern led to the jail, the jail to the scaffold.

☞ Tuesday, Dec. 20, in the U. S. Senate, Mr. Johnson of Tennessee introduced the Homestead Bill, which was read twice, and some other matters came up.

In the House, they had rather a shorter debate than common, in which Mr. John Cochrane defined his own position as a Union Democrat, and made a speech against the Republican party. At the close of his speech, the House voted three times for Speaker; the third time Mr. Sherman lacked 3 votes of an election.

15th ballot—whole number of votes 228; necessary to a choice 115; Sherman had 111, McClernand 21, Boteler 39, Barksdale 15, scattering 34.

16th ballot—whole number of votes 226; necessary to a choice 114; Sherman had 110, Boteler 43, McClernand 25, Barksdale 10, scattering 24.

17th ballot—whole number of votes 223; necessary to a choice 112; Sherman had 109, Boteler 38, McClernand 28, scattering 48.

The House then adjourned.

The pairing-off by some of the members of the House accounts for the reduction of the aggregate, but does not alter the relative vote for Speaker. On the first two trials Mr. Sherman lacked four votes of an election; on the last, however, only three were necessary to produce that result, and this was occasioned by the absence of Mr. Reynolds. The 38 votes for Mr. Boteler were cast by 17 of his own South American friends, with Geo. Briggs and 18 Southern Democrats. Mr. McClernand's 28 votes included all the Illinois Democrats, and some from the South and elsewhere. No other Democrat received more than seven votes. Mr. Adrain, H. F. Clark and Riggs voted for John G. Davis, and Mr. Davis for Mr. Clark.

The Democratic Senators were again in caucus on Tuesday, on the subject of a public printer, but, as before, adjourned without making a nomination.

☞ In the debates of the House of Representatives, during the first fortnight of the session, only two republicans, Corwin and Kilgore, have made set speeches, and Kilgore's remarks were chiefly personal to Mr. Greeley and himself. But one South American has made a set speech—Mr. Nelson of Tennessee—who avowed Union sentiments. Four anti-Lecompton Democrats and one Independent have spoken, whose remarks were by no means acceptable to the Administration.

On the other side, nineteen Administration Democrats had spoken—four Northern and fifteen Southern men. Of these nineteen, more than half avowed disunion sentiments!

☞ There has lately been a peck of trouble in the Plymouth church, (evangelical) at Chelsea, Mass. A council has been held, and if their advice is complied with, all the troubles must be crushed out at once. The council, in their result, blame both Mr. Nevins the pastor, and the minority party in the church, the latter for the irregular and injudicious manner in which they made their complaints, and the former for his improper treatment of those complaints, and for the loose statements made by him, and the foolish egotism which he exhibited.—They recommend a dissolution of the church and Mr. Nevins' dismissal, and commend him as an able and zealous preacher, fitted for usefulness in some other field.

☞ A Haverhill, Mass. correspondent of the Traveller sends the following account of a disgraceful disturbance in that town on last Thursday night, near Peeker's Hill, in a section of the town generally known as "Utah." It seems a gang of young Irishmen, the leaders of which were John and Thomas Hanlen, John Fox and Michael Murphy, commenced the business of the night by attacking whoever happened to come in their way, and assaulted, one after another, eight persons. The above named four rowdies were arrested.

☞ W. B. Hopkins shot himself through the heart, at the St. Charles Hotel, New Orleans, on the 9th inst. A few moments after his body was discovered in his room, John E. Musgrove, of St. Louis, Mo., threw himself from the portico of the hotel and was instantly killed. It is thought the latter threw himself from the portico from an unconquerable impulse proceeding from the effects of the tragical end of Hopkins, of which he had just heard.

☞ Mr. McLane, our Minister to Mexico, has arrived at New Orleans, bearing the treaty ratified between the United States and the Juarez government. It guarantees the right of transit across the Isthmus, and also from Guaymas to Arizona. Goods go free of duty. Troops and military stores also go free, and the route to be guarded by both governments.

☞ A remarkable incident in the religious world transpired in New York on Saturday. A Mrs. Silberman, who was brought up as a Presbyterian, made public profession of the Jewish faith at a Jewish synagogue, and was received into the Israelitish fold.

☞ The remains of John E. Cook, executed at Charlestown, Va., on Friday, arrived at Williamsburgh on Sunday night, accompanied by Gov. Willard of Indiana, Mr. Voorhies, Secretary of State of Indiana, and Dr. Stanton, all relatives of the deceased. On Saturday the body was embalmed, after which it appeared quite natural. Arrangements were made to have the funeral in the Fourth Street Reformed Dutch Church, of which Cook's relatives are members, but the consistory were in doubt as to the propriety of endangering the safety of the Union by allowing the dead body one of Brown's men to cross the threshold of their church, and so they rescinded the vote tendering the use of the church, and decided that if Cook's friends would allow the corpse to remain in the hearse in front of the church, they might hold the services within the church! This of course was respectfully declined. The Rector had his sermon for the occasion already written, but was not allowed to deliver it in his own church. The Universalists, who do not seem to have been so strongly prepossessed in favor of the Union, opened their house, and another clergyman concluded to deliver a sermon from his door step.

☞ We gratefully acknowledge the receipt of the Boston Courier Report of the Union Meeting in Faneuil Hall, Boston, Dec. 8, 1859. It is a complete account, in pamphlet form, convenient for preservation, and will be worth more, twenty years hence, than it is now.

☞ Mr. William A. Mylod, of South Dedham, died very suddenly on Monday afternoon. He was on his way to the funeral of Mr. Dana P. Colburn, which took place in the Baptist church, when, finding he was late, he started quickly but suddenly dropped, and hardly breathed after he was reached.

☞ George Woodhouse, a free colored man, died at Norfolk, Va., on Saturday morning, aged one hundred and twenty years. He was born in Princess Anne county, Virginia, in 1739, and had reached the average age of man when the revolutionary war broke out.

☞ See advertisement of the New York Tribune, the leading newspaper in the United States, in another column.

Also, an advertisement of F. Brady's Publishing House, New York—with list of attractive and popular works.

☞ The Free Will Baptist Society of Haverhill, Mass., has recently become divided. A portion, together with the late pastor, Rev. Wm. C. Clarke, have left the parent society. They worship for the present in the vestry of the Centre Congregational Society.

☞ Mrs. M. S. C. Carpenter, for the last two years a teacher in the Ladies' Collegiate Institute in Worcester, died very suddenly, Sunday afternoon. Her death is attributed to an affection of the heart.

THIRTEEN MEN DROWNED.—Savannah, Dec. 20.—A white man and twelve negroes were drowned in the river this morning by the capsizing of a boat.

Conceited men often seem a harmless kind of men, who, by an overweening self-respect, relieve others from the duty of respecting them at all.

☞ Hon. Linn Boyd died at his residence in Kentucky, on Sunday.

LAWRENCE, July 27, 1854. "I hereby testify that the Cough Drops prepared by Dr. Simeon Swett, have given me very great relief from the whooping cough of late, and I would advise all who have a visit from that distressing complaint, to use it freely. MARY N. RICKER.

I know the above testimony of my wife with regard to the salutary effect of Dr. Swett's Cough Drops to be correct. CHARLES C. RICKER.

CANAAN, Dec 11, 1841. "I have been troubled with the phthisic for a number of years, and have found more relief by using Dr. Swett's Cough Drops, than from all other medicines put together, though I have tried many. FANNY MINER.

"I have been cured of a severe cough, by using Dr. Swett's Cough Drops. I therefore would sincerely recommend them to all who are afflicted with lung complaints, as I believe them the best medicine in my knowledge. ELIZABETH CURRIER.

EXETER, March 3, 1841. "Many of my brethren in the ministry, frequently complain of oppressed lungs and hoarseness of voice, after frequent labors. I wish by this card to say to them, and to all others affected, that the cough drops, prepared by Dr. Swett, of Portsmouth, is a valuable remedy. I have found nothing that gives relief so quick. Let every suffering preacher take a phial and try it. Eld. EDWIN BURNHAM.

EXETER, July 30, 1841. "I have found Dr Swett's cough drops to be the most effectual remedy for Coughs, and for any other complaints of the Lungs, of any medicines with which I am acquainted. NANCY F. JONES.

CANAAN, Aug 29, 1850. "This certifies that we have found greater relief from Dr. Swett's cough drops, in very bad cases of phthisic in our family, than from all other medicines put together

Catarrhal Cough.

This insidious and annoying symptom, so difficult to treat, depends on a subacute inflammation of the air-passages, which is apt to end in chronic ulceration and a form of consumption, The mucous membrane of the air-passages is peculiarly susceptible to the healing influences of the PERUVIAN SYRUP, as the testimonials of some of our first citizens show.

Dr. Hostetter's Bitters have received the warmest encomiums from the press and people throughout the Union. As a valuable tonic for the cure of Dyspepsia, Flatulence, Constipation and general nervous debility, it cannot be approached. Every day new cases of its great effect are chronicled through our public journals. There is nothing equal to the enjoyment, to that which the afflicted experience when using this valuable specific. Its mild tone, its sure and vigorous action upon a disordered stomach, and the cleansing of the entire human body should recommend it to all classes of our community. All that will be necessary to convince the skeptical of its healthy effects, is to purchase a bottle and be convinced.

Sold by druggists and dealers generally, everywhere.

Among the restoratives which Nature has supplied to relieve the afflictions of humanity there is no more favorite one for a certain class of diseases than the "medicinal gum" of the Wild Cherry Tree; but however valuable it is, its power to heal, to soothe, to relieve, and to cure, is enhanced ten-fold by scientific and judicious combination with other ingredients, in themselves of equal worth. This happy mingling exists in that

"Combination and a form indeed"

Of medicine known as

Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry,

Whose value in curing Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Whooping Cough, Croup, Asthma, Pulmonary Affection and Incipient Consumption, is inestimable.

HOME TESTIMONY.

BOSTON, April 18, 1862. No. 48 Union St.

Mr. Seth W. Fowle,—Dear Sir:—Your invaluable medicine, I can truly say, has literally snatched me from the grave. Last July I was attacked by a sudden cold, which resulted in a very severe Cough, with violent pains in the side and chest. I became so much reduced, that my friends frankly told me that I must die. At this crisis, I heard of Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, and immediately sent for a bottle. The effect produced was indeed wonderful. My physician, one of the most respectable in Boston, who had previously told me that a cure was hopeless, came in, and I informed him what I had taken. He examined the Balsam, and advised me to continue the use of it, since which time I have continued to improve daily; and the same physician who had given me up, told me, a few days since, that I might yet live many years.

Respectfully, MARY ROWE.

We can cheerfully testify to the truth of the above statement, Mrs. Rowe having been an inmate of our family. WILLIAM DENNETT, MARTHA DENNETT.

Prepared by S. W. FOWLE & CO., BOSTON. and for sale by Wm. R. Preston, David Kimball, Nathan P. Thacher, J. H. Thacher, and B. Hutchings, Portsmouth; J. P. Packer, Greenland; and dealers everywhere. spnot 4wd&w

☞ Mrs. Winslow, an experienced nurse and female physician, has a Soothing Syrup for children teething, which greatly facilitates the process of teething by softening the gums, reducing all inflamation—will allay all pain, and it is sure to regulate the bowels. Depend upon it mothers, it will give rest to yourselves, and relief and health to your infants. Perfectly safe in all cases. See advertisement in another column.

If you wish to take any Magazine or newspaper, subscribe of some responsible agent in town. Keep clear of these, and pay your money to those whom you know to be responsible. How Portsmouth was Bombarded. A yarn with this title has been going round in some papers,—about ten cannon fired in the night on a wharf near Liberty Bridge, in Portsmouth, 80 years ago,—the alarm of the town, the meeting of the selectmen, arming of the citizens, and people sitting up all that night, &c., &c.

It may be well for us to say, that no such cluster of events occurred here at that time, or at any time.

Idle boys have fired a cannon in the night—and so have idle men,—and in the day time too,—but nobody here has been much alarmed by it, since the war of 1812—15, when there were two or three alarms, not wanton, but accidental.

☞ Another great improvement in Market street, of late, is the fitting up of the store on the corner of Bow street, the first in old Merchants' Row—now to be occupied by Mr. John Stokell, as a Provision and Grocery Store. He has a very neat and well arranged establishment, in one of the best locations in the city: and ought to know now to keep store, by this time.—Among other good things for Christmas time, we noticed among his stock, a porker, almost square, weighing, as it lay there, dressed, 579 lbs. It was raised by Mr Stephen Marden of this city.

☞ J. C. Cluer will Lecture in Mercantile Hall, Wednesday and Thursday Evenings, Dec. 21 and 22. "Susie" will give Readings and Recitations in connection.—Admission free—contribution taken. All are invited.

☞ There is to be a course or series of Lectures, at the Hanover street Chapel, in aid of the new Brodhead Methodist Society, worshipping there—commencing next Monday evening. The list of speakers is a guarantee that the lectures will be interesting and valuable; and the object is a worthy one, and will commend itself to many citizens.

When Was It.—In the Concord Patriot of Dec. 22, we see an extract from the Cheshire Republican, reading thus:—

When the Democratic party was in power, (and there was not one liquor shop where there are now ten,) &c.

Uncle Toby would be greatly obliged to the Patriot, or the Republican, or any body, to tell him when it was, and where it was, that there was only one rum shop where there are now ten? He is sure there has been no such place in Rockingham County for the last 50 years.

☞ It is said that J. B. Adams, Esq., at his store in Congress Block, is distributing a large and excellent stock of Gold and Silver Watches and Jewelry, at auction in the evening, and private sale during the day,—for Presents, &c. Every article warranted. See bills and advertisements.

Groveland.—A new and rather interesting feature was introduce into the religious exercises of the worshipers at the Independent Church in this town on Sunday last. The Rev. Mr. Richardson being absent, the pulpit was supplied by a stranger to the spiritual wants of this society. After announcing his text he had not proceeded far in his course when he was admonished of the unsoundness of his theology by individuals of the congregation, after which a general discussion ensued, and a running fire of words was kept up until the discourse was concluded.—Newburyport Her.

Washington, Dec. 20.—[Special Dispatch to the Boston Journal.]—About fifty gentlemen, including the American members of Congress, met last evening for an interchange of opinions, Senator Crittenden presiding. A committee of seven were appointed to confer with the Whig and American Central Committees as to the practicability of organizing a party on the platform of the Union, the Constitution, and the execution of the Laws. Several old-fashioned Whig speeches were made. Perley.

Washington, Dec. 20.—The Republican Senatorial caucus to-day assigned Mr. Sumner to the Committee on Foreign Relations.

The War Department has received a letter from Capt. Ricketts, dated Brownsville, Dec. 1, contradicting the reports about the troubles there. There are no signs of any attack on Brownsville, and the captain thinks the whole affair has been much exaggerated.

☞ In the ballot for Speaker on Monday, not one Southern vote was given to Davis of Ind., (Douglas man,) who has been talked of as likely to combine the anti-Republican strength. This shows how the "little giant" stands at the South.

☞ The Washington correspondent of the N. Y. Times, who believes Sherman is sure of being Speaker, says "Forney has no chance for the Clerkship whatever"

Don Quixote thought he could have made beautiful bird-cages if his brain had not been so full of ideas of chivalry. Most people would succeed in small things, if they were not troubled with great ambitions.

A young lady found of dancing, traverses in the course of a season four hundred miles. Yet no lady would think of walking that distance in six months.

Your father forgets that he was once young, does he? Very well—see that you don't forget that you may one day be old.

FASHIONABLE ANTHEM.

Long live our gracious Queen,
Who won't wear Crinoline,
Long live the Queen!
May her example spread,
Broad skirts be narrowed,
Long trains be shortened;
Long live the Queen!

A storm of scorn arise,
Scatter French fooleries,
And make them pall.
Confound those hoops and things,
Frustrate those horrid springs,
And India rubber rings,
Deuce take them all!

May dresses flaunting wide,
Fine figures cease to hide;
Let feet be seen;
Girls to good taste return,
Paris flash-modes unlearn,
No more catch fire and burn,
Thanks to the Queen!

—Punch.

☞ Early in the morning, Dec. 20, an explosion took place at Tay, Bickford & Co.'s Fuse factory at Simsbury, Conn. by which eight females were killed, two badly burned, and two seriously injured. From the explosion the building took fire and burned down. The flames spread with lightning rapidity. Loss of property $6,000 or $8000.

Of the sufferers, Catherine Bussey, of New York. Mary Jane Beacon, of Simsbury, Hannah and Harriet Head, three more, names unknown, all unmarried, and Mrs. Sampson, all of whom were in the upper story at work, were burned to death, or blown to pieces.

Joseph Tay, son of the owner, and two girls, were dangerously wounded, and their recovery is considered doubtful.

New York, Dec. 20.—Building Nos. 154 and 156 Broad street, occupied by Kent and Lomber, wholesale grocers, and heavily loaded with flour, etc., fell this evening. There had been a slight fire in the premises, which had been extinguished by the firemen, and police, who had hardly time to emerge from the building, when the rear wall fell, followed almost immediately by the front wall.

Five men and one girl were burried in the ruins. Three of the men and the girl were soon extricated with but slight injuries. The remaining two, one a policeman (Stewart) was taken out a short time after fatally injured, and the other, Mr. Fry, a wine merchant, was only extricated after two hours and half hard labor by the firemen. He was horribly mangled, and evidently must have been instantly killed.

Philadelphia, Dec, 20.—At a meeting of Southern Medical Students to-day, it was resolved to secede in a body from the schools in this city and go to the Southern Colleges. There was a large attendance. Jefferson College will lose 200, and Pennsylvania University 100 students. They will proceed in a body to-morrow night, in a special train, from the Baltimore Depot. The proceedings were conducted throughout with great decorum and propriety, and there was no exhibition of violent feelings. A number will go to the Richmond Medical College.

Rev. Thomas Star King is thirty-six years old. He was the successor of Rev. John Pierpont, of the Hollis-street Church, Boston, where he has successfully labored for ten or twelve years. He is a member of the Eastern Unitarian Conference. His theology is of the Channing type. He is the intimate and highly esteemed friend of Gannett, Bellows, Peabody, Huntington, Osgood, and others, prominent in the Unitarian Church. He is the son of a clergyman, and was left at an early age, to struggle for himself and widowed mother, with five children, younger than himself. In his case, our young men have another brilliant example of what purpose, virtue and labor can do in purifying, elevating and ennobling them.—N. Y. Home Journal.

Liberia.—Advices from Liberia report a new and extraordinary phase of the slave trade. The Rebecca, a Baltimore clipper, commanded by Capt. Carter, arrived there in July last, with forty-two colored immigrants from New Orleans, liberated from the McDonough estate. She was under orders from the Colonization Society, but having landed the free negroes, she moved off to the Southwest coast and took in a full cargo of slaves, with which freight she is now bound home.

Fousel's Pabulum Vitæ.

☞ THE GREAT FRENCH REMEDY possesses extraordinary properties for the speedy and permanent cure of Consumption, Bronchitis, Coughs, Colds, and all Pulmonary Disease.

This celebrated specific is now universally acknowledged to be infinitely superior to all other preparations for the cure of Pulmonary Disease, both from its innocent nature and most astonishing curative properties; it being the only remedy known that will arrest the development of Tubercles in the Lungs or restore the vital functions of the pulmonary organs to their normal condition. Its invaluable properties have obtained for it the highest recommendation and praise from some of the most eminent physicians and chemists in the country; while the best and surest proofs of its merits are afforded by the numerous testimonials of its great efficacy in conquering disease, which are constantly received from our most respectable citizens. Invalids in all stages of pulmonary disease should not fail to give it a trial, as it can be administered to the most delicate and feeble with perfect safety and certain relief; and we herewith insert a few testimonials for their encouragement, selected from hundreds of like import.

Certificate of Dr. A. A. HAYES, in reference to the unequalled virtues of this great discovery.

This preparation, by chemical analysis, was proved to be free from opium, or any of its compounds; nor were any of the alkaloids present. It does not contain any mercurial or mineral substance, but consists wholly of volatile, diffusible agents, which afford vapors freely at a moderate temperature. Most of the substances present are officinally used in alleviating pulmonary disease; but the device by which they are combined is new and original, and adapts the compound to inhalation, or other modes of administration.

Respectfully,
A. A. HAYES, M. D., State Assayer.
16 Boylston St., Boston, Dec. 1857.

In the Boston Transcript of December 11, 1858, the editor says:—]

"We have seen a letter from an eminent physician of this city, in which he says:—'I have used Fousel's Pabulum Vitæ in several cases of Bronchial disease, and in some with great benefit. I know of no remedy equal to it for children, where a minute dose is essential; or for adults of irritable stomachs, or having a tendency to reject ordinary medicines given for coughs, etc. I shall continue to use it in my practice.'"

Testimonial from the Sisters of Charity, of the St. Vincent's Orphan Asylum, in Boston.

Boston, July 31, 1858.

To Mr. F. Laforme, Agent:

"The Sisters are happy to state that, having used Fousel's Pabulum Vitæ, they have found it efficacious in several instances, for bad coughs and colds. Signed by the Sisters of Charity.

Testimonial from a well-known Apothecary's Clerk.

Boston, March 10, 1859.

J. F. Laforme, Esq.:

Dear Sir—I had been suffering for a considerable length of time from a severe cough, and had in vain had recourse to nearly all the remedies in use. My cough began to give me much uneasiness from its serious effects on my system, when three days' use of Fousel's Pabulum Vitæ restored me to complete health. The medicine being new in this market, I had recourse to it last; but I can now confidently recommend it as the best medicine I know of. Yours, truly,
CHAS. H. FOSTER.
At Fred Brown's, Washington, corner State St.

In the Boston Post, Sept. 24, 1858, the editor says:

"An extraordinary cure of Consumption has recently come to our knowledge, effected through the instrumentality of Fousel's Pabulum Vitæ; the evidence of which is in the handwriting of the subject, Mr. Wm. P. Brigham, No. 130 Albany st., in this city. It seems that for eighteen months he had been exhibiting all the usual symptoms of Consumption, and that after having had recourse to the skill of various physicians, without benefit, he had to abandon his business and be confined to his house. Hearing of Fousel's Pabulum Vitæ, and of several remarkable cures effected by it, in cases as desperate as his own, he concluded to try it as a forlorn hope. The result has been most happy—he has now entirely recovered, and is engaged in his usual pursuits. It is such well authenticated cases as this that we take pleasure in laying before our readers, since, by so doing, many valuable lives may be saved, and much good effected.

It is sold at the low price of 50 cents, and $1.00 per bottle, thus placing it within the reach of all classes. F. J. LAFORME, sole Agent, Boston. M. S. BURR & CO., General Agents, No. 26 Tremont street, Museum Building, Boston, and for sale by all druggists. Circulars with testimonials of its efficacy can be had of the Agents novfly

—FOR—FAMILY
—AND—
MEDICINAL PURPOSES!

NO species of deception and fraud should receive stronger public condemnation than that of imposing upon the sick with

Adulterated and Poisonous Liquors!

The market is flooded with these adulterated poisons. They have found their way into every State, City, Town and Village in the country, and are carrying incurable insanity to the victims of these terrible agents.

In consequence of the startling developments in regard to

STATE AGENCY LIQUORS,

and the almost universal distrust which now prevails, and to the end that confidence may be restored, we come before the public, pledging our reputation to supply

UNADULTERATED LIQUORS
EXPRESSLY FOR
MEDICINAL PURPOSES.

In asking the confidence of those who have been so outrageously imposed upon by the POISONOUS COMPOUNDS of "LICENSED POLITICAL CHEATS," we would refer to our antecedents for the past eighty years, and we trust that our established reputation abundantly vindicates our claims to public confidence.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

"The Bininger, 338 Broadway, have a very high reputation to sustain, as the oldest and best house in New York."—Home Journal.

"The house of A. M. Bininger & Co., No. 338 Broadway, has sustained, for a period of eighty years, a reputation that may well be envied."—N. Y. Evening Post.

"The name of A. M. Bininger & Co. is a guarantee of the exact and literal truth of whatever they represent."—N. Y. Com. Advertiser.

"The importing house of A. M. Bininger & Co., No. 338 Broadway, is conducted upon principles of integrity, fairness, and the highest honor."—N. Y. Evening Express.

To Druggists, Town Agents and Physicians,

desirous of purchasing liquors of undoubted purity, we would say that our House has made a specialty of selling PURE, UNADULTERATED LIQUORS for Medicinal purposes, and we claim that they are superior to anything now before the public.

With these assurances on our part, we name a few of our bottled goods, which are now freely prescribed by the faculty

BININGER'S
GENUINE COGNAC BRANDY.

The infamous practice of adultering Brandies having become so common that a genuine article is the exception, it is of vital importance to those requiring it for family use, and invalids, that it should be of undoubted purity and efficacy. With a view to meeting the popular demand for a reliable Brandy in its natural state, free from alcoholic flavor and impurities, and fully appreciating the fact that it is often recommended by the Medical Faculty as a sustaining stimulant, when all other remedies fail, we are now bottling and selling at reasonable rates a Brandy of our own importation, from one of the most responsible houses in France, and known as "Bininger's Grandeuse Cognac Brandy." It is mild, delicate and fruity, and is designed to be always uniform in quality and character.

BININGER'S
OLD LONDON DOCK GIN

has been a favorite with the Profession for many years. For all cases of Gravel it will certainly work a cure, and if taken as a preventive, will remove all possible sediment. It is invaluable to females in diseases peculiar to their sex, and in cases of tendency to Phthisis or Consumption, will often ward off that fell disease.

BININGER'S
OLD KENTUCKY BOURBON.

Being distilled in 1848, and manufactured expressly for us with great care, it can be relied upon as a strictly pure stimulant, and peculiarly effective for the treatment of Lung Complaints, Dyspepsia, Derangement of the Stomach, Nervousness, &c.

BININGER'S
HEIDELBERG BRANNTWEIN.

Since its introduction into this country it has received the professional endorsement of our eminent physicians, for the effective treatment of Dyspepsia, Gravel, Rheumatism, Dropsy, Bladder Complaints, Suppression of the Menses, Nervousness, Derangement of the Stomach, General Debility, etc.

STOVE STORE REMOVED.

URIAH BLAISDELL

Has removed his Stove and Furnishing Establishment one door north, to the spacious and convenient store

Nos. 43 & 45 Market Street,

where he is receiving and arranging a large and valuable Stock of

STOVES, TIN WARE, &c.,

Which he offers for sale at wholesale and retail, at very low prices. He has a great variety of the best and most popular Stoves, among which are:

1. The Stewart Cook Stove, with the latest improvements. This is an air-tight Cook Stove, for Wood or Coal; it has moveable coverings, which can confine the heat in the stove, or let it out into the room; has a reservoir of hot water 10 or 20 gallons, and a tin closet beneath;—a top cover, which is a great institution for baking, and will keep a coal fire all night; it has a Dutch Oven for roasting in front of the Stove;—and it is every way a most convenient and durable Stove. There are 4 sizes.

The following recommendation of Stewart's Stove, is from an eminent engineer, and must be satisfactory to all who wish to understand the value of this excellent Stove:

Portsmouth, N. H., Nov. 5, 1859.

Mr. Blaisdell:—Seven years ago I moved to this city, and sold, before I came, a "Stewart's Air Tight Cooking Stove," which I had used about five years. During that time no repairs or expense had been made upon it. Since I have been here I have tried the various Cooking Stoves in use, and I think for economy and durability the "Stewart" excels them all. I wish you would take away the Stove I now have from my house, and set up one of Stewart's as soon as you can. Your ob't servant,

E. F. CHANDLER.

2. Boston & Maine Cook Stove;

BLOOD FOOD.

Dr. Bronson, having been so far reduced by consumption, as to be considered beyond all hope of recovery by the most eminent of the medical profession, and also by himself—a regular physician of twenty years' practice—as a last resort, conceived the idea of ANALYZING THE BLOOD, and applying the subject of physiology to the more immediate connection, and effect of the state of the blood upon the health and system. The result has been the production of this "BLOOD FOOD," from the use of which, Dr. Bronson was restored to perfect health. Within six months after its introduction, over 2000 consumptives were effectually cured by it. If you have any complaints of a consumptive tendency, Cough, Hoarseness, Difficulty of breathing, Loss of Appetite, or Pain in the Side, lose no time in procuring a bottle of the "BLOOD FOOD." If you are suffering from Nervous Debility, or your sleep is broken and disturbed, if your Spirits are depressed or your organs relaxed, you will find in this an unfailing remedy, by commencing with ten drops. If your Liver is torpid or diseased in any manner whatever, one or two bottles will be sure to invigorate, and bring it into lively and healthful action. In the most inveterate cases of Dyspepsia, the patient can here find the most efficient and grateful relief. A benefit is always experienced after taking only one bottle. In Male or Female Complaints or Weakness, the sufferer, after trying other remedies in vain, may rest assured, that a certain cure will result from the use of two or three bottles. The "BLOOD FOOD" is effectual in all cases of Eruptions, Salt Rheum, Scrofulas, and other like complaints. Pale and emaciated children and adults are immediately benefitted by its use. It gives strength to the body, and color and beauty to the skin. Physicians of all schools are using it with wonderful success.

For full directions, see circulars. Price $1 per bottle.

Scrofula, or King's Evil,
is a constitutional disease, a corruption of the blood, by which this fluid becomes vitiated, weak and poor. Being in the circulation it pervades the whole body, and may burst out in disease on any part of it. No organ is free from its attacks, nor is there one which it may not destroy. The scrofulous taint is variously caused by mercurial disease, low living, disordered or unhealthy food, impure air, filth and filthy habits, the depressing vices, and, above all, by the venereal infection. Whatever be its origin, it is hereditary in the constitution, descending "from parents to children unto the third and fourth generation;" indeed, it seems to be the rod of him who says, "I will visit the iniquities of the fathers upon their children.
Its effects commence by deposition from the blood of corrupt or ulcerous matter, which, in the lungs, liver, and internal organs, is termed tubercles; in the glands, swellings; and on the surface, eruptions or sores. This foul corruption, which genders in the blood, depresses the energies of life, so that scrofulous constitutions not only suffer from scrofulous complaints, but they have far less power to withstand the attacks of other diseases; consequently vast numbers perish by disorders which, although not scrofulous in their nature, are still rendered fatal by this taint in the system. Most of the consumption which decimates the human family has its origin directly in this scrofulous contamination; and many destructive diseases of the liver, kidneys, brain, and, indeed all of the organs, arise from or are aggravated by the same cause.
One quarter of all our people are scrofulous;—their persons are invaded by this lurking infection, and their health is undermined by it. To cleanse it from the system we must renovate the blood by an alterative medicine, and invigorate it by healthy food and exercise. Such a medicine we supply in
Compound Extract of Sarsaparilla,
the most effectual remedy which the medical skill of our times can devise for this everywhere prevailing and fatal malady. It is combined from the most active remedials that have been discovered for the expurgation of this foul disorder from the blood, and the rescue of the system from its destructive consequences. Hence it should be employed for the cure of not only scrofula, but also those other affections which arise from it, such as
ERUPTIONS AND ERUPTIVE DISEASES, ULCERS, PIMPLES, BLOTCHES, TUMORS, SALT RHEUM, SCALD HEAD, SYPHILIS AND SYPHILITIC AFFECTIONS, MERCURIAL DISEASE, DROPSY, NEURALGIA OR TIC DOULOUREUX, DEBILITY, DYSPEPSIA AND INDIGESTION, ERYSIPELAS, ROSE OR ST. ANTHONY'S FIRE, and indeed the whole class of complaints arising from IMPURITY OF THE BLOOD. The popular belief in "impurity of the blood" is founded on truth. for scrofula is a degeneration of the blood. The particular purpose and virtue of this Sarsaparilla is to purify and regenerate this vital fluid, without which sound health is impossible in contaminated constitutions.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills.
FOR ALL THE PURPOSES OF A FAMILY PHYSIC, are so composed that disease within the range of their action can rarely withstand or evade them. Their penetrating properties search and cleanse, and invigorate every portion of the human organism, correcting its diseased action, and restoring its healthy vitalities. As a consequence of these properties, the invalid who is bowed down with pain or physical debility is astonished to find his health or energy restored by a remedy at once so simple and inviting.
Not only do they cure the every-day complaints of every body, but also many formidable and dangerous diseases. The agent below named is pleased to furnish gratis my American Almanac, containing certificates of their cures and directions for their use in the following complaints: Costiveness, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Dysentery, Foul Stomach, Erysipelas, Headache, Piles, Rheumatism, Eruptions and Skin Diseases, Liver Complaint, Dropsy, Tetter, Tumors and Salt Rheum, Worms, Gout, Neuralgia, as a dinner Pill, and for Purifying the blood.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral
COUGHS, COLDS, INFLUENZA, HOARSENESS, CROUP, BRONCHITIS, INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION, and for the relief of Consumptive Patients in advanced stages of the disease.
So wide is the field of its usefulness and so numerous are the cases of its cures, that almost every section of country abounds in persons publicly known, who have been restored from alarming and even desperate diseases of the lungs by its use. When once tried, its superiority over every other medicine of its kind is too apparent to escape observation, and where its virtues are known, the public no longer hesitate what antidote to employ for the distressing and dangerous affections of the pulmonary organs that are incident to our climate. While many inferior remedies thru-t upon the community have failed and been discarded, this has gained friends by every trial, conferred benefits on the afflicted they can never forget, and produced cures too numerous and too remarkable to be forgotten.

DR. J. C. AYER & CO.,

We have put up and sold this article for over ten years, and can say, in confidence and truth, of it, what we have never been able to say of any other medicine, —NEVER HAS IT FAILED, IN A SINGLE INSTANCE, to effect a CURE, when timely used. Never did we know an instance of dissatisfaction by any one who used it. On the contrary, all are delighted with its operations, and speak in terms of highest commendation of its medicinal effects and virtues. We speak, in this matter, "what we do know," after ten years experience, and pledge our reputation for the fulfilment of what we here declare. In almost every instance where the infant is suffering from pain and exhaustion, relief will be found in fifteen or twenty minutes after the syrup is administered.
This valuable preparation is the PRESCRIPTION of one of the MOST EXPERIENCED and SKILLFUL NURSES in New England and has been used with never-failing success, in THOUSANDS OF CASES.

We would say to every mother who has a child suffering from any of the foregoing complaints—Do not let your own prejudices, or the prejudices of others, stand between your suffering child and the relief that will be ABSOLUTELY SURE to follow the use of this medicine, if timely used. Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

FRIDAY, DEC. 23, 1859.

WHO IS DR. BREED?—Two or three weeks ago the papers announced that Dr. Breed of Washington was brought before a Justice and compelled to give $2000 bonds, to keep the peace. The only charge against him was that in private conversation he defended Senator Seward's political sentiments. The Justice put him under bonds since, if he had uttered his sentiments before slaves or a white audience, it would have endangered the peace of the community!

The Manchester American says Dr. Breed is a native of Unity in this State, and early inculcated his free sentiments among the hills of New Hampshire. He studied medicine in this country and afterwards in the first schools of Europe. On his return his skill in chemical analysis was of great utility in the Patent Office at Washington. In Germany, Daniel Breed is still remembered as a talented, ingenious and generous man. With a frankness characteristic of his Quaker raising, he boldly informed the Justice that he was an Abolitionist. Such is freedom of speech in Washington.

☞ Mr. Garrison has just delivered a lecture before the Boston Fraternity, on the Irrepressible Conflict and the Higher Law. The Atlas says Mr. G.'s lecture was a curious counterpart to General Cushing's speech at Faneuil Hall, and adds:

A friend told us the other day that the first time he ever saw Wm. Lloyd Garrison, he came running down the stairs of a printing office in Newburyport, with his hands full of votes, and calling out, "Hurrah for Caleb Cushing!" But the protege of the Brigadier is now widely apart from him in sentiment, as is evinced by the two addresses.

☞ A democrat who owns a lead mine at Shullsburg, Wis., was a candidate for the legislature. On election day he hired 53 republicans to work in his mine; after he had got them all 130 feet below the surface, the ladder was drawn up to have some new rounds put in it, and he neglected to return it till the polls were closed, which resulted in his election by 52 majority.

☞ Thomas Garrett, of Wilmington, Del., stated at an anti-slavery meeting in Philadelphia, on Wednesday, that he had delivered 2245 slaves from bondage in the last fifteen years. The Springfield Republican thinks he is entitled to the presidency of the underground railroad. He made it a point always to tell about this work when he was asked.

NEW PUBLICATIONS.

HITS AT AMERICAN WHIMS, AND HINTS FOR HOME USE. By Frederic W. Sawyer, author of "A Plea for Amusements." Published by Walker, Wise & Co., Boston. For sale by Joseph H. Foster.

This is decidedly a readable book—and one richly worth the reading, too. For a writer to treat sensibly, and yet attractively, on the following wide range of subjects, bespeaks no little versatility of talent. We cannot do better than present the list of contents:

How to make millionaires; whim against dancing; education sans morals; the late Capt. Fume; hints for promoting juvenile depravity; canonical amusements; elevating tendency of soap and water; straits of a man of fortune; parks and promenades;—jury trials and trials of jury; the drama; Jonathan on the road to gentility; religious creeds of New England; hints for reducing the merchant's service; two-fifths educated; precept and practice; public drives; Skipper Sinker; modern Vaticans; physical culture; manners; adorn; provided, however; Mr. Blot gored by bulls; pilgrimism; hospitality; hints to stringent law makers; peep into the forecastle; Jonathan's reverence for the past; Aunt Diadama; adornment of the sanctuary; hints on the art of living; fortune made by an invitation to tea; galleries of art; luckless wight; mont de piete; best temperance agent; philanthropy; Mr. Blot's account current; music; to the South—greeting; a model institution; family holidays; public gardens; hints about dwelling houses; an alibi; time; the old stage taverns; what of the night? leisure hours and public libraries; ambition.

PICTURES FROM THE HISTORY OF THE SWISS. By the author of Little Stories for Little People, &c. Published by Brown, Taggard & Chase, Boston. For sale in Portsmouth by C. C. Harvey.

A neat little volume, red and guilt, with illustrations; entertaining as a story, and instructive as the history of a country most interesting to all American youth.

OUR SUMMER HOUSE, AND WHAT WAS SAID AND DONE IN IT. Boston: published by Brown Taggard & Chase. Sold in Portsmouth by C. C. Harvey.

Another neat little work for the juveniles, of which the present season is so prolific.—The pictures are "taking," and the stories cannot fail to please the children.

THE LIFE OF WHITENOSE WOODCHUCK. By Uncle Faunus. Brown, Taggard & Chase, Boston. For sale by C. C. Harvey in Portsmouth.

A capital little blue and gold book—written for the children, and will delight them, too; but if the older folks get looking at the pictures, "before they know it" they will be reading it through. Outside and in, it is one of the prettiest little books of the kind you ever saw.

REV. T. STARR KING's splendid volume on "The White Hills, their Legends, Landscape and Poetry," is dedicated to Edwin Percy Whipple, with admiration and gratitude.

THE SEA, a quarto paper devoted to the interests of Seamen, is issued in Boston, New York and Philadelphia, twice a month, by Rev. C. W. Dennison. It is wide awake, edited with considerable ability, and calculated to do much good. The last number states that petitions are to be presented to Congress, to abolish the grog rations in the army and navy. The editor thinks it poor business for the United States Government to be thus making drunkards.

TROUBLE IN A SCHOOL.—A serious difficulty occurred in a school in Holliston, Mass., on Wednesday or Thursday last.—The teacher, Wilcox, had heard that an attempt was to be made by some of the larger boys to put him out of the school house, and one of the number, named Sherman, having proved refractory, he struck him on the head with a poker, inflicting a very severe but not dangerous wound. The teacher says his intention was to disable him from assaulting himself, and to intimidate the other boys.

Wilcox has been arrrested for the assault, and is under bonds to appear at an examination. The injured scholar is pronounced out of danger. He is about eighteen or twenty years of age, and is said to have been making trouble in the school all winter.

The teacher, a young man from New Hampshire, has been subjected to many annoyances, there having been an opposition to him from the first, by many of the pupils, who wished to have a female teacher.

At the time the assault was committed the Sherman boy was in his seat, and had committed no overt act of rebellion, but is said to have been talking saucily to his teacher. There was no other weapon in the school house at the time, his ruler having been destroyed by some of the scholars.

The affair has created considerable talk in the neighborhood, and public opinion is somewhat divided, although few, if any, justify the use of such a dangerous weapon.—Traveller.

NEW YORK, Dec. 21.—Rev. Dr. Achili, the ex-priest and lecturer, was arrested at Hoboken last evening, and committed to prison on a charge of gross immorality.

How small a portion of our lives is that we truly enjoy! In youth we are looking forward for things that are to come; in old age we look backward to things that are gone.

☞ Newmarket Bank has declared a semi-annual dividend of four per cent.

☞ A general meeting of Republicans in Portsmouth, was held at the Court House on Monday evening, at which they chose delegates to attend their several conventions, in State, County, and District; after which a series of three resolutions were passed, in substance as follows:—

That the Republican party, leaving slavery in the hands of the States where it exists, to be dealt with by the people of those States, are opposed to its extension elsewhere, and will oppose it by constitutional and lawful means.

That they oppose the dictation of a slave oligarchy, and are opposed to an administration and a party controlled by it. And

That they are opposed to disunion, to forcing the views of one section or States on another, and to all violent invasion of right and law—but are attached to liberty, to the Constitution, and the Union.

Another series, consisting of a preamble and half a dozen resolutions, were also adopted, which notice the fact that Administration Democrats are about getting up a Union Meeting in Portsmouth,—and resolve, that it is highly proper they should do so, inasmuch as the threats of disunion all come from the Southern wing of that party,—but as "the whole need not a physician but they that are sick," therefore the Republicans have no need of a Union Meeting, and are under no particular obligation to help out the one which is called chiefly to help the democratic party, or that portion of them who hold office.

From the Ballot, Dec. 22.

PORTSMOUTH, Dec. 19th, 1859.

Mr. Editor:—Dear Sir:—At a regular meeting of the Mercantile Library Association held last Friday evening, the following resolutions were passed:

Resolved, That the Mercantile Library Association of Portsmouth, N. H., deeply sympathise with the family of the Martyr of Harper's Ferry—John Brown—in their present heavy bereavement, and hope that they may be comforted by the assurance that "Blessed are they who work the will of the Lord."

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions shall be published in the Morning Chronicle of Saturday, Dec. 17th.

Young America being present in full force, these resolutions were passed by a decided majority, but some of the Pro-Slavery members determined to crush out the Liberty of speech in the Association, proceeded to the Editor of the mammoth daily of our city and forbade his printing them.

The Secretary being somewhat Pro-Slavery in his feeling, did not attend to his duty as he should have done.

Two of the majority at the meeting called upon the Editor of the Chronicle the next morning to try and induce him to publish them to-day, but he, fearing the vengeance of the Loco-Foco members, refused to do so.

Thus it devolves upon usi knowing your liberal views on the great topics of the day, to send you a plain statement of the facts.

JUSTICE.

If the writer of the above intends to be "just," he misses it here,—and speaks without book in several instances. "The (senior) editor of the Chronicle," who alone was called upon, would have published the resolutions, silly and out of place as they were; but did not choose to do so without consulting the publisher—who alone is responsible for what appears in these columns. As the resolutions were not signed by any secretary or other officer, we of course could not be sure that they were genuine. We were told that they were passed at a very small meeting, of the youngest members—who seem to be more intent on having their joke out, than to promote the good of the Association—which was never intended for a political body, or to take cognizance of public affairs in this manner. As we could see no way in which the publication of these silly resolutions would promote the welfare of John Brown, his family, the Association, or the world, we declined to insert them even as an advertisement.

The statement that the pro-slavery members forbade our publishing the document, is offset by the resolution itself, that we "shall" do so on the 17th inst.

As to our "fearing the vengeance of the loco-foco members"—that is too rich. Two prominent Republican members spoke to us a single moment on the subject, which was all there was said about it to us, except by the "two of the majority." We fear the loco-foco members just about as much as we do "Justice" himself. We profess to be independent of party; and the fact that we are blamed and praised full with by both and all, is pretty good proof that we are so.

In closing, we would like to know, from whence that quotation in the resolution? is it home-made scripture?

And we will just say, that we regret the passage of these resolutions, and the publicity given this matter, as we fear it may tend to the injury of the Association, now or at some other time; and it certainly sets an example for the passage of resolutions of almost every sort, at any time.

On the Rockingham Docket, the following cases, among others, were disposed of.

Petition of James Kershaw for release from jail—Fine and costs remitted—and discharge granted.

At the March (adjourned) Term in the actions Edward T. Huntress and ux. v. Nathaniel B. March, surety upon the bond of Abraham Shaw, Administrator of Jereniah Drisco—Also against said March, Executor of James Drisco—both appeals were dismissed with costs for said March, appellant.

J. & S. Blake v. P. & C. Railroad. Motion to dismiss action denied.

Jemima Tripe v. Daniel Marcy and al. Judgment on the verdict for Plaintiff.

The following divorces were decreed:—

John Armstrong v. Eliza Jane Armstrong, for abandonment.

Charles Fogg v. Sarah Ann Fogg.

Harriet A. Westcott v. Charles M. Westcott—custody of child to libellant.

Andrew J. Smith v. Sophronia J. Smith.

Mary S. Hanson v. John Hanson.

Lavina S. Butler v. Daniel Butler—custody of children to Libellant, and alimony of property described in libel.

William Rollins v. Sarah Ann Rollins.

Diseases of Old Age.

As man approaches his allotted three score and ten years the vital powers begin to fail; stimulants of various kinds are used to strengthen the naturally failing system, such as wines, bark, &c. Instead of these, let the aged keep up the supply of the true strengthening element, iron, by the PERUVIAN SYRUP, which offers a protoxide of that metal ready for immediate absorption.

Dr. Hostetter's Bitters have received the warmest encomiums from the press and people throughout the Union. As a valuable tonic for the cure of Dyspepsia, Flatulence, Constipation and general nervous debility, it cannot be approached. Every day new cases of its great effect are chronicled through our public journals. There is nothing equal to the enjoyment, to that which the afflicted experience when using this valuable specific. Its mild tone, its sure and vigorous action upon a disordered stomach, and the cleansing of the entire human body should recommend it to all classes of our community. All that will be necessary to convince the skeptical of its healthy effects, is to purchase a bottle and be convinced.

Sold by druggists and dealers generally, everywhere.

Among the restoratives which Nature has supplied to relieve the afflictions of humanity there is no more favorite one for a certain class of diseases than the "medicinal gum" of the Wild Cherry Tree; but however valuable it is, its power to heal, to soothe, to relieve, and to cure, is enhanced ten-fold by scientific and judicious combination with other ingredients, in themselves of equal worth. This happy mingling exists in that

HOME TESTIMONY.

BOSTON, April 18, 1852.
No. 48 Union St.

Mr. Seth W. Fowle,—Dear Sir:—Your invaluable medicine, I can truly say, has literally snatched me from the grave. Last July I was attacked by a sudden cold, which resulted in a very severe Cough, with violent pains in the side and chest. I became so much reduced, that my friends frankly told me that I must die. At this crisis, I heard of Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, and immediately sent for a bottle. The effect produced was indeed wonderful. My physician, one of the most respectable in Boston, who had previously told me that a cure was hopeless, came in, and I informed him what I had taken. He examined the Balsam, and advised me to continue the use of it, since which time I have continued to improve daily; and the same physician who had given me up, told me, a few days since, that I might yet live many years.

Respectfully, MARY ROWE.

We can cheerfully testify to the truth of the above statement, Mrs. Rowe having been an inmate of our family. WILLIAM DENNETT, MARTHA DENNETT.

CANAAN, Dec 11, 1841. "I have been troubled with the phthisic for a number of years, and have found more relief by using Dr. Swett's Cough Drops, than from all other medicines put together though I have tried many. FANNY MIXER.

"I have been cured of a severe cough, by using Dr. Swett's Cough Drops. I therefore would sincerely recommend them to all who are afflicted with lung complaints, as I believe them the best medicine in my knowledge. ELIZABETH CURRIER.

EXETER, March 3, 1841. "Many of my brethren in the ministry, frequently complain of oppressed lungs and hoarseness of voice, after frequent labors. I wish by this card to say to them, and to all others affected, that the cough drops, prepared by Dr. Swett, of Portsmouth, is a valuable remedy. I have found nothing that gives relief so quick. Let every suffering preacher take a phial and try it. Eld. EDWIN BURNHAM.

EXETER, July 30, 1841. "I have found Dr. Swett's cough drops to be the most effectual remedy for Coughs, and for any other complaints of the Lungs, of any medicines with which I am acquainted. NANCY F. JONES.

CANAAN, Aug 29, 1850. "This certifies that we have found greater relief from Dr. Swett's cough drops, in very bad cases of phthisic in our family, than from all other medicines put together

☞ In the U. S. Senate, Wednesday, Dec. 21—

Mr. Bright submitted a resolution for the appointment of the standing committees, which was carried by yeas 31, nays 19—a strict party vote, with the exception of Mr. Pugh, who voted nay.

Mr. Pugh voted thus because Mr. Douglas was beheaded as Chairman of the Committee on Territories. This solitary vote shows the strength of the Douglas party in the Senate.

In the House, there was a debate among Democrats, Anti-Lecompton Democrats, Americans and Hindoos. No Republican said anything.

Mr. Boteler withdrew from the contest, and proceeded to name a gentleman who, he was sure, would be acceptable to both sides—he meant the conservative portion of the House—who battle for the Constitution, and to protect it from the surges produced by the persistent course of those who call themselves Republicans. He nominated Mr. Millson of Va.

Impatient cries of "Vote," "Ballot."

Mr. Cobb—I trust the object of harmony is accomplished, and, since it seems an organization can be effected, I'm done.

Much anxiety was manifested to vote, but Mr. Clark of N. Y. rose, saying, while he did not expect to show how the organization could be effected, he thought he would show how an organization could not be effected. He would vote for no gentleman who was committed to sustain the policy which he was committed to oppose.

Mr. McClernand also withdrew his name, and complimented Mr. Millson as a patriot-statesman, capable of discharging the duties of the Chair.

With all this preparation, the House proceeded to vote for Speaker (17th vote) with the following result:

Whole number of votes, 226; necessary to a choice, 115; Sherman had 106, Millson 96, Gilmer 6, Etheridge 7, Davis of Indiana 7, scattering 7.

Another vote was then demanded, but the debate among the same parties broke out more fiercely than before.

Mr. Hill said it was useless to go on in this manner. It was evident there could be no lection without a fair understanding how the patronage was to be distributed. There was no sense in this thing. He moved to adjourn.

Mr. Winslow desired one more ballot, and if there was no election, he intended to offer a resolution that from and after today and to-mororw, as gentlemen may choose, no further vote for Speaker shall be taken till the 5th of January.

Burnett and Etheridge had some sharp shooting.

Etheridge ignored all political and geographical lines, and until Burnett could rally the Democratic forces, he should not arraign him who was elected in defiance of that party. (Applause.)

Burnett spoke of the love of Kentncky for the Union, which was applauded, and asked Anderson why he did not vote for Millson.

Anderson replied that he was born and reared a Whig and had voted consistently for an American, and intended to do it to the end of the contest. He would not vote for Mr. Millson—he was a Democrat; and he could not vote for Mr. Sherman, because he was a Republican.

Mr. Hill said he came here with a view of breaking up both the Republican and Democratic parties, and erecting on their ruins a better party.

Mr. Anderson of Kentucky has the floor for to-morrow. Adjourned.

☞ Subscribers to the New York Cosmopolitan Art Association (of which see advertisement of "Sixth Annual Announcement," in another column,) receive for their $3 subscription, the excellent quarterly Art Magazine for one year, and a splendid engraving of "Shakespeare and his Friends,' or the "Village Blacksmith," or "Manifest Destiny," or "Saturday Night," as they may select. The three last-named are the premiums of former years.

Each subscriber also receives a numbered receipt or sticket, which entitles him to a chance in the distribution of six hundred rich paintings, statues, &c., on the 30th of January.

On the payment of $10, any person will receive the four superb engravings above named, with the four Magazines and certificates. For $15, six copies of the present year.

Two of the engravings may be seen at Mr. Cobb's Music Store.

☞ A new style skate, at the store of Geo. L. Treadwell, is now attracting the attention of the "adepts" in this fashionable art, and bids fair to supersede all others as a model. All straps and buckles are dispensed with, and in their place are screws and a simple contrivance at the toe. So popular has this exercise of late become, that a pair of skates is considered indispensable, even in a young lady's outfit.

☞ Everybody and his neighbor are requested to read the advertisement of J. P. Morse, who is fully responsible for all he promises; and those who want periodicals, daily, weekly or monthly, cannot do better than give him their orders. He has a "few more left."

Among the very large number of Newspapers that I furnish, I will call particular attention to but two—THE NEW YORK LEDGER—a paper that excels all others in enterprise and ability.—The Hon. Edward Everett will continue to write for the Ledger, together with all the best talent in the world. THE NEW YORK TRIBUNE, the best paper in the world, for the news.

In calling the attention of the public to my list of Magazines and Newspapers, I would caution all against subscribing for Magazines, Newspapers, or other works, through irresponsible and transient persons, or travelling agents; for in nine cases out of ten you will be swindled and cheated.

If you wish to take any Magazine or newspaper, subscribe of some responsible agent in town. Hundreds of dollars are lost every year by subscribing for works of strangers and travelling agents, and by being induced to subscribe by the thousands of contrivances to cheat the public—such as Art Unions, Premiums, Cosmopolitan Art Associations, and various humbugs to gull the unwary. Keep clear of these, and pay your money to those whom you know to be responsible. The subscriber has been in the business fifteen years, and will guarantee to furnish any publication as cheap as can be obtained.

STOVE STORE REMOVED.

URIAH BLAISDELL

Has removed his Stove and Furnishing Establishment one door north, to the spacious and convenient store

Nos. 43 & 45 Market Street,

where he is receiving and arranging a large and valuable Stock of

STOVES, TIN WARE, &c.,

Which he offers for sale at wholesale and retail, at very low prices. He has a great variety of the best and most popular Stoves, among which are:

1. The Stewart Cook Stove, with the latest improvements. This is an air-tight Cook Stove, for Wood or Coal; it has movable coverings, which can confine the heat in the stove, or let it out into the room; has a reservoir of hot water 10 or 20 gallons, and a tin closet beneath;—a top cover, which is a great institution for baking, and will keep a coal fire all night; it has a Dutch Oven for roasting in front of the Stove;—and it is every way a most convenient and durable Stove. There are 4 sizes.

The following recommendation of Stewart's Stove, is from an eminent engineer, and must be satisfactory to all who wish to understand the value of this excellent Stove:

Portsmouth, N. H., Nov. 5, 1859.

Mr. Blaisdell:—Seven years ago I moved to this city, and sold, before I came, a "Stewart's Air Tight Cooking Stove," which I had used about five years. During that time no repairs or expense had been made upon it. Since I have been here I have tried the various Cooking Stoves in use, and I think for economy and durability the "Stewart" excels them all. I wish you would take away the Stove I now have from my house, and set up one of Stewart's as soon as you can. Your ob't servant,

B. F. CHANDLER.

2. Boston & Maine Cook Stove;
3. White Mountain;
4. Empire State;
5. Enterprise;
6. Exchange;
7. Dining Room Cook Stoves, and others.

Also, FUNNEL, KITCHEN FURNITURE, TIN WARE AND FARMING TOOLS.

BLOOD FOOD.

Dr. Bronson, having been so far reduced by consumption, as to be considered beyond all hope of recovery by the most eminent of the medical profession, and also by himself—a regular physician of twenty years' practice—as a last resort, conceived the idea of ANALYZING THE BLOOD, and applying the subject of phisiology to the more immediate connection, and effect of the state of the blood upon the health and system. The result has been the production of this "BLOOD FOOD," from the use of which, Dr. Bronson was restored to perfect health. Within six months after its introduction, over 2000 consumptives were effectually cured by it. If you have any complaints of a consumptive tendency. Cough, Cold, Headache, Palpitation of the Heart, Loss of Appetite, or Pain in the Side, lose no time in procuring a bottle of the "BLOOD FOOD." If you are suffering from Nervous Debility, or your sleep is broken and disturbed, if your Spirits are depressed or your organs relaxed, you will find in this an unfailing remedy, by commencing with ten drops. If your Liver is torpid or diseased in any manner whatever, one or two bottles will be sure to invigorate, and bring it into lively and healthful action. In the most inveterate cases of Dyspepsia, the patient can here find the most efficient and grateful relief. A benefit is always experienced after taking only one bottle. In Male or Female Complaints or Weaknesses, the sufferer, after trying other remedies in vain, may rest assured, that a certain cure will result from the use of two or three bottles. The "BLOOD FOOD" is effectual in all cases of Eruptions, Salt Rheum, Scrofulas, and other like complaints. Pale and emaciated children and adults are immediately benefitted by its use. It gives strength to the body, and color and beauty to the skin. Physicians of all schools are using it with wonderful success.

For full directions, see circulars. Price $1 per bottle.

DR. J. B. HUGHES,

Knowing that there are at this moment thousands of persons in the surrounding towns, surrendering their lives to the insidious inroads of certain dangerous maladies, who still suffer from the reluctance to make known their complaints, and consult a physician, he would state that any of his medicines will be sent by express or otherwise, to all who may order them, provided the true description of the disease be sent by letter and directed as above.

Full and explicit directions will accompany every package, and the most inviolable secrecy preserved.

DR. HUGHES can with safety say during the last year of his practice in Boston, more than three hundred cases of disease which have been improperly treated by empyrics have come under his care, and more than three-fourths of this number are inscribed upon his books as perfect cures.

Patients treated by letter by addressing Dr. Hughes, post paid, and medicines sent all over the country, carefully concealed from scrutinizing friends.

Be particular in finding Dr. Hughes. Do not be lured from the right path, or be persuaded to try experiments with false and fictitious remedies at the expense of destroying what is the great pillar of life, a healthy constitution.

This medicine can only be obtained at the Office of Dr. HUGHES, 13 Howard street, Boston.

DR. J. B. HUGHES UNIVERSAL FEMALE RENOVATING PILLS. These pills are unrivalled in efficacy and superior virtue in regulating all female irregularities. Their action is specific and certain, producing relief in a short space of time. They are acknowledged to be the best in use.

The Dr. cautions the public to beware of impositions that are being practiced by advertising a spurious article under some spurious or fictitious name. They are entirely useless, having been got up by miserable pretenders who are entirely ignorant of the efficacy of medicines.

All who are in pursuit of the genuine article, had better call on the Dr. at his office, where they will be sure of getting the genuine—the only place in Boston where the genuine is for sale.

These pills can be sent to any part of the country with directions. Remember the number—13 Howard street, Boston.

P. S.—The best of accommodations furnished. d1 ly

is a constitutional disease, a corruption of the blood, by which this fluid becomes vitiated, weak and poor. Being in the circulation it pervades the whole body, and may burst out in diseases on any part of it. No organ is free from its attacks, nor is there one which it may not destroy. The scrofulous taint is variously caused by mercurial disease, low living, disordered or unhealthy food, impure air, filth and filthy habits, the depressing vices, and, above all, by the venereal infection. Whatever be its origin, it is hereditary in the constitution, descending "from parents to children unto the third and fourth generation;" indeed, it seems to be the rod of him who says, "I will visit the iniquities of the fathers upon their children.
Its effects commence by deposition from the blood of corrupt or ulcerous matter, which, in the lungs, liver, and internal organs, is termed tubercles; in the glands, swellings; and on the surface, eruptions or sores. This foul corruption, which genders in the blood, depresses the energies of life, so that scrofulous constitutions not only suffer from scrofulous complaints, but they have far less power to withstand the attacks of other diseases; consequently vast numbers perish by disorders which, although not scrofulous in their nature, are still rendered fatal by this taint in the system. Most of the consumption which decimates the human family has its origin directly in this scrofulous contamination; and many destructive diseases of the liver, kidneys, brain, and, indeed all of the organs, arise from or are aggravated by the same cause.
One quarter of all our people are scrofulous;—their persons are invaded by this lurking infection, and their health is undermined by it. To cleanse it from the system we must renovate the blood by an alterative medicine, and invigorate it by healthy food and exercise. Such a medicine we supply in
Compound Extract of Sarsaparilla,
the most effectual remedy which the medical skill of our times can devise for this everywhere prevailing and fatal malady. It is combined from the most active remedials that have been discovered for the expurgation of this foul disorder from the blood, and the rescue of the system from its destructive consequences. Hence it should be employed for the cure of not only scrofula, but also those other affections which arise from it, such as
ERUPTIONS AND ERUPTIVE DISEASES, ULCERS, PIMPLES, BLOTCHES, TUMORS, SALT RHEUM, SCALD HEAD, SYPHILIS AND SYPHILITIC AFFECTIONS, MERCURIAL DISEASE, DROPSY, NEURALGIA OR TIC DOULOUREUX, DEBILITY, DYSPEPSIA AND INDIGESTION, ERYSIPELAS, ROSE OR ST. ANTHONY'S FIRE, and indeed the whole class of complaints arising from IMPURITY OF THE BLOOD. The popular belief in "impurity of the blood" is founded on truth, for scrofula is a degeneration of the blood. The particular purpose and virtue of this Sarsaparilla is to purify and regenerate this vital fluid, without which sound health is impossible in contaminated constitutions.
Ayer's Cathartic Pills.
FOR ALL THE PURPOSES OF A FAMILY PHYSIC, are so composed that disease within the range of their action can rarely withstand or evade them. Their penetrating properties search and cleanse, and invigorate every portion of the human organism, correcting its diseased action, and restoring its healthy vitalities. As a consequence of these properties, the invalid who is bowed down with pain or physical debility is astonished to find his health or energy restored by a remedy at once so simple and inviting.
Not only do they cure the every-day complaints of every body, but also many formidable and dangerous diseases. The agent below named is pleased to furnish gratis my American Almanac, containing certificates of their cures and directions for their use in the following complaints: Costiveness, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Dysentery, Foul Stomach, Erysipelas, Headache, Piles, Rheumatism, Eruptions and Skin Diseases, Liver Complaint, Dropsy, Tetter, Tumors and Salt Rheum, Worms, Gout, Neuralgia, as a dinner Pill, and for Purifying the blood.
Ayer's Cherry Pectoral
COUGHS, COLDS, INFLUENZA, HOARSENESS, CROUP, BRONCHITIS, INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION, and for the relief of Consumptive Patients in advanced stages of the disease.
So wide is the field of its usefulness and so numerous are the cases of its cures, that almost every section of country abounds in persons publicly known, who have been restored from alarming and even desperate diseases of the lungs by its use. When once tried, its superiority over every other medicine of its kind is too apparent to escape observation, and where its virtues are known, the public no longer hesitate what antidote to employ for the distressing and dangerous affections of the pulmonary organs that are incident to our climate. While many inferior remedies thru-t upon the community have failed and been discarded, this has gained friends by every trial, conferred benefits on the afflicted they can never forget, and produced cures too numerous and too remarkable to be forgotten.

MRS. WINSLOW,
An experienced Nurse and Female Physician, presents to the attention of Mothers, her
SOOTHING SYRUP,
For Children Teething.
Which greatly facilitates the process of teething by softening the gums, reducing all inflammation—will allay ALL PAIN and spasmodic action, and is
SURE TO REGULATE THE BOWELS.
Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves, and
RELIEF AND HEALTH TO YOUR INFANTS.
We have put up and sold this article for over ten years, and can say, in confidence and truth, of it, what we have never been able to say of any other medicine, never has it failed, in a single instance, to effect a cure, when timely used. Never did we know an instance of dissatisfaction used it. On the contrary, all are delighted with its operations, and commendation of its marvellous virtues. We speak in this matter, "what we do know," after years of experience, and pledge our reputation for the fulfilment of what we here declare. In almost every instance where the infant is suffering from pain and exhaustion, relief will be found in fifteen or twenty minutes after the syrup is administered.
This valuable preparation is the prescription of one of the MOST EXPERIENCED and SKILLFUL NURSES in New England and has been used with never-failing success, in THOUSANDS OF CASES.
It not only relieves the child from pain, but invigorates the stomach and bowels, corrects acidity, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. It will almost instantly relieve GRIPING IN THE BOWELS, AND WIND COLIC,
and overcome convulsions, which, if not speedily remedied, end in death. We believe it the BEST and surest REMEDY IN THE WORLD in all cases of DYSENTERY AND DIARRHŒA IN CHILDREN, whether it arises from teething, or from any other cause. We would say to every mother who has a child suffering from any of the foregoing complaints—Do not let your own prejudices of others, stand between your suffering child and the relief that will be SURE—yes, ABSOLUTELY SURE to follow the use of this medicine, if timely used. Full directions for using will accompany each bottle. None genuine unless the fac-simile of CURTIS & PERKINS, New York, is on the outside wrapper. Sold by Druggists throughout the world.

NEW PUBLICATIONS.

CHRISTIAN BELIEVING AND LIVING. Sermons by F. D. Huntington, D. D. Preacher to the University, and Plummer Professor of Christian Morals in Harvard College. Boston: Crosby, Nichols & Company. Sold in Portsmouth by J. H. Foster.

This is a remarkable book, just out from the pen of a distinguished author. It contains 25 Sermons, all readable and interesting. Sermon No. 20, is entitled Life, Salvation and Comfort for Man in the Divine Trinity. This sermon carries the author, who stands at or near the head of a Unitarian School of the Prophets back into the fellowship of those who a few years ago cast out all who bore the Unitarian name, as heathen men and publicans, infidels, &c.—But his brethren of the "liberal" school will not cast him out,—simply because the men are as liberal as the creed.

In Sermon 18, our author, while he is not only almost, but altogether a trinitarian, seems also to be a Universalist. This sermon, No. 18, is entitled, Christ our Prophet, Priest, and King. The following extract from it will commend itself to every discriminating reader, as in strict accordance and entire harmony with Chapin's Sermons on the Beatitudes, the Lord's Prayer, &c.

Herein is love indeed. Suffering for our peace! Sacrifice, not that our service may profit and pay him, but that our transgression of a Perfect Law may be pardoned, and the noble life of disinterested goodness may be begotten in ourselves. Before, we had seen God as Creator, Providence, Ruler, and all the motives to obedience furnished by those characters had been offered, and had failed. His servants, the prophets, had come, and come in vain. But now we see him in the new, more wondrous, and more gracious character of Sacrifice. The last proof of tenderness is given. Says Robertson,—and how truly!—"Is not the mystic yearning of love expressed in words most purely thus, 'Let me suffer for him'?" We want to feel that our God of infinite love feels that. Calvary is the full answer to that want. In the person of the Son he so comes down among us, and into us, as to suffer for us. We have a High-priest that can be touched with the feelings of our infirmities,—nay, takes those infirmities upon him, bears our sicknesses, is bruised for our iniquities, is delivered for our offences, dies that we may live. All the priestly offices are fulfilled. "Herein is love, not that we loved God, but that God loved us, and sent his Son to be the propitiation for our sins." The atonement by Christ becomes the inmost and greatest power of the world. It is the one peculiar, characteristic, crowning, glorious truth of the Gospel.

And then if you turn from what it does for us, as a redemption, to what it does within us, as an inspiration, the fruit of it is not less divine. For it appeals directly to what is noblest, most generous, most disinterested, in all the brave affections and aspirations of humanity. It rises up in harmony with, and surmounts with its grandeur, all the heroic and martyr sacrifices of mankind. Mechanical and mercantile conceptions of salvation vanish before it. Right becomes more venerable; love, more lovely; charity, more beautiful. It was of charity that the Saviour suffered. His cross teaches us, not that each one is to be looking out for a selfish salvation, but that self is to be forgotten in hearty consecration to him, and in free service to our brethren. It carries us clear of the belittling notion of escaping Hell as a punishment or earning Heaven as a reward. It makes the lofty sentiment of gratitude the mainspring of piety; faith, the pure inspiration of righteousness; love, the sacred secret of beneficence. We learn from the Redeemer, who gave himself up for us, to give ourselves up for one another. We take up that cross which signifies an atoning sacrifice, a voluntary, vicarious humiliation, a making of no reputation, and becoming poor, a taking of the form of a servant, and being made an offering for sin, for others' sakes. Henceforth, we abhor sin for itself, for our brethren's sake, for Christ's sake, and not merely for its penal consequences. We love goodness, and are loyal to it for itself; not merely for its wages. We not only 'admire philanthropy,' but we 'love men,' as those for whom Christ has been willing to die. We cease longing for rest, and begin to have joy in God, in the "spirit of liberty," and in the eternal life begun.

LIFE OF LAFAYETTE.—Written for Children. By E. Cecil. With six illustrations, colored. Published by Crosby, Nichols & Co. Boston. Sold by J. H. Foster, Portsmouth.

The intention of this book is seen at once, in its title, and the intention has been admirably carried out. The youth of LaFayette; his escape from France to join the American rebels; his volunteer service here, ending only with the establishment of our independence; his services in the French Revolution; his last visit to this country; and his devotion to liberty everywhere and always:—all these, and many more items of interest, are sketched with a lively pen; and make what must and will be a very popular and useful work.

☞ The Atlantic Monthly for January is published. The number is an excellent one, well adapted for holiday reading. The "Professor's Story" opens decidedly rich.—The poetry is of a high order—and the Atlantic Monthly is destined to rise higher than ever in the public estimation.

You can get this and all the other Magazines at John H. Locke's.

☞ Gov. Wise of Virginia has written a letter of thanks to the managers of the Philadelphia Union meeting. 200 or 300 medical students are leaving Philadelphia, to matriculate in a doctors' college in Richmond—for the purpose of saving the Union, or expressing indignation, or something.—The students held a meeting on Tuesday morning, and attempted to exclude not only Northern students but reporters, but the latter were not so easily kept out, and furnish full reports of the meeting. Dr. Luckett, a Virginian, and a physician to one of the Philadelphia almshouses, read the following documents to the students:

A telegraphic dispatch from Gov. Wise, stating that the citizens of Richmond would receive with open arms the students who had determined on leaving the colleges in Philadelphia, to matriculate in their colleges. One from the President of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company, tendering free passes to all those who desired to go South. One informing the students that they would be received at Richmond with military honors. Two dispatches, stating that two drafts of $500 each would be forwarded to defray incidental expenses. Also, letters from the faculties of the colleges in Virginia, Tennessee, North Carolina and Georgia, setting forth that they would be welcomed to the colleges in a handsome manner.

Is it possible they are going to do all this after Pennsylvania and Philadelphia have declared their fidelity to the Union? Well, republics are ungrateful, especially the black ones.

SECEDING STUDENTS.—Richmond, Va., Dec. 22.—The Medical students on their arrival from Philadelphia, were received by the Faculty and students of the Medical College, the Governor's Guard and an immens throng of citizens. The procession marched to the Governor's mansion, where an address was delivered by Gov. Wise.—It thence proceeded to the college, where Prof. Gibson made a speech. Dinner was partaken of at Columbian Hotel. There was great enthusiasm and waving of handkerchiefs along the route.

REPUBLICAN NATIONAL CONVENTION. The Republican National Committee, which was in session at the Astor House on Wednesday, have selected Chicago as the place for holding the National Convention. It is to meet on the 13th of June—about seven weeks after the Charleston Convention.

Gov. Morgan, of New York, occupied the chair, and there was a pretty full representation, several members from slave States being present.

☞ Speaking of a divorce case, an apparently interminable suit, on hearing in the Suffolk Supreme Court, the Boston Transcript says—"The evidences discloses that most incorrigible temper was the cause of the whole difficulty between the parties, and demonstrates the fact that truly Christian missionaries are as much needed in some households among us as they can possibly be among the heathen in any part of the world."

☞ Elder D. P. Pike has been elected an Alderman in Newburyport. The Herald says:—

Misfortunes, they say, never come singly, and this seems to be the case with our democratic friends in this city. For some weeks they have been all attention to hear the breaking up of the Union by the election of a Republican Speaker in Congress, and in the midst of their anxiety a second calamity has come to them in the election of Elder Pike. This last is perhaps the worst, and since there is no way to defeat him now, it is proposed to repeal the city charter and go back to a town government. It would be terrible if both city and Union should perish at once.

☞ Rev. Mr. Murad, a converted Turk, who was born in Bethlehem, the home of the Savior, appeared at the Sabbath School, at Andover, in his native costume, and participated in the proceedings of an anniversary.

The large amount of bad weather this month, the storms, the cold and the avalanches of snow, are supposed to be the result either of the assault upon the common property of the nation at Harper's Ferry, or upon the common sense of the nation in the federal House of Representatives.—Bath Times.

☞ James Blanchard of Johnston, R. I. was found dead in the road on Tuesday night. His death is supposed to have been caused by intemperance.

Those persons who do most good are least conscious of it. The man who has but a single virtue or charity, is very much like the hen that has but one chicken. That solitary chicken calls forth an amount of clucking and scratching that a whole brood seldom occasions.

☞ The St. George's Society, of Toronto, C. W., have determined to make a gratuitous distribution of meat, bread, potatoes, and wood on the day before Christmas, to the English poor of that city.

FROZEN TO DEATH.—We learn that an Irishman by the name of Holland was frozen to death on the Canada road, in the Jackman plantation, on Thursday week.—A jug was found in the road near by.—Anson Advocate.

☞ There are in the United States forty-eight Roman Catholic archbishops and bishops, two mitred abbots, and 2223 secular and religious priests.

COLUMBUS, OHIO, Dec. 22.—In the case of W. H. Gibson, former Treasurer of the State of Ohio, the Jury, after being out twenty-four hours brought in this morning a verdict of guilty of defalcation.

☞ The President did not send in his Message to Congress, on Pilgrim Day, Dec. 22.

In the Senate that day, a Senator of the Democratic party, from the South, Mr. Clay, introduced a bill to repeal all laws granting fishing bounties.

Mr. Slidell introduced a resolution that when the Senate adjourns on Friday, it stand adjourned to Tuesday next, and when it adjourns on Tuesday it be adjourned till Friday, and From Friday till the third day of January. He said this was the request of others, who wished to go home to spend the holidays.

Mr. Collamer thought it an injurious evasion of the Constitution.

Mr. Iverson did not so understand it.—The only object was to have a common understanding that no business was to be done during the holidays.

Mr. Collamer felt it his duty to protest against it. He was willing to attend to the public business.

Mr. Davis suggested that it was better not to adjourn, as the House had not yet organized, and the President's Message was not received. The House might organize any day.

Mr. Slidell read from the Senate Journal, showing that a similar resolution had been adopted before on the occasion of the Cincinnati Convention and Philadelphia Convention.

The resolution was then agreed to.

In the House, Mr. Curtis moved to vote for Speaker, and a debate ensued between Anderson of Ky., Burnett and others, Democrats and others, but no Republicans—after which the House proceeded to vote for Speaker.

Whole number of votes, 223; necessary for a choice, 112; Sherman had 95, Millson 49, Gilmer 36, Davis of Indiana 4, Adrain 3. The remainder were scattering.

Mr. Keilt proceeded to show how an organization could be effected by the union of all opposed to the Republicans. Let the thirty, including the Southern opposition on the Union side, select a candidate from the Democratic side, or let the Democrats select one from their side. Let all unite against the common enemy, and success is certain.

Applause, and impatient cries of "Call the roll!" "Vote!"

Another ballot was then taken, with the following result:

Whole number of votes, 222; necessary for a choice, 112; Sherman had 108, Millson 67, Gilmer 21, scattering 26.

Mr. Winslow offered a resolution that on and after Thursday no vote shall be taken for Speaker until the second Monday in January. He said it was evident that the House could do nothing just now to effect an organization. They were approaching the holidays, which even the slaves of the South enjoyed. He thought it better to adjourn over, that gentlemen might go home and catch some of the patriotic feelings of their constituents.

Mr. Washburn of Maine, and others on the Republican side, objected to the reception of the resolution.

Mr. Grow contended that only two motions were in order—either to proceed to a vote or to adjourn. The discussion of the slavery question had been thrust on the House by those who cry out "No agitation!" The Republicans have sat here with closed lips, while the grossest perversion of their doctrines has been made by men who claim to be fair-minded. Now, while we owe five millions to men who have performed service under written contracts, and have been waiting six months for their pay, it was proposed that gentlemen go home and leave the government bankrupt. He asked whether the government's plighted faith should be preserved, above all to contractors, who have rendered important services.

Mr. Davidson and others reminded Mr. Grow that he had endorsed the circulation of Helper's Compendium.

Mr. Grow replied that the Republicans ask to be judged by their platform and record. When any man charged him with being an accomplice of murder, treason and other crimes, he had no other answer than to treat it with the contempt it deserved.—This Union was not so strong as he had supposed, if a pamphlet can disturb its tranquility. He and his friends asked that the business for which they came there should be transacted. The Republicans take no part in the discussions which delay the organization. They will consent to no adjournments for sports and the holidays, while these meritorious claimants are unprovided for.

The dispute was terminated by an adjournment.

Mr. Gilmer's thirty-six votes on the first trial on Thursday, were composed of seven of his political part, and of Messrs. Campbell, Covode, Haskin, Jenkins, McKnight, Millward, Morris of Pa., Nixon, Pennington, Schwartz, Scranton, and Stratton.—The above named all returned to Mr. Sherman on the last vote. Messrs. Horace F. Clark, Davis of Ind., and Reynolds voted for Mr. Adrain; and Messrs. Adrain, Montgomery of Ill., and Riggs, for Mr. Davis of Ind. There were five scattering Democratic votes. Messrs. Maynard and Vance did not vote. Mr. Gilmer on the second ballot, and Mr. Sickles, with four others, supported Mr. Davis of Ind.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 23.—The President's message went North, yesterday by special messengers, and would have been presented in the Senate, had not Democratic Representatives had hopes of securing an organization. It will probably be sent in to-day.

"My religion is known to God and myself. Its evidence before the world is to be known in my life; if that has been honest and dutiful to society, the religion which has regulated it cannot be a bad one."—Jefferson.

"Friend, the Bible tells thee to 'swear not at all;'" "Oh, well, I do swear not at all; I only swear at those I am mad at."

Diseases of Old Age.

As man approaches his allotted three score and ten years the vital powers begin to fail; stimulants of various kinds are used to strengthen the naturally failing system, such as wines, bark, &c. Instead of these, let the aged keep up the supply of the true strengthening element, iron, by the PERUVIAN SYRUP, which offers a protoxide of that metal ready for immediate absorption.

Dr. Hostetter's Bitters have received the warmest encomiums from the press and people throughout the Union. As a valuable tonic for the cure of Dyspepsia, Flatulence, Constipation and general nervous debility, it cannot be approached. Every day new cases of its great effect are chronicled through our public journals. There is nothing equal to the enjoyment, to that which the afflicted experience when using this valuable specific. Its mild tone, its sure and vigorous action upon a disordered stomach, and the cleansing of the entire human body should recommend it to all classes of our community. All that will be necessary to convince the skeptical of its healthy effects, is to purchase a bottle and be convinced.

Sold by druggists and dealers generally, everywhere.

Among the restoratives which Nature has supplied to relieve the afflictions of humanity there is no more favorite one for a certain class of diseases than the "medicinal gum" of the Wild Cherry Tree; but however valuable it is, its power to heal, to soothe, to relieve, and to cure, is enhanced ten-fold by scientific and judicious combination with other ingredients, in themselves of equal worth. This happy mingling exists in that

Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry,

Whose value in curing Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Whooping Cough, Croup, Asthma, Pulmonary Affection and Incipient Consumption, is inestimable.

HOME TESTIMONY.

BOSTON, April 18, 1852.
No. 48 Union St.

Mr. Seth W. Fowle,—Dear Sir:—Your invaluable medicine, I can truly say, has literally snatched me from the grave. Last July I was attacked by a sudden cold, which resulted in a very severe Cough, with violent pains in the side and chest. I became so much reduced, that my friends frankly told me that I must die. At this crisis, I heard of Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, and immediately sent for a bottle. The effect produced was indeed wonderful. My physician, one of the most respectable in Boston, who had previously told me that a cure was hopeless, came in, and I informed him what I had taken. He examined the Balsam, and advised me to continue the use of it, since which time I have continued to improve daily; and the same physician who had given me up, told me, a few days since, that I might yet live many years.

Respectfully, MARY ROWE.

We can cheerfully testify to the truth of the above statement, Mrs. Rowe having been an inmate of our family. WILLIAM DENNETT, MARTHA DENNETT.

Are of elegant finish, and their operation is rapid and very quiet. The EASE with which they can be managed is a distinguishable feature, and the stitch is the strongest, handsomest, and most elastic of any made.

What is specially claimed for the "GROVER & BAKER" machine is—

That it makes a more elastic seam, which will withstand the tests of wear, and washing and ironing, better than that made by any other machine.

That the speed at which it can be used is higher than any other, and the power required to operate it is less than that required by any other machine.

That it is nearly noiseless in its operation.

That its construction is more simple, and its liability to disarrangement less than any other.

That it can be quicker learned, more easily kept in order, got ready for use, and changed from one quality or grade of work, than any other.

Its applicability to the entire range of Family Sewing—from the finest and most delicate texture to the heavier and coarser fabrics.

That it uses thread or silk from the original spools—no re-winding—no shuttles or bobbins to fill.

That it finishes its work and fastens the end of every seam; each stitch is independent of its neighbor.

Is there a husband, father or brother, who will permit the drudgery of hand-sewing in his family when a GROVER & BAKER Machine will do it better, more expeditiously, and cheaper than can possibly be done by hand?

TESTIMONIALS.

PORTSMOUTH, April 12, 1859.

Having tested the merits of the various popular Sewing Machines, in the manufacture of our Capes and Raglans, we unhesitatingly recommend the Grover & Baker, as far superior to all others. ALLEN & PAINE.

PORTSMOUTH, July 16, 1859.

If you wish to purchase a machine that will do work handsomely and strongly, and will not be liable to get out of repair, call on Mr. Whittemore in Daniel street, see the operation of Grover & Baker's machine, and then place one in your family. They will never consent to part with it, after they understand its operation.

Local Items.

☞ To-morrow, Sunday, is Christmas; and doubtless services especially appropriate to the occasion will be observed more universally than is common, in churches of all denominations, all over the land.

The schools, banks, custom house, courts, newspapers and others in Boston and elsewhere, are to keep holiday on Monday. In New York the cessation of business will be almost universal—as it should be.

We Americans don't have half enough social festive days, at best; and can't afford to lose any of our usual small quota.

Of course we shall issue no Chronicle on Tuesday.

WHERE TO PROCURE HOLIDAY GIFTS. This can best be answered by attentive reading of the advertisements on every page of the Chronicle.

VETERAN SUBSCRIBERS.—Mr. Richard Coffin, of Newbury, has called at our office to pay his sixty-fourth annual subscription to the Herald. He is the oldest subscriber we have in Massachusetts, and we have but one other of so long standing.—Newburyport Herald.

The Chronicle has no subscriptions as ancient as that—though it hopes to have, one of these days, But this item has reminded us that, among the subscribers to the Art Association, we have numbered three gentlemen who have each seen about fourscore years, and they are all old patrons of the Chronicle, too. "May they live a thousand years."

☞ The Union and Constitution Meeting is to be held in Jefferson Hall next Thursday evening at 7 o'clock. The call is signed by 260 men, and the Gazette says there are many others.

The same paper contradicts the statement about the old gentleman in Hartford who could not save the Union if seventeen men could shake it.

☞ On Thursday evening, about dusk, the sleigh of Mr. Chas. Hayes, containing four ladies, was upset by accidental contact with a truckman's sled, in Congress st., near Pearl; all the ladies were thrown out, and all more or less hurt, one of them severely.

MUSICAL.—At the Temple, "The Star Vocalists," Wm. B. Brown and Ermina A. Marsh, whose concerts here, last winter, drew large houses, and gave great satisfaction, announce two entertainments, on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings of next week.

They come with the highest encomiums of the press, and have been drawing full houses even this season. At Newburyport, a few evenings since, we are told, they sang to over 800 people. Their concert comprises all styles, from the sentimental to the comic, and, with its great variety, cannot fail to suit almost every taste. They are meritorious performers — let them have crowded houses. See advertisement in another column. **

☞ Burnham's magnificent Panorama of the Life of Christ is coming here next week. It is highly lauded by the press and clergy of the cities where it has been exhibited.

☞ The sale of watches and jewelry, at J. B. Adams' auction store, will continue this day and evening.

☞ Edwin Burnham will preach all day to-morrow, at the Advent Chapel, on Hanover street.

The claims of friendship are above those of sect or party, and we should always suspect the orthodoxy of a creed or the soundness of a platform which should require us to treat coldly those who have done us only good, and whose offences against us are confined to differences of opinion. No creed or platform worth cherishing will ever make such unnatural requisitions on its adherents. —Bath Times.

Marriage is the very chief of human social concerns. To contract or enter upon it without the fullest approval of heart and head, is to peril the peace and happiness of two lives.

NEW YORK, Dec. 22.—Officer McArdar was assaulted in Grand street to-night by a party of rowdies, one of whom, James Fletcher, he shot, wounding him dangerously. Two of the others were also arrested.

WOMAN'S DIGNITY.—It is impossible to be where we cannot esteem; and no woman can be esteemed by a man who has lost her, if she makes herself cheap in the eyes of a fool.

☞ In the insolvent estate of Alvin Colby of Milford, a dividend of one cent and two mills on the dollar has been declared.

If thou art but a dunce, Heaven will forgive thee, for it has not given the wisdom; but if thou art not honest, begone!

Wedlock has been compared to birdcages; the birds without peck to get in, and those within sometimes peck to get out.

We like a spirit of compromise, but no man should ever compromise his friend or himself.

The ideal is the mysterious ladder that enables the soul to ascend from the finite to the infinite.—Cousin.

We find self-made men very often, but God-made ones a good deal oftener.

Bigotry murders religion, to frighten fools with her ghost.—Colton.

Though a good life may not silence calumny, it will disarm it.

A SHARP CRITICISM.—M. W. Fuller's Poem in Brunswick on Commencement week, contains the following rather sharp lines on a "fashionable lady:"

To no religion are her feelings true,
She goes to church, because her neighbors do,
Her only wish her friends and beaux to meet;
With gilded Prayer Book on a cushioned seat,
Of prayer or praise she takes but little reck,
But bows her head that she may show her neck,
And reads the hymn, for though she never sings,
An open book will best display her rings.
To save her soul in vain the Priest aspires
To rouse a dread of everlasting fires—
No matter what the face he puts upon it—
She smiles at hell—and thinks about her bonnet.

HOW TO PRONOUNCE "OUGH."—The ending syllable "ough," which is such a terror to foreigners, is showed up in its several pronunciations in the following lines:—

Wife, make me some dumplings of dough,
They're better than meat for my cough;
Pray, let them be boiled till not through,
But not till they're heavy or tough.
Now, I must be off to my plough,
And the boys (when they have had enough)
Must keep the flies off with a bough,
While the old mare drinks at the trough.

"A miser is one who, though he loves himself better than all others, uses himself worse, for he lives a pauper in order to enrich his heirs, whom he naturally hates, because he knows they hate him."

"How many a man, from love of pelf,
To stuff his coffers, starves himself;
Labors, accumulates, and spares,
To lay up ruin for his heirs;
Grudges the poor their scanty dole,
Saves everything, except his soul,
And, always anxious, always vexed,
Loses both this world and the next."

CHARLESTON, S. C., Dec. 20.—A despatch from Columbia, dated Dec. 19, says that both Honses have adopted a resolution that South Carolina owes it to her own citizens to protect them and their property from every enemy, and that, for the purpose of military preparation for any emergency, the sum of $10,000 be appropriated.

The Senate also adopted a resolution, that, while still deferring to her Southern sisters, she respectfully announces to them that, in her judgment, the safety and honor of the slaveholding states imperatively demand a speedy separation from the free soil states of the confederacy, and earnestly invites and urges her sister states of the South to originate the movement of Southern separation, in which she pledges herself to unite.

Rev. Mr. Cilley, the child abductor, who was arrested a few days since by officer Lurvey, was brought as far as Moutreal;—and on arriving at that city, Cilley coolly told the officer that he could come no further with him. The officer was in a fix.—"What was to be done?" He telegraphed to Gov. Morrill for instructions, but was informed that he had no remedy. The offender was in a foreign country, beyond the jurisdiction of the authorities of the State, and the officer was obliged to "let him slide."—Portland Advertiser.

Thomas W. Paremlee, of West Bloomfield, N. Y., recently deceased, made a will giving $5000 to the School Fund of Connecticut, because long ago, when he was poor, the State loaned him money, which gave him a start in the world, and from which he was enabled to leave a comfortable amount of property, after paying off the loan and all other indebtedness.

We have seen beautiful poems written in ink; we have seen still more beautiful ones written on leaves and flowers, upon the hills and vales; but the most beautiful of all are written in flesh and blood.

A good ear cannot distinguish one sound from another, unless there is an interval of one-ninth of a second between the arrival of the two sounds.

I know the above testimony of my wife with regard to the salutary effect of Dr. Swett's Cough Drops to be correct. CHARLES C. RICKER.

CANAAN, Dec 11, 1841. "I have been troubled with the phthisic for a number of years, and have found more relief by using Dr. Swett's Cough Drops, than from all other medicines put together, though I have tried many. FANNY MINER.

I wish by this card to say to them, and to others afflicted, that the cough drops, prepared by Dr. Swett, of Portsmouth, is a valuable remedy. I have found nothing that gives relief so quick. STOVE STORE REMOVED.

URIAH BLAISDELL

Has removed his Store and Furnishing Establishment one door north, to the spacious and convenient store

Nos. 43 & 45 Market Street,

where he is receiving and arranging a large and valuable Stock of

STOVES, TIN WARE, &c.,

Which he offers for sale at wholesale and retail, at very low prices. He has a great variety of the best and most popular Stoves, among which are:

1. The Stewart Cook Stove, with the latest improvements. This is an air-tight Cook Stove, for Wood or Coal; it has moveable coverings, which can confine the heat in the stove, or let it out into the room; has a reservoir of hot water 10 or 20 gallons, and a tin closet beneath;—a top cover, which is a great institution for baking, and will keep a coal fire all night; it has a Dutch Oven for roasting in front of the Stove;—and it is every way a most convenient and durable Stove. There are 4 sizes.

The following recommendation of Stewart's Stove, is from an eminent engineer, and must be satisfactory to all who wish to understand the value of this excellent Stove:

Portsmouth, N. H., Nov. 5, 1859.

Mr. Blaisdell:—Seven years ago I moved to this city, and sold, before I came, a "Stewart's Air Tight Cooking Stove," which I had used about five years. During that time no repairs or expense had been made upon it. Since I have been here I have tried the various Cooking Stoves in use, and I think for economy and durability the "Stewart" excels them all. I wish you would take away the Stove I now have from my house, and set up one of Stewart's as soon as you can. Your ob't servant,

B. F. CHANDLER.

2. Boston & Maine Cook Stove;
3. White Mountain;
4. Empire State;
5. Enterprise;

BLOOD FOOD.

Dr. Bronson, having been so far reduced by consumption, as to be considered beyond all hope of recovery by the most eminent of the medical profession, and also by himself—a regular physician of twenty years' practice—as a last resort, conceived the idea of ANALYZING THE BLOOD, and applying the subject of physiology to the more immediate connection, and effect of the state of the blood upon the health and system. The result has been the production of this "BLOOD FOOD," from the use of which, Dr. Bronson was restored to perfect health. Within six months after its introduction, over 2000 consumptives were effectually cured by it. If you have any complaints of a consumptive tendency. Cough, Cold, Headache, Palpitation of the Heart, Loss of Appetite, or Pain in the Side, lose no time in procuring a bottle of the "BLOOD FOOD." If you are suffering from Nervous Debility, or your sleep is broken and disturbed, if your Spirits are depressed or your organs relaxed, you will find in this an unfailing remedy, by commencing with two drops. If your Liver is torpid or diseased in any manner whatever, one or two bottles will be sure to invigorate, and bring it into lively and healthful action. In the most inveterate cases of Dyspepsia, the patient can here find the most efficient and grateful relief. A benefit is always experienced after taking only one bottle. In Male or Female Complaints or Weaknesses, the sufferer, after trying other remedies in vain, may rest assured, that a certain cure will result from the use of two or three bottles. The "BLOOD FOOD" is effectual in all cases of Eruptions, Salt Rheum, Scrofulas, and other like complaints. Pale and emaciated children and adults are immediately benefitted by its use. It gives strength to the body, and color and beauty to the skin. Physicians of all schools are using it with wonderful success.

SHEET IRON STOVES, with and without ovens.

Scrofula, or King's Evil,
is a constitutional disease, a corruption of the blood, by which this fluid becomes vitiated, weak and poor. Being in the circulation it pervades the whole body, and may burst out in disease on any part of it. No organ is free from its attacks, nor is there one which it may not destroy. The scrofulous taint is variously caused by mercurial disease, low living, disordered or unhealthy food, impure air, filth and filthy habits, the depressing vices, and, above all, by the venereal infection. Whatever be its origin, it is hereditary in the constitution, descending "from parents to children unto the third and fourth generation;" indeed, it seems to be the rod of him who says, "I will visit the iniquities of the fathers upon their children."
Its effects commence by deposition from the blood of corrupt or ulcerous matter, which, in the lungs, liver, and internal organs, is termed tubercles; in the glands, swellings; and on the surface, eruptions or sores. This foul corruption, which genders in the blood, depresses the energies of life, so that scrofulous constitutions not only suffer from scrofulous complaints, but they have far less power to withstand the attacks of other diseases; consequently vast numbers perish by disorders which, although not scrofulous in their nature, are still rendered fatal by this taint in the system. Most of the consumption which decimates the human family has its origin directly in this scrofulous contamination; and many destructive diseases of the liver, kidneys, brain, and, indeed all of the organs, arise from or are aggravated by the same cause.
One quarter of all our people are scrofulous;—their persons are invaded by this lurking infection, and their health is undermined by it. To cleanse it from the system we must renovate the blood by an alterative medicine, and invigorate it by healthy food and exercise. Such a medicine we supply in
Compound Extract of Sarsaparilla,
the most effectual remedy which the medical skill of our times can devise for this everywhere prevailing and fatal malady. It is combined from the most active remedials that have been discovered for the expurgation of this foul disorder from the blood, and the rescue of the system from its destructive consequences. Hence it should be employed for the cure of not only scrofula, but also those other affections which arise from it, such as ERUPTIONS AND ERUPTIVE DISEASES, ULCERS, PIMPLES, BLOTCHES, TUMORS, SALT RHEUMS, SCALD HEAD, SYPHILIS AND SYPHILITIC AFFECTIONS, MERCURIAL DISEASES, DROPSY, NEURALGIA OR TIC DOULOUREUX, DEBILITY, DYSPEPSIA AND INDIGESTION, ERYSIPELAS, ROSE OR ST. ANTHONY'S FIRE, and indeed the whole class of complaints arising from IMPURITY OF THE BLOOD. The popular belief in "impurity of the blood" is founded on truth, for scrofula is a degeneration of the blood. The particular purpose and virtue of this Sarsaparilla is to purify and regenerate this vital fluid, without which sound health is impossible in contaminated constitutions.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills.
FOR ALL THE PURPOSES OF A FAMILY PHYSIC, are so composed that disease within the range of their action can rarely withstand or evade them. Their penetrating properties search and cleanse, and invigorate every portion of the human organism, correcting its diseased action, and restoring its healthy vitalities. As a consequence of these properties, the invalid who is bowed down with pain or physical debility is astonished to find his health or energy restored by a remedy at once so simple and inviting.
Not only do they cure the every-day complaints of every body, but also many formidable and dangerous diseases. The agent below named is pleased to furnish gratis my American Almanac, containing certificates of their cures and directions for their use in the following complaints: Costiveness, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Dysentery, Foul Stomach, Erysipelas, Headache, Piles, Rheumatism, Eruptions and Skin Diseases, Liver Complaint, Dropsy, Tetter, Tumors and Salt Rheum, Worms, Gout, Neuralgia, as a dinner Pill, and for Purifying the blood.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral
COUGHS, COLDS, INFLUENZA, HOARSENESS, CROUP, BRONCHITIS, INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION, and for the relief of Consumptive Patients in advanced stages of the disease.
So wide is the field of its usefulness and so numerous are the cases of its cures, that almost every section of country abounds in persons publicly known, who have been restored from alarming and even desperate diseases of the lungs by its use. When once tried, its superiority over every other medicine of its kind is too apparent to escape observation, and where its virtues are known, the public no longer hesitate what antidote to employ for the distressing and dangerous affections of the pulmonary organs that are incident to our climate. While many inferior remedies thrust upon the community have failed and been discarded, this has gained friends by every trial, conferred benefits on the afflicted they can never forget, and produced cures too numerous and too remarkable to be forgotten.

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

MONDAY, DEC. 26, 1859.

THE SENATE COMMITTEES.—The list of Senate Committees shows the same overbearing sectionality which has hitherto characterized the democratic majority in that body, says the Boston Journal. Every year the predominance of the free over the slave States, in population and business interests, is growing more marked; and yet all the controling posts of legislation are retained by the minority sections with increasing exclusiveness. Thus, while there are thirty-three States represented in the Senate, the Chairmanship of sixteen out of the twenty-two committees is given to eleven Southern States; Virginia takes charge of both Foreign Relati and Finance; Alabama presides over Commerce; Florida is deemed the best state to manage Naval Affairs, and also to look after the Post Office, although the Chairman is a relative of the Postmaster General. Sixteen chairmanships are assumed by Southern Democrats, and six of a far less important character given to their Northern partisans. The Republicans, though representing the most powerful states of the confederacy, are wholly ignored as chairmen, and are assigned subordinate positions, in number not at all proportioned to their strength. Thus, the Republican Senators number just two-thirds of the Democrats, and as the latter have 90 places on the Committees, the former ought to be allowed at least 60, especially when the chairmanships and leading positions are wholly closed to them. But they actually get only 40 places, always at the foot of the Committees. With a single exception, they are suffered to have but two members, on a committee of seven. Talk about "sectional parties!" Could there be one more decisively and offensively so than that which thus arrogates to itself the complete control of the Senate of the United States?

WHO HELPS HELPER.—Obadiah, the New York correspondent of the Independent Democrat says "It is supposed that Clark of Missouri has a per centage on the sales of Helper's book. The sales since his advertisement of it in a speech in the national town meeting, have been immense, and Mr. Clark has done what the Republican Committee of the publication of Helper's compendium found it impossible for them to do, get it out and perused by the people. Everybody wishes to read it, to see the hidden treason revealed in fomentinsurrections. Helper has been helped out of all his difficulties and comes up (with Clark's aid) out of great tribulation. He is about purchasing a splendid brown stone residence on the Fifth Avenue, and will install as mistress of the mansion one of N.Y. fairest damsels, the daughter of a millionaire. A second diamond wedding is to be the impending crisis of Helper's fate, when he will lead to the altar one who will be to him a help mate in the irrepressible conflict that is coming."

VIRGINIA.—The Legislature of Virginia, by a joint resolution, has accepted the flag presented that Commonwealth by the citizens of Philadelphia, receiving it as a renewal of the evidence of its donors' devoted patriotism.

Col. Davis and staff, with a large amount of ordnance stores, have returned to Richmond. Only one company remains at Charlestown. Quiet is entirely restored.

Gov. Wise don't believe the Union is in danger. He condemns as the supreme of folly and pusillanimity the getting up of this agitation in Congress upon the little, contemptible issues of Helper's book, and intimates his entire distrust of any countervailing legislation that may be resorted to by Virginia. The imposition of heavy imposts upon goods imported from the North would avail but little to check importation from that source, in the absence of facilities for carrying on a foreign trade and home manufactures. The result would be to increase the price upon the consumer.

MARRIAGE OF COUSINS.—The Gover- of Kentucky recommends the Legislature of that State to prohibit by law, under severe penalties, the marriage of cousins. He says that the imbeciles, insane, deaf-mutes, and blind in the different asylums of that State, who are the offspring of cousins, are from sixteen to twenty per cent. of the whole number; and he contends that it is the right and duty of the State to protect herself against the evil and expense by forbidding such evils, which nature plainly forbids, by the natural penalty she uniformly inflicts.

☞ It is stated there will be proof in Washington that Mr. Davis of Indiana denounced the Dred Scott decision in his district, a fact which has been denied, in order to conciliate the South to his election to the Speakership.

☞ Geo. Wilcox, a teacher in Holliston, Mass., has been fined $21 for an assault, with a poker, on one of his pupils, named Theodore Sherman.

☞ The Union meeting at Washington, on Friday evening, (an unlucky time,) did not amount to much. The dispatch to the Associated Press says:

It was attended by from 400 to 500 persons. Resolutions were offered denunciatory of the fire-eaters of the South and the fanatics of the North, and proposing as a remedy for the present evils to rally around the Constitution and the Union.

A substitute was offered, declaring that this meeting was inopportune and unnecessary, which the majority favored.

There was much confusion throughout the proceeings, and the meeting separated in disorder, to the music of a full band.—The falling of the platform, with many persons theron, was among the incidents.

A similar meeting was held in Newark, N. J., the same evening, which the dispatch says was "large and enthusiastic. The resolutions were conservative and soundly Democratic. They were passed unanimously. Eloquent addresses were made, deprecating agitation."

The Memphis Argus relates that a slave of Dr. Ashby, named Bawley, having obtained the consent of his master, volunteered, and proceeded to Charlestown, Va., declaring that he was "bent on having a shot at an abolitionist."

This intelligent and benevolent Bawley had probably been taught that abolitionists eat negroes, as the South Sea Islanders eat missionaries. If otherwise, and slaves generally felt like Bawley, they might be furnished with arms, and no white guards would be needed. Black guards would make all safe.

☞ The Rockland Democrat gives the particulars of the burning of the Commercial House. How the fire took is unknown, but it is supposed from a defect in a chimney. The fire seems to have made much progress behind the ceilings and partitions before discovered. Before the occupants had all left, Mrs. Dennis, wife of the proprietor, was overcome by the smoke and had to be borne out. The death of Mr. Sears, and the injury to Messrs. Love and Ulmer, were the saddest features of the event. Mr. Sears is a son of Dr. Sears of California, but formerly of Rockland. The house was owned by Horace Beals of New York, proprietor of the Togus House. The loss is said to fall very heavily on Mr. Dennis, the keeper of the hotel. There was $5000 insurance on the house, and $3800 on the furniture.

☞ The New York Tribune says Old Brown was perhaps distinguished for no one thing more than his knowledge of localities—every place was fixed in his mind with remarkable precision. It is stated that on the back of a letter Brown left for his wife, he wrote minute directions of the route she should take with his body, giving the names of the hotels, and other needful things, and among others was marked against Vergennes, "buy a little fish." On the route taken by Mrs. Brown with her husband's body, these directions were minutely carried out, the fish was bought, and other things done.

☞ Half a dozen young ladies lately took the white veil, at Reading, Pa., a place famous for its coal. From whom they took it is not stated, but the convent appears to be taking them in. The dear, silly creatures were rigged out in bridal dresses, with orange flowers on their pretty, foolish heads, and each with a "bokay" in her little paw. A pretty way, indeed, of going thro' the opening process of renouncing the pomps and vanities of this wicked world!

☞ The most important social event of the week, says the London News, is an imperial edict. But it does not proceed from the master of France, but from its beautiful and gentle mistress, the Empress Eugenie. Through a distinguished lady, whose name is appended to the last law of fashions, the Countess de Renneville, the sovereign who brought crinoline into favor has signified her command that crinoline shall be discontinued.

☞ It is proposed to have what may be termed a great agricultural "protracted meeting" at Yale College during the present winter, to last throughout the whole month of February. The exercises are to consist of lectures by leading reliable men, eminent in the different departments of agriculture, stock-raising, etc. About eighty lectures are provided for,—two to four each day,—each lecture to be followed by conversational exercises, questions to the lecturers, and discussions.

☞ Conrad Willauer, the Swiss soldier who rescued Mrs. Doane and Edward Perkins's family, of Boston, from massacre at Perugia, last summer, has been rewarded by Mr. Perkins, who has purchased the freedom from military service of the brave soldier, made him a present of a sum of money, paid his expenses from Rome to Switzerland, and relieved the little farm belonging to his family of a debt with which it was encumbered.

"If you want decidedly to annoy your enemies, show them that you have common sense." So said the King of Prussia in a letter to Rousseau.

☞ The U. S. Senate, Friday, Dec. 23, adjourned to Tuesday.

In the House, Mr. Farnsworth of Ill., being entitled to the floor, offered to give way for a motion to ballot for Speaker, but Mr. Ruffin and other Democrats objected, and insisted that he should either proceed or abandon the floor. Mr. F. then proceeded with his speech.

He put questions to the disunion democrats, those in favor of reopening the slave trade, &c. —and in particular, Mr. Farnsworth asked Mr. Crawford if he endorsed the reopening of the slave trade, as recommended in "Black Diamonds."

Mr. Crawford replied that he had never read that book.

Mr. Farnsworth asked whether he was in favor of reopening the slave trade?

Mr. Crawford replied that, under a particular state of things he would be, but at present he opposed it, as did the Democratic party of Georgia.

Mr. Farnsworth said it had been asked whether he endorsed Helper's book. He had never read it entirely, and never seen a copy till he came to this House. So far as any pages in that book could be fairly construed into recommending insurrection and emancipation of slaves by violence, he did not endorse it. He was, however, in favor of the inculcation of such doctrines as lead to peaceful emancipation. He thought some passages in that book badly expressed and worded, and that they could not be justified. But so far as that book quotes the language of Jefferson, Madison, Lee, Henry, Pinckney, and other lights of the revolution, he endorsed it. The passages to which gentlemen on the other side take exception, are the doctrines of Judge Douglas, to oppose slavery by unfriendly legislation. So far as slavery exists in the States, he did not believe in Constitutional power to legislate concerning it.

He had no fears of the dissolution of the Union. It had been said so often, that the people had got used to the threats. If the Union was to be dissolved, he hoped they would do it during the administration of Mr. Buchanan, so the disgrace would not attach to a Republican administration.—Let the Democrats elect whom they please, the Republicans will submit, and when they get into power the Democrats must submit, and a Republican administration will try to take care of the Union.

Don't let us hear any more of this miserable cry about dissolving the Union. Those men who fill the galleries, claquers for disunion sentiments,—don't they know that if the Union is dissolved, these marble palaces will become the habitations of bats and rats —will become stone quarries, where marble will be cheap.

On a vote for Speaker, the result was:—whole no. of votes 212; nec. to choice 107; Sherman had 103; Millson 27; Gilmer 19; Bocock 10; Scattering 53.

That pious personage, Dan Sickles, assured the Representatives to whom he spoke, but who don't speak to him, that the religious sentiment of the North is against the Republicans. How long has he been authorized to act as organ for the religious world? He thinks himself a modern Daniel, and so he is, a very modern one; and a lion besides, but with teeth drawn and claws pared. He should go to his den.—Trav.

☞ James Powers, a workman on the new State House at Columbia, S. C., being charged with seditious language, was treated to thirty-nine lashes, and a coat of tar and feathers, on Saturday night last, by a committee of vigilants.

A machine for picking geese has been invented. It must be a plagiarism, as a perfect machine of that kind has been known ever since the days of Adam, and having ten capital pickers and stealers, not to be surpassed for efficacy by any human human invention.

The young lady in Saco, Miss Small, who was burnt so shockingly with fluid a few weeks ago, has since died. She was a great sufferer. This should prove a severe warning to those who make use of fluid.

A gentlemau rode up to a public house in the country and asked, "Who is the master of this house?" "I am, sir," replied the landlord; "my wife has been dead three weeks."

Most persons are particularly spiteful against those foibles in others, which they themselves have. They remind us of a monkey scratching and grinning at the mimic monkey in the glass.

The Rockland Democrat says, "Bath may export some hay—and why shouldn't she? A town that is 'going to grass,' ought to do something at that business!"

Perform a good deed, speak a kind word, bestow a pleasant smile, and you will receive the same in return.

A chap, on being asked what he would do if he were banished to the woods, said he thought he should split.

Justice consists in doing no injury to man or woman; civility, in giving them no offence.

The more honesty a man has, the less he affects the air of a saint; the affection of sanctity is a blotch on the face of piety.

"Alas! the rarity of charity!" exclaimed a pauper, upon receiving a half-cooked piece of beef.

In what ship, and in what capacity, do young ladies like to engage? In court-ship, as marry-ners.

A crown will not cure the headache, or a golden slipper the gout.

CREDITOR'S PRAYER.—That short people would not be so long.—Sat. Pres.

It is the best proof of the virtues of a family circle to see a happy fireside.

Few pity us for our misfortunes; thousand hate us for our success.

Diseases of Old Age.

As man approaches his allotted three score and ten years the vital powers begin to fail; stimulants of various kinds are used to strengthen the naturally failing system, such as wines, bark, &c. Instead of these, let the aged keep up the supply of the true strengthening element, iron, by the PERUVIAN SYRUP, which offers a protoxide of that metal ready for immediate absorption.

Dr. Hostetter's Bitters have received the warmest encomiums from the press and people throughout the Union. As a valuable tonic for the cure of Dyspepsia, Flatulence, Constipation and general nervous debility, it cannot be approached. Every day new cases of its great effect are chronicled through our public journals. There is nothing equal to the enjoyment, to that which the afflicted experience when using this valuable specific. Its mild tone, its sure and vigorous action upon a disordered stomach, and the cleansing of the entire human body should recommend it to all classes of our community. All that will be necessary to convince the skeptical of its healthy effects, is to purchase a bottle and be convinced.

Sold by druggists and dealers generally, everywhere.

Among the restoratives which Nature has supplied to relieve the afflictions of humanity there is no more favorite one for a certain class of diseases than the "medicinal gum" of the Wild Cherry Tree; but however valuable it is, its power to heal, to soothe, to relieve, and to cure, is enhanced ten-fold by scientific and judicious combination with other ingredients, in themselves of equal worth. This happy mingling exists in that

Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry,

Whose value in curing Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Whooping Cough, Croup, Asthma, Pulmonary Affection and Incipient Consumption, is inestimable.

HOME TESTIMONY.

"Combination and a form indeed"

BOSTON, April 18, 1852.
No. 48 Union St.

Mr. Seth W. Fowle,—Dear Sir:—Your invaluable medicine, I can truly say, has literally snatched me from the grave. Last July I was attacked by a sudden cold, which resulted in a very severe Cough, with violent pains in the side and chest. I became so much reduced, that my friends frankly told me that I must die. At this crisis, I heard of Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, and immediately sent for a bottle. The effect produced was indeed wonderful. My physician, one of the most respectable in Boston, who had previously told me that a cure was hopeless, came in, and I informed him what I had taken. He examined the Balsam, and advised me to continue the use of it, since which time I have continued to improve daily; and the same physician who had given me up, told me, a few days since, that I might yet live many years.

Respectfully, MARY ROWE.

We can cheerfully testify to the truth of the above statement, Mrs. Rowe having been an inmate of our family. WILLIAM DENNETT.

Among the very large number of Newspapers that I furnish, I will call particular attention to but two—THE NEW YORK LEDGER—a paper that excels all others in enterprise and ability. The Hon. Edward Everett will continue to write for the Ledger, together with all the best talent in the world. THE NEW YORK TRIBUNE, the best paper in the world, for the news.

In calling the attention of the public to my list of Magazines and Newspapers, I would caution all against subscribing for Magazines, Newspapers, or other works, through irresponsible and transient persons, or travelling agents; for in nine cases out of ten you will be swindled and cheated.

If you wish to take any Magazine or newspaper, subscribe of some responsible agent in town. Hundreds of dollars are lost every year by subscribing for works of strangers and travelling agents, and by being induced to subscribe by the thousands of contrivances to cheat the public—such as Art Unions, Premiums, Cosmopolitan Art Associations, and various humbugs to entrap the unwary. Keep clear of these, and pay your money to those whom you know to be responsible. The subscriber has been in the business fifteen years, and will guarantee to furnish any publication as cheap as can be obtained.

☞ To-day being observed by all the Chroniclers, as a Christmas holiday—we shall issue no Daily on Tuesday morning.

☞ The oldest inhabitant never saw better sleighing than we are now having; and all the bells and bells ought to be trotted out to-day, if good weather.

☞ Several young ladies and gentlemen, while skating on the South Mill-Pond last Friday, broke through the ice, and narrowly escaped drowning. But the reports concerning the accident have been greatly exaggerated.

☞ The best Christmas Present we have heard of, was one made by a lady in this city, to her liege lord, on Friday night or Saturday morning. A friend of ours terms it a "pretty loud present." At any rate, the boy makes out the old-fashioned family of a round dozen—now unfortunately almost out of fashion; and while we congratulate the yet young recipients of God's gracious gifts' in such profusion, let us hope:

"May all the girls be chaste and fair,
And all the boys be brave."

☞ A meeting of the Trustees of the "Rockingham Fair," was held in Exeter, on Saturday. It was voted to authorize the Treasurer to hire $100, to pay all premiums due, at once.

The Society have now about $1000 in vested funds. The deficit of the late Fair at Exeter, was about $700. The general desire seems to be, to hold the next Fair in Portsmouth, where the first experiment of the sort netted $100 or more.

☞ At a full meeting of the Mercantile Library Association, held on Friday evening, Dec. 23, it was Voted, That so much of the records as relates to a resolution passed at a previous meeting, relating to John Brown and expressing sympathy for him and his cause, be expunged from the records of the Association.

Voted, That the Secretary cause the above to be published in all the city papers.

J. B. BURLEIGH, Sec.

THE STAR VOCALISTS.—They sing at the Temple to-morrow and Wednesday evenings. Their concerts are what they advertise them, unique: and no company, of the same number, in this country, gives so much variety and novelty for so low a price.

They are popular, because they suit the popular taste. One great point in their singing is the distinctness with which they give their words; and those who like to hear words as well as music, will appreciate their performances. As a Vocalist, Miss Marsh stands deservedly high, possessing a very fine voice, and what is more, knowing how to use it. Mr. Brown's vocal abilities are of a high order, and as a comic performer, he stands at the head of his profession, and nightly convulses his hearers with laughter at his inimiteble impersonations. ††††

WHERE TO PROCURE HOLIDAY GIFTS. This can best be answered by attentive reading of the advertisements on every page of the Chronicle.

☞ Washington dispatches state that the Harper's Ferry Investigating Committee has sent to Texas for Richard Realf, Ex-Secretary of the Brown Government. It is understood that Thaddeus Wyatt of New York, President of National Kansas Aid Committee, Gen. Pomeroy of Atchison, Gov. C. Robinson, Martin F. Conway, General Agent of Emigrant Aid Society at Lawrence, Kansas, Capt J. Montgomery and others will be summoned to appear as witnesses before that committee.

☞ The noted yacht Wanderer, whose career heretofore in the slave trade has excited so much interest, entered Boston harbor Saturday. She left Savannah, Oct. 20, in defiance of the revenue authorities of that port, for the purpose of making another voyage to Africa. The yacht came home in charge of the sailing master, Henry Welton, who furnishes an interesting account of their adventures.

NEW RAIL CAR BREAK.—In the Boston Superior Court the jury returned a verdict for Barnard Friedman, assessing damages of $262,50 against the Boston and Worcester Railroad, because the train was not stopped long enough at the Brighton station, where the plaintiff attempted to get aboard, and was dragged for some distance, and seriously injured.

ST. LOUIS, Dec. 23.—The steamer Dilligent, from Alton, is aground on the chain ten miles above this city; 60 to 80 persons are on board of her, without provisions, and the ice prevents any communication being made with the shore. Strong efforts are making to keep them from starving.

☞ The stones on the corners of the Exchange, in Boston, are larger than any single stone in Cleopatra's Needle; and those now in erection on the U.S. Treasury building, at Washington, are much heavier than any stone of Pompey's Pillar or the Pyramids of Egypt.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 23.—It is reported that the President will not send his Message to Congress until the 3d of January. Copies of the Message have been forwarded to New York, where they will be retained by the Postmaster until the reading in Congress is announced.

☞ The funeral of Edwin Coppie, of John Brown's army, took place near Hanover, Ohio, on the 18th inst., and was conducted according to Quaker rites. Over 2000 persons attended the funeral.

☞ The Asia brings the intelligence of the death of Thomas DeQuincey, which happened on Thursday, the 8th of December, at Edinburgh, he having considerably passed the term of three score years and ten. For many months past he has resided in Edinburgh, preferring the town to his house at Lasswade, mainly for the convenience of superintending the passage through the press of the collected edition of his works, now issuing by Messrs. Hogg, and of which the fourteenth and last volume is nearly ready for publication.

FROM CALIFORNIA—OVERLAND.—San Francisco, Dec. 2—noon.—Judge Terry, indicted for killing Senator Brodrick in a duel was arraigned on the 28th, to plead in the Court of Sessions of San Francisco.

There were about $600,000 in the State Treasury, on the 1st inst.

Snow had fallen to the depth of four feet in the Sierra Nevada Mountains, notwithstanding which, says the Placerville Observer, we see many persons on foot, horseback, or with trains of pack mules, putting on to reach the Horshoe mines.

Over three tons of silver ore arrived at San Francisco on the 29th ult.

Encouraging news from Carson Valley continues to be received. New discoveries of gold and silver, and latterly of lead, were frequently reported. Henry Meredith, of Nevada recently purchased one-fortieth share in the original Comstock Silver Mines for $10,000.

The San Francisco Standard says that if the levee is not instantly repaired the city will be inundated.

The month of November was one of almost continued storms and rains, and has given an augury of an unusual wet season.

The steamer Panama arrived at San Francisco on the 28th, bringing Oregon dates of the 25th ult.

The steamer La Bouchere arrived on the 29th, from Victoria, bringing 154 passengers, and dates to the 24th ult. On the 22d, a steamer arrived at Victoria, from New Westminster, with about $100,000 in gold, and 175 passengers. The passengers give a flattering account of the upper Frazer River digging, but the prospects of a severe winter were causing the entire abandonment of that region till next spring.—Lower Frazer River was full of ice, and the miners were disposed to stay during the winter. About 1500 miners were at the Vancouver diggings.

A Democratic Convention had been held in Oregon City. Sixteen delegates from eight counties withdrew, leaving eleven counties represented. Those who remained selected Gen. Lane and Judge Deady as delegates to the Charleston Convention, instructing them to vote for Gen. Joe Lane for President. The seceders resolved to support the nominee of the Charleston Convention, but selecting no delegates.

☞ We have just received the first instalment of the John Brown literature, viz. a pamphlet of 112 pages, published by Jas. Campbell, Boston, called The John Brown Invasion: and professing to give an authentic history of the Harper's Ferry tragedy, trials, and executions, with a lithographic likeness of Brown, and the Arms of Virginia. LAWRENCE, July 27, 1854. "I hereby testify that the Cough Drops prepared by Dr. Simeon Swett, have given me very great relief from the whooping cough of late, and I would advise all who have a visit from that distressing complaint, to use it freely. MARY N. RICKER.

I know the above testimony of my wife with regard to the salutary effect of Dr. Swett's Cough Drops to be correct. CHARLES C. RICKER.

CANAAN, Dec 11, 1841. "I have been troubled with the phthisic for a number of years, and have found more relief from using Dr. Swett's Cough Drops, than from all other medicines put together, though I have tried many. FANNY MINER.

EXETER, March 3, 1841. "Many of my brethren in the ministry, frequently complain of oppressed lungs and hoarseness of voice, after frequent labors. I wish by this card to say to them, and to all others affected, that the cough drops, prepared by Dr. Swett, of Portsmouth, is a valuable remedy. I have found nothing that gives relief so quick. Let every suffering preacher take a phial and try it. Eld. EDWIN BURNHAM.

Fousel's Pabulum Vitæ.

☞ THE GREAT FRENCH REMEDY possesses extraordinary properties for the speedy and permanent cure of CONSUMPTION, BRONCHITIS, COUGHS, COLDS, and all PULMONARY DISEASE.

This celebrated specific is now universally acknowledged to be infinitely superior to all other preparations for the cure of Pulmonary Disease both from its innocent nature and most astonishing curative properties; it being the only remed known that will arrest the development of Tubercles in the Lungs, and restore the vital functions of the pulmonary organs to their normal condition. Its invaluable properties have obtained for it the higher recommendation and praise from some of the most eminent physicians and chemists in the country while the best and surest proofs of its merits are afforded by the numerous testimonials of its great efficacy in conquering disease, which are constantly received from our most respectable citizens. Invalids in all stages of pulmonary disease should not fail to give it a trial, as it can be administered to the most delicate and feeble with perfect safety and certain relief; and we herewith insert a few testimonials for their encouragement, selected from hundreds of like import.

Certificate of Dr. A. A. HAYES, in reference to the unequalled virtues of this great discovery.

This preparation, by chemical analysis, was proved to be free from opium, or any of its compounds; nor were any of the alkaloids present It does not contain any mercurial or mineral substance, but consists wholly of volatile, diffusible agents, which afford vapors freely at a moderate temperature. Most of the substances present are officinally used in alleviating pulmonary disease; but the device by which they are combined is new and original, and adapts the compound to inhalation, or other modes of administration.

Respectfully,
A. A. HAYES, M. D., State Assayer.
16 Boylston St., Boston, Dec. 1857.

In the Boston Transcript of December 11, 1858, the editor says:—

"We have seen a letter from an eminent physician of this city, in which he says:—'I have used Fousel's Pabulum Vitæ in several cases of Bronchial disease, and in some with great benefit. I know of no remedy equal to it for children, where a minute dose is essential; or for adults of irritable stomach, or having a tendency to reject ordinary medicines given for coughs, etc. I shall continue to use it in my practice.'"

Testimonial from the Sisters of Charity, of the St. Vincent's Orphan Asylum, in Boston.
BOSTON, July 31, 1858.

To Mr. F. LAFORME, Agent:

"The Sisters are happy to state that, having used Fousel's Pabulum Vitæ, they have found it efficacious in several instances, for bad coughs and colds. Signed by the SISTERS OF CHARITY.

Testimonial from a well-known Apothecary's Clerk.
BOSTON, March 10, 1859.

J. F. LAFORME, Esq.:

Dear Sir—I had been suffering for a considerable length of time from a severe cough, and had in vain had recourse to nearly all the remedies in use. My cough began to give me much uneasiness from its serious effects on my system, when three days' use of Fousel's Pabulum Vitæ restored me to complete health. The medicine being new in this market, I had recourse to it last; but I can now confidently recommend it as the best medicine I know of. Yours, truly,
CHAS. H. FOSTER.

At Fred Brown's, Washington, corner State St.

In the Boston Post, Sept. 24, 1858, the editor says:

"An extraordinary cure of Consumption has recently come to our knowledge, effected through the instrumentality of Fousel's Pabulum Vitæ; the evidence of which is in the handwriting of the subject, Mr. Wm. F. Brigham, No. 130 Albany st., in this city. It seems that for eighteen months he had been exhibiting all the usual symptoms of Consumption, and that after having had recourse to the skill of various physicians, without benefit he had to abandon his business and be confined to his house. Hearing of Fousel's Pabulum Vitæ, and of several remarkable cures effected by it, in cases as desperate as his own, he concluded to try it as a forlorn hope. The result has been most happy—he has now entirely recovered, and is engaged in his usual pursuits. It is such well authenticated cases as this that we take pleasure in laying before our readers, since, by so doing, many valuable lives may be saved, and much good effected.

It is sold at the low price of 50 cents, and $1 00 per bottle, thus placing it within the reach of all classes. F. J. LAFORME, sole Agent, Boston. M. S. THE

WORTHY OF
Universal Confidence and Patronage.

FOR STATESMEN, JUDGES, CLERGYMEN.

Ladies and Gentlemen, in all parts of the world testify to the efficacy of Prof. O. J. Wood's Hair Restorative, and gentlemen of the Press are unanimous in its praise. A few testimonials only can be here given; see circular for more, and it will be impossible for you to doubt.

47 Wall Street, New York, Dec. 20, 1858.

GENTLEMEN:—Your note of the 15th inst., has been received, saying that you had heard that I had been benefitted by the use of Wood's Hair Restorative, and requesting my certificate of the fact if I had no objection to give it.

I award it to you cheerfully, because I think it due. My age is about 50 years; the color of my hair auburn, and inclined to curl. Some five or six years since it began to turn gray, and the scalp on the crown of my head to lose its sensibility and dandruff to form upon it. Each of these disagreeabilities increased with time, and about four months since a fourth was added to them, by hair falling off the top of my head and threatening to make me bald.

In this unpleasant predicament, I was induced to try Wood's Hair Restorative, mainly to arrest the falling off of my hair, for I had really no expectation that gray hair could ever be restored to its original color except from dyes. I was, however, greatly surprised to find after the use of two bottles only, that not only was the falling off arrested, but the color was restored to the gray hairs and sensibility to the scalp, and dandruff ceased to form on my head, very much to the gratification of my wife, at whose solicitation I was induced to try it.

For this, among the many obligations I owe to her sex, I strongly recommend all husbands who value the admiration of their wives to profit by my example, and use it if growing gray or getting bald. Very Respectfully,
BENJ. A. LAVENDER.

To O. J. Wood & Co., 444 Broadway, N. Y.

Siamaston, Ala., July 20th, 1859.

To Prof. O. J. Wood: Dear Sir: Your "Hair Restorative" has done my hair so much good since I commenced the use of it, that I wish to make known to the PUBLIC its effects on the hair, which are great. A man or woman may be nearly deprived of hair, and by a resort to your "Hair Restorative," the hair will return more beautiful than ever; at least this is my experience. Believe it all! Yours truly,
WM. H. KENEDY.

P. S.—You can publish the above if you like.—By publishing in our Southern papers you will get more patronage soon. I see several of your certificates in the Mobile Mercury, a strong Southern paper. W. H. K.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.

Professor O. J. Wood:—Dear Sir:—Having had the misfortune to lose the best portion of my hair, from the effects of the yellow fever, in New Orleans in 1853, I was induced to make a trial of your preparation, and found it to be the very thing needed. My hair is now thick and glossy, and no words can express my obligations to you in giving to the afflicted such a treasure.
FINLEY JOHNSON.

The Restorative is put up in bottles of three sizes, viz: large, medium, and small; the small holds half a pint, and retails for one dollar per bottle; the medium holds at least twenty per cent. more in proportion than the small, retails for two dollars per bottle; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent. more in proportion, and retails for $3 a bottle.

STOVE-STORE REMOVED.

URIAH BLAISDELL

Has removed his Stove and Furnishing Establishment one door north, to the spacious and convenient store

Nos. 43 & 45 Market Street,

where he is receiving and arranging a large and valuable Stock of

STOVES, TIN WARE, &c.,

Which he offers for sale at wholesale and retail, at very low prices. He has a great variety of the best and most popular Stoves, among which are:

1. The Stewart Cook Stove, with the latest improvements. This is an air-tight Cook Stove, for Wood or Coal; it has moveable coverings, which can confine the heat in the stove, or let it out into the room; has a reservoir of hot water 10 or 20 gallons, and a tin closet beneath;—a top cover, which is a great institution for baking, and will keep a coal fire all night; it has a Dutch Oven for roasting in front of the Stove;—and it is every way a most convenient and durable Stove. There are 4 sizes.

The following recommendation of Stewart's Stove, is from an eminent engineer, and must be satisfactory to all who wish to understand the value of this excellent Stove:

Portsmouth, N. H., Nov. 5, 1859.

Mr. Blaisdell:—Seven years ago I moved to this city, and sold, before I came, a "Stewart's Air Tight Cooking Stove," which I had used about five years. During that time no repairs or expense had been made upon it. Since I have been here I have tried the various Cooking Stoves in use, and I think for economy and durability the "Stewart" excels them all. I wish you would take away the Stove I now have from my house, and set up one of Stewart's as soon as you can. Your ob't servant,
B. F. CHANDLER.

2. Boston & Maine Cook Stove;
3. White Mountain;
4. Empire Stove;
5. Enterprise;
6. Exchange;
7. Dining Room Cook Stoves, and others.

PARLOR STOVES.

SEAVEY'S COAL AND GAS BURNER, superseding everything else of the kind, as a parlor Coal Stove.

THE MAGEE COAL STOVE, highly recommended and esteemed by many.

All these, and many other articles, too numerous to mention, will be sold at great bargains.

BLOOD FOOD.

Dr. Bronson, having been so far reduced by consumption, as to be considered beyond all hope of recovery by the most eminent of the medical profession, and also by himself—a regular physician of twenty years' practice—as a last resort, conceived the idea of ANALYZING THE BLOOD, and applying the subject of physiology to the more immediate connection, and effect of the state of the blood upon the health and system. The result has been the production of this "BLOOD FOOD," from the use of which, Dr. Bronson was restored to perfect health. Within six months after its introduction, over 2000 consumptives were effectually cured by it. If you have any complaints of a consumptive tendency, Cough, Cold, Headache, Palpitation of the Heart, Loss of Appetite, or Pain in the Side, lose no time in procuring a bottle of the "BLOOD FOOD." If you are suffering from Nervous Debility, or your sleep is broken and disturbed, if your Spirits are depressed or your organs relaxed, you will find in this an unfailing remedy, by commencing with ten drops. If your Liver is torpid or diseased in any manner whatever, one or two bottles will be sure to invigorate, and bring it into lively and healthful action. In the most inveterate cases of Dyspepsia, the patient can here find the most efficient and grateful relief. A benefit is always experienced after taking only one bottle. In Male or Female Complaints or Weaknesses, the sufferer, after trying other remidies in vain, may rest assured, that a certain cure will result from the use of two or three bottles. The "BLOOD FOOD" is effectual in all cases of Eruptions, Salt Rheum, Scrofulas, and other like complaints. Pale and emaciated children and adults are immediately benefitted by its use. It gives strength to the body, and color and beauty to the skin. Physicians of all schools are using it with wonderful success.

STOVES AND FURNACES

FRANK JONES,

61 MARKET ST., PORTSMOUTH,

Having received a part of his Winter Stock of

SUPERIOR COOKING STOVES,

would invite the attention of those about purchasing, to the largest and best selected stock of COOKING STOVES, of the most approved patterns and valuable kinds to be found in this market; among which may be found

THE CLIPPER, BOSTON & MAINE,
EMPIRE STATE, WHITE MOUNTAIN,
REPUBLIC, BANNER, &c.,

with many others, for wood or coal, which will be sold at such prices as shall defy competition.

The Combination Stove and Range.

One of the greatest inventions of the age, for Cooking purposes,—made expressly for large families, boarding houses, hotels, &c.; or wherever a great amount of Cooking is required in the shortest possible time, it having 3 large ovens, 6 boiler holes and separate apartments for baking, broiling, frying or roasting, requiring no more fuel than any ordinary Cooking Stove. It is warranted to give entire satisfaction in every particular in point of economy, convenience, or ease of management; as we believe it to be far ahead of anything of the kind yet introduced into this market. We therefore ask an examination of the "Combination Stove & Range," feeling confident that it supersedes all others for which it is intended, and will be sold at a very low price.

THE MAGEE.

The Calebrated Magee Patent

Ventilating Parlor Stove,

All sizes—acknowledged by every one to be the BEST STOVE IN THE WORLD.

The fire can be kept through the entire season without once going out, giving the greatest amount of heat from the least fuel of any other Stove known.

The heat can be regulated to the mildest as well as the coldest weather, and at the same time perfectly ventilating the apartment in which they are used. We have sold hundreds of them the past year, and have testimonials of the highest order, acknowledging their superiority over every other Stove yet invented. To every one in search of the best Stove that can be found, we would say,

"Try the Magee."

PARLOR STOVES

of the most approved kinds.

STORE, OFFICE & SHIP STOVES;

BOX AND CYLINDER do.

SHEET IRON STOVES, with and without ovens.

Parlor Cook Stoves.

New patterns this season—for wood or coal,—

warranted to be the best in the market, and will be sold at such prices as will convince every one that this is the place to buy cheap.

THE MAGEE FURNACES,

7 Sizes—Brick and Portable.

These Furnaces work on the same principle as the Magee Stoves. They are simple and easily operated, requiring only about half the coal of any other Furnace—will keep fire the whole season, and are not liable to get out of order.

We would invite the attention of those interested to an examination of the MAGEE FURNACE, and at the same time refer them to a number of places in this city where we have erected them the past year; and in every instance have given perfect satisfaction.

REPAIRING PRICES,

For most kinds of Cooking Stoves used in this market. Also,

Coal Fixtures and Fire Brick.

HARD WARE AND CASTINGS generally

TIN, SHEET IRON & COPPER WARE, manufactured to order.

☞ Prices as low as at any other establishment in this vicinity, and satisfaction guaranteed in all cases.

Scrofula, or King's Evil,
is a constitutional disease, a corruption of the blood, by which this fluid becomes vitiated, weak and poor. Being in the circulation it pervades the whole body, and may burst out in disease on any part of it. No organ is free from its attacks, nor is there one which it may not destroy. The scrofulous taint is variously caused by mercurial disease, low living, disordered or unhealthy food, impure air, filth and filthy habits, the depressing vices, and, above all, by the venereal infection. Whatever be its origin, it is hereditary in the constitution, descending "from parents to children unto the third and fourth generation;" indeed, it seems to be the rod of him who says, 'I will visit the iniquities of the fathers upon their children.
Its effects commence by deposition from the blood of corrupt or ulcerous matter, which, in the lungs, liver, and internal organs, is termed tubercles; in the glands, swellings; and on the surface, eruptions or sores. This foul corruption, which genders in the blood, depresses the energies of life, so that scrofulous constitutions not only suffer from scrofulous complaints, but they have far less power to withstand the attacks of other diseases; consequently vast numbers perish by disorders which, although not scrofulous in their nature, are still rendered fatal by this taint in the system. Most of the consumption which decimates the human family has its origin directly in this scrofulous contamination; and many destructive diseases of the liver, kidneys, brain, and, indeed all of the organs, arise from or are aggravated by the same cause.
One quarter of all our people are scrofulous;—their persons are invaded by this lurking infection, and their health is undermined by it. To cleanse it from the system we must renovate the blood by an alterative medicine, and invigorate it by healthy food and exercise. Such a medicine we supply in
Compound Extract of Sarsaparilla,
the most effectual remedy which the medical skill of our times can devise for this everywhere prevailing and fatal malady. It is combined from the most active remedials that have been discovered for the expurgation of this foul disorder from the blood, and the rescue of the system from its destructive consequences. Hence it should be employed for the cure of not only scrofula, but also those other affections which arise from it, such as
ERUPTIONS AND ERUPTIVE DISEASES, ULCERS, PIMPLES, BLOTCHES, TUMORS, SALT RHEUM, SCALD HEAD, SYPHILIS AND SYPHILITIC AFFECTIONS, MERCURIAL DISEASE, DROPSY, NEURALGIA OR TIC DOULOUREUX, DEBILITY, DYSPEPSIA AND INDIGESTION, ERYSIPELAS, ROSE OR ST. ANTHONY'S FIRE, and indeed the whole class of complaints arising from IMPURITY OF THE BLOOD. The popular belief in "impurity of the blood" is founded on truth, for scrofula is a degeneration of the blood. The particular purpose and virtue of this Sarsaparilla is to purify and regenerate this vital fluid, without which sound health is impossible in contaminated constitutions.
Ayer's Cathartic Pills.
FOR ALL THE PURPOSES OF A FAMILY PHYSIC, are so composed that disease within the range of their action can rarely withstand or evade them. Their penetrating properties search and cleanse, and invigorate every portion of the human organism, correcting its diseased action, and restoring its healthy vitalities. As a consequence of these properties, the invalid who is bowed down with pain or physical debility is astonished to find his health or energy restored by a remedy at once so simple and inviting.
Not only do they cure the every-day complaints of every body, but also many formidable and dangerous diseases. The agent below named is pleased to furnish gratis my American Almanac, containing certificates of their cures and directions for their use in the following complaints: Costiveness, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Dysentery, Foul Stomach, Erysipelas, Headache, Piles, Rheumatism, Eruptions and Skin Diseases, Liver Complaint, Dropsy, Tetter, Tumors and Salt Rheum, Worms, Gout, Neuralgia, as a diuner Pill, and for Purifying the blood.
Ayer's Cherry Pectoral
COUGHS, COLDS, INFLUENZA, HOARSENESS, CROUP, BRONCHITIS, INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION, and for the relief of Consumptive Patients in advanced stages of the disease.
So wide is the field of its usefulness and so numerous are the cases of its cures, that almost every section of country abounds in persons publicly known, who have been restored from alarming and even desperate diseases of the lungs by its use. When once tried, its superiority over every other medicine of its kind is too apparent to escape observation, and where its virtues are known, the public no longer hesitate what antidote to employ for the distressing and dangerous affections of the pulmonary organs that are incident to our climate. While many inferior remedies thru-t upon the community have failed and been discarded, this has gained friends by every trial, conferred benefits on the afflicted they can never forget, and produced cures too numerous and too remarkable to be forgotten.

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

WEDNESDAY, DEC. 27, 1859.

☞ By a Washington dispatch of Sunday, Dec. 25, it appears that a large number of the mail contractors have informed and continue to inform the Department that, unless Congress make an appropriation early in January for the payment of what is due to them, they cannot continue the service. Their credit, they say, is now exhausted. Should they surrender their contracts, the expense of restoring the service will not be less than $1,000,000.—Their expectations of relief from Congress have been disastrously disappointed. The Department has the money to pay all sums due for the quarter ending with September, but not the legal authority to do so. Over four million dollars are required for arrearages for the year ending with June. Statements of indebtedness to contractors, on which they have raised $2,000,000, are in the hands of persons in Washington.

In the face of all this, and of the fact that Sherman keeps within four votes of a majority, while no one else now gets a quarter of his vote, Mr. Smith of Virginia cracked the slave-driver's whip stoutly, in the House of Representatives, over the shoulders of all kinds of Democrats, all South Americans, &c., who should dare to vote for any candidate who endorsed Helper's book or its principles—in other words any one who avows opposition to slavery. Mr. Smith also charged Mr. Grow with defeating the Post Office appropriation. It should be borne in mind, by everybody, that the appropriation for the Post Office was coupled with an increase of the rates of postage, which increase was resisted by Republicans, Douglas men and others—and that thus it failed, and ought to fail—and the thing should be resisted still.

Mr. Foulke, a Douglas man, took part in the debate, and said, among other things, John Brown is dead—but his actions live.

Mr. Farnsworth reviewed the course of Judge Douglas in reference to the Territorial question, contending that he (Douglas) had placed himself on both sides of the question. The Republican party was founded on principle—but the Democrats worshipped Douglas. Whatever Douglas said was law to them. He would ask his colleague if he agreed?

Mr. Foulke—We worship Stephen A. Douglas, and you worship Fred Douglas.—(Great laughter.)

Mr. Smith of Virginia continued the debate, and seemed as much excited against Helper's book as John Brown was against slavery. But when at last he gave way for a vote, Mr. Sherman got just about the same proportion as usual. The twenty-first ballot was taken, with the following result:

Whole number of votes, 206; necessary for a choice, 104; Sherman had 100, Bocock 20, Houston 17, Gilmer 17, Maclay 9, Davis 11. The rest were scattered among 17 candidates.

Without transacting any other business, the House adjourned to Monday.

The Catholic clergy do not assume the functions, or usurp the prerogatives, of the statesman and jurist altegether.

So says a correspondent of the Union Democrat: but though the priests of the Roman church, scattered over the earth, may be neither statesmen nor jurists, as the writer says,—yet they are, thousands of them, the most active politicians and wire-pullers. No papers in this land, for example, are more thoroughly political than the organs of the Roman Church, edited by priests. No set of politicians in France, Italy and Austria, are more bitter foes of popular liberty, than certain well known classes of Romish priests;—and no one obstacle is so strong in the way of liberty on the European continent, as the papal power, spiritual and temporal.

And yet, forsooth, we are told, as if it were some great and valuable truth, that priests are not statesmen. Truly—but then they are often demagogues!

☞ The female nose in America is now the subject of philosophical discussion.—A German traveller says of our ladies—"They cannot be called, in general, beautiful, because they are apt to be wanting in that fulness of form which perfect beauty requires; and because the majority of them have long noses!" The Home Journal asks, "is the length of the American nose owing to the fact that the sex, in our country, does not allow itself to be snubbed?"

☞ Mr. W. H. Frye in his racy lecture before the New Yorkers last week, said the ratio of health in that city was very low, and decreasing because the government was in the hands of corrupt and incompetent men. In the nineteenth ward, the deaths are 1 in 13 annually. In the fifteenth ward the deaths are 1 in 69. This shows the difference between those who fear God and use soap, and those who don't.

☞ The widow of the famous Morgan, of anti-Masonic notoriety, is now a resident of the vicinity of Memphis, Tenn., where she has been engaged in benevolent labors in connection with an orphan asylum.

THE YACHT WANDERER.

This noted vessel has just arrived in Boston, and the account of her late cruise, as given by Henry Welton, her sailing-master, who brings her in, will give us some idea of the captains who carry on the slave trade, and of the means by which they carry it on. The reader will judge whether such a trade ought to be encouraged; and also, whether slavery, which is founded in such piracy, is an institution to be defended or condemned.

The Wanderer, after a sham sale, at Savannah, in which her old owner knocked down a man who dared to bid on her, went to sea from Savannah, Oct. 20, in defiance of what U. S. laws are in force there,—but in strict accordance with the maxim that there is no higher law than that by which one man steals another and sells him.

On the day of her departure, Capt. Patten, alias Martin, got 15 men on board on various pretences, among them a pilot; he armed himself, and frightened the people into obedience in getting under weigh. He sent back the pilot from below, and having supplied the crew copiously with liquor, he made sail and proceeded to sea, carrying most of the men away contrary to their wishes.

They spoke various vessels, and by various means, got such supplies as they did not take in their hurried departure. On the 5th November, they made the island of Flores; the captain being all this time full of liquor, was extremely reckless and endangered the safety of the vessel in carrying sail, sometimes driving her twenty knots an hour.

Here, at the port of Santa Cruz, the Captain produced false papers, and by false statements imposed on the Custom House and merchants to get more supplies of provisions, &c.

The vessel laid there five days and obtained the promised supplies. The magistrates becoming suspicious, Capt. Patten on the sixth day (having the night before smuggled two women on board) slipped from the harbor, leaving one man behind. He did not pay a dollar for his supplies, and took away three men from the island against their will. He made no secret of his intention to dispose of the women on the coast to the highest bidder, declaring they would exchange for at least eighty Africans.

After dodging about to avoid cruisers, and get more supplies, the account says—

We spoke the barque Jenny, of Marseilles, which agreed to the captain's demand. Patten launched a boat, and taking four men, boarded the vessel. We kept on our course, set all sail, and steered to the eastward, determined to leave him and give the vessel up to the laws of the United States. The next day we made the westernmost of the Canary group, and thence continued our course for Boston.

The Wanderer is a vessel of 250 tons, large and roomy below, with elegant cabins, but at present in a dirty and disorderly condition. She has on board a crew of ten men and a plenty of provisions. She is now in the hands of Collector Austin.

Mr. Ashmore of S. C., Dec. 14 informed the House that his constituents had caught a northern man circulating Helper's book among non-slaveholders and negroes (ominous conjunction!) hereupon sundry Democrats cried "Hang him!" which Mr. A. gave assurance had been or should be done. As the negroes of South Carolina are not allowed to learn to read, and as there is no sentence of Mr. Helper's book addressed to either slaves or free blacks, we presume the story that any man has been trying to circulate Helper's book among negroes is an improvement on the facts. But the fact is, the Oligarchy are more afraid of the enlightenment of the Poor Whites than of the Blacks—and with reason.

☞ Senator Douglas is reported far from being a well man, and his permanent recovery is very remote, if not doubtful. His disease is said to be gout in the stomach.—His purpose of going to Florida is prevented by his inability to travel at present, though it is his purpose to go South as soon as he strong enough.

☞ A letter from Rome, dated 27th November, says: "Teodore Parker is slowly improving in health, I think, and is cheerful, though, of course he longs for his old work."

Little Tommy T—— is five years old.—He was in a musing mood the other day, and his mother asked him what he was thinking about. "Oh," said he, "I was thinking of old times!"

☞ Rev. Lyman Whiting, lately pastor of the North Church in Portsmouth, was installed as pastor of the Beneficent Congregational Society in Providence, R. I., Dec. 21. Sermon by Rev. Mr. Manning, of the Old South Church, Boston.

BRUTAL MURDER.—Rochester, Dec. 24. Pierpont Dyer, an esteemed citizen of Albion, Orleans county, was murdered last night in his grocery store at that place.—The top of his head was completely knocked in, probably with an axe. Patrick Culligan has been arrested on suposition, he having threatened Dyer's life.

"How much did yees ask for thim buttons?" inquired an Irish customer. "Fifteen cents." "I'll give ye thirty-seven."—"I didn't say fifty—I said fifteen," replied the honest dealer. "Bedad, an' I'll give you tin cents thin."

The writer who uses weak arguments and strong epithets, is like a lady who gives weak tea and strong butter.

THE BROWN INVESTIGATING COMMITTEE.—The Washington correspondent of the N. Y. Herald telegraphs that the officers of the Brown Raid investigating committee are busy obtaining witnesses. The 24th, the Sergeant-at-Arms of the Senate subpœnaed Judge Arny of Kansas, with whom it is supposed John Brown left some papers of value. It is said that they related wholly to his financial affairs, and had nothing to do with his incursion at Harper's Ferry. Arny refused to receive them and be responsible for them, and they were left with Mr. Conway, Congressman elect, before Brown left Kansas, and Mr. Conway put them in his safe. Mr. Conway, who is on his return to Kansas, will be sent for to testify. Augustus Wattles, formerly editor of the Herald of Freedom, at Lawrence, Kansas, will be subpœnaed. He is the author of a letter found in Brown's bag.

Capt. Montgomery, one of Brown's companions in driving Hamilton from Southern Kansas, will also be brought here. Hamilton has since died in Arizona. G. P. Lowrey, adjutant general of the free State forces under Gov. Reeder, now practising law in Williams street, New York, will be sent for. As chairman of the Committee of Safety at the time the treaty of peace was made between Robinson and Gov. Shannon, Gen. Lowrey caused Brown to be arrested for attempting to stir up the people against any attempt of the free State men to make peace with the pro-slavery party. Dr. Howe of Boston, and Mr. Sanborn of New Hampshire, who figured conspicuously in Brown's correspondence, will soon be subpœnaed if they can be found. Also Gerrit Smith, if his health will warrant his coming.

ORDINATION AT RAYMOND.—On the 21st inst., Mr. G. W. Sargent was ordained pastor of the Congregational Church in Raymond. Introductory services, such as invocation and reading of the scriptures, by Rev. L. L. Eastman and Rev. J. Fullonton of the other churches in town; prayer by Rev. H. McLeod of Brentwood; sermon by Prof. Phelps of Andover, Mass.,—text, Hebrew 12:22, 24—subject, The pre-eminence of Christ in Christianity, with its effects; consecrating prayer by Rev. J. H. Stearns of Epping; charge by Rev. E. N. Hidden of Candia; right hand of fellowship by Rev. E. H. Richardson of Dover; address to the people by Rev. U. W. Condit of Deerfield. The services were very instructive and impressive. The present pastor is the eighth settled over this church, which has existed 68 years. J. F.

C, C C, C C.—These five C's, on a paper package, signify C. H. Goodwin's Ecclesiastical Troches, or Clerical, Choral and Congregational Cough Cure,—a curious medicine to calm a congregation in cold, coughing weather, and cause the clergy and choir to keep their middle C fully up to concert pitch. Mr. Goodwin makes all these C's, at his Depot in Exeter.

QUITE AN AFFRAY.—At the Granite House in Exeter on Sunday evening, 18th inst., quite an exciting scene took place.—Mr. Asa Feltis being somewhat excited by by the use of the "poisonous cup," attacked the landlord and several other persons in the room to show his skill in boxing. He, however, was restrained after leaving his marks upon several of the persons present, of black eyes and bruised faces. On Monday morning on complaint of Orin P. Brown, who was sadly bruised, Mr. F. was brought before Thomas Smith, Esq., and plead guilty. He was ordered to give bonds in $400 to appear at the S. Court, in April next, and for want thereof was committed to jail.—News Letter.

THE REPUBLICAN CALL.—The call for a Republican National Convention, to meet at Chicago on the 13th day of June next, for the purpose of nominating candidates for President and Vice President of the United States, is signed by twenty-one representatives of the party, including George Harris of Maryland, Alfred Caldwell of Virginia, Cassius M. Clay of Kentucky, and Andrew J. Stevens of Missouri.

☞ Of the twenty-two men who joined in the Harper's Ferry invasion, eleven were kiled at Harper's Ferry; five have since died on the scaffold; two, Stevens and Hazlitt, are yet in the custody of the Virginian authorities,—and three, Merriam, Tidd, and one of old Brown's sons, escaped, and are now in Canada.

WHICH END OF TROUBLE.—Not long ago a bridegroom returning home from his wedding, was met by a friend, who thus addressed him: "Well, Jack, I'm glad to see thee in thy happy position; thou'st seen the end of thy trouble now.' "Thank thee, lad," was Jack's answer, "I hope I have." About a month afterwards the two friends again met, when Jack, speaking rather warmly, exclaimed, "Bill, thou telled me a lie that morning I got wed! Didn't thou say I'd seen the end of my trouble?" "I did," said Bill; "but I didn't tell thee which end."

ST. LOUIS, Dec. 23.—The Pike's Peak express arrived here this morning, with 10,000 in gold dust.

LOGIC.—"Can a man see without eyes?" "Yes, sir, he can see with one."

☞ Sherrard Clemens of Va., limps into the House every day on crutches, and makes regular motions to have one vote taken in the early part of each day, so that he can go home, being physically unable to stand the fatigue of a protracted session.

Diseases of Old Age.

As man approaches his allotted three score and ten years the vital powers begin to fail; stimulants of various kinds are used to strengthen the naturally failing system, such as wines, bark, &c. Instead of these, let the aged keep up the supply of the true strengthening element, iron, by the PERUVIAN SYRUP, which offers a protoxide of that metal ready for immediate absorption.

Dr. Hostetter's Bitters have received the warmest encomiums from the press and people throughout the Union. As a valuable tonic for the cure of Dyspepsia, Flatulence, Constipation and general nervous debility, it cannot be approached. Every day new cases of its great effect are chronicled through our public journals. There is nothing equal to the enjoyment, to that which the afflicted experience when using this valuable specific. Its mild tone, its sure and vigorous action upon a disordered stomach, and the cleansing of the entire human body should recommend it to all classes of our community. All that will be necessary to convince the skeptical of its healthy effects, is to purchase a bottle and be convinced.

Sold by druggists and dealers generally, everywhere.

Among the restoratives which Nature has supplied to relieve the afflictions of humanity there is no more favorite one for a certain class of diseases than the "medicinal gum" of the Wild Cherry Tree; but however valuable it is, its power to heal, to soothe, to relieve, and to cure, is enhanced ten-fold by scientific and judicious combination with other ingredients, in themselves of equal worth. This happy mingling exists in that

HOME TESTIMONY.

BOSTON, April 18, 1852.
No. 48 Union St.

Mr. Seth W. Fowle,—Dear Sir:—Your invaluable medicine, I can truly say, has literally snatched me from the grave. Last July I was attacked by a sudden cold, which resulted in a very severe Cough, with violent pains in the side and chest. I became so much reduced, that my friends frankly told me that I must die. At this crisis, I heard of Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, and immediately sent for a bottle. The effect produced was indeed wonderful. My physician, one of the most respectable in Boston, who had previously told me that a cure was hopeless, came in, and I informed him what I had taken. He examined the Balsam, and advised me to continue the use of it, since which time I have continued to improve daily; and the same physician who had given me up, told me, a few days since, that I might yet live many years.

Respectfully, MARY ROWE.

We can cheerfully testify to the truth of the above statement, Mrs. Rowe having been an inmate of our family.

☞ In our advertising columns this morning, is announced the dissolution of the firm of Parry & Plumer, bakers, which with one exception—that of Hill & Carr, the well-known shoe-dealers—is the oldest firm in the city. And this fact shows the great and speedy changes which are ever occurring in the business-world—that the lapse of less than a score of years, has broken up all the business partnerships then existing in a large town.

We suppose it will be said that Mr. Plumer "has got money enough," and is to retire from business, Well, we hope he has—though we guess it will be some time before he will be an idler. If working for twenty years at soft bread baking or printing morning newspapers, ought not to give something of a competency—we can't conceive of any labor that should. Nothing but tide-work or keeping a toll-bridge, is equal to them.

Mr. Chronicle:—Allow me to call the attention of your readers to the fact that ten citizens living on Islington street, consulting not only their own comfort and safety, but also that of their friends, neighbors and all others who walk the street, have caused their sidewalks to be thoroughly cleaned of snow and ice; so that walking before their houses is as safe and comfortable as in mid-summer. And I have noticed that the same ten gentlemen uniformly clear their sidewalks, while others as uniformly leave theirs as they now are, covered with hard-trodden snow and ice, uncovered with sand or coal ashes—to endanger the lives and limbs of every passer-by.

Thanks to the men who do keep clean their sidewalks—everybody who walks the streets will thank you, gentlemen; while shame! they cry, be unto the men who allow the snow and ice to remain on the finely paved sidewalk before their door—paved in part at the city's expense, and with the implied understanding too it is to be kept at all times in a passable condition. But the sidewalks in our city are not in a passable condition. They are dangerous, and whoever walks them does it at his peril. How long shall it be so? Reader, look immediately to your own sidewalk; and if you have any soul in you, clear off that ice and snow before your door, and keep it off.

PEREGRINATOR.

☞ Monday was very generally observed in Portsmouth, as elsewhere, for a holiday—most of the stores and places of business being closed, at least in the afternoon. The severe cold very much lessened the amount of out-door pleasuring, and social enjoyment. The Yankees really seem to be getting sensible on the subject of holidays; and no doubt will by-and-bye get up to our desired mark, of one play-day each month.

☞ The Lecture of Rev. Mr. Buckley of Dover, at Hanover Street Chapel, Monday evening last, designed to show that "Spiritualism is a Humbug"—was attended by several of the Spiritualists themselves, among the audience; and it will be observed that "Father Cluer" is announced to refute his statements, gainsay his arguments, and answer his objections to Spiritualism—at Mercantile Hall, this evening.

☞ The Star Vocalists, Mr. Brown and Miss Marsh, gave a capital concert (of the sort—and it embraced almost all desirable sorts) at the Temple last evening; and have a new and equally attractive programme for to-night. It is worth something even to see a large audience out at an entertainment, in these days; and when Brown can't draw the crowd, it is not of much use for anybody to try.

☞ The Report of the City Missionary is published and may be had at the Bookstores of Messrs. J. F. Shores and Joseph H. Foster.

One day a beggar man, who had long been known as the do-no-good of the place where he lived, met another laden with two panniers. On asking what was in them, and being told that they contained rags and bones, he exclaimed, "Well, then, toss me in, for I'm nowt else."

A young tyro in declamation in a neighboring seminary, who had been told by his teacher that he must gesture according to the sense, in commencing a piece with

"The comet hits its fiery tail," lifted his coat tail to a horizontal position.

Two countrymen went into a hatter's to buy a hat. They were delighted with one, inside the crown of which was inserted a looking glass. "What's the glass for?" said one of the men. The other, impatient at such a display of rural ignorance, exclaimed, "What for! why, for the man who buys the hat to see how it fits him, stupid."

It is vain to stick your finger in the water, and, pulling it out, look for a hole; and equally vain to suppose that, however large a space you occupy, the world will miss you when you die.

BATH, Me., Dec. 26.—The story that Lincoln Patten of this city was in any way connected with the schooner Wanderer, is a gross fabrication. Capt. Patten has been at home for some time, seen and known of all men, and possesses not one of the characteristics attributed to David Martin.

If the man who is always taking the law into his own hands, is something very like a barbarian; the man who is utterly helpless when the law does not happen to be just at his elbow, is very imperfectly fitted for a freeman.

PANORAMA OF "LIFE OF CHRIST."

The Press speak of this work in high terms where it has been exhibited. We have seen notices from the press in Portland, Augusta, Bangor and other places in Maine. We make some extracts from notices that our readers may judge something of the exhibition, that is to open at the Temple on Thursday evening.

[From the Bangor Daily Times.]

The last exhibition of this celebrated work, which has drawn admiring crowds, wherever it has been exhibited, and to whose intrinsic merits is superadded the apt and fluent delineations, by its accomplished exhibitor, Mr. Burnham, closed at Norombega Hall last evening. The pictures placed in glowing colors on the canvass, give a graphic representation of the most remarkable events which took place during the earthly sojourn of the Divine Master, and while with their artistic beauty they give pleasure to the eye, they also gratify Christian faith and affection. From the angel song that woke with harmony the stillness of a Judean night over the manger-cradle in Bethlehem, the various passages of sufferings, trials and miracles of that eventful career, up to the agony in the garden and on Calvary, follow each other in regular and beautiful procession, giving a vivid idea of what can never be too intimately known. Mr. Burnham is perfectly at home in his explanation, and in scripture text and appropriate quotation from Christian poets.

"No one can visit this exhibition without feeling that the influence must be good."—Bangor Daily Whig & Courier.

"This Panorama is one of the most instructive and useful works that has ever been exhibited.—Teachers and parents should let the children all go and see it. It is a moral work, and fixes the story of the gospel indelibly in the mind of childhood, and is not without profit to all others."—Gospel Banner.

"The exhibition in this city of the Panorama of the "Life of Christ," has met with great success. Crowded houses have witnessed each exhibition."—Augusta Age.

A celebrated female vocalist accompanies the exhibition, with appropriate themes of sacred song. The Temple will undoubtedly be filled on Thursday evening.

☞ Monday, in Congress, was a day of some distress, and much fun, in the House; the Senate was not in session.

In the House, Mr. Moore of Ky., Mr. Smith of Va. yielding the floor, offered a resolution that Alexander B. Boteler be declared Speaker of the House.

Messrs. Bingham and Barksdale objected to the resolution as out of order.

Mr. McClernand moved to substitute the name of Mr. Davis of Indiana.

After a dialogue debate of half an hour, Mr. Smith of Va. got agoing again,—and somebody sent him in two or three tumblers of egg-nog, which he drank, and then lots of fun arose, in the shape of motions to adjourn, by democrats who did not like to stay. The Republicans opposed the adjournment, and once voted it down 123 to 75.

Mr. Hill moved that Mr. Smith be permitted to continue his remarks until they were finished, and that the House stand adjourned until their conclusion. (Laughter)

Mr. Smith rose indignantly. He did not see why the House should treat him with disrespect, and force him to speak to empty benches. He knew not why he was so treated by friends as well as foes.

Mr. Hill moved that no vote be taken for Speaker till 1 o'clock, Tuesday. Agreed to.

After some nonsense, the Clerk declared the House adjourned.

☞ Chief Justice Taney, of the U. S. Supreme Court was, on Friday night, seized with one of his dangerous attacks, and is greatly prostrated.

☞ A New York hotel man runs up the Union flag. Whiskey and ice are meant, it is presumed, not forgetting water and sugar.

I wish by this card to say to them, and to all others affected, that the cough drops, prepared by Dr. Swett, of Portsmouth, is a valuable remedy. I have found nothing that gives relief so quick. Morning Chronicle.

OPINION IN FRANCE.—A European correspondent of the New York Herald expresses himself as follows:—

The French army and navy may desire a war with England or any other country, because fighting is their trade. The ultra Catholic clergy may also long to see Protestant England assailed. But neither army, navy or clergy governs France now-a-days, notwithstanding the importance ascribed to them by some journals here. Trade and commerce govern France, and Napoleon, absolute as he is represented, does not tamper with or endanger them.

It is safe to say, speaking of the race as a whole, and upon a large scale, that mind, for a tribe or class of men, is useless without muscle, because we were meant to have both, and God knew what he intended in creating us. Nay, I think it would be safe to go further, and say, that if this antithesis be true, if Barbarism represents muscle and Civilization only mind, then Barbarism is unmistakably the better thing, so far as it goes, not because it is in itself most beautiful, but because it comes first in the natural order of things.—Higginson.

Mr. Seward has had presents of three Arab steeds, in Egypt, doubtless from some person who had heard he was about to have a race on the Presidential course, and was anxious he should make a famous run. His opponents will see bribery in the act, and charge him with designs to purchase the Pyramids.—Boston Traveller.

The Medical students from the South, in the Philadelphia institutions, to the number of about three hundred have resolved to secede in a body and go into southern colleges. That is right. The North has sins enough to answer for without manufacturing three hundred blood-letters to let loose upon the defenceless South.—Bath Times.

☞ The great horse race of champions of the Austrian Colonies was run on the 1st of October, before a concourse of forty thousand persons, the largest multitude ever assembled in Austria. The winner, Flying Buck, is a Victoria horse, and was scarcely named in the betting.

☞ It is stated that the French expedition to China will be the most complete and carefully calculated that ever left France. The cost is estimated at £6,000,000. The combined forces will amount to 30,000 men.

STOVE STORE REMOVED.

URIAH BLAISDELL

Has removed his Stove and Furnishing Establishment one door north, to the spacious and convenient store

Nos. 43 & 45 Market Street,

where he is receiving and arranging a large and valuable Stock of

STOVES, TIN WARE, &c.,

Which he offers for sale at wholesale and retail, at very low prices. He has a great variety of the best and most popular Stoves, among which are:

1. The Stewart Cook Stove, with the latest improvements. This is an air-tight Cook Stove, for Wood or Coal; it has moveable corrings, which can confine the heat in the stove, or let it out into the room; has a reservoir of hot water 10 or 20 gallons, and a tin closet beneath;—a top cover, which is a great institution for baking, and will keep a coal fire all night; it has a Dutch Oven for roasting in front of the Stove;—and it is every way a most convenient and durable Stove. There are 4 sizes.

The following recommendation of Stewart's Stove, is from an eminent engineer, and must be satisfactory to all who wish to understand the value of this excellent Stove:

Portsmouth, N. H., Nov. 5, 1859.

Mr. Blaisdell:—Seven years ago I moved to this city, and sold, before I came, a "Stewart's Air Tight Cooking Stove," which I had used about five years. During that time no repairs or expense had been made upon it. Since I have been here I have tried the various Cooking Stoves in use, and I think for economy and durability the "Stewart" excels them all. I wish you would take away the Stove I now have from my house, and set up one of Stewart's as soon as you can. Your ob't servant,
B. F. CHANDLER.

2. Boston & Maine Cook Stove;
3. White Mountain;
4. Empire State;
5. Enterprise;
6. Exchange;
7. Dining Room Cook Stoves, and others.

BLOOD FOOD.

Dr. Bronson, having been so far reduced by consumption, as to be considered beyond all hope of recovery by the most eminent of the medical profession, and also by himself—a regular physician of twenty years' practice—as a last resort, conceived the idea of ANALYZING THE BLOOD, and applying the subject of phisiology to the more immediate connection, and effect of the state of the blood upon the health and system. The result has been the production of this "BLOOD FOOD," from the use of which, Dr. Bronson was restored to perfect health. Within six months after its introduction, over 2000 consumptives were effectually cured by it. If you have any complaints of a consumptive tendency, Coughs, Cold, Bronchitis, Palpitation of the Heart, Loss of Appetite, or Pain in the Side, lose no time in procuring a bottle of the "BLOOD FOOD." If you are suffering from Nervous Debility, or your sleep is broken and disturbed, if your Spirits are depressed or your organs relaxed, you will find in this an unfailing remedy, by commencing with ten drops. If your Liver is torpid or diseased in any manner whatever, one or two bottles will be sure to invigorate, and bring it into lively and healthful action. In the most inveterate cases of Dyspepsia, the patient can here find the most efficient and grateful relief. A benefit is always experienced after taking only one bottle. In Male or Female Complaints or Weaknesses, the sufferer, after trying other remidies in vain, may rest assured, that a certain cure will result from the use of two or three bottles. The "BLOOD FOOD" is efficacious in all cases of Eruptions, Salt Rheum, Scrofulas, and other like complaints. Pale and emaciated children and adults are immediately benefitted by its use. It gives strength to the body, and color and beauty to the skin. Physicians of all schools are using it with wonderful success.

MOTHERS.

In presenting you with DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL, we assure to mark its superior superiority over every nostrum that nurse or quack has heretofore offered you.

First—It is the prescription of a regular physician, who is well skilled from much experience in infantile complaints to prescribe for your offspring of any kind, and consequently relieves by secondly—It entirely free from paregoric or opiate of any kind, and consequently relieves by thirdly—It entirely prevents the vomiting the sickness of your child, caused or aggravated by other preparations, which will plain one, as a comparison of it with any other article for infantile complaints will show: fourthly—It is put up in a neat manner, and will keep good in any climate, and fifthly—It is the only article for infantile complaints which has stood the test of time, and has a certain cure and relief in all the following cases, which is its chief merit: FOR ALL COMPLAINTS ATTENDING TEETHING; such as DYSENTERY, COLIC, &c.; also, for soothing the gums and relieving over every other preparation.

In presenting this article to the direction of the public, we do so in the full belief that it will prove, on a comparison of it with any other article for infantile complaints, all that is claimed for it.

Price 25 cents and $1.

STOVES AND FURNACES

FRANK JONES,

61 MARKET ST., PORTSMOUTH,

Having received a part of his Winter Stock of

SUPERIOR COOKING STOVES,

would invite the attention of those about purchasing, to the largest and best selected stock of COOKING STOVES, of the most approved patterns and valuable kinds to be found in this market; among which may be found

THE CLIPPER, BOSTON & MAINE,
EMPIRE STATE, WHITE MOUNTAIN,
REPUBLIC, BANNER, &c.,

with many others, for wood or coal, which will be sold at such prices as shall defy competition.

The Combination Stove and Range.

One of the greatest inventions of the age, for Cooking purposes,—made expressly for large families, boarding houses, hotels, &c.; or wherever a great amount of Cooking is required in the shortest possible time, it having 3 large ovens, 6 boiler holes and separate apartments for baking, broiling, frying or roasting, requiring no more fuel than any ordinary Cooking Stove. It is warranted to give entire satisfaction in every particular in point of economy, convenience, or ease of management; as we believe it to be far ahead of anything of the kind yet introduced into this market. We therefore ask an examination of the "Combination Stove & Range," feeling confident that it supersedes all others for which it is intended, and will be sold at a very low price.

THE MAGEE.

The Celebrated Magee Patent

Ventilating Parlor Stove,

All sizes—acknowledged by every one to be the BEST STOVE IN THE WORLD.

The fire can be kept through the entire season without once going out, giving the greatest amount of heat from the least fuel of any other Stove known.

The heat can be regulated to the mildest as well as the coldest weather, and at the same time perfectly ventilating the apartment in which they are used. We have sold hundreds of them the past year, and have testimonials of the highest order, acknowledging their superiority over every other Stove yet invented. To every one in search of the best Stove that can be found, we would say,

"Try the Magee."

PARLOR STOVES

of the most approved kinds.

STORE, OFFICE & SHIP STOVES;
BOX AND CYLINDER do.
SHEET IRON STOVES, with and without ovens.

Parlor Cook Stoves.

THE MAGEE FURNACES,

7 Sizes—Brick and Portable.

These Furnaces work on the same principle as the Magee Stoves. They are simple and easily operated, requiring only about half the coal of any other Furnace—will keep fire the whole season, and are not liable to get out of order.

We would invite the attention of those interested to an examination of the MAGEE FURNACE, and at the same time refer them to a number of places in this city where we have erected them the past year; and in every instance have given perfect satisfaction.

DR. J. B. HUGHES,

Knowing that there are at this moment thousands of persons in the surrounding towns, rendering their lives to the insidious inroads of certain dangerous maladies, who still suffer for the reluctance to make known their complaints and consult a physician, he would state that all of his medicines will be sent by express or otherwise, to all who may order them, provided a true description of the disease be sent by letter and directed as above.

Full and explicit directions will accompany every package, and the most inviolable secrecy preserved.

DR. HUGHES can with safety say during the last year of his practice in Boston, more than five hundred cases of disease which have been imperfectly treated by empyrics have come under his care and more than three-fourths of this number inscribed upon his books as perfect cures.

Patients treated by letter by addressing Dr. Hughes, post paid, and medicines sent all over the country, carefully concealed from scrutinizing friends.

Be particular in finding Dr. Hughes. Do not be lured from the right path, or be persuaded to experiments with false and fictitious remedies at the expense of destroying what is the great prize of life, a healthy constitution.

This medicine can only be obtained at the Office of Dr. HUGHES, 13 Howard street, Boston.

DR. J. B. HUGHES UNIVERSAL FEMALE RENOVATING PILLS. These pills are unrivalled in efficacy and superior virtue in regulating female irregularities. Their action is specific and certain, producing relief in a short space of time. They are acknowledged to be the best in use.

The Dr. cautions the public to beware of imitations that are being practiced by advertising spurious article under some spurious or fictitious name. They are entirely useless, having been put up by miserable pretenders who are entirely ignorant of the efficacy of medicines.

All who are in pursuit of the genuine, article had better call on the Dr. at his office, where they will be sure of getting the genuine—the only pills in Boston where the genuine is for sale.

These pills can be sent to any part of the country with directions. Remember the number, 13 Howard street, Boston.

P. S.—The best of accommodations furnished with kind and attentive nurses if they wish, at a reasonable rate. jy 6

Scrofula, or King's Evil,
is a constitutional disease, a corruption of the blood, by which this fluid becomes vitiated, weak and poor. Being in the circulation it pervades the whole body, and may burst out in disease on any part of it. No organ is free from its attacks, nor is there one which it may not destroy. The scrofulous taint is variously caused by mercurial disease, low living, disordered or unhealthy food, impure air, filth and filthy habits, the depressing vices, and, above all, by the venereal infection. Whatever be its origin, it is hereditary in the constitution, descending "from parents to children unto the third and fourth generation;" indeed, it seems to be the rod of him who says, "I will visit the iniquities of the fathers upon their children.
Its effects commence by deposition from the blood of corrupt or ulcerous matter, which, in the lungs, liver, and internal organs, is termed tubercles; in the glands, swellings; and on the surface, eruptions or sores. This foul corruption, which genders in the blood, depresses the energies of life, so that scrofulous constitutions not only suffer from scrofulous complaints, but they have far less power to withstand the attacks of other diseases; consequently vast numbers perish by disorders which, although not scrofulous in their nature, are still rendered fatal by this taint in the system. Most of the consumption which decimates the human family has its origin directly in this scrofulous contamination; and many destructive diseases of the liver, kidneys, brain, and, indeed all of the organs, arise from or are aggravated by the same cause.
One quarter of all our people are scrofulous;—their persons are invaded by this lurking infection, and their health is undermined by it. To cleanse it from the system we must renovate the blood by an alterative medicine, and invigorate it by healthy food and exercise. Such a medicine we supply in
Compound Extract of Sarsaparilla,
the most effectual remedy which the medical skill of our times can devise for this everywhere prevailing and fatal malady. It is combined from the most active remedials that have been discovered for the expurgation of this foul disorder from the blood, and the rescue of the system from its destructive consequences. Hence it should be employed for the cure of not only scrofula, but also those other affections which arise from it, such as
ERUPTIONS AND ERUPTIVE DISEASES, ULCERS, PIMPLES, BLOTCHES, TUMORS, SALT RHEUM, SCALD HEAD, SYPHILIS AND SYPHILITIC AFFECTIONS, MERCURIAL DISEASE, DROPSY, NEURALGIA OR TIC DOULOUREUX, DEBILITY, DYSPEPSIA AND INDIGESTION, ERYSIPELAS, ROSE OR ST. ANTHONY'S FIRE, and indeed the whole class of complaints arising from IMPURITY OF THE BLOOD. The popular belief in "impurity of the blood" is founded on truth, for scrofula is a degeneration of the blood. The particular purpose and virtue of this Sarsaparilla is to purify and regenerate this vital fluid, without which sound health is impossible in contaminated constitutions.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills.
FOR ALL THE PURPOSES OF A FAMILY PHYSIC, are so composed that disease within the range of their action can rarely withstand or evade them. Their penetrating properties search and cleanse, and invigorate every portion of the human organism, correcting its diseased action, and restoring its healthy vitalities. As a consequence of these properties, the invalid who is bowed down with pain or physical debility is astonished to find his health or energy restored by a remedy at once so simple and inviting.
Not only do they cure the every-day complaints of every body, but also many formidable and dangerous diseases. The agent below named is pleased to furnish gratis my American Almanac, containing certificates of their cures and directions for their use in the following complaints: Costiveness, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Dysentery, Foul Stomach, Erysipelas, Headache, Piles, Rheumatism, Eruptions and Skin Diseases, Liver Complaint, Dropsy, Tetter, Tumors and Salt Rheum, Worms, Gout, Neuralgia, as a dinner Pill, and for Purifying the blood.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral
COUGHS, COLDS, INFLUENZA, HOARSENESS, CROUP, BRONCHITIS, INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION, and for the relief of Consumptive Patients in advanced stages of the disease.
So wide is the field of its usefulness and so numerous are the cases of its cures, that almost every section of country abounds in persons publicly known, who have been restored from alarming and even desperate diseases of the lungs by its use. When once tried, its superiority over every other medicine of its kind is too apparent to escape observation, and where its virtues are known, the public no longer hesitate what antidote to employ for the distressing and dangerous affections of the pulmonary organs that are incident to our climate. While many inferior remedies thru't upon the community have failed and been discarded, this has gained friends by every trial, conferred benefits on the afflicted they can never forget, and produced cures too numerous and too remarkable to be forgotten.

THURSDAY, DEC. 28, 1859.

THE SLAVE TRADE.

In respect to the cruelty and sin of our internal and the foreign slave trade, there is but little if any sound distinction. The advocates of slavery often attempt to justify or palliate it, from the fact that English traders carried on the traffic to the Colonies prior to the American Revolution, as if the wrongs of one nation could justify the wrongs of another. It would be well to listen to the truth of history. The past is not so far distant, when the English nation was not so far advanced as at the present era, in civilization and Christianity. But while that nation has repented of the sin, and abolished slavery throughout her dominions, no valid reason can be assigned for our upholding it.

Eight hundred thousand slaves were in one day set free in the British West India islands, then inhabited by only thirty thousand white people. It was all peaceable—no bloody massacre. The colored population have since been educated, and colored persons now sit on the judicial bench with the white judges, and in the legislative halls there is no distinction of color. All the tillers of the soil may now equally enjoy the fruits of their own industry.

We turn to the subject because some of our Southern oligarchy openly avow their intention to renew the foreign slave trade, while the internal is upheld by the federal government and its statutes.

In 1787, says Coote's History of Modern Europe, fol. 311—"The enemies of the slave trade had formed a committee, consisting of Mr. Granville Sharp, Mr. Clarkson and ten other gentlemen. They were so intent on the promotion of their philanthropic purpose that they held fifty-one meetings in thirteen months, and distributed (besides reports and other small papers) above 51,430 copies of pamphlets and books. Their appeals to the public were so far successful, within the time specified, as to produce (says Mr. Clarkson) a kind of holy flame or enthusiasm, to a degree and to an extent never before witnessed. Of the purity of this flame no better proof can be adduced than that even bishops deigned to address an obscure committee, consisting principally of Quakers, and that churchmen and dissenters forgot their difference of religious opinion, and joined their hands, all over the kingdom, in its support."

Mr. Wilberforce submitted the report to the House of Commons, and detailed the facts showing the enormity of the trade, and how that it not only created wars in Africa, but was demoralizing and disgraceful to the English nation. But for a long period, we think about twenty years, their humane efforts were opposed by the perjury and avarice of the traders who had accumulated wealth by the infamous trade. But when Pitt, Fox, Burke and many other leaders of Parliament became convinced of the true state of the facts, the whole trade was at once prohibited by penal laws.

Now, if slavery be right, a blessing, and "fortified by the word of God," as Southern members of Congress contend, why should not the foreign trade be opened and tolerated by law? For it may be affirmed that slavery and the internal and foreign trade are closely connected, indeed that they are one and the same thing. INQUIRER.

THE WANDERER CASE.—The case of the yacht Wanderer, libelled as a slaver, is undergoing an investigation by the United States authorities in Boston. The examination is not to be made public at present. The two mates and crew of the vessel, together with the two Portuguese women taken on board at Funchal, were brought before Commissioner A. S. Cushman on Tuesday, and ordered to be held as witnesses.—A formal complaint has been made against the captain of the Wanderer. The alleged owner of the yacht is said to be on his way from the South. The case is likely to bring up some interesting points, not the least of which is where the poor crew are to get their pay.

☞ It is stated in a New York paper, that 60,000 copies of Helper's Crisis have been sold, and that three presses are now at work printing it; so that the publisher, who seemed at first running a risk, is now making money very fast.

It is stated that the publication of the debates in Congress, in the Southern press, has created a great demand for the Helper book, which can only be supplied through the Southern members, and under cover of their own franks, as the Postmasters would seize them. The members consider it a great bore.

HANGING JOHN BROWN.—Yes, let America know it and ponder it well—there is something more terrible than Cain slaying Abel—it is Washington slaying Spartacus.—Victor Hugo.

☞ The Louisville Journal has what it calls a short method with the fire-eaters. If the South is in danger it is no time for bluster; if it isn't there is no occasion for it.

☞ President Buchanan's Annual Message, dated Dec. 19, was read in the Senate Dec. 27, and is printed in many of the newspapers. The president begins with a paragraph of thanksgiving and prayer.—And next in order come Harper's Ferry, Slavery, and the Slave Trade, to which he devotes a quarter part of the message.

Of Harper's Ferry, he says:—

I shall not refer in detail to the recent sad and bloody occurrence at Harper's Ferry. Still, it is proper to observe that these events, however bad and cruel in themselves, derive their chief importance from the apprehension that they are but symptoms of an incurable disease in the public mind, which may break out in still more dangerous outrages, and terminate at last in an open war by the North to abolish slavery in the South. Whilst, for myself, I entertain no such apprehension, they ought to afford a solemn warning to us all to beware of danger. * * But I indulge in no such gloomy forebodings. On the contrary I firmly believe that the events at Harper's Ferry, by causing the people to pause and reflect upon the possible peril to their cherished institutions, will be the means, under Providence, of allaying the existing excitement and preventing further outbreaks of a similar character.

On Slavery, he takes the most thoroughly pro slavery position that is possible, saying, among other things,—

I cordially congratulate you upon the final settlement by the law of the United States of the question of slavery in the Territories. The right has been established, of every citizen to take his property of any kind, including slaves, into the common Territories belonging equally to all the States of the confederacy, and to have it protected there under the federal constitution. Neither Congress nor a territorial Legislature nor any human power has any authority to annul or impair this vested right.

In the same paragraph, speaking of Kansas, he says:

Had it been decided that either Congress or the Territorial Legislature possess the power to annul or impair the right to property in slaves, the evil would be intolerable.

In the same connexion, he gives us this wise saying:—

We ought to remember that every rational creature must be presumed to intend the natural consequences of his own teachings.

He speaks against re-opening the African slave trade, and says:—

For a period of more than half a century there has been no perceptible addition to the number of our domestic slaves.

If this were to be taken in its absolute sense, it would contradict all our census returns. We suppose it to be a clerical or typographical error, and that the president meant to say, and probably did say, there had been no perceptible increase of slaves by importation,—but only by raising them in this country.

As to our opening the trade, he says:

This would give the trade an impulse and extension which it has never had even in its palmiest days. The numerous victims required to supply it would convert the whole slave coast into a perfect Pandemonium, for which this country would be held responsible in the eyes both of God and man. Its petty tribes would be constantly engaged in predatory wars against each other for the purpose of seizing slaves to supply the American market. All hopes of African civilization would thus be ended.

With China and Paraguay, our relations are favorable. With all Continental Governments but Spain, ditto. Spain does not pay us some old claims. And the president says:

I again recommend that an appropriation be made to "be paid to the Spanish government for the purpose of distribution among the claimants in the Amistad case."

[The Amistad claimants were engaged illegally in the African slave trade—and were pirates.]

The president calls for an appropriation to begin to purchase Cuba; and thinks the difficulties with Great Britain, at the Northwest, will not be very serious. [We think so too.] Of Mexico he says:

I regret to inform you that there has been no improvement in the affairs of Mexico since my last annual message, and I am again obliged to ask the earnest attention of Congress to the unhappy condition of that republic. * * * There is scarcely any form of injury which has not been suffered by our citizens in Mexico during the last few years. We have been nominally at peace with that republic, but "so far as the interests of our commerce or of our citizens who have visited the country as merchants, shipmasters, or in other capacities are concerned, we might as well have been at war." * * * Mexico ought to be a rich and powerful and prosperous republic. She possesses an extensive territory, a fertile soil, and an incalculable store of mineral wealth. * * * For these reasons, I recommend to Congress to pass a law authorizing the President, under such conditions as it may deem expedient, to employ a sufficient military force to enter Mexico for the purpose of obtaining indemnity for the past and security for the future.

He calls upon Congress, as he did before to give him the power to do as he pleases with the Navy, about the Isthmus and neighboring coast.

The failure of the Post Office appropriation bill is noticed—and a law recommended, for choosing the members of a new Congress before the old one dies.

He recommends the railway to the Pacific for the reasons which he has heretofore given.

He says it appears from the report of the Secretary of the Treasury that it is extremely doubtful whether we shall be able to pass through the present and next fiscal year, without additional revenue. Should a deficiency occur he recommends that the necessary revenue be raised by an increase of the present duties on imports.

In conclusion he recommends to the liberality of Congress the local interest of the District of Columbia.

UNION SAVERS.

Union-saving, like undertaking and grave-digging, has come to be a profession, and the creatures engaged in it are seen swarming about the Confederation like birds of ill-omen, cawing and jawing worse than so many crows in a cornfield.

If these Croakers are to be believed, the Union is always on the eve of immediate and violent dissolution, and can be saved from such a catastrophe only by their joint and discordant lamentations.

At one time, it was to be destroyed by the Right of Search; at another by the United States Bank; then again by the Tariff; until finally its doom was irrevocably sealed, the other day, by the late John Brown.

Meanwhile, the Union increases in health and strength every hour, and belying prophecy after prophecy, ought, long before this, to have put every Croaker in the land to a blush. But no. Were the nation one vast frog pond, the air would hardly be more resonant with their melancholy croakings, than it is at the present moment.

North and South, East and West, wherever the Union-Savers are found, their senseless and stupefying wail is heard, as if the globe itself were about to be unhitched from its axis and left, like an insane and inscrutable comet, to flounder its frantic way through space.

We presume it is of little use to complain of this state of things, since what has been will be, and since, moreover, the Croaker or Union-Saver is an order of being as necessary to the world as the buzzard, the screech-owl, or the wild locust.

So we should like to have it understood that we don't complain more especially as, if we did we should be open to the accusation of croaking against the Croakers, who are really not worth the music. What we want particularly to do is, call attention to them just at this crisis, when they are out in unusual force, and are making altogether too much noise. Moreover, we would like to warn simple and unsuspecting persons against believing a word they say, by showing that they and their predecessors have been repeating the same stupid things, or things nearly as stupid, ever since the Union existed, and that it is foolish therefore to pay any heed to them.

For our own part we do utterly loathe and abhor the croaking animal of every species—whether political, commercial, social or religious. Croaking enough is done by the frog to answer for the whole animal kingdom. When men take to the business it is only to accomplish some dark and mischievous purpose. As for the union-saving Croaker, he belongs to the worst possible species of the reptile, and ought to be promptly exterminated; the more so as just now he has got possession of the Capitol, and is retarding the business of the country, at a cost to the people which is incalculable.—N. Y. Sat. Press.

☞ A young man named Roby was nearly killed on the railroad at North Stratford, N. H., on the 17th inst. He attempted to cross the track in a sleigh, when a train came along, smashing his horse and sleigh to pieces, while he was caught upon the engine somehow. His head was considerably injured, and his leg broken near the thigh, but there are hopes of his recovery.

☞ Last week, the body of John Winans, formerly a well known and popular low comedian, was found among the arches in the cellar of the Blocksley Almshouse, Philadelphia. He was sent to the Almshouse in September, and a few days afterwards he was missed. A few days since search was made in the cellar for another lunatic who had escaped, when Winan's body was found.

☞ Edwin W. Reed, the music teacher of Springfield, who is accused of the seduction of Miss Kendall of Granby, Conn., whose death at South Boston was announced the other day, in default of bonds is now in the Suffolk Jail waiting trial. There can be little doubt of his guilt. He was one of the most popular music teachers in the state, has a lawful wife living in West Springfield, and a respectable family of children to whom his offence will be a sore calamity, and he also stood well in the church.

☞ The Springfield Republican intimates that the Richard Realfe, who is figuring in the South, and is ready to make astounding disclosures about John Brown's confederates is a very clever humbug and impostor, The real Realfe was in jail, but Cook didn't recognize him, put the officers on the wrong scent, and the real Realfe is said to be in New England or Canada.

☞ The Atchison (Kansas) Champion says of the recent election, enough counties have been heard from to insure the election of the whole Republican State ticket by from 2500 to 3000 majority. The Legislature will be almost wholly Republican. The Washington correspondent of the New York Tribune says it is pretty well ascertained there that the Democratic majority of the Senate will resist the admission of Kansas this session, to debar the Republicans the advantage of its Presidential vote. Northern Democrats in the House may pretend to favor it, while conspiring for its defeat.

Newspaper making is a profession, to be learned, like that of law or tailoring.

PANORAMA OF "LIFE OF CHRIST."

The Press speak of this work in high terms where it has been exhibited. We have seen notices from the press in Portland, Augusta, Bangor and other places in Maine. We make some extracts from notices that our readers may judge something of the exhibition, that is to open at the Temple on Thursday evening.

[From the Bangor Daily Times.]

The last exhibition of this celebrated work, which has drawn admiring crowds, wherever it has been exhibited, and to whose intrinsic merits is superadded the apt and fluent delineations, by its accomplished exhibitor, Mr. Burnham, closed at Norombega Hall last evening. The pictures placed in glowing colors on the canvass, give a graphic representation of the most remarkable events which took place during the earthly sojourn of the Divine Master, and while with their artistic beauty they give pleasure to the eye, they also gratify Christian faith and affection. From the angel song that woke with harmony the stillness of a Judean night over the manger-cradle in Bethlehem, the various passages of sufferings, trials and miracles of that eventful career, up to the agony in the garden and on Calvary, follow each other in regular and beautiful procession, giving a vivid idea of what can never be too intimately known. Mr. Burnham is perfectly at home in his explanation, and in scripture text and appropriate quotation from Christian poets.

"No one can visit this exhibition without feeling that the influence must be good."—Bangor Daily Whig & Courier.

"This Panorama is one of the most instructive and useful works that has ever been exhibited.—Teachers and parents should let the children all go and see it. It is a moral work, and fixes the story of the gospel indelibly in the mind of childhood, and is not without profit to all others."—Gospel Banner.

"The exhibition in this city of the Panorama of the "Life of Christ," has met with great success. Crowded houses have witnessed each exhibition."—Augusta Age.

A celebrated female vocalist accompanies the exhibition, with appropriate themes of sacred song. The Temple will undoubtedly be filled on Thursday evening.

Diseases of Old Age.

As man approaches his allotted three score and ten years the vital powers begin to fail; stimulants of various kinds are used to strengthen the naturally failing system, such as wines, bark, &c. Instead of these, let the aged keep up the supply of the true strengthening element, Iron, by the PERUVIAN SYRUP, which offers a protoxide of that metal ready for immediate absorption.

Dr. Hostetter's Bitters have received the warmest encomiums from the press and people throughout the Union. As a valuable tonic for the cure of Dyspepsia, Flatulence, Constipation and general nervous debility, it cannot be approached. Every day new cases of its great effect are rehounded through our public journals. There is nothing equal to the enjoyment, to that which the afflicted experience when using this valuable specific. Its mild tone, its sure and vigorous action upon a disordered stomach, and the cleansing of the entire human body should recommend it to all classes of our community. All that will be necessary to convince the skeptical of its healthy effects, is to purchase a bottle and be convinced.

Sold by druggists and dealers generally, everywhere.

Among the restoratives which Nature has supplied to relieve the afflictions of humanity there is no more favorite one for a certain class of diseases than the "medicinal gum" of the Wild Cherry Tree; but however valuable it is, its power to heal, to soothe, to relieve, and to cure, is enhanced ten-fold by scientific and judicious combination with other ingredients, in themselves of equal worth. This happy mingling exists in that

HOME TESTIMONY.

BOSTON, April 18, 1852.
No. 48 Union St.

Mr. Seth W. Fowle,—Dear Sir.—Your invaluable medicine, I can truly say, has literally snatched me from the grave. Last July I was attacked by a sudden cold, which resulted in a very severe Cough, with violent pains in the side and chest. I became so much reduced, that my friends frankly told me that I must die. At this crisis, I heard of Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, and immediately sent for a bottle. The effect produced was indeed wonderful. My physician, one of the most respectable in Boston, who had previously told me that a cure was hopeless, came in, and I informed him what I had taken. He examined the Balsam, and advised me to continue the use of it, since which time I have continued to improve daily; and the same physician who had given me up, told me, a few days since, that I might yet live many years.

Respectfully, MARY ROWE.

We can cheerfully testify to the truth of the above statement, Mrs. Rowe having been an inmate of our family. WILLIAM DENNEIT,

☞ The meeting on the Constitution and the Union, for Portsmouth and vicinity, is to take place in Jefferson Hall, this evening.

PANORAMA & CONCERT.—Remember the exhibition at the Temple to-night. Besides the highly-praised Paintings, there will be good Vocal and Instrumental Music, by two young ladies from Lawrence, whose performances are highly spoken of.

Tickets only 15 cents.

☞ To accommodate those wishing to attend the Republican State Convention, to be held at Concord, Tuesday, Jan. 3, an extra train will leave Portsmouth at half past six on the morning of that day; returning, leave Concord at 3:30 P. M.

THE LYCEUM is to be wound up by a grand double Concert, on Wednesday evening of next week. Besides the Hutchinson Family, (comprising Asa, who is a whole troupe in himself, Lizzie and little Freddy,) there will be good piano-playing, by a gentleman from Boston.

☞ Atlantic Engine Co., No. 6, held a social Christmas party at their Engine House on Monday evening, which was attended by about fifty couples, among whom were Chief Engineer Hadley and several members of the city government. The evening passed away pleasantly, and the party was a complete success. At the supper table remarks were offered by the Chief Engineer and other gentlemen, and a poem was read by Mr. John F. Leverton.

☞ Cold weather, everybody says. So it was on Wednesday morning, when at the Navy Yard it was 7 below 0. In Portsmouth 8 to 10. At Concord, last Sunday morning, from sixteen to twenty-two below, in different exposures.

☞ On the 27th Dec.—The President's Message was sent in to both houses of Congress. In the Senate it was read.

In the House it was received, and after a little debate, laid on the table.

Mr. Wm. Smith of Virginia resumed his remarks on the slavery question, causing long extracts to be read. He said the North must prevent the scattering of incendiary publications—must put down all treasonable publications—must mind their own business—and the South must arm to provide against treason, must pursue a defensive policy, and prepare for the wrath to come.

Mr. Houston offered a resolution, proposing a temporary Speaker, for ten days, nothing to be done in the meantime except the passage of a bill to meet the deficiencies in the liabilities of the Post Office department, when the office shall become vacant, and the House proceed to the election of Speaker.

The Republican side objected to the introduction of the resolution.

Mr. Houston wanted to know if the objections came from the Republicans, who pretend great sympathy for the government mail contractors, but are unwilling to adopt a measure with a view to their relief?

Mr. Washburn of Maine said they would accept the resolution if John Sherman's name was inserted in the blank. Mr. Washburn wished it known that the Republicans want to elect a Speaker for the whole term.

The House then, as usual, took a vote for Speaker. Whole number of votes 208; necessary to a choice 105; Sherman 101, Scott 17, Houston 15, Gilmer 14, Bocock 14, Maclay 12; scattering 25. The House then adjourned.

SONS OF MALTA ROBBED.—The lodge room of the Sons of Malta, in West Troy, N. Y., was forcibly entered, one night last week, and every article used for the lodge was taken away. Among the articles stolen were 37 pitchforks, 8 gridirons, 7 pistols, one small brass cannon, (3 pounder,) 7 cavalry swords, 39 muskets, (with Maynard primers,) one large Bible, and several other articles, generally used for military purposes. A reward of $50 has been offered for the apprehension of the robbers, and for the recovery of the property $500 is offered.

KENTUCKY CORN CROP.—A Marvel.—The assessors in Kentucky, and the Secretary of the Board of Agriculture, report a corn crop of three hundred and eighty millions of bushels! We have been considering how much they raised to an acre, and find they must have had about three hundred bushels to an acre. We knew that Kentucky had a great deal of good land, but had no idea of such surprising fertility. This is a matter of some importanc, for we perceive that they estimate the value of this crop at one hundred millions of dollars!—Cincinnati Gazette.

That is to say in plain English, this marvellous story does not begin to be true, and the assessors statistics' are a budget of blunders.

☞ The N. Y. Herald's correspondence says that in the Democratic caucus for the nomination of printer to the Senate, it was proved and admitted that the Constitution paper was a losing institution to the amount of eighteen thousand dollars a year over and above its receipts, and that it was absolutely essential to give it the public printing in order to sustain it. Senators Toombs, Clingman, Brown and Clay opposed the nomination of Mr. Bowman, and threaten to ventilate the whole matter in the Senate.

Unprotected Female—The Goddess of Liberty.

MARRIED.

In Amesbury, Mr. Frank Ambach to Miss Roxanna Taylor, both of Amesbury.
At Groveland, Mass., Mr. Nicholas W. Chandler to Miss Ella C. Wilson.

DIED.

In Exeter, 18th inst., widow Sarah Mace, aged 69.
In Epping, Mr. Samuel Sulhnson, aged 60.
In Brentwood, 20th inst., Mr. Jefferson Farmer, aged about 59. Deceased left his home on Tuesday morning with a load of wood for Exeter. A short time after he was found dead in the road half a mile from his house. Supposed to have died from disease of the heart.

THE INSTITUTION.—The editor of the (old) New York Spirit of the Times, writing from Virginia, tells of

A splendid plantation, where life in its best phase is presented, where entire freedom is beautified by the elegance of the highest civillization, where wealth relieves the proprietor of all labor not intellectual or dignified, and where menial service is rendered by people prepared by our Maker for their position, and who perform their duties as the highest development of their inferior nature. The truly dignified agriculturist, it seems to us, from the patriarch Abraham's time to the present day, is only to be found where domestic servitude exists. * * * A negro gardener assisted occasionally by the younger members of the quarter, who mingle with the jolly labor of hoeing and weeding, an expenditure of hearty laughter, and indulge in an amount of frolic that is never witnessed outside patriarchal plantation life.

Wonder why the writer don't ship in that craft? why he don't join the happiest crew on earth?

☞ Quite moderate, after all, is the South Carolina Legislature. Various sets of terrible resolutions, full of secession and fight, were discussed in both houses. The House adopted one, raising $100,000, and the Senate another, committing treason, as far as talk is treason. But finally, on a conference, they threw them both out. The edge edge of this policy was somewhat blunted, says the Charleston Mercury, by a modification of these sets, which was adopted by both houses, and by which South Carolina "announces secession as her only remedy for Southern wrongs—in view of and to further which she invites immediate consultation with her sister Southern States." The question, therefore, is now fairly before the "sisters."

☞ In Boston, on Monday night, the mistress of a house of ill-fame at 39 Spring street, known as Mrs. Harriet Goodnow, was killed by Charles H. Goodhue, during a quarrel between them. She was a widow, and her real name was Freeborn. She was born in Tamworth, N. H., and is the daughter of a school-teacher, now dead.—Her maiden name was Harriet J. W. Means Goodhue has a wife and daughter, but has not lived with his wife for some years. He gave himself up to the officers, and is in jail. By his own confession, he is guilty of manslaughter.

MURDER IN PUTNAM, CT.—The man who was shot and robbed on the highway in Putnam, Ct., last Saturday, was James Collins. He died from his wounds on Sunday. He gave an account of the affair before his death. He said he did not know who his assailant was, had no suspicion of anybody, and did not know any cause for the assault. The murderer got only $4. Collins was 30 years old, and was married on Thanksgiving day. The town offers a reward of $200 for the arrest of the murderer.

☞ A correspondent writes the Boston Post from Mobile that the proceedings of the Union metting in Boston has had much influence toward allaying the excitement at the South, and that the forcible and eloquent speech by Gen. Cushing is warmly commended for its national spirit.

☞ The Douglas men in Congress announce that Douglas will support the nominees of the Charleston Convention, whoever they may be, and upon whatever platform they may embarke. So the "Little Giant" has surrendered, and is no longer the "rebel" unsubdued.—Newburyport Herald.

☞ Eldridge F. Paige, well known as "Dow, Jr.," the author of the famous "Patent Sermons," was found dead in a house of prostitution in San Francisco, on the 4th inst. He was a native of Litchfield, Ct. Ten years ago he was the editor and proprietor of the New York Mercury, but meeting with reverses, he went to California, where he became addicted to liquor, and died in the most utter degradation and misery.

☞ Subscribers to the New York Cosmopolitan Art Association (of which see advertisement of "Sixth Annual Announcement," in another column,) receive for their $3 subscription, the excellent quarterly Art Magazine for one year, and a splendid engraving of "Shakespeare and his Friends,' or the "Village Blacksmith," or "Manifest Destiny," or "Saturday Night," as they may select. THE ONLY PREPARATION
WORTHY OF
Universal Confidence and Patronage.

FOR STATESMEN, JUDGES, CLERGYMEN.

Ladies and Gentlemen, in all parts of the world testify to the efficacy of Prof. O. J. Wood's Hair Restorative, and gentlemen of the Press are unanimous in its praise. A few testimonials only can be here given; see circular for more, and it will be impossible for you to doubt.

47 Wall Street, New York, Dec. 20, 1858.

GENTLEMEN:—Your note of the 15th inst., has been received, saying that you had heard that I had been benefitted by the use of Wood's Hair Restorative, and requesting my certificate of the fact if I had no objection to give it.

I award it to you cheerfully, because I think it due. My age is about 50 years; the color of my hair auburn, and inclined to curl. Some five or six years since it began to turn gray, and the scalp on the crown of my head to lose its sensibility and dandruff to form upon it. Each of these disagreeabilities increased with time, and about four months since a fourth was added to them, by hair falling off the top of my head and threatening to make me bald.

In this unpleasant predicament, I was induced to try Wood's Hair Restorative, mainly to arrest the falling off of my hair, for I had really no expectation that gray hair could ever be restored to its original color except from dyes. I was, however, greatly surprised to find after the use of two bottles only, that not only was the falling off arrested, but the color was restored, to the gray hairs and sensibility to the scalp, and dandruff ceased to form on my head, very much to the gratification of my wife, at whose solicitation I was induced to try it.

For this, among the many obligations I owe to her sex, I strongly recommend all husbands who value the admiration of their wives to profit by my example, and use it if growing gray or getting bald. Very Respectfully,
BENJ. A. LAVENDER.

To O. J. Wood & Co., 444 Broadway, N. Y.

Slamaston, Ala., July 20th, 1689.

To Prof. O. J. Wood: Dear Sir: Your "Hair Restorative" has done my hair so much good since I commenced the use of it, that I wish to make known to the PUBLIC its effects on the hair, which are great. A man or woman may be nearly deprived of hair, and by a resort to your "Hair Restorative," the hair will return more beautiful than ever; at least this is my experience. Believe it all! Yours truly,
WM. H. KENEDY.

P. S.—You can publish the above if you like.—By publishing in our Southern papers you will get more patronage south. I see several of your certificates in the Mobile Mercury, a strong Southern paper. W. H. K.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.

Professor O. J. Wood:—Dear Sir:—Having had the misfortune to lose the best portion of my hair, from the effects of the yellow fever, in New Orleans in 1851, I was induced to make a trial of your preparation, and found it to be the very thing needed. My hair is now thick and glossy, and no words can express my obligations to you in giving to the afflicted such a treasure.
FINLEY JOHNSON.

The Restorative is put up in bottles of three sizes, viz: large, medium, and small; the small holds half a pint, and retails for one dollar per bottle; the medium holds at least twenty per cent. more in proportion than the small, retails for two dollars per bottle; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent. more in proportion, and retails for $3 a bottle.

PURE LIQUORS
—FOR—FAMILY
—AND—
MEDICINAL PURPOSES!

NO species of deception and fraud should receive stronger public condemnation than that of imposing upon the sick with

Adulterated and Poisonous Liquors!

The market is flooded with these adulterated poisons. They have found their way into every State, City, Town and Village in the country, and are carrying incurable insanity to the victims of these terrible agents.

In consequence of the startling developments in regard to

STATE AGENCY LIQUORS,

and the almost universal distrust which now prevails, and to the end that confidence may be restored, we come before the public, pledging our reputation to supply

UNADULTERATED LIQUORS
EXPRESSLY FOR
MEDICINAL PURPOSES.

In asking the confidence of those who have been so outrageously imposed upon by the POISONOUS COMPOUNDS of "LICENSED POLITICAL CHEATS," we would refer to our antecedents for the past eighty years, and we trust that our established reputation abundantly vindicates our claims to public confidence.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

"The Biningers, 338 Broadway, have a very high reputation to sustain, as the oldest and best house in New York."—Home Journal.

"The house of A. M. Bininger & Co., No. 338 Broadway, has sustained, for a period of eighty years, a reputation that may well be envied."—N. Y. Evening Post.

"The name of A. M. Bininger & Co. is a guarantee of the exact and literal truth of whatever they represent."—N. Y. Com. Advertiser.

"The importing house of A. M. Bininger & Co., No. 338 Broadway, is conducted upon principles of integrity, fairness, and the highest honor."—N. Y. Evening Express.

To Druggists, Town Agents and Physicians,

desirous of purchasing liquors of undoubted purity, we would say that our House has made a specialty of selling PURE, UNADULTERATED LIQUORS for Medicinal purposes, and we claim that they are superior to anything now before the public.

With these assurances on our part, we name a few of our bottled goods, which are now freely prescribed by the faculty

BININGER'S
GENUINE COGNAC BRANDY.

The infamous practice of adultering Brandies having become so common that a genuine article is the exception, it is of vital importance to those requiring it for family use, and invalids, that it should be of undoubted purity and efficacy. With a view to meeting the popular demand for a reliable Brandy in its natural state, free from alcoholic flavor and impurities, and fully appreciating the fact that it is often recommended by the Medical Faculty as a sustaining stimulant, when all other remedies fail, we are now bottling and selling at reasonable rates a Brandy of our own importation, from one of the most responsible houses in France, and known as "Bininger's Genuine Cognac Brandy." It is mild, delicate and fruity, and is designed to be always uniform in quality and character.

BININGER'S
OLD LONDON DOCK GIN

has been a favorite with the Profession for many years. For all cases of Gravel it will certainly work a cure, and if taken as a preventive, will remove all possible sediment. It is invaluable to females in diseases peculiar to their sex, and in cases of tendency to Phthisis or Consumption, will often ward off that fell disease.

BININGER'S
OLD KENTUCKY BOURBON.

Being distilled in 1848, and manufactured expressly for us with great care, it can be relied upon as a strictly pure stimulant, and peculiarly effective for the treatment of Lung Complaints, Dyspepsia, Derangement of the Stomach, Nervousness, &c.

BININGER'S
HEIDELBERG BRANNTWEIN.

Since its introduction into this country it has received the professional endorsement of our eminent physicians, for the effective treatment of Dyspepsia, Gravel, Rheumatism, Dropsy, Bladder Complaints, Suppression of the Menses, Nervousness, Derangement of the Stomach, General Debility, etc.

BININGER'S
OLD DOMINION WHEAT TONIC.

For Family and Medicinal Use.

This article has received the highest encomiums from eminent medical authorities as possessing qualities that are absolutely REMARKABLE; this desideratum renders it invaluable to those who are suffering from Consumption, Lung Complaints, Bronchitis, Impaired Strength, Lack of Vital Energy, &c.

☞ All the above articles are put up in Quart Bottles, in iron bound cases of one and two dozen each.

Orders from the country will receive prompt attention. Circulars, containing a list of articles and prices, forwarded to those desiring them.

STOVE STORE REMOVED.

URIAH BLAISDELL

Has removed his Stove and Furnishing Establishment one door north, to the spacious and convenient store

Nos. 43 & 45 Market Street,

where he is receiving and arranging a large and valuable Stock of

STOVES, TIN WARE, &c.,

Which he offers for sale at wholesale and retail, at very low prices. He has a great variety of the best and most popular Stoves, among which are:

1. The Stewart Cook Stove, with the latest improvements. This is an air-tight Cook Stove, for Wood or Coal; it has moveable coverings, which can confine the heat in the stove, or let it out into the room; has a reservoir of hot water 10 or 20 gallons, and a tin closet beneath;—a top cover, which is a great institution for baking, and will keep a coal fire all night; it has a Dutch Oven for roasting in front of the Stove;—and it is every way a most convenient and durable Stove. There are 4 sizes.

The following recommendation of Stewart's Stove, is from an eminent engineer, and must be satisfactory to all who wish to understand the value of this excellent Stove:

Portsmouth, N. H., Nov. 5, 1859.

Mr. Blaisdell:—Seven years ago I moved to this city, and sold, before I came, a "Stewart's Air Tight Cooking Stove," which I had used about five years. During that time no repairs or expense had been made upon it. Since I have been here I have tried the various Cooking Stoves in use, and I think for economy and durability the "Stewart" excels them all. I wish you would take away the Stove I now have from my house, and set up one of Stewart's as soon as you can. Your ob't servant,

B. F. CHANDLER.

BLOOD FOOD.

Dr. Bronson, having been so far reduced by consumption, as to be considered beyond all hope of recovery by the most eminent of the medical profession, and also by himself—a regular physician of twenty years' practice—as a last resort, conceived the idea of ANALYZING THE BLOOD, and applying the subject of phisiology to the more immediate connection, and effect of the state of the blood upon the health and system. The result has been the production of this "BLOOD FOOD," from the use of which, Dr. Bronson was restored to perfect health. Within six months after its introduction, over 2000 consumptives were effectually cured by it. If you have any complaints of a consumptive tendency, Cough, Cold, Hoarseness, Palpitation of the Heart, Loss of Appetite, or Pain in the Side, lose no time in procuring a bottle of the "BLOOD FOOD." If you are suffering from Nervous Debility, or your sleep is broken and disturbed, if your Spirits are depressed or your organs relaxed, you will find in this an unfailing remedy, by commencing with ten drops. If your Liver is torpid or diseased in any manner whatever, one or two bottles will be sure to invigorate, and bring it into lively and healthful action. In the most inveterate cases of Dyspepsia, the patient can here find the most efficient and grateful relief. A benefit is always experienced after taking only one bottle. In Male or Female Complaints or Weaknesses, the sufferer, after trying other remidies in vain, may rest assured, that a certain cure will result from the use of two or three bottles. The "BLOOD FOOD" is effectual in all cases of Eruptions, Salt Rheum, Scrofulas, and other like complaints. Pale and emaciated children and adults are immediately benefitted by its use. It gives strength to the body, and color and beauty to the skin. Physicians of all schools are using it with wonderful success.

For full directions, see circulars. Price $1 per bottle.

Sold by CHURCH & DUPONT, Druggists, No. 36 Maiden Lane, New York.

And by all respectable Druggists throughout the country. In Portsmouth by W. R. PRESTON.

CHAPTER I.
BEFORE THE GALE.

The good ship Pathfinder, of New York, and bound to Copenhagen, had entered the North Sea, having left the Straits of Dover two days behind.

The commander of the ship was a young man, not over eight-and-twenty, and his name was Maurice Lester. He stood by the taffrail, gazing off upon the horizon to the eastward, ever and anon raising his hand above his head to feel if there was any wind stirring, and as often casting his eye aloft to see how the canvas hung. As he stood thus his mate approached, and spoke to him:

"What d'ye think of this Capt'n?"

"I think we're in for a storm, sir," the master replied. "And I tell you what it is, Griffin," he added, after sweeping the horizon again with his eye "when it comes it will be an earnest one. None o your broad Ocean puffs, with nothing but water to hatch wind from; but we'll have it right fresh from some of those places where they know how to make things blow."

"Then you think we'll have a hard one?" said Griffin.

"Aye," answered the captain, with almost a shudder, "I feel it in my bones."

In the meantime Captain Lester had been watching the sea and sky as before, and he fancied that the signs of the storm were growing more and more palpable every moment. The sun was going down in a thick bank, giving to the whole western horizon a dull, purplish-red, bloody hue, with here and there spots of a darker tinge, like openings, through the fiery cloud, looking upon a fearful blackness behind.

"Do you see how strangely it looks off there?" said the captain, raising his finger towards the point where the sun was setting.

"Aye," returned Griffin, "I have been watching those dark places."

And others noticed the same thing, and spoke of it, too.

Seven o'clock came and went. Eight o'clock came, and the first watch was set.

"Don't go below," said the captain, as the men of the last dog-watch left their stations. "This calm can't last a great while. You had better batten down the hatches now, while there is nothing else to do; for I am sure there will be need of having them close before the coming of another day."

The men had had no thoughts of going below, for they could see and feel; and they were not wholly ignorant of what was coming; so they went at work and secured the hatches with thick tarpaulins; and when this was done those who had no particular station collected about the wheel. Another hour passed away—and another. Ten o'clock came, and still not a breath. The ship lay upon the water like a dead thing, with the ropes, and blocks, and sails, rattling and flapping as she was swayed to and fro by the lazy swells of the sea.

"What does it mean?" cried Griffin, as the boy struck five bells.

"Hark!" said the captain, almost instantly. "I guess you'll soon see. Did you feel that? Ha!—and that?"

It was a puff of wind, and a light flying of spray; or, perhaps it was a spit of rain. At all events, the puff was felt; and the drops of water fell upon other cheeks than Maurice Lester's; and other ears than his heard the dull moaning which came over the dark waters. So other ears heard the roar which followed, and other bodies quivered beneath the shock of the storm-giant when he came in his might.

Aye—the storm had come. It came with wind and rain, and with an angry heaving of the sea. It came with a darkness like Erebus, and with the voice of thunder. The gale continued to increase in fury as the long night passed away. When the morning came the scene was one of awful grandeur. The wind was howling with terrific fury; and the broad sea was lashed into huge mountains that foamed, and tumbled, and leaped along over the bosom of the deep, seeming every momen; ready to whelm and engulf the frail bark that struggled within the demon grasp.

When Captain Lester had observed the signs of the morning, he feared that the storm would continue through the day, and so he told his men. The sky wore a hue of horror, and rain was now driving down, mingling with the lashing sea. At noon it was still worse.

At length night shut in again, and not a sign of the passing away of the storm! The frightful howling of the tempest seemed rather to have increased than abated. The men gathered upon the quarter-deck, clinging for support to the racks and rails—for the life-lines swayed so much that they were afraid of them—gathered as near to the binnacle-lamp as they could, as though even from such feeble beams they might find some comfort. But not all were there. No—not all! Four stout, true-hearted men had been swept away by the storm. Near a score were left; but how many shall see the light of another day?

At nine o'clock Captain Lester went below. He took down a chart of the North Sea, and having spread it upon the table, he sat down to examine it. He was thus engaged when Mr. Griffin came down; but he did not look up until he had finished the calculation.

"How is it?" the mate asked, as he saw his commander lay down the dividers.

"I have been making a reckoning, and I find that we have but little more sea-room left. The course we have made since we wore, has been, as near as I can calculate, north-west-by-west, so that we must have been driving towards the coast of Northumberland. I think we have plenty of room to stand on until midnight; but we cannot stand on much longer. If the gale does not abate by that time I know not what we shall do."

The captain started up from his chair, and would probably have walked across the cabin, but at that moment a heavy sea caught the ship, and gave her a pitch forward, which caused him to catch his seat as quickly as possible. As soon as the food had gone from the deck, and the vessel had struggled up from the shock, he looked into his companion's face, and said, in a voice made tremulous by deep-ereemotion than he had before manifested:

"Griffin, I have something upon my mind more than you know; and I am anxious to communicate it, too. I must tell it now, for I have a strange foreboding of coming ill. Something is to happen that will bear great calamity to some of us. I am not croaking—I am only reading what the Unseen has written in my soul. However, you shall hear my story. You have heard that my parents were both lost at sea?"

"Yes," said the mate.

"And perhaps you knew that they were lost in this sea?"

"I have heard so, sir."

"Aye—so it was. I was a boy then. They were on their way to Copenhagen, as we should be now. My father commanded the ship—she was called the 'Clara Jane.' She was named for my mother; and she was a staunch, noble craft. I was at school then, in Troy; and when I knew that

Portsmouth, N. H.

FRIDAY, DEC. 30, 1859.

☞ Communipaw, a foreign correspondent of the Boston Post, thus gives his views on pastoral dependence and independence.

I have no objection to a man having strong opinions on questions of great interest to humanity, and of giving expression to them at all proper times and places, but when a man is working for wages, he is not entirely a free agent. The church system in the United States, looking at the relation of pastor and flock, is that of employer and employed. When a Peter the Hermit, a Parson Clapp, or a Parker, can raise a flock, and carry them with him, in any kind of a doctrinal race that he chooses to run, it is all very well, but when a clergyman is engaged by a well settled, prosperous congregation, who are connected with a particular sect, there is some limit to the vagaries and eccentricities that can properly be indulged in.

Wonder he did not put in Beecher, Chapin, and Miner. The true state of the case is, it requires a strong man and a wise one, to be independent and keep his place with a prosperous people—and that is the whole of it.

In the 100 years before 1776, the New England clergy had preached liberty,—and in 1775–6 their preaching bore fruit in resistance, rebellion, and revolution.

☞ The New Haven Palladium says that Capt. Mayo, of Bangor, Me., arrived in that city a few days since with his vessel, the Romp, and made a statement of rather hard treatment at the hands of the State of Virginia. After the Harper's Ferry affair, Gov. Wise issued an order that the captain of any vessel leaving a harbor of that State without first giving him information, should be subject to a fine of $500. Capt. Mayo, who has been engaged in the coasting trade, and who knew nothing of this law, entered a harbor of Virginia, landed his cargo, took on board another for New Haven, procured the proper clearance papers, and set sail. He was obliged to return, however, in consequence of head winds, and, upon touching the land, was arrested by Virginia officers and ordered to pay the fine of $500. As he was unable to pay the fine, his vessel and cargo were taken possession of by the authorities, who also demanded his papers, but these he refused to give up. The Captain in vain attempted to obtain redress in a U. S. Court, in session there, but finally succeeded in raising the necessary sum, in Boston, which he paid over, when his vessel was released from custody.

More Kansas "Outrages."—The Butler, Bates county, Mo., correspondent of the St. Louis Republican (Democratic paper) gives an account of more outrages in Kansas. It appears that a man named Bell, of Lafayette county, was in pursuit of a runaway slave, who he thought had taken refuge at or near Ossawatomie. Accompanied by two inhabitants of West Point, Mo., Mr. Bell reached the house of a Mr. Taylor, about four miles from Ossawatomie, where they put up for the night. Soon after the house was surrounded by a band of forty men, who obliged Bell and his friends to surrender; they were then divested of arms, overcoats, hats, boots, &c., &c., which were divided among the crowd, and the negro was brought forward to confront them with mockery and laughter. Their horses were then taken from the stable, and, after compelling them to give the negro fifty dollars, the fugitive was mounted on the best horse and started for Canada. The correspondent says that he has pretty good reason for believing that this outrage will be avenged.

☞ James Daly, of East Boston, is in jail for murdering James Carroll by beating with a cudgel on the head. Cause, jealousy, and a little rum. Both of them are laborers, both have families. The dead man was thought by the police to be drunk, when they found him. The prisoner is well known to the police, and has been arrested by them before for drunkenness.

Temperance Movement.—We are assured a new and strong temperance movement is about to be made in and about Concord; and the opening address of Rev. Mr. Adams, a short time since, is to be followed by an address by Rev. Mr. Merrill of Salisbury, in Concord, next Sunday evening, and other meetings during the ensuing week.—Cong. Jour.

Independence. — Our readers know that we have never agreed to endorse the opinions of our correspondents, and that it is very much our humor to let the other side disport itself freely in our columns, provided it can represent itself cleverly and readably; the complexion of our own views, we are sure, is not easily mistakable, nor is their influence lessened by the hospitality of our columns to those of other ways of thinking. —Dwight's Journal of Music.

When Tommy takes it into his head that he wants a sugar plum, and his mother refuses, and he begins to rage, and foam, and scream; and his very very kind mamma, fearing he will break a blood vessel, yields the point so far as to give him the sugar bowl, will Tommy be likely to be cured of his unruly, turbulent and domineering spirit? Haven't we Tommies in Congress, and haven't we had too many yielding mammas all over the country?—Bath Times.

☞ The debate in Congress was kept up in the House, Wednesday, Dec. 28, by Lecompton Democrats, Douglas Democrats, and North and South Americans. About twenty members took part in the debate, which was chiefly defining positions, and trying to unite on somebody to defeat Sherman.

Mr. Morris of Illinois made the longest speech. He alluded to Mr. Sherman's course on the Kansas bill, and the army appropriation bill in the 34th Congress. He spoke of the objects of the Republican party, characterizing them as treasonable.

Mr. Dunn called him to order, as the gentleman violated propriety in using the term treasonable. He said if the epithet applied to any one, it must be upon the other side of the House.

Mr. Rust declared his adherence to the re-opening of the African slave trade, and that he did not seek the extension of slavery north of 36 30. There are in Arkansas uncultivated lands enough for all the surplus labor.

Mr. Haskin said he was conservative in his principles, and should vote, as heretofore, for Mr. John Sherman, whose Union-loving sentiments met his entire approval.

Mr. Cox said he would vote for any anti-Lecomptonite who may be selected, but his duty to his constituents would not permit him to vote for any one of the South Americans, who are not only opposed to the doctrines of the Democratic party, but to civil and religious liberty.

Mr. Hill said the South Americans could get along without him. (Laughter.)

Mr. Burnett wished to know whether Mr. Maynard belonged to the American organisation.

Mr. Brabson replied that Mr. Maynard was one of the Fillmore electors, but never belonged to the American Order.

Several Democrats briefly gave their reasons why they should vote for Mr. Maynard. Mr. Avery remarked that he did not wish to see the seat once occupied by Clay and Polk desecrated by a Black Republican. (Applause and hisses.)

Mr. Lamar said that the debate was not in order during the vote.

The Clerk thought the point of order well taken.

The discussion, however, continued, and the Republicans kept calling the speakers to order.

The vote resulted:—whole number, 208; necessary to a choice, 105; Sherman had 101, Maynard 65, and the remainder were scattering. Adjourned.

An analysis of the vote for Speaker shows that Sherman retains his relative strength, lacking four votes of an election. All the Americans except two (Davis of Md. and Briggs) voted for Maynard.

Disappearance of a Government Clerk.—A dispatch from Washington to the Baltimore Sun says that P. H. Hale of Indiana, clerk in the office of the fifth Auditor, by prefixing to an endorsed draft for $1700, that came to his desk officially, the words "pay to P. H. Hale, or order, assignee," he succeeded in getting the money from the Treasury, and left suddenly for parts unknown. The draft was drawn by our Consul at Lahaina, in favor of Captain Brewer of Boston, whom Hale represented to be a personal friend, and from whom he professed to have a letter asking his services in procuring the money from the government. Hale is a family man, and has a collegiate and legal education.

☞ The captain of the slave yacht Wanderer, with his boat's crew, have turned up at Teneriffe, as we learn by the following item:

Teneriffe, Dec. 1.—Capt. Geo. Walker and four men of the American schooner "William" had been landed near Teneriffe by a French vessel. They had been abandoned by their vessel, which was in charge of the mate, while engaged in obtaining provisions from the French barque Jeannie.

The reader will perceive that this item confirms the sailing master's statement, as far as it goes.

☞ An Alabama paper gives circulation to a story that by the recent death of a rich Cuban creole, developments have been made showing that Lopez was not garroted in 1851: that he was rescued by bribery, Gen Concha conniving, and died in his bed in the house of a friend near Mtaanzas in 1857. A criminal was executed and passed off for Lopez.

☞ Last Saturday morning, Hiram Chadwick, aged 45 years, was found dead in Hopkinton, N. H., frozen stiff, with a bottle in his pocket, containing a little rum. He has been travelling toward this end for 8 or 10 years.

Walking Horses.—An exchange says that more attention ought to be paid in training farm horses, to teach them to walk fast. Fast walking is of more value to the farmer than fast trotting; and a fast walker can do much more work or travel than a creeper.

☞ In Massachusetts, Gov. Banks has vetoed the new Militia Bill, authorizing colored militia, because it was unconstitutional. The legislature sustained the veto, passed a new bill—and have now enacted their revised code in full.

☞ Barbee's very pretty Statue representing an under-sized fisher-girl in a graceful sitting posture, mending her net, has been sold for $2750, at which figure the marble beauty was knocked down to the Cosmopolitan Art Association.

The number of legal groggeries in Maine, the Bath Times assures us, is 600. If they all do a living business, temperance must be nearly dead there. Then there are the illegal groggeries, and the amount of private tippling is something to be added to the gross total, not to speak of the liquor that is used mechanically and medicinally. Is there not some explanation of the matter, that will relieve Maine from the implication of being more temperate in theory than in practice? Her rank is high as a moral State, and we had understood that her temperance legislation reflected public opinion. —Traveller.

So it does; but not the opinion of her drunkards, tipplers, and other allies. No explanation is necessary, in regard to what the Times calls the 600 legal groggeries.—This is the nickname by which a class of writers try to throw odium on the town agencies, which are established by law to sell liquors for mechanical purposes.

New Lights.—The Nashua Telegraph gives us the following rich item:—

There is a secret organization in this city, for political purposes, in which some of our political opponents who stood so aghast, at the very thought of such an organization, when know nothingism sprang into existence, and did them such havoc. Its Grand Hyossiamos, however, is a gentleman who was an early convert to know nothingism, and had no especial horrors for it until he found that he could not make it answer his selfish purposes. And our friend of the Gazette may be seen with a very dark lantern, every night of their nocturnal orgies, groping his way after the peculiar light which the institution affords. Their purposes are to promote the success of democratic principles in general and free rum in particular. They have their signs and countersigns, grips, pass-words, emblems and devices. Their meeting are called after the manner of the know nothings, by the appearance of a mysterious signal about the streets. The leaders do not paronize "extended" liquors if they know it—and some of them have drank enough in their day to be good judges—while the rank and file have drank a great deal that is "extended" beyond sounding. This association is not the Sons of Malt-a, whatever name they may assume. They go a long ways beyond malt liquors.

At a prayer meeting held last week in Beecher's church, sympathy for Brown was expressed to the exclusion of christian doctrine until Mr. D. B. Dibble, who has lived many years at the South, arose and defended that section in language of so much kindness aad courtesy that he was listened to attentively, and in the opinion of an informant of the Journal of Commerce, he did much to allay the fanatical feelings of those hot headed abolitionists.—Post.

Wealth is not acquired as many persons suppose, by fortunate speculations and splendid enterprises, but by the daily practice of industry, frugality, and economy.—He who relies upon these means will rarely be found destitute; he who relies upon any other will generally become bankrupt.

Idleness is not a thing of class or country. Idleness is mental torpor. Idleness is the sign of a fool. People who acquire wealth without gaining knowledge or taste, or moral sense, are idle necessarily. They have nothing to do and have not the wit to find something to do.

It is not possible for every man to become a strong man. But it is possible for every man, having the opportunity and the will, to take a proper amount of air and exercise to become a healthy man, except in abnormal cases.

If our better classes had the pluck and stamina of the better classes in England, would rowdyism be so rampant as it is in the streets of many of our principal cities?

NEW PUBLICATIONS.

Fragrant Flowers, and other Poems.—By Daniel A. Drown, Portsmouth, N. H. Boston: published by Walker, Wise & Co. Portsmouth: James F. Shores, Jr., and Joseph H. Foster.

This beautiful volume of 226 pages is a collection of short poems by a fellow townsman, well known to many who read this notice, both for his merits and misfortunes.—The author and his book are both commended to our sympathy and our taste by another of our own poets, the genial Benj. P. Shillaber.

The poems themselves abound in sentiment, pathos, faith and hope. And a testimonial to the worthiness and necessities of the author is signed by Rev. Drs. Burroughs, Peabody and Lamson of Portsmouth, Rev. Henry D. Moore of Portland, J. W. Bonham of Lowell, Mass., Moses Grant and Rev. Thos. Starr King of Boston, and Alvah Hovey of Newton.

The book deserves a ready sale, for its own sake. It should have a large sale here, and among the sons of Portsmouth, for its author's sake.

Diseases of Old Age.

As man approaches his allotted three score and ten years the vital powers begin to fail; stimulants of various kinds are used to strengthen the naturally failing system, such as wines, bark, &c. Instead of these, let the aged keep up the supply of the true strengthening element, iron, by the PERUVIAN SYRUP, which offers a protoxide of that metal ready for immediate absorption.

Dr. Hostetter's Bitters have received the warmest encomiums from the press and people throughout the Union. As a valuable tonic for the cure of Dyspepsia, Flatulence, Constipation and general nervous debility, it cannot be approached. Every day new cases of its great effect are chronicled through our public journals. There is nothing equal to the enjoyment, to that which the afflicted, experience when using this valuable specific. Its mild tone, its sure and vigorous action upon a disordered stomach, and the cleansing of the entire human body should recommend it to all classes of our community. All that will be necessary to convince the skeptical of its healthy effects, is to purchase a bottle and be convinced.

Among the restoratives which Nature has supplied to relieve the afflictions of humanity there is no more favorite one for a certain class of diseases than the "medicinal gum" of the Wild Cherry Tree; but however valuable it is, its power to heal, to soothe, to relieve, and to cure, is enhanced ten-fold by scientific and judicious combination with other ingredients, in themselves of equal worth. This happy mingling exists in that

Boston, April 18, 1852.
No. 48 Union St.

Mr. Seth W. Fowle,—Dear Sir:—Your invaluable medicine, I can truly say, has literally snatched me from the grave. Last July I was attacked by a sudden cold, which resulted in a very severe Cough, with violent pains in the side and chest. I became so much reduced, that my friends frankly told me that I must die. At this crisis, I heard of Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, and immediately sent for a bottle. The effect produced was indeed wonderful. My physician, one of the most respectable in Boston, who had previously told me that a cure was hopeless, came in, and I informed him what I had taken. He examined the Balsam, and advised me to continue the use of it, since which time I have continued to improve daily; and the same physician who had given me up, told me, a few days since, that I might yet live many years.

Respectfully, MARY ROWE.

We can cheerfully testify to the truth of the above statement, Mrs. Rowe having been an inmate of our family. WILLIAM DENNETT, MARTHA DENNETT.

Fousel's Pabulum Vitæ.

☞ THE GREAT FRENCH REMEDY possesses extraordinary properties for the speedy and permanent cure of Consumption, Bronchitis, Coughs, Colds, and all Pulmonary Diseases. This celebrated specific is now universally acknowledged to be infinitely superior to all other preparations for the cure of Pulmonary Diseases, both from its innocent nature and most astonishing curative properties; it being the only remedy known that will arrest the development of Tubercles in the Lungs or restore the vital functions of the pulmonary organs to their normal condition. Its invaluable properties have obtained for it the highest recommendation and praise from some of the most eminent physicians and chemists in the country, while the best and surest proofs of its merits are afforded by the numerous testimonials of its great efficacy in conquering disease, which are constantly received from our most respectable citizens. Invalids in all stages of pulmonary disease should not fail to give it a trial, as it can be administered to the most delicate and feeble with perfect safety and certain relief; and we hereby insert a few testimonials for their encouragement, selected from hundreds of like import.

Certificate of Dr. A. A. HAYES, in reference to the unequalled virtues of this great discovery.

This preparation, by chemical analysis, was proved to be free from opium, or any of its compounds; nor were any of the alkaloids present. It does not contain any mercurial or mineral substance, but consists wholly of vegetable, diffusible agents, which afford vapors freely at a moderate temperature. Most of the substances present are officinally used in alleviating pulmonary disease, but the device by which they are combined is new and original, and adapts the compound to inhalation, or other modes of administration.

Respectfully,
A. A. HAYES, M. D., State Assayer.

16 Boylston St., Boston, Dec. 1857.

In the Boston Transcript of December 11, 1858, the editor says:—

"We have seen a letter from an eminent physician of this city, in which he says:—I have used Fousel's Pabulum Vitæ in several cases of Bronchial disease, and in some with great benefit. I know of no remedy equal to it for children, where a nutritive diet is essential; or for adults of irritable stomachs, or having a tendency to reject ordinary medicines given for coughs, etc. I shall continue to use it in my practice."

Testimonial from the Sisters of Charity, of the St. Vincent's Orphan Asylum, in Boston.

Boston, July 31, 1858.

To Mr. F. Laforme, Agent:

"The Sisters are happy to state that, having used Fousel's Pabulum Vitæ, they have found it efficacious in several instances, for bad coughs and colds. Signed by the Sisters of Charity.

Testimonial from a well-known Apothecary's Clerk.

Boston, March 10, 1859.

J. F. Laforme, Esq.:

Dear Sir—I had been suffering for a considerable length of time from a severe cough, and had in vain had recourse to nearly all the remedies in use. My cough began to give me much uneasiness from its serious effects on my system, when three days' use of Fousel's Pabulum Vitæ restored me to complete health. The medicine being new in this market, I had recourse to it last; but I can now confidently recommend it as the best medicine I know of. Yours truly,

CHAS. H. FOSTER.

At Fred Brown's, Washington, corner State St.

In the Boston Post, Sept. 24, 1858, the editor says:

"An extraordinary cure of Consumption has recently come to our knowledge, effected through the instrumentality of Fousel's Pabulum Vitæ; the evidence of which is in the handwriting of the subject, Mr. Wm. P. Brigham, No. 130 Albany st, in this city. It seems that for eighteen months he had been exhibiting all the usual symptoms of Consumption, and that after having had recourse to the skill of various physicians, without benefit, he had to abandon his business and be confined to his house. Hearing of Fousel's Pabulum Vitæ, and of several remarkable cures effected by it, in cases as desperate as his own, he concluded to try it as a forlorn hope. The result has been most happy—he has now entirely recovered, and is engaged in his usual pursuits. It is such well authenticated cases as this that we take pleasure in laying before our readers, since, by so doing, many valuable lives may be saved, and much good effected.

It is sold at the low price of 50 cents, and $1.00 per bottle, thus placing it within the reach of all classes. F. J. LAFORME, sole Agent, Boston. M. S. UNION MEETING.—The meeting of "all good citizens of Portsmouth and of the State, who desire the continuance of the Constitution and the Union," was held at Jefferson Hall on Thursday evening.

It was called "in view of the recent events that have agitated and alarmed the country, and of the excited public feeling which endangers the existence of our free institutions," and "for the purpose of expressing the opinion of the community in the present crisis."

J. H. George, Esq., of Concord, and Albert R. Hatch, Esq., were the appointed speakers, and their addresses were received with "great applause" by the assembly, of course.

☞ Mr. E. O. Laughton, a well-known telegrapher, formerly of this city, but late manager of the Commercial Telegraph Line between New Bedford and Boston, died on the 24th inst., in Boston, and was on Tuesday buried here. His funeral was attended by a large delegation of Masons.

His disease was a wasting or consuming of the brain. Mr. Laughton was one of the early Washingtonians of Portsmouth, and was instrumental, among us, of doing much good in the temperance reform, as he had a taste for music, and gave temperance songs a good effect. His own active, energetic and useful course of life for the last sixteen or seventeen years, is one of the best monuments of the benefits of the Washingtonian Reform. Many friends here lament his loss.

☞ A gentleman who drives a horse into town sometimes, wants us to suggest to all persons who clear the snow from their sidewalks, the propriety and importance of levelling down the great piles of snow which now stand like walls between the walk and the carriage way. Some of them are so high and so hard, that they would overturn a sleigh very quick, if it should happen to be driven along one side of them, with one runner a little too close.

PANORAMA & CONCERT.—Remember the exhibition at the Temple to-night. Besides the highly-praised Paintings, there will be good Vocal and Instrumental Music, by two young ladies from Lawrence, whose performances are highly spoken of.

Tickets only 15 cents.

☞ To accommodate those wishing to attend the Republican State Convention, to be held at Concord, Tuesday, Jan. 3, an extra train will leave Portsmouth at half past six on the morning of that day; returning, leave Concord at 3:30 P. M.

☞ The continuation of the thrilling story begun on the outside, which is marked to be found "on the second page," we are unable to publish till Saturday—when we shall commence with the second chapter.

☞ The thermometer in this city Thursday morning was 13° below 0. Some glasses said 14.

☞ From the Ballot we learn, at Exeter, Saturday last, Dr. Wm. G. Perry was thrown from his sleigh by a sudden spring of his horse to one side, by which accident his right shoulder was dislocated and he received some other injuries.

Sporting men hereabouts will be interested in learning that John G. Cutler of Exeter, has disposed of his fast pacing horse, "Slider" to Mr. George Harris at a round sum—about $500 it is said.

The Granite State Bank, Exeter, has declared a semi-annual dividend of four per cent.

The Boston & Maine Railroad has also declared a like dividend.

☞ In New York city, on Thursday morning about 4 o'clock, while the weather was intensely cold, a destructive fire broke out among the warehouses in Beekman st., and some 20 or 30 are consumed. Among them, the paper warehouse of Cyrus W. Field & Co., who were insured for $80,000.

At half past 9 o'clock, A. M. buildings in Gold street, Fulton street and Ann street, running from William to Gold, which is filled with mechanics' shops, small dwelling houses and drinking saloons were in flames.

☞ Senator Seward arrived at New York in the Arago, Wednesday evening, in good health. The Young Men's Republican Committee fired a salute of 100 guns, in the Park, in honor of the arrival.

On Thursday morning, Republican delegations waited on him, and at noon he received his friends in the Governor's room in the City Hall, agreeably to the invitation of the City Government.

☞ European news to Dec. 14, by the Canada, speaks of continued peace, strengthened by the opinion of English and French merchants.

☞ A bank defalcation of $30,000 in Boston, has been paid up by friends of the defaulter, whose name is covered up.

☞ The N. Y. Tribune, a useful paper in emergency, styles the departure of the Federal students "The Sawbones Exodus."

THE STAMPEDE STUDENTS.—Philadelphia, Dec. 28.—An evening paper says that several students, who left Jefferson College, for Richmond, have returned and resumed their studies here, stating that they only joined the stampede to have a Christmas frolic.

The "large circle-ation" of crinoline seems to have been suggestive—a young lady of Edgefield, South Carolina, having gone to a fancy ball as "The Evening News," her dress made entirely of newspapers. We should like to subscribe to her!

NEWSPAPERS.

CHEAP BOOKS, ANNUALS, TOY BOOKS,

Fancy Goods, Stationery, &c.,

may be found at the subscriber's store.

Among the very large number of Newspapers that I furnish, I will call particular attention to but two—THE NEW YORK LEDGER—a paper that excels all others in enterprise and ability—The Hon. Edward Everett will continue to write for the Ledger, together with all the best talent in the world. THE NEW YORK TRIBUNE, the best paper in the world, for the news.

In calling the attention of the public to my list of Magazines and Newspapers, I would caution all against subscribing for Magazines, Newspapers, or other works, through irresponsible and transient persons, or travelling agents; for in nine cases out of ten you will be swindled and cheated.

If you wish to take any Magazine or newspaper, subscribe of some responsible agent in town. Hundreds of dollars are lost every year by subscribing for works of strangers and travelling agents, and by being induced to subscribe by the thousands of contrivances to cheat the public—such as Art Unions, Premiums, Cosmopolitan Art Associations, and various humbugs to gull the unwary. Keep clear of these, and pay your money to those whom you know to be responsible. The subscriber has been in the business fifteen years, and will guarantee to furnish any publication as cheap as can be obtained.

Patronize your own.

my parents were dead I was well nigh mad with grief. I fancied then, in my first hours of orphanage, that my heart would break; and, I think such would have been the case if they had kept me at school. But some of those who cared for me came to see me, and it was finally arranged that I should go to sea. And I prospered—prospered so well that, when I was twenty years old, they gave me command of a ship.

"The man who owned the ship which I first commanded was named Thornton. He had a daughter named Carrie—one of the sweetest, purest, and loveliest creatures that ever graced this poor life of earth. She was four years younger than myself; but even when I first knew her—and she was not then more than fourteen—she was a woman in intellect and grace, though a child in simplicity of love and confidence. Mr. Thornton did not object to my suit, so I loved her with all my soul, and was blessed to know that she loved me in return. It had been arranged that we should be married when she was twenty years old,—that had been our plan for more than two years, Mr. Thornton having set the bounds himself. It lacked two months of the time, and I had arranged to remain at home until we were married.

But, Thornton had a heavy ship freighted for Copenhagen, and her captain was dying. He could find no one to take his place but me, and he asked me to go. I could not refuse; but I asked that I might be married first. Mr. Thornton shook his head, and said no. But he had another plan which he said would be better. He had been planning to visit Copenhagen, where he had two brothers in business—they were in company with him—and he said he would take the next ship, and bring Carrie out with him, and we should be married there. I finally consented to take out the new ship, and Mr. Thornton, with his daughter, was to meet me in Copenhagen, and there we were to be married, and all three come home together. The evening before I sailed I spent with Carrie, and when I left her I felt that I was leaving my very life.

"Well," continued Lester, wiping his eyes, "I went to Copenhagen. I waited a month—then I heard that the American ship, 'White Foam,' with William Thornton and daughter on board, had touched at Dover, and that all were safe and well when she left. I waited another week, and then I crossed over to Hamburg; but I could learn nothing there. Next I went to London, and there I learned enough to assure me that the ship had been lost! On the second day after she left Dover a severe storm had arisen, and several vessels had been reported lost. I sent my ship home in charge of the mate, and spent four months in searching after the lost ones; but I could not gain any trace of them. Not even a piece of the wreck could I find—not a mark of the ship nor of one of its crew! I came home with a sad and heavy heart."

Maurice Lester stopped a few moments, and bowed his head upon his hands, for his feelings had almost overcome him. In a little while, however, he looked up again, and added, in a touching tone,—

"Ah, my dear friend, you do not know what I have suffered—tongue cannot tell it, nor can pen write it. That blow did break my heart—broke it in the rending of its tenderest cords, and in the crushing of all its earthly hopes!—Do you believe in dreams?"

"Well," said Lester, in a lower tone, "I have had a dream repeated many times; but never has it come to me so directly and so vividly as within the past three or four days. Carrie Thornton is not dead! I know she is not!—she has appeared to me repeatedly in a dream, and calls upon me to save her! To-night, as I stood all alone by the mizzen rigging, trying to peer out into the thick gloom, I heard her voice as plainly as you now hear mine, and she called out for me to save her. Of course what followed was mere fancy, though even that affected me much: I thought I saw her, standing not far off, upon a huge sea, with her arms stretched imploringly towards me—saw her then, with my eyes open, as I have often seen her in my sleeping dream!—"

At this point the captain was cut short in his speech by the cry of "LIGHT-HO!" from the deck. They hurried up and found the man crowding forward.

"What is it?" Lester asked.

"I think it is a light, sir," replied Parker. "Here, sir,—just stand here,—Now turn your eye about four points upon the larboard bow.—Wait, now, till she rises.—Ha—there!—there!—See!—Did you see it, sir?"

Yes—he had seen it; and he knew it must be a light upon the shore; but it was a great way off. He watched until he had seen it several times, and then he remarked to his mate that it must be a light-house. The light was bold and distinct, and evidently at a considerable height above the level of the sea; for, had it not been so, it could not have been seen at that distance. After a short consultation, during which reference was had to the chart of the Northumberland coast, it was decided that this light must be upon Dorton Point. To the north of Dorton, as the captain knew from personal experience, as well as from the chart, there was a snug harbor, of easy entrance. These things were settled.

As soon as it had been determined where the light was, Captain Lester made all possible haste to determine his course of action. Had the thing been practicable, he would have laid his ship to; but that could not be done. No one even gave it a serious thought. So it was determined that the ship should stand on, at least till something further was discovered.

At half-past twelve the gale had moderated considerably. The light was now to be seen very plainly whenever the ship rose, and the captain and his officers felt sure that they were right in their calculations.

"At all events," said the former, we have no choice but to stand on, at least——"

He was interrupted by a cry from the bows that made every soul start with horror:

"BREAKERS! BREAKERS!"

Captain Lester leaped forward, and in a very few moments he was satisfied that the warning had not been a false one; for he could not only hear the awful roar of the breaking seas, but he fancied that he could see the gleaming of the white foam as it flew high in the air. As quickly as possible the topsail was taken off, and the anchors cut loose. The ponderous grapplings plunged into the hissing sea, and the iron cables were spun through the hawse-holes like lightning. Snap went the starboard chain; and in a moment more a shock was felt as the larboard anchor found bottom: but it could not hold. The cable parted as though it had been a hempen string, and on swept the devoted ship.

"In heaven's name!" gasped Griffin, "what does this mean? See! The light is still burning as brightly as ever—at least a league away—and yet here are the rocks directly under our bows! What can it mean?"

Maurice Lester did not answer; but an old weather-beaten sailor, who stood at the wheel, and who had looked a thousand dangers in the face, answered for him:

"IT'S A WRECKER'S BEACON! I've seen such things afore. There aint no use in firin' the gun, sir. That light was put there to lead poor Jack to his death that the coast-sharks might pick his bones!"

"BREAKERS! ROCKS! On the starboard bow!—No!—On the larboard!—PORT!"

But it was too late for mortal help. The ship had met her doom. She went upon the rocks with a crash that sounded high above the roar of the elements.

WOLFGANG.

1. The Stewart Cook Stove, with the latest improvements. This is an air-tight Cook Stove, for Wood or Coal; it has moveable coverings, which can confine the heat in the stove, or let it out into the room; has a reservoir of hot water 10 or 20 gallons, and a tin closet beneath;—a top cover, which is a great institution for baking, and will keep a coal fire all night; it has a Dutch Oven for roasting in front of the Stove;—and it is every way a most convenient and durable Stove. There are 4 sizes.

The following recommendation of Stewart's Stove, is from an eminent engineer, and must be satisfactory to all who wish to understand the value of this excellent Stove:

Portsmouth, N. H., Nov. 5, 1859.

Mr. Blaisdell:—Seven years ago I moved to this city, and sold, before I came, a "Stewart's Air Tight Cooking Stove," which I had used about five years. During that time no repairs or expense had been made upon it. Since I have been here I have tried the various Cooking Stoves in use, and I think for economy and durability the "Stewart" excels them all. I wish you would take away the Stove I now have from my house, and set up one of Stewart's as soon as you can. Your ob't servant,

B. F. CHANDLER.

BLOOD FOOD.

Dr. Bronson, having been so far reduced by consumption, as to be considered beyond all hope of recovery by the most eminent of the medical profession, and also by himself—a regular physician of twenty years' practice—as a last resort, conceived the idea of ANALYZING THE BLOOD, and applying the subject of phisiology to the more immediate connection, and effect of the state of the blood upon the health and system. The result has been the production of the "BLOOD FOOD," from the use of which, Dr. Bronson was restored to perfect health. Within six months after its introduction, over 200 consumptives were effectually cured by it. If you have any complaints of a consumptive tendency, Cough, Cold, Headache, Palpitation of the Heart, Loss of Appetite, or Pain in the Side, lose no time in procuring a bottle of the "BLOOD FOOD." If you are suffering from Nervous Debility, or your sleep is broken and disturbed, if your Spirits are depressed or your organs relaxed, you will find in this an unfailing remedy, by commencing with ten drops. If your Liver is torpid, or diseased in any manner whatever, one or two bottles will be sure to invigorate, and bring it into lively and healthful action. In the most inveterate cases of Dyspepsia, the patient can here find the most efficient and grateful relief. A benefit is always experienced after taking only one bottle. In Kidney Diseases Complaints or Weaknesses, the sufferer, after trying other remedies in vain, may rest assured, that a certain cure will result from the use of two or three bottles. The "BLOOD FOOD" is effectual in all cases of Eruptions, Salt Rheum, Scrofulas, and other like complaints. Pale and emaciated children and adults are immediately benefitted by its use. It gives strength to the body, and color and beauty to the skin. Physicians of all schools are using it with wonderful success.

MOTHERS,

In presenting you with DR. BATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL we need only to make the superior merits of our great Carminative known to the mother, in order to secure its superior medicinal powers. Infants in the first place, it is the preparation of a regular physician, who is well qualified from much experience in infantile complaints to prescribe for them. WOLFGANG;

The Wrecker's Beacon.

CHAPTER II.

WOLFGANG.

Maurice Lester was near the starboard gangway when the ship struck, having started aft to look to the helm. The shock threw him upon his back, and he tried to get up; but ere he could regain his feet the flood of mad waters came surging over the bark, and he was thrown—he knew not where.—He only knew that the flood came—that it caught him in its giant grasp—that it hurled him as the gale hurls a feather—that his head was hurt—that his body was tossed and bruised—and then the lamp of his consciousness went out. When he came to himself it was daylight, and the rays of the sun were beaming above him. At first he did not attempt to move, any further than simply to assure himself that he was really alive and sensible; but sought to recall the events of the past, which he did, very clearly, up to the time when his ship struck upon the rocks,—he could go no farther.—After this he raised himself upon his elbow, and tried to gaze about him. He found himself upon a bed of sand, between two immense rocks. He had been landed there in that deep nook, and the tide had gone out and left him. In a little while he rose to his feet, and managed to crawl up, by the aid of a stranded spar, over a low part of the rocks.

After seeing all that was to be observed from this point, he moved on towards where he thought he should soonest find and open beach, for he felt faint and sick, and he wished to find help as soon as possible. After toiling over slippery, slimy rocks, and cruel, tearing crags, until his clothing was all torn, and his flesh bruised and lacerated, he finally reached an open space among the rocks, where many pieces of the wreck had been lodged, and where he found the bodies of three of his men. He hastened to the spot where they lay—two of them being clasped in each other's arms—but he found no signs of life.

With a sad, heavy heart, Lester passed on, and presently he found two more dead ones, and one of them was David Griffit, his chief mate. He kneeled down by the officer's side and raised the head; but it was cold and lifeless and the skull was broken! Gently he laid it back upon the sand, and then moved on again. And he saw more dead men also! Could it be possible that he had been the only one left alive?

Ha!—wait—what is this? It moves—it has life!

Captain Lester hurried forward, as fast as his feeble strength would permit, and found two men lying by the side of a heavy spar. One of them was dead: but the other gazed up into his commander's face, and stretched forth his hands as though he would ask for mercy. His name was Dick Mangle, and he had been one of the best seaman on board the ship.

"PoorDick!" said Lester, kneeling by his side, and lifting his head. "Are you badly hurt?"

"They've done it for us!" the sailor answered, in a weakening voice. "They've killed Tom.—Aint he dead?"

It was the body of stout Tom Bricket that lay close by, and when the captain had made himself sure there was no particle of life in it, he reported the same to Dick.

"But," he added, "what do yo mean? Who has had done you harm?"

"Haven't you seen 'em?" the man asked, struggling for breath.

"Seen whom? What do you mean?" demand-Lester, eagerly.

Dick started up to his elbow, and gazed around, but he seemed to find nothing for which he was looking, and he sank back again. Had he not made this effort he might have spoken further, but the act of rising had exhausted him, and the last grain of strength was leaving him.

"What do you mean?" cried Lester, as he saw that the poor fellow was sinking. "Has any body harmed you?"

Dick managed to raise his hand to his head—to a point above the left ear—and, as he did so, he whispered—

"Look out—they asked for the Capt'n. That's where they struck!" He tried to speak further, but his voice failed him

What could this mean? Maurice Lester started to his feet and gazed around. Who had killed his men?

The captain was disturbed in his meditation by the sound of voices not far off, and upon turning he beheld four men coming up from the water. A tall muscular man came in advance with gaunt frame; somewhere about fifty or fifty-five years of age; and habited in a garb of blue cloth, cut into a frock, or shirt which was secured at the waist by a broad pistol-belt.

Maurice Lester was startled when he beheld the stalwart leader and his three ruffianly companions; and, considering all the circumstances, it is no wonder that he was startled. However, he had not much opportunity for reflection, for, by the time he had fairly made out the party, they were upon him.

"Halle," the leader cried, as he saw our hero, "here we have another." And, as he came up, he added: "And I guess we've found a live one, too,—one that knows something.—Say—who are ye?"

This last sentence was addressed to Maurice, who quickly answered:

"My name is Lester. And now, to be fair, what is your name?"

"Well—I guess you've heard it before. Men call me Ryan Wolfgang."

"WOLFGANG?" repeated Lester, with a start.

"Yes. That is my name.'

Then WOLEGANG was not a myth after all.—That mysterious wrecker, whose name was a source of terror to honest sailors, was a being of flesh and blood, like other men. Maurice gazed upon him with wonder: and, as he gazed he felt that he looked upon a fiend incarnate. He had often heard of the pirate wrecker, and so dark and mystic had been the tales which the North-Sea sailors had told, that he had been inclined to believe that the whole theme was a fabrication.—Now, however, he had no more doubt, for the man before him looked as dark and bloody as were any of the pictures he had heard drawn of him upon the forecastle.

But our hero was not allowed much time for reflection. Wolfgang plied him with questions, to all of which Lester gave straightforward answers, well knowing that evasion would serve no practical purpose, and hoping by his frankness to propitiate the merciless fiend in whose unrestrained power he knew himself to be.

When the wrecker chief had elicited all the information he could, and learned with what a rich cargo the vessel was freighted, and that she had $40,000 in specie on board, he smiled grimly, and remarked to one of his confederates that she would perhaps be a richer prize over than the White Fawn had been a few years before. The mention of the name of the ill-fated ship in which Carrie Thornton and her father had been lost, gave Mau-

DIALOGUE

Between two Democrats—one of the old, the other of the new school.

Simmons—Neighbor Lufkins, what is the news from Congress?

Luf.—I see nothing particular in the papers, except that they have been wrangling and making speeches about who should be Speaker since Congress met. Southern members say that no man is fit for Speaker who approves of Helper's book; and that should a black republican be elected President of the United States, they would dissolve the Union.

Sim.—Good—I like their spunk. I wish that the Northern members would let the nigger question alone, and not be continually irritating our Southern friends. But if they don't, I should n't blame the slave States for dissolving the Union.

Luf.—I have been looking into these matters seriously of late, and I tell you that it was Southern members that first introduced the slavery question at this session into the Senate and House. They seemed to be much alarmed about the Harper's Ferry tragedy and the invasion of old Virginia.

Sim.—I hope they will hang every Northern abolitionist they can catch in the slave States, who preaches against their institution. Have we any right to meddle?

Luf.—Well, neighbor, things seem to be coming to a strange pass in this country. I have not until within a few years looked into matters which threaten the liberties of the nation, but think I now see that slavery is at war with freedom, and that there never can be any union or compromise, to last, betwixt the two antagonistic principles.—One or the other must ultimately kick the beam; and I shall go for freedom, and the principles for which the Constitution was established.

Sim.—Such talk from you surprises me. Are you going to turn into a black republican?

Luf.—No, sir, no. I have always been a democrat, which is something more than a mere name. No man can be a true democrat who is opposed to the equal rights of all classes, or the freedom of all. After the most careful inquiries, I find that nearly all the white people of the South, excepting about three hundred and fifty thousand slaveholders, are in a miserable, degraded condition, without the means of education, without property, without sufficient knowledge to assert their rights; and that the slaveholders, who own nearly all the land, lord it over the white people as well as the slaves.

Sim.—You astonish me. I cannot believe it—never heard the like before. Why, if such be the facts, why don't the white people move to other parts of the country, where they can buy land and cultivate small farms?

Luf.—For two reasons: they have not sufficient knowledge to migrate; and in the next place, they have no money or other property to purchase land. In truth, they only stay upon the face of the earth, getting their daily food the best way they can in a warm climate, by fishing, fowling, plunder from plantations, and other means.

Sim.—This is incredible. Surely they can labor, get pay for it, and buy their provisions.

Luf.—Consider a moment that the slaveholders own all the plantations, and while they can cultivate them with slave labor, of course they will not give wages to white people; and therefore they teach that labor is degrading to white people, and the latter are fools enough to believe it. If you doubt what I say, read the book of Helper, a native of North Carolina—the speeches of Cassius M. Clay, of Blair and others brought up in the midst of slavery, and of course knowing all about its evils and effects upon the public morals and our free institutions.

Sim.—If it is true that slaveholders own all the land, why then it would follow that the other white people could not get employment. I never was in favor of slavery, but then I should be very sorry to break from our Southern democratic allies.

Luf.—I once thought so, too; but now I don't understand how there can be any democracy where the white voters, too ignorant to assert their political rights, are led by the nose by the slaveholding leaders, as submissively as we lead our horses, and vote as they direct; and surely their oppressors cannot be democrats. The truth is, the slaveholders have no respect for our Northern democrats, because they do not toe up to their mark, as we now see by their denouncing our democratic Union meetings and the speakers, such as Cushing, Lincoln, Everett and others.

Sim.—These things are new to me, but I will soon inquire respecting their truth.—You said something about dissolving the Union, should a black republican be elected President of the United States. What did you mean by that?

Luf.—Some of the Southern Representatives in Congress so threaten; but mean only that should a President be elected devoted to freedom and opposed to slavery, the South would secede from the Union. That is all a humbug—for the leaders know that should the Union be dissolved, slavery would soon come to an end. I see no reason that the sixteen or seventeen millions in the free States should submit to the dictation of a mere handful, comparatively, of slaveholders.

Sim.—The newspaper that I take gives me no such information, but if, upon inquiry, I find that what you say is true, I will see you again, and you will hear no more from me about our Southern democratic allies.

☞ In Congress, on Thursday, Dec. 29, the usual personal slavery debate took place. Mr. Maynard, who had been voted for the day before as Speaker, apprehending that the future use of his name would fail to concentrate sufficient members to organize the House on a broad, national and conservative basis, he unconditionelly withdrew his name.

Mr. English nominated Mr. Scott of California as candidate for Speaker, who ought to be satisfactory to every national man.

A vote was then taken with the following result:—whole number of votes, 211; necessary to a choice, 106; Sherman had 102, Scott 83, Gilmer 14, scattering 11.

The House then adjourned.

The names of the six of the Southern Opposition who voted with the majority of the democrats for Speaker, are—Messrs. Boteler, Bouligny, Hardeman, Moore of Ky., Vance and Maynard.

☞ On the 28th of December, in Rochester, N. Y., a large Union meeting was held, which was addressed by Jas. Brooks, and ex-Governor Hunt. The resolutions adopted were of a mixed character, but the principal one is the following:—

Resolved, That we cannot too strongly rebuke the sentiment that the election of a President by a constitutional majority, having views of public policy with which the minority, do not coincide, would furnish a just cause for the dissolution of the Union. We, on the contrary, hold such sentiments to be deserving our censure, and traitorous; odious to all patriotic and Union loving men, and disgraceful to the civilization of the age; and we heartily give to our fellow-citizens, East, West, North, and South, our most solemn pledge that whoever may be elected President of these United States, in a constitutional way, shall receive from us, in the lawful discharge of his duties, the same willing obedience and energetic support which we have given to each and all of his predecessors; to sustain and protect him in the lawful discharge of those duties from all enemies within or without, at home or abroad.

There was an effort to lay this resolution on the table, but it passed by a large majority, and then the meeting adjourned.

WHO ARE THE DISUNIONISTS?—Congress has now been in session three weeks, and men of all parties have avowed their sentiments in regard to the Union. Who has threatened or justified disunion?

C. C. Clay, an Administration Democrat.
Alfred Iverson, do.
A. G. Brown, do.
Jeff. Davis, do.
W. M. Gwin, do.
L. M. Keitt, do.
M. J. Crawford, do.
J. M. L. Curry, do.
L. Q. C. Lamar, do.
Reuben Davis, do.
John J. McRae, do.
C. L. Vallandigham, do.
Roger G. Pryor, do.
Sydney Moore, do.
M. R. H. Garnett, do.
Wm. Smith, do.
W. P. Miles, do.
But not a single Republican!

These Disunionists have been rebuked by the Republican members; but their Democratic colleagues have not uttered a word in condemnation of their traitorous sentiments, On the contrary, they applaud and encourage them.

It is a note-worthy fact that the Union-saving meetings in the Northern cities, although they lavish censure on men who have been loyal to the Union all their lives, do not utter a single word of rebuke to these Disunionists!—Albany Evening Jour.

APPOINTMENTS.—The Governor and Council have appointed Hon. George W. Nesmith of Franklin, Associate Justice of the Supreme Judicial Court, vice Hon. Ira Eastman, resigned.

Hon. Thomas Pearsons of Nashua, Trustee of the House of Reformation, vice Hon. Thomas W. Gillis, resigned.

A. Herbert Bellows, Esq., of Concord, Aid-de-Camp to the Governor, with the rank of Colonel.

Hon. Samuel D. Bell of Manchester, Asa Fowler of Concord, and Geo. S. Fowle of Lebanon, Commissioners to take into consideration the subject, of establishing a system of town or local courts, &c.: also to frame a code of regulations for practice in chancery cases, as per Legislative resolve, June session, 1859.

☞ Gov. Wise made an eloquent speech at Richmond on the arrival of the seceding medical students. He created great enthusiasm when he said that Great Britain should be requested to prevent Canada from any longer being a land of refuge for fugitives from United States justice.

THE STOMACH.—I firmly believe that almost every malady of the human frame is either a high-way or a by-way connected with the stomach. You eat too much; you drink too much; you don't take exercise enough. There exists no donkey in creation so over-loaded as our stomachs.—Ex.

A SECOND FIVE MINUTES' TALK ON MORALS.—Messrs. Editors;—It is assumed that as water is the subduer of fire, so moral precedent is the correction of moral evil—not that any person or combination of persons would be likely to exhibit a perfect standard in all conduct, but acknowledging a true standard there is hardly any person but could, from experience, bring some idea which by being combined with the ideas of others, and joined to a spirit of counsel and helpfulness, would work wonders in the way of reform.

Also, it requires but a shallow discernment to discover that the moral evils with which society is afflicted are now producing more or less of suffering and violence, and that if unchecked their inevitable result will be extensive bloodshed. The consequences of evil are not within our computation;—we can judge of the quality of actions and may regulate and govern them, but have no power to control results.

Every effort therefore that is made with the view of examining into and correcting wrongs of any description, to elevate and purify the standard of morals, should receive the countenance and support of all.

It is true that an examination of this sort is not likely to prove very flattering to any individual, or to show any man or set of men to be free from the complicity, directly or indirectly, with existing evils:—but this fact should not prevent whatever efforts are in our power for their correction, and our determined protest against them. We may thus break the force of a bad example upon posterity, and help turn the tide of evil and its consequences—and do some of the best work that lies within the compass of human ability for the permanent establishment of Christianity, and for the general happiness and well-being of the human race.

In order to a proper scrutiny into general morals, we must take a full survey of all human actions, in their scope and bearing upon man as a spiritual and immortal being—and this leads us to discover that the position of some professions and occupations seems to be at the "gates of death," where the work that is done is to send the soul "reeking through!" while that of others is at the fountain of life;—of this latter class are those who furnish the means of nutriment for the growth and development of infant life, and for the strength and sustenance of toiling manhood.

With the former class, moral reformers have no immediate and direct concern, for various reasons; one of which is that they can hardly be reached by direct effort, and another is that from their ranks but little available force could be gained. They must, at the outset, be let alone, with the sole hope that the judgment arrived at in other directions will sway them.

The point where the angelic human soul first comes in contact with sense, affords the true stand-point and ground of first operations. We can there learn where the line of divergence to evil occurs.

The "bread" and the "milk" of the present day, then, is the first subject for consideration, and if opportunity is offered they will occupy the next "talk."

I could rejoice in a banquet where all the mouths of the great family could be brought to table, each to be served with one to two gills of pure milk, (a sufficient daily portion of that kind of food for a temperate person,) and an accompaniment of good wholesome bread. P. J. A.

"I think a man that swears is like a man that fires a gun in the street without seeing where the charge is going to strike. When a person uses profane language, he does not know what or whom it is going to injure.—It is a habit which steals upon a man gradually, but rapidly. It demoralizes a man's conscience, wounds his honor, injures his own soul, and hurts the feelings of others. It is profitable in nothing, and mischievous in almost every thing. I scarcely know of anything for which there is so little excuse. If you say that you indulge in it only when you are angry, I reply that it is worse than at any other time."—H. W. Beecher.

GARDENING FOR YOUNG LADIES:—Make up your beds early in the morning, sow buttons on your husband's shirts; do not rake up any grievances, protect the young and tender branches of your family; plant a smile of good temper in your face, and carefully root out all angry feeling, and expect a good crop of happiness.

RESCUE CASES.—Chicago, Dec. 29.—The Grand Jury of the U. S. District Court last evening found an indictment, under the fugitive slave law, against the citizens of Otta, Ill, for the rescue of an alleged slave in that city in October last.

CORTINAS DEFEATED.—New Orleans, Dec. 29.—Steamship Arizona is below. She brings Brownsville dates of the 20th inst. Cortinas had met with a defeat, and he had retreated. No further particulars.

☞ It is said that all the hotel-keepers who entertained Mrs. Brown on her journey from Charlestown to her home, refused to receive any compensation.

☞ The New Englanders in Montreal celebrated the anniversary of the landing of the Pilgrim fathers by an oration, a dance and a supper.

A NEW STATE.—Nebraska is coming.—The people are entering upon the work of forming a State Constitution.

Diseases of Old Age.

As man approaches his allotted three score and ten years the vital powers begin to fail; stimulants of various kinds are used to strengthen the naturally failing system, such as wines, bark, &c. Instead of these, let the aged keep up the supply of the true strengthening element, iron, by the PERUVIAN SYRUP, which offers a protoxide of that metal ready for immediate absorption.

Dr. Hostetter's Bitters have received the warmest encomiums from the press and people throughout the Union. As a valuable tonic for the cure of Dyspepsia, Flatulence, Constipation and general nervous debility, it cannot be approached. Every day new cases of its great effect are chronicled through our public journals. There is nothing equal to the enjoyment, to that which the afflicted experience when using this valuable specific. Its mild tone, its sure and vigorous action upon a disordered stomach, and the cleansing of the entire human body should recommend it to all classes of our community. All that will be necessary to convince the skeptical of its healthy effects, is to purchase a bottle and be convinced.

Sold by druggists and dealers generally, everywhere.

Among the restoratives which Nature has supplied to relieve the afflictions of humanity there is no more favorite one for a certain class of diseases than the "medicinal gum" of the Wild Cherry Tree; but however valuable it is, its power to heal, to soothe, to relieve, and to cure, is enhanced ten-fold by scientific and judicious combination with other ingredients, in themselves of equal worth. This happy mingling exists in that

"Combination and a form indeed"
Of medicine known as
Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry,
Whose value in curing Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Whooping Cough, Croup, Asthma, Pulmonary Affection and Incipient Consumption, is inestimable.

HOME TESTIMONY.

BOSTON, April 18, 1852.
No. 48 Union St.

Mr. Seth W. Fowle,—Dear Sir:—Your invaluable medicine, I can truly say, has literally snatched me from the grave. Last July I was attacked by a sudden cold, which resulted in a very severe Cough, with violent pains in the side and chest. I became so much reduced, that my friends frankly told me that I must die. At this crisis, I heard of Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, and immediately sent for a bottle. The effect produced was indeed wonderful. My physician, one of the most respectable in Boston, who had previously told me that a cure was hopeless, came in, and I informed him what I had taken. He examined the Balsam, and advised me to continue the use of it, since which time I have continued to improve daily; and the same physician who had given me up, told me, a few days since, that I might yet live many years.

Respectfully, MARY ROWE.

We can cheerfully testify to the truth of the above statement, Mrs. Rowe having been an inmate of our family. WILLIAM DENNETT, MARTHA DENNETT.

None genuine unless signed I. BUTTS on the wrapper.

Prepared by S. W. FOWLE & CO., Boston. and for sale by Wm. R. Preston, David Kimball, Nathan P. Thacher, J. H. Thacher, and B. Hutchings, Portsmouth; J. P. Packer, Greenland; and dealers everywhere. spno 4wd&w

Local Items.

☞ Since the days when first the old original Hutchinson Family sang here, in 1842, probably no other club of performers have pleased so well—though some of the other companies may have been equally or even more meritorious. And of that same world-renowned and world-honored band, no member perhaps—not even Judson, with his violin and fun—was more important or more admired than Asa, with his beautiful, rich baritone voice, doing the vocal bass for the quartet, while his viol rolled out an accompaniment for which there is no adequate substitute to us.

Well, that old favorite Family is dispersed, and in their place we have two or three off-shoots, with enough of the old leaven to keep the new batch well up to time and tune, as of old. The Family advertised to sing here next week, will give a fine concert—and one which, did it not have to bear comparison with those of the old club, would be pronounced excellent. They sing with melodeon accompaniment now; and it is possible that Asa may tune up his old bass viol for this occasion—as we hope he will, for it would cause the answering vibration of an hundred times more chords than the instrument carries.

When the Grand Piano, the only one ever brought into Portsmouth—was first played at the Temple; Mr. Louis H. Johnson performed,—as will be remembered by many, to the entire satisfaction of a large and heartily-applauding audience. And the performances of no pianist that we have heard in that hall since, however capable or distinguished, have seemed to us to be received with so general gratification. The complaint of all the famous players, with the masses is, that they play all sorts of music, but no "tunes." Mr. Johnson certainly plays tunes, and plays them well too. And he will have one of the best pianos in the world to perform on—which is no small part of the battle.

By the advertisement, it will be seen that all the above-mentioned attractions are to combine on Wednesday evening next, to give the closing Lyceum entertainment; and it would seem that to those who can enjoy any sort of music, this concert can hardly fail of pleasing in some part.

From the Rockingham Weekly Chronicle, Dec. 31.

☞ This paper closes the year 1859—and completes the seventh volume of the Weekly Chronicle. To all readers and paying patrons we wish a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year—and we shall hope equal good fortune for the few delinquents on our list, when they clear their consciences and our books by settling their bills.

Our terms are $1 a year in advance—cheap enough, in all fairness; and we don't want or intend to have any names on our list who are in our debt.

☞ The continuation of the exciting story, "Wolfgang," commenced yesterday, will be found on our outside this morning. Most people will pronounce it decidedly readable, though some may not like "the way in which it ends;" but as we didn't write it, of course they can't hold us responsible. We have only one correction to make—and that mistake was not ours—viz., in the last paragraph but one, the date should be Jan. 14, instead of 7th.

☞ The exhibition of the Panorama of the "Life of Christ," at the Temple, is visited by large and respectable audiences, who are well entertained. The painting possesses much interest. Music every evening. To-night we believe is the last chance.—Tickets only 15 cents.

☞ To accommodate those wishing to attend the Republican State Convention, to be held at Concord, Tuesday, Jan. 3, an extra train will leave Portsmouth at half past six on the morning of that day; returning, leave Concord at 3:30 P. M.

☞ Next to a year's subscription to the Daily Chronicle—we would suggest, as an acceptable and valuable New Year's Present, the beautiful picture, "Shakespeare and his Friends"—to be seen at Mr. Cobb's Music Store.

☞ Hon. Thomas L. Tullock will deliver an address before the M. E. Sabbath School, in the State Street church, Sunday evening, at half past six o'clock.

CITY ORGANIZATION.—The Mayor and other municipal officers elect will be installed at the Court House on Tuesday next, at 10 o'clock, A. M.

☞ The Funeral of Mr. Charles H. Fernald will take place at the Temple, Sunday afternoon, at the usual hour of church service.

☞ Cards of all sorts furnished at the Chronicle Office—Printed or Engraved.

☞ Burleigh says of Mr. Seward's reception at New York—"A great crowd collected as early as 9 A. M. Een of all classes, ages, conditions—ministers, lawyers, doctors—merchants, carmen, Irishmen, and all other men known to New York. And all united to make the welkin ring."

ROGUE'S policy:—Non-committal.

For the Chronicle.

A SPIRITUAL MEETING.—We visited Mercantile Hall on Wednesday evening, having seen a notice that one "Father" Cluer of Boston, would refute the statements made by Mr. Buckley of Dover, in his lecture on "Spiritualism a Humbug."—We expected when we went, that the "old war horse"—as he terms himself—would denounce Mr. Buckley in bitter terms; but were not prepared to hear him attack the church and everything connected with it;—but the vile slander uttered by Mr. Cluer against Mr. Buckley and others, is eminently worthy of the evil spirits—under whose influence he probably spoke.

It is useless for Mr. C. or any one else to appear before a Portsmouth audience and denounce a man simply because he does not agree with him in sentiments, and is classed among the young.

Mr. Buckley is a young man, and at the same time is one of the most popular and eloquent clergymen in the State, and is entitled to freedom of thought and speech.—The atrocious crime of being a young man, which the speaker did with such spirit and hatred charge upon him, Mr. Buckley will neither attempt to palliate nor deny; but can assure his friends that he is not one of those who are ignorant and abusive in spite of experience. OBSERVER.

We publish the above at the request of a respected correspondent, and will only say that denunciation is not argument, nor is calling hard names usually regarded as very good manners. And those who throw dirt, must not complain if they get somewhat defiled themselves.

☞ The Old Year is closing upon us, with its scenes of sorrow and of joy; and the New Year comes to-morrow with its freight of hope and fear, of expectation and apprehension. The pleasures of memory to us are far more abundant than its pains; and our hope for the future far outweighs all that fear can put into the scale. We regret the present loss of those whose faces have disappeared from earth this year or in previous years; but, trusting in Him whose years have no end, we expect to enjoy their company in his presence, when we, like our predecessors, shall have reached that "country from whose bourne no traveller returns."

☞ Mr. Everett has contributed to the Mount Vernon Association, through his personal efforts, nearly $70,000. The Association has paid to Mr. Washington $199,924—due Mr. W., $6601. The Regent states that it is necessary to raise the sum of $120,000 in order to provide a permanent fund, the interest of which will be expended in keeping the estate in repair, and in providing a force sufficient to protect and preserve the house and grounds in security, enforce order, &c.

The marriage of Garibaldi was authoritatively contradicted.

☞ The Washington correspondent of the N. Y. Tribune, referring to the attempt to unite on Maynard as the anti-Republican candidate for Speaker, says the Democracy are wholly demoralized by these attempted Know Nothing fusions, while the Opposition gain confidence on every test. Most of the pairs expired Friday, which will be beneficial to the Republicans.

The Herald's correspondent says it is thought the political friends of the mail contractors will allow the House to organize, either by absenteeism or the plurality rule, before the expiration of the week.

IT is said that the Empress Eugenie and the ladies of her Court have definitely abandoned crinoline; and that they have also substituted short dresses for long ones. The individual who reported the change forgot to state which end of the dress is shortened. Probably both ends. If so, it will be a case in which extremes meet.

Fousel's Pabulum Vitæ.

☞ THE GREAT FRENCH REMEDY possesses extraordinary properties for the speedy and permanent cure of CONSUMPTION, BRONCHITIS, COUGHS, COLDS, and all PULMONARY DISEASE.

This celebrated specific is now universally acknowledged to be infinitely superior to all other preparations for the cure of Pulmonary Disease, both from its innocent nature and most astonishing curative properties; it being the only remedy known that will arrest the development of Tubercles in the Lungs or restore the vital functions of the pulmonary organs to their normal condition. Its invaluable properties have obtained for it the highest recommendation and praise from some of the most eminent physicians and chemists in the country; while the best and surest proofs of its merits are afforded by the numerous testimonials of its great efficacy in conquering disease, which are constantly received from our most respectable citizens. Invalids in all stages of pulmonary disease should not fail to give it a trial, as it can be administered to the most delicate and feeble with perfect safety and certain relief; and we herewith insert a few testimonials for their encouragement, selected from hundreds of like import.

Certificate of Dr. A. A. HAYES, in reference to the unequalled virtues of this great discovery.

This preparation, by chemical analysis, was proved to be free from opium, or any of its compounds; nor were any of the alkaloids present. It does not contain any mercurial or mineral substance, but consists wholly of volatile, diffusible agents, which afford vapors freely at a moderate temperature. Most of the substances present are officinally used in alleviating pulmonary disease; but the device by which they are combined is new and original, and adapts the compound to inhalation, or other modes of administration

Respectfully,
A. A. HAYES, M. D., State Assayer.
16 Boylston St., Boston, Dec. 1857.

In the Boston Transcript of December 11, 1858, the editor says:—

"We have seen a letter from an eminent physician of this city, in which he says:—'I have used Fousel's Pabulum Vitæ in several cases of Bronchial disease, and in some with great benefit. I know of no remedy equal to it for children, where a minute dose is essential; or for adults of irritable stomachs, or having a tendency to reject ordinary medicines given for coughs, etc. I shall continue to use it in my practice.'"

Testimonial from the Sisters of Charity, of the St. Vincent's Orphan Asylum, in Boston.

BOSTON, July 31, 1858.

To Mr. F. LAFORME, Agent:

"The Sisters are happy to state that, having used Fousel's Pabulum Vitæ, they have found it efficacious in several instances, for bad coughs and colds. Signed by the SISTERS OF CHARITY.

Testimonial from a well-known Apothecary's Clerk.

BOSTON, March 10, 1859.

J. F. LAFORME, Esq.:

Dear Sir—I had been suffering for a considerable length of time from a severe cough, and had in vain had recourse to nearly all the remedies in use. My cough began to give me much uneasiness from its serious effects on my system, when three days' use of Fousel's Pabulum Vitæ restored me to complete health. The medicine being new in this market, I had recourse to it last; but I can now confidently recommend it as the best medicine I know of. Yours, truly,
CHAS. H. FOSTER.

At Fred Brown's, Washington, corner State St.

In the Boston Post, Sept. 24, 1858, the editor says:

"An extraordinary cure of Consumption has recently come to our knowledge, effected through the instrumentality of Fousel's Pabulum Vitæ; the evidence of which is in the handwriting of the subject, Mr. Wm. P. Brigham, No. 120 Albany st., in this city. It seems that for eighteen months he had been exhibiting all the usual symptoms of Consumption, and that after having had recourse to the skill of various physicians, without benefit, he had to abandon his business and be confined to his house. Hearing of Fousel's Pabulum Vitæ, and of several remarkable cures effected by it, in cases as desperate as his own, he concluded to try it as a forlorn hope. The result has been most happy—he has now entirely recovered, and is engaged in his usual pursuits. It is such well authenticated cases as this that we take pleasure in laying before our readers, since, by so doing, many valuable lives may be saved, and much good effected.

It is sold at the low price of 50 cents, and $1 00 per bottle, thus placing it within the reach of all classes. F. J. LAFORME, sole Agent, Boston. M. S. BURR & CO., General Agents, No. 36 Tremont street, Museum Building, Boston, and for sale by all druggists. Circulars with testimonials of its efficacy can be had of the Agents nov7ly is a constitutional disease, a corruption of the blood, by which this fluid becomes vitiated, weak and poor. Being in the circulation it pervades the whole body, and may burst out in disease on any part of it. No organ is free from its attacks, nor is there one which it may not destroy. The scrofulous taint is variously caused by mercurial disease, low living, disordered or unhealthy food, impure air, filth and filthy habits, the depressing vices, and, above all, by the venereal infection. Whatever be its origin, it is hereditary in the constitution, descending "from parents to children unto the third and fourth generation;" indeed, it seems to be the rod of him who says, "I will visit the iniquities of the fathers upon their children.

Its effects commence by deposition from the blood of corrupt or ulcerous matter, which, in the lungs, liver, and internal organs, is termed tubercles; in the glands, swellings; and on the surface, eruptions or sores. This foul corruption, which genders in the blood, depresses the energies of life, so that scrofulous constitutions not only suffer from scrofulous complaints, but they have far less power to withstand the attacks of other diseases; consequently vast numbers perish by disorders which, although not scrofulous in their nature, are still rendered fatal by this taint in the system. Most of the consumption which decimates the human family has its origin directly in this scrofulous contamination; and many destructive diseases of the liver, kidneys, brain, and, indeed all of the organs, arise from or are aggravated by the same cause.

One quarter of all our people are scrofulous;—their persons are invaded by this lurking infection, and their health is undermined by it. To cleanse it from the system we must remove the blood by an alterative medicine, and invigorate it by healthy food and exercise. Such a medicine we supply in the most effectual remedy which the medical skill of our times can devise for this everywhere prevailing and fatal malady. It is compiled from the most active remedials that have been discovered for the expurgation of this foul disorder from the blood, and the rescue of the system from its destructive consequences. Hence it should be employed for the cure of not only scrofula, but also those other affections which arise from it, such as

Compound Extract of Sarsaparilla,

ERUPTIONS AND ERUPTIVE DISEASES, ULCERS, PIMPLES, BLOTCHES, TUMORS, SALT RHEUM, SCALD HEAD, SYPHILIS AND SYPHILITIC AFFECTIONS, MERCURIAL DISEASE, DROPSY, NEURALGIA OR TIC DOULOUREUX, DEBILITY, DYSPEPSIA AND INDIGESTION, ERYSIPELAS, ROSE OR ST. ANTHONY'S FIRE, and indeed the whole class of complaints arising from IMPURITY OF THE BLOOD. The popular belief in "impurity of the blood" is founded on truth, for scrofula is a degeneration of the blood. The particular purpose and virtue of this Sarsaparilla is to purify and regenerate this vital fluid, without which sound health is impossible in contaminated constitutions.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills,

FOR ALL THE PURPOSES OF A FAMILY PHYSIC, are so composed that disease within the range of their action can rarely withstand or evade them. Their penetrating properties search and cleanse, and invigorate every portion of the human organism, correcting its diseased action, and restoring its healthy vitalities. As a consequence of these properties, the invalid who is bowed down with pain or physical debility is astonished to find his health or energy restored by a remedy at once so simple and inviting.

Not only do they cure the every-day complaints of every body, but also many formidable and dangerous diseases. The agent below named is pleased to furnish gratis my American Almanac, containing certificates of their cures and directions for their use in the following complaints: Costiveness, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Dysentery, Foul Stomach, Erysipelas, Headache, Piles, Rheumatism, Eruptions and Skin Diseases, Liver Complaint, Dropsy, Tetter, Tumors and Salt Rheum, Worms, Gout, Neuralgia, as a dinner Pill, and for Purifying the Blood.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral

COUGHS, COLDS, INFLUENZA, HOARSENESS, CROUP, BRONCHITIS, INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION, and for the relief of Consumptive Patients in advanced stages of the disease.

So wide is the field of its usefulness and so numerous are the cases of its cures, that almost every section of country abounds in persons publicly known, who have been restored from alarming and even desperate diseases of the lungs by its use. When once tried, its superiority over every other medicine of its kind is too apparent to escape observation, and where its virtues are known, the public no longer hesitate what antidote to employ for the distressing and dangerous affections of the pulmonary organs that are incident to our climate. While many inferior remedies thru-t upon the community have failed and been discarded, this has gained friends by every trial, conferred benefits on the afflicted they can never forget, and produced cures too numerous and too remarkable to be forgotten.

THE ONLY PREPARATION
WORTHY OF
Universal Confidence and Patronage.

FOR STATESMEN, JUDGES, CLERGYMEN.

Ladies and Gentlemen, in all parts of the world testify to the efficacy of Prof. O. J. Wood's Hair Restorative, and gentlemen of the Frees are unanimous in its praise. A few testimonials only can be here given; see circular for more, and it will be impossible for you to doubt.

47 Wall Street, New York, Dec. 20, 1858.

GENTLEMEN:—Your note of the 15th inst., has been received, saying that you had heard that I had been benefitted by the use of Wood's Hair Restorative, and requesting my certificate of the fact if I had no objection to give it.

I award it to you cheerfully, because I think it due. My age is about 50 years; the color of my hair auburn, and inclined to curl. Some five or six years since it began to turn gray, and the scalp on the crown of my head to lose its sensibility and dandruff to form upon it. Each of these disagreeabilities increased with time, and about four months since a fourth was added to them, by hair falling off the top of my head and threatening to make me bald.

In this unpleasant predicament, I was induced to try Wood's Hair Restorative, mainly to arrest the falling off of my hair, for I had really no expectation that gray hair could ever be restored to its original color except from dyes. I was, however, greatly surprised to find after the use of two bottles only, that not only was the falling off arrested, but the color was restored to the gray hairs and sensibility to the scalp, and dandruff ceased to form on my head, very much to the gratification of my wife, at whose solicitation I was induced to try it.

For this, among the many obligations I owe to her sex, I strongly recommend all husbands who value the admiration of their wives to profit by my example, and use it if growing gray or getting bald. Very Respectfully,
BENJ. A. LAVENDER.

To O. J. Wood & Co., 444 Broadway, N. Y.

Siamaston, Ala., July 20th, 1859.

To Prof. O. J. Wood: Dear Sir: Your "Hair Restorative" has done my hair so much good since I commenced the use of it, that I wish to make known to the PUBLIC its effects on the hair, which are great. A man or woman may be nearly deprived of hair, and by a resort to your "Hair Restorative," the hair will return more beautiful than ever; at least this is my experience. Believe it all! Yours truly,
WM. H. KENEDY.

P. S.—You can publish the above if you like.—By publishing in our Southern papers you will get more patronage south. I see several of your certificates in the Mobile Mercury, a strong Southern paper. W. H. K.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.

Professor O. J. Wood:—Dear Sir:—Having had the misfortune to lose the best portion of my hair, from the effects of the yellow fever, in New Orleans in 1861, I was induced to make a trial of your preparation, and found it to be the very thing needed. My hair is now thick and glossy, and no words can express my obligations to you in giving to the afflicted such a treasure.
FINLEY JOHNSON.

The Restorative is put up in bottles of three sizes, viz: large, medium, and small; the small holds half a pint, and retails for one dollar per bottle; the medium holds at least twenty per cent. more in proportion than the small, retails for two dollars per bottle; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent. more in proportion, and retails for $3 a bottle.

rice Lester such a shock that he nearly fell to the earth. He grew deadly pale, his frame quivered convulsively.

"What's the matter?" said Wolfgang. "You don't seem to have much strength left!—Bring him along boys, where we can doctor him."

The sinister glance which accompanied this last remark, and the peculiar emphasis laid upon the word "doctor" struck a chill to our hero's heart. But he could not give his own safety much thought while he was partly forced and partly carried along after Wolfgang, who strode rapidly on for nearly half an hour. He could think only of the White Fawn that had been wrecked on that coast, and of his beloved Carrie who had, perhaps, in company with those same men, trod the same path he was now treading. What had been her fate? Had she been murdered by these wretches, or reserved for some more deplorable doom? Those thoughts filled him with unutterable agony.

Wolfgang had now drawn near the water's edge; and soon coming to the mouth of a cave he entered it, followed by the three ruffians who had charge of our hero. The bottom of the cave sloped upward from its entrance for some distance, and then became almost level. The captive (for such Maurice Lester now felt himself to be) frequently hit his feet against what he thought, with a chill of horror, were human bones strewn around the cavern, but he could not clearly make them out in the dim light. He also noticed that the bottom of the cave was very wet, as though it had recently been covered with water. The wrecker chieftain stopped, at last, near what seemed the end of the cave, and making a sign to his followers, they clapped manacles on the wrists and ankles of Maurice before he had time to note their intention.

"Now, Captain Lester," said Wolfgang, "you must remain in this place for a short season. You are perfectly safe here.—Silence! Say not a word! If you attempt to leave this spot, you will be slain the moment you set foot outside the cave."

Thus speaking, the chieftan and his followers silently but rapidly withdrew, leaving Maurice nearly stupefied with astonishment. As they passed from the mouth of the cave, their feet were wet by the rising waves. The tide was fast coming in.

After a short time, the captive looked about him with eyes somewhat accustomed to the dim light, and became satisfied that what he had supposed to be human bones were really such. There were many of them. And moving among them were huge rats, seeking for prey. The top of the cavern, in some places, was but a few feet above his head, and in one place he discovered a small aperture, through which a faint light struggled, and on going underneath it, he thought he smelt the odor of vegetation and flowers.

On turning, from the contemplation of this aperture, towards the mouth of the cave, Captain Lester observed, with alarm, that the water was creeping up the sloping bottom. What if it should fill the cavern? Ah! now he could account for the presence there of human bones! They were the sad memorials of other hapless prisoners who had been left in that cave to perish by drowning!

Slowly, but surely the waters crept along. The vermin fled before them to the elevated spot on which Maurice stood. Slowly following, the incoming water at length reached his feet!

At the end of the cave, within a few feet of the wall, and underneath the aperture before spoken of was a large piece of rock, some four feet high that might have fallen from above. To this Maurice hastened as quickly as his manacles would permit. After some exertion he succeeded in climbing to the top of it, and stood erect, his head within a few inches of the roof of the cavern. But he was not allowed to occupy this retreat alone.—As the water began to circle round its base, the rats also sought refuge on it in great numbers, and in vain did Maurice try to dislodge them with his manacled feet.

Soon (as it seemed to the captive) the water came dipping over the top of the rock. He felt its moisture upon his feet. And still it rose—slowly but relentlessly it rose higher—higher; and as it rose, the rats climbed up his limbs for safety. It was in vain that he brushed them off with his fettered hands. They instantly returned. They clambered up his back—to his shoulders—over the back of his neck—to the crown of his head; their clammy bodies striking a chill to his very heart

And still higher the waters rose, and more thickly the foul vermin clustered upon the devoted captive's shoulders and head, as their only places of safety. Driven frantic at last by the horrors of his situation, he was about to plung into the surging tide and seek a watery grave when his attention was arrested by the tread of rapid footsteps near the aperture above his head, and the sound of a harsh masculine voice, followed by a noise as of a struggle, and a piercing shriek which thrilled Maurice Lester to the very soul. He could not be mistaken; it was CARRIE'S voice. Again he heard it, but now in tones of entreaty. Oh, it was her voice. She was not dead! She lived and was near him! Gathering all his strength he shouted, "Carrie! Carrie! CARRIE!"

A dead silence followed, broken only by the fearful murmers of the still rising waters, and the splash of the rats as they fell from the wretched captive's head and shoulders, only to return again in their fierce struggles for a perch of safety from the advancing tide, which had now nearly reached our hero's shoulders.

The above is all of this story that will be published in our columns. We give this as a sample. The continuation of it from where it leaves off here can be found only in the New York Ledger, the great family paper, to which the most popular writers in the country contribute, and which is for sale at all the stores throughout the city and country, where papers are sold.

Remember and ask for the New York Ledger of January 7, and in it you will find the continuation of the story from where it leaves off here. If you cannot get a copy at any book store, the publisher of the Ledger will mail you a copy if you will send him five cents in a letter.

The Ledger is mailed to subscribers at $2 a year, or two copies for $3. Address your letters to Robert Bonner, publisher, 48 Ann street, New York.—It is the handsomest and best family paper in the country, elegantly illustrated, and characterised by a high moral tone. Its present circulation is over four hundred thousand copies, which is the best evidence we can give of its merits.

ENTERPRISE IN THE BOOK TRADE.—The Boston correspondent of the Brattleboro' Phœnix pays the following deserved compliment to one of the publishing houses of that city.

Boston has one prominent house, whose uncommon enterprise and consequent success is remarkably obvious. No one need hardly be told we refer to Messrs. Brown, Taggard & Chase, who have done for Cornhill of Boston what Messrs. Smith & Elder, the publishers of Thackery's new Serial, have done for the Cornhill of London. It is not quite a year since they engaged in the miscellaneous publishing business, in addition to their half-million of jobbing business, and yet their list embraces such works as Mrs. Strickland's Queens of England in several volumes, Margaret Fuller's works, &c. They intend to mark somewhat of a speciality of the issue of beautiful Juvenile works; and having laid a good foundation for the same by publishing Rollo's Tour in Europe in ten volumes and My Uncle Toby's Library in twelve volumes they will now add to it by publishing in a few days three new Juveniles, which the careful and judicious parent desirous of placing in the hands of a child that only which will readily instruct and benefit while it amuses, will remember to select during the coming Holidays.

[The works above referred to are for sale by Mr. Shores.]

STOVES, TIN WARE, &c.,

Which he offers for sale at wholesale and retail, at very low prices. He has a great variety of the best and most popular Stoves, among which are:

1. The Stewart Cook Stove, with the latest improvements. This is an air-tight Cook Stove, for Wood or Coal; it has moveable coverings, which can confine the heat in the stove, or let it out into the room; has a reservoir of hot water 10 or 20 gallons, and a tin closet beneath;—a top cover, which is a great institution for baking, and will keep a coal fire all night; it has a Dutch Oven for roasting in front of the Stove;—and it is every way a most convenient and durable Stove. There are 4 sizes.

The following recommendation of Stewart's Stove, is from an eminent engineer, and must be satisfactory to all who wish to understand the value of this excellent Stove:

Portsmouth, N. H., Nov. 5, 1859.

Mr. Blaisdell:—Seven years ago I moved to this city, and sold, before I came, a "Stewart's Air Tight Cooking Stove," which I had used about five years. During that time no repairs or expense had been made upon it. Since I have been here I have tried the various Cooking Stoves in use, and I think for economy and durability the "Stewart" excels them all. I wish you would take away the Stove I now have from my house, and set up one of Stewart's as soon as you can. Your ob't servant,

B. F. CHANDLER.

2. Boston & Maine Cook Stove;

BLOOD FOOD.

Dr. Bronson, having been so far reduced by consumption, as to be considered beyond all hope of recovery by the most eminent of the medical profession, and also by himself—a regular physician of twenty years' practice—as a last resort, conceived the idea of ANALYZING THE BLOOD, and applying the subject of phisiology to the more immediate connection, and effect of the state of the blood upon the health and system. The result has been the production of this "BLOOD FOOD," from the use of which, Dr. Bronson was restored to perfect health. Within six months after its introduction, over 2000 consumptives were effectually cured by it. If you have any complaints of a consumptive tendency, Cough, Cold, Headache, Palpitation of the Heart, Loss of Appetite, or Pain in the Side, lose no time in procuring a bottle of the "BLOOD FOOD." If you are suffering from Nervous Debility your sleep is broken and disturbed, if your Spirits are depressed or your organs relaxed, you will find in this an unfailing remedy, by commencing with ten drops. If your Liver is torpid or diseased in any manner whatever, one or two bottles will be sure to invigorate, and bring it into lively and healthful action. In the most inveterate cases of Dyspepsia, the patient can here find the most efficient and grateful relief.
